TEACHERS' INSTITUTES

Three Institutes Planned on Ground that Other Kind Fail.

Arrangements have been completed for holding county teachers' institutes in San Saba, Mills, Brown and McCulloch counties, beginning Nov. 30 and closing Dec. 4, 1914. School officials of Mason and Menard counties have also agreed to join McCulloch county by having their teachers come to Brady while the McCulloch county institute is in session. In all something like 600 teachers are affected by the agreement.

The arrangement grew out of the conviction on the part of County Superintendent E. L. White of McCulloch county and his associates, Judge S. H. Allen of Mills county, Superintendent D. W. Brown of San Saba county and Superintendent Walker of Brown county, that county institutes as ordinarily conducted have failed to render service to the schools in proportion to their cost, and that only through intelligent co-operation could the character of work done in the institutes be improved.

One of the great difficulties county superintendents have to face is in getting outside talent for really worthy addresses that will prove inspirational and instructive to their teachers. While able speakers have been ready and willing to give their time heretofore, they have felt it cost them too much to spend a week traveling to some corner of the state to deliver one lecture to some fifty or sixty teachers. Under the co-operative plan adopted by the six counties mentioned it will be possible for a speaker to spend a week in that portion of the state and reach the teachers in six entire counties in four days.

When the opportunity of reaching so many teachers in so few days was explained to the United States Bureau of Education, and an invitation issued to Harold W. Foght, special ist on rural education, to visit the counties and speak on educational subjects, the invitation was at once accepted. Dr. Foght is one of the most forcible speakers in the United States on questions relating to rural life and country schools. During July he lectured one week at the University of Texas, and so favorable was the impression made then that he was secured as one of the leading speakers at the State Teachers' association which met at San Antonio yesterday.

State Superintendent W. F. Doughty has been invited to be present and expects to make the circuit, lecturing at each of the four county institutes. F. M. Bralley, president of the College of Industrial Arts, will make the trip also. S. G. Rubinow of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College will lecture on agriculture for the county schools, and C. B. Farrington of the Sam Houston Normal Institute will also address each institute. President S. P. Brooks of Baylor University has also accepted an invitation to visit each of the institutes. The present plan is for this group to visit Goldthwaite Monday, Nov. 30; Brownwood, Dec. 1; Brady, Dec. 2 and 3, and San Saba, Dec. 3 and 4.

In addition to the series of lectures which each institute will be able to hear, plans are under way for exchanging teachers. "Our intent has been to make such an improvement in the character of work our teachers do to bring them in contact with such men that their view of the profession will be broadened, and their capacity for leadership strengthened," said E. L. White, county superintendent of McCulloch county.

"Eventually we hope to develop the plan we have now merely begun. There are a few exceptionally able teachers in each county who have shown their particular lines of endeavor. Our plan contemplates such instructors appearing in each of the counties, and spreading through them all the results of the former year's experience and research."

REVENUE TAX.

Practically Every Merchant Must Pay After Dec. 1st

Effective December 1st, the special revenue war tax levied by Congress at its last session places a special tax on practically every line of merchandise in the country. Every merchant whose cigar and tobacco sales amount to $200 annually is subject to a tax of $3.20, while other lines are similarly affected.

The tax becomes due and payable the first of the coming month, and it is the duty of the merchant to obtain the necessary blanks for reporting to the internal revenue collector of the district in which his business is located. A failure to pay this tax subjects the offender to a fine of $50.

Full information regarding the payment of this tax may be had by addressing either of the following internal revenue collectors: S. L. Ware, Dallas; Harve McPhee, Ft. Worth, or A. S. Walker, Austin.

WONDER WORDS

Wonder, Ore., Nov. 6.
Editor Brady Standard:

Election is over and we are glad to know that conditions are no worse than they are.

We are not by any means a pessimist, yet we have lived long enough to get past the optimistic stage of life; and, judging by the number of initiative and referendum measures that were put before the electors this year and also at the last general election before this, one might be led to think that our citizenship is putting forth a tremendous effort to make itself better, or worse; and it is hard to tell which. However, the people voted "no" on about nine-tenths of every twenty propositions.

In another letter I may tell you of some of the eccentricities of the laws we are living under; and still they keep trying to heap more upon us. But we

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from woman trouble, and doctor lots for it, but with but success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16."

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

We are having beautiful fall weather. Foggy forenoons and sunny afternoons. Cold enough for fire, but no frost or ice.

We had a few very light frosts in September, but none since and we are eating fresh vegetables out of the garden and fruits out of the orchard. Since the fall rains the berry vines and bushes are blooming out like in springtime.

One of my Texas friends sent me a large ear of corn last spring and I planted it the 1st of May and we are now eating roasting ears green off the stalks. Some of it is just silking and tasseling and I fear will not so much as get into roasting ears.

