U. C. V. AND U. D. C.

Commemorate Birthdays of Generals Lee and Jackson.

Impressive and appropriate services were held at the K. of P. hall Wednesday afternoon, the 19th, commemorating jointly the birthday anniversaries of Generals R. E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson. While the attendance was not large owing to the inclement weather, the afternoon proved very interesting to all present.

The address on Lee and Jackson by Evans J. Adkins was especially enjoyed, it being a beautiful account of the greatness and nobility of these beloved leaders of the "Lost Cause."

Following the business meeting of Ben McCulloch Camp No. 563, U. C. V., the U. D. C. took charge of the meeting, and rendered an appropriate program.

Mrs. R. D. Dyer read the rules by which the Crosses of Honor were bestowed upon the veterans by the U. D. C., and then presented five crosses to Mr. J. D. Rains, R. E. Wood of San Saba, W. H. Jones of Millersview. Crosses were also received by John Ewing for his father, deceased, and by Mrs. J. O. Ware of Mercury for her father, J. D. Gattis, also deceased, the crosses going to the oldest living descendant of veterans who have answered the last roll call.

The emblems presented are in the shape of a Maltese cross the words, "Cross of Honor" being inscribed on one side, and "Daughters of the Confederacy" being placed upon the reverse. The crosses are of bronze, being made from cannon used by the veterans in the great conflict, and are appropriate and pleasing mementoes.

In behalf of the veterans Mr. Wood made a talk of acceptance for the crosses, telling of the appreciation of the honor and

SENSATIONAL ARREST

NATH COOPER CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Charge Preferred by Chief of Detectives J. H. Tanner of Dallas Wednesday.

One of the most sensational events in local annals was the arrest Wednesday of Nath Cooper, the charge made against Cooper being the murder of Jim Gibbs on the night of December 6th, the murder having occurred in Dallas.

Cooper was arrested at about 5:00 o'clock Wednesday evening by Deputy Sheriff John Martin, following the preferring of the judge of Dallas county, who recommended that Cooper be taken in charge for the crime. The evidence connecting Cooper with the crime is as follows: A man named Cooper was seen in company with Gibbs for several days previous to the latter's mysterious death. Gibbs introduced his companion to the manager of the garage where Gibbs was employed, as Mr. Cooper, an old friend from Brady, Texas. On the day of Gibbs' death, this man Cooper came to the garage three times, the last time leaving with Gibbs for a nearby saloon. Both men were said to have been drinking rather heavily. At about 8:45 p. m. they both left the saloon, going in the direction of the garage, and were last seen crossing Commerce street. At 9:15 charges by Chief of Detectives J. H. Tanner of Dallas, who arrived in the city at 2:55 p. m. on the Santa Fe. Detective Tanner returned with Cooper Wednesday noon via the Santa Fe to Dallas, where Cooper will answer to the charges preferred against him.

Jim Gibbs, a well known Brady man, was murdered, as above stated, on the night of December 6th, his lifeless, but still warm body, being discovered by Dallas policeman at 9:15 o'clock. The murder occurred at the rear of the interurban station, and just one block from the garage where Gibbs was employed. The pockets of the dead man had been rifled, his money and his watch being missing. The instrument used with such deadly effect was a piece of wagon tire about two or three inches in width and a little over a foot in length. The deadly tool was wrapped in a newspaper, showing premeditated assault. Gibbs was struck with the flat side of the weapon, the blow being of such force as to crush his skull and cause instant death.

Detective Tanner, who proved a very agreeable man, talked unreservedly of the case. He stated that Cooper had been under suspicion from the start, and that he had advised with the county attorney and district the body of Gibbs was found.

These facts were obtained by the Dallas police the following morning. Cooper's rooming house was located, and it was also learned that the man Cooper had spent a night or two with Gibbs at the latter's rooming house. A peculiar circumstance in connection with the fact that Gibbs' bed had been occupied the night of the murder, but by whom was unknown, the party coming and leaving the house unobserved.

