THE GOLDEN GATE FOUR LYCEUM COURSE NUMBER

One of the few really good singing quartettes before the public today is the "Golden Gate Four," who compose the company next on the program of the local lyceum course, and which will be presented in Brady next Wednesday night, December 6th. The number will be given at the Methodist tabernacle, the program beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Without question, the lyceum course this year is the best that has ever been presented in Brady, and the last number presented has been declared as furnishing two of the best artists that have ever appeared before the local public. The coming number, the "Golden Gate Four," comes even more highly recommended, and another large attendance is certain.

The Parent-Teachers association has labored diligently and faithfully to make the lyceum course a success, and to meet the heavy expense of the same. It will, therefore, be gratifying to all friends of the association to learn that they now lack but $150 of having funds sufficient to cover the entire course, and at that, with four numbers yet to be presented.

Concerning the coming number, the advance reports have the following to say of the "Golden Gate Four":

A male quartet par excellence with entertaining features in abundance. There is a record of an entire winter tour in California to the credit of the Golden Gate boys. The press comments reveal enthusiastic approval of the fine singing and spontaneous fun of their programs. One, from San Jose, says:

"The Golden Gate Four, Saturday evening, made a great hit. The work was far above the average quartet and many new and novel features were introduced. The program consisted of songs, piano numbers, readings, the cigar box fiddle, and an impersonation of Harry Lauder, all of which were very good, and were well received by the audience. A sacred number, 'Lead Kindly Light,' also made a profound impression upon the assemblage. The program was indeed a varied one, with plenty of variety to please all, from lovers of sacred and classic and conservative music to those who like jazz and the modern pieces. They will be greeted by a capacity audience if they come our way again."

Be sure of plenty of fuel for winter. Place your order now with MACY & CO.

BOB COLLINS FATALLY SHOOT CLABE MAY AT COLEMAN MON. NIGHT

Bob Collins, a paralytic, living at Coleman, wheeled his chair, up in front of Clabe May, Monday night, drew a pistol and shot May twice, before bystanders could interfere or prevent the tragedy. May was given immediate surgical and medical attention and lingered until shortly before noon Tuesday when he died.

Collins is in jail facing a probable charge of murder, the only statement he has made being brief, and merely, that May had "double-crossed him."

News of the shooting was received by Walter C. Woodward, of Coleman, one of the attorneys in the Brooke Smith-Graham case, now on trial here, when he put in a long distance call for Mrs. Woodward about 7 o'clock Monday evening. Mrs. Woodward said Collins had just called and asked for Mr. Woodward, but was informed that the latter was in Brownwood attending court and would not be home for a few days. Collins then rolled up on the street, leaving word with Mrs. Woodward to tell her husband that he had gone up town to kill Clabe May. The killing occurred a few minutes later.

Collins is a paralytic and for a number of years has been unable to walk, his only means of getting about being in a rolling chair, and for some reason took a liking to Walter Woodward, to whom he generally told his troubles or worries such as he had, and to which Mr. Woodward always listened patiently and gave the man such advice as was for his welfare. —Brownwood Bulletin.

Death of Dr. J. B. Latham.

News has been received here of the death in Abilene last Saturday, November 25th, of Dr. J. B. Latham, resulting from dropsy. Deceased was one of the most prominent of West Texas' physicians, and had for many years made his home at Blackwell, Texas, to which place the body was carried for burial. Dr. Latham was a brother of Mrs. J. B. McKnight, formerly of Brady, but now of Carlisle, and where Dr. McKnight is in charge of the State Sanatorium. The aged mother of deceased lives at Deer Creek, near Fredonia. The sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved relatives.

TALLOW-WEED AND FILAREE ARE FINE FOR STOCK

Cattle and live stock of all kinds throughout the McCulloch country promise to come through the winter in splendid shape, and to require but little feeding upon the part of farmers and live stock men, unless particularly severe winter weather is had. This is the opinion expressed by local stockmen and farmers. The abundant fall rains have served to provide an abundance of weeds and grass, and rescue grass is reported as thriving everywhere. In addition there is a considerable acreage of winter grain sowed and which has been doing splendidly since the rains, as a result of the pretty weather.

