FALL OPENING SALE.

Abney & Vincent Make Strong Bid for Fall Business.

For the past nine months Mr. C. H. Vincent of the firm of Abney & Vincent has each week presented to the readers of The Standard with interesting store news of his dry goods department, and experience has taught him that his investment has proven a most profitable one. His business has shown a steady increase, new customers are being added and folks have come to realize that by a careful study of his announcements they can make purchases greatly to their own advantage.

To be successful all business transactions must be profitable to both parties concerned. So it is in this case—the people profit in that they get the latest, the best and the most up-to-date goods at money-saving prices, while the firm profits by adding new customers, making old customers better ones and thereby increasing their volume of business.

The announcement in this issue of The Standard will be of special interest. Right at the opening of the fall season Mr. Vincent announces his fall opening sale to commence on Thursday, September 18th. While it is rather unusual, for this very reason will his efforts be all the more appreciated, and the days of the sale will undoubtedly prove busy ones for the firm. Don't fail to read his announcement elsewhere in this issue. It means a big saving to you.

Mrs. John Woods Dead.

The death of Mrs. John Woods occurred last Thursday at 11:00 o'clock after an illness of about two weeks with typhoid fever. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Rev. I. T. Morris officiating, and interment was made in Brady cemetery.

The death is particularly sad as Mr. and Mrs. Wood had been married but five months to a day at the time of her death. Mrs. Woods contracted what was at first thought slow fever while on a visit with Mr. Woods to his relatives in Austin and was ill at the time of their return to Brady two weeks ago. However she appeared to be doing nicely up to a short time before her death. Her mother, Mrs. H. M. Roten came over from Santa Anna to attend her in her illness, and her father was called here by the news of her death.

Had she lived Mrs. Woods would have been 16 years old on the 16th of this month. She was a member of the Baptist church, and was highly thought of by all who knew her. Besides her husband she is survived by her parents and three small brothers

OPEN NEW PLAY HOUSE.

South Side to Have Up-to-Date Moving Picture Show.

Preparations are now in progress for the conversion of the building formerly occupied by the Brady Meat market into a modern and up-to-date play house to be known as the Gem theatre, and which will be opened on or about Monday, October 6th, by Mrs. J. W. Butcher.

The plans call for a modern and completely equipped theatre with inclined floor, comfortable opera seats, good ventilation and every comfort that can be devised. Mrs. Butcher contemplates running nothing but moving pictures, she having decided that nothing gives better satisfaction in the long run than first-class motion pictures.

A feature of the new theatre will be its $2,000 Wurlitzer electric mandolin and guitar orchestra—one of the newest and most complete automatic musical devices ever put out by this well known musical instrument firm.

The work of improvement will be rushed to early completion and plans are now being made for the opening as above announced, definite notice of which will be given later.

When Chas. Globber burst in upon us with a wild rush last Friday afternoon, we were not unduly alarmed, for Chas.' radiant features foretold good news—for somebody—and his greeting was this: "Tell 'em it's a boy!" The cause of all this excitement and joyousness arrived via the stork route last Friday morning. Mrs. Globber and the newcomer are both reported doing well.

The work must be done right and the price reasonable. H. C. Boyd, Jeweler.

It will pay you to see our goods and get prices or terms. We have some bargains to offer you. E. J. Broad.

FIRST TRADES DAY.

Monday, October 6th, An Assured Event.

Monday, October 6th, is assured one of the notable events in Brady history, that day having been officially designated as Brady's first Sales and Trades day by the Brady Commercial club, and preparations for the full and successful observation of the occasion are in the hands of Messrs. C. W. L. Schaeg, J. E. White, W. F. Dutton, Lewis Brook and Howard Broad—whom everyone will concede make a most efficient and capable committee.

The plans for the occasion call for an extensive advertising campaign, circulars and cards announcing the day being distributed far and wide, and invitations being sent forth to all parts of McCulloch and surrounding territory to come and be with us on that occasion—and bring your livestock. Coincidentally, the merchants of Brady will offer bargains in every department, which will be an added inducement in drawing the crowds.

The committee in charge of the day are enthusiastic over the event, and are pushing matters in a way that augurs complete success. Likewise, every citizen who has been approached upon the subject grows enthusiastic and speaks in words of greatest encouragement. Under these circumstances there is no chance for anything but a "howling" success. This is our prediction! Come to Brady Monday, October 6th, and watch it be fulfilled.

Going Some.

George Philander Smith, the negro porter at the Grand Central hotel, Helena, Mont., woke up before dawn the other night and thought it was time to go to work. He got up while half asleep, walked out of the fourth story window and fell seventy feet. He landed on a pile of dandelions which had been thrown into an alley by a druggist, who had been paying boys to destroy them, and little injured, found a bed in the cellar and went to sleep again.

A roomer at the hotel saw the body shoot by, and George's adventure and wonderful escape from death became the talk of the town. Among those who called was the pastor of the colored church. "I know, Brother Smith," said the preacher "your escape was due to Providence, the Lord was with you, sure."

Smith replied: "I don't know 'bout dat, parson, but ef de Lord was with me he was sure goin' some."

1913 STATE FAIR THE BEST EVER

Entertainment Feature Without Parallel in Southwest.

OFFERS RICH PRIZES

President of State Fair of Texas Tells of Aims of the Management in Their Efforts to Make the Next State Fair Greatest in History.

