THE DICKENS COUNTY PEOPLE LIVE AT HOME

CHILD BEGGARS PLAY SYMPATHETIC RACKET

I wish that you would read this article and think seriously about its contents for the good of the whole community.

Most of you will recall that a few weeks ago I wrote an article for the local papers pleading with our citizens to refer all cases of charity regardless of the circumstances to me at the Red Cross office at the Chamber of Commerce. Some have done that and some have not. I especially plead with the housewives not to help transient seekers of assistance. My reason was that most of them are fakes. Since my last article five lone back door knockers have hit town and three of the group were fakes, two of whom refused to report to this office because they knew I would find it out on them. Three came to me for assistance, one of them I turned away because he would not submit to questions and the other two I fed. One of these I fed turned out later to be a fake. We have had four child peddler outfits hit town and proceed to send out little ragged children with some worthless junk to sell and in every case if you wouldn't buy from them they would beg something from you. Three of these I investigated and found from 3 to 5 grown healthy, worthless males sticking close to their cars in perfect comfort while the little children peddled and begged. In every case these male child white slave drivers were infinitely better dressed than the poor little beggars in training who came to your door. In one instance I found five of these child beggar outfits in a protective group out of the cold after a fruitless three hours search for customers and DUPES. I asked them if their parents beat them when they returned without money. Three of the older ones said no with their blue little lips and told me at the same time with their eyes that they were telling a coached lie. The two little fellows, without so much training, admitted that "my daddy sho does raise kane wid me if'n I don' bring back some dough." The three older ones finally admitted after this frank confession that they would catch it if they came back too soon.

Did it ever occur to you, kind hearted housewives of Spur that when you buy a dime worth from these poor children you are deliberately encouraging this, the Lowest Down of All Begging Rackets Known to the American People. You are not helping the children one bit and you are making the Racket a paying game and in so doing you are condemning thousands of little children yet unborn to such lives. Turn them down flat in every instance (not the child but their sorry, worthless scum of parents. Spur is now listed (by your past generosity) as an easy town for such scum of the earth. Our fame for generosity to this particular racket has spread thru-out the United States and as they journey South for the Winter we are slated for at least a hundred more visits by these gallant child white slave drivers. Think it over folks. The next time you see some of them on the streets come down to my office and let's go down together and look the case over and you may see for yourself that these things are true.

Rev. Bowd is New Pastor M. E. Church

Rev. Joe E. Bowd has been assigned the pastorate of the First Methodist Church of Spur and has already moved here from Matador to assume his duties. Rev. W. B. Vaughn, who served as pastor of this church the past four years was transferred to Stanton, Texas. Spur people will greatly miss Rev. Vaughn and his estimable family who did a great work here. Rev. Bowd is an able minister and will find a real welcome at the hands of Spur folk.

Armistice Day Is Observed by Legion

Armistice Day was fittingly observed by the Boyd M. Williams Post American Legion. Members of the Post and their families gathered at the Spur Fair Park Friday morning where Mr. Neilson of the Spur High School faculty gave a most excellent address. An old fashioned barbecue dinner had been prepared with C. C. Haile as supervisor and was greatly enjoyed by the Legionnaires and guests. Fred Hale of Spur and Pat Murphy of Stamford made appropriate talks in the afternoon. Post Commander Crider was in charge of the day's activities.

4,700 Bales Cotton Ginned Here So Far

Approximately 4,700 bales of cotton had been ginned by the six gins of Spur up to Thursday afternoon. Due to the lack of cotton in the "big hail district" adjacent to Spur the plants are not operating at capacity but are having a fair business.

Car Thieves Are Apprehended By Sheriff Arthur

Two young men giving the names of Carl Ewing and Doyle Childers and their place of residence as Waxahatchie, Texas, were arrested four miles southeast of Dickens Tuesday by Sheriff W. B. Arthur and incarcerated in the county jail. The arrest was prompted by description of a stolen car at Stamford previously received by Sheriff Arthur. After being placed in jail the young fellows started talking and admitted having stolen two other cars one of which was sold to a man at Stamford and one at Haskell. They stated that they stole one car at Ennis, Texas, and one at Stamford on November 11th. The other car was taken at Haskell. Sheriff Bill Sorrels, of Haskell, came to Dickens Wednesday and took the young fellows and the stolen car back to Haskell.

