By Kerry Craig

Well, things are heating up again in the un-holy war on pray tv.

Now it seems that Jerry doesn't want PTL and Jim wants it back. Pat still wants the White House and Oral says to heck with it.

With all the accusations being pitched about, two things are possible. Either someone is going to create a television soap opera (edited of course) or all the claims and evidence of wrongdoing will end up in some official report that will rival the multi-volume report on porn in the U.S. by the U.S. Attorney General as a best seller—in adult book stores, of course.

All this bunk may just be what it takes to convince some folks that have been sending money to God and that they have had the wrong address all the time.

By the way, Don-Ballinger Chamber of Commerce honcho-Bethany, used his unlisted phone to call the Winters Chamber of Commerce Monday to suggest a challenge race for his raft and one (if somebody would build it) from here.

After his raft placed fifth in a race with only four rafts in it, and then only with an assist from a motor boat, he could be trying to save face.

There could be a slight problem, however, since we don't have a creek handy for such a race—but then, he may have taken that into consideration, too.

You have to hand it to Don and Rick and the other master raft craftsmen. They knew their craft. Why else would they build it with an outhouse on board?

With a craft capable of such speed and with an outhouse on-board, they don't have to make bathroom stops while they are crossing a swimming pool.

If anyone is interested in accepting the challenge, give me a call. Maybe we can get a special day set aside for the great Runnels Raft Race Challenge.

Who knows, the day just might become a national holiday.

I don't think anyone besides that crew from the other end of Elm Creek would need a whole day for a race. Shucks, we might do it on a lunch break or coffee break.

Seriously. If you want to accept the taunt and build a racing raft, let me know and we will get the ball rolling—uh, the raft paddling.

As we all know, the annual MayFest is this Saturday. There will be bunches of things to do at the park. Food to eat, games to play, people to see, and lots of fun.

Events will range from chas-ing greased pigs to chunking water balloons—and a tug o war if enough folks will sign up for it, otherwise, there just won't be one.

Something you don't want to miss will be the Health Fair to be held in conjunction with the MayFest. Folks from the hospital and the ambulance service will be there to check you out, from head to toe.

See you at the MayFest Saturday.

Umpires needed!

The Winters Little League Association will hold a meeting on Thursday, April 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Hospitality Room of the Winters State Bank.

This meeting is for anyone interested in umpiring our games this season. If you are willing to help—please come to this meeting or contact Scotty Belew at 743-8972.

The deadline for Pre-Kindergarten registration will be May 8, for the 1987-88 school year. Please register in the Elementary principal's office.

Lots of folks

The banks of Elm Creek were lined with spectators Saturday and Sunday for the first-ever raft race, a part of the annual Ethnic Festival in Ballinger.

Estimates placed the number attending the festival at over 1,000 on both Saturday and Sunday. This marked the first time the festival has been held in the Ballinger City Park, in past years the event has been located on the Courthouse Square in Ballinger.

MayFest '87 this Saturday

Special dedication ceremonies will open the 1987 Winters MayFest. The opening ceremonies will include a rededication of the Winters City Park and re-name the park Ted Meyer Park.

The Winters High School Stage Band will provide music for the opening ceremonies and will then present a 30-minute concert from the gazebo to begin the day-long musical entertainment.

Saturday, at the MayFest, will be chock-full of activities—Hog Calling The contest will begin at 11:00 a.m. at the gazebo. On hand, to conduct the contest, will be 'Big Country' celebrity Scott Michaels, the morning 'personality' for KFQX 102FM in Abilene, and chairman Brent Mikeska. Entries will be taken up to starting time.

Pet Show The Pet Show will begin at 10:30 a.m. with Ginny Smith as chairperson. Other entertainers performing during the day will be Cindy Jobe from Cisco, Blaine Lilly, the First Baptist Choir, two piano students of Susan Conner, Mary Slimp School of Dance students, Brenna Mikeska, Natasha Smith, The Bluff Creek Discords Band, and others. Renae Calcote and Donna Guy co-chair the entertainment.

