F. R. WULFF INSTALLS AUTOMATIC SPRINKLER THROUGHOUT GARAGE

MOST MODERNLY EQUIPPED BUILDING IN THIS SECTION—REDUCTION IN FIRE INSURANCE RATE PAYS FOR COMPLETE INSTALLATION IN THREE YEARS.

With the completion Monday of the installation of an automatic sprinkler system for fire protection purposes, the F. R. Wulff garage may justly boast of being one of the most modernly equipped and safeguarded buildings in this section of West Texas. Mr. Wulff's building is at once one of the most attractive and thoroughly fire-proofed structures to be found anywhere, and his latest installation places it in class with the modern buildings of the metropolitan cities. The installation of this automatic sprinkler system reduces Mr. Wulff's insurance to one-third of the figure heretofore obtaining, and the saving in premiums in three years' time will enable paying for the complete installation of the new device.

The operation of the system is comparatively simple. Water from the city's mains is piped throughout the ceiling of the building, with sprinkler heads placed at every nine feet in both directions. Thus, in the Wulff building there are 177 sprinkler heads. Should fire break out in any part of the building, when the heat reaches 155 degrees Fahrenheit, it melts the seal on the sprinkler head nearest at hand, and the full force of the city water pressure is directed through the head upon the blaze. Should the fire spread, additional sprinkler heads are melted as the heat reaches them, causing them to open their streams of water on the flames. Simultaneously, a gong is set in motion within the building, to warn the employes or occupants of the danger, and another alarm, located on the outside of the building, is sounded to warn the citizens at large. Statistics show that only in rare cases are more than three sprinkler heads required to extinguish a threatened blaze. The system is always on duty, day or night, and regardless of whether human agency be present or not.

The city's 6-inch mains have been extended from the corner of the square to the west side of the Wulff building, where a two-way fire plug has been installed. By means of this plug, the city fire department can connect its hose to one valve and at the same time use the other to give additional pressure to both streams of water from the hose and from the sprinkler heads.

A signal post erected in plain view from both the building and the street, indicates at all times whether the water flow is cut on or off from the building.

As before stated, the automatic sprinkler system reduces the fire insurance rate to about one-third. Further than that, the company installing the system does not collect one cent until the installation is approved by the state fire insurance commission, and then the first payment received is a refund of the unearned insurance premium. Each year, the company receives as part payment, the difference between the old insurance rate and the new one. In three years' time, the saving thus enabled will pay for the complete plant and its installation.

The automatic sprinkler systems are now being extensively used by garages, department stores, oil mills, etc., where, aside from the invaluable fire protection offered, they are the means of effecting huge savings in fire insurance premiums.

BRADY ELEVEN CLOSES SEASON WITH VICTORY

The Brady High school foot ball eleven closed the foot ball season last Saturday with another victory, defeating the Menard High squad by a score of 20 to 0. The victory gave the locals a remarkable record, they having won six games out of nine played; this in the face of the fact that last year was the first time any of the team had played foot ball, and the further fact that in addition to lacking experience, they lacked experienced training. Junction scored two victories off the locals, and the only other defeat was administered by Coleman on Coleman grounds.

Saturday's game, Brady kicked off to Menard, and then intercepted a forward pass attempted by the visitors, Brady obtaining possession of continually in possession of the ball the ball. From then on, Brady was until the first touchdown was made. For the first time this season, Taylor failed to kick goal. Brady again kicked off to Menard, and worked the ball well down towards the Menard goal line by the end of the first quarter. Early in the second quarter, the second touchdown was made, and Gerald Adkins kicked goal. The third touchdown was made in the third quarter, Craddock carrying the ball behind splendid interference. Taylor kicked goal.

The Brady team showed up better than ever. Under grueling practice work the first of the week, directed by Bailey Jones, they got their machine to working wonderfully well. Their square formation of attack, giving five men in the interference, proved very efficient, and several times twenty and thirty yard gains resulted from this method of play. Craddock played a great game and Brady's chief gains were made with him carrying the ball behind this interference. The Brady line, as usual, did wonderfully effective work. Another play perfected by the Brady squad was the forward pass, three being completed out of four attempts. On the other hand, Menard did not make over three or four first downs. The visitors counted strongly on their forward pass, and after their first two had been intercepted by Adkins and Strickland, they were plainly disconcerted. Flack, Menard's speed demon, gave a wonderful account of himself, as did the other two visiting backs. Flack several times made great gains by reason of his fleetness of foot, but the Brady team invariably had a man on the spot before he could get entirely away with the play.