Men Injured When Car Turns Turtle

H. H. Newberry and A. W. Whitley, both of Santo, Texas, were injured early Wednesday morning when their car was turned over at the railroad crossing on the highway about four miles east of Spur. They were pulling a trailer loaded with pecans, and not being acquainted with the 'crooks' in the road evidently arrived at a corner too quickly. They were brought to the Nichols Sanitarium for surgical attention. Mr. Whitley sustained a bad cut on the right arm, an artery being severed. Mr. Newberry's right arm was fractured near the shoulder.

Bulldogs to Play Quitoque at Fair Park Here Today

The Fair Park in Spur will be the scene of a gigantic battle for football supremacy this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock when the Spur High School Bulldogs grapple with the swift high school team from Quitoque.

The Spur lads are going to make a supreme effort to stage a come-back after the Armistice Day defeat at Post's hands which was the first game dropped by the Bulldogs this season. Quitoque is said to boast a strong aggregation. They have the distinction of having defeated the strong Matador eleven and have other notable wins to their credit.

Coach Thad Murley of the Spur team has announced that he would like to match a game for Thanksgiving with any good Class A or B team of the county.

Link and Jones Speak at Rotary

A most interesting program was had at the meeting of the Spur Rotary Club Thursday noon at the Spur Inn when Roy Stovall directed the affair. After several numbers by the "Hi-Powered Quartette," composed of F. W. Jennings, Clifford B. Jones, Sam Z. Hall and Roy Stovall, Geo. S. Link gave a most stressing that true happiness is wrought through service one renders to humanity.

Mr. C. A. Jones related his early experiences in the printing business. He said he started setting type in the State of Georgia at the age of twelve for a job printing establishment, and was supposed to receive one dollar per week for his services. He worked for some time, collecting 25c in all and then obtained employment as "Devil" on a tri-weekly publication where he did all the things the printers wouldn't do and helmed set the straight matter. Later he drifted out to the Golden West and identified himself with a newspaper in a mining town in the State of Colorado. He and his partner operated same for six years, Mr. Jones being 18 years of age when he assumed the newspaper managerial and editorial responsibilities. The mining town where he was located went the way of most mining and oil towns and Mr. Jones went back to Kansas where he had attended school after leaving Georgia and before he went to Colorado.

Mr. Jones is a very fluent speaker and his "print shop reminiscences" were delightfully entertaining, as well as instructive to some of us.

O. D. Cardwell of Post and Dick Hyatt of the Rails Club were visiting Rotarians. Rev. J. E. Boyd was a guest.

Negro Minstrel Is Here Tuesday

A real up-to-the minute Negro minstrel show will be staged at the East Ward school building in Spur Tuesday night of next week. Ted Smith, who is directing the show, states that his company will spring all the latest stuff and they are called the "Broadway Minstrels" because of the modernness and smartness of the production they will present—plenty good to go before the footlights on Broadway, N. Y. More than forty characters will take part in the humorous presentation. Proceeds will be used to purchase sweaters for the letter men of the Bulldog football squad. This is a very worthy cause. Let's go!

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Morgan have moved to Hamlin, Texas, where Mr. Morgan will manage the business affairs of a gin plant.

SALUTATION

(An Editorial)

As you do send for us you can in no way be held responsible or accountable for the change of the editor, manager, etc., of The Texas Spur which occurred Monday of this week. In this day of general satisfaction over the way we are getting along, due to a general expressed economic condition linked with adverse local situations many localities, one can never tell just who will be operating a main farm, factory or mercantile business tomorrow.

Mrs. McClure and her sons have been having an up-hill fight to carry on the Texas Spur business affairs since the passing of the lamented husband and father, who was founder of this paper and has the distinction all over the country of having made of the Texas Spur one of the very best country weekly newspapers in Texas during its twenty odd years he was at the helm. Of course Mrs. McClure and the boys are in no means by themselves in the 'up-hill fight' business as most (or all) of us have had much grappling to do during the era many are pleased to call "Republican Prosperity." As a matter of fact, they have probably stemmed the tide more efficiently than many others. But they have decided to "quitorrying" over having to make the mails with a newspaper every Friday morning and attending to the numerous other duties of a nerve-wrecking nature contingent with print shop activities. They knew the writer had for many years had a desire to publish a newspaper in Spur, so propositioned us—and we traded.

We are no stranger to Dickens County. We have lived here before and own property here. We have lived in this section of Texas many years and have watched the growth and development of Spur with considerable interest. Its location in the midst of a great agricultural and ranching country, linked with the fact that it serves as a shipping point one of the largest areas of any city of like size we have ever known, naturally makes of it a trading point of high order that has attracted alert, progressive and substantial business and professional folk. It follows that the citizenship is composed of the cream of American people possessed of high ideals and constructive policies—which means an excellent place to reside.

