"ELY ROADSIDE PARK" IS SUGGESTED

Last week when County Commissioners S. A. Kiker, and Ben Brooks and Robert Knierim were in conference with Judge W. R. Ely, State Highway Commissioner, in his office at Abilene relative to road improvement work in Coke county, Judge Ely "opened his heart" to the visitors and disclosed to them a vision he has relative to the Butterfield Trail and old Fort Chadbourne.

Commissioner Ely made known to his callers that he had in mind a roadside park at old Fort Chadbourne—a park out of the ordinary. He wants it to be a park dedicated more especially to old-fashioned camp meetings—meetings in which the doctrinal differences of the religious denominations shall never be mentioned. But a great union meeting, of the old-fashioned kind, shall be held each summer and the preachers of the various denominations shall be invited to participate. Let the outstanding preachers of the various religious denominations from over Texas and elsewhere be invited to take part in the meeting. And Judge Ely's idea is not to let the people know from one day to the next who the preacher for the day is.

Judge Ely also has in mind to make it a park of the most beautiful type—not only to preserve the old fort buildings that remain, but also to dam Oak creek and have a lake that will be a thing of beauty. Judge Ely thinks it can be made one of the most attractive parks in all the southwest. And with the unique feature of making the outstanding inducement the park will offer to tourists and vacationists an old-fashioned camp meeting, he believes, worthwhile people will be attracted from all over the country to come to roadside park for an outing and to attend the "camp meetin'."

The Enterprise seconds the motion. We likewise rise to offer another motion and that is that this park be christened: "Ely Roadside Park."

BRONTE SCOUTS PLACE STONE IN COUNCIL MESS HALL.

The Concho Valley Council of the Boy Scouts are "a going concern"—"there's a reason, you know," the Bronte Scouts are a part of them.

Camp Louis Farr at Mertzon is a contribution of Fayette Tankersley, one of the big old-time cowmen of the West, at Mertzon, to the Boy Scouts of the Concho Valley Council, and to the memory of his life-long friend, Louis Farr, deceased of San Angelo.

The Concho Valley Council of Boy Scouts embraces several counties in which is included Coke county. The Bronte Scouts in the past have been prominent in all the affairs of the Concho Valley Council.

With the gift of the Camp Louis Farr on Spring Creek, in Brian county, the Scouts of the Concho Valley Council have had an improvement program on, at which they have worked as they have had means. Their latest improvement is that of a large mess hall. The plan is to get all the Troops in the Council to have part in making this mess hall a memorable building in Scout circles throughout the southwest.

The letter below to Robert Knierim as one of the local scout leaders is self-explanatory:

"Dear Scout Leader:

"Get going and keep going."

"We have completed the foundation for our big new mess hall and recreation building at Camp Louis Farr. The lumber is on the ground. The rock is being moved up at the rate of 96 truck loads a day. The cement for the concrete floor is on the ground. We have every assurance that our building will be completed during the first few days of September.

"This building is in the most beautiful setting in the most beautiful Boy Scout camp in the Ninth Region, comprising Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, and we say without fear of contradiction that it will be the most talked of camp in all the Southwest. Every feature of the building has been carefully planned and matched, so that it will be perfect in every detail.

"Here is the big opportunity for you and the boys of your Troop to have a part in this building. We are constructing in the mess hall a large fireplace, which is 12 feet wide (in side measurements,) and which we propose to be the most unique fireplace in this section. We want every town and Troop to have a rock in this fireplace. We want this rock to have sealed within it the names of the present Scouts and ex-Scouts and the officials connected with Scouting in your locality or Troop.

"This rock should be from 12 to 18 inches 'square,' or any shape that will fit into the rock work. It should be an attractive rock, preferably of some colored material. Please drill out a hole on the front face of your rock large enough to insert the typewritten paper containing the names of the Scouts and officials of your Troop.

Then seal this hole with cement, using a flint arrowhead or spear point to seal the cavity. Wrap this stone in burlap and send it to Boy Scout Headquarters, San Angelo, or direct to Camp Louis Farr at Mertzon. You should be able to find someone coming to San Angelo who will bring this stone to the City Hall.