Dallas, Texas.—The Twenty-eighth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas will be held at Dallas Saturday, October 18, to Sunday, November 2. Plans for making the 1913 Fair an unparalleled success have one end in view, declares President J. J. Eckford, and that is to make it a source of inspiration to the entire population of the Southwest, or, in other words, a great university where the very latest developments in every line of progress and every branch of industry are to be taught and demonstrated. He said: "The richness of our premiums (more than $75,000 in value) promises to bring forth the greatest exhibition in the Fair's history. The entries in all lines are being made in such numbers as to indicate more and better exhibits than ever before. The greater the exhibits the more certain it is that the Fair will be of an educational value to its patrons.

"One must deal in millions in talking of the coming Fair. For instance, there will be a million-dollar machinery display, a million-dollar automobile display, a million-dollar livestock display, all furnishing a wonderful opportunity for placing before the world the wonderful resources and industrial possibilities of the Southwest.

"The rapidity with which Texas is becoming a great agricultural state presents an unequalled market for registered stock of all kinds. The small farmer is in the livestock business. He wants high-grade cattle, high-grade sheep and high-grade swine. The State Fair is his market, and to the Fair this fall are coming the owners of the greatest herds of livestock in the world, in every division of the livestock department a wonderful improvement will be shown. There will be unequalled displays of cattle, sheep, swine, hogs and jacks, attracted not only by the rich premiums that are offered, but by the fact that the State Fair is the market of the Southwestern farmer. A combination of this sort presents an unequalled opportunity for the exhibitor to get results, and he usually does at the State Fair.

"The machinery exhibit at the State Fair this fall will be laid out on a grander scale than ever before. Every 1912 exhibitor signed up for his space at the close of the Fair last year, and to these will be added many new ones. The machinery exhibit is one of the big educational features. The very latest in farming machinery will be demonstrated. The new automobile building which will be erected this year will give nearly two acres in floor space for the big auto show, for which dealers are already preparing.

"The removal of the bee department, culinary department, dairy, canning clubs, boys' corn clubs and other educational exhibits to the Coliseum in the space made available by the provisions made for the automobile building will give increased space in the Agricultural Building for county exhibits and displays of farm and mill products. The county exhibits will be more numerous and more varied in their display than at any time in history, and will more fittingly portray to visitors from other states the unequalled agricultural possibilities of Texas.

"Thousands of dollars are offered this year for work in which women and children are interested. This does not include the prizes in the poultry department, in which women are probably as much interested as men. The prizes in the ladies' textile department are $1,100, culinary $300, apiarian $500, horticultural $100, dairy $350, and girls' bug clubs $300, boys' corn clubs $500, canned fruits and vegetables $200, farm and mill $500."

ABLAZE WITH ELECTRICITY.
Splendid Illumination Facilities Provided For State Fair of Texas.

Dallas, Texas.—In honor of the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas, which begins at Dallas Saturday, Oct. 18, and continues up to and including Sunday, Nov. 2, Fair Park will be illuminated on the grandest scale in history. All of the main buildings will be outlined with strings of incandescents. The grand stand, the livestock building and the cafe and restaurant buildings, which were illuminated last year, will be ablaze with electricity. Hundreds of new arc lights have been set out this year and there will not be a dark spot to be found in the entire Fair grounds. Two miles of new sidewalks have been constructed. Visitors can visit the livestock department, dog show, poultry show, dairy division and the state fish hatcheries without setting off a paved street or sidewalk.

EXHIBIT AT STATE FAIR.
University of Texas and A. and M. College Will Be Represented.

Dallas, Texas.—State institutions will be largely represented at the 1913 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, Oct. 18, and closes Sunday, Nov. 2. Exhibits of the Agricultural and Mechanical college and the University of Texas will lead in extent and in interest. The faculty of the A. and M. college is taking great interest in the boys' corn club and the girls' canning club work, in the competitive butter contest in the dairy division and in judging contests in the livestock department. The department of extension of the University of Texas will have a splendid exhibit under the direction of A. Caswell Ellis, superintendent of the department.

COTTON WILL BE KING.

Dallas, Texas.—Cotton will again be king in the agricultural department of the State Fair of Texas at Dallas this fall. The twenty-eighth annual meeting will be held Saturday, October 18, to Sunday, November 2. Competition for the premiums offered by the management will be exceedingly keen as good crops this year assure a much larger number of individual exhibitors. Premiums offered this year by the management total $250. Awards will be made for the best samples of seed cotton, best fifty bolls, best three stalks grown in 1913, best two pounds of lint cotton direct from gin, best bale of short staple, best bale of long staple. There will be a large display of cottonseed products, including cake, meal, hulls and bread and cakes made from cotton seed meal.

Appointed Bookkeeper.

The board of managing trustees of the Brady Water and Light Co. last week appointed Ike Rainbolt bookkeeper, succeeding Paul Calvert, who recently resigned. Mr. Rainbolt has been learning the intricacies of the office during the past week, and will be ready to take full charge by the end of this week. He is well qualified for the position and will be a splendid man for the place.

Mr. Calvert expects to leave the latter part of this week for Waco where he has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Waco Machinery & Supply Co.

The Standard's good friend, Geo. F. Hurley, of Katemcy was in town yesterday and while here subscribed a dollar to the good cause—which is, of course, The Brady Standard. Mr. Hurley reports crops in the Katemcy country as being quite good. On one patch of about nine acres he will make four bales of cotton. They expect to gin some 700 bales this year, as compared with 400 last year.

M. Simon, who is now engaged in business in Coleman, wants his Standard changed from Rockaway Beach, N. Y., to that place so he can judge what good times and what fine business he is missing by not having again located in Brady.

Useful for Orators.

At a musical exposition in Berlin an invention for increasing the resonance of the voice was exhibited. It consists of a film, which is applied to the roof of the mouth and acts as a sounding board. It is intended for the use of orators, officers, and anyone wishing to increase the reach of the voice, as well as musicians.

