HEAVY SHOWER.

Brady Received a Soaker Yesterday Afternoon.

Brady received a heavy shower yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, the rain falling in sheets for a time. While the rain lasted less than an hour, so rapidly did the water fall that .45 inches was recorded by the bank rain gauge. The rain was not very extensive, however, and seems to have followed a path along Brady creek extending on out into the West Sweden neighborhood. Brownwood, Melvin, Meard and Hext report slight showers.

NEW SCHOOL BOOKS TO BE USED THIS YEAR.

Act of State Legislature Permits Adoption of New Text Books Every Six Years.

Supt. W. L. Hughes advises that the Brady public schools will re-open Monday, September 1st. New text books will be used this year, the act passed by the state legislature at a special session in 1911 permitting of the adoption of new text books every six years. Prior to that time new text books could be adopted every five years. The selection of new text books is made by the state board of education.

As heretofore announced the high school department will be separated from the grade schools and will be placed in the North Ward building, while the grade school will be held at the Central building. The action of the board in making the change is finding great favor among the pupils, especially those of the high school, who find in the new order of things a greater significance in the promotion from the grades to the high school.

FELL 25 FEET.

Dallas Holmes Badly Bruised By Fall From Pole.

Last Saturday afternoon Dallas Holmes, an employe of the Brady Water and Light Co., fell from a 25-foot pole near the Frisco hotel, suffering severe bruises and painful internal injuries. Holmes was roughing the top of the pole for the placing of the cross arms when his safety belt broke and he was pitched head foremost to the ground. Fortunately he alighted on his shoulder, which doubtless avoided more serious consequences. His calls for help brought no answer, and he finally managed to roll into the shade of a wagon where he lay until he could recover from the fall sufficiently to get on his feet and seek assistance.

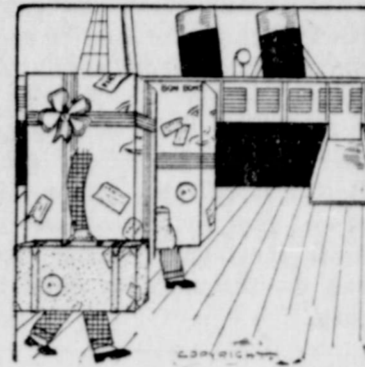

His shoulder is one solid bruise, and he is suffering considerable pain, but it is thought he will have fully recovered within a week or two.

Dan Hurd, who was one of a party of East Sweden folks to visit kinfolks in Williamson and Travis counties the past few weeks, returned last week better pleased than ever with McCulloch. He reports crops there the worst known in years, cotton being very small and almost barren, while it is so dry there that cracks have appeared in the ground big enough for a horse to step in. The farmers are kept busy running drags over the ground to fill up the cracks in the earth. Mr. Hurd says they can have their $100 per acre land—he would not give 100 acres of McCulloch county for 600 acres of theirs.

Builders' hardware. O. D. Mann & Sons. Manager B. A. Hallum of the Brady Auto Co. is feeling so good over McCulloch county's prospects that he has placed an order for a car load of 1914 model Buicks. He expects shipment about the first of September.

MCCULLOCH BEST OF ALL.

West Texas, New Mexico, Arizona Are Bleak.

Sheriff J. C. Wall returned Monday morning from Duncan, Ariz., where he had gone after George Liverman, who is wanted here on an indictment for cattle theft returned by the last grand jury. Sheriff Wall reports Liverman as a most exemplary prisoner, having given him absolutely no trouble whatever, and accompanying him willingly enough. Upon his arrival here bond in the sum of $1,000 had already been made for Liverman, and he was released. The theft is alleged to have occurred in the Voca country.

