BRADY ASSURED COMPLETE NEW LIGHT PLANT EARLY IN 1920

CITY CONTRACTS FOR PURCHASE OF NEW ALTERNATING CURRENT PLANT

PLANT TO BE REBUILT FROM START TO FINISH AND WILL BE MOST MODERN IN EVERY DETAIL—COMPLETE INSTALLATION IN NINETY DAYS.

Mayor Lee King Wednesday evening signed a contract for the purchase by the City of Brady of a modern light and power plant from the Fairbanks-Morse Engine Co. The contract was made with J. B. Carsey, consulting engineer, and Jim Howard, salesman for the Fairbanks-Morse Co., and is subject to approval by the company. The contract calls for two 100 h. p. Diesel engines, run in parallel, two 90 kilowatt alternating generators, one 15 h. p. motor for tri-plex pump, one 2 1-2 inch motor-driven centrifugal pump for filter, one 3 h. p. starting engine for air compressors, two 7 1-2 h. p. exciters, one complete switchboard. Delivery of the new engines is anticipated within 30 days, and complete installation of the new plant is hoped for within 90 days.

The contract was authorized by the board of water commissioners, acting with the sanction of the city council and represents quite an elaboration of original plans, which contemplated the installation of but a one-unit plant. The purchase of the two engines to run in parallel means that the power and light plant is to be rebuilt from start to finish, and, when the improvement is completed, Brady will be able to boast of a modern plant, the equal of any of its size in Texas.

The purchase of the new plant assures Brady not only a first-class lighting and power service, but also insures placing the municipal plant upon a paying basis. In fact, the company's guarantee assures the paying out of the plant in the course of the next couple years in the saving over present operating expenses. According to the contract, the Fairbanks-Morse Company guarantees the engines to operate at a total cost per month of $173.00 for fuel, and $30.00 per month for lubricating oil, at present prices. Further, the pumping of 200,000 gallons of water into the standpipe, is guaranteed at a cost of but 64c. Compared with present operating expenses, this guarantee would assure a saving in operating expenses of approximately $1,000 per month.

The contracting of a two-unit plant, instead of the single unit, will, of necessity, require a larger initial payment to be made, and the securing of additional funds to finance the purchase has been placed in the hands of Thos. P. Grant, secretary of the Brady Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Grant is optimistic over the task he has undertaken, and expects to fully finance the proposition. To this end, every Brady citizen should extend Mr. Grant moral and financial support to the extent of his ability. The consummation of this deal means a big step forward for Brady—and every citizen should take pride and interest in assisting in putting the move over.

TEXAS O. & R. CO. AT 885 FT. INTERESTS OIL SCOUTS

The Texas Oil & Refining Co. test on J. H. Gibson Survey No. 1 (Dutton tract) is at an interesting stage, and is attracting attention from oil scouts and the oil fraternity in general. The well is now shut down at 885 ft. in blue shale, waiting on 10-inch pipe. The test has had several showings of gas, each coming stronger than the previous one, and the last showing was at about 782 ft. An oil sand is expected within the next 50 ft., and should the test come in as well as at this depth, its location in the North-Central part of the county would give McCulloch one of the greatest plays of any oil territory in the state.

H. D. Kevan reports drilling having the work of skidding Smith & Jergins' rig on Survey 42, 20 ft. to a new location has been completed, and the new hole was spudded in Monday. Drilling resumed on the Prairie Oil & Gas Co.'s test on Survey 89 at 3540 ft.

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS NOT REQUIRED TO SECURE FISH DEALER'S LICENSE

A ruling received from W. G. Sterrett, commissioner of Game, Fish and Oysters, states that hotels and restaurants are not required to secure a license for serving fish and oysters, nor do fishermen catching and selling fish. However, all buyers and sellers of fish and oysters will be required to procure a license, fee for which is $10.00.

The Shultz Oil Co. test in Concho county is shut down at 3200 ft. in white shale, waiting on a cable.

The Leonard Petroleum Co. test on the Waring ranch in Concho county is underreaming.

Because of incessant rains and impassable roads, practically all other operations in the county are suspended awaiting clearing of the weather, and drying of the roads.

May Be Possible Typesetters Have Been Eliminated From Magazine Publication

The typesetters in the publishing house that prints the Literary Digest and those in the offices of nearly every other New York magazine decided last week to take a "vacation." This means that practically all the well known magazines will be late in reaching their readers.

The Literary Digest, however, will go on the newstands at the usual time this week. In order to accomplish this it has been necessary to publish the issue of October 18 without the assistance of typesetters, this being accomplished by the use of plates made of photographing the original typewritten copy. The make-up of the magazine is no way changed, the only difference being that the style of the type is that used on typewriters and is uniform in all reading matter throughout the number. The right hand side of each column is irregular as in ordinary typewritten copy. Each page is in effect a photographic copy of the original article as written on the typewriter for compositors. This is probably the first time that a million copies of a large national magazine of eighty pages with handsome colored covers, and many illustrations, was ever published without the assistance of compositors.

The experiment has deep significance, not only to the publishing fraternity, but to the public. As stern necessity is oftentimes the mother of invention, it is not impossible that in this age of marvels the whole future of magazine publication will be revolutionized by the elimination of what has hitherto been its costliest operation—the typesetting. The present departure, as shown by the "Digest" this week will undoubtedly furnish a basis for many similar experiments throughout the country.

GOVERNOR W. P. HOBBY PROCLAIMS NOV. 11TH GREAT TEST OF HOLIDAYS

CALLS ON PEOPLE OF TEXAS TO OBSERVE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF SIGNING OF ARMISTICE BY LOCAL CELEBRATIONS AND EXERCISES.

Naming November 11th as the anniversary of the "greatest day that has come to the people of the world," Governor W. P. Hobby Saturday issued his proclamation declaring that day a holiday, and calling upon the people of Texas to unite for local demonstrations and exercises befitting this great occasion.

Governor Hobby's proclamation was as follows:

"It needs no reminder from the executive office to turn the hearts and minds of the people of this State to Tuesday, Nov. 11, 1919, the first anniversary of the day upon which became effective, the armistice agreed upon by the contenders in the great world war.

"About every hearthstone in this State gathered those whose daily prayers were for the success of the arms of all nations with which America was associated, and for safe return of our citizen soldiers who had journeyed overseas to break the power, decimate the pride of that military machine that sought to put every nation in subjection. For more than three years we had witnessed an unequal contest. Combined armies of allied nations were giving way to the advance of the invader, and the fortunes of war did not turn until the flower of American manhood, supported by the spirit of American womanhood, had joined the conflict. From the hour of the first American Drive, the tide of battle turned and one victory followed another in such succession that the enemy welcomed the opportunity to sign the agreement that would be followed by the order to 'cease firing.'