Reverses.

Things do not always go smoothly when five-year-old John dresses himself. "What's the matter, sonny-boy?" asked his mother one morning, as she heard a discouraged sigh. John surveyed himself with a puzzled frown. "How does it happen?" he inquired tragically. "I've put on these overalls three times, and every time I get 'em on backsidebeforehand!"

AUTO POLO GAMES AT STATE FAIR

World's Most Sensational Sport to Feature Grandstand.

STARTS WITH ARGUMENT

H. A. Hankinson, Originator, Tells of Beginning of These Contests. Team at Dallas is on World Tour.

Dallas, Texas.—"Auto polo, a new game out of the West, will be played for the first time in the Southwest in front of the race track grandstand and at the coming State Fair of Texas which opens Saturday, October 18, and closes Sunday, November 2," said President J. J. Eckford yesterday.

"Contrit has just been closed for six months and eighteen men, who will come to Dallas under the direction of H. A. Hankinson of Kansas City, Mo., the originator of the world's most sensational sport. It is declared that this game takes more harum scarum, dare devil driving than any sport ever yet evolved by man, and the enthusiasm with which it has been greeted by thousands since the initial game in August, 1912, assures something out of the ordinary in an entertainment way at the coming fair. Those who have seen auto-polo played declare there is a thrill every time during the game and an extra thrill thrown in for good measure every other instant. The drivers that Mr. Hankinson will bring to Dallas are master hands and those who know anything of the art of driving an automobile can not fail but marvel at the rapidity with which turns are made."

Mr. Hankinson, who was in conference with the Fair management preliminary to closing the contract explaining that auto-polo originated in an argument between two automobile salesmen as to which was the superior driver. "A race between the two salesmen was suggested," said Mr. Hankinson, "and their respective cars were stripped to the chassis. In driving over the boulevards of Kansas City in search of a good clear road in the country, free from obstacles or interference, a tin can which lay in the path of one of the drivers was struck by the front wheel of his machine. The judges accompanying the drivers and who were sitting on the running boards of the two small racers, began kicking this can from one side of the road to the other, each driver following as accurately as possible, his aim being to place his machine in such position alongside the can while in motion, thus offering a good opportunity for his partner to get a good kick at the can. This was followed by a game of old-fashioned shinny in which the can was very much battered and in which the contestants made a tie as to driving ability. Thus was originated what is now a National sport. The following day a basket ball and a couple of heavy mallets was purchased and an alfalfa field was selected as an arena. The thrilling spectacle that resulted convinced those present, myself included, in the possibilities of the sport."

After the initial contest daily practice exhibitions were held for a period of five months. Various youths were given opportunities to try out as teammates for the drivers, to act as their mallet men. Many applicants for positions as mallet men were tried out and after going through their daily practice those who were more adapted to this form of sport became accustomed to the awkward and dangerous positions of banking on the side of a small racing auto-polo car and wielding a heavy three-pound mallet while the car was going at full speed," said Mr. Hankinson. "In August, 1912, the first game drew in Kansas City and the third game drew an attendance of 5,000 people."

Mr. Hankinson explained that auto-polo is played in periods of ten minutes each, five periods constituting one game. In the event of a tie score at the end of the fifth period, an extra period of periods may be added, until one end has scored a winning point over their opponent. The beauty of a contest of this sort is that no two games are alike. "Each one is entirely different from the preceding one," said Mr. Hankinson, "therefore much more interesting than automobile racing, aeroplaning, motorcycle racing or in fact most any other sensational form of amusement."

Several of the original players in auto-polo are now touring the world. Eighteen players after making a tour of the big fairs of this country will spend three weeks in Cuba, fourteen weeks in South America, five and one-half months in Europe, returning to the United States for one year's engagement at the Panama Exposition. Auto-polo games will be played in front of the grandstand between the harness and running events. Each period will last ten minutes which will take up the intermission between the horse races. There will be something done every minute in front of the grandstand this fall.

FARMERS' DAY AT FAIR.

President Peter Radford Predicts an Occasion of Unusual Interest.

Dallas, Texas.—Wednesday, October 22 will be Farmers' Day at the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas at Dallas, which begins Saturday, October 18, and closes Sunday, November 2. Peter Radford, president of the Farmers' Union of Texas and manager of the Farm Life Commission, is in charge of the details as the day will be observed under the auspices of these two organizations. The real purpose is to secure a "get-together" meeting of the real farmers and real business men of the state. "That is our aim and purpose and the two organizations which I represent will endeavor in every way to make the success from an attendance standpoint as well as from the benefits that will accrue to those taking part," said Mr. Radford.

Prominent men have been invited to take part in the program, among them Secretary David F. Houston of the United States Department of Agriculture. Mr. Houston is expected to have a Houston in attendance at the joint meeting of farmers and business men," said Mr. Radford, "and an address by Mr. Houston will be of intense interest to every practical farmer in the state."

Other prominent men who will take part in the program are C. S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union; L. M. Rhodes, president of the Farmers' Union of Tennessee; Judge S. A. Lindsay of Tyler, Tex., chairman of the Farm Life Commission; W. T. Loudmilk of DeLeon, Tex.; E. A. Calvin of Houston, Tex.; N. A. Gus Shaw of Texarkana, Tex.; Henry E. Webb of Upand, Tex.; Joseph Hirsch of Corpus Christi, Tex., chairman of the agricultural committee of the Texas Bankers' association, and ex-President (member) of the Texas Bankers' association.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVER.

Baker-Timmins Hardware Co. Makes Assignment.