Sheriff Wall says the long trip of over 1,000 miles is one that he will long remember, and he gives a graphic description of the dryness and desolation through which he passed. As far as Baird he found fairly good crops, but beyond that everything was terribly dry, both in New Mexico and Arizona. Rain was had in only a few spots. Cotton was absolutely ruined, and feed crops were fearfully short—so much so, in fact, that all the cattle had been shipped out of the country. Mr. Wall says he never saw such a bleak country—one could ride all day long and never see a tree. In this desert wilderness he came across a few oases along the Rio Grande and on the Gila river where irrigation was extensively done. But no where did he see better looking country than right here in McCulloch and he is convinced that this section is best of all.

El Paso, he says, is a wonderful city, and is growing remarkably. The mountains are being cut away and splendid homes are rearing their roofs where only mountain peaks pierced the skyline before. He wanted to cross over into Old Mexico, but the officers dissuaded him, stating that it was very unsafe for an American to be found in Juarez and that he stood a good chance of being cast into a dungeon, with little hope of ever again seeing the light of day. One of the officers said it had been many a month since he had been across the Rio Grande. All up and down the border the U. S. soldiers were lined. A big federal force was said to be marching on Juarez at the time.

M. Simon to Open Store in Coleman.

M. Simon, formerly of Brady, closed a contract with Wal Taylor for his building, which is located first door south of Burk's Grocery, last Monday and will open up a first-class dry goods store, handling a general line of goods. In conversation with Mr. Simon he said that his goods were now being shipped from the East and he anticipated opening about August 17th. His wife and help are now in New York state and are expected in Coleman soon to take up their permanent abode. We believe we voice the general sentiment of Coleman in giving Mr. Simon a cordial welcome.—Coleman Herald.

THIS FROM AUSTIN.

A representative of the Austin Statesman was in town last Saturday, and while talking to one of our citizens, he crumpled up a paper he held in his hand and then looked about him for some place to throw it down. After looking all around him, he asked to be directed to a waste can remarking: "This is too clean a town to throw paper on the street."

A prettier compliment could not have been paid the town - and that is what the citizen thought also, so he thanked him kindly, while his chest expanded a full six inches with pride.

There is nothing so contagious as good example—and the good example set by the leaders in Brady's clean up move has resulted in a campaign that has reached from one end of the city to the other. Vacant lots that have never before known the rake and the hoe have had their acquaintance scraped, and in the effort the trash accumulation of years has given way to a tidy appearance that is inspiring.

True, Brady has a few sloths and dullards, but let us be thankful they are but few. And by the time our city officers get through with them their kind will be fewer—for Brady is determined to be the "Spotless Town," and that determination is backed by the will and influence of her leading citizens and citizenesses.

NEW ORDINANCE.

The city council has named a committee to draft an ordinance prohibiting the scattering of circulars about on the streets, as well as the indiscriminate "adorning" of barns and buildings with banners and cloth signs. It is a step in the right direction—another step city-ward. So long as paper is allowed to be thrown down on the streets and accumulate in the street and fence corners, just so long will a city be barred from a place among the "clean" cities, and so long as her buildings and barns are permitted to flaunt ragged and weather-beaten signs, just so long will civic pride remain a dead number.

If a merchant or a firm or an individual want to acquaint the people of the community with some fact or some object, the newspaper is the proper medium for the purpose. A reputable newspaper is seldom, if ever, seen thrown down on the street or accumulating trash in the gutters—its place is at the fireside, where it imparts its message to those who would profit thereby and whose attention the merchant or firm or individual most desires.

Down with the gutter snipe methods of advertising and long live legitimate, honorable and reliable newspaper advertising.

CAUSE SUFFICIENT.

Ask the man who has been in swer's easy—McCulloch county

SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT.

$7.00 for Each Child—More Than Last Year.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 11.—The school apportionment for the scholastic year beginning September 1, 1913, was today fixed by the State Board of Education at $7 per capita, which is 15c more than the per capita apportionment last year. Superintendent of Public Instruction F. M.
Bralley estimated that the scholastics for the coming year would number 1,150,000, which would make a fund of $8,050,000 to be apportioned. The age of a scholastic ranges from 7 years to 17 years.

TRAGEDY IN BROWNWOOD.