"The Imperial State of Texas gave of her man and her woman, her wealth and her products; consecrated her soil to Government purpose and shared with every other State in the sacrifices that were necessary to maintain those who had joined the greatest overseas expedition that ever set afloat. Sons Sleep on Flanders Field.

"Imperial Texas had her part in the great World War, and her sons now sleep on Flanders Field, martyrs to the noblest crusade upon which a people ever moved. We glorify our sacred dead and every thought is a memorial to those who made the supreme sacrifice. We honor those who have returned to us and we make places for them in social, industrial and public life, counting it a privilege to serve them.

"It is fitting that we take notice of the anniversary to which I have called attention; it is fitting that we who have passed through the agonizing hours of the conflict should make this first anniversary such an event that it will inspire in those who are to follow us and who will learn the story as it is handed to them, to forever give it proper observance, that the memory of the victory for world peace will be imperishable. It is our privilege to celebrate the consummation of that which we in person devoutly wished. It will be posterity's duty to perpetuate an historic event. Let therefore, every heart beat in unison with this patriotic and joyful purpose, and every soul enter into the State-wide spirit in full accord.

Proclaims Nov. 11 Holiday. "Now, therefore, I, W. P. Hobby, Governor of the State of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do proclaim Tuesday November 11, 1919, a holiday. The Mayor of each municipal corporation is requested to issue his proclamation in accordance herewith. I request all patriotic societies, all religious denominations, the commercial organizations and associations of men and women who are banded together for the weal of the commonwealth, to unite for local demonstrations and exercises befitting this greatest historical day that has come to the people of the world; and to give thanks to the omnipotent ruler of the universe for the answer he gave to the prayers of our people and pay a tribute to the men of America, who bore themselves with such bravery and courage and success under the flags of the allied forces.

"W. P. HOBBY, Governor of Texas."

"It is fitting that we take notice of the anniversary to which I have called attention; it is fitting that we who have passed through the agonizing hours of the conflict should make this first anniversary such an event that it will inspire in those who are to follow us and who will learn the story as it is handed to them, to forever give it proper observance, that the memory of the victory for world peace will be imperishable. It is our privilege to celebrate the consummation of that which we in person devoutly wished. It will be posterity's duty to perpetuate an historic event. Let therefore, every heart beat in unison with this patriotic and joyful purpose, and every soul enter into the State-wide spirit in full accord.

BORSCHOW TO TEST LAW ON WOMAN'S WORK—CONSTITUTIONALITY ATTACKED

Austin, Oct. 17.—Max Borschow of El Paso refused to pay overtime to women working for him, refused to change the hours of labor so as to conform to the fifty-four-hour status, and announced that he would contest the constitutionality of the act. The state department of labor is willing to accept the case as a test, and will use every endeavor to have it carried as speedily as possible to the supreme court.

The inspectors of the department have succeeded in El Paso in putting the statute into effect in most of the places where women and minors are employed, and at the same time they have assisted some sixty girls to secure what was due them as overtime under the provisions of the act.

McCULLOCH PIG CLUB MEMBERS BUY REGISTERED POLAND CHINA PIGS

COUNTY AGENT B. D. BLACK SECURES WILLIAMSON CO. BLUE RIBBON STOCK—GRAND SIRE CHAMPION HOG OF THE ENTIRE UNITED STATES.

Sixteen head of prize registered big-bone Poland China pigs from Williamson county were secured by County Agent B. D. Black the past week, and will form the nucleus of a county-wide movement among pig club members towards the raising of pure-bred registered Poland China stock. Mr. Black's visit to Williamson county was authorized by members of the McCulloch County Boys Pig club, and McCulloch county citizens interested in the raising of prize stock, and after spending two days in the pens at Bartlett, Mr. Black was successful in securing some of the best blue ribbon stock offered for sale in that county. He returned here last Thursday.

The stock purchased by Mr. Black includes pigs costing $25, $35 and $50, and bred gilts costing $100 and $125 each. All of this stock is out of the champion boar and the champion sow of Williamson county, the boar being valued at $5,000, and the sow at $2500. The sire is out of "Big Bob," the champion boar of the U. S. The dam took two prizes in competition with a Williamson county sow which sold for $2100. All the pigs and gilts purchased were raised by Williamson County Pig Club members, and the pigs were value at $100 each. The sale at the prices made to Mr. Black was entirely for advertising purposes.

The Williamson County Boys Pig club was organized only three years ago, but in that time the members have proven that the raising of registered pigs is by far more profitable than the farming of their fathers. The sow that sold for $2100 was raised by a pig club boy. One of the gilts purchased by Mr. Black for $125 was raised by the son of a farmer in comparatively poor circumstances. The boy expected to use the money to pay his way to college.

McCulloch County Pig club members are enthusiastic over their new stock, and expect to set some records in the next few years, as well as to build up a line of registered stock that will pull down some blue ribbons in various state and county meets. Purchasers of registered big-bone Poland China stock include: Roy Harris, Lohn, Texas, pair. Alvin Ince, Claxton, sow pig. Maurice E. Kidd, Camp San Saba, bred gilt. Jim Hill, Waldrip, bred gilt. Joe Hill, Waldrip, sow pig. Will Roberts, Jr., Lohn, boar pig. Eugene Samuelson, Brady, boar pig. A. J. Johnson, Brady, boar pig. Clarence Malone, Brady, sow pig. B. D. Black, Brady, pair. W. D. Crothers, Brady, pair. Edd Bryson, Brady, boar pig. Walter Jordan, Brady, bred gilt.

TIME CHANGES AGAIN ON NEXT SUNDAY MORN.

Prepare to enjoy an extra hour's sleep next Sunday morning, for you will be entitled to it. The time changes Sunday morning, October 26th, at 2:00 o'clock, the clocks being set back one hour to make up for the hour stolen from Father Time in the spring. Rather than get up at the near zero hour to stop the clock for an hour, it is advisable to stop it for an hour before retiring. Then you will be right with the world on arising.

This will be the last time the clocks will change, Congress having repealed the "Daylight Savings" law over the veto of President Wilson. While the law served to good purpose during the period of the war in that it enabled a saving of fuel and light, yet it worked a hardship on farmers and people living in the rural districts, since in the summer time, the period from noon until dark would be about a nine-hour stretch.

A Tractor That Does More Than Plow

Plowing is only the beginning of what a tractor should be able to do.

It should also be able to do everything else in the preparation of the seed bed—the discing and harrowing, the planting. And it should do these things in a way that it will not injure the coming crop.

After the ground is broken, The Cleveland Tractor goes over it with the disc and the harrow, then goes over it with the seeder.

The Cleveland rides on top of the seed bed; but it does not sink into it and it does not pack the soil.

The Cleveland goes over soft ground because it travels on its own endless track which it picks up and lays down as it goes along.

These tracks have about 600 square inches of traction surface, so the pressure on the ground is only about five pounds to the square inch—therefore there is not enough weight at any one point to inflict damage.