Brady Boy Scouts 0, Menard 28.

The Brady boy scouts accepted the challenge of the Menard scouts to a foot ball contest at Menard last Friday afternoon, and very kindly donated the game to Menard by a score of 28 to 0. The Brady scouts have no alibi to offer. It was their maiden effort for the season; they lacked much in knowledge of the game and training, and they went up against a much heavier team, composed largely of high school boys. The results speak for themselves—the locals were overwhelmed. The local lineup was as follows:

- QB Miller
- FB Jack Deaton
- RH Elton Bodenhammer
- LH Helmer Fahrenthold
- LE James Anderson
- RE Willie Gavitt
- LT Willard Awalt
- RT T. C. Yantis
- LG J. B. Vincent

SHORT WOOL IS SOLD AT SAN ANGELO—PRICE REPORTED AS 21 CENTS

The Wool Growers' Central Storage Company of San Angelo, offering approximately 514,000 pounds of short, six-months' wool of the 1921 fall production at its first auction of the season Thursday, disposed of only one clip, that of T. A. Kincaid of Ozona.

Mr. Kincaid's accumulation of 60,000 pounds was purchased by A. S. Baker, representative of the Walker Wool Company of Boston, according to reliable information obtained Friday morning.

The price was not given out, nor was any confirmation of the sale furnished at the offices of the company in the Trust building, where it was merely stated that little was done. But the short wool is reported to have commanded around 21c per pound, which, if correct, is the highest price so far paid this fall in Texas for clips of similar staple and growth. Six-months' wool recently disposed of at Del Rio and Kerrville brought no higher than 19c a pound, it is understood.

All 1921 fall short wool and mohair of six months' growth, concentrated in San Angelo by the Wool Growers' Central Storage Company, was disposed of at auction the latter part of the week, it was announced Saturday by Robert Massie, president, and J. Miles O'Daniel, secretary.

The wool accumulation totaled approximately 550,000 pounds and the mohair aggregated 285,000 pounds. Around 70,000 pounds of last spring's long, twelve months' wool also was disposed of, making a total turnover for the week of 905,000 pounds of wool and mohair.

Money derived from these sales will be distributed among about 250 growers in a half dozen or more West Texas counties. Shipping out of the wool and the making out of sales accounts will require ten days or a couple of weeks.

"The quality of the wool and mohair was good, though somewhat dusty, and the staple was as long as the clips we handled in the spring and last fall," said Robert Massie. Officials of the company said they were not now in a position to make public the names of the buyers or the prices, but it was understood that the market was stronger than in the spring when long wool commanded from 16 to 21½c per pound, after there had been an absence of a market since May, 1920.—San Angelo Standard.

SHIPMENT OF DRESSED TURKEYS EXCEEDS ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS HERE

Shipment of dressed turkeys this season for Thanksgiving market exceeded all previous records according to Mayhew Produce Co., who last week completed the expressing of seven solid carloads of the Thanksgiving birds to northern, eastern and southern points. The turkey market has been good, and the splendid price quoted on birds, has resulted in something like $75,000 being paid farmers in this section for their turkey crop. Each of the seven cars loaded out, ran from 2,000 to 25,000 birds, and represented well over $10,000 worth of turkeys.

In addition there were heavy shipments of live birds to Fort Worth market, and which materially swelled the total receipts from this crop.

McCULLOCH COUNTY RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSN. FORMED FRIDAY

ORGANIZATION COMPLETED WITH FORTY-FOUR CHARTER MEMBERS AND NUMBER OF TOWNS IN COUNTY REPRESENTED—OFFICES IN MASONIC TEMPLE.

The McCulloch County Retail Credit association was organized last Friday afternoon at a meeting of retail merchants of the county held at the court house. A. B. Hillan, state organizer, and who was here a couple weeks ago arranging the preliminaries of the organization, was in charge of the meeting, and assisted in the work of organization. Officers elected were Bailey Jones, president; J. A. Holton, vice-president; C. H. Vincent, treasurer; Miss Alice Self, secretary.

Splendid enthusiasm marked the meeting at the court house, some thirty merchants being in attendance. The need of such an organization was unanimously voted by the members, and the service it proposes to render will prove a great boon to all merchants who are members. Miss Alice Self, who was named local secretary, has had much experience in the office of the Brownwood association, and has all the details of the workings of the organization at her finger tips. Assisted by her sister, Miss Lucille Self, who for 4½ years has been secretary of the Brownwood organization, and who has been the means of making that one of the best working bodies in the state, Miss Self is busy this week in cataloging every citizen of the county by means of a very comprehensive card index system.

