$50,000 BROWNWOOD FIRE.

Waples-Platter Grocery—Stock a Total Loss.

Fire of an unknown origin, discovered at a few minutes before 11 o'clock last night, destroyed the Waples-Platter Wholesale Grocery Company's stock of merchandise, causing a loss of approximately $50,000, fully covered by insurance. The large building on Main avenue near the Frisco railroad was completely gutted, only the stone walls remaining standing.

When first discovered the fire appeared to be about the center of the large building. Great clouds of smoke were pouring from the house, making it impossible to locate the seat of the fire and seriously handicapping the fire fighters in their work. The building itself made fire fighting very difficult, since the only openings along the sides of the house are small windows placed high up and covered with heavy screen wire.

The volunteer firemen experienced many difficulties in fighting the flames. The driver of the first wagon that reached the scene found the smoke so dense in the street in front of the building that it was necessary to use a lantern in order to see his way through the street. Only one fire plug was in the vicinity and as soon as possible lines of hose were connected with this plug and water was thrown on the fire. Four sections of fire hose burst, and automobiles were rushed to the down town station for more hose. The additional hose was not equipped with the proper kind of connections, and more valuable time was lost.

The nature of the burning stock added to the difficulties of the firemen. It is stated that there was almost a full car load of matches in the rear of the building, and a small quantity of ammunition. It is fortunate that no one was injured when the ammunition exploded.

Local Manager W. H. Parks announces that his company will be ready for business almost immediately.

During the noon hour Wednesday the fire department was again called to the Waples-Platter building, where the fire of the night before had again broken out in a portion of the ruins.

This year they will endeavor to outdo all past efforts in the entertainment of their friends and are preparing for an immense crowd.

An efficient program of entertainment is being arranged for, including baseball, foot racing, contests of various kinds and a number of addresses by well known speakers.

A cordial invitation is extended to all, and assurance is given that everything will be done to make the day most enjoyable.

Another Prosperity Talk.

The Standard's good friend, M. A. Leddy, was up from the Voca country yesterday and brought with him good cheer and good spirits galore. We are always glad to have folks drop in and tell us what a good country they live in.

Mr. Leddy's primary purpose in calling on us was to pay for a Standard classy classified ad, by means of which he was successful in disposing of something like $200 worth of black-eyed peas. Furthermore, the peas were raised on six acres of oat stubble land, the oats having netted his $14 per acre, while the combined net income from the oats and the peas made the six acres produce $49.50 per acre.

Mr. Leddy further boasts of having had the heaviest oats in McCulloch county last year, the net weight being 34 pounds to the bushel. Wiley Walker of the Waldrip community probably ranks second, with oats that weighed 31 pounds to the bushel, net.

This year Mr. Leddy says his oats will run from 33 to 34 pounds to the bushel, but the production was light on account of his having used his thinnest land for the oats in order that he might again plant peas on the stubble. By this method, Mr. Leddy will not only get a profitable crop of peas, but the peas will help build up the thin land. Corn is fairly good in his section, and had the rain come just a few days earlier, would have been fine.

Now that you have made a good feed crop you should take care of it. The best way to do this is to build a silo. I want to figure with you on a silo, feed cutters and silo packers. Wm. Bauhof.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS
The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.
In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.
To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutrition gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

Travelling Man's Experience.
"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man, but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK
Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before It Salivates You! It's Horrible!
You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.
Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.
Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate so let them eat anything afterward.

I want to tell you that all who missed the singing last Sunday at the Gem City missed something worth while. We sure made things hum. There was a large crowd present. Messrs. Ball and Flemming were all we noticed as present from Brady. We had expected quite a number from Brady but were sadly disappointed. It seemed that everybody was in a singing spirit; your scribe was at his best and we had a great day.