Baker-Timmins Hardware Co., a prominent mercantile firm of Brownwood, doing a wholesale and retail business in hardware and implements, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy Friday.

J. P. Dumas, referee in bankruptcy for this district, was here today and appointed Judge R. P. Conner receiver for the business. The latter will begin at once to invoice the stock and take charge of collections. The store will be kept open and the business kept going just as usual.

According to a June statement issued by the firm their indebtedness at that time amounted to approximately $115,000, with assets at $160,000. The assets included stock on hand, tools, warehouse additions and fixtures, real estate, cash and accounts. The stock at that time invoiced about $70,000. The firm's business was then in fairly good shape and had they been able to make good collections the receivership could have been averted.

The failure is very much regretted by the thousands of friends of the firm throughout the county, as more progressive citizens or more liberal business men than Messrs. J. J. Timmins and John T. Baker do not exist anywhere, and the Brownwood country sincerely hopes they will weather the present storm successfully and soon resume business.—Brownwood News.

J. B. Latham orders his Standard changed from Blackwell, Texas, to Abilene.

J. F. Davis made a business trip to Rochelle Friday night, returning Sunday morning.

Dr. J. B. Lockhart came up from Austin Friday just to spend a few days with Brady folks.

Mrs. C. R. Alexander and daughter returned Sunday morning from a visit in Brownwood.

Miss Blanche Davenport was here from San Saba Saturday for a visit with Miss Pearl Graham.

Miss Carrie Sessions left Sunday night for Abilene where she will attend the Christian college.

H. B. Yeager came up Friday from Pettus, where he is buying cotton, to spend a few days at home.

Miss Olga Schaege left last night for Denton where she will enter the North Texas State Normal.

Miss Lucile Benham left Sunday night for Columbia, Mo., where she will enter the Christian college.

P. B. Page of Fort Stockton was a business visitor here Monday, and while in Brady called at The Standard office.

Miss Hayde Willoughby left Saturday night for Austin where she will continue her studies at state university.

Mesdames Will and Bud Callan came over from Menard Sunday night for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tindel.

Miss Callie Stewart of London was a guest of Miss Fannie Jones Sunday while enroute to Brownwood to attend Daniel Baker.

W. F. McCully came over from Brownwood Sunday to spend Sunday and Monday with his daughter, Mrs. H. P. Roddie, and family.

Mrs. M. J. Whitfield arrived Saturday from Millersview to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. V. Globber, and family for several days.

Mrs. A. C. Matthews arrived yesterday from Pampa, Texas, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Duke, and other relatives here.

J. H. Hill went to Hico on a business trip Saturday, returning Monday morning. Wm. Connolly accompanied him upon his return for a visit.

Mrs. L. J. Neil of Navasota left last night for Brownwood to visit Mrs. Ehinger. Mrs. Neil spent a week here the guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. K. Hallum.

Billie White and Edward Willoughby left Saturday night for Grapevine where they will spend a few days with friends before taking up their studies again at Terrill school in Dallas.

Winston Edwards, Sr., a prominent merchant of San Saba, spent Saturday night here with his friend, R. B. McClure. Mr. Edwards was accompanied by his son, Winston, Jr.

Will Bradley was here yesterday from Fife, accompanied by Mrs. Ed Anderson, who was returning to her home at Austin after a visit of several weeks with relatives at Fife.

Hinnegan expects to leave shortly for Junction from where he will go to the Devil's River country to spend the winter.

C. E. Pearson of Buffalo Gap, district deputy for the Praetorians, came in this morning to work in the interest of the order. Mr. Pearson was in Brady about three months ago and spent several days. He likes Brady so well that he can't stay away very long at a time or it may be that he can't stand to stay in Buffalo Gap, although he never fails to speak a good word for his home town.

Si Proctor is again greeting his many friends from behind the counter at Abney & Vincent's grocery department, and Mike Campbell now wields the meat saw and axe for the same firm. Mr. Proctor looks quite natural in his old position, he having been Mr. Abney's right hand man for a number of years previous to the burning out of a year ago, and it was just through his being absent from the city that he failed to connect with the job when the firm decided to re-engage in the business. For this reason his return is all the more pleasing to his many friends.

Big Beans. a yarn about home-grown beans that proves truth to be stranger than fiction, and Jack and the Beanstalk are very near portrayed in reality. Think of beans growing to be 10 inches in length and 3/4 inches in circumference—and ordinary pole beans at that. If you doubt our word just take a look at the sample on exhibit at our office, and if you think the sample a fake or a freak, just go up to City Marshal Jim Anderson's place and inspect his bean patch—he has a garden full of 'em.

THEY'RE COMING.

The Brady Standard thinks the Brownwood boosters ought to have included Brady in their itinerary last week when they came so close, and yet passed it by. In explanation of the seeming slight, The Bulletin will say that we had hard work holding some of the party when we came in sight of Brady, but when they recalled that it was getting along toward the shank of the evening, and that there were several towns to visit, at one of which a royal feast had been promised, they reluctantly decided that, perhaps, under the circumstances, it would be best to pass it up. However, no sooner had they gotten home than another trip was planned, this one to include Brady.—Brownwood Bulletin.

The Brady citizens will all be glad to have a commingling with the Brownwood boosters. We have taboed all yarns and will tell only the truth about Brady upon that occasion. We warn you, you will have even harder work on hand to keep from losing a goodly portion of your boosters when they see what a bustling burg Brady is, and hear what a "bustinger" city she's destined to become.

X-RAY EXAMINATION.

An exchange says:
The Dallas News paragrapher announces that personally he tries to never be pessimistic, but he is somewhat nervous from the thought that the next edition of the X-Ray skirt may be a mere mosquito bar.