Food booths will include hamburgers by the Cafeteria Ladies, funnel cakes and sausage on a stick by the Winters Rodeo Association, chicken nugget plate by the VFW Ladies Auxiliary, pies by the slice by the Assembly of God Church, brownies by the Literary and Service Club, chalupas by Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, barbeque plates by the Suez Shrine Greeters of San Angelo, German burritos by the Cub Scouts of Pack 249, pop-corn and candy and chewing gum by the Senior High Cheerleaders, cotton candy by the High School Band Twirlers, ice cream and cookies by the 1st. Baptist Youth, Sno cones by the Lions Club, and fajitas by the Women's Service League.

Games to enjoy include the Kid's Korner with games for smaller children by the Chamber of Commerce and chaired by Betty and Carl Grenwelge, a water balloon sling-shot by Runnels County Crimestoppers, a soccer ball kick by the Winters Area Soccer Association, sling-shot target game by the Lutheran Church, a dunking booth by the WHS Band Flag Corps, a greased pig catch and the Tug O' War by the Total Teens, and face painting by the Sub Deb girl's club.

Original arts and crafts will be sold inside the Community Center by a number of craft-people including Mary Kay (Bauer) Mjos, of Austin; Frank White of San Angelo; Linda Wooten, of Buffalo Gap; Jo White and Danise Wills, of Abilene; Elda Barnett, of Coleman; John Murr of San Angelo; (See MayFest page 10)

Senate OKs Ballinger hospital bill

The Senate on Friday passed a bill that would allow the Ballinger Memorial Hospital District to levy property taxes and sell bonds to finance the hospital budget.

The bill by Sen. Grant Jones, D-Temple, creates a district to support the hospital, which had previously relied on county and city tax revenue, said Jim Yancy, Jones' legislative aide. The bill now goes to the House where Jones expects easy passage.

Yancy said the hospital board asked for district status because county and city contributions to the hospital fell short of expenses.

"They're getting to a point rapidly where they're not breaking even because of indigent health care responsibilities and other factors," he said.

The bill also will end the difficult process of deciding how much the city and county should pay to the hospital, he said.

The Ballinger City Council and the Runnels County Commissioners Court support the measure, he said.

Sibley named to air panel

Henry A. Sibley of Winters was named Wednesday by Gov. Bill Clements to the Texas Aeronautics Commission for a term to end Feb. 1, 1993.

Sibley is a former Air Force jet fighter pilot and was most recently involved in the oil properties business. From 1962-1970 he was executive director of the Louisiana Sovereignty Commission.

Band Boosters to hold meeting May 4

The Winters Band Boosters will meet Monday, May 4 at 7 p.m. in the Band Hall.

All members and anyone interested are urged to attend.

Winters Lions Club to hold annual Broom and Mop Sale

The Winters Lions Club will conduct an all-out drive on Friday, May 1, 1987 to sell quality Blind Made Merchandise to residents and local businesses. All of these items are manufactured by blind and visually-impaired workers in the Lighthouses for the Blind.

The entire membership of the Lions Club has been organized to supply friends and neighbors with these quality items. The Broom and Mop Sale will be located at the Super Duper parking lot, on North Main, where citizens may purchase directly from the Caravan truck beginning at 7 a.m. or from Lions Club members making door to door sales after 5 p.m.

Sales of Blind Made Merchandise in previous years have been very successful and the members of the Winters Lions Club expresses its confidence in reaching a new all-time goal this year. "Every home and business can use some of these cleaning aids, and every item purchased helps to provide dignity and the security of regular employment for our Blind citizens." Thank you for your support.

Investigations continue into sonic booms

Officials of the Federal Aviation Administration and the U. S. Air Force said Monday that an investigation is underway into the recent reports of sonic booms that have rattled Runnels County over the past several weeks.

The most recent sonic boom was reported by businesses and residents in Ballinger last Friday afternoon. That boom, according to Ballinger Police Chief Paul Boggess, was a "double boom" that rattled a number of plate glass windows.

Lt. Col. William Wilhelmie, an Air Force liaison officer in Ft. Worth assigned to the F.A.A. said that by early this week his office had been unable to determine what type of aircraft was responsible for the booms, which are created when an aircraft exceeds the speed of sound.

