State Representative Bob Hunter Keynote Speaker for Centennial Kickoff

State Representative Bob Hunter of Abilene, will be the keynote speaker for the opening ceremonies of Winters' Centennial Celebration on Friday night, June 22. Ceremonies will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Circus Tent located between the Library and Peoples National Bank.

Representative Hunter was elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1986 and has served in three regular sessions along with seven special sessions. He serves on the House of Representatives Higher Education Committee along with Higher Education state and national boards. He was appointed to the Texas Historical Committee by Governor Bill Clements and served on the 1986 Texas Sesquicentennial Committee.

Mr. Hunter received his Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree from the University of Texas and has several Honorary Doctorates from a number of universities. He serves as a Senior Vice-President of Abilene Christian University and has served at ACU in various capacities since 1956.

Representative Hunter is a native of the Abilene area and has been married 36 years to his wife Shirley. They are the parents of two sons and one daughter and have two grandchildren. Mr. Hunter is a veteran of the U. S. Navy.

Ken Slimp will be Master of Ceremonies and Lee Colburn, President of Winters Centennial Celebration, Inc. will welcome guests. Wes Hays, former Mayor of Winters, will introduce former Mayors and wives. Winters Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9193 will make the presentation of colors and after the keynote speech by Representative Hunter a birthday cake will be cut and served.

Winters Centennial Industrial Day scheduled for June 17

Winters Centennial Industrial Day will be held Wednesday, June 27, inside the tent in downtown Winters, from 9:30 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Come and see what industries are located in the Winters area. Register for FREE DOOR PRIZES, (must be 18 years old or older to enter). The industries represented at this show have donated over $4,500.00 worth of merchandise and gift certificates to be given away as Door Prizes. The drawing for the Door Prizes will be held at 5:30 p.m. June 27.

Twelve of Winters local industries will be represented. Each of these will have a booth with information and displays of their products. Remember to register while visiting each booth.

Industries on Display will be:
Alderman-Cave Milling & Grain
BCP Manufacturing Co.
Dry Manufacturing Div., Eljer Mfg., Inc.
Farmers Seed & Supply, Inc.
Jedd Manufacturing Co.
John's International Div., Contico Int'l. Inc.
Joni-Lyn Factory Outlet
Joe Kozelsky Cabinet Shop
Quality Interior Service
The Winters Enterprise, Inc.
Winters Manufacturing Co.
Winters Welding Works

S. J. Sizemore of the Harbin Company out of Dublin hangs bunting on the streets of Winters last week in preparation for Winters 100th Birthday Celebration. The Celebration begins June 22 and continues through Saturday, June 30.

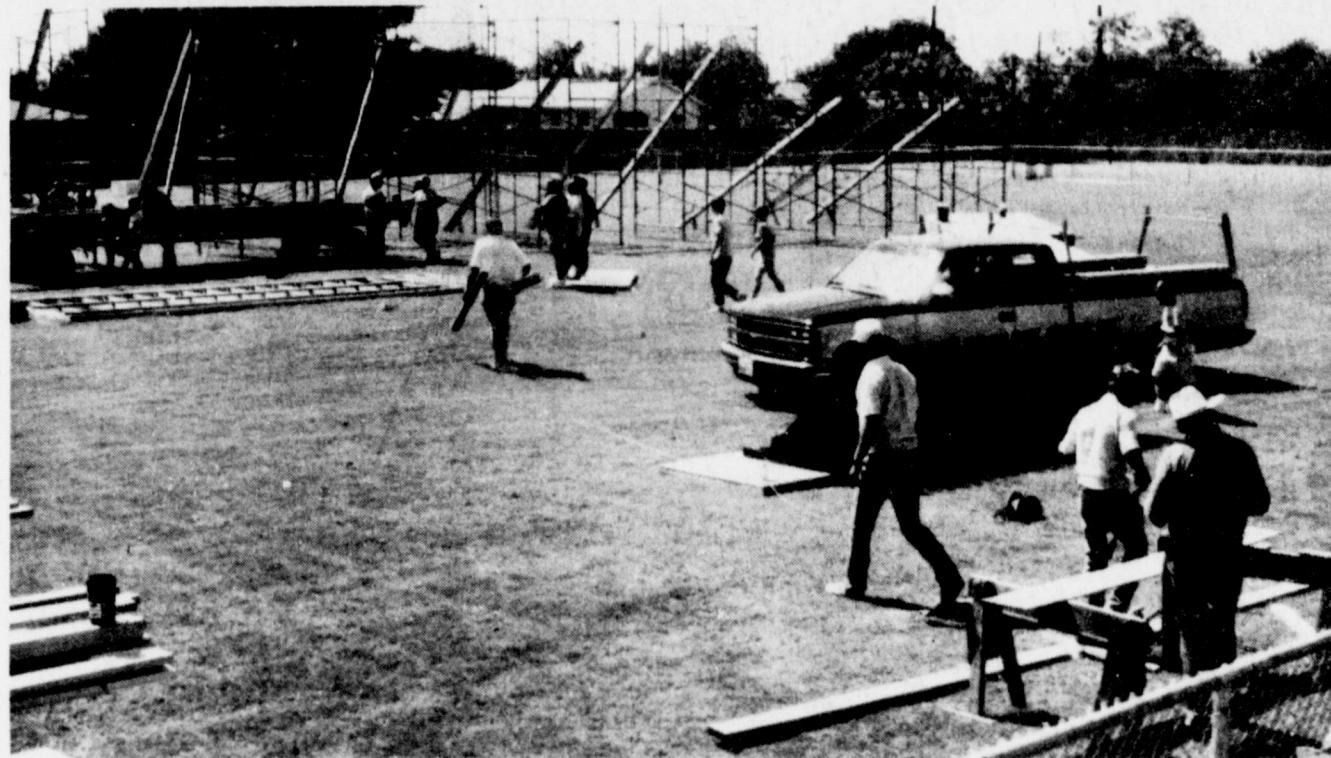

Extra! Extra! Read all about it!

The Centennial Edition of The Winters Enterprise will feature stories and pictures from news of the past one hundred years affecting the Winters area.

Subscribers will receive a copy of the special edition along with their regular paper. Extra copies will be available for purchase at the Enterprise office.

Centennial belt buckles are in Centennial belt buckles are now for sale at Centennial Headquarters. These antique brass buckles sell for $20.00. They have the Winters Centennial banner emblazoned across the state of Texas, with a star marking Winters.

Volunteers worked long and hard last Saturday and Sunday in the heat building scaffolding, stages and props to be used in the Winters Centennial Pageant beginning Wednesday, June 27 and continuing through Saturday, June 30. Work is still going on and much remains to be done says Jim Lincycumb who is in charge of construction.

City Council appoints new Police Chief

The Winters City Council in their regular meeting on Monday, June 18, voted to appoint acting chief of Police Larry Willis as permanent Chief of Police, effective immediately. Willis has been acting Chief since Police Chief Tim Dexter asked to be relieved of the chief's duties in January. Willis graduated from Abilene Police Academy of the West Central Council of Governments in 1980. He has been with the Winters Police Department for approximately two years and prior to that worked for the Anson Police Department.

In other business, the Council voted to hire two youth through the West Central Texas Council of Governments summer program. The youth will work 1/2 day and go to school 1/2 day.

Sandy Giles, newly hired Chief Appraiser for Runnels County Appraisal District was introduced to the Council and she offered her help to the Council in any way needed.

An offer of a metal sculpture for City Hall has been made through the Beautification Committee with very little cost to the city since the metal would be donated and metal sculptor Dewey Chestnut would build the sculpture at no cost to the city. Council members discussed the offer and tabled the matter until more could be found out about the design and placement.

Betty Fields, owner of the Peachtree Restaurant, appeared before the Council, requesting a city water hookup since she is within the city limits and pays city taxes. The Peachtree is presently served by North Runnels Water Association. Mrs. Fields was advised the City could not legally serve her with water since a state law prohibits two water utilities servicing the same area.

A discussion then ensued concerning the placing of historical tools, implements, oil field equipment, etc. at the city park as a permanent display of things important to the development of the area. After some discussion as to problems of upkeep, vandalism and liability, the matter was tabled.

Mayor Springer and City Administrator Charles Ludwick reported on their meeting with school officials concerning maintenance and upkeep at the baseball fields which the City leases from Winters Independent School District at $1 a year. They reported the school district was not interested in assuming any of the maintenance costs and that further discussion would be held at a time nearer to the renewal of the lease. It was noted by Councilman O. J. Murray that the City spends about 1/2 of 1% of its budget on parks and that it seemed the taxpayers are getting a great deal.

Council then voted to pay routine bills and adjourned.

"Proper" Pair Promenade

Participating in Friday's Promenade and "Lemonade on the Lawn" are Rhea Parramore and daughter, Robyn. The dresses worn were handmade by mother and daughter.