Mrs. Bill Booster is getting the best of me again. You know she washes on Monday, irons on Tuesday, bakes on Wednesday, and looks after Bill all the rest of the week. Today is Tuesday, and she's washing, and I've been on the dodge all day; but once in a while she calls me to make a fire around the pot, or bring some water. You know, Mr. Editor—no you don't; you're a bachelor—but everybody else does, that if you say, "Why, yes; sure-e-e I will," that you will get off better next time. So I just pucker up my lips and go to whistling, like it was just what I wanted to do—and, gee, I do hate to lug water. But I whistle and go at it—and the next time I generally get off pretty light.
J. R. Harkey has purchased a two-passenger roadster, and we learn that Geo. T. Kidd has bought a five-passenger Maxwell. So you see the Gem City is coming to the front.
Oats and wheat turned out well. It is thought the average was about 25 bushels to the acre.

MASURY
The name Masury means something. It designates QUALITY. Just as the word Sterling stamped on silver indicates fineness and purity, the word MASURY means the best—none other as good. It has taken fifty years' experience to level up the standard of the Masury Paints to the high level where it stands today—absolutely pure pigments, pure linseed oil—"net weight and full measure," every can labeled giving actual percentage, composition, etc.

Stockholders Meet.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Brady Farmers Union Warehouse Co. was held at the offices of the company in this city last Friday, at which time a board of directors for the coming year was named, and other important business attended to.

In the selection of a board of directors there were only two changes made in the personnel of last year's directorate, H. S. Wood and J. W. Coffey succeeding J. S. Capps and G. A. Sorrell, respectively as representatives of the Mason county stockholders of the company.

The board selected for the current year is composed of the following:
McCulloch County—R. W. Haddock, J. H. Bissett, W. E. Lohn, Fred Tetens, Thos. Mitchell; Mason County—S. V. Wood, H. S. Wood, J. W. Coffey, Max Ficker; Menard County—W. J. Mogford, W. C. Eckert, E. A. Mogford, J. A. Spoons.

Following the meeting of the stockholders the directors met and named the following officers: W. J. Mogford, president; Ed. Jacoby, secretary-treasurer and manager; Fred Tetens, W. C. Eckert and S. V. Wood, executive committee.

In the selection of Mr. Jacoby as manager of the local warehouse the board of directors not only paid quite a compliment to the ability and peculiar fitness of that gentleman for the position, but thereby exhibited their own good judgment of his capability. Mr. Jacoby has served in the capacity of secretary, treasurer and manager of the company here since its organization some eight or nine years ago, and under his capable and efficient direction the business has shown a healthy growth year after year, last year's business reaching such proportions as to necessitate the building of additional warehouse facilities.

The executive committee did not check up Mr. Jacoby's annual financial statement for the past year at the meeting Friday, but will meet at an early date for that purpose.

Cloves Are Dried Buds

The buds of an East Indian tree are picked, dried and then graded according to the percentage of oil they contain—this oil is the source of the clove flavor.

But unless care is taken in grinding, even cily cloves lose much of their flavor. After grinding, the cloves must be protected from evaporation by most careful packing.

You see then that it is not only pure cloves you must insist on, but selected cloves which have been handled through out the best way to keep them full of the oil which flavors.

That's why we suggest that you insist on White Swan cloves. Selected from the best grade, ground by our "cool" process to retain flavor and strength and packed in air-tight tins. Your grocer sells White Swan Cloves—the cost is a little more, but the economy is greater because a tin lasts longer.

Their many Brady friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. and Mrs. White were just a half-day ahead of the hold-up which took place in Yellowstone Park, when three or four bandits held up several stage coaches and relieved the passengers of something like $200. It was known here that Mr. and Mrs. White were due in Yellowstone Park at about that time, and there was some apprehension as to their possibly suffering loss at the hands of the highwaymen. Another peculiar incident of the trip was that when Mr. and Mrs. White were in the Mormon Temple at Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sellman, by chance, occupied a seat directly in front of them.

Richland Springs Boasts Newest Field for Operation.

The ever-affable Jas. Dofflemeyer of San Saba came over on Wednesday to participate in the barbecue, and, as well, to greet his friends here and incidentally made The Standard office a very pleasant call.