Still another feature is the great abundance of filaree and tallow weed. J. H. White, one of Brady's old-time citizens, directs attention to the fact that the hills are literally covered with these two plants, both of which are very nourishing for cattle and sheep. The tallow weed is said to be especially fattening for cattle, while sheep, and, in fact, horses, cattle and all kinds of live stock thrive on the filaree. Neither of these plants are to be found here in dry years, but in wet seasons they are prolific. In the early days, they were met with rather rarely, although they were abundant on the Pacific coast. It is a theory that the seeds of these plants were carried inland from California by west winds, gradually coming farther eastward, until now they are to be found everywhere throughout this section.

This fact recalled to A. R. Pool, county attorney of McCulloch, that in years gone by the wild pea was abundant in some of the western countries, providing splendid forage. In recent years, however, the wild pea has gradually disappeared until now it is seldom met with.

WOULD ORGANIZE COMPANY TO DEVELOP MINERAL RESOURCES OF McCULLOCH CO.

F. R. Perez, one of the leaders among the local Mexican population, and who for the past two years has been engaged in the restaurant and grocery business in Brady, has disposed of his restaurant fixtures, and expects to leave the first of next week for San Antonio, where the family will make their home, so their son may enter one of the higher schools, and where Frank will engage in the grocery business. Frank says he is highly appreciative of the splendid patronage enjoyed here, and that he is not quitting McCulloch county for good. On the contrary, he is taking with him samples of McCulloch county ore, which he will have assayed, and if they prove up to his expectations, he expects to organize a mining company to develop this body of ore. Frank had about 22 years' experience in mining ore in Old Mexico, and he is convinced that the samples he has obtained gold, silver and copper. He has left samples of the ore with The Standard for inspection by anyone interested. The vein he has discovered is from a yard and a half to two yards thick, and of undetermined extent, and he believes may some day develop into some very rich mining property.

McCULLOCH CO. GINNINGS NOV. 1, 15,669 BALES

According to the government's cotton census figures, McCulloch county ginnings up to November 1st had totaled 15,669 bales, as compared with total ginnings of 11,778 on November 1st last year. Local cotton men estimate that nearly another 1,000 bales have been ginned in the county since November 1st and up to the closing of the 1922 season, which would, therefore, give McCulloch county a total of over 16,500 bales ginned during the present season.

Comparative reports on cotton ginnings for last year and this in the leading counties of the state, and as well counties in this section of Texas, are as follows:

Improvements at Postoffice.

"Service without a complaint," appears to be the motto adopted by Postmaster H. N. Cook since assuming charge of Uncle Sam's local dispensary of postage stamps, post cards, and mail matter. In fact, Mr. Cook figures that service is the commodity he has to sell, and so he is determined to "sell nothing but the best."

Following up his recent installation of bins and compartments to facilitate the care and handling of registered, parcels post and insured packages, Mr. Cook has just had printed, slips on which all mail routings are plainly lettered. This has been done with the sole idea of reducing the misdirecting of mail to the minimum. All the various sorting boxes are now so plainly lettered that the names may be read with ease, thereby dispelling all doubt upon the part of the sorter.

Mr. Cook is proving most competent, his service is coming fully up to standard, and he is certain to prove just as popular in his new office as he was during the many years he served as "Mine Host" of the Queen hotel here.

BRADY WINS HOTLY CONTESTED GAME FROM MASON FRIDAY BY SCORE OF 2-0

In a game replete with thrills and exciting plays, Brady high school won from Mason high school on the local gridiron by a score of 2 to 0 Friday afternoon. The game was one of the best played on the local grounds, the teams matching up well, and the contest being remarkably free from infractions of the rules. Brady's score was made in rather an unusual fashion, the ball being in Brady's possession with a goal to go on the fourth down. A forward pass, attempted by Brady, was caught by a Mason player behind the goal line, and within the end zone. The Mason player, however, was downed before he was able to return from behind the goal line, and Referee Fuller awarded Brady two points for a safety. This ruling was protested by the Mason coach, after the return of the team to Mason, but Referee Fuller stands pat on his decision.