While we think State Press' fears will hardly be realized, the matter should doubtless be looked into. We're ready here and now to become a member of the committee, should any be named.

PRINTER WANTED.

The Standard wants the services of a good, reliable printer, capable of assisting on ads and job work and on the presses. Two-third preferred. Good opportunity for advancement and steady employment. Phone or write The Standard, Brady, Texas.

Remember the day—First Monday, October 6th.

Boost First Monday to your neighbors—it's money and profit to you.

The events worth bearing in mind—First Monday Trades Day—Fall Agricultural Exhibit.

WANT FILTER PLANT.

Brownwood citizens are alive to two important needs of that city: first, a county hospital, and second, a filter plant—and when the Brownwood live wires start after any thing, they very near get it. Here is a report of the action taken by the Brownwood physicians at a recent meeting:
"D. F. Johnson addressed the doctors on the subject of a county hospital and a city filtering plant at the waterworks station. Mr. Johnson, as Commercial Club secretary, has for some time urged that a hospital be built in Brown county under the provisions of the McGregor-Colquitt County Hospital and Dispensary act, by which bonds can be voted for building and maintaining such an institution. Following his address the doctors, in a general discussion, favored the hospital and pledged themselves to work toward that end.
"The filtering proposition was brought up by Mr. Johnson and was a very interesting topic for the doctors. It was urged that at present the greatest need of Brownwood is a filter for its large water supply, and that this should be the first thing the City Council arranges for, because the health of the city is in the balance. So enthusiastic were the doctors that, on motion, it was decided that two members of the society should prepare a paper on the subject, for publication in the local newspapers."

Having taken on a goodly share of this world's fame, Claude Callan has journeyed forth north and east cityward where he hopes to add to fame that twin desire—fortune. Here is the way Hep Blackman, the Fort Worth Star Telegram's "get 'em while they're hot" Sandwich maker announces Claude's having secured a situation as janitor on the S.-T.'s editorial page. Note that Hep says Menard is in Palsy county doubtless owing to the fact that Claude has given it the "shake."
"Claude Callan, of Menard, Palsy Co., Tex., has moved his wf., son & suitcase to Panther-town, having accepted a situation writing up a daily column of brilliancies for The STAR-TEL, & and other iditorial pg. janitor work, starting in tomorrow's issue of that sheet. On each Sabbath hereafter his jocund jeremads will fill a vacuum 18 ems horizontal, 2 cols. west of these words. Welcome to our city, Claude, & pay up your Poll Tax."

FAME AND FORTUNE.

GOOD CHARITY PLAN.
In Fort Worth September 19th has been officially declared the date to discard straw hats. In a proclamation signed by the mayor and other city officials all Fort Worthites are requested to hie themselves to their favorite haberdasher on or before that date and secure for themselves suitable headgear for fall and winter, leaving their discarded straws with the dealer. The plan is to have the charity officers gather up these discarded straw lids which will be placed in storage until next spring, at which time they will be distributed among the poor and needy.

There is something exhilarating in the cheery words "business is good" and probably the reason it affects us that way is because business is usually ditto with us.

TRADES DAY.

Monday, October 6th, is Brady's official Trades and Sale Day—an event that is slated to become a regular monthly feature of vital importance to Brady and McCulloch county citizens. The Brady Commercial club has officially taken the event under its auspices and will foster and encourage the plan for a bigger and better red letter day than has ever been known.

The preparations for the day have been placed in the hands of an able committee, the services of an auctioneer will be secured, merchants will offer special inducements, and the day should prove a gala event all around.

Bear the date in mind and make your arrangements to be present, bringing any and all horses and stock you have to trade or sell, as well as vehicles, feed and fowls—there will be buyers for all classes of farm products and farm fixtures on hand. Also bring the ladies and the children; you will be able to buy clothes and supplies cheaper on that day than ever before. Remember the day—First Monday, October 6th.

FALL EXHIBIT.

Of importance to everyone is the fall exhibit planned for next month, and which, with the co-operation of McCulloch county citizens, can be made a gala event. Don't fail to keep out some samples of your very best products and bring them in as soon as possible so they may secure display in the exhibit upon that occasion. We want everyone to know just what excellent products McCulloch county can grow, and the agricultural exhibit provides the easiest method in existence for the "show me" folks to be shown.

So lend a hand. Don't be stingy with your exhibit—bring in a good, large-sized sample. Go after the premiums which will be offered by the merchants—you'll never have a prouder moment than when you haul down a prize or a blue ribbon. Besides, you may get your name in the paper.

Boost yourself, and we'll boost with you.

Any stock you want to trade or sell? Bring 'em to Brady First Monday Trades Day.

Remember, an auctioneer will be on hand to sell your stock First Monday. Also buyers from North and East Texas. Does that look good to you?

Last Saturday's norther made straw hats look awfully cheap—more so in appearance than in price. But the man who wore an overcoat kept busy explaining that it was merely a raincoat, and the fellow with the scant summer underwear and the crash linen suit didn't deceive anyone in spite of his cheery whistle.

The Menard Messenger last week appeared under the editorial charge of Loyce Callan, who quite fully maintained the paper's reputation for wit and brilliance. Loyce will doubtless prove a worthy successor to his uncle, Claude Callan, and while avowedly eschewing politics, will doubtless some day be in line for governor or ambassador to the Hitchy-Koo Islands.

O. H. Robbins has moved from Jonah to Taylor and orders The Standard to the latter address.

Hamilton swung up on the steps of the sleeper. The rescue portion of the train crew had started its twelve-mile push through the snowdrifts down the track to Moosehead, the nearest telegraph station. There was one chance in fifty that they might meet a relief gang working toward them. And it was Christmas eve.