One of my neighbors shot his brother for a deer just before the close of the hunting season, which is Oct. 31st for deer. This makes four of my neighbors who have been shot for deer by four others of my acquaintances. I never go in the woods on foot without thinking continually that some one will take a shot at me; especially when I stoop to pass under limbs and brush as the last two were shot while in a stooping posture.

There is one feature of the election that we have occasion to be thankful for and that is that Oregon and her sister state, Washington, both went dry by a good majority. The women who were opposed to having the duty of voting thrust upon them by the men on last general election, took a good view of the situation and turned out and voted like men; and said: "By gum, we'll close the saloons; we will," and, by gum, they did!

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

Now the women have got started—broken the ice, as it were—there is no telling where it will end. They may enact some law wherein their trifling husbands may have to go to work and support them decently. Seems to me that would be far better than going to the trouble of getting a divorce, and then take a chance on getting some other worthless cuss.

O. I. C. U. R. RIGHT.

Looking It Squarely in the Face

The Progressive Farmer has this to say:

"We want to make this an urgent, individual appeal to you, for we believe that it is only as the individual grower realizes that all-cotton another year means ruin that we can hope to achieve any real results in acreage reduction. Let's see what the facts in the case are and then look them squarely in the face:

"Cotton is now selling at 7c, or from 3 to 3 1/2 cents a pound below the cost of production. It is, of course, always unsafe to attempt to prophesy, but we are only stating a truth, when we say that to base our 1915 operations on any higher price is to court financial disaster.

"Undoubtedly the coming season will see the almost entire withdrawal of the credit usually extended to the cotton grower. This is merely good business—the part of the merchant and banker, for they will see that advancing money on a crop for which there may be no market is too dangerous a risk to take.

"Corn, oats, hay, meat, butter and eggs—in fact, food and feedstuffs of every kind, because of the vast destruction wrought in Europe, will be in enormous demand and at a higher average price than for years.

"With these facts before us, it is nothing more than sound business to plant less cotton another year. And let us not forget we are not cutting the cotton acreage to get a higher price for cotton, but simply because we can't afford to grow it at present prices—prices that in all likelihood will prevail next year.

"Let's not expect the other fellow to do it, for experience has shown that he can't be depended on. Rather, we, you and I, my friend, must do this thing, and prepare for it now. otherwise the hard times we are now experiencing will be doubly, yes trebly, severe a year from now. For the all-cotton farmer the handwriting is on the wall."

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For impure blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years. $1.00 a bottle.

BRADY, TEXAS, Nov. 27, 1914

The cotton holding plan of the Texas Bankers' association was placed on a permanent basis at a meeting in Dallas last week when the movement was officially endorsed by officials of the Texas Farmers' Union. This union on the part of the growers of cotton and the men who finance the crop, is considered by conservative business men as the most encouraging step in the cotton holding movement and it is believed that the culmination of the plan in bringing together these two forces will have an immediate effect of restoring the cotton situation to a normal basis.

Stockmen say that things are loosening up and the money market decidedly improved. In this connection it is quite interesting to note the stimulation caused by the large orders too, are in great demand. Eng has contracted for 1,000,000 pounds per day for an indefinite period and France, Germany and Austria are also bidding for American beef. Horses, too, are in great demand, England and France having placed orders running up into the millions.—Ex.

It seems that we are entering a period of rejuvenation for the land, following the war scare and its attendant bugaboos. No Texas Wheat to Europe
Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—The United States has approximately 300,000,000 bushels of wheat on hand this year for export and practically all of it will probably be sold to the warring countries of Europe. According to a report issued today by the United States Department of Agriculture the wheat production of the United States this year will be around 892,000,000 bushels and only 601,000,000 bushels will be needed for food consumption and seed purposes at home.

The per capita wheat consumption of Texas for food is 5.4 bushels and the total annual requirement for seed and food purposes in this state is 24,393,000 bushels, leaving a deficiency of production this year of approximately 10,327,000 bushels.

Alpine, Tex., Nov. 23.—An inexhaustible supply of nitrate of potash has been discovered near here by Mr. James L. Lafarello, a local property owner. Plans are on foot to commercialize the product and it is expected that a stock company will be formed at once and the mineral placed on the market.

The Texas Oat Crop.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—The 1914 oat crop of Texas will amount to approximately 24,500,000 bushels, compared with a total yield of 32,500,000 bushels last year, according to estimates given out today by the crop reporting board of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The yield this year is 25.0 bushels, and the product is bringing the farmers around 45 cents per bushel. Last year the average price was 48 cents per bushel.

The oat crop of continental United States this year is estimated at 1,136,755,000 bushels or about 15,000,000 bushels more than last season's yield. The average yield per acre in 1914 for the entire nation was 29.6 bushels and 29.9 bushels in 1913.