Wilhelmie's office is responsible for flight operations in a five-state region. The officer said that there are a number of super sonic airplanes in the military and that all flights in his area of responsibility are coordinated through his office.

The officer confirmed that military aircraft, capable of super-sonic speeds, were used in an area over Brownwood and Lake Brownwood but super sonic flight was prohibited.

He also said that there were two photo-recons routes that crossed Runnels County. These routes are flown by the RF-4, a plane capable of such speed, but not at the extremely low altitude specified on the training route—below 1,500 feet.

One of the routes crosses U. S. 83 just south of Hatchell and the other curves around south of Ballinger.

One wild shrub that I like very much is the Ceniza, also called Purple Sage, that grows in the country, usually on the hillsides. It stands out because of its light-grey leaves, and immediately after a rain, large masses of violet or pinkish blossoms appear almost miraculously on this many-branched shrub.

I had two of these bushes on the farm and bought another after we moved to town. It grew well for a number of years and finally died. Last year it was replaced with three good sized Cenizas, but two of them expired immediately and one lived on for several months. Perhaps they were pampered too much or some poison used on nut grass came too close.

There are several types of wildflowers in my yard that have not been identified, but I've only touched on the subject. If I continue studying, maybe I can be like Ferdinand Lindheimer who came to America from Germany in 1833. Several members of the Runnels County Historical Commission visited New Braunfels in 1976 to attend a preservation conference, and we toured Lindheimer's home that is maintained as a house-museum by the New Braunfels Conservation Society.

Lindheimer served in the Texas Army and acted as scout for German Colonists in Texas, he settled in New Braunfels on the Comal River in 1845.

As an avid student of plant life, he spent many months alone in the wilderness gathering and preserving specimens of wildflowers between pieces of silk-tissue. He was one of the first to apply scientific classification to the Texas flora, and to provide large herbariums with preserved examples of them. His name appears in more than 30 scientific names of flowers. He was recognized by the leading botanists of the times. Sometimes called the "Father of Texas Botany."

Gold In Your Backyard

It has been a sad awakening to learn that the weeds I've been trying to destroy in my yard all these many years are not weeds at all, but beautiful Texas wildflowers.

This was brought home when I began the study of wildflowers in order to discuss the subject intelligently with others. How embarrassing to ride down the highway and be unable to identify the fields of gorgeous colored plants along the way. Shouldn't a good Texan be familiar with his state?

Just think of all the work I've wasted; chopping, pulling and poisoning these plants. And to no avail. They seem to be more prolific each year especially the Texas Dandelion.

What a golden opportunity I've missed to conduct a wildflower festival or tour in my own back yard. Since the dandelions are so plentiful—why not a Dandelion Trail? We have the Bluebonnet Trail, the Azalea Trail and others.

The dandelion is a member of the daisy family with more than 20,000 members, this is the largest family of flowering plants, and we know why. The bright-yellow flowers are a common sight in the spring and right pretty, but when the flower-heads mature, oh, boy! The seeds, attached to feathery "parachutes", are carried into the wind, a very effective method of seeding.

Every morning when I go out to pick up the newspaper, I pull the yellow heads off all the nights crop, but the next morning there are little fuzzy balls waving in the wind, and the damage has been done. There will be another full crop.

On second thought, a Dandelion Trail would not be feasible since my next best crop is the Goat-Head. Its flower of five yellow petals blooms from March to October, but it has painfully sharp burrs, as one knows who steps on it. Aply called the "puncture weed", the vine trails closely along the ground on West Texas prairies and yards as well.

Other prize plants in my yard include the Texas Thistle, so spiny that one can't pull it by hand; a milkweed plant, that oozes a sticky white fluid when broken; and queen anne's lace. It has wide clusters of tiny white flowers and "seed ticks" that stick to clothing and to the fur of passing animals. Try getting these ticks out of clothing. They don't even wash out.