Spur's enviable location relative to larger cities (80 miles in the least) makes of it a shopping center unmolested by the pathos and automobiles diminishing their value as trading points. Instead of paved roads taking folks away from Spur to do their shopping, they afford more accessible means for the people to COME TO SPUR. This is a good point also for various wholesale activities and this aspect of the city's development will have a gradual increase.

These are a few of the reasons why Spur will continue to grow while other smaller cities of the land diminish, and the glowing prospects of such growth portend a profitable newspaper business if the power behind the gun uses the right sort of ammunition. That's why we have desired for a long time and now have a newspaper in Spur. We'll do our dead level best to use the sort of newspaper ammunition you like best.

We are not the best newspaper man in the world by any means and know from past experiences that we will probably make many mistakes and uncalculated errors. We may not publish the "Biggest" country weekly of the vicinity—that will be gauged by the patronage accorded us—but if we do not we'll take consolation in the fact that the rooster is bigger than the hen, but has never been known to lay an egg.

It shall be our whole-souled desire to treat every individual as nearly alike as is humanly possible. We shall endeavor to treat you like we want you to treat us—and that's pretty good. Our aim will be to serve this entire country in a newspaper way that will best suit each community's individual needs. There are many fine communities in Dickens and adjacent counties and our desire is to render all of them an unbiased and unprejudiced newspaper service.

We shall hold in confidence any patronage accorded us (price advertising or else) and solicit a reasonable share of your business on the merits of the service we may give. The Texas Spur has one of the best equipped printing plants in all of Western Texas and our automatic press-feeding machinery enables us to handle large jobs in a very efficient and economical way.

We want all of you to know that it will delight us to cooperate in any worthwhile endeavor to promote the welfare of the schools, churches, civic organizations of any sort or other community activities in Spur or any of the smaller towns or communities in this area. Don't hesitate to call on us freely—we'll appreciate an opportunity to be of some help in any way we possibly can.

Come to see us—we'll appreciate your visit. We may not always be "Dressed Up" when we greet you, for we find that quite a bit of work barring good clothes is essential some times in handling a country newspaper business in a profitable way. We don't know any better than to work, but be that as it may you will always find a friendly welcome at the Texas Spur office.

We are glad to be here and hope to add to the attractiveness of this newspaper in a way that will make it a real welcome visitor in the homes of all the people of this country.

Cooperatively yours,

A. C. (DICK) HYATT.

EVERYTHING GOOD TO EAT PROVIDED BY HOUSEWIVES

HEARD ON THE PANTRY TOUR

Nearly three hundred visits were made during the pantry achievement program and tour last week. In the 12 pantries on display there were some 7100 quarts of food. Each club had an exhibit of canned meals and an attractive gift table giving suggestions for gifts from the pantry and farm.

"This shows you what one can do when they are hauled out in June," explained Mrs. Jim Smith, Dry Lake demonstrator, proudly pointing to her pantry shelves laden with nearly 1000 containers. "Perhaps it is just as well we do not have any cotton for part of these shelves are my husband's sideboards," she added.

"I was so anxious for the men of the community to see our exhibit that I called them in when they were passing to see it," said Mrs. B. A. Goss, Chandler demonstrator, when the agent was looking over the names in the guest book.

"This whole pantry has cost me less than two dollars," is Mrs. C. V. Wright's report. Twin Wells demonstrator. She has canned food on the shelves in order to get her cans. That is true of several other demonstrators and many cooperators.

Mrs. J. W. Carlisle, demonstrator for Steel Hill club is so proud of her pantry that she is going to do even better next year. She plans to improve her bulletin and recipe files right away.

Each demonstrator had an interesting story to tell of her work that we might continue indefinitely. You just missed an educational treat if you failed to see one or more of the pantries and exhibits. See them yet.

RUG MAKING DEMONSTRATION HELD

"In making hooked rugs we want unusual designs, harmonious color combinations, and good workmanship," explained the home demonstration agent when giving a demonstration on the making of hooked rugs Tuesday to a group of women who are interested in standardizing their work in rug making. Hand-made hooked rugs are getting to be quite popular; in fact, the home demonstration club women of Texas have not been able to fill all orders for them the past two years. To be allowed to sell rugs in these orders one must bring her work up to standard with the Home Industry Specialist of A. & M. College.

