Amazing Scenes Achieved With Deep Sea Camera

"HELL BELOW" DEPICTS SUBMARINE MANEUVERS NEAR OCEAN BOTTOM

"Hell Below," one of the outstanding photoplays will open Sunday night at the Palace Theatre following its successful long run at the Astor Theatre in New York. This is the much discussed Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer submarine drama, filmed with the cooperation of the United States Navy, and based in the story, "Pigboats," by Commander Edward Ellsberg.

Robert Montgomery heads the cast of the production and featured roles are played by Walter Huston, Madge Evans, Jimmy Durante, Eugene Pallette and Robert Young, with the supporting cast including Edwin Styles, John Lee Mahin, David Newell, Sterling Holloway and Charles Irwin. Many of the exterior sequences of "Hell Below" were made on location at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. Members of the cast, Director Jack Conway, and a large technical corps spent more than a month at Pearl Harbor photographing atmospheric and action scenes.

New York critics concede "Hell Below" to be the most thrilling marine drama yet to reach the screen, striking effects having been achieved for the first time by the use of new developments under sea photography, notable a novel camera operating with the aid of a periscope. The story is replete with engrossing action from start to finish, the camera depicting the plight of a submarine at the bottom of the sea with its engines dead and its crew apparently doomed, the battles between the undersea craft, and four destroyers who attempt to destroy the submarine with depth bombs, and the final hair raising episode in which the submarine laden with dynamite rams a fortress and thus blocks up the enemy sea base.

Underlying the adventures of the submarine crew is the tragic romance of a young lieutenant who falls in love with the daughter of his commander only to discover that she is already married to a crippled English aviator. The stirring emotional conflict of the plot is heightened by the antics of the inimitable Jimmy Durante the highlight of whose career is a boxing bout with a kangaroo.

McKay - Miller

Miss Malisa McKay and Mr. Raymond Miller were quietly married in the home of Mrs. Mattie McKay, the bride's mother, Sunday afternoon, December 31, 1933. Rev. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church, Stephenville, Texas, read the beautiful ceremony that made them man and wife. Only a few friends witnessed the occasion.

Miss Malisa was born and reared in Spur and is a very beautiful as well as an accomplished young lady. She graduated from Spur High School with the class of 1931 and also graduated in expression under Mrs. J. W. Henry, the same year.

Mr. Miller came to Dickens county about a year ago from Arizona and has made his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Croton community. Mr. Miller is a promising young man and has made many friends over the county since moving here.

Soon after the ceremony the happy couple left for Croton where they are to make their home for the present—Con.

The Texas Spur joins the many friends of this young couple in extending congratulations and best wishes.

To the Citizens of Dickens County

It is with pleasure that I place my name before the voters of this county as a candidate for the office of County Clerk.

I shall try to see every citizen in this county before election time.

I earnestly ask your consideration, influence and VOTE in the Democratic primary next July. I am

Your sincere friend,

She is survived by her husband, Tommie Sanders and three children.

J. B. McNerlin Died Thursday, Dec. 28

Funeral services were held at the home on North Miller, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock conducted by Rev. E. L. Yeats, pastor of the Spur Methodist Church and interment was made in the Spur Cemetery.

The Texas Spur joins the many friends in extending sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. McNerlin and little 4 year old Billie Brit.

E. A. Cochran Putting In Produce House Here

E. A. Cochran, with his family, is moving to Spur this week where he will engage in the produce business. Mr. Cochran's firm will represent Swift and Company in the buying of cream, besides a general line of produce and eggs. Furs will also be bought from the trappers of this territory.

Mr. Cochran comes to Spur from Snyder, Texas.

C. D. Knight Died At His Home In Abilene Wednesday, January 3

C. D. Knight died at his home in Abilene Wednesday morning following an illness of ten or twelve days.

C. D. Knight has been connected with the printing industry and publishing of newspapers at various places for the past 30 years or more, has served in every capacity from "printers devil" to editing and publishing a newspaper and for several years was employed by the Intertype Corporation as traveling salesman of this West Texas and Panhandle district.

Very recently he conducted subscription campaigns for the Munday Times, The Turkey Enterprise at which place he was taken ill, and the Dickens County Times, and no doubt formed many close friendships who will learn with regret of his passing.