First Ladies in last week of competition

With only one more "turn in" to go, the Winters Centennial First Lady Contest is in a three way tie for first position. Positions after the third week of competition are as follows:

First Position
Ferrell Dean Brown
Debra Lindsey
Charlsie Poe
Second Position
Lura Lee Garrett
Third Position
LaRue Harrison
Fourth Position
Theresa Patterson
Fifth Position
Amy Johnson
Jewell Kraatz
Julie Springer
Sixth Position
Donna Guy
Seventh Position
Pat Fenter
Eighth Position
Loretta Pierce

In two of the positions, three ladies are vying for that position. Each vote makes a big difference and votes are awarded for ticket coupons purchased. The public can still save money by purchasing their advance sale coupon from any of the above contestants. Coupons can be exchanged now at the Centennial Store or at the gate on the nights of a performance. Final turn in of advance sale coupons is 8 p.m., June 22. After that time, no more coupons will be sold but tickets may be purchased at the gate on the nights of a performance.

Don't miss the exciting production of Winters Centennial Pageant June 27-30 at Blizzard Field beginning at 8:30 p.m.

OIL BUSINESS

By Reg Boles

With the Winters Centennial festivities scheduled for next week, I thought this would be a good time to look back at the history of the oil patch in Runnels County.

I do not have the complete history, but I do have a few interesting tidbits of information. The subject would require considerable man-hours to properly research and review, but it would certainly make for interesting reading and discussion. In any case, I, unlike Paul Harvey, will bring you only part of the story.

The first recorded well to be drilled in Runnels County was spudded January 21, 1915. The Brookshier #1 was drilled by Talpa Oil Company to a total depth of 930 feet and was not productive. The first productive well was the R.R. Russell #1, which was drilled to 3504 feet by Gulf Oil Company in July, 1918. Both of these wells were attempted in the southern portion of Runnels County, and, ironically, the immediate area never proved to be a successful development field. The field was never named.

In north Runnels County, some of the earliest successful development was in the Winters Field, which was discovered in 1943. Some development in the Cree Sykes Field also began about this time. The Winters Field has several horizons upon which completions have been made, most less than 5000 feet. The Cree Sykes Field is also multipay, but development, including the formation of the Cree Sykes Unit (between Novice and Winters), was concentrated in the Gardner at about 3900 feet. Both fields are still active, but the Winters Field continues to expand and is more apt to be the site of new drilling and recompletion activity.

Several other oil fields were discovered between the early forties and the end of World War II. The Crews Field (near Crews) was discovered in 1946 and the Poe and Fennel Fields (5 to 7 miles west of Winters) were discovered in 1952 and 1955, respectively. At least twenty new oil and gas fields were discovered during the gas-rationing of World War II in the north Runnels County area. Since then, approximately 50 new fields have been opened in the Winters vicinity, but those fields are somewhat smaller than those first discovered in the county.

Some of the most successful operators in the county were Humble (now Exxon), Gulf, W.W. West, and, more recently, Omni. In today's environment, most development is by independents and primary wells far outnumber secondary (water-flood) wells. Even in these tough times, operators have persevered and most survive and are continuing to drill.

Today, there are 633 active leases in Runnels County, with that production spread pretty evenly (geographically) between north and south Runnels County. Over 2800 leases have been in operation at one time or another in the county. Production and activity (drilling and workovers) are steady after a terrifying decline in the mid-80's. It is certainly no boom, but there is some equilibrium that allows new expenditures and new development to occur.

Since Gulf drilled that first well 72 years ago, there have been more than 10,000 wells drilled in Runnels County. Even so, there are areas that are attractive development areas and there are reserves that have not been discovered. Hard to believe but true. As a matter of fact, the county is not much different than the entire country in that there is still a target for the oil and gas business that is attractive enough to inspire dreams and aspirations for wealth. Most importantly for the local economy, it is a target that can attract the capital it takes to make some of those dreams a reality.

That is about the limit of my information. If you have any other data or 'old war stories', I would appreciate hearing from you. The one thing about looking back is that we realize what a heritage this area has. In agriculture, industry and manufacturing, and even in the oil business.

Area Oil Professionals Included In Video Documentary

A new documentary video prepared to educate the would-be oil & gas investor includes Winters area petroleum industry professionals. The film was made by a Dallas educational organization, Energy Information Service, Inc.

Ben Holmes, Vice-president of Hack Drilling in Abilene, Tom Gipson, CEO of Fleet Cementers in Cisco, Bruno Hanson, an Independent Geologist in Midland, and Greg Boyles, President of New Horizon Exploration (a Dallas company but an operator in the Winters area) are included in the documentary. Additionally, several other experts from the oil & gas business from Dallas and Oklahoma City were featured in the educational film.

The video covers such timely topics as horizontal drilling, oil prices, the potential for gas in the next decade, and investing fundamentals. The documentary is produced entirely from the potential investor's point of view. Inquiries about the video should be addressed to Energy Information Service, P.O. Box 123861 Dallas, Texas, 75225 and a reference made to this newspaper.

TV Highlights of Winters This Week

The businesses in Winters and the Centennial Celebration will be highlighted on channel 9, KRBC, on the Nicki Harle show at 5:15 pm Friday, June 22.

On Wednesday, June 20, on the Top-of-the-Morning News on KLST, channel 8, Julie Springer and Ferrell Dean Brown will appear to promote the Centennial Celebration. On the 5 o'clock News, also on channel 8 on Wednesday, Donna Guy and Renee Calcote will be featured for the Centennial. We will also have local people on Friday, June 22, on the KLST Noon News.

On Monday, June 25 through Friday, June 29, "Good Morning West Texas," clips and interviews of Winters people will be featured on KTXS, channel 12. The exact time will be determined by a computer, but from 6 am to 9 am each day, two clips will be aired. David Caldwell, KTXS representative, said these clips will more than likely appear on the half hour. The "Good Morning America" segment will be shown in the future with the exact day and time to be announced ahead of time.

Get in the Centennial Spirit and tune in to these interviews of our neighbors. Be proud of Winters as it is shown to the Big Country.

Methodist Church to host Gospel Singing Group

On Sunday, June 24, a gospel singing group from Tolar, TX will present special music at the First United Methodist Church in Winters. The group will sing their special presentation at the 10:45 am Worship Service. The congregation cordially invites the public to attend this memorable service.

To begin the Festival of Faith Day, the congregation and visitors are invited to wear their centennial dress.

Lorie Jean Clendenen and Monte Allyn McMahon

Lorie Jean Clendenen to wed Monte Allyn McMahon

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Von Clendenen of Novice announce the engagement of their daughter, Lorie Jean, to Monte Allyn McMahon of Pecos. The couple will be married August 25, 1990 at the Chapel on the Hill, Abilene Christian University.

Miss Clendenen graduated from Jim Ned High School in Tuscola in 1988. She is a junior at Texas Tech University in Lubbock. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Clendenen of Alamogordo, New Mexico. Mrs. Roy F. Neihoff of Paducah, Kentucky is the maternal grandmother.

Mr. McMahon graduated from Pecos High School in Pecos in 1986, and will receive a mechanical engineering degree in January, 1991 from Texas Tech University. He is the son of Mr. Joe Lee McMahon, Jr. of Pecos. Mr. McMahon also is the son of the late Mrs. Pat Allyn McMahon, formerly of Tuscola. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allyn of Tuscola. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lee McMahon, Sr. of Stephenville.

Former Blizzard hired at McMurry

Jerry Tischler, who has been an assistant football coach at San Angelo Central High School for the past 5 1/2 years, has been hired as McMurry College's defensive backfield coach.

Hereplaces Austin Chamness, who resigned to become head basketball coach at Jayton High School.

Tischler played high school football at Winters, graduating in 1969 and later played at Tarleton State University, where he was a graduate assistant for two years. He coached at Frenship High School before returning to Tarleton to work on his master's degree.

He then went to San Angelo where he was in charge of the Lee Junior High program.

"When Coach Jimmie Keeling had a vacancy on his varsity staff at San Angelo Central, he could have gone outside the system to fill it, but he chose Jerry over 27 other coaches," said McMurry head football coach Mark Cox. "That speaks well."

Tischler has worked with Central's receivers and defensive backs, but last year he coached the linebackers.

FROM A GOLDFISH BOWL

BY PASTOR STEVE BYRNE

"Slow down, Steve. You are going to worry yourself sick about this time thing. You are not in North Texas anymore. You are in the Rio Grande Valley. We see time differently here. Do you know what 'manana' means?"

"Sure. It means tomorrow."

"In Winters it does. Down here it means 'maybe'."

Wise words from the Lay Pastor at San Pablo Lutheran Mission in Weslaco. Fifteen youth and seven adults from North Texas on a Mission Work trip in Weslaco and Rio Bravo, Mexico. The first couple of days we were frustrated by time commitments.

When we planned on meeting some one at 7:00, he might show up between 7:30 and 8. The Worship Service began 15 minutes late and lasted far beyond the one-hour artificial time limit our inner clocks had been set for.

This is a hard transition for us Type "A" personalities whose lives are ruled by appointment calendars and clocks. I learned a lot in the Valley. Not the least learning was how to be more comfortable waiting.

Einstein proved mathematically that time is relative. The Biblical creation stories tell us that time is not an absolute, but a part of creation. According to I Corinthians 13, it is not even an eternal part of creation.