Cooper was not seen again after crossing Commerce street. He twice sent to his rooming house for his clothes, the first time having his request refused. The second time the clothes were secured, however, and the proprietor of the rooming house failed to notify the police department until three days later. The description of the man Cooper, as phoned to local officers the day following the murder, is said to have tallied with that of Nath Cooper.

When interviewed by a Standard reporter, Mr. Cooper denied any knowledge of the crime, and stated that he had not been in Dallas, nor was he outside the county at any time since he returned to Brady from the Plains country in May of last year. Cooper stated that at the time of the murder he was in Lohn doing carpenter work for the Stewart Bros. He was confident that he would have no difficulty in proving an alibi, and maintained his cheerful demeanor under the trying circumstances.

Mr. Cooper is well known in Brady, having come here in 1910, and remaining here a year or two. He then moved to the Plains country and was for a while located at Sweetwater, Roscoe and Snyder. He returned to Brady and has been making his home here since last May. Cooper is a carpenter by trade, is a good workman, and draws good pay for his work. Such being the case his friends aver he could not be implicated in the Gibbs case, as robbery was apparently the motive that prompted the crime. It was thought the assailant secured about $16.00, besides the watch from Gibbs.

No trace has so far been found of Gibbs' watch. Detective Tanner and the local officers yesterday morning searched Cooper's residence, but nothing of incriminating nature was found. Later a razor was secured at the Cooper residence which was said to have been identified by Mrs. Gibbs as the property of the deceased. However, this is not taken as any strong degree of evidence against the accused, as he and Gibbs had long been friends, and the possession of the razor may be easily explained.

Mr. Cooper's many friends here refuse to believe him in any way concerned in the crime. He has the reputation of being a quiet, congenial man, and the entire citizenship of Brady shares the hope of his friends that he may soon clear himself of the ugly suspicion resting upon him.

Some Snaky Story.

If we ever should be so fortunate, or so unfortunate, as to see 40 snakes all in one bunch, we would want the ambulance, half a score of doctors, the prettiest nurse and a straight jacket all at once. Forty snakes is "seeing some snakes."

S. A. Benham didn't see the snakes, but his father, J. D., who lives near Brownwood, not only saw them, but the number represents his kill out of one den. The reptiles were found on J. D. Benham's farm, where they were comfortably ensconced for the winter.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

PEAR VALLEY DOINGS.

Pear Valley, Texas, Jan. 16.
Editor Brady Standard:
Well, maybe you don't think we have a regular blue norther. Well, you couldn't get here tonight to see, so I'll have to tell you how cold it was. Don't think it will get the horns off a brass monkey, but the hogs will all be mulies after tonight.

Wedding bells continue to ring. We were treated to a surprise wedding last Sunday, when Mr. J. H. Curry of Rochelle was married to Miss Bula Peel, Rev. Hill officiating. Mr. Curry is a thriving farmer of the Rochelle community and is generally known over the county as a Socialist lecturer. Miss Bula is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peel and is one of the most comely and lovable girls of our community, and Mr. Curry is to be congratulated upon securing such a prize.

Lots of grippe in our parts. The family of J. H. Marshall was nearly all down last week, and Dr. Land had to be called to attend them.

Mrs. Ethel Lane was very sick for a couple of days last week. Dr. Land was called twice in one day. She is reported better today.