Our first acquaintance with Mr. Knight dates back to the year of 1906 when he "stuck type" on the Eastland Chronicle, edited and published by my lamented husband, the late Oran McClure. Since which time Mr. Knight has always paid the Texas Spur force a friendly call each time he has had occasion to pass this way.

Funeral services will be held at Eastland, Thursday, January 4th at 2:30 o'clock. W. D. Starcher and Mr. Foster with whom Mr. Knight was associated in his most recent work at Spur and Turkey respectively will attend his funeral. Mr. Starcher was named as active pall bearer in which capacity he will serve.

Mrs. Knight, his widow, and son, C. D., Jr. an only child survive with whom we sympathize most sincerely.

23 YEARS AGO

Taken from the files of the Texas Spur, published 23 years ago this week. Oran McClure, editor and publisher.

County Commissioner L. G. Crabtree of north of Dickens was in Spur the latter part of last week and was a pleasant caller at the Texas Spur office. He brought in eggs to sell and was looking for that forty cent market heretofore mentioned in the paper. Eggs are only selling for thirty-five cents a dozen at the present time, but it is very probable that they will be forty and even fifty cents before the holiday season is past. The farmer who has plenty of eggs to sell is just as well fixed or a little better than the man who has plenty of cotton.

H. C. Parsons, of Tap country, was here the latter part of last week on business and while here handed in his name to a representative of the Texas Spur and hereafter will be a permanent reader of the paper. Mr. Parsons recently bought farm land in the Tap country and we wish him all the success possible.

Jesse Gregory Died Here December 29th

Jesse Gregory, 85, West Texas pioneer citizen died at the Nichols Hospital, Friday, December 29th following a year or more of declining health. He was a native Texan having been born in this state in 1848.

His home was at Swenson where he and family have lived the past thirty-four years and where his funeral services were held in the Church of Christ of which he was a consecrated member.

Rev. Smith, pastor of the Church of Christ of Spur conducted the funeral services at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, December 30th and interment was made in the Asperment Cemetery by the side of his wife who preceded him in death seven years ago.

He was the father of seven children, five of whom are living. They are Mrs. Will Gardner of Jayton; T. E. Gregory, of Spur; D. Gregory, of Antelope; Ollie Gregory, of Swenson, and Marion Gregory of Ft. Worth, all of whom were present except Marion who was not able to attend.

Jesse Gregory was a veteran soldier of sound principals and sterling character and it is through the hardships of pioneering of men of this type we are enjoying the advance civilization of today.

W. A. McKay, a prominent citizen of the Tap country, was here Monday on business.

L. N. Riter moved his family from Hamlin to Spur last week and is now a permanent and resident citizen with us.

T. G. Harkey and wife returned the first of the week from San Saba where they had been several days to attend the bedside of Mr. Harkey's father who died while they were there. Mr. Harkey's father was an old gentleman, nearing the three score and ten years limit of age, and although the call to that "Long Home" coming at this time was not unexpected, it is with regret that the Texas Spur chronicles the death and we extend sincere condolence to Uncle Tom and other relatives in their bereavement.

S. R. Davis spent Sunday at Dickens with his family returning Monday morning on the Dickens and Spur mail hack. Mr. Davis will probably move his family to Spur within the next few months.

Messrs. Love, Predaux, Coon, Lowedy and McGill spent Sunday at the home of Chas. Windham, twelve miles northeast of Dickens. They report having spent the day most pleasantly and in one of the most hospitable homes of the country. Mr. Windham is one of the most substantial citizens of Dickens county. Tom McArthur and Mr. Fuqua of the lower Red Mud country, were in Spur Tuesday with cotton which was sold on the Spur market. Tom says he intends to plant a hundred acres in cotton next year and about fifty in feed stuff.

W. J. Duncan, a prosperous citizen and business man of Draper, was in Spur Monday on business and reports everything all o. k. in his section of the country.

The Spur Security Bank Succeeds The Spur Nat'l Bank

The Spur Security Bank succeeded the Spur National Bank on December 29th—the change of name being made necessary by a decision of the stockholders to hereafter operate under a charter from the State of Texas.