Once there was no such thing as time. One great day creation will return to its pre-creation status and time will be dissolved into eternity (a state outside of time).

I wonder how many other relative, non-absolute things that I allow to determine (if not rule) my life? My salvation doesn't depend on owning and adhering to the demands of my watch. Or the predetermined scheduling of my time via my Augsburg-Fortress red pocket appointment calendar.

The last couple of days in the Valley I got used to the slower pace and the relative nature of time in our setting there. I vowed to bring some of that back with me. Might add a couple of years to my life.

Now we are back. And I have to bring this Goldfish Bowl to a close. You see, it is 2:30 on Monday. My deadline for this article was 2 1/2 hours ago. And I have a meeting I can't be late to at 6:00 this evening. And things do to in between.

Oh well. The vow was made with good intentions...

School Board meets in regular session

The Board of Trustees of the Winters Independent School District met in regular session on June 12 in the administration office. Members heard a report from Susie Johnson, counselor for WISD, on the graduates of the Winters High School class of 1990 and their plans for continuing education. Ms. Johnson also reported the results of this year's TEAMS tests.

L. C. Hounsel and John Key reported on the progress of the Gifted and Talented program at both educational levels.

The Board accepted resignations from David Faltys, Linda Mason, Jan Hoover, and Mary Mahaffey. Approval was given for the addition of one teacher for the Gifted and Talented program and the English as a Second Language program.

Insurance was purchased for coverage of all UIL activities for the coming school year. A review was made of the proposed budget for the Runnels County Appraisal District.

The Board accepted the date of July 16 for the next regular meeting.

City Hotel—first hotel in Winters. Built in 1906 and torn down in 1957 to make way for the Roy Young service station.

Excerpts about Winters from the book Runnels Is My County

by Charlsie Poe

A newspaper called the Winters Recorder and published by W. D. Currier made its appearance in 1903. Currier was a man of vision and insight, according to his first editorial. He said that although Winters was not a main rail line it need not worry because it was located in one of the richest agricultural districts in the state. He also pleaded for the erection of a modern up-to-date hotel.

The hotel that Currier pleaded for became a reality when one was built in 1906 by W. I. Dunn, a Baptist preacher. Two years later it was bought by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Huffines who managed it until 1919.

All the fried chicken and hot biscuits you could eat plus whipped cream for your coffee three times a day for 25 cents a meal was not a dieter's dream but an actual reality at the City Hotel. The Huffines milked four cows to provide milk and butter for their table. They served fresh vegetables from their garden but bought chickens. Beef was bought from a truck twice a week and Mrs. Huffines sliced all the meat. There was fried chicken three times a day, ham and bacon for breakfast, roast for dinner and steak for supper. Bread was baked on Saturday and ice cream served on Sunday. A large bell called the people to meals.

When the prohibition election was held in 1908, the hotel was enlarged to accommodate the crowds. Four rooms were added downstairs and six upstairs. No one remembered any fights, but a lot of squabbling and arguments lasted until far into the night.

Hotel business was good in the early days. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Huffines paid for the City Hotel and had saved $1,000 in eleven years by serving meals at 25 cents and charging 50 cents a night for a bed. Many mornings they took in $100.00.

Mrs. Huffines kept a girl to help in the dining room but girls were not accustomed to working out and refused many times because they thought they were degrading themselves. There was no laundry in town and the family did the washing on two machines, having a hundred sheets on the line by sunup in the mornings. The hotel was always rushed trying to care for the crowds.

A lot of money was changing hands as more and more cotton was raised. New gins were built until there were ten, and they had to run all night. Cotton buyers came from everywhere to cut, sample and buy the ginned cotton from a yard west of the railroad track.

A small house called the "sample room" was built south of the hotel where "drummers" could show their merchandise. The drummers, or salesmen, came in big hacks with drivers to care for their horses. After the railroad was built they came on the train bringing as many as twenty trunks each.

Settlers kept coming and by 1909 the population of Winters had grown to 600. By October 18, 1908, both Winters and Ballinger allowed their railroad committee to sign contracts with Morgan Jones to build a standard gauge railroad from the Texas and Pacific tracks at Abilene to some point on the Gulf, Colorado, and Santa Fe Road at Ballinger.

On a hot, sultry day in July 1909, an Abilene & Southern locomotive steamed into the expectant village of Winters, and citizens celebrated the coming of the railroad with a picnic and much rejoicing. A downpour of rain failed to dampen their spirits. The railroad was complete from Abilene to Winters only. The old white-top hack furnished transportation to Ballinger until October, when the train made a round trip from Abilene to Ballinger. The Rock Hotel was built near the railroad and is still in use.

With the railroad came the first major industry, the Winters Cotton Oil Mill Company. The mill was begun in 1909, and stones for the building were hauled from a quarry southeast of town on Gap Creek. When cotton seed was available the mill ran day and night and employed thirty men. At one time Winters produced more cotton than any other town in the nation. The well-lighted building and grounds were the center of social life for the community and had many visitors. The two-storied structure was the popular entertainment place for young people's parties. Some can still remember the pungent smell that settled over the town as the cotton seed meal and cake were processed.

"Celebration Time Is Here."

All the activities that so many have planned and worked for is now happening. We want everyone to feel welcome to participate in all the activities. We are honoring our heritage with the Centennial Celebration and we are reliving the customs and manners of the pioneers that settled in Winters.

How people dress fascinates me as it reflects their life style. Men dressed in their Sunday finery of top hats, tails, arm garters, vest and polished shoes. The cowboys dressed for an unexpected gunfight as they rode into town on their horse or in wagons, wearing boots, Levis, chaparajos, gun toting scabbard and a hat that the crease says, "I'm as tough as they come."

Ladies all gussied up in their bustles, bows and ruffles, some in Mother Hubbards and dust bonnets, others in calico wrappers, silks and heels and hats with flowers and veils. Also barmaids and flappers dressed in authentic portrayals of the past.

In all our "doings" maybe we have failed to reflect or relive our parents, grandparents and great-grandparents standard of living. Our forefathers and mothers were God-fearing people, always taking time to worship. As in Winters, churches were started by the time homes were built, they had high morals, principles with respect of right conduct. A family name was a prized possession, they had confidence in each other, "As a man was as good as his word," a spoken promise was never broken. People joined together in heart and soul with much pride to establish a community with individuals pulling together in one direction. Today, 1990, Winters is known for its FRIENDLY PEOPLE, and preparing for a Centennial Celebration has brought forth the best people, wanting community pride, unity and harmony.

The final brochure is printed, and we would like for every person in Winters to have this Schedule of Events. We try to keep them in all stores, but you can always pick up one at the Chamber of Commerce Office or the General Store.

Friday, June 22

Centennial Kick-Off Day with Sidewalk Sales by downtown merchants, and Centennial Dollar promotion. At 5 p.m. the Promenade starts at Winters Funeral Home parking lot, strolling to the Circus Tent. At 7 p.m. the musical entertainment starts and at 7:30 p.m. the opening ceremonies, the ringing of church bells and sirens. The United States Flag will be presented to the people of Winters by VFW Post 9193 and the Ladies Auxiliary, to be flown during Celebration Week and then preserved in the Time Capsule. Also miniature flags will be given to each individual. Kenneth Slimp is Master of Ceremonies and other dignitaries will speak. At 8:15 the Birthday Cake will be cut and served.

Saturday, June 23

Salute to Winters merchants and the different sports tournaments at Ted Meyer Park. In the Circus Tent at 6 p.m. is musical entertainment and the Centennial Dollar Auction. Our merchants have been so generous in giving a Centennial Dollar for each ten dollar purchase and they have donated very nice gifts to be auctioned and bought with Centennial Dollars. At 9 p.m. "Canyon" will be featured at a dance at the Lawrence Brothers parking lot. This is family type entertainment that all can enjoy, the cost is $8 per person at the gate or $7 advance. Tickets can be bought at the General Store.

Honor your heritage by going to church on Sunday, then at 6 p.m. take a picnic supper and lawn chairs to Ted Meyer Park for Old Time Gospel Singing.

Monday, June 25
Salute to our Senior Citizens and activities that we older ones like to do; like eat, rock and visit. At 4 p.m. there will be recognition of Senior Citizens.

Tuesday, June 26

Salute to youth, with activities for all youth and scouts. Food, Swim Party, and the Youth Parade. Ribbons will be given to all entries in the parade.

Wednesday, June 27

A salute to Winters Industries, and a hamburger supper at 5:30 p.m. at the Community Center. At dusk the premier performance of "Winters Centennial Pageant" at Blizzard Field. Also the First Lady of Winters will be announced.

Thursday, June 28

Salute to our German and Hispanic Cultures. More food, games and lessons in German. Barbeque supper at the Community Center at 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. and at dusk the second performance of "Winters Centennial Pageant."

Volunteers are still needed to help clean up our town for all the company we are expecting. Call Kay Colburn or George Lee Garrett.

We want everyone in Winters to feel like they have a part in our Centennial Celebration, just come forward and get involved. Plan to attend as many of the events as you can.