In addition to the officers above named, a board of directors will have charge of the operation of the organization, one director being named by the merchants in each town represented in the body. Five of the directors have already been selected.

Following the completion of the records furnished locally to the secretary, Miss Self will visit every town in the county, and every record on every individual in the county, will be placed on file. Each merchant will be furnished cards on which the name of a customer, his ability to pay, his method of paying, whether his business is appreciated or tolerated, etc., will be enumerated. After all this information is assembled, cataloged and placed on file, it will be at the disposal of every member of the organization.

As can be readily seen from the foregoing, every individual in the county will make his own rating. Neither the merchant nor the association secretary has anything to do with that phase. If a man's account is welcomed by the merchant, and the merchant is glad to have that person ask for an open account, knowing that he is good and prompt pay, then the association records will show that fact. Miss Self says it behooves every person in the county to keep his accounts in good shape, and that if any one is indebted to any merchant, he should lose no time in calling on that merchant and making satisfactory arrangements concerning the account. The ratings taken at this time will form the basis of credit for the coming year 1922.

The slogan of the local organization is a good one, viz: "Prompt Pay Makes Fast Friends."

Offices for the McCulloch County Retail Merchants association have been secured in the Masonic temple, the front suite of rooms having been leased, and these quarters are now being furnished with desks, filing devices and all apparatus required to make it what it really is—a real business office.

BENEFIT GAME TO BE PLAYED ON THANKSGIVING

Efforts to arrange a Thanksgiving foot ball game on the local gridiron have at last been crowned with success, and the Brady High school eleven will be matched against the town eleven, among whom are several old heads at the game. Most of the town boys have been out of the game for some three or four years, but they are all working hard to get into shape, and are taking their hard knocks in practice in good spirit. They are confident they can show the school eleven a trick or two in spite of all their year's training.

The game will be played Thursday afternoon at the Dutton City park grounds, and proceeds of the game will go to the High School Athletic fund. The following is the lineup for the game:

- LT Baze
- LG Bowers
- C Big Boy
- RG Bowers, H.
- RT Jones
- RE McGrew
- LH Kyser
- RH McMurray
- QB Cantwell

STATE AND FEDERAL AID.

Just what importance the State and Federal governments place upon the completion of the highways may be gleaned from the action taken in the matter of building a bridge over the Brazos river near Gauze in Milam county, and connecting a link of the Bankhead highway running through Milam and Robertson counties.

The total cost of the bridge between these two counties is placed at $120,000.00. The State and Federal Highway commissions have asked the commissioners of Milam county to match $15,000 to be given by the commissioners of Robertson county, making a total of $30,000. The State offers to put up $30,000, to match this sum, and the Federal government offers to put up $60,000 to match the total of the State and county appropriations.

Brady is the center of three of the most important highways traversing this section of the State. There is $4,600,000 of Federal aid available to the counties of Texas for road building at this particular time.

Shall we vote the $600,000 bonds, and thereby enable our county to share in this proffered Federal aid? Or shall we pass it along to our neighboring counties?

TWO WHISTLES.

Why didn't some one think of it before? The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway system is equipping its locomotives with a whistle-lever on the fireman's side of the cab in addition to the lever on the engineer's side. It has been observed that frequently vehicles approached the track at grade crossings on the fireman's side and that by the time the fireman could call the engineer's attention to the fact it was too late to sound the whistle. Accordingly, the fireman is to be provided with the facility himself to give the warning and without waiting to pass the word to the engineer. Undoubtedly the example will be followed by other railroads with the result of saving many lives throughout the country. The railroads are doing their share towards eliminating grade accidents.—Dallas Evening Journal.

A THEATRICAL BLUNDER.

Sudden contrasts frequently bring a hearty laugh, but sometimes they cause heartfelt sympathy, or sorrow. An illustration of the latter was staged not long ago in London. A theatrical producer anxious to give his patrons their money's worth, lined up with a particularly young and beautiful group of chorus girls an equally large group of the homeliest women he could find in the English metropolis—aged charwomen who swept gutters and buildings to eke out a bare existence. As the curtain was lifted on the varied scene the applause that was expected did not come forth. The audience saw the tragedy of the situation. There were strong murmurings of disapproval.