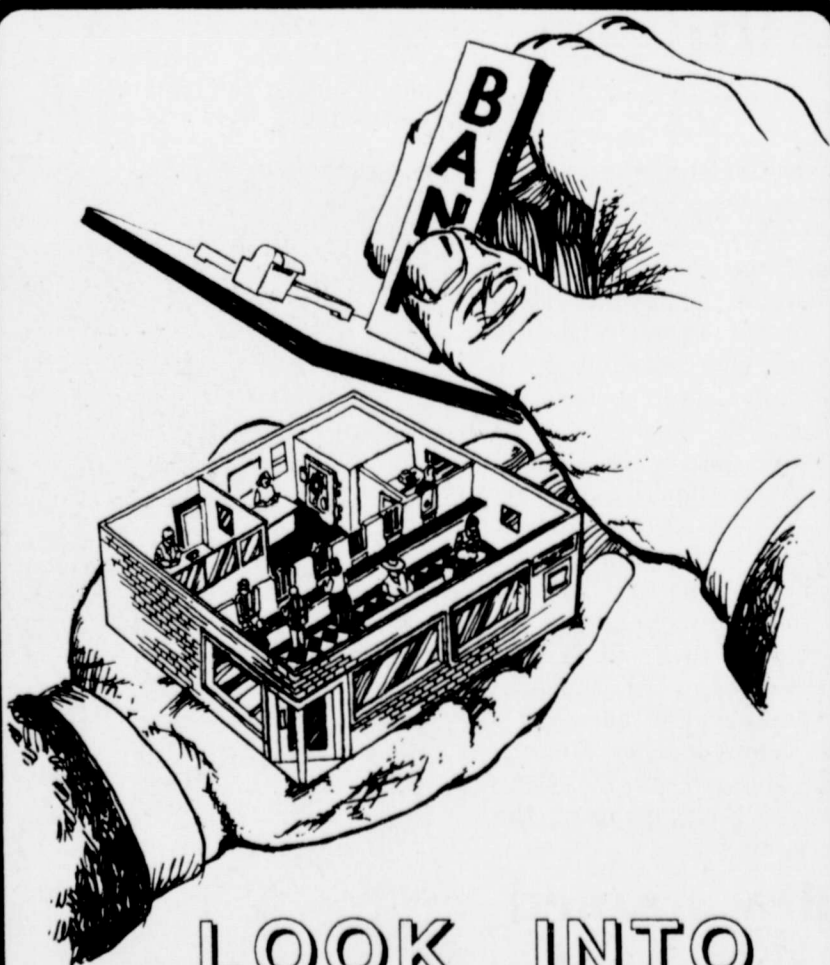

I finally learned that Henbit is the name of the purple flowered plant, growing low on the ground and taking over my lawn.

Perhaps I could be a second

Anemia can be a problem for elders too

Most of us think of anemia as a nutritional problem of young women and children. But if you're over 65, it could be a problem for you too and one cause for feeling a lack of energy.
Anemia isn't a normal part of aging, yet it's very common among older people. Sometimes it's the result of physical conditions or certain drugs that cause internal bleeding. But usually it's due to not eating enough iron-rich foods.

Meat, fish, and poultry are especially good sources of iron.
Slice these foods very thin, if you don't like chewing meats.
Also, eating a food high in vitamin C, such as a cup of orange juice, with your meat will help your body absorb iron.
If you're one of those people who snacks on tea or coffee and toast, rather than fixing yourself meals, anemia could be a special risk. There are only small amounts of iron in bread, and substances in tea and coffee may reduce iron absorption.

Breakfast cereals can be a good way to get some extra iron in your diet. But you need to check the label on the box to make sure it says iron fortified.
Some other vegetable and grain foods have iron too. Try stewed prunes or prune juice, lima beans, tofu, spinach or split pea soup. These foods also have fiber which will be a plus for your diet.

Watch what you eat and anemia is one dietary problem you may avoid.

The following list of foods may be helpful for persons who need to increase food sources of iron. Foods are grouped by heme iron and non-heme iron food sources. Heme iron is the more absorbable form of iron.

