Lose Wheel Off Auto.

While returning from the Mathews ranch at Peg Leg Sunday, S. A. Benham lost a wheel off his Overland, but though he was running at a good rate of speed he managed to bring the car to a standstill with nothing more serious than a shaking up of the occupants. The accident occurred about three miles out from Brady. Accompanying Mr. Benham were Mrs. Benham, Mrs. J. F. Schaeg and Miss Elma Collins. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Noble, who were also returning from the Mathews ranch picked the party up and assisted them in returning to town.

Arrested at Millersview

Sheriff A. R. Mace of Lampasas county spent several hours in the city last Friday enroute to Lampasas from Millersview, to which place he has gone to take charge of Dayton Birdwell, a boy 15 years of age, arrested at the latter place on Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Bishop of Concho county, on a warrant charging theft of a horse near Lometa a few days ago.

According to local officers, the horse stolen at Lometa was ridden to Rochelle, where it was traded for another animal and the journey westward continued by young Birdwell. Officers in all adjoining counties had been notified by Sheriff Mace to be on the lookout for Birdwell and he was picked up at Millersview by the Concho county deputy.

Sheriff Mace left for Lampasas Friday night via the Frisco in charge of his prisoner.

S. Goldwasser to Market

S. Goldwasser, Brady's popular dry goods merchant, announces that he will leave on Thursday for St. Louis to spend something like 15 days inspecting the new markets and selecting his line of spring goods. This semi-annual pilgrimage of Mr. Goldwasser's is always looked forward to with great anticipation by his many friends and customers, as he is sure to bring back with him many delightful surprises in the way of the latest creations in ladies ready-to-wear, as well as the latest decrees of fashion in dress goods, shoes, lingerie and the many other things so dear to the feminine heart.

Mr. Goldwasser says the prospects never looked brighter to him; that business had never been more satisfactory, and in view of these circumstances his customers may expect unusually heavy and extensive purchases by him while at market. Mr. Goldwasser requests his friends and patrons to call at his store upon his return and assures one and all that he will have many delightful surprises for them, and that they will have no occasion to regret their visit.

E. J. Broad is spending several days here looking after the local store. Mr. Broad is dividing the greater part of his time between Brady and Brownwood just at present. At Brownwood he is preparing to open a big store in his old location, under the management of Harry Broad. The building has been remodeled and Mr. Broad expects to do business upon a big scale. He is a live wire in every sense of the word, and the Brownwood folks are hailing his return to business circles there with every expression of delight. Mr. Broad continues his Fort Worth store as before, but expects to give the Brownwood and Brady ends of the business the greater part of his personal supervision.

Fifty by Ninety Feet on East Side Sold to W. H. Gibbons

A deal was closed last week by Melton Land Co. of this city, whereby W. J. Coalson of Coleman sold a lot 50x90 feet on the east side of the public square to Billie Gibbons of Richland Springs, the consideration in the deal being $9,500.

The property purchased by Mr. Gibbons is improved, having two wooden buildings on the lot, one occupied by Townsend's Penny Store and the other by a restaurant, and was acquired by him as an investment.

Mr. Gibbons is the largest holder of business property in Brady, and his faith in the future of the city is attested by the fact that he never overlooks

W. H. Wilson Dead.

As a shock to his many friends comes the news of the death on Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock of W. H. Wilson. The end came suddenly at his home in South Brady, where he had been confined for several days by an attack of illness.

Mr. Wilson came here last October from Shreveport, La., in search of a change of climate that would benefit an affliction of stomach trouble. After remaining in Brady for several weeks he became so impressed with her climate and so charmed with her people that he decided to locate permanently, and was joined here by his family. From time to time he suffered attacks of illness, and his late illness was apparently no more severe than the others. Early Monday morning he appeared much improved, but suddenly became worse, and never rallied.

Prior to his residence at Shreveport, Mr. Wilson was located in New Orleans, where for a long number of years he had the state agency for the San Antonio Life Insurance Co., having supervision of some ten counties. He was a quiet, sincere and upright gentleman, and during his short residence in the city had won countless warm friends. Surviving are his widow and two children, one aged seven, the other four. Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced, pending the arrival of a brother from Louisiana.