The game was nip and tuck between the two opponents for the first three quarters. In the fourth quarter, near the end, Brady got the ball down on Mason's one-yard line, Strickland making a splendid gain by an end run, and a pass to Samuel adding to the notable gain. Two center rushes by Polk and one end run, served only to lose four yards for Brady. It was at this point the forward pass was pulled that resulted in Brady being declared winner by the safety.

Compared with the first game played with Mason, and which was the first game of the season for Brady, the locals have shown wonderful development, which fact was commented upon by Coach Dumas of the Mason team, and who complimented Coach Hart of the locals upon his wonderful work for the team.

Boy Scouts Lose at Richland.

Playing at Richland Springs last Saturday, the Brady Boy Scouts in charge of Scoutmaster Clarence Snider, suffered defeat at the hands of the Richland Springs Junior High School by a score of 21 to 0. Brady's defeat is ascribed to fumbles, the locals holding the line well against all attacks of their opponents.

THREE-DAY PROGRAM IN P.-D.-L.-S. CAMPAIGN

McCulloch county is included in the eleven West Texas counties where the Fifth Annual Poultry-Dairy-Livestock campaign will be conducted during the present fall and winter. The campaign is under the joint auspices of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Fort Worth Livestock Exchange and thru the assistance to be rendered by the A. & M. college of Texas. Wm. D. Cargill of Brady, secretary of the Brady Chamber of Commerce, is county leader for McCulloch county, and a three-day program has been arranged for this meeting. Meetings are to be held at Brady on the afternoon and night of Wednesday, December 13th, to which farmers and the public generally are invited. Prior to this, meetings will also be held at Melvin on the afternoon and night of December 12th, in charge of E. A. Baze, local leader, and at Rochelle on the afternoon and night of December 11th, in charge of Roy Barton, local leader.

Col. C. C. French, livestock expert of Fort Worth, representing the Livestock Exchange; B. M. Whiteker, Agricultural-Exhibit Manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and also special representatives of the A. & M. college will be present and will discuss live topics.

Motion picture films are to be shown also in connection with the campaign. These pictures will include films on "America's Golden Harvest," "Cherryland," and "Diversified Farming," and also a special film on "Mexico."

Every effort is to be made to make the campaign of extraordinary importance to McCulloch county. The development of the poultry-dairy-livestock industry in McCulloch county, while important, is capable of almost incalculable expansion.

About the most harmonious music of the times is the jingle of the silver attuned to the gobble of the turkey.

THE NEXT BIG TASKS.

In his address before the convention of the Puget Sound-to-Gulf highway association in Brady, Hon. Lee Satterwhite, representative from the Amarillo district, said: "There are four problems confronting Texas today: Schools, Conservation of Flood Waters, Equalization of Taxes, and Roads. Of these, the last is the most important."

Mr. Satterwhite is a statesman and a leader among the States' big men. His opinion is the result of careful and conscientious study of the problems of Texas today—his words express his honest convictions. It would be well to take counsel from his words, for he is a man unaffected by local diversity of opinion, but whose wisdom is guided by a sincere desire to ultimately benefit the people and the State as a whole.

Pastor is Pounded.
The Rev. Buren Sparks and his good wife were treated to the surprise of their lives Wednesday night, when a large number of the membership of the Baptist church gave the family a "pounding," which Rev. Sparks declares as most thorough and impressive in character—and a delightful experience as well. Among the weapons used in the "pounding," were a 14-pound ham, a turkey that might have been the counterpart of the ham in weight, and innumerable other articles, totaling in value not less than $50. Following the surprise, an enjoyable evening was spent by the pastor, his family and his guests, a brief program being one of the features.