Heme Iron Sources	mg	Non-Heme Iron Sources	mg
Liver, pork, 3 1/2 oz.	18.0 mg	Dried apricots, cooked, 1/2 c.	4.1 mg
Liver, calf, 3 1/2 oz.	10.6 mg	Dried prunes, cooked, 1/2 c.	2.3 mg
Liver, chicken, 3 1/2 oz.	7.4 mg	Raisins, 2 tbsp.	.7 mg
Liver, beef, 3 1/2 oz.	6.6 mg	Dates, 2 tbsp.	.7 mg
Oysters, 3 1/2 oz.	8.1 mg	Spinach, 1/2 c.	2.0 mg
Clams, 3 1/2 oz.	7.5 mg	Broccoli, 1/2 c.	.6 mg
Beef, 3 oz.	2.9 mg	Assorted greens, 1/2 c.	1.2 mg
Lamb, 3 oz.	1.5 mg	Blackstrap molasses, 1 tbsp.	3.2 mg
Pork, 3 oz.	2.5 mg	Dried beans and lentils, cooked, 1/2 c.	2.5 mg
Veal, 3 oz.	2.7 mg	Enriched/whole grain bread, 1 slice	.3 mg
Turkey, 3 oz.	4.4 mg	Enriched/whole grain cereal, 1 cup	.6 mg
Chicken, 3 oz.	1.4 mg
Egg Yolk, one	.9 mg

Claude E. Hendrix

Claude E. Hendrix, 54, one of Taylor County's most decorated Vietnam veterans, died Thursday at an Abilene hospital. He was a 1950 graduate of South Taylor High School (Jim Ned) and attended Schreiner College for two years before entering the U.S. Marine Corps. He was one of the first helicopter gunship pilots in Vietnam, volunteering for training in the unproven type of warfare in 1966. Until then, he had flown fighter aircraft and served as an instructor in the Naval Flight School in Pensacola, Fla.

He became a legend among Vietnam gunship pilots, racking up 494 missions, many of them deep into enemy territory. As far as it has been determined, he is the only aircraft commander to capture enemy soldiers on the ground while he was on a mission in his aircraft.

For his service in Vietnam, he received the Distinguished Flying Cross, Naval Commendation Medal with combat V., 24 Air Medals for combat flights and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with silver star.

He served as commander of helicopter squadrons in Vietnam and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and of a training group in Jacksonville, N.C. He retired in 1975 and returned to Tuscola with his family.

Services are pending at Fry Funeral Home in Tuscola.

Ground beef color and safety

You may not need to throw out that raw ground beef that turned brown after a day or two in the refrigerator. According to Mary Kinney Sweeten, a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist, the color of ground meat is determined by the amount of oxygen with which it has come into contact. So brown hamburger may be as safe as pink hamburger. However, she says it's a good idea to keep raw ground beef in the refrigerator no longer than two days. Don't use the meat if it has an off odor or was left unrefrigerated for a time.

Beef Short Course set August 10-12

Producing beef that is acceptable to the consuming public today and in the future will be the thrust of a Beef Cattle Short Course at Texas A&M University, August 10-12. Theme of the two-day educational activity will be "Beef: Gearing Up for the '90s," notes a meats specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Short course subjects should be of interest to a broad audience of beef producers, feeders, packers, retailers, health professionals and consumers.

St. John's Lutheran Preschool held Closing Program for three year olds

Closing Program for the St. John's Lutheran Preschool three year old class was held Thursday, April 23, 1987 in the Fellowship Hall of St. John's Lutheran Church at 7 p.m.

The Fellowship Hall was decorated in a Spring theme. Birds, butterflies, and caterpillars, the children had made were flying, lighting, and crawling around. Each child had made his or her mother a corsage and a hand print picture for their father. The serving table was decorated with white cloths, with yellow candles surrounded by white daisies, crystal punch bowls filled with yellow punch and yellow napkins. Programs were decorated with a picture of a small boy and girl walking on a spring day with colored balloons.

Mary Kurtz, school director and teacher, welcomed the guests and Rev. Stephen Byrne led the group in prayer.