Those doing business with the bank will not be aware of any change, except the word "Security" instead of "National," since the officers, directors and clerical force are exactly the same. The entire assets of the Spur National were transferred to the Security Bank. The same friendly service and courteous attention to customers, which has always characterized the Spur National, will continue to be in evidence.

We have never felt the necessity of guaranteeing our deposits, but, in deference to a growing demand of the general public in areas beyond our own territory and throughout the Nation for guarantee of deposits, the deposits of Spur Security Bank will be insured under the State Guaranty system in the ratio established by the National Government.

A self-explanatory statement of the condition of the new institution appears in this issue, showing local deposits of more than five times outstanding loans which reflect the splendid condition of the Spur country.

We attribute the successful operation of the affairs of the bank during the three lean years and the worst depression we have ever witnessed, to the fine spirit of co-operation which has always existed between the bank and its customers.

Spur Security Bank

Suggs - Kizziah

A marriage which united two of Spur's most prominent young people was solemnized Friday, December 22, at the home of Justice of Peace and Mrs. W. M. Malone, when Mr. Malone read the vows and united in marriage, Miss Jessie Bell Suggs and Mr. Jack Kizziah.

Mrs. Kizziah is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Suggs of two miles southwest of Spur. She is a Senior in Spur High School and is an accomplished and popular young lady.

Mr. Kizziah is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Kizziah of South Carolina and is a young man of highest integrity and business ability.

Miss Johnnie Suggs, sister of the bride, Miss Essie Hayward, Mrs. Kate Smith and Mrs. Bill Kizziah, close friends of the couple accompanied them and witnessed the ceremony.

They will make their home on Hill Street in the Buchanan Apartments and Mrs. Kizziah will return to school.

Jordan - Marshall

Miss Evelyn Jordan and Clay Marshall, two prominent young people of their respective communities, were united in marriage Saturday night, December 29, at Matamor, in the presence of a few relatives and friends who accompanied them to witness the marriage ceremony.

Evelyn is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jordan of the Steel Hill community and is a young lady of charming personality and has the attributes of a successful wife and home maker.

Clay Marshall is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Marshall of Duck Creek and is a young and successful farmer.

This marriage unites two of the oldest and most prominent families in their respective communities.

The Texas Spur extends congratulations and may your joys be many and your adversities few.

Misses Attie Jewel and Carolyn Laney, Spanish and English teachers of Lovington, N. M., High School were guests of the latter parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Laney, during the holidays.

Name of Spur Bank Changed This Week

Crowning the commendable achievement of staunchly weathering what has been perhaps one of the most crucial financial periods in the history of the United States, the Spur National Bank this week makes the voluntary change to a State of Texas Charter with guaranteed depositor-safety—showing on deposit at this change more than a million dollars.

The bank hereafter will go forward under the name of "The Spur Security Bank," as voted by the board of directors at a recent meeting, without changes in its splendid service nor in the efficient personnel.

Three grim years of crop failures, unbalanced conditions of marketing, and unsteady wage scales, have shaken to some extent the confidence of the people in their financial institutions. A series of bank failures in parts of the country in the near past has given some reason to alarm, and at times has given impetus to the sweeping difficulties. The Spur Security Bank has not hungered for public confidence, and in this issue of the Texas Spur gives its financial standing, which enlarges the fact that it has been meritorious. The public is deserving of credit, and likewise President W. E. Lee, who has stood at the helm and manned affairs with a system of safe, creditable banking warranting confidence and depositor-faith. The Spur Security has been one of the bulwarks of Spur business; while it was weathering the depression it was also growing into the future—into the Spur of today.

A bank in this territory with its deposit mark above a million dollars does not apparently need "guaranteed deposits," but The Spur Security Bank, in wishing to serve its clientele to the fullest degree, in desiring to recognize and extend publicly its gratitude to the people of this territory, has instituted this change as a pledge of cooperation in its business dealings of the future.

As this loan of books is for a period of only three months it is necessary for us to begin using them at once if we are to get the full benefit of them.

In order to build up the Library as much as possible donations are solicited. One of the outstanding needs of Dickens County is for more books. If you have a good book that you can put at our disposal it will be greatly appreciated. If you want the book returned arrangements will be made to take care of that also. Many of us have books that would mean a lot to other people. If we have books that we can spare let's say to them as we send them out for circulation: "Go, little booklet

Let the car speak for itself

HUNDREDS of thousands of people now own and drive Ford V-8 cars. Some neighbor or friend of yours has one. If we told you what we think of the car, you might say we are prejudiced, so we let the car and its owner tell you.

