

THANK YOU

We want to express our gratitude to our friends and customers for their liberal patronage and the many deeds of kindness which they have shown us during the past year.

The loyalty they have shown us has helped to make the year just closed one of the best we have enjoyed.

We hope to make 1915 a still better year than the one just closed.

We try to keep in touch with our custom in a way that we may keep such goods in stock as they want, giving the best service and the most courteous treatment that our knowledge and ability can render.

If you cannot come to our store, send the children.

Your friend,

Opera House Opens Friday

The Brady opera house will reopen Friday night, after having been closed for four days to allow a force of five men to put in new ceiling and paper and decorate the auditorium. The work is being rushed. As fast as ceiling is placed it is cottoned and papered close behind the carpenters. Friday night's attraction will be the 11th installment of "The Million Dollar Mystery," which grows more interesting with each reel.

On Saturday night the attraction will be the great 3-reel Indian feature "White Dove's Sacrifice." Two other reels will also be shown.

Family Reunion

One of the most enjoyable features of the Christmas holidays for Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bryson of this city was a family reunion attended by the five sons and daughters, together with a number of grandchildren.

A big turkey dinner served Christmas day added to the pleasures of the occasion. The children who were present are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bryson and two children of Sonora, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bryson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reed and children of this city and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Awalt of Camp San Sabá.

Married at Menard

Marion Callan, a prominent young business man and ranchman of Menard, and Miss Nola Tindel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tindel of this city, were married in Menard last Friday night.

The bride is a well known Brady girl, and has many friends and admirers here. She graduated with honors from the Brady high school in the class of 1912-13, and for the past two years has taught school in Menard county, where she has proven uniformly popular with patrons and students alike.

The groom is one of Menard county's native sons and a young man of more than ordinary business ability. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Callan, one of the pioneer families of that section.

The happy young couple will make their home in Menard.

New Light Fixtures

The beauty of the interior of O. D. Mann & Son's new 3-story building has been considerably enhanced by the installation of handsome new electric light fixtures.

The new fixture consists of a frosted glass bulb surrounding the electric globe over which is a large frosted reflector. The whole is suspended from the ceiling with a heavy brass chain. One hundred-watt lamps are used, and a mellow, white light is shed over the entire lower floor of the big building.

Married Sunday

At the Methodist parsonage Sunday at noon, Oscar Kunitz, Jr., of Brownwood and Miss Bertie Lee Brown of Rochelle were married, Rev. I. T. Morris performing the ceremony in the presence of members of his family.

The young couple left Sunday night for Brownwood, where they will reside.

"Some" Lemon.

Supt. Joe M. Lyle of the Brady Water & Light Co. handed us a lemon a few days ago, and we claim it was "some" lemon. The fruit is of the Ponderosa variety, measuring 13 1-2 inches in circumference and weighed one pound, three and one-half ounces. It was grown at the home of Judge and Mrs. N. G. Lyle in this city, the tree producing a number of smaller specimens in addition to the big one.

To add insult to injury Mr. Lyle refused to allow us to keep the lemon, so we handed it back to him.

Congregation Calls Pastor

Rev. Ernest J. Bradley of Durant, Oklahoma, preached yesterday at the First Christian church, in response to an invitation from the congregation of that church, and following the sermon the board of stewards extended an invitation to the Rev. Mr. Bradley to accept the pastorate of the church. Rev. Baxter Golightly has been supplying the church as a temporary pastor, following the resignation of Rev. Horace Settle a few weeks ago. Rev. Bradley has not yet accepted the call, but has the matter under consideration.

Mr. Bradley for several years was pastor of the Christian church at Lampasas, and is well known by members of the denomination in Texas. He is a man of forceful character, and as a pulpit speaker and pastor has had wonderful success since beginning the work of the ministry.—Brownwood Bulletin.

SEES SIGNS OF THE TIMES

San Antonio Man Going Heavily Into Production of Meat.

Twenty-six miles westward from San Antonio, in the almost virgin mountain territory soon to be opened up by the extension and improvement of a county road, lies a 2,000-acre ranch that is being converted into the very latest in modern live stock production by A. E. Fox of San Antonio and is to be known as Foxdale.

Two thousand acres south of Leon Springs are being stocked with goats, Jersey cattle and Duroc hogs, and 300 acres has been set aside for the production of milo maize, feterita, kaffir corn and other grains, and modern silos are being erected.