WILLIAM FOX NEW GREAT FEATURE "MONTE CRISTO" AT LYRIC DECEMBER 11-12

Attendants at the Lyric theatre have reason to be gratified at the splendid line of pictures secured by Mr. Levy, and, as a matter of fact, appreciation of this fact is clearly shown in the splendid crowds that have attended the recent offerings. Take for instance the offering Wednesday night, "Where is My Wandering Boy," which proved so splendid an attraction that long before 7:00 o'clock, the house was packed, with a steady stream of people still coming. In order to accommodate the crowds, Mr. Levy decided to run two shows, starting the first at 7:15, and accommodating the overflow crowd with the second performance. Needless to say, the picture proved a wonderful screen presentation, and well worth the wait which the second show made necessary to the late comers.

Another remarkable picture is scheduled for presentation on Monday and Tuesday, December 11th and 12th, in William Fox latest and greatest production of Dumas' famous romance, "Monte Cristo," and which will be shown with a cast so splendidly adapted to the play that it would appear that Dumas' own characters in the great novel had come to life and had re-enacted the play which brought its author undying fame. John Gilbert and Estelle Taylor head the all-star cast of this famous play, said to be one of the most dramatic of all screen productions.

Other notable pictures already booked for the Lyric are "My Friend, the Devil," on December 18th; Mary Carr in "Silver Wings," on December 25th, Buck Jones in "Fast Mail," on January 1st (New Year's); "Nero," or "The Burning of Rome," on January 8th, and "Lights of New York," on January 15th. Mr. Levy is also arranging for a return engagement of that wonderful success, "Just Tony," with Tom Mix in the leading role, which play was declared one of the best ever seen here. Date for this re-appearance will be announced later.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

One of the season's delightful affairs, for home folks and visitors as well, was the Thanksgiving dinner served at noon yesterday at the Queen hotel, and which served to attract a large number of diners. The dining room was attractively decorated for the occasion, the decorations symbolizing the spirit of the occasion. An elaborate four-course luncheon was served, the menu being as follows:

- Oyster Cocktail
- Cream of Celery Soup
- Saratoga Chips
- Fish with Tartar Sauce
- Turkey and Dressing
- Cranberry Sauce
- Creamed Fresh Beans
- Creamed Pot Canded Yams
- Macaroni and Cheese
- Celery
- Salted Nuts
- Olives
- Pumpkin and Mince Pie
- Coffee

Mother Dies at Sherman.

F. M. Richards of this city and R. A. King of Eldorado have the sympathy of all in the death of their mother, Mrs. Julia A. King, which occurred Monday morning at her home in Sherman, Texas, at the advanced age of 86 years. Mr. Richards returned yesterday morning from Sherman where he had been called by news of her death, and where he attended the funeral services Tuesday afternoon. The service were conducted by Rev. McClean of Dallas, who was Mrs. King's pastor in 1861, and who, himself, is 85 years of age. Dr. A. C. Spragins, pastor of the church attended by Mrs. King in Sherman, assisted.

The following account of Mrs. King's life and death is reprinted from the Sherman Daily Democrat of Monday, November 27th:

At 4:20 Monday morning Mrs. Julia A. King, a picturesque figure in Sherman's history, passed to her final reward. Mrs. King was 86 years of age.

age, was born in Bolivar, Polk county, Mo., in 1836, and at two years of age was brought by her parents to Clarksville, Texas. After residing there 10 years the family, the Shannons, removed to Sherman, and the names of its members have been interlinked with all the subsequent history of this community.

When only 16 years old, Mrs. King was married to Frank Richards. Four children were born to that union, and the original home was a two-story white house which occupied the corner property where The Democrat office now stands, and had lived 60 years on the site of her late home.

Mrs. King was a lifelong Methodist. After the death of Mr. Richards, she married R. A. King, and five children were the issue of that marriage.