Economy of operation is one of the first points they will emphasize—the owner will boast of it and the car will prove it.

The 1934 car is even better than the 1933—and that was our best car up to its time. The new car is more beautiful—faster—more powerful—gives more miles to the gallon—better oil economy—is easier riding—cheaper to own and operate than any car we ever built.

You owe it to yourself and your pocketbook to ask our Ford Dealer to let you see this car, and let you drive it for yourself. At the wheel of the car you will be sure to reach a right decision. The Ford V-8 will tell you its own story.

Jack Williams, editor and publisher of the Waycross (Ga.) Journal-Herald, says:

"Newspaper advertising is the Did You ever stop to think of strong right arm of business. American business supremacy is the result of fine ideals, energy and printer's ink. Advertising is the win of salesmanship. Never are they separated. Every business profession or vocation uses them in some form.

"The mainspring of all business is advertising—and printing is the voice that carries the message to its market. You call upon printing to establish confidence and good will; to create the desire to buy.

"An exchange tells the story of a boy who took some rabbits to market and returned that night foot sore and weary without having made one sale. His mother inquired why he had not made any sales, and his reply was that no one had inquired what he had in his bag.

"Almost a quarter of a century ago A. F. Pears, the famous English soapmaker, was spending about one-quarter of a million dollars annually for advertising. His annual sales ran into the millions and Pears' soap became known throughout the civilized world.

"About this time the directors of the company decided that since the concern was selling the entire output, the advertising could be dispensed with and it was accordingly stopped. Within six months the company lost 35 per cent of its total business and it cost 6,500,000.00 to get it back to where they left off advertising.

"This illustrates the memory of the public and the practical value of uninterrupted advertising.

"Advertising at the present time is on the threshold of far more daring and wonderful things."

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS

(CLARA PRATT, H. D. A.)
The New Year has come and with it many prophecies concerning its cargo and many resolutions on our part. With each new year comes new joys and expectations. Most of us feel a tiny regret as the old year passes when we think of the joys and sorrows it has brought. Yet, there are compensations. We cannot make the same mistakes again; our weakness of yesteryear are behind us.

With the passing of the years we realize how short life is—we must be long on deeds of kindness. Any kindness we can do, any love that we can show, must be done quickly.

Many people think of New Year's as a time for making resolutions. Each day is a new beginning; so one need not wait until the new year to resolve to do better. As we make our resolutions for 1934 I am sure each one could truly make this one his own:

"Another New Year is at hand; another year is done; Another milestone has too quickly passed.

And as I journey onward toward life's final setting sun I wonder if this year will be the last.

I do not contemplate with fear whatever lies before; I do not grieve for what is left behind;

I only ask for wisdom to increase my present store
Oh cheer and happiness and peace of mind.

So I greet this New Year with a pledge that I will make Every effort to be kind and wise and true
And may I not be charged with selfish, negligent mistake
When my final sun has set and life is through."

Most of us are striving to make that wish true in our lives. We want our lives to be a blessing to humanity. I like to think on the old year, now that the new year is new, and think how I kept all my old friends and made a new one or two.

FAREWELL '33 WELCOME '34

Shout "Happy New Year," loud and clear.

Bring "Thirty-four" in with a ringing cheer.

Big farewell to "Thirty-Three," As the hoary year in vain doth flee. As the cycle of time mows down the years

We recall many days with brimming tears.

But every year seems quite the same And life is but a losing game.

And everyone in his own way Will come to the end of the road some day.

But as the end of the year draws nigh,

How we regret to say good bye.

But happy shouts will ring out loud As the old year lays wrapped in its shroud.

And the new year pokes a smiling face

Right into the feeble old years place. So bid farewell to this year A. D. Nineteen-hundred and Thirty-three,

But welcome the new one at your door

Young Nineteen-hundred and Thirty-four,

Sing "Happy New Year," loud and long,

Till the houstops echo your ringing song.

Welcome the "New Year" with great cheer,

And bid farewell to the "passing" year.