We repeat, The Cleveland Tractor rides on top of the seed bed. It does not sink into it; therefore it does not have to wade or wallow through it. And because it does not sink in, it does not have to push the dirt in front of it and pack it down in order to navigate.

And because it is not obliged to push the earth from in front of it and pack it down, the greatest possible amount of The Cleveland's power is available for accomplishing the work it has to do.

Who Is There That Wouldn't Vote for Road Improvement?

Voca, Texas, Oct. 21.

Editor Brady Standard:

The last few days we have had some sunshine, which has been the most appreciated of any recent happening.

Sunshine is the most needful of anything just now, as the long, wet spell has done considerable damage to cotton. The first time I have ever seen cotton rot in the bolls that were partly open and bolls that had just begun to open, caught and held the water until they rotted; there are quite a lot in that condition here. I heard one man remark that he had lost at least four bales.

"I know not what the truth may be, I tell it as 'twas told to me."

Corn that is still standing in the fields is badly damaged. I suppose that is the first time that anything like that has ever occurred in this country.

Everyone, both men and women and children are just as busy as they can be picking cotton and gathering pecans. Money cannot induce anyone to help; everyone has all they can do of their own work. All the young people are picking cotton and the older ones have to thresh pecans; pretty "hard on old clothes" too.

Such men as A. I. Holloway, J. B. Lemons, D. H. Henderson and Henry Ogle, are having to thresh pecans—the roads are so bad we can't haul our produce to market. Now is the best time we ever saw to start a good roads movement. Everyone knows the disadvantage of no roads at all. Who is it that wouldn't vote for a bond issue to build permanent roads? I would not vote for one to patch up an old mud road, but why can't we build good roads? If we can build but a mile a year, let it be a good one.

Our Oregon friend said recently, "Why not get busy and have something to sell, while prices are high and not be complaining so much about high prices." Well, brother, I want to say to you, if you were here and could see the stuff we have to sell it would make you sit up and take notice. A bumper cotton crop—a bumper corn crop—a bumper feed crop and a bumper wheat and oat crop—and a whopper of a pecan crop; fat hogs on every farm and a big drove of turkeys on every farm. The people of McCulloch county have got the goods and are not worrying about high prices.

RED CROSS ARMY NOW MOBILIZING

STATE CONFERENCES RECENTLY HELD IN SIX CITIES TO DISCUSS PLANS.

FIGHTING MEN VOLUNTEER

Responses by the Hundreds Pouring In to Appeal For 1,000,000 Workers.

Mobilization of the vast army of Red Cross workers has begun. Reports reaching Red Cross division headquarters in St. Louis indicate that plans for the Third Roll Call, November 2 to 11, are well under way in almost every one of the 655 Red Cross Chapters in the five states—Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas—comprising the Southwestern Division.

Chapter Roll Call Directors have been appointed in virtually every city, town and county and with but few exceptions working organizations are in process of formation at each place. State Directors have been appointed to take charge of the rapidly forming machine. Added impetus has been given to the preliminary campaign by the holding of State-wide Roll Call conferences recently at St. Louis, Topeka, Dallas, Houston, Oklahoma City and Little Rock, at which definite campaign plans affecting every section of each State in the division were decided upon.

Meanwhile, responses to the call for 1,000,000 volunteer workers to serve during the coming drive are pouring in by the hundreds to Red Cross headquarters. "Once a Red Cross worker, always a Red Cross worker" is the slogan adopted. Soldiers, sailors and marines, some of whom were in the thick of the fighting overseas, are offering their services. Many of these men will be utilized as speakers to describe some of the benefits accruing to the fighting men by reason of the presence of the Red Cross in the field of hostilities.

During the first part of the campaign there will be a house-to-house canvassing for Red Cross memberships under a distinct arrangement; but on the last two days district lines will be disregarded and former service men as well as women volunteer workers will take up their tasks with roving commissions. Not only are discharged service men wanted as Red Cross canvassers but State and National Guardsmen are urged to enroll as quickly as possible. The Red Cross welcomes assistance of all former Army and Navy officers and men who approved of the work of the Red Cross during the war.

Speakers and writers are being sought by the organization and asked to "do their bit." Numerous acceptances already have been received from speakers and at present a determined effort is being made to obtain the services of all newspaper men who saw service overseas and are qualified to speak or write of their adventures. A preliminary campaign is being waged through text posters and other printed matter that has been sent to throughout the country.

Red Cross officials are stressing the point that the drive is to be made for memberships only and that no appeal is contemplated wherein the general public will be asked for funds. An encouraging number of public spirited men and women through the division already have applied at Red Cross Chapters asking a renewal of their memberships for next year.

POSTERS FEATURE DRIVE
ONE NAMED "THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA" BY ARTIST.

Foremost Painters Portray "Greatest Mother in the World" and Red Cross Nurse.

The services of some of the foremost artists in the country have been obtained in connection with the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11. Posters by Howard Christy and Haskell Coffin are features of a preliminary text poster campaign that is being inaugurated.

The Red Cross nurse is also the subject of the poster by Coffin. This is in pastel shades and portrays one of the merciful workers with arms outstretched in supplication. The poster bears only the inscription "Third Red Cross Roll Call." Another poster has to do with the better health program of the Red Cross and has the "Greatest Mother" as a background to a text which reads "Make our Red Cross in Peace as in War—The Greatest Mother in the World."

More than 40,000 window displays are being prepared for use in mercantile stores throughout the country. Department stores in the larger cities have promised to feature these displays during the Roll Call period. Special moving picture slides and motion news pictures have been arranged for and will be provided for use prior to and during the campaign.

Joe Ogden of El Paso is in Brady for a visit of several weeks with his brother, A. Ogden, and family. He left McCulloch county for Southwest Texas something like 20 years ago, and is employed with the El Paso Ice Plant.

E. O. Barker and family returned the past week from Taft, Texas, near Corpus Christi, where they have been making their home the past year. Mr. Barker says he is back to stay and will again occupy the place he formerly had, and at present farmed by R. L. Wash. Mr. Barker succeeded in getting out six bales of cotton before the storm washed away his crop at Taft. For the balance of the year he expects to work with his teams in the Ranger oil fields, but next year

L. W. St. Clair arrived in the wee sma' hours of yesterday morning and says Brady is home once more—and looks good. Together with his family he started in his car from Denver, where he has been located the past couple years, but when he reached Quanah, he sent his folks on home by rail, expecting to load his car and ship it home by rail also. However, finding this plan prohibitive, he continued the trip in his car, getting as far as Bangs, where he decided it advisable to put his car in a garage, and come to Brady by rail. "Saint" expects to re-open his photo studio and will again cater to McCulloch county citizens with high class work in photographic art.