J. A. Priest has moved to his new home and we are rejoicing and bid him a hearty welcome.

A couple of young larkies went hunting last Saturday night, and after wandering around for quite a while Old Trailer and the pup began yelping. One of the boys said it was a possum. The other said he'd bet it was a skunk. So on went Trailer and the pup, yelp, yelp! After wandering after Trailer and the pup until they hardly knew where they were (and we don't believe they did know,) Trailer and the pup ran something up a tree. You remember the moon was shining Saturday night, so when the boys came up they saw the bulk of something in the top of a mesquite tree. One said skunk, the other possum. So one of them shot him out with a weeding hoe. When it struck the ground Trailer and the pup covered it. One boy jumped back and grabbed his nose, the other ran to the possum tail—and law, such a squall. There, says one, I told you it wasn't a skunk. Yes, and I told you it was no possum. Trailer and the pup made quick work, and the poor thing lay dead at its enemies' feet. The boys took a look at their game, and both stepped back, looking at each other. One says, I'll be gummed if it isn't a black cat. The other said, D—um—black cat. I wish it would stay at home. What did they do? Built a fire and waited for day. And where were they when day came. There they were right in plain view of — dad's, almost at the yard fence. Then what did they do? Crawled up a ditch for four hundred yards and went skulking home shivering in the night. What we want to know is, what were they doing with that hoe? What about a McCulloch county fair? We farmers are getting tired of carnivals, movies and pool and would like to see the county move up a little. What say you, Mr. Editor, and all the scribes? More next week in regard to the fair.

RANTING TIM.

Editor's Note—The county fair is a good idea, but just at present we are up to our ears in the McCulloch County Poultry exhibit. Come and bring the chickens—also come and see the chickens. The dates are January 23th and 29th.

Fortunately I heard of Sloan's Liniment and after using it three or four days am up and well. I am employed at the biggest department store in S. STACY HAPPENINGS.

Stacy, Texas, Jan. 17.
Editor Brady Standard:
We are having some of the coldest weather of the season. Some think it will freeze out the grippe.

Richard Dickinson had the misfortune to get his arm broken Saturday while trying to catch a horse. The horse he was riding ran under a limb, knocking him off and bruising him up considerably. Richard thinks himself lucky in getting out with only a broken arm. Dr. Mannering was called in and he is reported doing nicely.

Messrs. Louie Trott and Aaron Bowen of Post City are back at Stacy this week.

The box supper gotten up by the B. B. G. Saturday night was a success, something near $30 being collected. The funds go toward helping the girls out with their uniforms and other paraphernalia.

Dr. M. Mannering is driving a new Ford car this week.

Mr. Cobb, Willie Bowen and O. S. Betsill made a trip to Coleman this week trying out Mr. Cobb's new car.

The Stacy country is needing rain. Farmers are still breaking land, but will soon be too hard to plow. The oat crop is suffering for rain. The continued dry freezes will cut the oats short unless we have a rain soon.

SPLENDID RAIN.

General Rain Last Night is Gladly Welcomed.

A splendid rain fell last night beginning about 9:00 o'clock, and continuing with heavy downpour for an hour or more. The rain gauge at the Commercial National bank registered a precipitation of .9 of an inch.

Reports from all over the county, as well as neighboring points outside the county, give account of good rains to the same extent as was had in Brady, and it is evident the rainfall was general.

The rain was quite opportune, as the ground, especially since the recent freezes, was becoming so dry as to render plowing almost impossible. The winter small grain crops were also beginning to need moisture. The splendid rain will revive much of the oats that was killed to the ground by the freezes, and which would have died had not the rain come so opportunely.

A CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR.

With the announcement of Mayor Baze that business and health will not permit him to again be a candidate for Mayor of Brady, it becomes necessary to select some competent and patriotic citizen to serve the citizens in this capacity.

There is a big job cut out for the man who will serve as mayor of Brady the next two years. Brady is growing as never before, and with its growth its citizens are confronted with new and ever-increasing problems of city building.

The sewerage problem is one of the greatest with which city officials must contend, and in its solution there will be many demands upon the time, thought and study of the mayor, as well as the councilmen. The problem of improving the main streets and thoroughfares, of grading the public square, of beautifying the court house square—all these and many more that will arise in the course of time, must be worked out.

There is little thanks for the man who is placed at the head of the city government. Be his efforts ever so earnest and sincere; let the good results be what they may, the vast majority of the citizens forget to show flowers for the living. But after all, there is the great satisfaction of a duty well done. There is a conscious pride in the guiding of a commonwealth along the paths of progress and development. There is the approval of future generations to look forward to as a reward for present endeavors.

There are the inducements that the position of mayor of a city hold out.

Let the citizenship speak. Whom will you have for mayor?

ADVICE TO ACT UPON.