Clarence E. Cohen Dead, Miss Daisy Clingman Wounded.

A tragedy in which all the people of Brownwood feel a deep interest was enacted Friday morning at 9:30 when Clarence E. Cohen, with a .38 calibre automatic pistol, wounded Miss Daisy Clingman in the arm and then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a wound from which he died at 12:08 o'clock.
The shooting took place at the Clingman home on Fisk avenue.

According to a statement made by relatives of the young lady, Cohen called at her home this morning, and after talking with Miss Clingman for a short while, asked her to loan him a book or magazine. She went from the gallery into the east front room of the house to get the book, and Cohen followed her. Without her knowledge of his presence he fired two shots at her, a bullet breaking the bone of her upper right arm. He then placed the weapon against his head, just over the right ear, and fired, the bullet lodging over the left eye. Cohen never regained consciousness, and died without speaking. Miss Cling-man is resting very well, and will suffer no serious effects from her wound.

The motive for the deed is rather vague, but it is supposed that Cohen was temporarily insane because of Miss Cling-man's refusal to marry him when he called at her home last night. Friends with whom he talked this morning say he was cool and collected, but despondent. Fragments of a note, written on the back of an envelope, have been found on the floor of his room, the note evidently addressed to his mother, Mrs. Kate Cohen, 1421 Bennett Ave., Dallas, and stating that "this is the only way out." A sealed letter to his mother has also been found, but its contents are unknown. His body will be shipped tonight to Blooming Grove for burial. He was 21 years old.

Clarence E. Cohen was well known and well liked by a large number of Brownwood people.
He has been employed by the West Texas Telephone Co. as assistant auditor for the past three years, and his work has been far above the average. He was received in the best society of the city, and was regarded as a young man with a brilliant future. His tragic death comes as a shock to the entire citizenship of the city, bringing sadness to the hearts of all who knew him.—Brownwood Bulettin.

News of the tragedy occasioned
a shock among the Brady friends of the young couple, both of whom were well known here. Miss Clingman is a niece of M. L. Stallings of this city, and has visited here upon a number of occasions, her latest visit having been in the spring. Mr.
Cohen also visited here a number of times, his latest visit being shortly before the first of the month when he, as auditor for the West Texas Telephone Co., checked out Manager H. W.
Day. He was a jolly, care-free young man, and rated as one of the best office men in Brownwood. Drinking, it is said, led to his refusal by Miss Clingman.

Latest reports from the bedside of Miss Clingman are that she is healing nicely, and that while still suffering from the nervous shock, she is resting easily and will soon be on the high road to recovery.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Blue cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

HAPPY DOC HOLLAND.
And World-Famous Alferettas the Best Ever.

The Airdome has an attraction this week that is seldom, if ever, to be seen at a moving picture show—a combination of mirth, vaudeville stunts and trapeze and aerial work that is without a peer upon the vaudeville stage today. Happy Doc Holland is the best destroyer of sorrow ever in Brady, and the comedy sketches of the company are a guarantee against the blues. In the Alferettas is to be seen a darling couple of aerial artists who perform feats never before attempted, and who hold the audience breathless. Little Master George is about as cute a juvenile artist as can be found and has already won a firm place in the favor of show-goers.
The company has the feature attraction of the San Saba fair and "made good" with the big crowds there. Likewise they are "making good" here. Their show is clean, new and highly entertaining, and during their week's stay here they change their program each night. In addition to the show, the regular program of moving pictures is had. Consequently, if you want the biggest show you ever had for your money, don't fail to see this week.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."
"Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously."
"Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."
"If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer."
"For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year."
"Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength."
"Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it."

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Benham left Saturday night for St. Louis, where they will buy their fall stocks of dress goods and millinery. They expect to be at market some two or three weeks.

Mrs. Mary Jones, accompanied by her son, Duke, left on Sunday night's train for Dallas to buy her fall millinery. Mrs. Jones will re-open her millinery store in Eden about the 15th of September.