An attitude of the spectators who were submitted to the unusual surprise can easily be understood. There must have arisen in the minds of all the thought that perhaps the charwomen lined up amid London's prettiest chorus girls were one day beautiful themselves—and perhaps chorus girls themselves when they were young. Theatre-goers are quick to recognize either comedy or tragedy and it is never any trouble for them to distinguish between the two. The London theatrical manager used particularly bad taste in introducing his "Charwomen's Chorus," but he soon found that out after the curtain went up, and much to his own embarrassment.—Temple Telegram.

"SMILES." There never can be too much sunshine, laughter and good cheer in this world. That's why this editor is all the more appreciative of the kindness and thoughtfulness of Mrs. Bettie G. Daniel Smith of Austin in remembering us with her latest published volume, "Smiles." As its title indicates, the little volume is a rare collection of humorous incidents, jokes, sayings and expressions, quite a number of them original with Mrs. Smith, and the others reprinted from various magazines and newspapers, among the latter of which The Standard is happy to have been included.

Mrs. Smith is the author of "Texas, and Other Poems," a book of original verse issued by her a couple years ago, and which has been highly appreciated throughout the grand old Lone Star State. Her newest volume, with its crisp, pointed sayings, is sure of welcome, and is to be recommended as scattering mirth and sunshine wherever it may be read.

Mrs. Smith is well-known here, having been a resident of Lohn, where she still has extensive realty interests. Her visits here upon occasions are always looked forward to with pleasure by her many friends.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good
By JESSIE ROBERTS

CHANCE WITH POULTRY

WHEN a woman wants to earn money and doesn't know how seven times out of ten she will decide that the thing for her is poultry. She decides to raise chickens.

And after a while, with her money spent and more experience than she will know what to do with for years to come, she parts from her chickens, those that are left, and goes to some other and as far away as possible place, deciding to clerk in a store or wait in a lunchroom rather than ever see a live chicken again.

But women do make a success with poultry, and they are among the happiest and healthiest and most satisfied women in America. The life outdoors with the pretty birds they raise, the feeling that they have a home of their own and are their own masters, and the genuine interest of the work are all factors in this result. But the young woman who turns longingly toward chicken raising, especially at the prevailing prices for eggs and poultry, needs to stop, look and listen.

If she can afford the time and money, a two-year course in some agricultural school or college will be a fine thing. But she can do without this. She can get excellent books on the subject, and if she looks about a little she may be able to get some practical experience on a poultry farm. One summer would be a great help if so spent.

Successful raisers agree that it takes four or five acres of land and about five hundred pullets to make a start. The same experts say that it requires at least 2,000 chickens to make a good living. This means plenty of work, especially in the hatching season. With that number on a well-managed ten-acre lot a girl can count on a fair income. She can supplement her profits by keeping pigeons, that are also a good investment when you know how to handle them, and further by having a healthy little settlement of hares and rabbits for the market.

By that time she can afford a fiver and begin to buy some baby bonds. (Copyright.)

YOU.

TO EACH of us comes a day like this one now and then, A day when all the mists of old en-wrap the soul again. Last night, a smile upon my lips, I gave myself to rest, Today awoke by ancient ill, by hurts of old, oppressed.

I know not why these shadows come, these shades of vain desire, I do but know they creeping come to sit beside the fire; And earth is but an empty place, and joy has flickered out, And faith has fallen by the hand, assassin hand, of doubt.

I only ask in such an hour, when such shall come to me, I only ask in such an hour that You are there to see, I only ask in such an hour I need but stretch my hand And know that it shall feel the clasp of You, who understand. (Copyright.)

Copied the Clock Business.

Originating in a clock bought at the international exhibition at Vienna in 1873, and copied by a clever workman, Japan now has nineteen factories in Nagoya alone, producing 75 per cent of the $25,645 clocks exported last year. This export was valued at about $700,000.

Buried Under the Floor.

An Absoluten funeral is a very singular affair. When a new-born infant dies it is almost immediately buried under the floor. After the demise of an adult, the body is washed in water sweetened with honey, wrapped in a shroud, sewed up in a mat of braided straw, and laid upon a litter made of boughs cut from trees.

The lamentations of the relatives resound among the cliffs, and the news is rapidly communicated to all the people of the neighborhood, who at once set out to condole with the mourners. As soon as they catch sight of the funeral procession they begin to weep and cry aloud. When they join it, the men range themselves on one side of the bier, the women on the other, and chant. When the religious ceremony is over, the corpse is buried in the churchyard.

Taking Blood Stains From Feathers.