During the past week a herd of 1,200 Angora goats were brought from west of Uvalde by J. E. Young, manager of the ranch, and before spring the owner expects to have 2,000 goats feeding on the ranch.

Already 1,000 Duroc hogs have been placed on the ranch and pure-bred Jersey cattle are being picked up. By next summer it is the hope of the owner to have the ranch in full operation. A deer proof fence has been placed about the land, 1,000 acres of which Mr. Fox has purchased outright and 1,000 acres of which he has obtained on a long-time lease.

Mr. Fox declares it is the opening up of new opportunity for ranch investment brought about by the macadamizing of county roads that has made it practical.

Speaking of feterita he said: "There are amazing possibilities in feterita, maize and kaffir corn with the assistance of the modern silo, and we expect to have one of the most profitable ranches in Texas within a few years. I look for the future to find fortunes invested in the raising and feeding of feterita, where there have been only dollars. These crops will grow in the driest years in the mountain valleys.

"We have 300 acres under feed crops and with the pasturage we expect to produce some of the best meat raised in the country. There is a great section of country here that remains to be developed, and the improvement of the county roads will open it up."

Mr. Fox is enthusiastic over the wonders accomplished by the silo with feed crops that formerly went to waste on the average farm, and those being erected on the Foxdale ranch are patterned after the most modern ensilage producers of Kansas and Nebraska.

ASSOCIATIONS

Following is "The Parson's" New Year greeting to his friends, as published in the Brownwood Bulletin, to the columns of which he is a regular contributor.

Speaking for myself, we appreciate being so kindly remembered by "The Parson," and, like Rip Van Winkle of old "may he live long and prosper."

"A Happy New Year to everybody! The Parson is thankful that there is not, so far as he knows, a single person in the wide world for whom he does not wish a happy new year. He wishes that his congregation may have a happy new year and that they may grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is the only way he knows of for a Christian man to have any happiness at all. He wishes a happy new year to his brethren of the ministry, and to this end that their labors may be blessed to the salvation of men. He congratulates them and himself on the fact that, however they may differ in many things there is no difference when they work together for the good of men.
The Parson wishes a happy new year to all that agree with him, and congratulates them on having so much sense, and to those who disagree with him, wishing that they had more sense. The Parson has some more or less disreputable friends—such as the lawyer tribe, Walt Early, G. N. Harrison, McCartney, Wilkinson, Mark McGee, in fact about all the lawyers in Brownwood, Ernest Morris, E. B. Henley and others. He wishes them all a happy new year. He does not forget his half-brothers of the press—Hervey Mayes, J. M.
White, L. B. Russell of Coma-che, Richardson of the Brady Standard, Cowan of San Saba—who demeans himself by going to the legislature, Cy Tunnell, that ingrained democrat and inveterate whiner after a possible, Claud Callan, McBeath of the Temple Telegram, and for fear he has forgotten somebody —"the whole push." He wishes them all health and prosperity in the coming year. The past year has brought much turmoil and suffering to the earth; God grant that the new year may bring a better mind to men, 'peace on earth and good will.'

LICENSED MURDER A BUSI- NESS MATTER

"The death of a few thousand men, more or less, means little at the time," says a returned war correspondent recently. "It must be remembered that killing and being killed is the main business of a soldier; it is all in the day's work.

"I saw a bride of four weeks whose husband had been killed in battle. On the day she got that news there was a raid through the little town in which she lived. When the marauders left, the village was in ashes and in the ashes lay the bodies of the woman's father, her father-in-law, her 14-year-old and 16-year-old brother. Her bedridden uncle lay dead, and to make the score complete, her mother, brought down by a stray shot, lay weltering. She was left alone. She wore a dress but no hat. She told me her story in a curious, dead, impersonal manner, quite detached and disinterested. Now and then, at some expressions of sympathy she smiled. I wished she had not smiled that way. It hurts to recall it."

And yet it is press report that the armies enter upon this butchery with hymns on their lips and the monarchs believe or pretend to believe the destiny of a nation greater than humanity and that they are divinely appointed to do this diabolism. Strange, passing strange, when might makes right wholesale murder at one time, and individual murder a capital offense at another. Who can say which one of them inside of ten years had they not fallen out among themselves, might not have inflicted all this upon us?

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE UNITED STATES?

"What is the matter with the United States?"

