The man who causes two blades of grass to grow where one grew before may be blessed, but the fellow who grows two hogs where one grew before can pay his mortgage quicker.

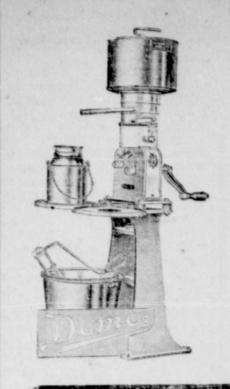

Every department of agriculture and every newspaper in the land has impressed farmers with the need of raising many crops and much livestock. The farmers realize all this but ask: "How can I? To start into live stock requires capital and I have less this year than usual to do it with." It's up to business men and newspapers to crack this nut.

A farm journal intimates! that one way to get into livestock raising without capital is to set "one or two hens" and raise pure bred chickens. What kind of an animated corpse would a farmer be by the time profits equalled his grocery bill, that way? Better tell him to buy an incubator and also set all the hens he can grab. And, come to think about it, there'd be quicker profit if every chick was a common or grade fowl raised for market or eggs

The Great Creator in His wisdom created many men of many minds, knowing that if the sons of men were alike in wishes and desires it would lead to unending strife. He created well, but in some way there crept into the world a creature God did not create—a thing self-made, be it male or female, that is hated, despised and abhorred; a thing self-created, self pitied and abnormally self-loved. This creature is the chronic grouch. He reads as he runs that all men are liars and all women but creatures of evil. The bitterness of gall and wormwood is within his heart. Men shun him and the world hates him. There's too much love and sunshine in this old world of ours to spoil it with the canker of selfishness.

COLORS IN UPTURNED HEMS

Pretty Idea, and the Latest in Vogue Is to Have Contrast With the Rest of the Skirt.

The innovation in upturned hems on the outside of the skirt has given the colorists another chance to put in a dash of tone that will contrast with the rest of the skirt. As Roman stripes and Scotch plaids continue to reappear, on the best of the new clothes, it is only natural that they should find an abiding place at the bottom of the skirt or at the edge of one of those wired tunics that are made of all kinds of thin material.

There is a dark blue coat suit of gabardine which has a two-inch hem of red, white and blue plaid bound with a black velvet ribbon at the top; the coat does not have a collar of the plaid which is the first thing one "in a most ridiculous situation, thinks of its having, but the Scotch silk shows up as envelope flaps to the three pockets, which are edged with a black velvet ribbon and fastened over a black velvet button.

"Well, it's lucky for me, anyhow. I filled in with lavender silk floss the small lavender designs on the white ground. In this particular instance the embroidering was done after the shirt was made up, just as it had come from the haberdasher's. If the shirt is made at home, the embroidering is done before the material is made up. The satin stitch is used with pleasing results for this purpose. It is only necessary to embroider the

All-Black Hat Smartest.

The all-black hat is the smart headgear of the hour, regardless of the shape, and it is a practical choice for the beach. A black hat does not look quite as summery or light as an freight and packages handled all-white hat, but the sun cannot damage it as it can one of colored straw, ployees. or even one of the natural tone straw, which may become actually sunburnt. Matthews Bros There is a fad for trimming some of the black hats with blue ribbon bows and a few of the bolder spirits among the fashion leaders are appearing in brown straw hats. When the latter are worn with brown shoes and stockings and a sash of brown moire or tulle the effect is really artistic.

Sweet Odors.

The greatest profusion of sweet odors comes to us from France and always are the perfumers adding a new triumph to their art. Faint, delicate perfumes haunt us as does the breath of spring. A scent that combines a spicy, woodsy smell with the faint, sweet suggestion of flowers is one of the new bouquet perfumes.

The coat of colored jersey cloth has taken the place of the sweater for at the edge.