Later in the year the demonstration will be given to the bedroom demonstrators of the women's clubs who will in turn give it in their own clubs. In connection with the bedroom achievement program next year the club women will have a hooked rug and mat exhibit.

BE THANKFUL THIS THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving is, of course, a New England institution. But wherever the Stars and Stripes may float on the last Thursday in November, gatherings will be found in grateful acknowledgement and true thankfulness to God for preserving the lives and granting a bountiful harvest to the Pilgrim Fathers who inaugurated this day of praise, worship, and feasting.

The games and fruit on the table of 1621 would be good for our table today, and their happiness all we could wish because happiness comes from hearts at peace with the universe.

This typical Thanksgiving dinner is a good one, but like all good things, it may become old and stale year after year. One can adhere to tradition and make some changes in the menu when this can be done without violating any unwritten law as to the main features of the feast.

The following menu is quite simple and gives you an opportunity to use canned foods: Baked turkey and dressing, molded spinach, buttered beets or squash, candied sweet potatoes, shredded lettuce salad, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, coffee.

Spur Loses Quadrant Championship to Post 19 to 27 in Armistice Day Game

(ARCHER POWELL)

Coach Murley's Bulldogs met their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Post Antelopes in Post before an Armistice Day crowd Friday. Post made two touchdowns in quick succession in the second quarter of the tilt that gave them a lead Spur could not overcome.

Spur scored early in the game when Captain Morgan covered Loyd's fumble and Martin raced 25 yards for the touchdown. Post was the next to score early in the second period when Loyd returned a punt 30 yards to cross the goal line. Two long passes and an end run by Loyd gave Post another marker. Post was successful again when Aultman intercepted a fumbled pass on his 40 yard line and returned for a touchdown. Spur scored again late in the second quarter when Post received two 15 yard penalties. J. Powell made a long end run and Stinnett completed the distance to cross the goal line.

The third period showed two closely matched teams and some real football. Rosamond twisted through the left wing of Post's forward wall and road 70 yards to score, leaving the count Spur 19, Post 20. The last quarter was played mostly in the air. Spur gambled frequently on the pass, trying to score in the last five minutes of play. Post used the reverse play and a pass attack to score early in the period.

Chapman, Hindman, Foreman and Capt. Morgan were outstanding in Spur's line, opening up holes for backfield and smearing plays back of the line of scrimmage.

Martin, Patterson, Stinnett, Rosamond and J. Powell were equally good in the backfield. R. Powell played an exceptionally good game at quarter back and kept the opposition guessing with his passing.

Stanley was outstanding in Post's line and was responsible for most of Spur's incomplete passes. Speck was the best in the backfield with his reverse plays and passing. Loyd, Harper and Aultman were constant in gaining territory.

FIRST PERIOD

The Bulldogs started the play with Chapman kicking off. Speck received the ball on his goal line and returned to the 15 yard marker. Speck tried left end on next play and gained 2 yards while Loyd tore off 13 yards around right end, but Harper was stopped for no gain. Speck carried again, this time for 6 yards at right end. Loyd failed to advance over Hindman's tackle and Harper punted.

J. Powell returned Harper's punt 8 yards. Martin and J. Powell failed to gain and R. Powell's pass was not completed. J. Powell punted across goal zone.

The Antelopes were in possession of the ball on their 20 yard line. Loyd wormed out 5 yards at right end but Harper lost 3 yards on next play and on the third down Loyd fumbled and Morgan covered the ball on Post 25 yard line. Martin made a brilliant run of 25 yards around left end to score the first touchdown. Chapman missed his attempt to kick from placement. Score, Spur 6, Post 0.

Chapman kicked to Speck who returned to the 70 yard line. Speck made 9 yards through the line on a reverse play but was smothered in his next attempt. Loyd gained around right end but the play was called back and Spur penalized 5 yards offside. Speck was stopped for Morgan at Spur's wall. Speck's pass to

to Thanksgiving

A Great Many Menus
But Few Poems
Have Been Inspired
For This Occasion

WOULDN'T it be a good plan if someone wrote a poem to Thanksgiving? For year after year, ever since the times of our sturdy Pilgrim Fathers, an autumn day has been set aside in this country for rest and Thanksgiving for all our blessings. So important is this subject of giving thanks that it is the very first thing we teach to little children.

And yet this wonderful institution of Thanksgiving has never inspired one of our more important poets to write exclusively on this subject so far, at least, as the writer of this article and the editors of Bartlett's Familiar Quotations' know. If anyone knows of such a poem, it would be a good plan to send it in to the editor of this paper.