ALL TEXAS AWAITS COTTON PALACE CALL AT WACO, OCT. 26

Waco.—If one should hesitate in taking for granted that all of Central, East and West Texas is coming to Waco this year for the Texas Cotton Palace exposition, he should look over a list in Secretary S. N. Mayfield's office of hundreds of cities and towns in these sections, which are preparing exhibits for the big show.

John E. Spurlin, who is this year touring Texas in the interest of the Cotton Palace, tells directors that he is receiving a response of which he never dreamed.

E. B. Alford, J. W. Harris and S. L. Ramsey are in charge of plans at Henderson to bring a delegation and exhibit to Waco between October 25 and November 9, dates of this year's exposition.

Dr. Drumgoole and R. W. Base of the fair association and the Chamber of Commerce at Tyler are in charge of an elaborate exhibit which will be brought from that section of East Texas.

J. Hughes, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Gorman has assured the Cotton Palace management that Gorman will have a separate exhibit at the exposition this year. Mr. Hughes outlined his plans to Mr. Spurlin, representative of the Cotton Palace, while he was making a tour of West Texas.

T. E. Hayden, well known cattle breeder of Moran, joins with R. Y. Black, secretary of the Moran Chamber of Commerce in assuring the Cotton Palace management a full delegation from that city will visit Waco during the exposition.

Stamford, one of the West Texas leading towns, and renowned throughout the State for its civic energy, promises to feature the Cotton Palace this year with both an extensive exhibit and a big delegation.

Messrs. Hamline and Anson, well known agricultural men of Jones County, E. Overson, secretary of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce together with H. D. Neff and Charles E. Newton, are, at the present time, joining forces to see that the Cotton Palace hears from Stamford in a way never to be forgotten.

Other West Texas towns, such as De Leon, Cisco and Dublin, are making plans to make Waco headquarters during Cotton Palace time. This information comes from J. W. Farrow of De Leon, W. A. Downing at Cisco and John Higginbotham, president of the Chamber of Commerce at Dublin.

Such towns as Mineola, Longview, Marshall, Canton, New Boston, Carthage, Hemphill, all recently visited by Mr. Spurlin, are getting ready to visit the Cotton Palace exposition. Assurances to this effect are forwarded by R. J. Gaston and J. B. Harris of Mineola, J. N. Campbell of Longview, and Herbert Key of Marshall.

Van Zandt county will be well represented, declares M. B. Dandivel, county demonstration agent, who make their headquarters at Canton. Demonstration Agent C. H. Andrews is booster for the Cotton Palace at New Boston, and likewise D. N. Fost at Carthage and T. J. Tortonberry who is demonstration agent at Hemphill.

J. N. Clifford of the Chamber of Commerce at Marlin has told the Cotton Palace management that Marlin will be represented in Waco this year as it never has before.

MANY FAIRS, TOGETHER WITH COTTON PALACE, INCLUDED IN U. S. TOUR

Waco.—The Texas Cotton Palace this year finds it in a big company as far as the United States government is concerned. The United States exhibit, combined agriculture, farming, the Army and Navy, known as Exhibition Circuit No. 2 out of Washington, D. C., is to be shown this year at the Kansas City Free Fair at Topeka; the Oklahoma State Fair and Exposition at Oklahoma City; The Oklahoma Free State Fair at Muskogee, and in the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco.

This information has just been received from F. Lamson Scribner, Chairman of the joint committee on government exhibits.

BRIEF SESSION COUNTY COURT PISTOL CASES UP

County Judge Evans Adkins held a brief session of county court this week, disposing of two cases on the criminal docket. Both cases that came before the court were pistol cases. They were disposed of as follows:

State of Texas vs. Paul Powell, carrying pistol on or about his person; dismissed on motion of county attorney.

State of Texas vs. John Mason, carrying pistol on or about his person; tried by jury and verdict of not guilty.

The civil docket will be taken up next week. Because of the light docket and the great need of every citizen at his work, Judge Adkins expects to try only the most urgent or important of the cases on the docket.

SCHOOLS OF TEXAS ASKED TO OBSERVE OCTOBER 27TH —BIRTHDAY OF ROOSEVELT

Dallas, Oct. 19.—Miss Annie Webb Blanton, state superintendent of public instruction, by proclamation designated Oct. 27th for the observance of Theodore Roosevelt's birthday by means of appropriate memorial programs. A copy of the proclamation was received at the state headquarters of the Roosevelt memorial campaign in Dallas yesterday, and reads: "In view of the fact that most of the states of the union will observe October 27th as Roosevelt memorial day, I hereby request all public schools of our state to give some suitable memorial exercises on this day. This may be done at the opening exercises, or the time may be set apart for such exercises."

The managers of the campaign in Texas to raise the state's quota of the Roosevelt memorial fund immediately began getting in touch with the superintendents of schools in the counties to have the spirit of the state superintendent's proclamation carried out. A booklet containing suggested programs in which the dominant note is Americanism, is being distributed among the schools in large numbers through the office of the county superintendent. Thousands of school children are expected to contribute to the Roosevelt memorial fund, Oct. 20-27.

POOL YOUR COTTON FOR BETTER PRICES IS PLAN ADOPTED

At a meeting of the directors of the County Council of Agriculture last Saturday it was decided that owing to the lateness of the season it might not be advisable for the farmers to employ a man to give all his time to the classing and marketing of this year's cotton crop. Whoever should take this position would be compelled to spend a good deal of time getting lined up with the big buyers and getting everything in good running order. So it was thought best to work on a smaller plan in this work. After being prevailed on, County Agent Black agreed to handle the business for the farmers. So bring two samples of each bale, one from each top and bottom, and let him explain all the details to you; then if you want to pool and market in this way, he will be at your service. If he is out of the office he will have some one to represent him.

Lone Star cotton is bringing two cents premium when properly classed. You see from the report in this week's paper that the goat growers got about three and a half cents per pound more than the top bids for mohair. This was done by cooperation. Why cannot the cotton growers do the same thing, or something similar? B. D. BLACK, County Agent.

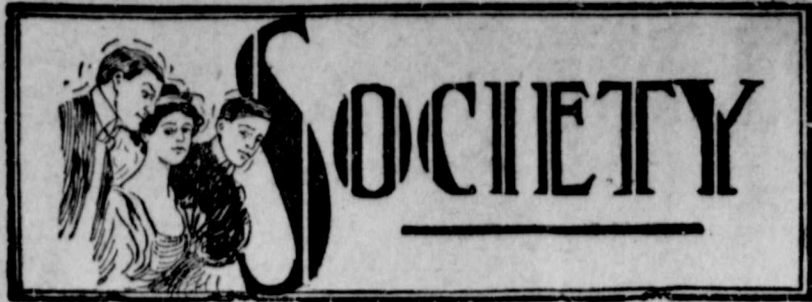

Indigestion, Bilioussness, Constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets have restored to health and happiness hundreds who were afflicted with indigestion, bilioussness and constipation. If you are troubled in this way give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased for they will benefit you.