In response to an inquiry from "Victim" as to what a boy must do with "that part of his arm from the elbow down when a girl takes hold of his arm—should he just let it swing or should he reach around and grab on to the lapel of his coat?" the Question Box editor of the Temple Telegram passes out this sage advice:

"If you are wearing an overcoat better keep your hand in your pocket. Advise not trying to hang on to the lapel of your own coat. Watch the moving picture actors. They usually pull these things off properly."

Now will the aforesaid editor kindly advise which one of the movie actors he had reference to? Was it Chas. Chaplin? Or was it Fatty Arbuckle?

THE VANISHED RAINBOW.

You have heard of folks chasing the rainbow—looking for the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow—but did you know that the rainbow had disappeared from McCulloch county?

True, that gloriously tinted phenomenon produced when the smiling sun spreads its beaming rays over the landscape immediately after a rain, is still to be observed here as of yore—but the rainbow, symbolical of ethereal prosperity, happiness or good fortune, has vanished from McCulloch land—and in its stead is material progress, abundance and good fortune, the goal of every ambitious and striving member of the human race.

McCulloch county is basking in the sunshine of unprecedented prosperity. Not only were the crops of the past year above the average of the Texas crops, but the price return was greater than that of many "bumper" crops. The wind and the weather, too, have been propitious. The beautiful weather enjoyed all during the fall aided and facilitated the gathering of crops as never before—and when the crops were gathered and the need of rain became apparent, Old Jupiter Pluvius was in fine humor and sent just such a rain as was desired.

And with the beginning of a new year, the gods continue to smile on the McCulloch county inhabitants. The week's cold spell afforded unequalled opportunity for the saving of an abundance of meat—and then the merest wish for a rain for the crops has resulted in a downpour that should bring smiles to the face of the gloomiest of "grouches."

McCulloch folks have reason to rejoice and be thankful—and the man who smiles and works as he smiles is the one who will find here in McCulloch county the pot of gold that once belonged to the elusive rainbow.

HERE'S AN IDEA.

The Standard editor is informed that San Angelo has combined the offices of city mayor and secretary of the chamber of commerce. As the former office is one of city building, and the latter that of city and community building, the plan appears a capital one. It assures the payment of a salary to the head of the city and civic league commensurate with the time, effort and study demanded, and the right man in such a position should be able to materially advance the interests of a city as well as those of the entire community he represents.

Don't let that idea of a commission form of government escape from your mind. Slowly, but surely we are coming to it. Brady should have a commission form of government.

Don't lose sight of the fact that tick eradication is coming. McCulloch county cannot lag behind the procession of progress, when joining in means the saving of thousands of dollars in the county and for her citizens.

When the norther warmed up and we thawed out and felt good toward all mankind, it was little wonder we fell for the simple, artless, beguiling statement, "It's a good day for the race!" What race? The human race.

The Brady Standard has a wholesome respect for the dead, and we lift our voice above a whisper, in this instance, only because we have been prodded into action. We say, softly and apologetically, what has become of that Mason good roads proposition?

GOING UP.

Going up! Not an elevator sign, but just a remark about printing papers. The remark was occasioned by the following notice received recently from the wholesale paper houses:

"Changes in Prices—The serious shortage of all coloring material has had its effect on colored papers. It has become necessary to advance our prices on a number of items as per list enclosed. Please note particularly that only the colored bond papers, card boards, cover, poster, flat writing have changed in price. White bond paper has not yet been changed. The new prices become effective January 1st, 1916."

Please observe that white bond paper has not YET advanced. More news to follow, no doubt.

And that reminds us. When in Dallas during Christmas week our attention was called to the fact that the quality and whiteness of news print could no longer be guaranteed; that the wholesale houses were doing the best they could in the matter, but that the mills were no longer making the same high-grade news print as of yore.

Dear reader, just take this issue of The Standard and compare it with an issue of the early part of December. You will at once notice the bluish tinge of the present sheet as compared with that issued in December—you will also notice that the printing surface is not as smooth or as finished as it was. That is part of the price we neutrals must pay in this war. The paper costs us just the same as before—but the quality is not there.