From Former Bradyite

In sending in his renewal to The Standard, J. F. Quicksall, a former well known Brady and McCulloch county citizen, who is at present serving in the capacity of farm demonstration agent of Johnson county, a position he has held for the past two or three years, writes as follows:

"I am sending my renewal to The Standard. We are interested in the progress and welfare of the Brady country and must have The Standard to keep in touch. I am always pleased to see good citizens co-operating for progress and better conditions for our people. I regret to see the 'Demonstration Farm Work' turned down in McCulloch county. This is certainly a step backward. I have been retained in this county as agent for another year. We had a Diversified Farming Campaign the 18th of this month, conducted by Prof Perry G. Holden, formerly of A. & M. College, Iowa. They made 45 speeches, using charts and demonstrations. There were fifteen speakers and the campaign has aroused a great interest in better farming in Johnson county."

On Tuesday evening the ninth of February, one thousand nine hundred fifteen at eight o'clock at three hundred and eight West Chandler Street
Brownwood, Texas.

The news of his approaching marriage will be learned with interest by the many friends of Boyd Rainbolt in this city. Mr. Rainbolt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rainbolt, and has lived here practically all his life. For the past year or so he has resided in Brownwood, where he has been a valued employe in the grocery business of M. W. Terry, and it was while engaged upon his duties there that he met and won his bride-to-be. He is an enterprising and deserving young man and is worthy of the good fortune that has befallen him. Miss Terry is a young lady of many charms and accomplishments, comes of one of the oldest and best known families in Brownwood, and is universally popular among a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Following the wedding ceremony the happy couple will make a short visit with the parents of the groom in this city, after which they will return to Brownwood and take up housekeeping in a neat little home already furnished by Mr. Rainbolt. The Standard joins in wishing the couple every happiness, long life and success.

BRADY, TEXAS, Feb. 9, 1915.

AND SO IT GOES

A Lometa business man tells us that if he were editing a paper in Lometa he would devote most of his space to fighting the mail order concerns. After having examined our books we find that he has expended 60 cents in advertising his business in the past 15 months. And so it goes.—Lometa Reporter.

Unfortunately, Herbert, you haven't a monopoly on that brand of "business" man. Not that we wish you any bad luck, but we do wish the number were confined to that one Lometa man. But there's scads of 'em, and every city, every town, every village and every community has 'em. They cheerfully ask the newspaper man to put up a $3,000 to $150,000 investment just to fight the mail order houses, while they themselves figure that the 60 cents they spend (perhaps in the course of a period of fifteen months entitles them to a crown with a diamond solitaire, a golden harp, full grown wings and a perpetual pass through the pearly gates.

QUEER WORLD THIS

Two horribly brutal crimes committed recently in Fort Worth, when a man was slugged and his eyes put out with sulphuric acid, and another man's throat was cut, his face beaten beyond recognition and the body hidden under a culvert, are hair raisers. To the outside world it looks very much like a police force was "asleep at the switch," or playing cards in the city hall. The perpetrators of neither crime have been apprehended and so far no kind of clew has been found which would lead to the arrest of the criminals. Oh, Fort Worth, thou who persecutest ministers and art the scene of many mysterious crimes, thou hast best keep watch.—Hamilton Record.

And now it develops that the man, in a fit of despondency, threw the acid upon himself, terribly disfiguring his face and very likely destroying his eyesight. Might it be possible that the other victim cut his own throat, beat his own face to a pulp and then hid his body under a culvert?

THE POT OF GOLD.

The Brownwood Bulletin reports inability to prove the rumor current there last week that a child had found a pot of Spanish gold which had lain for many years beside the stream while countless explorers unearthed thousands of cubic yards of dirt in a vain search for the treasure. Of course, everybody knows there is treasure hidden somewhere hereabouts, and from time to time the long lost "Bowie Mine" or else the "Pot of Gold" is discovered, only to be lost again, and again rediscovered at some period when things are dull and excitement needs stirring up.