"We won't get through, sh," said the porter cheerfully. "Suttlinly looks most unpromising for Santa Claus tonight."

"Never can tell, Sam. You'd better hang up your sock," Hamilton returned. "I'm sorry for the por devils in the day coaches and tourist cars. How about that private layout we tacked on at Boise City?"

"Private car, sah—Mme. Helene Cesare."

The name struck a chord that had been Hamilton's dominant strain for ten years. He knew Helene Cesare. Back in the lean years, when she had been a slender, eager-eyed girl with a golden voice, who frankly hailed from Omaha, he had met her at one of his sister's musicales in the east. Kit Murray, they called her then. She was about seventeen, with a mass of reddish hair, framing a tense, determined face, with big, dreamy, almost resentful eyes. She had been resentful, too, of his proffers of friendship and assistance so far as her career was concerned. She would win, she had told him, win by sheer work and effort. It had not been with her consent that his sister had bent all her influence toward her success. Yet she had been grateful, too, and had never known how much of it she owed to Hamilton's love for her.

On his way to the private car he met the conductor.

"About six hours anyway, sir, possibly more," he answered Hamilton. "Tough on the people in the cars ahead. There's nothing to feed them with, and a lot of kids, too."

Hamilton went on to the last car. He met Madame's secretary at the vestibule and gave his card. When he entered the drawing room section,

She had risen to greet him.

she had risen to greet him, her fur trimmed lounging cloak slipping back from her shoulders, her eyes full of the same luminous eagerness he remembered well.

"Ah, but this is kind of you," she said. "And I am so lonesome, and bored. How much you look like your self!" The absurdity of her own remark dawned on her, and she laughed richly, happily. "I mean as I remember you, Hugh. Tell me of yourself. Sit there. We will dine presently."

"But we must not, not yet, please," he interposed. "I have come to you for two reasons; first to see you. You know how I have wanted to."

"But we were on the same little earth, my friend."

"Half a world away, and more. You were a planet, child, and I a star worshiper. So—well, I have worshipped as a star should be worshipped."

She looked at him questioningly, almost anxiously.

His eyes regarded her hungrily. This was not the girl of seventeen whom he had loved tenderly, protectively, this woman with the curved lips and well-poised head, the sure, clear gaze, and voice that stirred old memories into life.

Yet, gazing at the white perfection of her throat and shoulders, her jeweled head, the exquisite lines of her velvet dinner gown, he thought of the mass of warped humanity on the rest of the stalled train, hungry, bitter, stunned by the prospect of a snowbound Christmas.

It made no difference to Cesare, her car would be as warm, as brilliantly lighted, her dinner as perfectly served as if she were in her own Parisian apartment. And suddenly he resolved to throw all his chances on one single number. It would prove to him whether any tenderness, any womanliness still lay dormant under that breast.

"I'm awfully sorry, but I simply cannot stay with you, not with those poor devils ahead stranded. There are children, too, they say. You know what that means, Kit—"

The old name slipped out unthinkingly, and she smiled.

"It is kind of you to give me the chance to share with them," she said. "We will send in all that I have, ex-

Expensive Chicken.

There are numerous ways of preparing chicken for serving, some of which are quite expensive, but the most high-faluting fowl that has been discovered in Brady right recently is the one that cost $20.30—and it wasn't a dressed bird, either. The extra high charges were the fine and trimmings administered by County Judge Harvey Walker to a young man caught in the act of pilfering a neighbor's hen-roost, and in default of the coin the young man languishes in the county jail.

There has been quite a bit of complaint recently about chicken stealing and the officers are determined to put a stop to the depredations.

Friend J. T. Word of Katemcy renews his own subscription and thinks the paper good enough to send a while longer to J. J. Roberts at Cestahowa. All you folks ought to feel proud of the paper—enough so at least to send it to your wife's kinfolks.

Lumbago and Rheumatism.

A quick relief from lumbago and rheumatism is had by the application of Hunt's Lightning Oil, the quick-acting liniment. A friend writes: "We have been using Hunt's Lightning Oil for 13 years and deem it above all others."—Mrs. J. T. Nevels, Gordon, Texas, Route 2, Box 31. 25c and 50c bottles. All dealers.

Dr. Hicks Martin writes us that they are having fine rains at Katemcy and things are looking good at the "Gem City". Cotton is turning out better than at first thought for, and feed stuff is simply fine. Consequently a good report from that section is quite in order.

Between studies at Yale and the attendance of the football games and other big athletic events, Joe White is going to try to find time to read about his Brady friends in the columns of The Brady Standard.

Arthur Reagor gives us the privilege of spending a dollar just any way we see fit, and we have decided to make that dollar go a long ways—so we've spent it for a subscription to The Brady Standard. That'll spread it over twelve months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker have been entertaining a girl who came to make her home with them on the 3rd inst.

We celebrated F. H. Kruse's coming to Brady to make his home by giving him a sample copy of the paper, and he was so overjoyed at our thoughtfulness that he forthwith subscribed for the paper. Now we are sample copying every man who even looks like a newcomer.

Chas. Koerth's last request before leaving for school in Indiana was that we send him The Standard without fail and without fear.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

Elasticity of Human Skull.