The reason? The dark tint is the natural color of the paper. The use of aniline dye is resorted to to whiten the sheet. Aniline dye was imported from Germany; the supply has become exhausted and no satisfactory substitute has been found.

Among the large newspapers now obliged to use paper not artificially whitened are the Chicago Tribune, the New York Times and the New York World, Boston Journal and Boston Globe. All other newspapers will be obliged to print on the same natural color when their present supply is exhausted. It is expected that the other papers, one by one, will join the list as time goes on and the aniline dyes disappear.

As long as Brady is content to remain under its present form of government, just so long will our progress resemble that of a snail. Sure, yes, but, oh, how slow. Brady should get out of the village class, and a special charter is the one sure way to go about it.

OUR JITNEY OFFER—This one we DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with five cents to Foley & Co., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excited; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Dairying for Profit

The foundation rock upon which a successful dairy rests is a good cow. Next to that comes a good cream separator.

It has been conclusively proven that a cream separator saves from $10.00 to $12.00 per year on the cow. Nobody doubts that. Experience proves that a De Laval cream separator saves from $3.00 to $5.00 over the best of other centrifugal separators. Or, stated a little differently, a De Laval separator will save its cost every few months, while it will last five times as long as the best of them.

There are more than 1,625,000 De Laval Cream separators in use, in every country where dairying is practiced the world over. Many thousands of them have been in use five, ten, fifteen, twenty and twenty five years.

Finally, if you want to know about a certain machine, you go to a person familiar with it. Not to just anybody. If you want to know about a De Laval cream separator, go to someone using one. If you want to know about prices and terms come to us.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rev. J. M. Reynolds, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. W. M. Green, missionary for the Brady Baptist association, left Wednesday night for Brownwood to spend a few days attending a church conference. Among other speakers on the program for the conference are Revs. G. W. Truett and J. B. Gambrell of Dallas.

D. C. Middleton and Perry Johnson of the Doole community were visitors here Tuesday, and both had political bees in their bonnets, so to speak. D. C. announces in this issue as a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, while Mr. Johnson, who lives just over the line in Concho county, is a candidate for sheriff of that county.

K. D., the 12-year-old son of Dr. G. P. Callan, who has been so gravely ill with toxin poison, is reported much improved, and hopes are now bright for his complete recovery. The lad regained consciousness for the first time yesterday morning, and his improvement was so rapid that by yesterday afternoon he was able to converse, and showed signs of improved spirits and returning strength. The news of his improvement is a source of gratification to the many friends of Dr. Callan, as well as to Dr. Callan himself.

Mrs. Max Borschow of Fort Worth came in over the Frisco Thursday morning, also Miss Amanda Stewart from the same city. Mrs. Borschow is the wife of the owner of the Borschow Salvage Co., and Miss Stewart is the buyer of the millinery department of the same firm. Mr. Borschow expects to be here in a few days and will look around for a suitable residence, as he wants to make his home here. Mrs. Borschow and Miss Stewart will leave Saturday for the Eastern markets to buy a new and full line of millinery.

Paul Calvert, a former Bradyite now with the Waco Machinery & Supply Co., sends his renewal to The Standard, and with it greetings and best wishes for The Standard force and all his old friends as well. Paul still has a warm spot in his heart for Brady, and we think he has designs on a McCulloch county poultry and hog farm just as soon as his nest egg grows to the right proportion. It's not such a long way back to McCulloch—and their many friends would be glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Calvert again numbered among our citizens.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

MENARD MESSAGES

From The Messenger.

Drs. Allen and Scott spoke to an audience at the county court house last Wednesday and placed before the people the reasons why the ticks should be eradicated. Many of the cattle men of Menard county are in favor of getting above the line, believing that it would be the means of saving much money for stock owners by increasing the value of the herd, not only in beef weight, but even in the value of the hides sold as well.

The contract for the new Baptist church was let last week by sealed bids, W. O. Kirchner securing the contract. Work was begun at once and Mr. Kirchner expects to have the new church completed by the last of February if the weather is favorable.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in a Few Moments—Try This!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

A Well Story.