Gordon Thomas is here from Dallas for a visit with friends. Gordon was formerly manager of Swift & Co.'s local house, and has many friends and acquaintances here, all of whom are glad to see him.

Rev. Abner Hanson reports a good yield from his maize which he has been having threshed the past week. The maize turned out 25 to 30 bushels per acre, which was a pleasant surprise to Mr. Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Spiller returned yesterday morning from Duncan, Ariz., having found the country too dry, and will again bask in the smiles of prosperous McCulloch county. G. A., Jr., is also returning, being on his way with a car of horses.

M. P. (Bully) Wegner writes from Temple confirming our opinion that all "wise" men read The Standard, and he claims to be one of the original bunch of wise ones. For this and other valuable considerations he gets to read that great and glorious sheet.

A letter from R. A. Rutherford, Jr., states that things were getting so warm at Brownsville that he had to send his folks away for safety. The Mexican revolution is proving a serious menace to the American residents along the border and business is demoralized and almost at a standstill.

The many friends of the family will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Mayo is getting along splendidly since the operation.

J. C. Irwin returned last Thursday from a visit of several weeks with home folks at Sulphur Springs. Crops are looking very good in Hopkins county according to Mr. Irwin, although a little dry at present. They made good corn and feed there. McCulloch county crops look better, however, than anything he saw between here and Fort Worth and between Fort Worth and Greenville, and in some places along the route the crops were almost ruined by the dry weather.

Mrs. John Mayse and children returned yesterday morning from a visit of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. J. Weeks, at Corsicana. They were accompanied by Mr. Weeks, who expects to remain here through the fall. Mr. Weeks reports having enjoyed a very good restaurant business at Corsicana since moving there from Brady, but says the short crops of the past few years have hurt his business as well as others. Mrs. Weeks will continue in charge of the restaurant during Mr. Weeks' stay here.

O. L. McShan returned the latter part of last week from Pecos where he had been on a prospecting trip. He reports that country having its advantages and disadvantages, the former consisting mainly of an abundance of artesian water to be found on every street corner and obtainable at a comparatively shallow depth. On the other hand, the gyp soil and the scrubby brush are anything but inviting to the eye. Pecos is a compactly built little city of about 2,000 population, and he reports both D. W. Bozeman and

CALLAN CONGOCTIONS FOR MAGNIFICENT MENARD

From the Messenger.

Don't clean up.

June Coopender was over from Brady this week.

Joe Callan was down this week drawing $3 a day for services worth $1.25.

Mrs. Bauhof of Brady visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nance, this week.

There has been so much complaint about our blank page that we have dropped it out.

The supreme worthlessness of this week's Messenger will be surpassed next week.

Judd Lewis has found a man who claims he has invented daylight. That is nothing—we have been burning it for many years.

Don't bet too much that this will be the poorest paper ever published. Wait until you see the next issue.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed by creditors of E. B. Hollinger, asking that he be adjudged a bankrupt.

A fashion note says that women's skirts will be smaller than ever this coming season. We suppose they are going to wear them on the inside.

Our faithful old Lost mine has been found again. We not only raise fine crops and fine stock to feed and clothe the world, but we can furnish them money to spend.

In Del Rio they call the thing a dog wags his "subsequent apertenance," and the Herald editor even refers to the four supports of his two dollar dining table as "limbs."

President Wilson drinks orange juice for breakfast, but some stubborn folks will continue to drink coffee until they are ninety or a hundred years old and then suddenly discover that it is weakening them.

The Del Rio Herald says that the tango garter, whatever that is, has not made its way into the West, but that he is looking for it. When we turn our eyes from the stars we never look lower than the housetops for fear of seeing a slit skirt.

Evelyn Thaw is a bankrupt now in a financial way. In this she will be able to get a discharge from the federal court, but the court of society is very slow about giving a discharge to one who permits her moral affairs to run along in a haphazard way.