As I have been residing in London since the beginning of the war I have been hearing this question asked on all sides.
I have never heard any satisfactory answer. No one seems to know.

Why are the American factories not running night and day? Why are the railroads not opening up new territory and getting ready for the millions of immigrants who have already made up their minds to leave Europe as soon as the war is over?

Why are there not fifty American drummers in London right now trying to sell $200,- 000,000 worth of American goods in place of the goods that were bought last year from Germany and Austria?

Why have advertisers become quitters just at the time when their advertisements were most needed and most effective in cheering on the business forces of the United States?

From the European point of view, the United States is a haven of peace and security and prosperity. It has no troubles that it dare mention to Belgium or Austria or France or Germany or Russia or Great Britain or Russia.

Every tenth Briton has enlisted. Every tenth Frenchman is at the front. Every tenth Belgian is dead. What does the United States know of trouble?

If I could afford it I would charter the Mauretania and Lusitania and convey a party of 5,000 American advertisers to Europe for a trip of education.
I would give them a week in London, a week in Paris and a week in Antwerp.

I would let them look at the United States from the scene of war. I would give them a look at real trouble. I would let them see trains, ten at a time, five minutes apart, packed with the maimed and the dying.

I would let them hear, from fragmentary survivors, the incredible story of battlefields 150 miles wide and armies that are greater than the entire population of Texas.

I would let them see graves 100 yards long and full, and Belgium, the country that was, nothing now but 12,000 miles of wreckage.

Then, when they began to understand to some slight extent the magnitude and awful-ness of this war, I would say to them:

"Now go back and appreciate the United States. Realize your opportunities. Don't start digging trenches when nobody is firing at you. Don't fall down when you have not been hit.
Don't be blind to the most glorious chance you have ever had in your life.

"Go back and advertise. Get ready for the most tremendous business boom that any nation measurably to correct this before the war is over.

"I feel perfectly confident that insofar as this country is concerned the most serious hurt of the European war is over.
It is up to the American people as to whether they shall avail themselves of the opportunities and discharge the duties now plainly theirs."—S. P. Skinner, President Citizens Bank and Trust Co., San Antonio.

SOLUTION OF TROUBLE

"No doubt congress will take immediate steps to encourage the building up of an American merchant marine, for without the means of distributing the products which we in the United States have to offer it would be useless to seek a market. That the market could easily be obtained seems to be a foregone conclusion."—John J. Stevens, Vice President Central Trust Co., San Antonio.

The average profit from canning tomatoes made by farm girls in twelve states this year was $21.90. There were thirty thousand of these girls, and many of them made sums far in excess of the average. One this page is, that business will be good this year and if anyone goes to the financial scrap-heap it will be his own fault and from a lack of "get there." It will be found that this is endorsed by the president and vice president of the Citizens Bank and Trust Co. of San Antonio and by the best business men of Dallas.

lies in the direction of liberal

PROSPERITY SURE, SAYS A BANK PRESIDENT

"The partial suspension of all kinds of industries in Europe will impose greater duties and make greater demands upon industries in America. Continuance of the war will mean that all our factories and farms will be taxed to their utmost to meet the demands that will be made upon them. Not only this, but the nations of our own continent to the south of us, heretofore supplied by the warring nations, now look to us. Our relations to them are the most friendly and encouraging. With ability to feed and clothe the earth, and a regenerated banking system that will enable us to finance it as well, why shall we not be prosperous, even while other nations are suffering the blight and destruction of war? From our viewpoint their war should have been avoided, but we shall be glad to feed and clothe them while they fight. It is their war, not ours. Our only serious handicap is the lack of an adequate merchant marine. But if I mistake not we shall have time realized a net profit just under $100 on her 950 cans of tomatoes, while a neighbor made 1,- 008 cans with a profit to herself of $77.73. The department of agriculture is behind the movement and each girl takes one-tenth of an acre and is taught by demonstration agents how to select seed, plant, cultivate and perfect the tomato plant. Meanwhile portable canning outfits have been provided to be set up out of doors. When the tomatoes are ripe the girls meet, now at one home, now at another, to can the product.

When garden stuff is gone it would seem that a good profit might be found all winter in homely pork and beans.

feel safe in predicting that from the ashes will soon arise an even bigger and better paper to stand as a monument to his ability and progressiveness.

Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jordan celebrated Mrs. Jordan's 59th birthday Sunday, with a family reunion at their home in this city, at which all their children and a number of grandchildren were present.

The children present were:
Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jordan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jordan and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
Lewis Jordan of Voca, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Finlay and son of Fife, and Mrs. George Yantis of Amarillo.

This was the first time all members of the family had been together in fifteen years, and proved one of the most enjoyable occasions of their lives.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work,

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored.
I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial.
It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Mrs. George Yantis, who has been a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jordan, here during the holidays, left Sunday night for her home in Amarillo. She was accompanied upon her return by Miss Erin Yantis, who will spend several months there as her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones and family left this morning for their home near Junction. They have been spending several days here with relatives and friends upon their return from Rock Island, where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kerr.

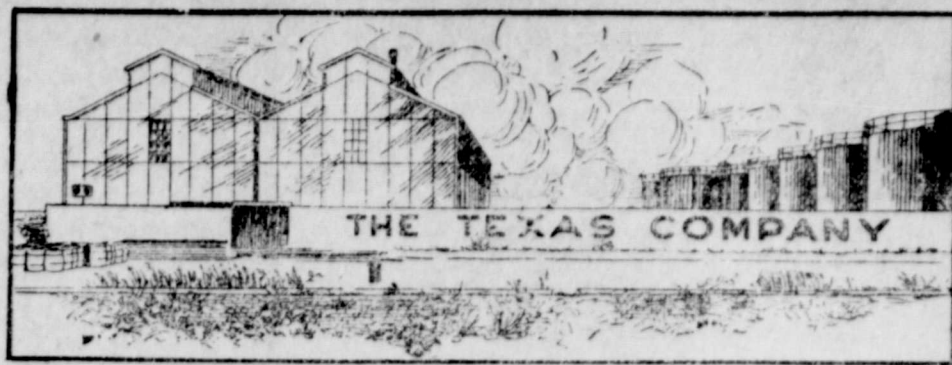

Misses Una Marie Hall, Jewel Caperton, Mary Snider and Messrs. Oscar T. Doell and S. P. Boone were members of a jolly party that went to Rochelle Friday to be guests of Miss Emma Young at a New Year dinner. They report one of the most enjoyable times of their lives.

Misses Sarah Johanson and Harriet Pence, who have been spending the holidays here with their parents, Messrs. and Mesdames C. C. Johanson and W. R. Pence, left last night for Eureka Springs, Ark., where they are students in Crescent College and Conservatory.

Mrs. Dr. J. B. McKnight, son and daughter, John and Miss Mary, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Benham and other friends here Friday and Saturday while enroute to their home at Carlsbad from Fredonia, where they spent the holidays as guests of Mrs. McKnight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Latham.

Swen Swenson returned Friday from Fort Worth, where he has been located for the past two years, and will again make his home in Brady. Mr. Swenson was formerly a valued employee of the hardware department of O. D. Mann & Sons for many years, and returns here to accept his old position with that firm.

Texas Oil Products in the War Zone

Over in Europe in the zone where the fiercest fighting of this world war has occurred, and in adjacent countries The Texas Company has many stations, tanks and warehouses for the distribution of the Texas oil products to the European people.

The Antwerp station and other stations so situated are destroyed. In Antwerp the American Consul did his utmost to save the property, but in the exigencies of the bombardment much of this investment was lost.

Incidentally, of course, all the business which had been secured at those points is cut off. The stations will be rebuilt and new business undoubtedly secured as conditions return to normal.

Five ships carrying Texaco oil products to far distant points were on the ocean highways when war broke out. One cargo was seized and others delayed. Yet the business of The Texas Company goes on apace with increased rather than decreased volume. All the workers are enjoying their full measure of employment, factories are running full blast, supplies are being bought as usual.

Many a small business would have been ruined by a succession of interruptions and difficulties such as these, but the business built up by the reputation and character of The Texas Company's goods and manufactures, goes into so many corners of the earth and supplies so many millions of people that the unfortunate incidents in Europe have not materially affected the total business of the Company—cannot do so.

The same reputation that has built up this valuable business is behind the products for sale in your town. Look for the Red Star and Green T trade-mark, which identifies the products of The Texas Company the world over. It is the mark of oil quality.

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE

Calomel is Quicksilver and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

EDEN ECHOES

From Eden Echo:

J. M. Carter is feeding about twenty head of cattle for the market. He expects to have them in fine shape by February. The proceeds from twenty fat cows beats 20 bales of cotton very much.