Mr. Dofflemeyer is interested in the Richland Springs oil field and believes it will soon be developed into a great pay field. The oil field in this section covers an area of ten square miles, and indications of surface oil and gas are numerous. For the past four years or more Mr. Dofflemeyer has interested himself in the proposition of developing this field, but it has only been during the past three months that any great degree of interest has been taken.

The organization of a company to begin drilling at once has been completed and the services of a geologist were recently obtained, resulting in a very favorable report upon the topography, stratigraphy and oil indications of the section. Other companies are in process of organization, and the leasing of all available land is progressing rapidly.

Mr. Dofflemeyer is sanguine of having the field tested thoroughly with deep wells in the no-distant future.

QUALITY BEFORE PRICE.

Brady Auto Co. Declares Service Is All-Important Factor.

Now that most of the motor car companies have made their 1916 announcements there is a great deal of talk in motoring circles concerning the prices at which the new cars are to be sold.

"The average motor car buyer has a tendency to look at these questions from a mistaken perspective," said B. A. Hallum, local retailer of Buick cars, recently. "A great many of our automobile buying friends do not take sufficient pains to make sure of getting a satisfactory car.

"There is a minimum below which it is impossible to sell a satisfactory motor car; that is, a car that will give satisfactory service. The Buick Motor company always has been guided by that great truth in making and selling cars.

"Buick cars could be made to sell for less, but they wouldn't be as good as the Buick cars we are now making. We probably could sell a great many more Buicks if we were to make the kind of cars that would justify a lower price; but we prefer to keep our quality standard at their present high level.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

Mexico—El Paso District.

The attention of the people here on the border is so absorbed in affairs in Mexico that it is difficult to turn it to spiritual things. We have been doing faithful work, preaching the Word, distributing tracts, and visiting. Some fruits are beginning to be seen in increased attendance at the services and a warmer spiritual atmosphere.

I have recently visited Marathon and Toyah and, besides the third quarterly conferences, held special services in both places. At the former place the success was most encouraging. The brethren were faithful in attendance and had a mind to work. There were a number of professions of faith.

The congregation at Alamo-gordo is showing more signs of life than for a long while. The attendance at the services held both Saturday and Sunday on my regular monthly visit is very good. Nothing was done there toward collections until a month ago, when I held a church conference and straightened up the roll.

When last heard from, both the church and school at Chihuahua were prospering. The Effie Eddington school here cannot provide for nearly all of the applicants. Brother Corbin is at home in the new boys' school and has twenty-six on the roll, but no boarders.

THE PRICES ARE LOW SOLELY:

- 1—Because of largely increased volume of production: 2—Unrivaled manufacturing resources: 3—The Studebaker policy of manufacturing our cars complete in our own factories and thus eliminating parts-makers' profits: 4—The greatly increased efficiency resulting from 4 years study and concentration on the manufacture of two chassis: 5—The high percentage of interchangeability of parts in the two chassis.

ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Southern Commercial Congress to Be Held in Charleston, S. C.

Charleston, S. C., it is announced, has been selected by the executive officers of the Southern Commercial Congress as the place for holding the 7th annual convention of the congress, Dec. 13-17, 1915. The invitation was extended on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Charleston, and for the state by Gov. Richard I. Manning. The city council of Charleston made a direct appropriation of $15,000 to guarantee the expenses incident to holding so large a convention.

The congress to be held in Charleston is the fifth of a series planned to come during the semi-centennial years. The cities included in the series are Atlanta, Nashville, Mobile and Muskogee. The congress in Charleston will be the climax, dealing with the general theme: "The Victories of Peace." As this year is the semi-centennial of peace in the United States, the theme of the congress will include not only the achievements of the half century in Southern development and national progress, but also a schedule of constructive activities for the future.

Charleston, with her deep water harbor, with her history and romance from Colonial days to the present, together with the vital business and commercial activity that characterizes her life at this hour, will be the setting for one of the greatest conventions ever held in America. Significant, too, is the fact that a great peace celebration will be held at the place where the first shot of the civil war was fired.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

WAS GREAT SUCCESS

BARBECUE BEST IN HISTORY OF BRADY.