The Belle Chapters are encouraged to Promenade during business hours, visiting with our merchants and showing our appreciation to them for being so supportive of the Celebration. Many of them have sacrificed their time and means to make this memorable event a success.

The businesses in Winters and the Centennial Celebration will be highlighted on Channel 9, KRBC, Friday, June 22, at 5:15 p.m. on the Nicki Harle Show. Get the Centennial Spirit and be proud of Winters as it is shown to the Big Country.

Keep yards neat and clean for Centennial!

Crews News

By Hilda Kurtz

Most of us find that it's hard to take advice from people who need it more than we do.

Stan and Bob Hill returned to their Boston, Mass. home after being here several days during the funeral of their dad, Robert. Mike Hill spent this weekend with his mother, Claudia. A niece, Carol Wolfe of Amarillo, Johnnie and Dean Ball of Junction also came for several days and for the funeral.

The Hill family wishes to thank all those who sent food, cards, flowers, phone calls and prayers.

By the time you read this Noble Faubion will have had eye surgery (Tuesday, June 19) in Community Hospital, San Angelo. Those gathered for Father's Day in the Noble Faubion home were the Jerry Kraatz family, Rodney, Bernie, Gene and Brian Faubion, Eileen, Jeremy and Tiffany Prater, Sam and Dee Faubion came in the afternoon.

Pat, Earl, Ray, Sherry, Amanda and J. T. Cooper had Father's Day at the Casa Cabana Restaurant in Winters. Brenda and Richard Chambliss, of Blackwell, came in the afternoon.

Spending the day Monday in the Noble Faubion home were Pete and Mary Helen Sutherland of Denver, Colorado and their children, Jennifer and Paul; Walter Pape III and Doreen and their two sons of Colorado; the Jerry Kraatz family, Rodney, Bernie, Brian and Gene Faubion.

It was nice to hear Paige Bishop came home Sunday afternoon after appendicitis surgery in North Runnels Hospital.

Congratulations to Amy Mansell, Ballinger, the new Ballinger Farm Bureau Queen. She is the daughter of Chauncey and Susan Mansell and granddaughter of Becky and Elwood Brown.

Many more happy birthdays Katie Duggan, who was 12 years old Wednesday.

Becky and Elwood Brown were in Bradshaw and toured Miss Hunt Audra Museum. Miss Hunt still manages the old family store. She always enjoys showing folks around. Becky says if you want to spend an enjoyable time, you must go to Miss Hunt's shop.

Helen and Hazel Mae Bragg were in to see Russell Bragg in Wisteria Place in San Angelo Thursday.

Saturday morning I visited with Betty Brown, Robert Gerhart, Norbert and Irma Ueckert and Dora Busher in the Senior Citizens Nursing Home. Afterwards attended Claudette Faubion's bridal shower, bride-elect of Wes Carter, in the Lutheran Fellowship Hall.

Sunday morning Adeline Grissom, Wanda Sims, Katherine Thomas and Marie Kurtz drove to the Lutheran Cemetery to place Father's Day flowers, next stop was the Crews Cemetery. Later I joined them for dinner in the Grissom home.

Janice honored Randall Kurtz on his 35th birthday in their Ballinger home Sunday afternoon with sandwiches and all the trimmings, birthday cake, pies, followed with strawberry, vanilla and peach freezer ice cream. Helping Randall celebrate were Howard and Jaclyn Pruser and children, Jimmy and Frances Chapman and children, Jimmy and Frances Chapman of San Angelo, Sherry, Darrall and Keegan Kurtz, R. C. and Mary Kurtz, Walter and Alvina Gerhart, David and Annalee Mueller and children, Walter Alvin, Mandi and Jarrett Gerhart of Paint Rock, and of course I was there.

Many more of those nice birthdays "Kiddo."

Kathy Phillips of Abilene came down for lunch with the Rodney Faubion family Thursday. Betty, David and Laurie White of Corpus Christi, Eileen, Jeremy and Tiffany Prater came and enjoyed supper Friday.

Those spending Father's Day with the Wesley McGallian family in Wingate were Nila and Therin Osborne, Sue and Glen Campbell and Louise Osborne. John and Stefanie came home with Nila and Therin for the week.

Lee Ueckert of Houston spent several days here with Ruth and Bradley Pape, they ate Father's Day lunch at Casa Cabana in Winters.

Margie and Walter Jacob hosted supper and a 42 party Saturday night. Present were: Roy and Anita Schaefer, Evelyn and Herbert Jacob, Frances and Jerry Holle, Hattie Minzenmayer, Adeline Grissom and Hilda Kurtz. Earl Cooper was the man with the highest score, Pat Cooper the highest scoring woman and Anita most 84 prize.

Pat and Earl were visitors in the home of Becky and Elwood Brown Sunday night.

Families of the late Emil and Ruth Bredemeyer hosted the Bredemeyer reunion in the Winters Community Center Sunday, June 10, around 103 or 106 attended. Coming the farthest was Steven Remsherd of Durant, Oklahoma. The oldest person was Mrs. Dora Busher, 87, more or less. Keegan Kurtz, one year old was the youngest. Families of Emil and Ruth had the most attendance with 29. The late Theodore and Betty Frick's children will host the next reunion.

Melvina, Marvin and Keith Gerhart were in Temple over the weekend with their son, Scott.

Linda and Travis Ford spent the weekend with Georgia and Connie Gibbs.

Doris and Marion Wood's children all came Saturday for Father's Day: Mr. and Mrs. Maloy Bryant, Robert and Douglas Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Calcote and sons, Jeff, Darla and Steven Cameron of Coleman, and Frances Mincey, who just returned from vacation with a friend of Austin from Brasos, Mo.

Marion and Doris saw Obed Fuller in Humana Hospital, who had a four by-pass surgery Friday.

Twain Talk

by Twyla Twain

Do you like baseball? How about Little League and, even better, T-ball? Just take a little visit to any ballpark this summer and see how well we "grown-ups" handle these "games" our kids are "enjoying."

The little ones are just too cute - boys and girls alike. They stand out in the blazing afternoon sun (when they'd probably rather be running through the water sprinkler at home). At least they usually are pretty well protected from the sun because their entire outfits are about three sizes too large. Their hats are on the tightest snap deal in the back but the cap still balances on the kid's ears. The little players never consider pushing up the bill of the caps - they'd much rather tilt their heads way back and look over the ends of their noses. This is necessary just to see straight ahead. There's no way in the world they'd ever be able to look up to catch a fly ball (like anybody that age ever hits one anyway).

And if their caps don't cover their heads enough they can always set their giant baseball gloves on top of their heads. You know, the glove that mom and dad bought "just a little big this year." Come on, you and I both know that Nolan Ryan could use that glove today with no problems. And when the kids do put their gloves on top of their heads, this frees them to wildly swing their arms from side to side, wave at friends in the bleachers or streets, or pick up special rocks during the game.

The shorts these kids wear always seem to hang to mid or lower knee and probably slow their running speed quite a bit. Doesn't it seem like they run in slow motion most of the time? (Except when it's time for the sno-cones or cokes after the games). It appears to me that the favorite part of running to the base is jumping right on top of it

- several times - so many times that the kid usually falls down on top of it. But at least she's "safe."

And speaking of bases, did you ever watch the poor coach try to explain to the first baseman that he or she can really and truly move off their base in order to stop a grounder rolling one foot away. After a lengthy explanation the coach feels confident that the kid understands because he moved off the base and stands ready. That is, until the ball rolls right on top of the base and the kid never moves an inch because he's playing "off the base, just like coach said." Just watch that coach go crazy about now. It's great.

Almost as entertaining as when the coach tries to make the kid continue running to second base or even further. Every vein in the coach's head seems to bulge at trying to convey the great importance of rounding all the bases.

Now I really liked the story about the kid who became a bit confused after rounding second base and heading toward third. He was being cheered on by his teammates in the dugout over by third base who kept screaming at him, "come on home, come on home." Trying so hard to please everybody, the kid promptly and directly ran from second base, right smack over third base, and landed safely in the dugout, or "home" as he saw it.

Yes, the little ones really keep things in perspective. Those kids in the outfield know it's more important to kill bugs out there because nobody is ever gonna hit the ball that far. That's why I admired the kid who never remembered his glove or cap but always brought something important to us all - his ant poison. Guess he was a true team player and had everybody's interest at heart. And that's what it's all about, isn't it?

Busy weekend for Runnels County Sheriff's Department

The Runnels County Sheriff's Department was kept busy with several incidents over the past few days. The latest activity involved two 19-year olds from Boeme, Texas, who had led officers on a high speed chase up to 120 mph through several roadblocks through four counties.

Quinn Felton Wright and Dawn Renee Keebuson were arrested and mirandized by County Judge Michael Murchison after being apprehended one-half mile north of the Concho-Runnels County line on U.S. Highway 83 by the Runnels County Sheriff's office. The subjects were returned to Junction and charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

Assisting in the case were the Ballinger constable, Ballinger Police Department, Department of Public Safety troopers from four counties, Eden Police Department, Menard County Sheriff's Office and Concho County Sheriff's Office.