Make a strong solution of salt in water, and saturate a large and thick cloth with it. Wrap feathers up in cloth and keep until blood gets soft. When soft rub out with gentle pressure, putting something hard under feathers with blood on, and rubbing with the back of a knife. Each feather must be done separately. Of course goose or other feathers for cushions or pillows may be put into a cotton bag and washed and dried, but a preliminary soaking in brine will be of advantage.

MRS. H. P. BARRETT LIVED YEARS ON BREAD AND MILK

Mrs. H. P. Barrett of Republic, suburb of Birmingham, Ala., gives the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac as follows:

"During the past fourteen years I have spent more than one thousand dollars trying to get rid of a complaint that was gradually sapping my strength, but until I got hold of Tanlac nothing helped me. For the past four years I have lived almost entirely on milk and bread, and finally even that went against me.

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Tanlac I got so I could eat anything, and I certainly bless the day I first got this medicine for I believe it has added years to my life. The people in my neighborhood were so surprised at the change in me that fourteen of them by actual count are now taking Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Brady by Trigg Drug Co., in Mercury by J. T. Matlock, in Rochelle by C. W. Carr, and by leading druggists everywhere.

Spoiled His Illustration.

A temperance lecturer, aiming to make a telling point, said: "Now, supposing I had a pail of water and a pail of beer and then brought on a donkey, which of the two would he take?"

"He'd take the water," came a voice from the gallery.

"And why would he take the water?" the lecturer asked.

"Because he's an ass," was the quick reply.—Rock Island Rotary.

The GIRL, the HORSE AND A DOG

By FRANCIS LYNDE

FROM a silver-spoon and soft-mattress existence, Stanford Broughton suddenly is confronted with the alternative of looking for a job or, another kind of quest, try and locate a mysterious legacy left him by an eccentric grandfather.

He does not know the character of the property, but the grandfather's directions say that it is somewhere between the 105th and 110th degrees of longitude west from Greenwich, and the 35th and 40th degrees north latitude.

When he finds it he will be able to identify it by the presence of a girl with brown hair and blue eyes, a small mole on her left shoulder, a piebald horse and a dog with a split face--half black and half white. He is game and he starts to look for the combination. The troubles he has in locating it and the adventures and dangers through which he passes in securing possession of the property, also, the romantic incidents in which the girl is a figure, make up this very fascinating narrative.

It is Mr. Lynde's habit to tell stories like this, and there are readers in multitudes who would be sorry to have him depart from the custom.

"Go See Virgil."

"Your hair's a foot long," says my help-meet;

"You look like a tramp or a bear, So step 'round if you please, to the barber,

And tell him I said cut your hair."

"Round the ears and the neck use the clippers;

Don't matter how bald you may be-- Just go get your hair cut this minute, So the real peanut-head folks may see."

"They've tho't all the time your head swollen,

When in fact it was 'wool'--crazy mutt;

Tell Jones I said use some 'Bon-ami,' When once he has gotten it cut."

A Get-Rich-Quick Plan.

"Is there any money in a perpetual-motion machine?" asked the inventor.

"I guess there is," said the man with the red tie. "I have a little machine in my store that would bring me in millions if I could keep it in perpetual motion."

"What is it?" asked the other.

"A cash register."

BAZAAR.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar at the Popular Dry Goods Co. December 8th and 9th.

Wouldn't Mind That.

An Italian who kept a fruit stand was much annoyed by possible customers who made a practice of handling the fruit and pinching it, thereby leaving it softened and often spoiled. Exasperated beyond endurance he finally put up a sign which read: "If you must pincha da fruit-- pincha da cocconut!"

A Penalty for Everything.

"Well," declared the man who had been looking over the law, "there seems to be a penalty for everything except stealing a man's daughter." "Oh," said his friend, "there's a penalty provided for that too." "What is it?" "Hard labor for life."

Elastic Schedule.

In the old days of Mississippi River travel, the "Stephen J. Hill" gained note as the worst boat on the river. One afternoon a fog settled and the captain gave orders to tie up for the rest of the day.

"It's too bad we're going to be late, captain," said a passenger.

"We ain't," retorted the skipper calmly.

"But I thought you were going to tie up here for hours."

"So we are, but that ain't going to make us late. We don't run so close to time as all that."

BRADY, TEXAS, Nov. 22, 1921

HONEST INJUN.

Vote for the Road Bonds December 20th. Let's take the rattle out of the roads.

OUR GOOD FORTUNE.

