EDUCATORS COMING.

District Trustees to Meet in Convention Saturday, May 25.

Supt. E. L. White is this week mailing out several hundred invitations to the McCulloch County District School Trustees' Convention which will be held in this city Saturday, May 23rd, at the Brady Opera House one block south of the Brady National bank.

Features of the convention will be addresses by W. F. Doughty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and F. M. Bralley, Department of Extension, University of Texas. Messrs. Doughty and Bralley are known throughout Texas as educators of note, and Mr. White is to be congratulated upon procuring the services of these able men. Quite a number of trustees, teachers and superintendents of other counties have written that they are coming.

In answer to letters of inquiry, one hundred and twelve of the one hundred and twenty-six trustees of this county have declared their intention of coming. All teachers and friends of education are invited to attend the meeting.

The district trustee forms an important part in our educational system, and this is a decided move for better schools, for a common sense discussion of the problems of school work must result in increased efficiency.

Painful Accident.

The countenance of our ordinarily handsome friend, Rev. C. R. Joyner, is somewhat disfigured the past few days as a result of an accident which occurred last week on the Mason road south of the city.

Rev. Joyner, in company with Mr. Craddock, district deputy of the American Brotherhood of Yeomen, was returning from a business trip to Mason in the latter's car, and when a few miles south of this city the car ran into a stump which was obscured by high grass, the force of the impact throwing Mr. Joyner against the windshield, shattering the glass, and painfully cutting him about the face.

Mr. Craddock was thrown out of the car, but suffered no injuries, other than slight bruises. The young man who was driving the car suffered slight bruises when he was thrown against the steering wheel.

The car was badly damaged in the accident.

PRESENTS $25,000.

Cash to Christian Church For Men and Million Move.

Gainesville, May 16.—One of the largest favors or "souvenirs" every given at a reception in Gainesville was presented to the members of the "men and millions movement" committee of the Christian churches of the world at a reception given at the home of H. W. Stark here last evening. Mr. Stark who is a prominent druggist and a worker in the Christian church, presented the committee with $25,000 in cash. Other large donations by Gainesville Christians have been made today, and the committee departed tonight for Dallas.

The members of the committee present on this occasion last night were Dr. Kershner, president of Texas Christian University; Dr. Frank Garrett, for eighteen years missionary to China; Minor Lee Bates, president of Hiram college, Hiram, Ohio; Dr. A. E. Corey of St. Louis, president of the men and millions movement, which movement was initiated by Mr. Long of St. Louis some time ago, who has subscribed $1,000, 000 to the work.

Baptist Meeting.

The Baptist meeting will begin Friday night before the 4th Sunday in this month at the tabernacle and will continue until the 7th of June. Rev. J. B. DeGarmo of Blue Mountain, Miss., is to do the preaching. The singing will be conducted by S. L. Raborn of Waco. Bro. Raborn is a great singer and a Texas product.

Just a word about these men of God. The church of Luling has this to say of Bro. DeGarmo:

Luling, Texas, May 3, 1914. Since it has gone forth that Elder J. B. DeGarmo, who recently held a meeting with us, is unsound in his preaching, we, the Luling Baptist Church, desire to express our hearty approval of his preaching as to doctrine and style of conducting meetings. We consider him one of the strongest, sanest and soundest evangelists we have ever heard. We consider him one of the greatest bible teachers that can be found. If we are capable of judging, he is as sound as Paul.

Approved in Conference, Sunday, May 3rd, 1914.

T. S. Baskin, Pastor.

Mrs. W. W. Walker, C. C. The public is cordially invited to attend all of these services, and we desire the hearty cooperation of all the Christian men and women of our town.

W. G. Caperton, Pastor Baptist Church.

POOLS HALLS WIN.

Total Vote Was Large; Returns Canvassed May 25th.

The voters of Brownwood yesterday signified that they prefer to retain public pool halls in the city, by giving a majority of 32 votes against the prohibition of pool halls. The total vote was 734.

The Commissioners Court has arranged to meet and make an official canvass of the election returns on Monday, May 25. It is rumored that when the court meets again they will be asked to call another pool hall election for the county, which will be done if a petition with a sufficient number of names is presented to the court. Two years must elapse before another election for the city only can be had.

The vote in yesterday's election was surprisingly large. The four boxes at noon had received only about 200 votes; at 3 o'clock less than 500, and it was estimated that the total vote would not be much more than 500.

Considerable complaint has been registered on account of the form of ballot used. There are those who found, after casting their vote, that they had voted directly opposite to their sentiments and intentions. The ballot read "For prohibition of pool halls" and "Against prohibition of pool halls," and the negative statements proved brain teasers for many of the voters.—Brownwood Bulletin, Saturday.

For Justice Precinct 4.

Wm. F. Roberts, Jr., this week makes his final announcement as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the Democratic primary July 25th.

Mr. Roberts has filled this office for the past two years, having been appointed to the place by the commissioners court, and his past record in this capacity is well known to the voters of his precinct.