Runnels County Sheriff's Department arrested Eddie Franklin Carey for aggravated assault with serious bodily injury. He was taken into custody Tuesday, June 12, at the Stonewall Motel. Judge Murchison set bond at $10,000.

Carey is a 31 year old male and listed a Breckenridge address. The victim was 46 year old Delores Campbell of Breckenridge. She was treated at Ballinger Memorial Hospital and released.

Runnels County Sheriff's Department, with assistance by the Ballinger Constable and the Ballinger Police Department, arrested Esperanza Martinez, Juan J. Martinez, and Rene Flores Thursday, June 14. A search warrant was executed at 1102 12th St., Ballinger. A quantity of a substance believed to be cocaine was seized along with a substance believed to be marijuana. Also found were two weapons, one vehicle, and a quantity of cash.

They are charged with possession with intent to deliver a controlled substance and are being held in Runnels County Jail. Justice of the Peace Wilburn Davis set bond at $50,000 each.

Golf course gets facelift: - Country Club Manager Robert Smith looks on as workers spray the green on Hole #7.

Wearin' of the green

The Winters Country Club is very busy with the refurbishing of nine greens which were lost due to sub-zero weather this past winter. Workers have been using a process called Hydro Mulch, a technique which has been improved over the years to include not only lawns but also golf courses and athletic fields. The process usually uses a fiber/seed water-based spray with a sealcoat to enhance growth. However, with the hot, arid temperatures in this area, the course here needed a grass that was tolerant to this climate. A grass called Tiff Bermuda has been used, which is a hybrid that is not seeded but sprigged by hand. By using Hydro Mulch a minimum time for growth and coverage is needed due to a fast startup and growth rate. Grass sprigs were mixed with the fiber and water and sprayed on with a seal coat to top it off. An 80% bloom rate is expected with this process with about 4-6 weeks before it is playable. During this time, temporary greens have been established on which to play.

The Centennial tournament on June 23 will be held on the temporary greens. The Industrial and Men's City Championship tournaments will be postponed until a later date. All ABC toumeys will be played as scheduled.

The Winters Country Club course and clubhouse are tended by Robert and Debbie Smith. They have two daughters, Stephanie 16, and Crystal 12, and have lived in Winters for a little over a year. Debbie was born and raised in Winters and is the daughter of Leon Daniels of Winters and Wanda Smith of Winters.

Stealing electricity is against the law!

Stealing electricity is a felony.

Some people tamper with their electric meters to avoid paying for the energy they use. Stealing electricity is a felony offense in the state of Texas and violators will be prosecuted. West Texas Utilities' Current Diversion Department is working hard to help combat the growing problem of energy theft.

Energy theft is dangerous.

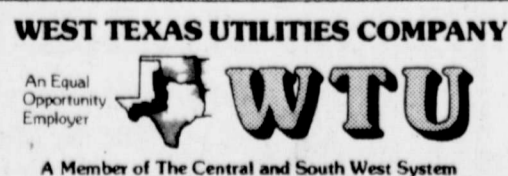

Not only is service theft a crime, but it is also very dangerous. Serious injuries can result from meter tampering.

A crime against you!

When someone steals electricity, they are not only stealing from WTU — they are also stealing from you, as a rate-payer. Just as shoplifting increases the cost of items you buy in the store, power theft increases the cost of your electric service.

WTU will prosecute.

Because we are concerned about the dangers and costs resulting from meter tampering, West Texas Utilities will prosecute energy thieves.

Serving you with dependable electrical energy from the Red River to the Rio Grande.

Maid of Cotton to appear during Centennial

Danielle Forester, Maid of Cotton from Lubbock will be appearing in Winters as part of the Centennial Celebration week festivities. She will appear Friday afternoon, June 29, during "A Salute to Agriculture Day" under the big tent for pictures and autographs. Miss Forester will appear a second time as part of the pre-show activities at Blizard Field before the third performance of "Winters Centennial Pageant."

On Saturday, June 30, she will be in the Centennial Parade riding on her Maid of Cotton Float.

Miss Forester was selected Maid of Cotton in October of 1989 and since that time has appeared in numerous places in Texas representing the cotton industry.

Centennial Parade registration

One hundred-fifty letters have been mailed outside of Winters inviting participants to the Winters Centennial Celebration Parade to be held Saturday, June 30, at 2 p.m. The response is a little disappointing, partially due to lack of bands in the summer, but still promises to be one of the largest parades for Winters or Runnels County.

Local organizations, businesses, churches, and individuals should be the most important addition to the parade. It is desired that each organization will be represented. Lee Harrison, parade chairman, said that we need to have all locals registered if they have not done so. Participants need to know where to line up and have their names on the parade program.

Parade entry forms or information may be picked up at the Centennial Office, Chamber of Commerce, or from Lee Harrison at 754-5386.

VFW Post to raise Centennial Flag

Winters Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9193 and the Ladies Auxiliary will present and raise the official Winters Centennial United States of America Flag during the opening ceremonies of the Centennial Week Celebration at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, June 22, 1990.

Members of the Post and Auxiliary are asked to meet at the tent with Quartermaster R. C. Kurtz at 7 p.m. for instructions.

Any veterans who can wear their uniform are asked to do so and help present the flag.

Members of the Freedom Belles, sponsored by the Winters VFW Post 9193 will be giving out small U. S. flags during the ceremonies.

Nightmare on Poplar Street
Doyle Wright holds a 38" rattlesnake killed in a rabbit cage behind the family home on Poplar Street in Winters. The snake was discovered about 10 p.m. June 12 after strange noises coming from the cage alerted the family. Upon investigation, the rattler was found in the cage (4 feet off the ground) with one rabbit already dead and another fighting for its life. The rattler had seven rattles and could be heard several feet away. Doyle's parents are Johnny and Sammie Wright.

Local veterinarian Jimmy Smith of Pioneer Vet Clinic reports he has treated approximately 30 animals for rattlesnake bites this summer.

Julie Wheat

Julie Wheat given scholarship

Julie Wheat recently received the Carl B. and Florence E. King $4000.00 scholarship. Julie was awarded this scholarship through the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation for her participation in UIL State Feature Writing Contest, as well as her other academic achievements. She plans to use this scholarship to pursue a journalism-marketing degree from Baylor University.

Julie is the daughter of Gene and Jeanie Wheat and a 1990 graduate of Winters High School.

Social Security Rep. to be in Winters June 25

A representative of the San Angelo Social Security Office will be at the Winters Housing Authority Monday, June 25, from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m.

If you need to sign up for benefits, or have any questions about benefits you may consult with him at this time.

The Crop Connection

by Richard Minzenmayer
Extension Agent-Entomology (PM)
Runnels-Tom Green Counties

General Situation

Cotton is progressing rapidly with these hot temperatures and grain sorghum is starting to show some signs of moisture stress during the heat of the day. Wheat harvest continues with average yields in most areas.

Cotton Fleahoppers

Cotton ranges in growth stage from the cotyledon stage to 7th true leaf. This is when pinhead squares should begin development. It is at this time that fields should be scouted closely for the presence of cotton fleahoppers.

Adult fleahoppers are about 1/8 inch long and pale green to whitish green in color. Nymphs resemble adults, but lack wings, are very small and also pale green in color. Fleahoppers are frequently confused with cotton aphids, minute pirate bug nymphs (which are predators of fleahoppers) and leaf hoppers. Aphids move very slowly and their abdomen (tail end) has two cornicles (tailpipes) protruding from it. Minute pirate bug nymphs are orange to yellow in color and leafhoppers can be several colors ranging from green to tan and they walk sideways in a crab-like manner.

Fleahoppers overwinter in the egg stage on weeds, and later move into cotton when squares become available. Their life cycle is approximately 4 weeks long.

There are a number of alternative host plants which fleahoppers are found on, but silverleaf nightshade is probably the number one alternate host plant. If you have silverleaf nightshade (whiteweed) in your fields or adjacent to your cotton, you need to pay attention to cotton fleahopper populations.

Scouting Hints

Fleahoppers are probably the most difficult pests to scout for in cotton. When scouting for fleahoppers, approach the plant with ease and do not cast your shadow directly over the plants you are checking. Winged adults will often take flight when scouts approach and nymphs will run down the stalk and go undetected. So do not kick dirt on the plant or let your shadow fall across the plant before you examine the plant for fleahoppers. Concentrate your efforts in the terminal areas of the plant.

Scouting Program

Scouts have begun work and will be on a regular schedule this week. If you are participating in the scouting program, please contact your scouts or me if you spray a pesticide in a Pest Management field. We certainly do not want to expose anyone unnecessarily to any pesticides. It takes just a minute to make a phone call and let someone know you will be spraying.

William Turk

William F. Turk, 82, of San Angelo, died at 6:10 p.m. Monday, June 11, 1990, at his home after an extended illness.

W. F., a San Angelo resident for 12 years, was born April 10, 1908, in Gonzales County, Texas. He was the son of Otto F. Turk and Theresa Wild Turk.

