Galveston Route.

T. P. Grant yesterday was in receipt of advice from C. M. Mc-Fartridge, Moravia, Iowa, president of the South-West Trail, to the effect that official approval had been given the Brady-Austin-Houston - Galveston route for the South-West Trail. Mr. Grant is highly elated over the fact that his endeavors have met with such signal success. Heretofore, he was informed cases. that the most he could hope for as to have the Brady-Austin route included in the officially designated Trail, but his persistent efforts have at last won Brady and intermediate points.

If We Cannot Make You a Closer or as Close Price as the Other Fellow, We Do Not Ask You to Buy

The wholesale market on Hardware and Furniture is unsettled with seldom a month without an advance, and it is hard to know just when and where to buy merchandise. On some staple articles, however. we were able to contract for several months ago at the then prevailing price. Such articles were bought right and we will be able to sell right. Perhaps others we were not so fortunate on.

Most of our competitors probably have done the same to a certain extent but the article may not be the same. Such a condition makes a very variable retail market, and explains to some extent why our prices are so much better on some things than our competitor's, and why he has a little better price on others.

We wish to say that when this is called to our attention on any article sold by us, we will either meet competitors price or allow you the privilege of returning the goods so you may take advantage of the other fellow's bargains.