A bank failed at Breckenridge last week and one at De Leon this week. The financial breakdown hits Texas hardest in the oil spots.—Brownwood Semi-Weekly News.

Which is just another of the many reasons that McCulloch county can congratulate herself upon never having had an oil boom. We have had development here, without the blowing of a big, beautiful bubble. All bubbles burst some time. When they burst, ah, what a wreck!

STATE AND FEDERAL AID.

Just what importance the State and Federal governments place upon the completion of the highways may be gleaned from the action taken in the matter of building a bridge over the Brazos river near Gauze in Milam county, and connecting a link of the Bankhead highway running through Milam and Robertson counties.

The total cost of the bridge between these two counties is placed at $120,000.00. The State and Federal Highway commissions have asked the commissioners of Milam county to match $15,000 to be given by the commissioners of Robertson county, making a total of $30,000. The State offers to put up $30,000, to match this sum, and the Federal government offers to put up $60,000 to match the total of the State and county appropriations.

Brady is the center of three of the most important highways traversing this section of the State. There is $4,600,000 of Federal aid available to the counties of Texas for road building at this particular time. Shall we vote the $600,000 bonds, and thereby enable our county to share in this proffered Federal aid? Or shall we pass it along to our neighboring counties?

GENTLE READER, ANSWER THIS QUESTION.

And what would you do? Suppose you were in the newspaper business, and you got a long letter, telling of successes and honors which come in another town to a former young person of this place, now at work there—honors but right and proper to publish in full in the home paper. But suppose that during the nine years that you had been publishing your paper there this young person's parents and near relatives had not thought enough of your efforts to

TWO WHISTLES.

Why didn't some one think of it before? The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway system is equipping its locomotives with a whistle-lever on the fireman's side of the cab in addition to the lever on the engineer's side. It has been observed that frequently vehicles approached the track at grade crossings on the fireman's side and that by the time the fireman could call the engineer's attention to the fact it was too late to sound the whistle. Accordingly, the fireman is to be provided with the facility himself to give the warning and without waiting to pass the word to the engineer. Undoubtedly the example will be followed by other railroads with the result of saving many lives throughout the country. The railroads are doing their share towards eliminating grade accidents.—Dallas Evening Journal.

A THEATRICAL BLUNDER.

Sudden contrasts frequently bring a hearty laugh, but sometimes they cause heartfelt sympathy, or sorrow. An illustration of the latter was staged not long ago in London. A theatrical producer anxious to give his patrons their money's worth, lined up with a particularly young and beautiful group of chorus girls an equally large group of the homeliest women he could find in the English metropolis—aged charwomen who swept gutters and buildings to eke out a bare existence. As the curtain was lifted on the varied scene the applause that was expected did not come forth. The audience saw the tragedy of the situation. There were strong murmurings of disapproval. An attitude of the spectators who were submitted to the unusual surprise can easily be understood. There must have arisen in the minds of all the thought that perhaps the charwomen lined up amid London's prettiest chorus girls were one day beautiful themselves—and perhaps chorus girls themselves when they were young. Theatre-goers are quick to recognize either comedy or tragedy and it is never any trouble for them to distinguish between the two. The London theatrical manager used particularly bad taste in introducing his "Charwomen's Chorus," but he soon found that out after the curtain went up, and much to his own embarrassment.—Temple Telegram.

"SMILES."

"SMILES." There never can be too much sunshine, laughter and good cheer in this world. That's why this editor is all the more appreciative of the kindness and thoughtfulness of Mrs. Bettie G. Daniel Smith of Austin in remembering us with her latest published volume, "Smiles." As its title indicates, the little volume is a rare collection of humorous incidents, jokes, sayings and expressions, quite a number of them original with Mrs. Smith, and the others reprinted from various magazines and newspapers, among the latter of which The Standard is happy to have been included.

Mrs. Smith is the author of "Texas, and Other Poems," a book of original verse issued by her a couple years ago, and which has been highly appreciated throughout the grand old Lone Star State. Her newest volume, with its crisp, pointed sayings, is sure of welcome, and is to be recommended as scattering mirth and sunshine wherever it may be read.

Mrs. Smith is well-known here, having been a resident of Lohm, where she still has extensive realty interests. Her visits here upon occasions are always looked forward to with pleasure by her many friends.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarhal deafness. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

CHANCE WITH POULTRY

WHEN a woman wants to earn money and doesn't know how seven times out of ten she will decide that the thing for her is poultry. She decides to raise chickens.