Otto F. Turk came to America from Oestreich, Germany, as a boy of seven. The family arrived in Galveston October 15, 1879, settling in South Texas where Otto grew to manhood and married Theresa Wild.

In the fall of 1912, Otto moved his young family to what is known as the E. B. Ranch east of Winters.

There W. F. grew up and met and married Irene Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith, Sr., when she came to his community to teach. The couple was married June 2, 1934. On June 2, 1984, they celebrated with a lovely reception in the parlor of First Baptist Church in San Angelo.

They lived in the Winters vicinity until 1947 when they moved to a ranch near Lometa. In 1949, they moved to Pecos, where W. F. engaged in irrigated farming until his health began to fail.

Mrs. Turk taught in the English department of Pecos High School.

Upon retirement, in 1978, the couple moved to their present address in San Angelo. They were members of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Turk was a hardworking, clean-living, kind husband, father and neighbor. His delight was in his family, his wife and three sons and their families. He spent many hours attending sports events and missed very few games in which his sons participated.

He coached teen-age baseball in Pecos for several years and saw that his sons had the opportunity for a college education.

Survivors include his wife, Irene of San Angelo; three sons, Arnold Turk of Dallas, Thomas Turk of San Angelo and Dr. Truman Turk and his wife, Sylvia, of Gatesville; four grandchildren, Chandra Turk of Dallas and Tina Lynn Turk, Tim Turk and Tiffany Leigh Turk, all of Gatesville; five sisters, Hilda Bredemeyer and Hedwig Minzenmeyer, both of Winters, Hertha Bates of Ballinger, Leona Piel of Malone and Alfreda Muston of Corpus Christi; and two brothers, Carl Turk of Winters and Raymond Turk of Cuero.

W. F. was preceded in death by his parents; a beloved daughter-in-law, Mrs. Arnold (Pam) Turk; a sister, Alma Baack; and a brother, Otto Turk.

Services for William F. Turk were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, June 14, in the Chapel of First Baptist Church, San Angelo, with the Revs. Glen Edwards and James Andrews officiating. Burial was in Lakeview Cemetery, Winters, directed by Johnson's Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were: Mike Mitchell, Carroll Turk, Bud Minzenmeyer, Jimmy Kruse, Tim Edwards and A. L. Mitchell, Jr.

The family requests that any memorials be made to the First Baptist Church or the West Texas Boys Ranch.

Chane Bishop

Chane David Bishop, 42, of Winters, died Thursday morning, June 14, 1990, at his parents home in Winters.

Born May 8, 1948 in Winters, he was a lifetime resident.

He graduated from Winters High School in 1966 and attended college in San Angelo. He was stockholder, president and general manager of Bishop and Sons Dirt Contractors and partner in Bishop Boys Limousins of Winters.

Survivors include his parents, E. J. and Hattie Belle Bishop of Winters; one brother, Dane Bishop of Winters; two nieces, Jamie and Staci Bishop of Winters; many friends, including Brenda and Jade Lamb of Winters; several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Services for Chane David Bishop were held at 2 p.m. Friday, June 15, at the North Main Street Church of Christ in Winters with A. C. Polk officiating. Burial was in Wingate Cemetery under the direction of Winters Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hegwood of San Angelo are proud to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Michelle Anjanet (Missy) Hegwood to Rodney David Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy H. Smith, of Ballinger.

Miss Hegwood is a 1985 graduate of Irion County High School in Mertzon and is employed by Dr. Dale C. McDonald D.D.S. as a Dental Assistant.

Card of Thanks

The family of Chane David Bishop expresses our deepest thanks to some very special people who have helped in so many ways while Chane was sick. To the ladies of the Rebekah Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church, the Church of Christ members and choir who sang. A special thanks to Lanny Bahlman. To everyone who brought food, sent prayers and flowers and to all our friends and wonderful neighbors, we thank you. Special thanks, also, to Delores Parks, Sandy Moore and Sherrie Sipes, cousins of Chane's, who gave him loving care the last three months. Thank you to the staff at North Runnels Hospital, to Dr. Richard Thorpe and to James Cross who supported us through it all.

E. J. Hattie Belle and Dane Bishop

Mr. Smith is a 1985 graduate of Ballinger High School, attended Angelo State University and is now attending Howard Payne College in Brownwood. He will be a candidate for graduation in 1991 with a degree in Business Management. Mr. Smith is employed by Consolidated Freightways as terminal dispatcher.

The couple plans an August 18, 1990 wedding.

TDA Warns Of Fraudulent Pesticides Sales

(Austin)—Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower warned today that some unregistered and illegal pesticides are again being marketed in Texas.

"We put an end to a similar scam a year ago when we traced the illegal products to a boiler room operation in Florida," Hightower said. "But the temptation for these operators is apparently too great with the high costs of farming. These out-of-state telephone solicitors are once again trying to undercut sales from legitimate licensed dealers."

"Every year about this time, Texas farmers and ranchers get phone calls from salespeople offering pesticides that are supposedly just like commonly used products, but at reduced prices."

"After comparing the costs, however, the farmer discovers that he or she has paid an exorbitant price for the product—particularly when the product turns out to be almost useless," Hightower said.

Hightower said most of the products are improperly labeled and do not provide the type of pest control promised by the sales people.

In the latest series of incidents, Texas farmers have received calls from Capital Farm Supply, of Coral Springs, Florida. The sales representative, calling himself J.J. Johnson, offered a product called "Corral," claiming it to be a cure-all herbicide that is safe for all uses from fence rows to field crops.

The product is not registered with TDA or the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

All pesticides sold in Texas must be registered with TDA and EPA. Both agencies have strict labeling requirements.

Sale or use of this product is illegal. Most of the complaints received by TDA so far this year have been in the Panhandle, Hightower said.

In 1989, TDA ended a similar sales scheme after a four-month investigation that included help from the Florida Department of Agriculture, United Parcel Service, the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the EPA.

"The easiest way to beat this scam is to buy only from established, well-known businesses," Hightower said. "Texas producers should immediately be suspicious of any telephone sales of pesticides."

Persons with questions of information about possibly illegal sales of pesticides should contact their nearest TDA district office.

Senior Citizens Nursing Home News

By Billie Ruth Bishop

The residents had a full week at the nursing home. Bettye Pinkerton came Monday and entertained with good music as she always does.

Tuesday was Exercise and Bingo. Billie Ruth attended a meeting in Abilene and left everything in good hands, thanks to two volunteers who filled in for her. The home is thankful for all the volunteers and the good work they do.

Wednesday the Lutherans had church services. Mr. Ueckert filled in for the pastor. Thank you for the good devotional.

Thursday was Bingo Day and Friday the residents had a Watermelon Party honoring the Fathers of the nursing home. Certificates were presented to the Oldest Father, Youngest Father, and Father With Most Children. They were, Festus New-Oldest Father (he soon will be 90 years old); Robert Gerhart was the Youngest Father, and Norbert Ueckert was the Father With Most Children. Also a special presentation to Mike Krause, who has become an uncle for the first time and was presented with a T-shirt that read, "Uncle of the Year."

Honored guest was, Mike's nephew, Bill. The home would like to thank all who helped the residents have a good time.

Runnels County Courthouse roof to be repaired

Runnels County Commissioners are considering replacing the tar and roof rock on the Courthouse building with a newer foam type roofing material. Commissioners voted in their meeting June 12 to begin receiving bids for the work. According to County Judge Michael Murchison, the same foam cushion material has been used at Ballinger High School and the hospital.

The foam roof being considered is thicker and is said to have a cushion effect to repel hail. It also should withstand the elements better than the tar and gravel type says Murchison.

In other business, Commissioners granted approval to GTE to bury a telephone cable under county property in Precinct 4. Commissioners also received a proposed appraisal budget for 1990-1991 and a public health profile report submitted by the Texas Department of Health.

Virginia Sissom, from Bronte, was honored with a retirement party Thursday, June 7, 1990, in the Stamp Department at Dry Manufacturing Division. Virginia has worked over 17 years for the company.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Merrill

Miss Johnson-Mr. Merrill Marry in May Ceremony

Sherri Johnson became the bride of John Merrill on May 19, 1990 during a wedding ceremony performed at 6 p.m. in the evening at Winters First Baptist Church, Winters, Texas. Brother Glenn Shoemaker read the double ring vows.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin and Alencon lace formal gown designed with a sweetheart neckline and basque bodice detailed with lace, pearls and iridescent sequins. The double pouffed satin sleeve tops were also decorated with lace, pearls and sequins. Lace only sleeves from slightly above the elbow, ended at wrist points. A fully gathered satin skirt flowed from an elongated waistline and formed a full-length chapel train hemmed with Alencon lace, held at the back by a bustle-type large bow, extending from the waistline to lower hip line. Designer of the gown was Mori Lee Bridals of New York.

The couple's parents are Mrs. Becky Johnson and Mr. Russell Johnson, both of Silver Valley; and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Merrill of Winters. Wanda Corder of Silver Valley and Nancy Littlefield of Weatherford are Sherri's grandmothers. John's grandmothers are Pearl Kile of Winters and Lorena Merrill of Bridge City, Texas.