Between 6000 and 8000 Visitors Enjoy Hospitality of Brady Business Men and Citizens.

One of the most successful and largely attended barbecues in the history of Brady and McCulloch county was that of Wednesday when Brady business men and citizens entertained a crowd variously estimated at between 6000 and 8000.

The day was ideal for an occasion of this character, the usual July heat being dispelled by a delightful breeze which continued throughout the day, and this, combined with the abundant shade afforded by the big pecan grove on the barbecue grounds, served to make the day's entertainment an entire success from every standpoint.

The crowd began arriving early, every thoroughfare leading into the city being lined with vehicles of every description from early dawn up to 10 or 11 o'clock, all laden with happy, care-free men, women and children intent on enjoying the day to the fullest extent. Quite a few came in on early trains from Rochelle, Mercury, Brownwood, Eden, Pache and Melvin, while many others came by auto from Menard, San Saba, Mason and other points.

Early arrivals at the grounds entertained themselves in various ways until 10:30, when Attorney C. C. House mounted the speakers platform and introduced Hon. Clarence Ousley of College Station, director of the extension work at A. & M. College, who made one of the most notable addresses ever heard in Brady. Mr. Ousley devoted his remarks to the problems of conservation of soil, rural credit and marketing. Some three years ago Mr. Ousley was a member of a commission appointed to study economic and marketing conditions in the old world, and in his address he gave his listeners the gist of his observations and studies while on the commission. He told of the remarkable conservation of soil in Germany, in Italy and in other old world countries, where soil that had been cultivated for a thousand years or more, had been conserved, fertilized and improved until it was better now than ever. Not only did the conservation apply to the soil, but to every economic question.

For instance, he cited the fact that it would be a practical impossibility for the allies to ever overcome Germany. Once she is driven within her borders, so wonderfully has she worked out the problem of conservation that she will be able not only to resist all invasion, but will be able to provide for her people without outside assistance.

In comparison with this, Mr. Ousley referred to our own profligacy with our soil, our resources and our opportunities, and illustrated his point by stating that while the American farmer received about 45 per cent of the net results of his toil, the farmer in Europe averaged 65 per cent. In fact, the European farmers received from 30 per cent to 40 per cent more of the net product of his labor than did the American farmer. Mr. Ousley also took occasion to refer to the taking off of the tariff on wool, while leaving the tariff on the finished product. The tariff on the wool in a hat, he said, amounted to 11 cents—a negligible quantity that was lost and which would add nothing to the retail price of the hat. On the other hand the tariff on the hat amounted to $1.50—this tariff has been retained.

Marketing and rural credits as established in Europe were also given brief mention by Mr. Ousley, and their value and importance emphasized.

Not only was Mr. Ousley given the closest of attention by all his hearers, but his address aroused the greatest of interest, and found great favor with all.

At the conclusion of Mr. Ousley's address dinner was announced. Ladies first was the rule strictly observed in serving dinner to the big crowd and the best of order was maintained in handling the immense throng of hungry people. More than 500 feet of tables had been erected inside the enclosure and the people were lined up on both sides of these tables, where they were served the most delicious barbecued beef and mutton, pickles, bread and coffee. It is estimated that about 1200 people were fed at each table, and to feed the entire crowd required six tables.

So systematically was the work of serving dinner handled that the entire crowd had finished dinner before 2:00 o'clock and was ready for the full enjoyment of the pleasures of the remainder of the day.

In the afternoon Mr. Ousley spoke briefly in favor of Joint Resolution No. 34, an amendment providing for the complete separation of A. & M. and the State University.

Hon. C. H. Jenkins, associate justice court of civil appeals, of Austin, proved another able and interesting speaker, and dwelt upon the tenant problem. Judge Jenkins stated that it was estimated there were 200,000 tenant farmers in Texas, and upon the basis of five to a family there were something like a million people homeless in the state. He presented a very practical plan whereby homes could be secured by all of these tenants. The plan embodied forming an organization among the citizens of a community or a district, with very low entrance fees and dues. It would then devolve upon the organization to elect from among its most able and conscientious members a committee whose duty it would be to pass upon the character and reliability, industry and sobriety of tenants wishing to buy land through the association, as well as the value and adaptability of the land the tenant desired to purchase. Should the committee find everything favorable the tenant was to be permitted to buy the land on 50 years time, paying 2 per cent of the principal and 4 per cent interest each year. The money for the purchase of the land was to be obtained from the federal government through the organization, and the deed to the property held in escrow until all conditions had been fulfilled.