But there is treasure hidden here, sure enough, and don't you ever doubt it for a moment. It takes a deal of plowing and harrowing and sowing and reaping, and sometimes favorable rains and sunshine, too, to gain the hidden treasure. And it's the genuine article, too.

Nevertheless as the years roll on there will always be someone looking for the treasure to turn up something better than fool's gold or moonbeams and always there will be someone hunting the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

HOW TO PUT VALUE IN PROPERTY

Keep McCulloch county money at home. If sent to mail order houses, it never returns, and the good it might do at home is lost. It isn't so much the loss of the dollar, as it is the loss of the power to pay debts here and there, and help out at every crook and turn that is lost when the cash is sent away. Keep our dollars on the jump by trading at home.—Brady Standard.

"If all of the wealth that is created in a Texas community should remain in that community, property values would increase in a most amazing way. The constant drain of ready money has a tendency to retard local business transactions and really makes local property less valuable.—Temple Telegram.

CHEESE IT

To eat cheese with crackers. Cut the cheese into small pieces as needed, place on a piece of cracker with the fork and elevate to the mouth with the fingers. More etiquette.—Temple Telegram.

Nix on that sort of etiquette. The members of the Keg Klub have frowned upon it; the sen-treas, has discouraged it; the president has placed a ban upon it. To eat cheese with crackers properly let your conscience be your guide as to the size of the piece of cheese you cut; sandwich said cheese, large or small between two crackers, and elevate to the mouth with both hands, if necessary. It is advisable, however, to keep one hand disengaged from the cheese and crackers in order to take deep, copious draughts of some sort of liquid—let your conscience be your guide in that matter also.

LET THE SEARCH GO ON

Admiral Peary laments that the war has practically destroyed the north pole business.—Temple Telegram.

Let Admiral Peary cease his search for new lands; let Cook of North Pole fame, or infamy (we are neutral) assist in the search, lest when the European war has ended there might arise another Alexander the Great to mourn that there were no new lands to conquer.

A DRY WELL

There's really nothing in a name, after all, as witness the fact that Jim Wells county remains in the dry column—Waco Morning News.

Moralists can now point out new good in a dry well, but it will be hard to make the driller see it. Well, well, well.

North Fort Worth's two progressive banking institutions recently held their annual stock holders meeting. The sense of these meetings was things are in good condition generally and that the outlook for 1915 is especially promising. This should be creative of good cheer on the part of the general public, inasmuch as the banker generally knows what he is talking about in such matters.—Ft. Worth Live Stock Reporter.

"Selling cheaper than the other fellow," is no "pipe dream." Watch the merchant who advertises as he turns his goods at small profits four or five times a year; then watch the fellow who does not. Turning four or five times, say at 5 per cent, he really does sell cheaper and in the turning actually, cleans up more cash. This kind of store benefits the

TO ISSUE $361,000 BONDS

Commission Fixes Valuation for S. A., F. & N. Road.

Bonds to the amount of $361,000 and bearing six per cent interest will be issued at once on the San Antonio, Fredericksburg & Northern railway.

Some time ago engineers of the railroad commission of Texas made an inspection of the line and R. A. Love, president of the property, received word yesterday of the valuation that had been fixed.

While Mr. Love will not talk, it is understood he has found a market for the securities and the money will be employed toward the first payments on the extension of the line north from Fredericksburg. Mr. Love would not say just what point was the objective for the new construction, but was emphatic in his assertion that within 18 months the trains of the Santa Fe or Frisco lines would be coming into San Antonio.

According to Mr. Love, there is planned at least 125 miles of new line, and this will be built, he says in spite of the alleged money stringency of which so much has been said. It is his plan to bring the San Angelo, Brownwood & Brady section

FLOUR MILLS REVIVE

Southwest Mills Will Need Night and Day Shifts.

Speaking of the change coming over the Southwest, the Dallas Trade Record, than which there is none in better position to know, says:

"It has been many years since there has been any marked degree of activity in the flour mill industry of the Southwest. In fact, it might be said that this industry has been on the decline for some time. In some portions of the Southwest wheat has been relegated to such crops as have been grown in the past. A change is taking place.