In all seriousness, this unique American festival would furnish a splendid theme for a splendid poem, and one of our present day bards ought to write one. If this be editorializing in the news columns, make the most of it!

Poem Eat

But poets eat—sometimes. And Thanksgiving is apt to be one of those times if they are fortunate enough to have a single solvent relative left. So let's see what sort of a Thanksgiving dinner would be calculated to provoke a poet to action and verse. Here is the sort of menu we would suggest:

- Crab Cocktail
- Roast Beef with Yorkshire Pudding
- French Potatoes
- Mashed Hubbard Squash
- Creamed Cauliflower
- Hot Nger Rolls
- Alligator Pear and Cucumber Salad
- Pumpkin Pie
- Stem Raisins Coffee Hard Candies

Crab Cocktail: Flake one 6½-ounce can crabmeat and add one-fourth cup chopped sweet pickles, one-fourth cup chopped celery and one-half cup catsup. Chill well and serve in lettuce-lined cocktail cups. Serves six.

Pumpkin Pie: Mix three-fourths cup sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon ginger, one teaspoon cinnamon and add to one and one-half cups canned pumpkin. Add two tablespoons orange marmalade and two well-beaten eggs. Add one and one-half cups scalded milk and pour into pastry lined pie tin. Bake in a hot—450 degree—oven for ten minutes, then in slow—325 degree—oven for about thirty minutes or until knife comes out clean. Cool. Cover with whipped cream and sprinkle with grated orange rind. Cuts in six or eight pieces. Be sure that the coffee is of a brand that is vacuum packed.

The grooms are prominent young farmers of the north section of Dickens county while the brides are numbered with the choice young womanhood of this section. All are of prominent and substantial families. The News joins their many friends in wishing these fine young folks all the choice things of a contented married life.

J. D. Brooks Dies
From Meningitis

J. D. Brooks, 32, who resided on the Walter Foreman place in the Espuela community northwest of Spur, died at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning in a Lubbock sanitarium. His death was attributed to acute meningitis, resulting from a sinus ailment. He was taken to the Lubbock sanitarium Monday.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Espuela, interment being made in the Espuela cemetery. A large crowd of friends of this excellent family attended the services as a mark of respect for the deceased and to offer sympathy to the grief-stricken loved ones.

Survivors are a widow; a daughter, Helen Fay; his parents Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brooks, of Simms, Texas; a sister, Mrs. W. Carlton of DeKalb, Tex., and four brothers, Enice, Henry and Judge Brooks of Simms, and A. E. Brooks, of Brule, Neb.

W. A. Kimmell is among those renewing their subscription Saturday of last week. He has our thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ousley went to Anson Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. A. A. Dunwoody.

Ennis Armstrong, of Dry Lake was here Saturday and traded us some nice country sausage on his subscription to the paper. Ennis states that he likes the paper and we can say the same for the sausage. He is picking up a few extra dollars profit this year butchering and selling his home grown hogs and beves.

Mrs. J. H. Grace and daughter Miss Helen, and Miss Sybil McDaniel have returned from a visit in Dallas.

Girls to Hold Third Annual Basket Ball Tournament at Dickens Soon

The Third Annual Basket Ball Tournament for Girls will be held in the High School Gymnasium at Dickens starting Friday, December 9th.

A double elimination schedule will be played each team playing at least two games before being eliminated.

Room accommodations will be furnished free to the visiting players and coaches. Competent and experienced officials will be had. Appropriate trophies will be awarded the winning team and runner-up.

It is said that this is the first basket ball tournament to be held in West Texas before the first of the new year, and it is expected that many teams will accept the invitation to participate in the tournament.

Twenty-two teams were entered in the first girls' tournament at Dickens and sixteen quintettes competed there last year.

A very commodious 40x72 foot playing floor is afforded and the building will be well heated and lighted.

Dickens school authorities state that visiting teams are invited to bring their bands, pep squads and fans.

TRAPPERS NOW PREPARING FOR BUSY PART OF SEASON

Prominent Couple Married Last Week

Mr. Paul Bateman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bateman of Afton, and Miss Monna Mae Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Babe Berry of Spur, were married Saturday afternoon of last week at Altus, Okla. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dozier of Afton.

Mr. Bateman is a prominent young citizen of the Afton community and Mrs. Bateman is a very charming young woman and quite popular in Spur. She was employed for some time in Dr. M. H. Brannen's offices.