The following clipping from the Dallas News of the 15th inst. concerning the marriage of Lee Quicksall, a former Brady boy, and Miss Irene Seay of Dallas will be of interest to Brady and McCulloch county citizens:

A. L. Quicksall of Cleburne and Miss Irene Seay were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Seay, 3115 Carlisle street, the Rev. Robert Hill officiating with the ring ceremony. The event also celebrated the thirtieth marriage anniversary of the bride's parents. Miss Anna Mae Wristen of Baird sang "At Dawn." Miss Cyrine Allen was accompanist for the soloist, and also played Mendelssohn's wedding march. "The Rosary" was played during the ceremony.

Jessie Seay, dressed in white lace over blue, and Dorothy Keith, wearing white lace over pink, were the ribbon-bearers. Miss Jess Oliver, bridesmaid, wore pink crepe chiffon with panel velvet and pearl trimmings. Miss Birdie Tucker, also bridesmaid, wore blue crepe de chine with silver embroidered lace tunic. Both of the maids carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Miss Ruby Hill of Ft. Worth was the maid of honor. She was attired in blue crepe de chine with cream lace touches and carried a shower bouquet of pink violets.

Marian Darden of Waco was the ring-bearer, and carried the ring in the heart of a lily. She wore white lace over pink slip with pink butterfly bows. Frances Moss, dressed in white over blue slip with blue ribbons, and Wynell Cameron, in white over pink, with pink ribbons, were the flower girls. The bride wore white Duchesse satin over brocaded satin, with chantilly lace waist. The train fell from her shoulders, caught at the waist line with rosebuds. She wore orange blossoms which were worn by her mother on her wedding day in her veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lillies. The best man was R. G. Smith. The decorations featured a palm wedding. Pink and blue tulle carried out the color scheme. An informal reception was held after the ceremony.

Miss Seay received in a rose gray crepe de chine gown with mink trimmings and Medici collar of hand-made lace, with violet corsage. She was assisted by Mrs. George A. Darden. Miss Ardita Edwards of Oklahoma City and Mrs. Joseph W. Speight of Waco received in the library. Punch was served by Misses Inez Reeves and Lucile McCoy. Miss Isabel Hurley presided at the bride's book. Mr. and Mrs. Quicksall left Thursday for Cleburne, their home, and will reside at 621 North Anglin street.

You do not wish alum in your food

You desire to avoid it. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder contains no alum or lime phosphate. Its use is therefore a safeguard against objectionable mineral salts which are left in the biscuit and cake when made with inferior powders.

Chemists have shown that a large percentage of the chemicals of which alum baking powders are made remains in the food in the form of Glauber's Salt, hydrate of aluminum and other impurities.

Read the label on the can. Reject a baking powder unless the label shows cream of tartar. Buy and use

Appetite Follows Good Digestion

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gently yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For a free trial bottle write Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

A large number of the witnesses in the Etheridge murder case, which has been on trial in San Saba this week, were here Wednesday afternoon between trains enroute to their homes at Junction. Among the number was T. M. Hodges, I. O. Weldon, Roy Skaggs, Will Riley, John Martin, George Hodges, Henry Grobe, R. L. Jarvis, W. T. Jarvis, Jeff Meredith, J. R. Ragland and Rev. J. S. Durst.

A "DIFFERENT" CONTEST

All the Candidates in Each District Get Distinct Chance.

The contest offer that we are making in connection with the Temple Daily Telegram is as different from the general run of contests as it is possible for it to be. In fact there should be some other name for this proposition. It is a contest, of course, but its plan is so different and its character so much above the common contest that there is no comparison.

In effect, this is a competition between districts of approximately the same voting strength. All the candidates in each district compete with all the candidates in each district, and the seven highest districts get handsome prizes in addition to the prizes that go to the leaders in every district. For instance, if this district runs absolutely last, which it will not do, the highest candidate in this district would get that delightful trip to the fair and the next candidate would get fifty dollars. These two prizes are certain, no matter where we finish. But if this district runs first, and it will, if our entries work hard enough, the highest candidate would get $800.00 in cash and the next eight candidates would get prizes ranging from twenty-five dollars to four hundred dollars in cash. And the third highest candidate would get the trip.

Another difference between this and ordinary contests is that it is impossible for the contest managers to manipulate the vote in this contest (a full page will be devoted to this feature of the contest in our magazine section next Friday).

It is not too late to start. As a matter of fact this contest is just getting started in all districts. Contestants still have three full month in which to fine up their friends.

Good Roads

Homer D. Wade of Stamford, secretary of the Texas Good Roads association says:

The country road is a most important factor in rural life. A well kept road is an ear-mark of a well-bred population. Highway improvement is always followed by better living conditions. The next best thing to a good home is a good road by which to reach it.

Although good roads are expensive to construct they are of too much value to be neglected, because bad roads affect the home and the nation's standard of life and its future among the powers of the world.

Good roads and streets are the arteries of community circulation and a town without them is retrogressing.

The rising generation of America will demand quicker intercommunication than is possible on many of the country roads of today.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctor'd and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time."