"The low price of cotton has induced the farmers to again open the doors to the growing of wheat, and this year, throughout nearly the entire extent of the Southwest the wheat acreage has been materially increased. A large area has been sown to where none was sown before.

"It is already evident that the milling facilities of the Southwest will be inadequate. Night and day shifts doubtless will be used in practically all of the mills. Many new mills will be installed and many old ones will be improved and enlarged. Activity along this line is already evident.

"If this crop produces the yield that is expected, wheat will doubtless become a very important crop in this section of the country for years to come, and the milling industry will prosper even more than in the years gone by."

A Horrible Accident.

R. W. Lee, who has just returned from San Angelo, brings report of a terrible accident which happened near that city Sunday. Mr. Lee had started upon his return to Brady, and when about six miles out of San Angelo met a couple of boys, one of whom, a lad of 17 years, named Turner, had been shot through the thigh while he and his companion were out hunting. The boys were driving a single horse to a buggy, and in their frantic haste to get to town, had about driven the animal down. Mr. Lee placed the injured lad in his auto, and made all haste back to San Angelo, taking the lad to his home and summoning a physician. Mr. Lee did not learn the extent of the injuries, but stated the boy was plucky throughout the trip, and he was hopeful that the injured member might be saved.

Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

It is not unlikely that the receivership of the San Antonio, Fredericksburg & Northern will soon be a matter of history. This mastodonic production exhibited on the vacant lot adjoining The Standard office, which goes to show that it appreciated the value of a good newspaper. The Circo comprised a circus arena, a menagerie and a zoo. The glittering parade traversed the north side, the east side, the south side and the west side of the square—all of them—in fact, the parade was "on the square".

It was headed by a Mexican orchestra, followed by the fiery Arabian steed upon whose back rode a shelf-worn monkey. Other monkeys there were too, and a bear or two—all in a very fair state of preservation. Also the show boasted one first-class "barker", but as he had all of his "barking" in the Mexican tongue, and the Mexican population we remain ignorant of the many brilliant events he pictured, he was very eloquent, however, and we are sure that the show he described was fully guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act.

The Light of the House

When The Texas Company first introduced its illuminating oil into the Northern States and other parts of the country, the value of this high quality oil was unknown.

Today the distributing facilities of The Texas Company and its agents are carrying this light into the homes of the people of many lands, and all over the world the quality is known and the service appreciated.

It is, in fact, preeminently "the light of the home," burning with a clear, white light which is easy to read or work by. Burning just as brightly with the last drop as the first.

TEXACO ILLUMINATING OIL is one of the products manufactured in Texas which has carried the Red-Star-Green-T trade-mark in its remarkable growth; a growth made possible by unvarying QUALITY AND SERVICE policy.

This product is sold in your town with the other Texaco products which are of particular value to you. Ask for it.

TENANTRY AND SCHOOLS. Lowering the Standard and Efficiency in Collin County

Detailed study are being made of the school situation in several Texas counties in the relation of farm tenancy to the rural schools and this is brought out strikingly in a chapter in a pamphlet treated by E. V. White and E. E. Davis and published by the Extension Department of the University of Texas, as follows:

"Collin county," the author says, "has no more serious problem to face today than that of farm tenancy. It is lowering the standard of the home, the country church and the county school. On the day this survey was begun, February 3, 1914, a teacher came into the county superintendent's office, and when asked how he was getting along with his school work replied:

"Well, I think we are doing a little better now, but I tell you our work has been anything but satisfactory for the past month. The trouble is, all my patrons are tenants and most of them moved Christmas. We were doing very nicely up to that time, but now I have only two children that were in school before the holidays. It has taken me a month to get properly acquainted with my new crowd."

"The percentage of home ownership is usually a very good standard for measuring the educational and civic interests of any community. What the public schools of the entire black land belt need more than any other one thing is more people to stick to the land as their permanent homes. Farm tenancy, poor farming, squalid homes, and inferior schools are mutual associates.