COMMITTEE READY FOR CAMPAIGN TO RAISE S. A. FUND

Kirby Pleased With Organization for Pushing Drive Throughout State.

ELKS PROMISE HELP FOR STATE WORKERS

Soldiers Fall into Line When Asked to Head District and Local Units.

With the appointment of his executive committee complete John Kirby, state chairman for the $600,000 home service fund drive in Texas, September 29, outlined a vigorous policy to its members at Dallas Saturday.

"I am pleased with the success that has been met in perfecting a strong committee to get the money that is required for placing the Salvation Army on a firm basis in Texas for all time," Mr. Kirby told the committee. "In this work we have the cooperation of virtually every soldier who is 'over there.' We are getting the support of religious and fraternal organizations."

Elks Help in Drive.
The order of Elks promised support of the campaign in the following telegram from Frank L. Rain, exalted ruler of the organization:

"I earnestly co-operate with you and the good people of my native State. We are behind you in your home service campaign."

"Commander Evangeline Booth told us in our recent convention at Atlantic City that if it had not been for the Elks the Salvation Army would not have achieved the success that it did in the great war."

"Great good is being done by the Salvation Army along a line that can not be accomplished by any other organization. We as an order have always aided the Salvation Army and the Elks from coast to coast are assisting them in their present drives. Here's hoping that you 'go over the top' in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana."

Chairman Kirby is expected to appoint the full number of his executive committee this week, according to Lieut. Col. George Wood, commander of the Southwestern District. Five members of the state committee have been appointed. The number probably will be brought to fifteen.

County Units Are Formed

County organizations are rapidly swinging into line for the intensive week of work that is planned to cover the campaign work. Field men of the Salvation Army corps report success in each county in which they work.

"By far the most gratifying feature of the campaign is the support that the returned soldier is giving the Salvation Army," Mr. Kirby told the executive committee at its last session. "I find that this sympathy for the Salvation Army is deep and sincere. The boys really want to help."

Richard Burges of El Paso who was one of the first Texas soldiers to go overseas, has been appointed to lead the campaign in the El Paso district. Burgess returned to America with the rank of colonel.

Soldier Ready to Help

"I am not too busy to show the Salvation Army the attention that is due it by every returned soldier," Mr. Burges said in accepting the position offered him on the state committee.

Definite plans for the campaigns in each county are now in the hands of the state central executive committee. The state committee is the nucleus of an organization of workers that extends down to the last publicity man and county chairman in the state.

"There are to be no loafers on the state committee," Mr. Kirby said in announcing his appointments. "Each man nominated for a place who accepts will have a definite work to perform. Each district chairman will be responsible for the men in his district who are able to give substantial sums of money. Each county chairman will be responsible for the men who are able to give freely in his community. By this plan it is the hope of the Salvation Army that the drive may be brought to a speedy close."

Halls Built on Border

Construction work on two recreation halls for the Salvation Army at Santa Helena and Lajas in the Big Bend district will begin at once according to a letter received last night from Colonel G. T. Lankhorne of the United States cavalry by Lieutenant Colonel George Wood, commander of the southwestern division of the Salvation Army.

Colonel Lankhorne acknowledged receipt of a check from Lieutenant Colonel Wood for $1,000. The money was sent the first of the week from the Dallas office of the Salvation Army.
"I take this opportunity to thank you," Colonel Lankhorne wrote, "and express the gratitude and appreciation of the officers and soldiers for your consideration of them."

EXHIBITS ARE MADE LIFELIKE

Mounting of Natural History Objects in Their Native Surroundings Add to Their Interest.

In the development of the modern museum three stages have been recognized—that of the collection of objects for record, that of supplying materials for research and that of applying the collections to public education. The educational idea is now being developed by instructive display arrangement, loan exhibits for public and private schools and special lectures. The most notable feature is the mounting of natural history objects in the midst of their native surroundings, and much attention is being given at large museums—such as the American Museum of Natural History of New York—to grouping animals in their natural environment of shrubs, trees, flowers, rocks and other objects. In the new exhibition halls of the museum of the California Academy of Sciences, the case for a large mammal or bird habitat group is 25 feet long, 12 deep and 18 high, with a plate glass front 15 feet long and 10 high. Each of the two halls—one devoted entirely to California mammals and the other to California birds—is 150 feet long by 60 wide and 11 of the large cases have been placed in the mammal hall with six in the bird hall. Skylight illumination gives greater brightness in the cases than outside, preventing troublesome reflection from the glass. As a representative group may be taken that of the San Joaquin valley elk, a species of deer now preserved in a few reservations, and this is shown by several individuals standing or crouching in the grass near tree-bordered water, with low hills in the distance, the painted background seeming a continuation of the real scenery.

ON BASIS OF COMPROMISE

Couple's Religious Differences, Which Caused Trouble Once a Year, Settled in Peculiar Manner.

Compromise where political and religious antagonisms are concerned is evidently possible in Belfast, according to the testimony of a recent visitor to that town. One day she had occasion to call at a house where a woman of the Roman Catholic faith had married a Protestant husband. On one side of the mantelshelf was a bust of the pope, on the other a bust of William of Orange. "I suppose you find it very difficult to agree at times?" inquired the visitor. "No," was the ready reply; "we only differ once a year, on the Boyne anniversary, when my husband comes home drunk and smashes my bust of the pope." "Then I suppose you return the compliment by smashing his William of Orange?" "Not at all—I put it in pawn and buy another bust of the pope with the money," was the unexpected answer.—Manchester (Eng.) Guardian.

The Census in Ancient Times.

While the greatest strides in the advance of vital statistics as a science have been made in recent years, their origin may be traced to centuries before Christ. Indeed, Herodotus tells us of a census of Egypt taken about 3050 B. C. for the purpose of making arrangements for the construction of the Pyramids. Elsewhere this same author refers to a second census, taken about 1400 B. C. in Egypt by Rameses II for the purpose of reapportioning all the land of Egypt among his subjects. The Bible tells us that Moses counted the tribes of Israel to determine their fighting strength and that David, about 1018 B. C., took a census for the same purpose. There is a record of a census taken in China about 1200 B. C., when data of the provinces were collected by Uking.—S. W. Wynne, Michigan Bulletin of Vital Statistics.

Waste of Human Material.

Any man who has been in the world forty-five years or more should be a valuable employee. For a man to be shelved at forty-five is wrong, very wrong. For a man to lose confidence in himself because he is forty-five or thereabouts is absurd.
The man who has been in the world forty-five years has had a vast amount of experience and has had the opportunity to observe much that could be turned to good account. The trouble with us is that we do not know where to take our goods to market, or at least we do not know the best market in which to dispose of our goods.
There is a great waste of human material because of its misplacement.
We give more attention to the salesmanship problem in relation to goods than to the infinitely more important subject of human material.—New York Mail.