The children opened their program with their weekly prayer and welcome song. They asked the audience to join them in the Pledge to the United States of America Flag and the song "God Bless America". The children then presented rhymes and songs accompanied by Melinda Hoppe at the piano for parents, grandparents, other family members and friends.

Mary Kurtz then presented each child with a "Certificate of Attendance." As each child walked across the stage and received their certificate they presented Mrs. Kurtz with a long stem carnation, making a bouquet of 23 red, pink and white flowers.

Tammy Dunlap, assistant teacher and Chairperson of the Preschool Parent Committee, was introduced. Minnie Belitz, Refreshment Assistant, was recognized. Committee Members-at-Large, Nadine Bed-

Northrup King Forage and Grazing Sorghums

TRUDAN 8
True sudan palatability means your cattle will eat up Trudan 8. Fast starting Trudan 8 keeps on producing through long, hot summers and gives you quality grazing, hay or greenchop. It has low prussic acid potential. Its resistance to Biotype C greenbugs makes Trudan 8 a dependable forage producer. Well adapted where sudan grass is normally grown.

SORDAN 79
Here's an excellent choice for your emergency forage crop. NK's Sordan 79 hybrid sorghum sudangrass has inbred hybrid vigor for fast growth. And heavy soils pose no problems for Sordan 79. It has greenbug (Biotype C) and downy mildew resistance, plus drought tolerance. The high quality of Sordan 79 makes it a top choice for grazing, hay or greenchop. Well adapted where sorghum or sudangrass are normally grown.

MILLEX 24
Millex 24 is a Northrup King hybrid pearl millet annual summer forage specially developed for growing conditions in the deep South. It produces lush, leafy, tender forage that is extremely high in TDN. It can thrive on sandy soils in hot, dry or humid weather. Millex 24 is adapted to well-drained, sandy soils with a pH range of 5.8 to 6.5 and supplies quick, high tonnage and high quality forage for all classes of cattle. Surplus Millex 24 can make excellent silage or greenchop. Under hot, dry weather conditions, forage tonnage from Millex 24 has exceeded 6 tons of dry forage per acre.

8th Grade Boys District Champs

The Winters 8th Grade Boys track team was crowned Jr. High District Champs at the Gordon Wood Stadium Saturday. The guys ran extremely well and there were a number of personal best turned in at the meet. I had explained to them that by running in tough competition in tune-up meets would increase our competitive edge when district rolled around and this was the case. We knew Bangs was going to give us a lot of problems because they also had an excellent outfit.

Michael Thornhill opened the meet for us in great fashion, as he threw the shot 48'6" and the discus 119'9 3/4" to place first in both events. As the field events progressed we were able to hold our own and as they finished, we had a 39 point to 38 point lead over Bangs. Marc Woffenden helped us increase our lead to four points by placing 4th in the 2-Mile Run. Bangs then tied the meet with a win in the 400 Relay as the Breezes placed 2nd. Doug Farmer turned in a great performance in the 800 Run by placing 3rd ahead of Bangs and our lead was again 1 point. We placed 2nd, 4th, and 6th in the 100 Meter which enabled us the move ahead. This was led by Willie Belk's personal best of 11.89.

The turning point of the meet came when Michael Ramon ran a tremendous 56.82 400 Dash added with Scottie Rodriguez (59.73) and Timothy Torres (60.10) to enable us to move to a 15 point lead with four events to go. To top the meet off our mile relay team ran a personal best of 3:54.06 to win 1st place and insure a Winters victory.

RONdom thoughts

"Doubts Can Be Good"

My favorite of all Jesus' disciples is Thomas.

Thomas, who must have been from Missouri because of his "Show Me!" attitude.

Thomas, the skeptic—if, as some wit has said, "A skeptic is a person who would ask God for his I.D. Card."

Thomas, the universal disciple. The disciple whose characteristics seem to show up in contemporary Christian disciples everywhere.

This hard-headed doubter—this honest questioner—this hungering seeker—this Thomas is the kind of guy with whom I can readily identify.

I can learn something about doubt from Thomas.

First, that all of us have doubts.

Frederick Buechner says, "If you don't have any doubts you are either kidding yourself, or you are asleep."