And after a while, with her money spent and more experience than she will know what to do with for years to come, she parts from her chickens, those that are left, and goes to some other and as far away as possible place, deciding to clerk in a store or wait in a lunchroom rather than ever see a live chicken again.

But women do make a success with poultry, and they are among the happiest and healthiest and most satisfied women in America. The life outdoors with the pretty birds they raise, the feeling that they have a home of their own and are their own masters, and the genuine interest of the work are all factors in this result. But the young woman who turns longingly toward chicken raising, especially at the prevailing prices for eggs and poultry, needs to stop, look and listen.

If she can afford the time and money, a two-year course in some agricultural school or college will be a fine thing. But she can do without this. She can get excellent books on the subject, and if she looks about a little she may be able to get some practical experience on a poultry farm. One summer would be a great help if so spent.

Successful raisers agree that it takes four or five acres of land and about five hundred pullets to make a start. The same experts say that it requires at least 2,000 chickens to make a good living. This means plenty of work, especially in the hatching season. With that number on a well-managed ten-acre lot a girl can count on a fair income. She can supplement her profits by keeping pigeons, that are also a good investment when you know how to handle them, and further by having a healthy little settlement of hares and rabbits for the market.

By that time she can afford a flivver and begin to buy some baby bonds.

YOU.

TO EACH of us comes a day like this one now and then, a day when all the mists of old en-wrap the soul again.

Last night, a smile upon my lips, I gave myself to rest, Today awoke by ancient ill, by hurts of old, oppressed.

I know not why these shadows come, these shades of vain desire, I do but know they creeping come to sit beside the fire; And earth is but an empty place, and joy has flickered out, And faith has fallen by the hand, assassin hand, of doubt.

I only ask in such an hour, when such shall come to me, I only ask in such an hour that You are there to see, I only ask in such an hour I need but stretch my hand And know that it shall feel the clasp of You, who understand.

Copied the Clock Business. Originating in a clock bought at the International exhibition at Vienna in 1873, and copied by a clever workman, Japan now has nineteen factories in Nagoya alone, producing 75 per cent of the 285,445 clocks exported last year. This export was valued at about $700,000.

Buried Under the Floor.

An Abscaldian funeral is a very singular affair. When a new-born infant dies it is almost immediately buried under the floor. After the demise of an adult, the body is washed in water sweetened with honey, wrapped in a shroud, sewed up in a mat of braided straw, and laid upon a litter made of boughs cut from trees.

The lamentations of the relatives resound among the cliffs, and the news is rapidly communicated to all the people of the neighborhood, who at once set out to condole with the mourners.

As soon as they catch sight of the funeral procession they begin to weep and cry aloud. When they join it, the men range themselves on one side of the bier, the women on the other, and chant. When the religious ceremony is over, the corpse is buried in the churchyard.

Taking Blood Stains From Feathers.

Make a strong solution of salt in water, and saturate a large and thick cloth with it. Wrap feathers up in it and keep until blood gets soft. When soft rub out with gentle pressure, putting something hard under feathers with blood on, and rubbing with the back of a knife. Each feather must be done separately. Of course goose or other feathers for cushions or pillows may be put into a cotton bag and washed and dried, but a preliminary soaking in brine will be of advantage.

MRS. H. P. BARRETT LIVED YEARS ON BREAD AND MILK

Mrs. H. P. Barrett of Republic, suburb of Birmingham, Ala., gives the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac as follows:

"During the past fourteen years I have spent more than one thousand dollars trying to get rid of a complaint that was gradually sapping my strength, but until I got hold of Tanlac nothing helped me. For the past four years I have lived almost entirely on milk and bread, and finally even that went against me.

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Tanlac I got so I could eat anything, and I certainly bless the day I first got this medicine for I believe it has added years to my life. The people in my neighborhood were so surprised at the change in me that fourteen of them by actual count are now taking Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Brady by Trigg Drug Co., in Mercury by J. T. Matlock, in Rochelle by C. W. Carr, and by leading druggists everywhere.

Spoiled His Illustration.

A temperance lecturer, aiming to make a telling point, said: "Now, supposing I had a pail of water and a pail of beer and then brought on a donkey, which of the two would he take?"

"He'd take the water," came a voice from the gallery.

"And why would he take the water?" the lecturer asked.

"Because he's 'n ass," was the quick reply.—Rock Island Rotary.