"In Collin county you will find a combination of the richest soil and the poorest cultivation in the state. Though much of the land is rolling and the soil is rapidly being washed away, not a terraced field was seen in the course of this entire investigation. During 12 days of travel over the county 314 cases of burning the old stakes off of the ground in preparation for a new crop were counted. Thus the county is being depleted of its fertility. But who can blame the tenant for not undertake what the owner of the land is unwilling to do? The farm must suffer at the hands of each while it supports them both."

A child that has intestinal worms is handicapped in its growth. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge destroys and expels worms; the child immediately improves and thrives wonderfully. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

The knitting mills of Wisconsin are working on orders for 108,000 dozen pairs of woolen socks and 400,000 sweaters given them by representatives of the British and French governments. All of the orders were of the "rush" variety and most of the mills are running day and night. Prices averaged about three dollars a dozen for the socks and $2.50 each for the sweaters. In addition it was stated that a LaCrosse concern had refused an order for 300,000 sheepskin coats tendered by the French government. Lack of material caused the declination. One Racine factory said it had been forced to refuse contracts for woolen goods for European armies because it was working to capacity on domestic orders. Practically all of the harness and saddlery houses of the country are working overtime on orders from the warring nations.

Miss Stella Sellman of Rochelle was a passenger Saturday enroute to Mullin for a visit.

Mr. William Tow, an old and highly respected citizen of the southeastern part of the county, died at his home Monday night and was buried at the Tow Valley cemetery Wednesday.

The greatest loss that San Saba has suffered in many years was in the death of Mrs. N. E. Fentress last Monday morning in Dallas. She went there in September on account of her health and since that time her disease had been of such a nature that her life slowly ebbed away. Mrs. Fentress was born in Alabama in 1854 and in infancy came to Texas with her parents, making this county her home. She was married to Dr. David Fentress and to this union were born two sons and three daughters, all surviving with the exception of one son.

From The News.

W. O. McCully has closed his poultry business here and last week left for Brownwood, where he will make his home and likely engage in business. Mr. McCully is a live, progressive business man and makes things move when he gets busy.

Dan Miller, who gathers the cotton ginners statistics for the government census bureau, has furnished the News with the tabulation of the returns for the report to January 16th and these returns show that 13,125 bales were ginned in this county prior to January 16, 1915, against a total of 9,516 bales for the same period for the last year's crop.

Reuben Ashley, 14 years old, was accidentally shot Saturday morning while out hunting near the residence of Wm. Scott two and a half miles west of town. The ball from a 22-target pierced the fleshy part of the left leg above the knee. The target was in the hands of Melvin Walker, who shot at a rabbit and missed the mark. The parents were notified by telephone and a physician summoned and the boy is getting along nicely.

Harry Davenport was down from Hall Monday closing his business in this county preparatory to leaving for his new home near Plainview the latter part of the week. He has recently returned from a second trip to that country, where he traded for another tract of land. He and son, Clifton, will go through on an emigrant train with the household goods and live stock. Mrs. Davenport and the smaller children will visit her mother in Sutton county and join the family next month. Harry Davenport's moving away is a distinct loss to the Hall community and to this county. He was a pillar in the church, school and community progress and has often been called to do grand jury service. In every place he has every time measured up to the standard of the highest citizenship and met the responsibility of citizenry like a man who knows the right and dares to do it.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." MENARD MESSAGES

From The Messenger.

Al Bell, the big rancher and cattle man of San Angelo, was in Menard the first of the week and while here met Frank Hamby, an old friend of his whom he had not seen for 18 years. As a remembrance of their old friendship and pleasant times together, Mr. Bell presented Mr. Hamby with a $200 horse which he had purchased from Mr. Ellis.

Judge Adkins of Brady was in the city Tuesday on legal business.

Bob Motley returned from a trip to Brady Sunday which he made in his Cadillac.

Ed Ellis out for the first time in 18 days, having been kicked by a mule. That gentle animal kicked through a board fence, splintering the fence as well as the bone in his leg. What bothered Ed was the fact that the mule kicked like a cow and did not abide by all the rules of the game which all mules are supposed to follow.