Calf Crop is Good
At Pitchfork Ranch

V. V. Parr, manager of the Pitchfork Ranch, was transacting business in Spur Monday. He stated that the Pitchforks are now rounding up and branding the fall calves and that the calf crop is the best of many years. From 3300 cows they will brand better than 3100 calves. This is indeed an excellent record and shows that the Pitchfork cattle are well taken care of.

Mr. Parr informed the News representative that while riding over the ranch near the highway recently he saw where nine camp fires had been made, none of which had been extinguished by those building the fires.

Such carelessness on the part of roadside fire-builders creates a hazard for the ranch folks that could easily cost them many thousands of dollars and even endanger life. The bounteous late summer and early fall rains produced a luxuriant growth of grass that has caused the pastures of the country to closely resemble hay meadows. Frost has killed the plant life and setting fire to this grass is almost like touching off a powder factory—the disastrous work is done in the twinkling of an eye. Let us all be more cautious with our fires. Protection of life and property urge us to be careful in this respect.

O. D. Cardwell, deputy game warden of Post, Texas, was in this vicinity this week "checking up on boys" and giving any information desired on the game laws to those interested in the hunting diversion. He stated that with the trapping season due to open December 1, many hunters and trappers in this section of Texas have begun to make inquiries about licenses, tags, etc.

The principal trapping area is in Dickens, Kent, Stonewall and King counties, where skunk, "coon," fox, badger and coyotes are the main game animals killed. "Coyotes and wild cats are not considered game animals but predatory animals and there is no closed season on them," Mr. Cardwell pointed out.

The trapping season lasts two months, December and January. A license to trap is necessary and state tags for shipping pelts also a necessity. These may be secured from state commission.

Last year according to Mr. Cardwell, more than 5,000 pelts were shipped from this area besides coyote pelts. The greater part are sent to Dallas and St. Louis. Mr. Cardwell estimates a total of 10,000 of all pelts were shipped from the area.

Some trappers make good money during the season. The country is rough, with plenty of woods and water.

While dinosaurs lived and died in OKLAHOMA

Mellowed 80 million years! Such is the history of the Cambro-Ordovician crude oil of Oklahoma which Sinclair refines and blends into Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil—a crude which was already ages old when dinosaurs fought above its hidden reservoirs. Opaline's superior lubricating quality owes much to Nature's age-long treatment, for Nature has filtered it free of impurities, reduced its carbon-forming content, and enhanced its lubricating quality. In process of refining Sinclair adds the crowning touch by de-waxing Opaline and freeing it from non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Try a crankcaseful of Sinclair Opaline—observe how little you have to add on long trips—note how it stands up in hard driving!

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Dickens County, Greeting: You are hereby commanded, that you summon by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Dickens if there be a newspaper published therein, if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, one in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day here, Ruby I. Dempsey, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the County of Dickens on the first Monday of December, A. D. 1932 (December 5, 1932) at the Court House thereof in Dickens, Texas, and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 28th day of July A. D. 1932, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1227, wherein T. C. Dempsey is plaintiff and Ruby I. Dempsey is defendant.

The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit: Plaintiff represents to the court that he is and has been for a period of 12 months prior to the exhibiting of this petition an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas and has resided in Dickens County for 6 months next preceding the filing of this suit; that on or about the 22nd day of March 1921, plaintiff was lawfully married to defendant; that they continued to live together as husband and wife until on or about the 15th day of April, 1926, when the defendant deserted plaintiff and moved to the State of California since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife. Plaintiff alleges that defendant said she would not live with plaintiff if he lived in small towns, and on or about the 15th day of April, 1926, defendant deserted plaintiff and that such actions and conduct toward him generally are of such a nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife insupportable, premises considered.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court for judgment dissolving said marriage relations for costs of suit and for such other and further relief in law and in equity that he may be justly entitled to.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Dickens, Texas, this 3rd day of November A. D. 1932. VIRGINIA WORSWICK, Clerk, District Court, Dickens County, Texas. 24t

TEXAS COTTON CROP IS HEAVY

Lubbock, Texas, Nov. 16.—The 1932 Texas cotton crop of 4,063,000 bales now in prospect will be 35 per cent of the total U. S. crop of 11,425,000 bales, according to an analysis of the recent government report as made by Dr. J. O. Ellsworth, head of the department of agriculture economics of Texas Technological College. Thirty-eight percent of the 36 million acres in the United States devoted to cotton are in Texas.