In case of his re-election he promises the same careful attention to the duties of the office as in the past, and asks for the favorable consideration of his claims at the hands of the voters.

Charged With Theft.

The sheriff's force yesterday afternoon arrested Otto Kinman, a young resident of this city, on a charge of theft under value of $50.

The charge against young Kinman grows out of the disappearance of a ring belonging to a daughter of Mr. Boyd in the Tucker community last month. An entertainment was given at the Boyd home, and Kinman was a guest. Shortly before the close of the entertainment the ring, which had been left on a table by the young lady, was missed and the father accused Kinman of having taken it. He protested his innocence, however, and the matter was dropped for the time.

While in the city yesterday Boyd is said to have seen Kinman with the ring on his finger, and filed the charges against him. The young man is alleged to have acknowledged that the ring was the property of Miss Boyd.

Shortly after being arrested the prisoner gave bond in the sum of $100 and was released from custody.

Wins Suit.

A case which has attracted considerable local interest was tried in Justice N. G. Lyle's court yesterday afternoon and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff.

The style of the suit was Benham vs. Hartford Traveler's Accident Insurance Co., and arose over a failure and refusal on the part of the company to settle a claim for injuries sustained by Mrs. S. A. Benham last February while visiting her daughter, Miss Lucile, at Columbia, Mo.

Mrs. Benham was represented by Judge Joe A. Adkins, and a number of witnesses were used by both sides. After only a few minutes' deliberation the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $12.50 and costs, this being the amount asked for by Mrs. Benham.

DIED IN FORT WORTH.

Only Sister of C. C. Johanson Passes Away.

C. C. Johanson returned yesterday from Fort Worth which place he had last Monday by a messenger him of the business of his only sister, Augusta Flink.

Mrs. Flink suffered a paralysis on that day, steadily worse until morning, when death relieved her.

She was 65 years of age and made her home in Fort Worth for the past twenty-three years ago she making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fritz, who, with another daughter, Mrs. Annie Throax, a Fort Worth, survive.

The funeral services place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, followed by interment at a local cemetery.

Called to Temple.

Dr. O. C. Jackson of Voca and Mrs. P. A. Campbell of this city were called to Temple yesterday to attend the bedside of Mrs. Campbell's father, "Uncle Joe" Elliott, of Voca who was taken to the sanitarium at that place about ten days ago for treatment of stoppage of circulation of the blood in his left foot.

Surgeons at the hospital announce that it will be necessary to amputate the limb and that the operation is a serious one on account of Mr. Elliott's age. A toe of the left foot was amputated last week, but this has brought no relief to the sufferer.

Pulpit Announcement.
In the rural districts it is often necessary for one to turn one's trousers up to keep them free from mud. A case of this kind resulted in the following amusing incident:

One muddy morning the absent minded preacher having rolled down one trousers leg forgetting the other, mounted the platform and started with his usual preliminaries. He was about to announce his text when one of the deacons handed him a note from his wife, who was sitting in the audience.
Thinking it a notice of some coming event, he calmly read:
"Do turn down the other trouser leg."—Exchange.

Played Both Ways.
Down at a Southern race course, which I shall designate no more than to say that it's a place where you lose your money in the winter time, I took a young lady out, to the track, and she insisted on placing a bet on a horse. She wouldn't even let me help her do it.

The horse did worse than to come in last. He turned around and ran the other way. I said:
"Well, you lose your bet."
The horse you had your money on is running the wrong way!"
She gurgled with satisfied glee.

"Shows that a woman's instinct can't go wrong," she answered, triumphantly. "I played him both ways!"—Cleve-

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY.
Big Crowd Attends Presentation of "On the Picket Line."

A large audience greeted the Brady High School Dramatic club at the Lyric airdome on last evening when a most capable cast presented the 5-act military drama of the Civil war, entitled "On the Picket Line."

The same play was put on at the Lyric Saturday evening, but on account of the rain only a small crowd was present, and at the earnest solicitation of friends the members of the club consented to repeat the performance.

The play is a very strong drama, and one which calls for considerable dramatic talent. It is replete in intense situations, but with a vein of comedy running throughout.

To say that one member of the cast was better than any other would be manifestly unjust, and the talent displayed by the young ladies and gentlemen was most pleasing to their friends.

Following is the cast of characters and synopsis of the play:

Caleb Holmes, a wayward son.....Oscar J. Bradley Albert Cherrington, a hero of the rebellion.....
O. T. Jackson
Hiram Lufkin, a raw re-

Church Directory.

The job department of The Standard has recently completed the printing of a directory for the First Baptist church of this city. The book is 5x9 inches, 8 pages and cover, and is printed on heavy enamel book paper.
The first page contains a list of the officers of the church and the hours of service, while the balance of the book is devoted to the "Pastor's Salutation,"
"The Church Covenant" and a roster of the membership.

On the second page appears a likeness of Rev. W. G. Caperton, the popular pastor, under whose direction the booklet was issued, and to whose individual efforts the liberal advertising accorded by local business firms, is largely due.