Fortunately the human skull, although composed of bones, is elastic—much more so than one would think. The average male adult skull, in fact, is so elastic that it may be compressed laterally in diameter by a blow or pressure applied at the center of area at right angles to the surface at that point by 1½ centimeters, or about sixteenths of an inch; recovering its original diameter and form without breakage. The material of which our bones are made is so highly resistant that a cylindrical piece thereof only one square millimeter or 0.00155 square inch in area—i. e., only 1.128 millimeter or 0.044 inch in diameter, has a tensile strength of 15 kilograms or 33 pounds avoirdupois, figuring out at about 21,300 pounds per square inch. A similar sample of hardwood tested in the same manner held only ten kilograms—that is, bone has 50 per cent. more tensile strength than wood. A single bone fiber is shown in the hygiene exhibition, Dresden, supporting a weight of five kilograms or 11 pounds avoirdupois.

Mutual Discontent.

First Clubwoman—No; I'm not going to the annual dinner. The committee always puts me beside the most uninteresting people.

Second Clubwoman—That's just my experience. We were sitting together last year, weren't we?—London Opinion.

Among the Probabilities.

"I see that Willis Moore, the chief weather man, says people will be flying from New York to London in ten hours before long. Believe it?"

"Well, I shouldn't wonder. He's been making some mighty good guesses lately."

In These Days of High Prices.

Squirrel—You seem to have a very small family this year, Mother Cuck.

Mother Cuck—At the present prices of eggs it's too expensive to raise large families.—Judge.

George Bailey says castor oil will cure pessimism. Maybe so, but as well as we can remember, the information that we had to take a dose always had a tendency to bring on a virulent case of pessimism.

Due to the fact that we had a tooth pulled the day the legislature adjourned, we failed to notice it had quit and continued to cuss it for two weeks after the members had reached home. We apologize for having done so, and assure the members that it is our purpose to cuss each legislature only while it is in session.

Mr. Arch Wilkinson and Miss Mary Godfrey were quietly married last Wednesday evening. Mr. Wilkinson is the son of W. J. Wilkinson, one of the oldest residents and most prominent citizens of Menard county, and his wife is the daughter of R. J. Godfrey, a prominent stockman of this county. The young couple have a host of friends who wish them all happiness.

The Del Rio Herald editor wants a governor from West Texas, and Harry Johnston thinks he is under the impression that West Texas embraces nothing but the strip of country between Del Rio and El Paso. The fact is he imagines West Texas includes nothing but the plot of ground occupied by the Herald office, and the fellow he wants for governor is now wearing his home-made underwear, and digesting his daily diet of prunes.

The Dallas News accuses Governor Colquitt of being "proud of himself to a degree which no one else is." Frequently, when we have criticized President Wilson, we have expected him to make just such a statement concerning us, but thus far he has remained perfectly calm and taken our broadsides without a word. And it is best that he did so. If he had come back at us, we, of course, would have come again, and this heated controversy would have disturbed business conditions. In this instance the president acted wisely.

The San Angelo Standard corrects us for referring to the invisible skirt as "it." The Standard says the skirt is plural. Whatever the number, we are not going to stand for the skirt. It is an outrage for men to pay out their hard-earned money for a skirt that cannot be seen, when atmosphere has the same quality and is so much cheaper. The only trouble with the air as a fabric for making clothes is that a fellow who breathed freely might have a half dozen or so undershirts, an assortment of ladies' hose and the like in his lungs and never suspect it.

A subscriber asks us what kind of a looking man is Hep Blackman. We really couldn't say. When we first saw him he appeared to be about five feet and eight inches above the ground line, but later on he appeared much larger to us. You see when we were in Fort Worth a literary man who also deals in art, invited us out to have a drink, and we went, thinking of course, that he was going to a soda fountain, but he carried us to the Jersey Cream wholesale house, which we considered such a vast compliment to our drinking proclivities that we hated to refuse and neither did we refuse. But we got away from him as soon as we could, and hunted up a stout railroad official we had once met, and after talking with him for a few minutes he also invited us to have a drink, and dined if he didn't take us to the brewery. Where we got such a widespread reputation as a container we do not know, but evidently our reputation has not extended down to South Texas where Alkali Eye lives, moves and has his bein'. While in Houston another railroad official had the honor of having us call on him, we ushering ourself into his office at one o'clock in the afternoon, and after asking us if we paid our fare or just dead-headed our way, he invited us to sit down and wait until six o'clock and he would carry us down and sow a glass of beer broadcast over our field of digestion. Only five hours was this to wait, and feeling that we couldn't possibly get thirsty in this time we declined and hunted up our wife and spread our lunch in the union station. Five hours is a good long time, of course, but we felt that it wouldn't be right to get a drink that easy.

W. V. Day sent us his renewal subscription to The Standard. We like folks who like The Standard.

IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends Stomach Misery, Indigestion in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and arduate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach, headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

LIVE LOCAL LINEUPS IN RUSTLING ROCHELLE

From the Record.

Jim and Alvin Hall went to Brady Tuesday.

June Coopender was here from Brady Monday.

Howell Jones transacted business in Brady Tuesday.

Miss Lella Anderson came in from Brady Sunday, where she attended the Baptist association.

E. Harrison came in Sunday from Lohn, where he and his family are gathering their cotton, returning Monday. He reports cotton as being considerably damaged by the recent rains in that section of the county.

Rev. C. R. Joyner and family left Tuesday for Brady, where they go to make their home. Mr. Joyner having been appointed at the last district convention of the Brady Baptist association as the missionary for this district.

A Record reporter is informed by Supt. Hall that the school is to start in the near future, possibly about the 29th of this month. The school is considered one of the best public schools in West Texas, the faculty holding all first grade permanent state certificates.

Thursday morning a bale of cotton at the cotton yard was discovered by Mr. Haddow to be burning on the inside, and soon, by some extra help, the fire was extinguished. By some means the fire got its origin when the bale was being pressed at the gin, it is thought.