George Bailey says a biblical scholar—probably himself—has discovered that the fruit Eve ate in the Garden of Eden was a quince, and not an apple. When bible students finally get through with the good book there will be nothing left but the price mark and the birth register.

Harry Johnson of the Houston Post has found an exchange that wants someone to invent a process for making cloth out of glass. Of course he means colored glass, but even at that it would not be well. Evil men, in places like Houston, would make a practice of scattering banana hides, as they call them in Brady, on the sidewalks.

State Press says "the women always appreciate the local paper more than the men do." Of course this would be true if State Press were the editor, but in our case the appreciation is six of one and half a dozen of the other. The men can use it to wrap their underwear in when they go to the swimmin' hole on Saturday evenings, and the ladies find it useful, owing to the size, as a pattern for the principal portion of the little chaps' wardrobe.

Motion pictures may injure the eyes, but we are a little suspicious about every report of this kind. We can remember a time years ago when we were led to believe that watermelons were stuffed full of chills and fever until the price got down to a nickel a piece. Then the chills and fever suddenly left them. It is surprising the stories people will invent in an attempt to prevent the children from spending more in a week than they can earn in a month.

The Houston Post publishes a recipe for "Virginia Waffles." We hope our wife doesn't see it. We have been eating Virginia Fried Eggs, Virginia Hash, Virginia Fried Bacon and Virginia Boiled Spuds for nine years, and we'd like to switch from the Virginia diet, just for the novelty of the thing. This is one trouble with anybody who happens to be born in Virginia: They contend that sugar was sweeter there, that the water was wetter, and we suppose the limburger cheese smelt worse.

A Del Rio subscriber asks: "Are you related to Austin Callan, editor of the Herald, published at this place?" He frequently makes the claim that we are, when he is trying to borrow money, but we have never conceded such a calamity. We are descended from an old Puritan family, retaining all the piety that characterized the stock, while he doesn't deny being an Irishman, and claims that an ancestor of his once leaned against a lamp post that O'Connell hitched his horse to on the following day.

EDEN ECHOES

From Eden Echo:

The Slaughter case will be tried on the second Monday in September.

B. A. Dial has purchased a Ford automobile from Wm. Connolly & Co. of Brady and is now enjoying the pleasures of motoring.

J. A. Wilhelm and family came in from Pontotoc Tuesday and will make Eden their home. Mr. Wilhelm will have charge of the Echo after the first of September.

J. F. Lloyd informed us that on Tuesday of this week he killed four wolves. They were about half grown and Mr. Lloyd's bull dog caught them. The scalps of the wolves are worth $5.00 each, so Mr. Lloyd made pretty good money for an hour or so's sport.

Lost His Trousers.

Gene Townsend was the victim of a rather embarrassing incident while attending the San Saba fair last week. Unable to secure rooms at the hotel, Townsend and some companions camped out in the band stand, and while he was dreaming of ball games and races and other fair objects, some heartless thief made a get-away with his only pair of trousers. When Townsend awoke he found himself in dishabille—also in a predicament. Clad in tears, and with a coat in lieu of the lost trousers, Townsend made a search of the grounds for a friend with an extra pair—of trousers—and finding both, the world to him gained much of its respectability and lost many of its stares.

LIVE LOCAL LINEUPS IN RUSTLING ROCKELLE

From the Record.

Miss Lorena Neal visited in Brady Saturday.

Miss Hazel Townsend of Brady visited friends here this week.

Will Cole, John Renfro, Clem Hoover, Virge Meadows, Alvin Neal, Walter Burk and Frank Copeland swooped down upon Brady Monday.

Joe Broyles was here the first of the week from Pontotoc visiting his brother and family. He says the Pontotoc country has good crops, cotton will yield about 3-4 bales and corn about 35 bushels to the acre, he thinks.

Grandpa Willis Simpson, who, in company with his wife, accompanied their son, Jeff, home last week from East Texas for a few days' visit, was taken suddenly ill with paralysis of the bowels, and, according to latest reports, he is very low and his chances for recovery are very uncertain.