Sleep Should Be Undisturbed.

People are beginning to realize that sound sleep isn't obtainable in a bed that rattles or squeaks or that shocks the nerves into semi-wakefulness by unusual slippings of the springs or unexpected creakings. The advent of the separate bed and the banishing of the double bed into the limbo of warming pans and nightcaps is a distinct advance from the standpoint of hygiene, sanitation and more rational sleeping habits. When separate beds, or, better still, separate sleeping chambers, are in universal use, men and women, especially nervous men and women, and delicate children, will get a good deal more sleep than they do at present; they'll derive more benefit from the sleep they do get. All this will make it easier for them to do with considerably less sleep than they now require.

MAJESTIC RANGE DEMONSTRATION AT O. D. MANN & SONS INTERESTS MANY

The Majestic range demonstration at the O. D. Mann & Sons store is already a proven success, despite the inclemency of the weather. Many citizens have attended, and have had the points of merit in the stove demonstrated to them by Mr. A. L. Smith, representing the Majestic factory, in practical and interesting manner. A most enjoyable part of the demonstration was the serving of biscuits with butter and honey, and hot coffee, which served not only to demonstrate the excellence of these products but to further demonstrate to what great degree the Majestic helped in the baking and cooking.

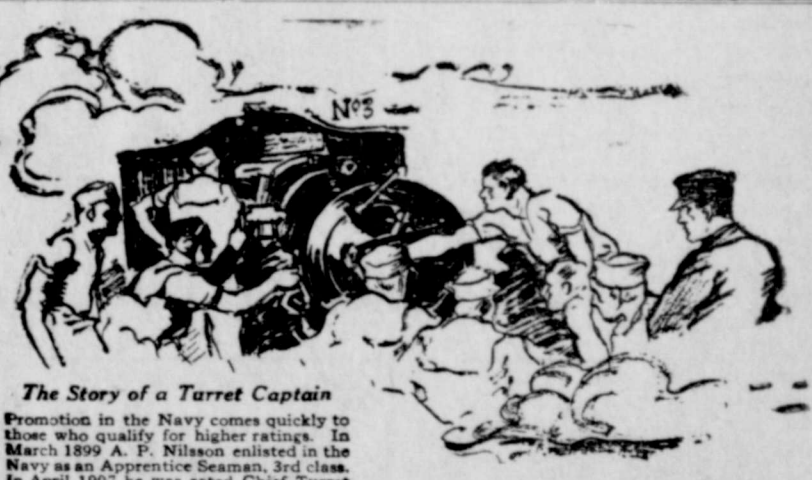

To Miss Mary Lee Mayes is due credit for the making of the excellent biscuits, the flour used being Belle of Wichita, donated by Moffatt Bros. & Jones. Mrs. Roy Wilkerson and other Brady ladies assisted in the cooking of the biscuits, requiring but three minutes in the Majestic, and in the serving of refreshments. Roe Stearns furnished delicious honey from his home apiary, and which added the last appetizing touch to the dainty repast. Incidentally, the coffee, cooked in an ordinary coffee pot, was "just like mother makes."

BRADY--PAST AND PRESENT A CITY WITH A FUTURE

This is the fourteenth of a series of fifteen articles on industrial conditions of Brady and McCulloch county. The data has been gathered from authoritative sources and show true conditions as they exist today. Each of the articles has been censored and approved by the President of the Brady Chamber of Commerce—Editor).

The town of Brady was located in 1876. Henry Fulcher donating to the county each alternate lot in the business part of the town, and every alternate block in the residence section, providing the county would locate the county seat on his land. The Fulcher Donation, as it is called, embraces a strip of land running through the center of the present City of Brady, and including the entire business district together with portions of the residence sections.

Quite a thriving little border town soon sprung up, and business houses and residences were scattered over the quarter section of land embraced in what was presumptuously called "Brady City." At the time the county was organized there were less than 200 voters in the county. Several of southeast, and Milburn on the crossing of the Colorado between Brady and Brownwood.

The Frisco railroad came to Brady in the spring of 1903, and with that advent the town and county took on new life. Brady at that time numbered about 700 inhabitants. There were few nice residences, and wooden buildings prevailed throughout the business district. The town was a straggling border village. The contrast of that day with the present time is startling, for now Brady is a beautiful city of more than 4,000 inhabitants, with elegant houses, modern and costly public buildings, beautiful homes and splendid schools and churches.

Thousands upon thousands of acres of virgin land have been put in culand pechms. These are not wild statements, but are facts simply borne out by the records.

About fourteen years ago the citizens of Brady decided that it was time to put on long pantaloons—in other words incorporate. The election was accordingly held and two square miles were taken into the corporation. Ten years under this existence has proven the wisdom of the plan and has shown the many advantages of incorporation.

Brady has an altitude of 1760 feet. To this fact alone may be attributed the delightful climate—the comparatively mild winters, and the wonderful spring, summer and winter months. The cool, south gulf breezes, add to the delightfulness of the summer days, and combined with the elevation make for health and sanitation. The nights are cool and invigorating, assuring refreshing repose. Occasionally snow is seen in this section, and of recent years the snows have become more frequent and some have lasted for days at a time.

Brady citizens are a wide-awake, enterprising set of people. Free-hearted and open-handed, the visitor here is a stranger but once. Every one remarks upon the friendliness of the Brady people—it serves to bring the visitor back, and, not infrequently, to induce him to remain here a-these original settlers are still here, among the number being Jas. Campbell, Judge W. P. Doty, Joe Moore, F. M. Richards, Joe White, W. R. Rice, August Erkel and A. Ogden.

Brady continued a typical western cattle town, the county seat of a fine stock country, without special historical incident until the arrival of the Frisco railroad, about sixteen years ago. For many years of its early life freighting was done from Lampasas, nearly 100 miles away, and later, as the Santa Fe moved west, Brownwood, fifty miles away became the shipping point. During these years Brady had two strong rivals in county towns—Voca to the west, and Milburn on the crossing of the Colorado between Brady and Brownwood. The Frisco railroad came to Brady in the spring of 1903, and with that advent the town and county took on new life. Brady at that time numbered about 700 inhabitants. There were few nice residences, and wooden buildings prevailed throughout the business district. The town was a straggling border village. The contrast of that day with the present time is startling, for now Brady is a beautiful city of more than 4,000 inhabitants, with elegant houses, modern and costly public buildings, beautiful homes and splendid schools and churches. Thousands upon thousands of acres of virgin land have been put in cul-tion throughout the Brady county within the past few years. Wherever you look new farms are to be seen, new farm houses dot the landscape in every direction, pasture fences have come down and lanes take the places of the old pasture trails. On either side of the road as you travel through McCulloch county are seen beautiful farms, producing all manner of farm products in abundance. From being merely a frontier cattle town sixteen years ago, Brady now stands as one of the largest shipping points in the United States, and enjoys the unique distinction of being the largest shipping point in the world for these three commodities combined—cattle, cotton and power. In the business of building a city, Brady citizens have spared no work or effort. Notable among the list of improvements within the past several years have been the voting of $40,000 worth of bonds for the purpose of taking over the waterworks and light plant and operating same upon a municipal basis. Following this, a modern filter plant was erected, Brady creek dammed to secure a water supply, and later a second dam was built to add to the water conservation. This week, the enterprising Brady citizens have contracted for the purchase of a $25,000 light and power plant of the very latest model and design, which assures the city of the very best of service in water, lights and power.