The bride's fingertip veil of sheer illusion fell from a bandeau of small white, satin flowers held in place with combs and featured a face framing short, pouff of the illusion fabric. Her cascading bouquet was fashioned of Star Gazer Lillies, white roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and fresh greenery.

The church altar area was center-backed by an arch-shaped, brass candelabra and the altar table held a large arrangement of white gladioli, carnations and spidermums. Double tiered, twin brass candelabras flanked the center candleholder and were fronted with baskets of fresh palm greenery. Floral arrangements accented with white tapers were placed at either side of the church front, one each upon the piano and the organ.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Tina Smith, sister of the groom from Winters; maid of honor was Marci Stevenson of Novice and bridesmaids included Christi McCorkle of Silver Valley, Danette Boulton and Tanya Vineyard, both of Novice. All attendant's dresses were sewn of black taffeta and styled with slightly scooped necklines, which formed back v's, short puffed sleeves and flared skirts which extended to ankle length. Teal blue satin bows trimmed the sleeve cuffs and larger teal bows forming bustles graced the back waistlines. Each carried a cascading bouquet of White Star Gazer Lillies, white carnations and greenery tied with large white net bows.

Flowergirls included Misti McCorkle, the bride's niece of Silver Valley, Danette and Jaci Smith, the groom's niece of Winters. Ringbearer, Paige Smith was another niece of the groom from Winters. These three young ladies were dressed in identical teal blue, ankle length dresses styled with rounded necklines, short pouffed sleeves and softly gathered skirts. White lace baskets tied with blue satin bows and filled with fresh flower blossoms were carried by the two flowergirls. Ringbearer, Miss Smith, wore a fresh, white floral corsage and carried the groom's ring upon a white lace covered heart-shaped pillow featuring a blue satin bow in its center.

For his wedding day, Mr. Merrill chose a full dress black tuxedo, complete with black cummerbund and tie and a white French-pleated shirt, accented by his boutonniere of a white rose surrounded by stephanotis and fresh greenery.

The groom's selected best man was his father, Johnny Merrill, who was also dressed in a formal black tuxedo, accented with a teal blue cummerbund and tie. Groomsmen, who were dressed identically to the best man, were Andy Smith, Scott Lancaster, Brent Lancaster and Doug Wheat, all of Winters. All the groom's attendants wore white stephanotis boutonnières sprigged with fresh greenery.

Camille Lancaster of Winters registered guests as they arrived.

Seating guests, and dressed as the other groom's attendants were Doug Moore of Novice, Todd Grantham of Winters, Toby Floyd of Seagraves and George Henning of Odessa. Assisting the groom as ringbearer was Tanner Corder of Tuscola, cousin of the bride. Tanner wore a black tuxedo and a boutonniere identical to that of the groom's other attendants. He carried the bride's ring atop a white, satin covered square pillow edged with ruffled lace.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall supervised by houseparty members: Elaine Moore, Renea McMillan, Nancy Mayes, Renea McGee, Ashley Bell and Christi Poe, serving from the bride's table; and by those serving from the groom's table: Martha Hill, Cindy Rogers and Jane Allcom.

The bride's table, covered with a floor-length, teal blue cloth and white lace overlay, was centered by a large arrangement of fresh, white flowers including carnations, snapdragons, spidermums and baby's breath interspersed by fresh greenery. Punch was held in a large crystal bowl and served from crystal cups. Crystal plates were used to offer portions of the wedding cake whose three tiers were separated by Grecian columns. Carol Kozelsky of Winters baked and decorated the cake whose bottom tier was actually two satellite round cakes surrounded by an array of fresh flowers and small teal bows. A first satellite cake to the second one and then on to the middle cake tier. Standing on the staircase were miniature figurines dressed as the wedding attendants. Placed atop the third and final cake tier was a small bride and groom figurine standing under a lace archway. All cake sections were iced in pure white and featured scalloped detailing circling each round layer. Also served were white, cream cheese rose-shaped mints and nuts.

The groom's chocolate sheet cake, covered in light colored chocolate frosting, pictured a pastoral scene, complete with fencing, green grass and a black show steer. A teal blue table as also did a silver coffee service. Also served were chocolate, boot-shaped mints and nuts from the round table covered with a black linen, floor-length cloth.

After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill will enjoy a short local residency before returning to their studies at Tarleton State University. She graduated from Novice High School in 1989 and will be a fall sophomore Computer major at Tarleton. He graduated in 1987 from Winters High School and is a senior Agriculture Education major at TSU.

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held March 10, 1990 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Novice Baptist Church. Hostesses were:

Karen Harms, Jami Bell, Jerri Ann Chambers, Cecelia Tarr, Sarah Stevenson, Janet Bolton, Shorty Coats, Dorothy Vineyard, Renea McMillan, Virginia Mullins, Lynn Poe, Renea McGee, Nea Wilson, Laudys Pittard, Elaine Moore, Kathy Rose, Ellen Johnson and Becki Sadler.

On April 28, 1990 a gift coffee beginning at 10 a.m. was held in the Winters First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Hostesses included: Cindy Rogers, Neva Puckett, Lois West, Charlotte Lancaster, Carolyn Slaughter, Kim West, Ann Vinson, Bonnie Evans, Sac Sprinkle, Cleo Colburn, Jane Allcom and Robbie Fuchs.

Nancy Mayes, Renea McMillan and Alice Hemphill served as hostesses at a recipe and kitchen shower on April 29, 1990 in the Mayes home near Talpa.

TEXAS TRAILS
LONE STAR STATE HISTORY by DAN BROWN

FIRST BARBED FENCE...
Most people think barbed wire came to Texas in the 1870's, but the first barbed fence in the Lone Star State was erected in Austin in the 1850's by John Grinninger. An iron worker, Grinninger got tired of his neighbor's livestock eating his vegetable patch and his fruit trees. To solve the problem, Grinninger attached jagged iron strips atop his wooden fence.

Jill Traylor

Jill Traylor to compete in Miss Texas Contest

Jill Marie Traylor, a graduate of Winters High School, will be competing for the crown of Miss Texas U.S.A. 1991 this summer. The pageant will be held in San Antonio June 23 through July 2.

Jill is the 21 year-old daughter of Elizabeth Ryan and Marvin Traylor, both of Winters. She is currently a senior at Angelo State University where she is pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree in both English and Communication.

Jill hopes to pursue a career in teaching or public relations. She has attended Angelo State full time since the fall of 1987 when she received a Carr Academic Scholarship. This past year Jill was named an A.S.U. Model, which is a segment of the U.C.P.C. Hospitality Board, and she has also been named a finalist in the 1991 Wild West Women Calendar. As a segment of the calendar competition, Jill attended a photo shoot in Corpus Christi on June 3 with photographer Don Gallion. The results of that competition will be announced in September.

In high school, Jill was a member of the National Honor Society, the Blizzard Band, T.A.F.E., and Student Council. Her junior year, she acted as class president and her senior year, she was Student Council secretary.

Jill was also active in U.I.L. competitions. Her junior year she was named to the district All-Star Cast in One-Act Play and her senior year, was named to the district and area All-Star Cast. Jill also placed first at the district U.I.L. Ready-Writing contest her senior year.

In 1986 Jill was crowned Miss Winters and also Runnels County Universal Beauty. At the State Universal Beauty Pageant Jill paced in the top ten. In 1987 she was crowned Sno Queen. Other honors in high school include 1987 Band Sweetheart, and 1987 FFA Queen. Her peers also voted her Most Likely to Succeed.

Jill received second runner-up honors at the 1989 and 1990 Miss San Angelo Pageant and was named 1990 Miss Photogenic San Angelo. Jill's title for the Miss Texas Pageant is Miss Tom Green County.

Quarter Horse Assoc. schedules Summer Circuit June 20-24

The annual Big Country Quarter Horse Association Summer Classic will be held June 20-24 at the West Texas Fairgrounds in Abilene. Reining classes will kick off each performance beginning at 8 a.m. in the Expo Center Horse Barn Arena, followed by the working cowhorse and the roping events. Meanwhile, hunter hack classes will be the initial event each day in the outdoor arena, followed immediately by working hunter and jumping. A total of eighty-seven action packed classes will be held each day.

Hundreds of entries from numerous states are expected to compete in the American Quarter Horse Association-approved shows. Youth, amateur, and open competitors will be vying for the all-around saddles, made by Nick Pemokas Saddlery of Stephenville, which will be awarded in each division. Novice competitors will be competing for beautiful all-around buckles. Woolen coolers will be awarded the reserve all-around winner in each division. Circuit champions in each class will receive director's chairs. Acco Feed and Nutrena Feed will furnish a bag of feed to the first place winners on three days of the show.

There will be no admission charge for spectators, so come out and see the great American quarter horse in action. For information call (915) 754-4097.

Remember Wanna P'Like?

contributed by anonymous

First let me give you a little background of my p'like. Think back at least thirty-five years ago and up to as much as seventy-five years ago. The hey-day of p'like was pre-television. My p'like covered a period of time from the early 1940s to the mid-50s, slightly more than ten years.