An old farmer in Georgia named Jack Baldwin lost his hat in an old dry well, relates the Atlanta Journal, hitched a rope to a stump and let himself down. A wicked wag named Neal came along and quietly detached the rope from the stump and waited until Baldwin started to pull himself out. He then let the rope go and it fell in the well. Baldwin thinking that he had not securely fastened it. Baldwin had ridden an old blind horse that morning and Neal very quietly took the bell from the neck of the horse and began to rattle it and get nearer and nearer the well. "Hang that old horse; he hasn't any more sense than to fall in on me. He's coming this way—whooa Bill!" The sound came closer. "The old blind fool! Great Jerusalem! he will be right in on top of me in a minute—whooa Bill; whoa!" Neal kicked a little dirt in on Baldwin's head, and he began to pray: "Oh Lord, have mercy on me—whooa Bill—a poor sinner I'm gone now—whooa Bill—Our Father who art in—whooa, Bill—hallowed be—gee, Bill, gee!" Just then in fell a little more dirt. "O Lord, if you ever intend doing anything for me—back, Bill! whoa!—thy kingdom come—gee, Bill! Oh Lord, you know I was baptized in Smith's mill dam—you whoa, Bill! Ho! Up! Murder!" Neal could not hold in any longer, and shouted with a laugh which could have been heard for two miles, which was about the distance Baldwin chased him when he got out.

Found Simple Remedy That Relieved Child

Mild Laxative Compound Corrects Stubborn Case of Constipation.

HARLEY BUREN BULLS.

An important duty that devolves on parents is the regulation of their children's bowels. Health in later life depends in a large measure on early training and a child should be taught from infancy to regular habits.

When from any cause the bowels become congested with stomach waste a mild laxative should be employed to open up the passage gently and carry off the congested mass. A most effective remedy for this purpose is the combination of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mrs. W. D. Bulls of Reed, Okla., used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for her baby boy, Harley Buren Bulls, and says "It did him more good than anything we have given him. His bowels are very stubborn about acting, but they act easily every time I give him Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin contains no opiate or narcotic drug and is a splendid remedy for children and older people as well. It has been on the market for more than twenty-five years and is the family standby in thousands of homes. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

White as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction. The best recommendation that could be given Mr. White would be his record as County Superintendent. No one can doubt for a minute but that Mr. White has the best interests of the McCulloch county schools at heart, and the advancement of education in this county, the betterment of the schools and the general welfare of schools and students occupies his mind and thoughts at all times. Mr. White's methods have aroused interest among the best known educators of the state, and his results have won approval from these same men. No one could better fill the position of county superintendent than does Mr. White, and the voters can make no better choice for the office. Davis Funeral Wednesday.

The funeral of Julian F. Davis, whose death occurred early Tuesday morning following a short illness of pneumonia, was held at the residence on South Blackburn street at 3:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. T. P. Grant, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Following the short service at the home the body was taken in charge by the local Masonic lodge and escorted to the cemetery, where the impressive commitment service of the order was conducted.

Despite the bitter cold and rain, the funeral was attended by one of the largest concourse of heartbroken relatives and friends of any similar occasion ever occurring in this city.

The floral offerings were both profuse and beautiful, handsome wreaths being sent by the Masonic and W. O. W. lodges and numerous others by loving friends.

Active pall bearers, selected from the membership of the Masonic fraternity, were as follows: Dr. J. B. Granville, A. B. Carrithers, W. W. Jordan, Prof. W. L. Hughes, Dave Camp, M. P. Wegner, L. A. Williams and R. A. Rutherford, Jr., of Lockhart.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Through the courtesy of the West Texas Telephone Co., we received the following report of places where rain fell last night: Menard, good; Mason, good; Eden, good; Stacy, good; Lohn, light rain; Rochelle rain.