Who of us has not been tempted to pray the prayer of the skeptic, "O Lord—if there is a Lord; save my soul—if I have a soul."

My doubts are often like Woody Allens. Wood says, "If only God would give me some clear sign! Like making a large deposit in my name at a Swiss bank."

We all have doubts just like Thomas. But we need to remember that Thomas' doubts are never equated with lack of faith. Just because he has doubts is no sign that Thomas is to be deserted by his friends the disciples, or by his Lord Jesus.

This leads to the second thing I learn about doubt from Thomas—doubts are not automatically bad. There are not always sinful and evil. Doubts can be good. The can be positive factors in leading us to a deeper faith.

To quote Frederick Buechner again: "Doubts are the ants in the pants of faith. They keep it awake and moving."

"One of Thomases great virtues," writes William Barclay, "was that he absolutely refused to say that he understood what he did not understand, or that he believe what he did not believe."

"There is an uncompromising honesty about him. He would never still his doubts by pretending that they did not exist. He was not the kind of man who would rattle off a creed without understand what it was all about."

Then Barclay quotes Tenneyson, "There lives more faith in honest doubt, believe me, than in half the creeds."

There is more ultimate faith," continues Barclay, "in the person who insists on being sure than in the person who glibly repeats things which he has never thought out, and which he may not really believe. It is doubt like that which in the end arrives at certainty."

Dostoevski testified to this same truth when reflecting on the growth occasioned by doubt in his life, he once exclaimed, "My Hosannas were forged in the crucible of doubt."

Doubts are good when the lead us in a search for truth. Doubts are good when they drive us to find answers. Doubts are good when they lead us to faith.

That is the lesson we can learn from the man who is known to us as "Doubting Thomas", but who is also known as "Saint Thomas."

Warner Forage Sorghum Hybrids

WARNER 2-WAY

A dual purpose grain and forage type hybrid sorghum, quicker maturing and shorter than most silage sorghums. Semi-sweet, juicy stalks, leafy and palatable. High grain yields with adequate moisture, fertility and proper thickness of stand. Thicker planting produces more leaf and less grain. Hay produced by 2-Way is heavy, leafy, palatable and of excellent quality. Makes an excellent late summer, fall or winter graze out crop, and all parts of the plant are readily consumed by livestock.

WARNER SWEET BEE

A medium maturing grain producing forage sorghum hybrid. Juicy and sweet stalks. Adaptable for both irrigated and natural rainfall areas. Medium height. Sweet Bee was developed to serve as a forage replacement for hegari, sumac and other sweet sorghums. Excellent for green chop, ensilage, and hay as well as summer or winter graze out.

WARNER SUCROSSE

A sorgo-sudangrass hybrid that makes excellent grazing and hay. Seedlings get off to a fast start and regrowth is rapid after grazing or cutting. Sucrosse has a vigorous root system and makes efficient use of moisture and fertilizer. Both parents are sweet and Sucrosse is truly sweet, fine-stemmed and palatable.

Preschool graduation held at St. John's Lutheran Church

St. John's Lutheran Preschool had their Graduation Program at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 24, 1987 in the Fellowship Hall of the St. John's Lutheran Church.

The Fellowship Hall was decorated with pink and white streamers and giant butterflies. Blue, red, brown and yellow birds circled overhead and smaller black butterflies sat on the wall over the gift table. Decorations were made by the children. Programs with a picture of Jesus and the Children had been decorated by the children with colored flowers and animals. Each child's gift place was identified by their picture and name card. Each child had made a pink, yellow or blue chenille flower surrounded by a lace dolly, corsage for their mother. A brightly colored lint brush for their father and Caterpillar note holders crawled along the edge of the table. The children had worked very hard on their projects and were proud to show them off.

Mary Kurtz, Preschool Director and Teacher, started the evening off by welcoming the guests and Rev. Stephen Byrne gave a prayer of thanks for the children and their parents. The children then prayed a prayer and sang their welcoming song. They asked everyone to join them in the Pledge of Allegiance to the United States Flag and to sing "God Bless America".