Mrs. King was the daughter of a pioneer a life-long member of the Methodist church and was the last charter member of Travis Street Methodist congregation. She was a Sunday school teacher in that church for 30 years, reared her children in that faith, put all her influence into her religious life, and was "full of charity and good works."

With a virile personality and immeasurable energy, she left her impress on the community life, and was held in reverent esteem as one of the last of Sherman's original pioneers. She had a fund of early recollections of Sherman, and Grayson county history, and many chapters have been written from details supplied by her. And probably, with her passing, many stirring chapters have closed, never to be written.

Mrs. King was a forceful character, bred of the heroism of frontier life, a woman of large social instincts that attracted and held her friends, of whom she had many, and kept her mental and physical forces marvelously. As long as she was able, she was one of the most active church workers in Sherman, and being a lover of the outdoor life and all its beauties, she was equally a woman of civic pride, and ardently interested in whatever made Sherman a better, more beautiful place in which to live.

During the past year she had had several serious attacks of illness, but a good constitution and determined spirit fortified her physician's ability to tide her over those illnesses. Her final sickness was of brief duration.

Why Freight Rates Cannot Be Reduced Railroads Under Public Control

Transportation Charges Must Stay Up Until Costs Come Down, President Storey of the Santa Fe Explains

United States Senator Capper, through his various publications, has been demanding a reduction of freight rates; but his attitude on the general subject of railroads has not blinded him to the main facts about government control, which have been clearly presented in the following editorial from one of his papers, the Topeka Daily Capital:

- "The railroad cannot fix its own rates and charges.
- "It cannot name the wages it will pay.
- "It cannot enter into combinations and deals.
- "It cannot shut down when business goes to the bad.
- "It cannot buy or sell a railroad system.
- "It cannot make capitalistic profits and dividends.
- "It cannot even determine how much capital it shall issue on its property, or issue any without previous approval of the public.
- "It is, in fact, an agency of the public, controlled completely by the government."

The fact is, rates cannot be reduced unless costs are reduced. Costs cannot be reduced so long as the present scale of wages and the prices of fuel, materials and other supplies are maintained, and in these matters the hands of the Santa Fe are tied.

What is particularly needed at this time is better transportation service, more cars, locomotives, and other facilities necessary for moving the business, and the Santa Fe is doing everything in its power to provide these.

—they last longer

More Columbia Batteries are used in the United States than all other makes combined, because—

Columbias have been manufactured on a large scale considerably longer than any other dry battery

They have over 30 years of battery manufacturing skill and improved equipment behind them

Every improvement of any account has been developed in the Columbia laboratories

The Columbia "Hot Shot" was the first successful assembly of dry cells in one package

And again Columbia has demonstrated its leadership through the development of the new Steel Case "Hot Shot" Battery

Wherever a dry battery is needed, Columbia will always give the best service

Lois, Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Jim Selman Called by Death Angel.
Lohn, Texas, Nov. 28.

Editor Brady Standard:
We are having very pretty weather this week, after so much rain and misty weather. We had school one Saturday on account of being rained out on Friday.

Miss Velma Moran spent Sunday and Sunday night with Mrs. Homer Gay, who is visiting her mother, Mrs.
J. C. Hanley.

Mrs. T. P. Neve and children, Misses Velma and Vera Clifton spent the day Sunday with Mrs. E. W. Woods.

Mrs. W. S. Young, Miss Lucy Purdy and Oweda Hanley attended church at Fife Sunday night.

Mr. Willie Smith has been absent from school the past week on account of sticking a needle in his eye.
He left yesterday for Brownwood where he will have his eye treated.
We all hope that he will soon be back greatly improved.

Bob Smith and E. W. Turner have been in Schleicher county the last ten days hunting. We hope that they return with plenty of venison and turkey. I also hope that the writer gets a taste.

Our County Superintendent Mr.
W. M. Deans visited our school Friday and said many nice things about our school. He inspected the girls sewing, but said he was unable to comment on it, as he had not had very much practice along that line.