D. W. Rowlett, secretary of the Young Men's Business League, was a very busy man Thursday, doing missionary work pertaining to the poultry show which is to come off the latter part of this month. He took a drive of about 55 miles, and reports that Friday he will mail out entry blanks to all those who wish to show their poultry.

The recent freezes are said to have been of such severity as to have killed much of the late oats, which had not become firmly enough rooted to withstand the cold weather. Fall oats are said to be all right, although they were killed to the ground. The rising temperature and cloudy atmosphere have served to revive them, however, and the new growth is already appearing. With the splendid rain of last night, and the balmy sunshine of today, winter small grain will recover from the freeze and grow by leaps and bounds.

SIXTY AEROPLANES IN FLOCK

French Attack on German Position in Forest Must Have Been Spectacular in the Extreme.

A thrilling account is given in the French paper, Liberte, of a recent allied raid with sixty aeroplanes upon the forest of Houlthulst, which is situated about half way between Dixmude and Ypres. The forest is practically sheltered from the effects of allied artillery, and it has been converted into a regular garrison district with barracks full of troops and munitions depots and the whole camp illuminated with electric light.

Through air photographs the situation of the main military buildings was located exactly, and at 10 p. m. the 60 French, Belgian and British aeroplanes started out in clear moonlight. Immediately the aeroplanes appeared there was great excitement in the camp. All lights were extinguished and anti-aircraft guns came into action, but the airmen, greatly assisted by the moonlight, dropped four tons of high explosives and incendiary bombs upon the camps and depots.

Some of the aircraft returned to refill with shells no fewer than three times in the course of the night.

By the light of the fires started the airmen asserted they saw groups of soldiers fleeing in great disorder in the panic caused by the continual explosions in the ammunition depots. By 11:30 p. m. the entire forest and the buildings it contained were in flames.

THE GAME BEGINS

"And what do you know about Homer?"
 "Lots. Didn't Duckey Dunn and Patsy Sanks make three homers in de very last game on de lot down de street?"

GOING THE GAITS.

"Too bad about Wopsley. He's involved in a terrible scandal and I thought all the time that he wore the 'white flower of a blameless life.'"

"That's all you know about Wopsley. As a matter of fact, he's been wearing the red carnation of a cabaret rounder."

"What do you think of this eruption of Mount Vesuvius?"
 "Why, it's nothing to the one our baby had."

THE MAIN ISSUE.

Council Meeting.

The council met in regular session Monday at 4:00 o'clock. The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Judge Adkins made quite a talk for the farmer regarding the water trough proposition. The judge wanted this matter settled as soon as possible, especially before the warm months begin. The council was of the opinion that if they were to lay the pipes the county commissioners would turn on the water. After further discussion by Alderman Roddie the matter was left over for 30 or 60 days.

The matter of a market place was brought up by Alderman Roddie, and it was suggested the city buy a place of its own and thereby settle the water question once and for all. The city secretary was instructed to look into three or four locations, especially the one south of the jail and report to the council. He was also instructed to find out who owned the land, and how much the city owned at that place, all agreeing that it would be the best place in town for a market place.

After the auditing of two or three accounts and under the head of new business the sewerage question came up for discussion. Mayor Baze went into a lengthy and elaborate explanation of some of the systems now employed in different cities. He gave the council a minute statement of the compressed air system now being tested in Boston and one or two other large eastern cities, but it was his belief that the best thing for Brady was the incineration system for the disposal of garbage. He also stated that it would only cost about $4 per capita per year, and that something must be done in that regard before next January.

The question of new quarters for the city came up, the contract for the present quarters in the Brady National bank building having about expired. Councilmen Tipton and Cook were appointed by the mayor to look into the contemplated Masonic building proposition and see what kind of an agreement they can come to. The present quarters are too small for the water and council rooms. Brady is growing and therefore should have rooms becoming her dignity as a city.

Nothing more coming before the council, it adjourned.

Bad Cold Quickly Broken Un. Mrs. Martha Wilcox, Gowanda, N. Y., writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and coughed most of the time. It proved to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days, and the cough entirely disappeared. I have told many of my friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it in highest terms. Obtainable everywhere."