Judge Jenkins' plan was a new thought to the majority of his hearers and aroused the greatest of interest and attention. Like Mr. Ousley, he was a forceful and entertaining speaker, and his address was received with the most respectful attention.

At the conclusion of Judge Jenkins' address Judge J. E. Shropshire, in a few well-chosen words, introduced Hon. Jas. Callan of Menard, who in a short talk gave his hearers some good sound advice on a number of subjects of interest. In prefacing his remarks, Mr. Callan stated that there were several things he did not know how to do. One of them was to make a speech and another was to refuse a request from his friends, and since his friends had called on him for a speech on this occasion he could do nothing but respond to that call.

The subject of "Old Time Democracy" had been assigned to Mr. Callan by the committee, but he said that as old time democracy was a thing of the past, and as the greatest exponent of this doctrine in the entire Southland was now practically an exile from the State of Texas and has more enemies than any other man in the state, he thought that his hearers would be more interested in other matters.

In his talk Mr. Callan voiced his opposition to the practice of recent legislatures of the state in submitting constitutional amendments to a vote of the people, and gave it as his opinion that as a general proposition it was safe to vote down each and every one submitted, for the reason that all or practically all of them were for the purpose of serving the interests of the masses. Of the six amendments to be voted on the 24th instant he stated, however, that he favored the adoption of the Sackett resolution providing for the separation of the state university and A. & M. college, but severely arraigned the one relating to giving traveling men the right to vote in any county in which they happened to be on election day. He also paid his respects to the Student Loan Fund amendment, and, among other things, said that the adoption of this amendment would enable the negroes and Mexicans of the state to put their hands into the public treasury of the counties of their residence and withdraw from $500 to $1,500 of the people's money to defray their expenses through a higher institution of learning. Even though the amendment debarred these two classes from participation in the fund and gave only the white children the benefit of it, he stated that he would oppose its adoption for the reason that any young man or woman in the state who was ambitious to secure an education had plenty of opportunities to either work their way through college, or, failing in this, could always secure all the assistance needed to enable them to realize their ambitions in this respect.

Mr. Callan was given closest attention by the big crowd and his attitude on all public questions was evidently in accord with the views of a large majority of his hearers, if the applause which was given him was any indication.

Following Mr. Callan's address Judge Jenkins was called upon to express his views on the proposed constitutional amendment providing for the addition of two judges to the supreme court bench and in doing so stated that he favored the adoption of the amendment for the reason that the supreme court was now more than four years behind with its work, and so far as he could see, the only relief for this condition would be the addition of more judges.

This concluded the program of speaking, and the remainder of the day was spent by the big crowd in visiting the various places of amusement on the grounds.

One of the most pleasing features of the day's entertainment was the music furnished by the East Sweden band under direction of Victor Jacobson. Although the band was re-organized only about two weeks ago their work was of the highest order and demonstrated the fact that the organization possesses musical ability not often found in amateur bands. Not only are the members of the band splendid musicians, but are public-spirited citizens as well, which is attested by the fact that when it became known that the barbecue committee did not have sufficient funds in hand to provide a band they came forward and volunteered their services. This spirit of co-operation on their part is highly appreciated, not only by the barbecue committee but by the entire citizenship of Brady as well.

That the barbecue was the best one ever given here is the unanimous verdict of all, and the crowd which attended did not hesitate to so express themselves. There was an abundance of everything to eat, and after all had been served some four or five hundred loaves of bread and about four hundred pounds of meat were left on hand.