Daniel Benchoff, W. L. Oliver, Joe Mathews and W. P. Bevans each received a consignment of croppies Wednesday from the United States fish hatchery at San Marcus for the restocking of the San Saba river.

Sunday morning about nine o'clock, Ruff Graham saw smoke rolling from one of the upper windows of the Rock hotel and rushed in and warned the inhabitants. After considerable hand work the fire was extinguished and the building saved. It is supposed that a defective flue was its cause.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before it Salivates You! It's Horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money back.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't waste a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and you'll be feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

MASON MAVERICKS

From The News.

A congressional redistricting bill has been introduced in the lower house of the legislature and passed unanimously, but may meet with opposition in the senate, in the 14th district, composed of Burnet, Llano, Mason, McCulloch, San Saba, Lampasas, Mills, Brown, Coleman, Taylor, Callahan, Eastland, Stephens, Shackelford and Jones counties. There is no congressman residing in the district thus formed, so that there will likely be quite a scramble for the place. It has been mentioned that there are quite a number of gentlemen in its boundaries who have congressional aspirations, among whom are H. P. Bradsford, John W. Bryan, J. M. Wagstaff, Will H. Mayes, M. D. Slator and W. D. Cowan. F. M. Newman and many more are available material.

Mr. Love, who built the Fredericksburg railroad, says he is going to extend it 125 miles. This means that Mason has a chance to get it but it means also a bonus of $100,000. Let us begin raising it.

The News has just been thinking of all the railroads that have been promised us within the past 30 years, and if they all had come what a railroad center Mason would be. It wouldn't be safe to step outdoors for fear a train would run over you. Every street would have a railroad and on every corner would be a sign, "Railroad Crossing — Look out for the Cars."

Securing railroads is like laying the foundation for a fortune — it is easy enough to add to when once the start is made. We have no doubt should Mason ever secure a railroad she will have two or three more within ten years thereafter.

Elsewhere in the News some figures are given showing the amount of money paid out by the business people alone for wagon freight. It runs up to over $18,000 per year, and should we be able to ascertain the actual amount of freight that comes here it is very conservative to say that the figures would reach $25,000. This money is paid by the town of Mason for wagon freight, all of which would be saved had we a railroad, for Mason could be made a common point and the rate would be the same to Mason as it now is to Llano and Brady, our principal shipping points. Besides this in the course of a year our stockmen would save several thousand dollars by being able to load stock on cars at Mason.

There would be a way to go to market with every bit of surplus produce, vegetables and whatever is for sale, thus giving our people a saving of many conservatively say $50,000 every year. For $100,000 Mason can get a railroad. Just begin to figure up the saving it would be to you each year in the way of freights, better price for cotton, more for your stock, a market for everything you raise, the saving of getting to a railroad should you want to go anywhere, and if all will do this and then generously subscribe the amount you have figured out it will not take but a few days to raise the $100,000 bonus.

The government report of cotton ginned in Mason county to January 16, 1915, is 4,944 bales, compared with 4,944 last year also. This is quite a coincidence that the same number of bales was ginned each year at the same period. We haven't attempted to figure out how long it will be before "such a phenomena will occur again," as the scientists say.

Tom Elliott came over Tuesday afternoon from Brady and will be here several days visiting relatives.

Robert Hendricks is here from Brady for a few days visiting relatives. He says that his mother is planning on moving back to Mason in a short while.

Mining Company Resumes

H. McCarty Moore of Dallas, president and general manager of the Llano Gold and Rare Metal Mining Company, arrived in Llano last week and began at once on preparations for the starting of operations at the Heath mine. Mr. Moore brought with him E. W. Minsch, formerly of Liberty Bell mine, of Telluride, Colorado. This gentleman is a man of wide experience and will serve as superintendent.

The machinery of the plant was set in motion this morning and day and night shifts will be put to work. On account of the difficulty in securing cyanide of potassium, the mine has been closed for some time, the European war causing this article to be scarce and at a very high price. Sufficient quantity has now been secured and the work will go forward without interruption. — Llano News.