Since our last writing, the Death Angel visited our community. Little Lois, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Selman, passed away November 14th. She was sick only a short time. Death was caused from a severe attack of diphtheria. Mr. and Mrs. Selman and the child's grandparents have our sympathy. Help us to say our loss is Heaven's gain.

Rev. Rose, the Christian preacher, filled his regular appointment at Cow Creek Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday. A very good attendance was reported.

Mr. W. G. Purdy and family and Mr. Blackwell and family spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Brady.

Bro. Smith from Mullen filled his regular appointment at Fife Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.
A large crowd was present.

Mrs. P. C. Clifton and Mrs. Ira
Pointer were the guests of Mrs. E.
W. Woods Tuesday evening.

Roy Wyres is visiting in Brownwood this week.

Mrs. B. A. and Mrs. Maggie Cornnills called on Mrs. Killingworth Monday.

Everybody is watching for the hog killing weather. Some few have already killed. "PALS."

CALF CREEK NEWS.

Brady, Texas, Nov. 27.

Editor Brady Standard:

Since I last wrote there has been quite a lot of moving going on. Mr.
Clint Spivey and wife are moving to Lampasas. Mr. Milbern Pearson moved where Mr. Spivey lived. Bill Duncan has moved on the Henry Miller place. Mr. Le^d Garner and Mrs.
Jack Garner are moving near Melvin, and C. Davenport is moving on one of the Wilhelm places. Mr. Allison of Eden has moved on Grandpa Walker's place.

A singing at Mr. Turner's Sunday night was enjoyed by a large crowd.
Mr. Frank Lohn spent the weekend with home folks at Waldrip.

Mr. Odes Martin spent Saturday night with Albert Garner.

Miss Lelah Blasdel spent Friday and Saturday with the Harkrider girls of Nine.

Quite a few of the Calf Creek people attended the box supper Friday night at Nine.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood called at the Bridge home a short while Sunday night.

Misses Ethel and Margaret Hark-rider of Nine and Mr. Jeff Bratton of Waldrip attended the singing at R. B. Turner's Sunday night.

Mrs. W. R. Duncan called on Mrs.
Whit Smith a while Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cavin spent the day Sunday with her mother, Mrs.
G. E. Bridge.

Arch Reeves and family of Hext visited Mrs. Awalt Sunday.

Mr. Bowers entertained the young folks with a dance Thursday night.

Miss Eula Mae Barnett spent the night with Miss Bernice Bridge
Tuesday night.

Quite a few of the Calf Creek people attended the show at Brady Saturday night.

PUGET SOUND-TO-GULF TO HAVE SALARIED MANAGER —BRADY COMPLIMENTED

The San Angelo Standard last week carried the following comprehensive writeup of the Puget Sound-to-Gulf highway meeting at Brady, incidentally complimenting Brady upon the entertainment provided for the meeting:

The Texas division of the Puget Sound-to-Gulf highway will, in the future be directly in charge of a salaried manager, who will enlist members in each county and otherwise perfect local organizations, will see that the "shortest route from Denver to the Gulf" is properly marked and will advertise the road throughout the country.

This was perhaps the biggest move taken Wednesday at the annual meeting of the Texas division at Brady to insure the maintenance and betterment of the highway. Delegates from more than a dozen of the twenty-six counties which the highway traverses participated in the election of Harry L. Miller of San Antonio as president, B. A. Hallum of Brady as vice-president and F. R. Senor of Fredericksburg, secretary-treasurer. The executive committee will select the place of the 1923 meeting.

This was information brought back to San Angelo Tuesday night by A.

C. Waters of the Easton Grain Company, Mark McCarley, Gates tire dealer; and L. W. Walker of the Coca Cola Bottling Company, among the other local delegates. Others were: J. T. Mathison, Tom Green county judge; Joe A. Deats, county commissioner No. 4; R. L. Howard, county commissioner No. 2, and Gibb Gilchrist, county engineer. These county officials stopped Tuesday night in Eden for the purpose of conferring Thursday with Concho county officials on road matters affecting the two counties.