There had been three recent changes in society which influenced the playing of my generation. First, there was the Civil War era. There had been a mere seventy years since the cessation of hostilities of The War. Second, was the end of the Plains Indians as a nomadic, warrior society. The Indian Wars of the American Southwest were successfully concluded by the surrender of the last hostile, Apache War-Shaman, Geronimo, in 1886 at Skeleton Canyon. This was only a bit more than fifty years before the time of my p'like. Then, there was the third period, the era of the Gunfighter. Be he hero or villain he was a man to fire the imagination of the young boys of the Southwest. The gunfighter functioned in a span of roughly forty years: 1860 to 1900.

This was basically the same time span as the trail drives which saw the birth of those great cattle towns: Abilene, Dodge, Caldwell, and Hays City, among others. These were terminal towns for the drives. We are also reminded of towns and cities of Texas as these were the places where the drives originated, outfitted, or passed near on their way North: Longview, Waco, Fort Worth, El Paso, etc., etc.

There were two distinct legends which developed in these years. The first was the legend of the cowboy. Which is, in the main, the story of a group of unnamed, unknown men who captured the attention of our nation by moving great herds of cattle across the length and breadth of our land to feed the mass of humanity in the North and the East. This was done against apparent insurmountable odds by men who came to be called cowboys. These cowboys were basically law abiding young men from the South. They had seen the economy of their homeland destroyed by The War. They turned to the cattle herd as the only way many of them could see to "make a grocery bill" and to get a new start.

The second legend to develop at this same time was that of The Gunfighter. He preferred to make his way, not by "pushing" cattle, but by his skill with a pistol. He was only a man like any other, but his reflexes were a shade faster; his nerves a little steadier. He was the marshall, the outlaw, the sheriff, the town-tamer, the peace-keeper. He was The Gunfighter. The tools of his trade were the Colt, the Webley, or the Smith and Wesson.

A roll call of The Gunfighters almost sounds like a litany of the saints: John Wesley Hardin, James B. Gillett, Luke Short, Jesse James, John Ringo. Long-Haired Jim Courtright, Tom Horn, Billy the Kid, Dallas Stoudenmire, Lee Christmas, Bill Longley, Captain John R.

Hughes, Pat Garrett, John Selman, and on and on with the names of the famous and the infamous.

The above is written in order to say, "Wanna p'like?" Remember p'like? One boy would ask another, "Wanna p'like sojers (soldiers)?" "Wanna p'like cowboys and indians?" "Wanna p'like outlaws and marshalls?"

We have just considered and remembered a few of the real life gunfighters who helped shape our American West. But do you happen to remember that the world of p'like also had its list of greats and near greats? They were the celluloid heroes of the Saturday matinee. We joined them weekly at the Lyric, the Queen, the State and myriad other theatres all across the Southwest. If you will pause and listen close you can almost hear them slipping across the big screen, even yet. There they come now. Whip Wilson! Lash LaRue! Cisco Kid! Gene Autrey! Randolph Scott! Sunset Carson! Roy Rogers! and on and on. For every one I have mentioned you can recall at least ten more. These were as well known as the Colt of Samuel B. These manufacturers of fine hand guns were such well known makers as Hubley, Acme, Wyandotte, Circle W, Actoy, Hawk and Daisy. Yes, Daisy! Daisy made a cap pistol. These were the manufacturers, but do you happen to remember your favorite model? There were Texan, Texan Jr., and Trooper by Hubley. There were Echo, Dick, Pal, Pet, and Zip. There was the 45 Smoker by Product Engineering Co. of Portland, Oregon. And other models and styles without number. I am reasonably sure that I did miss your best shooter. But maybe, just maybe, this did hurl you back in time to a simple time and place of 40 or more years ago.

For those of us who have fond memories of these fantastic hand guns from out of the past, there will be a representative display of styles and models showcased at Bahlman Jewelers.

Now do you remember wanna p'like?

Scholarship Fund to honor Floy Hood Hodge

Former students of Winters High School are establishing a scholarship fund in honor of Floy Hood Hodge.

Miss Hood taught English and Drama in Winters High School from 1940 thru 1946 when she married Homer Hodge, Jr. and resigned her teaching position. Although her teaching career was not as long as many, it was of the highest quality. Her teaching and her work with students in projects outside the classrooms had a strong and lasting influence on many students.

The scholarship fund will be set up similarly to one previously established to honor Pearl Jackson.

The fund is administered by the Winters Independent School District. The recipient of the scholarship is to be selected each year by a committee composed primarily of the Superintendent and teachers.

The Winters State Bank will be the custodian of the money and invest the principal to earn income to pay the scholarship.

TDA AWARDED PENALTIES AGAINST UNLICENSED PESTICIDE APPLICATOR

(Austin) — A judge in Eastland County has ordered a pesticide applicator to comply with the state's licensing requirements and to pay a $2,000 civil penalty.

The order is part of the settlement of a lawsuit filed at the request of Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower by Attorney General Jim Mattox against "Pinky" Doyle L. Jobe of Gorman, an unlicensed commercial pesticide applicator. The lawsuit filed in the Eastland County District Court alleged that Jobe applied restricted pesticides for hire without the required license.

"These unlicensed applicators are a real problem for the Texas Department of Agriculture and legitimate, law-abiding applicators," Hightower said. "Some producers hire them because they're cheaper than a legitimate licensed applicator. Often the unlicensed applicators are saving money by breaking the law. They don't pay for and go through training to get a license."

"Although we don't know whether this applicator was carrying adequate insurance when we caught him, we do know that some unlicensed applicators don't insure their businesses. If they have an accident, the farmer whose crop is damaged may be left with no recourse. Farmers and legitimate pesticide applicators should be protected from these businesses," Hightower said. State law requires that commercial applicators using restricted pesticides be trained and licensed and that they prove that they have insurance to protect persons who may suffer damages or injury as a result of the operations of the applicator.

Visitors attending were, Alvaro Robles, Avoca; Myrtle Nichols, Coleman; Jim Robertson, San Angelo; Johnny and Ann Walker, Ovalo; and Marie Pritchard, Winters.

The scholarship fund drive is being spearheaded by the Classes of 1945, 1946, 1947 and 1948, who are having a reunion dinner at the Kiva Inn, 5403 South 1st Street in Abilene. The dinner will be at 7:30 p.m., June 29. Registration will begin at 1 p.m. in the lobby of the Kiva.

For the convenience of those wishing to make a contribution to this fund to honor Floy Hood Hodge, collection boxes will be available at the reunion dinner and at the breakfast at the school on June 30.

It is hoped that enough will be raised during the Reunion/Centennial activities to fully fund a scholarship.

Contributions are tax deductible. If a person desires a receipt for tax purposes, the contribution should be made by check.

One, $1,000 contribution has already been pledged to the fund.

Lutheran Church to have special guests June 28

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church will have a special guest Thursday, June 28, 1990. Lai Yoke Kiew, the Woman to Woman representative for Lutheran Church in Malaysia and Singapore. Members of Lutheran Churches in the Rolling Plains Conference and surrounding towns will join Winters Lutherans in attending the 100th Birthday Celebration activities downtown that day and the pageant that night.

Plans are also being made to visit the museum and tour some of Winters and the country side.

Lai Yoke Kiew, is currently serving as financial controller for Diamond Properties, Cheong Sawmills, Lai Hon Wah & Sons and East Mount Agency. She is active in her church and has promoted women's issues as chairperson of the Sisters' Fellowship of the Lutheran Church in Malaysia and Singapore, chairperson of the Cheras Christian Church Council, treasurer of Agape Counseling Center Malaysia and former treasurer of the Lutheran Church in Malaysia and Singapore. Kiew speaks English, Chinese and Malay. Kiew has attended secondary school and university studies for an accounting degree.

Woman to Woman is an international cross-cultural program of awareness and shared understanding between Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in American and women of Lutheran Churches around the world. Woman to Woman is about mission and ministry. It is about bringing together Lutheran women to share, celebrate and affirm the richness and diversity of cultures from which they come. It is about building bridges for mutual support.

During June 1990, twenty-seven women leaders from overseas Lutheran Churches will come to visit Women of the ECLA. They will travel throughout the synods of the church for four weeks and conclude their visit at the Triennial Convention, July 12-15, 1990 in Anaheim, California.

The citizens of Winters are invited to meet and visit with the guests during their visit.

Tickets on sale for Art Show

The 17th annual Preview Party for the Stamford Texas Cowboy Reunion Art Show and Sale will be held July 3 at 6:30 p.m., at the John Selman Memorial Gallery on the TCR grounds at Stamford. Approximately 40 artists will be participating in the show which will include western art in watercolor, oils, sculpture and pottery.

Ticket purchases will include drinks, dinner, a dance under the pavilion featuring a western band and a chance to win $200 toward the purchase of a piece of art of the winner's choice.

A special feature of this year's show will be the quick draw artists. These artists will have one hour to paint a picture on black canvas. When the artists have completed their paintings, they will be auctioned off with half of the proceeds going to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center and the other half going to the artist. For more information contact Nancy Russell, (915) 773-3146.