Much credit for the success of the day is due to Judge Joe A. Adkins, Sam McCollum, Sheriff J. C. Wall, W. D. Crothers, E. E. Ogden and C. H. Vincent, the committee in charge of arrangements. These gentlemen have devoted almost their entire time for the past ten days to seeing that the occasion was an entire success, and the day brought the realization of all their desires in this respect.

MAKES RAPID HEADWAY.
Add This Fact to Your Store of Knowledge.

Kidney disease often advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder. If there is a dull pain in the back, headache, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the kidney secretions are offensive, irregular and attended by pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Brady citizen: Joe Souther, retired farmer, Brady, says: "I had pain in the small of my back, which came on by spells and was very annoying. My kidneys didn't act as they should and the kidney secretions were painful in passage and contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the pain in my back, cleared up the kidney secretions and regulated the action of my kidneys."

ON LONG AUTO TRIP.

Chicago Party Passes Through Brady Enroute to Frisco.

Traveling in a 1914 model Ford automobile, with full camp equipment, Messrs and Mesdames C. L. Saxton and A. M. Hickman passed through this city yesterday enroute from Chicago to San Francisco.

The party left Chicago about five months ago, going to their former home in Corpus Christi, where they spent a month or more visiting friends and enjoying the cool sea breezes. Leaving there some two months ago they traveled by easy stages to San Antonio, where several weeks were spent, the party leaving there last week to continue the journey north via Fredericksburg, Mason, Brady, Brownwood, through the Plains country to San Francisco by the Southern route.

In talking of their trip with a Standard reporter Mr. Hickman stated that the roads in Texas were the best of any state through which the party had traveled, and that those traversed since leaving Corpus Christi were best of all, the only really bad stretches encountered being that between Boerne and Comfort.

On arrival in Brady the speedometer showed a total mileage of 5,925 miles, this being the distance covered from Chicago.

The car in which the party is traveling would never be recognized as a Ford by the average person, by reason of the fact that a number of accessories have been added which change the outward appearance greatly. Both front and rear wheels are of the same size. The Ford radiator has been replaced by a Livingston, a ventilating windshield installed, shock absorbers, one-man top and various other accessories which add to the comfort and serviceability of the machine.

One of the most attractive features of the car is that the front seat is so constructed that the back can be let down to a level with the rear seat and thus form a commodious bed to accommodate the ladies when the party is forced to camp out at night.

In addition to the four passengers, the car is carrying about 1,200 pounds of baggage and camp equipment, but thus far on the trip has never gotten into a hole out of which it has been unable to extricate itself.

The party expects to spend about three months between here and San Francisco, reaching there the latter part of September, to spend a month or more at the exposition, and will then return to their home in Chicago via the Northern route.

WONDER WORDS.

Breezy Grist From a Popular Standard Writer.

Wonder, Ore., July 1.
Editor Brady Standard:
Say, my Texas friends, how hot is it there?
It is just 100 here in the shade. That is the hottest it has been here this year; scarcely a breath of wind is stirring. We expect to hear it thunder before sundown. It hasn't rained here since May and we do not expect any before September, except possibly a few local thunder showers.

To give a brief, accurate description of this country as regards the weather, you might say that it never rains; and whenever it does, it never stops!

I don't think crops will amount to very much here this year, only where they are irrigated. And in consequence of there not being very deep snow on the mountains last winter to feed the mountain streams they are rapidly diminishing in water supply and springs are beginning to dry up. So there will likely be a scarcity of irrigating water before the summer is over.

We are having long days here now. It is daylight about 4 o'clock and sun-up about 6; then sundown about 7, and dark about 9.

A lady from this country who visited San Antonio, Texas, said it was hard to realize a country without any twilight. But vice versa, it is hard for a person from that country to realize a country with so much twilight as this. Twilight is the best and coolest time to work, and yet the nicest time to sleep also; and everybody needs and requires a certain amount of sleep.

By-the-way, a gentleman who was touring the country in an automobile, stopped and took dinner with us. Said he was a cousin to Judge Doty. He was an artist in the clock profession and touched up our clock that had been a faithful old servant for 20 years but was beginning to get tired; so I think it is good for another 20 years.