E. E. Coffey, who is known as the most progressive and industrious farmer in the Sweden settlement, sold the first bale of cotton here of the season today. A. L. Williamson ginned and wrapped it free of charge and started the premium list by subscribing a dollar. In all, the premium list subscribed by the business men amounted to $16.30. The bale weighed 504 pounds and sold at 12.30, the Sellman Mercantile Co. making the purchase.

Last Sunday morning Mrs. N. P. Burton and children, Miss Delpha, Edward and little Myrtle, had started out to the country to visit friends when the horse which they were driving to the buggy became frightened at the sudden raising of a parascal by the little girl, making a sudden lurch, and Edward, who was standing on the hind axle, grabbed for the lines, but in doing so, lost his footing and fell from the buggy, spraining his ankle slightly. The horse then continued to charge with the buggy and other occupants for some little distance when, at a sudden swerve, Mrs. Burton and the girls were thrown out near the Williamson home in the southern part of town. Mrs. Burton sustained the breaking of two ribs and a dislocated shoulder, while Miss Delpha had her wrist broken and the little girl being considerably bruised about her face and arms.

Scratching for Fun.

We would have great sympathy for those who have to scratch continually, if there wasn't a remedy for the trouble, but as Hunt's Cure is guaranteed to cure or money refunded, it would seem that those who scratch do so just for the fun of it. It's a special remedy for itch, eczema, tetter, ringworm, etc.

Services at Methodist Church.

Rev. I. T. Morris went to Lohn yesterday morning to assist in the meeting in progress at that place. He requests us to announce, however, that he will return Saturday night and hold services as usual at the Methodist church in Brady. Everyone is invited out to the services.

So Many People Die of Blood Poison.

A little scratch on the hand, a splinter or small abrasion of the skin is often fatal because the poisonous germs start the infection. That's where Hunt's Lightning Oil comes in handy as an application on the abrasion kills all germs which may have lodged there, thereby preventing infection and death. It pays to keep this remedy in the home, especially where there are children. All drug stores in 25c and 50c bottles.

SAN SABA SAYINGS

From the News.

R. B. McCarty and A. J. Houston were here from the Post Oak Grove school district Monday. They report that the school building tax carried in their district by a handsome majority.

In alighting from a running horse at the fair grounds Friday Ed Crawford had his right leg badly broken and crushed. He and others had been practicing for the goat roping contest. Ed had tied his goat several times. The practice had stopped. Ed galloped his horse across the infield of the racetrack just to practice getting off the horse while running. When he alighted the horse's foot struck Mr. Crawford's leg, breaking and dislocating the ankle joint. Mr. Crawford was put into a buggy and carried to his home near the school building and Dr. Rimmer was summoned. Saturday Mr. Crawford was taken to the hospital at Temple where he could get expert medical attention.

From the Star.

When asked about the report that Congressman James L. Slayden would not again be a candidate for election to Congress, Chester Harrison, his secretary, said:

"Mr. Slayden has made no public announcement of his intentions because it is much too early, but I have no hesitancy in giving it as my opinion that Mr. Slayden will seek re-election. A definite announcement from him to that effect may be confidently expected at the proper time."

MASON MAVERICKS.

From the News.

Miss Mamie Doell returned last week from attending the normal at San Marcos. After its close she visited her brother, Oscar, for a week at Yoakum.

The first bale of Mason county cotton for 1913 was ginned on Tuesday morning for Albert Cooper by the Mason Ice & Powder Co. The bale weighed 546 pounds, and was sold to Jim Lemburg at 11.25. This, with the premium, made $102.06. Mr. Cooper put eight pickers to work Monday and got out the bale late in the evening and took it to the gin, but it was not ginned until the following morning. An hour or so after the first bale was ginned S. H. Nicholson struck Mr. Crawford's leg, weighing 466 pounds and was bought by E. Lemburg & Bro. at 11.50.