We had for our guests, on Christmas, our mother-in-law, brother-in-law, two sisters-in-law, two nieces and one nephew. They were Mrs. Baze and Miss Nara Baze, Mr. and Mrs. Audie Turner and family and Miss Ethel Baze. Their homes are near Camp San Saba, Texas, and their ages range from 3 to 63 years and this was the first trip for each of them on a train. They enjoyed the ride immensely and we were glad to have them visit us.

How To Give Quinine To Children. FEBRELIN is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a tasteless Syrup, pleasant to take, and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not nauseate nor cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask for 2 ounce original package. The name FEBRELIN is blown in bottle. 25 cents.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of these sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Settles Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

Sherman is Still Correct.

In his own forceful style, Irvin S. Cobb, of the Saturday Evening Post, writing in the Red Cross Magazine for January, tells of the misery he saw during his recent trip in the European war zone. Speaking of these made homeless and destitute by the war, he says in part:

"I saw them tramping aimlessly along wind-swept, rain-washed roads, fleeing from burning and devastated villages. I saw them sleeping in open fields upon the miry earth with no cover and no shelter. I saw them herded together in the towns and cities from which many of them ultimately fled, existing God alone knows how. I saw them—ragged, fugitive scarecrows—prowling in the shattered ruins of their houses, seeking salvage where there was no salvage to be found. I saw them living like the beasts of the field, upon such things as the beasts of the field would reject. I saw them standing in long lines waiting for their poor share of the dole of a charity which already was nearly exhausted. I saw their towns when hardly one stone stood upon another. I saw their abandoned farm lands, where the harvests rotted in the furrows and the fruit hung miledew and ungathered upon the trees. I saw their cities where trade was dead and credit was a thing which no longer existed. I saw them staggering from weariness and from the weakness of hunger. I saw all these sights repeated and multiplied infinitely—yes, and magnified, too—but not once did I see a man or woman or even a child that wept or cried out."

The horrors of war as portrayed by Mr. Cobb are enough to startle a hardened criminal. He told of seeing soldiers in tatters and streams of wounded pouring back from the front endlessly. It is a strictly neutral word picture he paints in the interest of humanity in the future. The title of the article is "The War Bleight."

Huerta Hates Democrats.

Far from the scenes of his former triumphs and defeats, General don Victoriano Huerta, once dictator of Mexico, will spend his Christmas near the city of Barcelona, Spain, where he dwells in a small house half an hour's drive from the city. In the bitterness of his soul he is quoted as saying: "My particular dislike is directed against the Democratic party and President Wilson."

The surrounding of Huerta, the outcast, are not those of a man of wealth, and he explains that he has barely enough money to keep his family in comfort. He moves about quietly and without ostentation. Every afternoon he may be found in a prominent cafe, drinking with some of his lieutenants and talking quietly, but he never is in the spotlight.

Huertas physicians have advised him to return to America, but he refuses to heed their advice. His house is in a small garden and there are other similar little homes on all sides. He appears stouter than formerly and wore a new overcoat with the collar turned up, though his health is perfect.

Asked his opinion of the situation in Mexico, he said:

"Houses are being sacked, highwaymen pillage everywhere and no one or anything is safe. There is burning, robbing and murdering. No one respects Carranza. There is neither order nor authority. Such a situation ought to come to an end. I would have restored calm to the country had it not been for the intervention of the United States. Bandits have taken possession of my property, that is, of my wife's, for I have nothing."

Speaking of the great future of Mexico he said there was room for Spain, Portugal, France and Germany to be placed, and yet there would be unoccupied space. He would not predict what was likely to take place.

Of Gutierrez, he said: "No, I have never seen him. All I know of him is that he was formerly a miner and that he had in Mexico City a rather unpretentious supply store. I know that he has succeeded in bribing the assembly and that they named him provisional president. He will probably last just seventy days."

"I do not wish to return to Mexico and shall not unless my country needs me as a soldier. If my country were threatened, then, yes."

"I do not bear hatred against the American people, rather I admire them. My particular dislike is directed against the Democratic party and President Wilson."

Huerta and his friends are not welcome at Spanish clubs or in society and he is said to live poorly.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE.

Look, Mother! If Tongue is Coated Give "California" Syrup of Figs.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother; see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