Texas yields of cotton for the past ten years average 126 lbs. per acre compared to 151 pounds for the entire nation. Florida with an average yield of 124 lbs. per acre is the only state with a lower yield than Texas, while California, Arizona, and New Mexico have an average yield of more than 300 pounds per acre. The 1932 yield prospect for Texas is 140 pounds compared to 149 for the entire cotton belt.

Texas is one of the 18 states whose crop yields for 1932 are above their ten year average, based on a period including 33 crops. The yields of all crops in Texas for 1932 are 101.7 percent of the ten year average. Thirty states show a decrease in yield, some as much as 21 percent.

Texas will produce in 1932, 57 percent of the grain sorghums grown in the United States. The total crop will be about 15 million bushels of which the Texas crop will account for about 67 million bushels.

MANY FARMERS MAKING PROFIT

CANNING FURNISHES CASH FOR THIS FAMILY

Clarendon.—To prove that truck farming and canning for market pay better than cotton growing, Mrs. June Taylor, Donning county farm home worker, this year canned 5502 containers of home raised food which she sold to 39 cash customers in five Panhandle towns, and to 24 other customers for whom she canned on shares. The demand exceeded her supply and all her cash customers have asked to have their orders filled again next year, according to Miss Martha Buttrill, home demonstration agent.

The canning receipts paid for canning equipment, two bank notes, doctor and drug bills, grocery and dry goods store bills, and some has been set aside for the children's education. With the exception of three weeks when a helper was hired, all the work was done by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, the children, and Mr. Taylor's aged mother.

Eighteen varieties of fruits, vegetables, pickles and meats were put up, and all were either raised on the Taylor farm or were traded for by exchanging home raised products. The demand for tomato juice and corn far exceeded Mrs. Taylor's supply and okra, which was not supposed to sell easily, proved a good seller.

The canning equipment consisted of a sealer, 25-quart and 18-quart pressure cookers, sieves, a food chopper, a pair of scales, and knives and pans. All the water had to be carried, and the stove was a wood burner.

Canton.—Seventy-three beehives were canned on Van Zandt county farms in October following 7 demonstrations attended by 300 people from 21 communities. Valued on foot at $12 each, the beehives filled 7227 cans valued at $1445.40 according to Mrs. Mary Ethel Brandon, home demonstration agent.

NEW SOIL BUILDING LEGUME LOOKS GOOD

Palestine.—Crotalaria, a new soil-building legume, is shoulder-high and has an estimated tonnage of 7 tons per acre on a three-acre field on the farm of Jack Cely in Pert community in Anderson county. In a plan for adding humus to some old, worn-out, deep sandy soil, Mr. Cely planted 4 pounds of crotalaria spectabilis seed per acre in 3-foot rows last May as a demonstration in cooperation with Mack McConnell, county agent. A light rain brought the seeds up and only one plowing was given, but for a long time it was a question whether the weeds or the crotalaria would win. A September rain, however, shot the crotalaria up to give a very heavy rich crop for turning under in preparation for a tomato crop next season.

PROFITS IN PIGS

Fort Worth.—Beatrice Cathcart, 4-H club member of Carroll Club in Tarrant county, has made a litter of 10 pigs weigh 2360 lbs. in five months and seven days at a feed cost of 1.32 cents per lb. in a demonstration with L. W. Stasney, assistant county agent. On a ration of ground wheat, corn, meal, protein supplement and skim milk fed for 85 days the pigs made a profit of $2.50 each.

Tarrant county 4-H club members have 300 pigs on feed for market and show next winter, Mr. Stasney says.

Guthrie.—Sudan grass yielded $9 per acre in grazing furnished beef calves in a demonstration by John Decker, King county 4-H club boy, who reports a gain of 180 pounds in 128 days on each of two senior calves. It took one acre of sudan grass per calf, and the calves could not be induced to eat any other feed during the period. When put in the feed lot for finishing, young Decker noticed that they went on feed more quickly than calves run on native pasture. Cline E. Morris, county agent, reports 15 calves on feed by club boys as a result of a profit of $12 made by one boy in a demonstration last year.

Among Texas 4-H club girls who have canned over 700 containers of food this year and who have bank accounts is Myrtle Morgan of Mt. Peak Club in Ellis county, who put up 832 qts. of food and who has $318 in the bank.

Taking over the entire management of the home flock of 34 hens last January, Alice Gregg, Floyd county 4-H club girl, has built a brooder house, repaired the chicken house, paid her father for the feed, raised 90 pullets of her own and reports a profit on it of $35.31.