By FRANCIS LYNDE

FROM a silver-spoon and soft-mattress existence, Stanford Broughton suddenly is confronted with the alternative of looking for a job or, another kind of quest, try and locate a mysterious legacy left him by an eccentric grandfather. He does not know the character of the property, but the grandfather's directions say that it is somewhere between the 105th and 110th degrees of longitude west from Greenwich, and the 35th and 40th degrees north latitude. When he finds it he will be able to identify it by the presence of a girl with brown hair and blue eyes, a small mole on her left shoulder, a piebald horse and a dog with a split face—half black and half white. He is game and he starts to look for the combination. The troubles he has in locating it and the adventures and dangers through which he passes in securing possession of the property, also the romantic incidents in which the girl is a figure, make up this very fascinating narrative. It is Mr. Lynde's habit to tell stories like this, and there are readers in multitudes who would be sorry to have him depart from the custom.

"Go See Virgil." "Your hair's a foot long," says my help-meet; "You look like a tramp or a bear, So step 'round if you please, to the barber, And tell him I said cut your hair."

"Round the ears and the neck use the clippers; Don't matter how bald you may be— Just go get your hair cut this minute, So the real peanut-head folks may see."

"They've tho't all the time your head swollen, When in fact it was 'wool'—crazy mutt; Tell Jones I said use some 'Bon-am-i,' When once he has gotten it cut." —Evang. Campbell.

A Get-Rich-Quick Plan. "Is there any money in a perpetual-motion machine?" asked the inventor. "I guess there is," said the man with the red tie. "I have a little machine in my store that would bring me in millions if I could keep it in perpetual motion." "What is it?" asked the other. "A cash register."

BAZAAR. The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar at the Popular Dry Goods Co. December 8th and 9th.

Wouldn't Mind That. An Italian who kept a fruit stand was much annoyed by possible customers who made a practice of handling the fruit and pinching it, thereby leaving it softened and often spoiled. Exasperated beyond endurance he finally put up a sign which read: "If you must pincha da fruit— pincha da cocoonut!"

A Penalty for Everything. "Well," declared the man who had been looking over the law, "there seems to be a penalty for everything except stealing a man's daughter." "Oh," said his friend, "there's a penalty provided for that too." "What is it?" "Hard labor for life."

Elastic Schedule. In the old days of Mississippi River travel, the "Stephen J. Hill" gained note as the worst boat on the river. One afternoon a fog settled and the captain gave orders to tie up for the rest of the day. "It's too bad we're going to be late, captain," said a passenger. "We ain't," retorted the skipper calmly. "But I thought you were going to tie up here for hours." "So we are, but that ain't going to make us late. We don't run so close to time as all that."

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad put on a through chair car and sleeping service between Brownwood and San Antonio, beginning Sunday, November 20th. A similar service existed on this road at one time, being discontinued three years ago.
The new train will reach San Antonio at 7:45 a. m., about two hours earlier than the former schedule.

Rev. Martinson, our new Methodist preacher, came up from Brady and preached last Sunday night to a fair-sized audience. He and family have moved to Eden since that time and are now at home at the parsonage.
On Tuesday, the good ladies had a dinner ready prepared for them upon their arrival, and gave them a hearty welcome. We are glad to have this family with us.—Eden Echo.

Harvey Whitehead and Jack Long of Rochelle were taken in charge
Monday morning by Constable J. W.
Cole of that place on a complaint of theft, it being alleged that the pair had stolen three skunk and a couple possum hides from Arthur Wingo.
Arraigned in county court, both men plead guilty, and were assessed fines of $5 and costs, totaling $35.30 for the two. In default of the amount, both were taken to jail to serve time
in this amount.

E. A. Burrow, McCulloch county's popular surveyor and engineer, is smiling mightily happily these days, the reason being that Mrs. Burrow and daughter, Miss Mary Ed, have joined him in making their home here.
The family has taken rooms at the Mrs. John Duke residence. Their home at Stamford has been leased
out. Brady citizens extend to Mrs.
Burrow and daughter a most hearty welcome to our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Love A. Kimbrough were here from the Rochelle community Saturday shopping. Mr. Kim-brough is a well-known and highly esteemed Rochelle boy, but who has been located at Lordsburg, N. M., the past couple years, where he has been interested in mining operations. He returned to Rochelle a couple months ago, bringing with him his bride, a most charming and attractive young lady, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F. Gaylord Roberts of Arkansas, their marriage having taken place on October 15th, at Deming, N. M. The many McCulloch county friends of Mr. Kimbrough are glad to welcome him and his bride back to McCulloch county, and to extend to them every wish for happiness.