Worthy of special mention is the building of 65 miles of good roads in Road Precinct No. 1, which includes the Brady precinct. This was accomplished by the voting of $75,000 worth of bonds. The graded and graveled roads radiate in all directions from Brady, for a distance of about ten miles and furnish the nucleus of a system of highways thru the county which has resulted in Brady securing recognition from the highway commission, and a place on four state and national highways, including the Puget Sound to the Gulf, the Fort Worth, Brady and Fort Stockton, Austin to Houston, and the Southwest Trail.

Another great step in the forward march of Brady, was the rebuilding of the local telephone plant by the West Texas Telephone Co. a few years ago. The change from the old battery system to the modern flashlight system, required rebuilding the entire plant from one end to the other, and the result has been one of the most modern and most serviceable plants in West Texas.

Another feature has been the organization of one of the best as well as the best equipped volunteer fire departments in the state. This feature, in connection with the improvement in the water system has served more than anything else to give Brady a comparatively low fire insurance key rate.

In addition to all this and many other things too numerous to mention has been the steady growth and expansion of the town. New homes have been built, and the various residences and resident property improved and beautified. In fact, Brady can boast of as beautiful, costly and well-appointed homes as there are in the state. Notable among the public and business buildings erected within the past couple years have

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING

The experience of Mr. E. J. Touppalik, 1438 Rose street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.

He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief."

"This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."

For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.

PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.

Kirk, The Tailor

An example of what honest, persistent endeavor and hard work will accomplish in Brady is had in the success that has been made by G. C. Kirk, who operates the leading store for men and young men in Brady, and who has the most remarkable exclusive men's shop in this section of the state.

To step into "Kirk's Quality Shop," as it is now known in preference to "Kirk, The Tailor," one is immediately impressed with the metropolitan air which prevails in the store. The display cases are neatly arranged, clothing is properly displayed and men's furnishings are in an attractive place where it is easy for the customer to immediately decide what he wants. In fact, one would imagine he was stepping into one of the stores of a great metropolis, as this place would indeed be a credit to a city many times the size of Brady.

This metropolitan institution has grown and prospered because of the persistent efforts of Mr. Kirk to make it not only a financial success, but a credit to the city. He started in a ten by twenty foot shack on the site of the Queen hotel with a few pressing irons, good intentions and lots of ability to work and do fair by everyone with whom he dealt. It did not take long for Mr. Kirk's ability to operate a first-class business institution to be recognized. A short while after establishing his business, he realized that it was necessary to have more room to build the class of business institution which he desired, and the result was that he secured a building on the east side of the square where he moved and where he remained for ten years, doing an extensive business and his business increasing and growing every season.

Again the opportunity presented itself for Mr. Kirk to move back to near his original location in a larger building; in fact, the development of his business demanded larger and better quarters. The result was that four years ago he moved into the present location and began building up the store to its present efficient standing in the commercial world. To say Mr. Kirk has made a success is putting it mildly. He has established a store which is a credit to the city and has built up a business on a reputation of dealing square with everyone who enters his store and giving dollar for dollar values in merchandise.

The Kirk Quality Shop is indeed all that its name implies. It is truly the store where the men and young men can secure the latest styles in clothing, and if they dress from merchandise secured from Kirk's, they are always assured of being dressed up-to-the-minute in fashionable clothing, as well as serviceable clothing. In fact, Mr. Kirk prides himself on the fact that he carries everything in stock for men or young men from hat to shoes. In every line handled he has been careful in the choosing to secure a line which would give the best service and which would always be in keeping with the styles. For instance, such lines of shoes as Florsheim, Edwin Clapp and Walk-Over are carried—they are known over the entire United States as standard lines. In hats, the John B. Stetson, Crofut and Knapp—these also are known wherever hats are worn. Varsity summer underwear and Coopers underwear in both summer and winter weights—Emery and Manhattan shirts—Phoenix hose for both men and women—these are lines of merchandise that speak for themselves. In fact, there is not a more popular line of gents furnishings to be found on the market than these lines. In clothing, the Adler, Rochester, Sophomore and Schloss Brothers are lines of accepted quality. Work clothing in all brands is carried in stock. The items mentioned are but a few of those carried by Mr. Kirk in all styles and sizes. Any man, no matter whether his tastes be modest or extravagant, will be able to get everything in wearing apparel in the latest styles and fabrics he might desire. Mr. Kirk has the agency for the Globe Tailors, also J. L. Taylor & Co., and numbers a long list of patrons who every season rely upon him to secure for them a suit fitted to their individual measure. In this, Mr. Kirk never fails to please. His skill in taking measures, coupled with the high-class tailors he represents, assures his patrons of never-failing fit and satisfaction.

Mr. Kirk has the only dry cleaning and pressing plant in the city which is operated in connection with his business. This is a completely-equipped plant capable of turning out the highest class of work. The Hoffman sanitary press is used in the pressing work and satisfactory work throughout is guaranteed. In fact, there is not a business institution in Brady that is better equipped to handle all the various lines mentioned in the foregoing article than "Kirk's Quality Shop"—NUF-SED.

Last, but not least, to complete his line of service, an up-to-date shoe shining parlor is maintained by Mr. Kirk in his modern store—a very suitable place for ladies and gentlemen to patronize.

Years ago, Mr. Kirk adopted as his pet phrase—"Nuf-Sed." This little catch word has identified him throughout West Texas, and when one thinks of the Tailoring or Gents Furnishing business, one always thinks of KIRK, NUF-SED!

BRADY TEXAS

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hallett arrived Wednesday morning in their Nash Six auto from Denver Colo., and will spend some time here visiting the lady's father, Fritz Haberer, who is coming up from Austin. Mr. Hallett has been engaged in a mining enterprise at Cripple Creek, but expects to locate in Texas, and, very likely, in Brady. They made the trip here via Oklahoma City, a distance of 1400 miles, and, because of the excessive rains, found the roads in the worst shape ever known. Enroute, they saw five cars overturned and in the ditch, with tires and every removable part stripped by thieves. Thirty miles this side of Fort Worth two teams were engaged in pulling autos out of a mud hole, and averaged making $30 to $200 per day at the job. Ten miles out of Brady they got into a mud hole, and while they could have gotten out, rather than risk injury to his motor, Mr. Hallett hired a team to pull his car out. Mr. Hallett is looking for a good business investment, and if the right kind can be found here, will become a permanent resident of Brady.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

How to Select the Laying Hens.
One of the most important requirements of a good laying hen is a sound body. Clear, bright and prominent eyes indicate vigor, health and a sound body.