O. E. Rice informs us that he is in receipt of a telegram from Carey, Lombard, Young & Co., Chicago, granting Mr. Porter's request for release as local manager of the yard here known as the Crothers Lumber Co., which goes into effect tomorrow, and appointing Tobe Smith of this place to fill the vacancy.

C. W. Hoover and Virge Meadows have recently sold their exchange at this place known as the Rochelle Telephone Co., to W. E. Pumphrey of Schleicher county, the deal going into effect the first of this month. Mr. Hoover remains as assistant to Mr. Pumphrey for a short time, otherwise Mr. Hoover informs us that he has nothing definite in view—but to live and die in Rochelle.

Thirteen years ago this week the great Galveston storm occurred, and it will be remembered that over the whole of Texas a heavy rain fell during the 8th, 9th and 10th of September, 1900. That year is considered the best crop year Texas has had within the memory of living men, and up to that time in the year it was very drouthy. Might history repeat itself in this case?

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Porter are to leave tomorrow night for Lamesa in Dawson county where they go to reside permanently. They have lived here for the past four years, Mr. Porter being the manager of the Crothers Lumber Co., and during their stay here they won the highest esteem of all our people, and though we regret very much to see them leave, all join in wishing them much success in their new surroundings. Mr. Porter has been selected as bookkeeper for a big general mercantile firm at Lamesa, and about the first of March he assumes charge as manager for the firm.

SAN SABA SAYINGS

From the Star.

The San Saba gins have ginned the following number of bales of cotton since the season opened: Farmers Union gin, 363; Farmers gin, 210; Crane's gin, 83.

M. B. Bowman had a very narrow escape last week from fatal injury when he was kicked by a horse. There was a gash cut on the left cheek which it took several stitches to close and his hand was painfully hurt.

Last Friday evening the sad intelligence was received here that Tom Ward of Ballinger had died very suddenly. The deceased was raised in this place and about twelve years ago he moved to Ballinger, where he took front rank as a business man and citizen. His son, Leon, and brother, R. M. Ward, attended the obsequies in Ballinger on Friday.

Tuesday morning about 5:30 the alarm of fire was given and it proved to be the store of A. J. Gatlin. The fire company made a record breaking run and had two streams of water playing on the flames in a few minutes. The fire originated in the northeast part of the house, where the floor and ceiling were badly damaged. There were ten cases of matches near this part of the house and the fire had evidently smoldered all night and was discovered about 5:30 by some chance passerby. This is another instance of the good judgment of our authorities in purchasing fire fighting apparatus, as the "bucket brigade" would have had no earthly chance to extinguish the flames. The 14-2 feet of water in the standpipe gave a good pressure and to the efforts of our fire company can be given the credit of at least half a block of buildings standing now that would be in ashes if it had been forced to fight the fire by the old method. Mr. Gatlin's stock is virtually ruined by fire, smoke and water. The stock amounted to about $14,000; there was $8,000 insurance on the stock and $400 insurance on the fixtures, which were worth $960. The building belonged to S. T. Taylor and the damage was covered by insurance, he having $2500 on the building.

CONSTIPATION.

Its Cause and How to Cure it.

Eat too much, Stomach feels bloated, All out of sorts, Don't feel like work to-day. Guess I've another case of biliousness. "Take anything?" "Yes; some pills, but no results; suppose I'm getting ironclad. Sometimes I double the dose, then they physic me so hard I'm too weak to work. Think I'll have to try something new." "Ever try Prickly Ash Bitters?" "No; I've heard a good deal about it, but never tried it." "Well, you'll be pleased with the results."

The purgative action of Prickly Ash Bitters not only removes hard impactions, gas and impurities, but it strengthens the muscular action of the bowels which causes them to move regularly.

Prickly Ash Bitters is a bowel tonic and regulator in the truest sense. It promotes daily evacuations, establishes healthy movements and is the best known remedy for disordered digestion, flatulence and a constipated habit.

D. M. Blackwelder, of Litchfield, Ill., says in the Litchfield News: "I am perfectly willing, in fact glad to testify to the value of Prickly Ash Bitters as a medicine for the kidneys, stomach and bowels. I have used it whenever I needed anything of the kind for the last fifteen years and it has always given satisfaction."

MASON MAVERICKS.

From the News.

T. A. Lange made a business trip to Brady this week.

S. R. Hayes and wife were here Monday from Fredonia.

Miss Jennie White returned Sunday from a visit to Brady.

J. M. Stewart and Miss Gertrude came over Sunday from Brady.

Rev. C. H. Garrett attended the Baptist association at Brady the past week. He reports an enjoyable meeting.

Up to Wednesday night there were ginned at Mason the following number of bales: Power Company gin, 295; Perry gin, 85. There had been weighed at the yard 412 bales.

Mrs. Max Martin had the misfortune to break her ankle Wednesday morning while working in the garden. She stepped on the garden hose and fell, breaking the small bone in her ankle.

An old relic of soldier days in Mason was found recently by Carlin Smith at the old fort. It is a rusty musket which doubtless has an interesting history if it were known. On the stock is roughly cut "X. T. I.," which may indicate Tenth Texas Infantry. The old relic is on exhibition in the show window of the Mason Drug Co. and attracts much attention.

Lightning in the Winter.

Is a queer phenomenon, but there is nothing queer about the quick relief given to rheumatism by Hunt's Lightning Oil. John Coffman, Route 4, Shawnee, Okla., says: "My wife is over 66 years old and had rheumatism in her neck, and the first application did the work, and we will keep it on hand always. 25c and 50c bottles."