Five hundred of the books were printed, and will be distributed to the different Baptist congregations of the county.

Nothing Like It.
 One of the jokes of which Kentuckians never grow weary concerns Senator Blackburn and his loyal appreciation of the liquid products of his native state. The Senator had gone to pay a visit to a friend who lived many miles distant. His friend met the Senator as he alighted at the station.

"How are you, Joe?" his friend asked.
 "I'm up against it," was the reply. "I lost the best part of my baggage en route."

"Did you misplace it or was it stolen?" his friend inquired, solicitously.

"Neither," said the Senator. "The cork came out."

His Mother.

Judge Lindsey tells a striking incident of a little fellow who was before his court, and was many, many times admonished about truancy from school. The teacher kept writing, however, that nothing had been accomplished and that Tim seemed bound to work and to let school go. One day in reproving him, the judge said, "Now Tim, there will be time enough to work when you are a man." The boy replied like a flash, "My father was a man and he didn't work. He went off and left mother and me, and I guess that's what killed her too." Finally after breaking every instruction, Tim appeared in court one day with a changed expression, his face ablaze with satisfaction. Walking up to the judge, he pulled from his pocket a dirty piece of paper, all crumpled up, and handed it up for inspection saying "I am going to remember all the things you have told me now, judge, and I am going to school regular now, for I've got that job all done." Judge Lindsey unrolled the paper and found it to be a receipted bill, and discovered that little by little poor Tim had actually paid with pennies and nickels, fifty dollars for a headstone for his mother's grave. "My boy is that what you have been doing while you have been missing school?" said the judge; and Tim answered as he wiped the tears from his dirty little face, "I wanted her to have a monument too, judge, like the others had. She's done a lot for me; that's all I could do for her now."—Ex.

Purchases Fine Male.

George Darley, one of the most prominent and successful stockmen and farmers of McCulloch county, was here last week from his farm at Voca to receive a fine registered Jersey male which he recently purchased from the Lyon Jersey Farm at Sherman.

The animal is 16 months old, and is from one of the best Jersey herds in the state.

Mr. Darley is one McCulloch county farmer who believes in making his living on the farm, and comes about as near doing this as any farmer in the county. He says that he has lived here long enough to know that this is not a one-crop country, and that he is now beginning to reap the benefit of this knowledge. A portion of his big farm is given over to truck raising, and in this respect he has been eminently successful. He also devotes much of his time to the raising of hogs and the keeping of a large dairy herd. His hogs are raised practically without any outlay for feed whatever, being fed on skim milk, while the cream from the dairy is shipped to a creamery and for which he receives good prices.

The raising of thoroughbred Jersey cattle also takes up a large portion of Mr. Darley's spare time, and he is justly proud of the showing he has made in this line. His herd of thoroughbreds is the equal of any in the state, and he has no trouble in disposing of the animals which he offers for sale.

A Teetotaler.
"The late Shelby Cullum," said a Springfield veteran, "was a bad man to argue with."

"I argued with him once on war. He accused me of being weak-kneed in my principles. He said I reminded him of old Cal Clay."

"He saw Cal rolling along home one evening, he explained, full of applejack, and so he said to him:

"Why, Cal, you told me once that you were a teetotaler."

"So ah is, Mars Shelby," said old Cal. "So ah is; only, sah, ah ain't bigoted."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

STORY OF GEN. VILLA.

How He Was Made to Respect a Woman of His Own Country.

It would take more than wounds to feaze this toughened brigand. Villa is, above all his allotted virtues and deficiencies, a man of superb courage and tenacity and at rare intervals he can be even kind and chivalrous. During his bandit days he went one afternoon, with a few of his faithful followers to a ranch near the town of Santa Rosalie. This ranch was owned by a Mr. Gunther, a Belgian and a naturalized citizen who had married a Mexican woman renowned for her beauty and spirit. Mr. Gunther raised the finest racing horses in Mexico and these were the object of Villa's visit. Arriving at the ranch he was informed that the owner was away, whereupon he instructed a servant to announce him to Mrs. Gunther. That lady decided to receive the famous outlaw, but under the protection of the American flag. The Stars and Stripes were hoisted in the courtyard and the hostess appeared. Villa, unabashed by the formality of his reception, asked permission to visit the stables, coolly urging that his own horses were old and worn out and that it would be necessary to replace them. Mrs. Gunther refused to grant permission, reminding him that her husband was not there to authorize such a proceeding. "Very well," was the amiable assent, "but would you not allow me to smoke a cigarette and look into your beautiful eyes?" The lady pointed to the American flag, and while the bandit's sentimental gaze was distracted she covered him with her pistol. "But why?" he queried; "you are my country-woman!" "But an American citizen," was the calm retort. Overcome with admiration for the woman's pluck, the daring rover gallantly removed his sombrero, bowed and departed, promising that he would never, under any circumstances attack the Gunther property. And he kept his promise.—From "Pancho Villa, Man and Soldier," by N. C. Adossides, in the American Review of Reviews for May.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.