The bird should have no physical defects, like crooked beak, crooked breast bones, defective eyes and ears; the birds should be free from mites and scaly leg mites.

A yellow vent is an indication that the bird is not laying. A white vent, or pink, is an indication that the bird is laying. This applies to the yellow skin varieties.

The inner edge of the eyelids bleach slower than the vent. The earlobes bleach out slower than the eyelids. This applies only in yellow earlobed varieties like Leghorns and Anconas.

The yellow pigment disappears in the beak beginning at the base, finally disappearing entirely at the front part of the upper beak. The lower beak bleaches before the upper beak. A bleached beak in the yellow skinned varieties indicates a heavy production for the past four to six weeks.

The shanks are the slowest to bleach out, and indicate fairly heavy production for at least fifteen to twenty weeks. The paler and more faded the shanks the greater the egg production of that individual.

The vent in good layer is moist, large, dilated and puckered and dry in poor layers.

The heavy layer shows an enlarged and dilated abdomen with wide

ROBERT POTTS AND HENRY MILLER TO OPEN "SERVICE GARAGE" FIRST OF MONTH

Messrs. Robert Potts and Henry Miller are completing arrangements for the opening of a new garage in the building one block east of the square and at the rear of O. D. Mann & Sons store, formerly occupied by Simpson & Co. They are expecting arrival of their equipment within the next week, and hope to announce ready for business by October 5th. The business will be conducted under the firm name of the "Service Garage." Mr. Potts will have charge of the mechanical department; William Miller will be in charge of the vulcanizing, and Mr. Miller will have charge of the business office, and also demonstrate the Rock Island Company's Heider tractor, for which he has the agency.

Mr. Potts has been engaged in the automobile business for the past 12 years, having previously been located at Del Rio, and is a high-class mechanic. William Miller, has recently completed a course in auto mechanics at A. & M. and will be right-hand man to Mr. Potts. The new firm will specialize on auto repair work, as well as selling lub and gas, and will also deal in second-hand cars. They see a splendid opening for the new enterprise along these lines, and expect to build and expand their business as occasion and opportunity warrant.

spread pelvic arches, giving the bird a large capacity.

The abdomen in good layers is soft and pliable and the skin soft and velvety.

The wattles and earlobes in good layers fit close to the beak. The comb and wattles should be full and large for the breed. They should feel warm to the touch.

The early molter is a poor layer. The late molters should be kept.

Pullets that commence laying early are considered better layers than those that mature late.

The first two years production is the most profitable. Call out all odd and weak birds.

LIGHTNING BOLT STRIKES DURING STORM WED'DAY

Lightning struck the R. D. Dyer residence in the South part of town during the thunder storm Wednesday morning, and besides temporarily shocking parties in the immediate vicinity, played havoc with telephones and telephone wires. The bolt appears to have traveled along the telephone wires out in the street, stripping them from the poles, and striking the telephone instrument with such force as to tear it from the wall. The receiver was ground into powder, and a triplicate mirror near at hand was literally splintered into shreds. The explosion tore a strip of wood out of the wall, and filled the house with smoke, although no traces of fire or scorching were to be found. Mrs. Dyer was standing at a window in the room adjoining the kitchen, and was temporarily shocked by the blinding flash.

Telephones in neighboring houses also suffered, and the blowing out of fuses temporarily deafened those close at hand. Bits of wall paper were also blown from the walls by the force of the stroke. It would appear fortunate that no fire followed the striking of the lightning.

CLUB GIRLS ENJOY ENCAMPMENT AT THE DALLAS TEXAS STATE FAIR

The encampment of the club girls at the Dallas fair was very good. Three hundred and fifty girls were present from all parts of the state. The board and lodging was given to the girls by the Fair and they were chaperoned by the home demonstration agents. Most of the amusements on the grounds were open to the girls free of charge. They were entertained by the women of Dallas at the Highland Park club house.

The booth in which the club work was exhibited was very popular, and some excellent prizes were won. Among them were two scholarships to C. I. A. for a year.

Several girls from this county planned to go but only one, Lurlyne Carrol from Lohn, did go. But more will be there next year.

PRIZE BAKING.

A great many women who are naturally fine cooks, never really accomplish prize quality baking, because they do not have the advantage of a completely air-tight oven. During the week beginning Monday, October 20th, a visiting demonstrator of the famous Great Majestic Range will be at O. D. Mann & Sons store. This range is riveted in all its parts, so that no heat escapes from the oven. The baking results are wonderful, and with saving of fuel, besides. Also a gift of fine cooking ware, a complete set, goes with each Majestic Range sold during Demonstration Week. The price of the range will be the same as always—no charge for the set of cooking ware.

A GOOD FRIEND.

A good friend stands by you when in need. Brady people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. A. H. Conner, carpenter, Brady, endorsed Doan's four years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"My back hurt me pretty bad and it seemed that the pains were mostly over my left kidney," says Mr. Conner. "My kidneys were very congested and the secretions passed in pain and contained sediment. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the trouble with my back and regulated my kidneys." (Statement given April 29, 1915).

On May 16, 1919, Mr. Conner said: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as I did when I previously endorsed them. I think Doan's are a fine kidney remedy and I find occasional use of them to keep my kidneys in good shape."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Conner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

AMBITION TALKS

The Dignity of Labor

Abraham Lincoln was a "hired man." His sister Sarah "worked out" as a "hired girl."

Jim Hill was a section hand on a railroad, and in the employ of a pack-company in St. Paul, earned fifty cents a day.

The list of barbers who have become famous would amaze anyone not already familiar with it, and there is a vast army of collectors who have made enough money to travel in Europe.

One of these successful refuse artists runs one of the best organized businesses in Central Illinois.

It is a peculiar folly of most men and women to look down upon those who render them the most valuable service.

When Jesus Christ washed the feet of his friends, he tried to express the fundamental doctrine of His great philosophy, but nobody understood it then, and it is probable that very few understand it today.

It is one of the absurdities of life that we all stand in line eager for a chance to take our hats off to any man with money enough to loaf at public expense, and hold our noses high in the air when we pass the man or woman who washes our dirty shirts for us.

It is a characteristic of most great men that they have never hesitated to do any useful thing when it was necessary.

The same "hired man" whose sister was a "hired girl" was found by one of his body guards, when he was President of the United States, sitting on the edge of the bed, clad in his nightie, sewing a suspender button on his pants.

This was not a freak of greatness. It was an evidence of it. The highest ambition is the desire to serve. It is a disgrace to remain a street laborer, but it is not a disgrace to be one.