In an effort to have every home demonstration club member help three other farm women not club members this year, 190 more farm families in Orange county have been assisted in canning 18,251 containers of fruit, meat and vegetables.

Members of the newly organized Uvalde county Livestock Shippers Association figure they netted 60 cents additional profit per hundred pounds of hogs, or $100 on a car sold cooperatively in September, the county agent reports.

Serving notice on the county agent last spring that never again would he bother with point rows but would plow straight over the terraces, J. W. Spencer of Randall county has had occasion to change his mind. His feed crop is fully 30 percent bigger than that on similar terraced land. He now plans to continue running the rows with the terraces.

Net profits of more than $14 per boy have been turned in to the county agent by nearly 100 of the 234 boys enrolled in 4-H club work in Van Zandt county.

After finding that it cost him $1.10 per acre to terrace his land with his own teams and equipment, W. C. Howard of McLennan county had the rest done with county road machinery at a cost of 70 cents per acre.

MATADORS ARE GOING STRONG

Lubbock, Texas, Nov. 16.—The Texas Tech Matadors are starting down the home stretch of the greatest season in the school's history as they work out for the game with the New Mexico Lobos at Albuquerque next Saturday, November 19. This is a Border States Athletic Conference game. Tech is not supposed in the coming fray to lose any of her standing of 1,000 per cent, although the New Mexicans are preparing to put up a strong fight.

The Lobos went down before the Matadors last year on the Tech field 32 to 7.

The game with Simmons University at Lubbock on November 24 will wind up the season for the Matadors. There is a good deal of unofficial talk regarding a post season game with some outstanding teams of the Southwestern Conference, and fans in West Texas are exceedingly anxious to see the scarlet clad warriors, who have already piled up a total of 331 points against their opponents, pitted against the country's best ball toters.

DOES IT PAY TO HOLD WHEAT?

(From NORTH DICKENS COUNTY NEWS)

Lubbock, Tex., Nov. 11.—Wheat prices rarely advance enough during crop moving season to pay for storage on the farm, according to Dr. J. O. Hsaworth, head of the department of agricultural economics in Texas Tech. College. Prices to Texas farmers have advanced from July to December in 17 of the past 24 years, declined in six of the 24 years, and remained the same one year. Excluding advances of 27 cents in 1914-15 in 1916, and 39 cents in 1914, the average has been eight cents over the five-month period from July to December.

Record low prices of 2 cents a bushel were paid farmers in West Texas on October 3, the same day that 44 cents, the lowest price in 70 years, was recorded in Chicago.

The increase in world shipments of wheat which usually get underway in August was delayed about one month this year, making the weekly average in October almost double that of August. Shipments are still below the level of the last two years.

The world crop will be slightly larger this year than last, and one quarter billion bushels will be produced in north hemisphere countries, an increase of one per cent over last year. The total European 1932 production is 75 million bushels larger than last year, which means less wheat will be imported.

That Janet bawled Charlie out—and on any and every occasion—but that she resents bitterly anyone else attempting to do so? That both seem to be inspired when together before the cameras?

That William K. Howard introduced Janet to Lydell Peck—her husband—over telephone?

That William K. Howard considered "The First Year" his happiest assignment?

That George Meeker was a featured player with Fox when Janet was first obtaining recognition?

That Minna Gombell once actually lived the part she portrays in "The First Year"?

That Mauda Eburne once played in musical comedy with Billie Burke?

That Leila Bennett created the role of Hattie in Frank Craven's original stage presentation of "The First Year"?

That "The First Year" is the first Gaynor-Farrell picture this year?

That it is the first modern characterizations they ever played, except in musical films?

That "The First Year" is considered the best of all Gaynor-Farrell romances?

Final Days OF Stokley Week

FRI. NOV. 18 and SAT. NOV. 19

The entire line of Stokely's Vegetables are approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau of Food, Sanitation & Health and each label bears the Seal of Approval.

All of Stokely's Vegetables are packed in golden enamel-lined cans and protected from specks, spots and discoloration.

Just a year ago we introduced Stokely's Finest Vegetables to Spur food buyers. And since then scores of carloads of Stokely's vegetables have been sold by our company. Judging from this immediate and widespread acceptance of Stokely's we are sure that many folks recognized that the words "Stokely's Finest" really mean just that.

We have had countless requests from our customers for another Stokley Week, and after several weeks' preparation, we are now ready to repeat this big event.