Tribute to the Late Thos. F. Owens.

The good roads meeting at Brady Wednesday adopted a resolution of respect to the memory of the late Thomas F. Owens, former secretary of the San Angelo Board of City Development, who virtually organized the Puget Sound-to-Gulf highway in Texas, was instrumental in securing state and federal recognition of its designation and became corresponding secretary of the Texas division.

Sam Crowther of San Angelo was re-elected county vice-president from Tom Green county, Orland Sims was re-elected county vice-president from Concho county and James R. Cannon, secretary of the Sterling Chamber of Commerce, was named county vice-president from Sterling county.

It was voted that at future meetings only the twenty-six county vice-presidents will be eligible to cast votes for their localities. The membership fee was fixed at $5. Heretofore each county has been assessed a stipulated amount, but it developed at the Brady meeting that only three counties met their assessments during the fiscal year then ending. More finances will be derived from the new plan, it is believed.

State Control of Roads Predicted.

The theme of most of the addresses made before the good roads convention Wednesday was that the state of Texas eventually and probably at an early date will take over the building and maintenance of all major highways. Under this arrangement it is probable that counties which by that time have erected standard roads will be reimbursed for the amounts expended. Before this can be accomplished, the state laws must be altered and a strong effort will be made to induce the next legislature to effect the necessary change. Among the speakers Wednesday were Judge W. W. Pierson of the State Supreme Court, Lee Satterwhite of Panhandle, member of the Texas legislature and representative of the Texas Highway Association, and by W. W. McCrory, a member of the Texas Highway Commission.

A large number of legislature representatives, county judges and other county officials, including engineers, attended the Brady meeting. One of the state legislators present was Judge Frank H. Burmeister of Jourdanton, Atascosa county, retiring president of the Texas division of the Puget Sound-to-Gulf Highway.

Fredericksburg had the biggest delegation, numbering twenty-one, and its members claimed for Gillespie county a greater amount of permanent road building during the year than in any other county between Dallas and Nueces. Tom Green county representatives had plenty to boast about along this line, as did Howard. There were four delegates from San Antonio, two from Glasscock county, two from Lubbock, one from Plainview, three from Sterling, a half dozen or more from Concho and over a dozen from Mason county.

Brady Entertains Well.

Brady's entertainment of its guests was splendid, say the local delegates who came home Tuesday night. The town brought out its band, which furnished good music before, during and after the free dinner, arrangements for which were in charge of its members. The business sessions were held in the court house and the dinner was served in a vacant building. Brady citizens called the attention of its visitors to the fact that Brady will have a new three-story hotel when it next entertains the highway association.

LOCAL BRIEFS

J. W. Claxton is a recent new arrival in Brady, having moved here a couple months ago from El Paso with his family, occupying the W. P. Yearly residence just on top the hill. Mr. Claxton is a painter and paper hanger by profession, and since his arrival here says he has been kept so busy that he has not even had time to get about town and make the acquaintance of the citizenship. He is highly pleased with Brady and the Brady folks with whom he has met, and intends to make this his permanent home. One of his most recent contracts is for the painting and decorating of the new high school building.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Eklund are this week loading out the remainder of their household effects and chattels, preparatory to leaving for Austin, where they will join their daughter, Mrs. Pierson, in again making their home. While regretting to leave Brady and their many warm friends here, Mr. Eklund says the move has been made necessary on account of Mrs. Eklund's health. He stated, however, that he was firmly convinced that McCulloch county offered unsurpassed opportunities to farmers and stock raisers, and cited the fact that he has just sold his chicken crop for over $200, while his receipts from milk and butter the past year have totaled over $1,000. Mr. and Mrs. Eklund kept strict account of all their farm sales, and operating costs, and have the figures to prove their statements that chicken raising and dairying in this section offers splendid profits.