The Graduates then told a story with their songs, accompanied by Susan Conner, about what they had learned through the year. The learned to spell "B-I-B-L-E". That "He's (God) Got the Whole World in His Hands", about animals "Freddie Flea", that God make all men and them "Special, Special", "Look all the World Over" and "I Can Stamp My Feet". That rain is good and bad. "Rain on the Green Grass", "Pitter Patter", "Get in the Ark" and a favorite "Jonah and the Whale" or "Who Did?". They told the story of "Zacchaeus" and proclaimed that "My Best Friend is Jesus", and "If You're Happy". The learned how to greet people politely with the song "Where is Thumbkin" and closed with everyone's favorite, "Jesus Loves Me". The story was narrated by Minnie Belitz.

The children were then presented their diplomas by Mary Kurtz. As each child's name was called they walked across the stage and presented Mrs. Kurtz with a long stem red or pink rose bud. Each child wore their name tag that they had worn all year and a gold crown with their name in glitter.

Tammy Dunlap, Assistant Teacher and Chairperson of the Preschool Committee, then introduced and thanked Susan Conner, Preschool Music Teacher and Pianist, and Minnie Belitz, Refreshment Assistant. They each received a gift from the Preschool. She then presented Mary Kurtz with a watch engraved 1977-1987 in appreciation from the Preschool and announced that Mary had retired. Mary thanked Tammy for a job well done as a teacher for the past year and presented her a gift from the Preschool. Group Mothers Bobbie Calcote, Jody Meyer, Kendra Nitsch and Jill Bredemeyer were thanked for their leadership.

Members of the Preschool Committee were mentioned and thanked.

Approximately 125 guest then enjoyed refreshments and visiting.

4-H Helps youth with life skills

Results of a nationwide study reveal that 4-H, the "learning-by-doing" program for youth between the ages of 9 and 19, has made a positive impact on the life skills needed by adults to become self-directing and and productive members of society. Conducted by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service in cooperation with Texas A&M University's Department of Rural Sociology, the study was funded by a grant from the Extension Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture. A total of 1,761 individuals were part of a randomly selected sample of individuals participating in the study.

Memo from the Chamber Office

We are very proud to announce that these organizations have joined the Texas Highway Department's "Adopt-A-Highway Program". They are the Winters Lions Club, the Rotary Club, and the Girl Scouts. These clubs will now receive a contract from the Highway Department and will begin maintaining their assigned section. Hopefully other civic minded organizations will soon join up and we will have a great highway area as well as other sections of Texas are being.

Next door to the Chamber Office are the sections of the project. This year's work will be a "biggie" job in the fall.

Also, don't forget the new contract at our table at June 5. Watch for future announcements and pick up your copy at the Chamber Office.

Special thanks to the Chamber Office for making our new contract possible. We are proud and happy to be a part of this project.

Sonic —

phased that the military, and the F.A.A. were taking the incidents in Runnels County "real serious" and that something would be done. Lt. Col. Wihelmie said, "pilots have lost their wings for such infractions, and when we find who is causing the booms in your area, we will solve the problem."

The Lt. Col. ruled out the B1-B as the culprit saying that the aircraft had not been certified for supersonic speed and that the Air Force was real cautious in that area. He said that pilots and air planes, along with public opinion, were too expensive and too valuable to risk losing.

One possibility that is being checked out this week involves the SR-71 reconnaissance aircraft based in California. The spokesman said that that aircraft is capable of flying more than two and a half times the speed of sound, over 1,700 mph, at extremely high altitudes. He said that, if the conditions were just right, the sonic boom created by that plane could be felt on the ground.

The military liaison office will be checking on flight plans for the SR-71 in an attempt to determine if it might be the cause.

While the investigation is underway, persons experiencing a sonic boom are asked to contact the Winters Enterprise office, at 754-5221, with the time and date of the boom, along with any possible damage reports. This information will be forwarded to the proper officials to add to the investigation.

Both the Air Force and the F.A.A. have stated that they will provide updates on the investigation to The Enterprise on a weekly basis, or more frequently if necessary.