"Will you please do three things: 1. Appoint a man and a boy who will be responsible for getting this stone ready and into our hands by August 15th. 2. Give a short description of this fireplace and project to your local newspaper. 3. Sign the enclosed card and drop it in the mail today.

"Sincerely yours,

"B. W. Draper,
"Scout Executive."

It is needless to state that no time was lost in getting the stone ready and sending it as directed.

Hermon Rogge and Dwain Leonard secured the stone and dressed it. The typewritten roster of all Scout officers and Scout members was drafted and put in the rock, then, Frank Hearn sealed it. Alvin Ott carried and delivered it at San Angelo.

Mrs. Noah Pruitt and Miss Pearl Mae Warner were shoppers in Sweetwater Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dubose and children have returned to their home at Las Cruces, New Mexico, after a visit with relatives and friends.

HON. FRANK DICKEY SPEARS HERE SATURDAY

Hon. Frank Dickey of Ballinger will speak on the streets of Bronte Saturday afternoon on the question of the repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Judge Dickey needs no introduction from The Enterprise—for his name is a household word throughout "these diggin's." "Frank" is an old Coke county boy who has gone out and "made good." Whether you agree with him or not, hear him, for most all know that as a speaker he is "a man with a message."

The speaking will be late enough in the afternoon for the shades to have lengthened and therefore a cool, shady place on the streets will be found for the speaking.

Come hear Judge Dickey.

THE WOMANS PROGRESSIVE CLUB

Mrs. Lucy Warner was hostess to the Womans' Progressive Club and other guests on Thursday of last week at her ranch home, ten miles southwest of Bronte.

Table games and contests featured the entertainment for the afternoon.

Mrs. Chas. Baker won high score in bridge. Low, Mrs. O. H. Willoughby; 42 high, Mrs. Allen Butner and Mrs. Charles Keeney, low.

In a clever vacation contest Mrs. Frank Keeney proved herself the capable winner.

At the close of the afternoon's diversions an ice course was served to the following:

Mesdames J. D. Leonard, F. S. Higginbotham, Frank Keeney, Allen Butner Geo. R. Humlong, John Clapp, A. N. Rawlings, Chas. Baker, O. H. Willoughby, L. T. Youngblood, Clint Wilkins, Albert Rawlings, R. L. Keyes, and Misses Della Higginbotham and Betty Butner.

A DELIGHTFUL DAY

Ye editor and Mrs. Editor had one of the delightful days of their lives Sunday.

Some weeks ago the editor's old-time friend, J. D. Perkins from Orient was in town. We met on the streets. We tried to get him to come to our home with us. But, he plead the lack of time. Then he extended us an invitation to visit him—as a means of punishment for his not coming to our home with us, we accepted his invitation.

Our old friend's invitation was for us to come and lead in the worship at the church and then ye editor and Mrs. Editor be the guests of Mrs. Perkins and himself at lunch. And in the invitation he said "right smart" about "fried chicken 'n accessories and iced tea and 'good ol' iced buttermilk"—fact is, he talked to us, just like he used to do, when he was running for sheriff, a long time ago and he wanted us to vote for him—he made it so plain to us that we ought to support him, we could not refuse—nor could we refuse his invitation to lunch with him, with that vision of "all them good things to eat."

Sunday was agreed upon as the day. So, we and the Mrs. Editor began making our arrangements accordingly.

Sunday morning a goodly congregation of the people of Orient and surrounding community gathered for worship. To the writer it was an inspiration and help to worship with those fine people.

Following worship, the visitors went as guests of the Perkins.

Bronte School Opens With Large Attendance and Great Enthusiasm

The Bronte school opened for the summer term of its 1933-1934 session, Monday morning, August 14.

No term of the school ever opened perhaps under auspices more happy than this session. This evidently is true, far as the spirit of all who are concerned in the school is involved. The depression and the terrible financial status of the country and the depressed spirit of the people, it is true, has its weight as heavily on the school and its interest and its work the same as everywhere else.

But, for the time being, at least, Superintendent E. A. Hankins, his faculty members, the members of the board of education present, the pupils and the patrons forgot the depression, and all caught the spirit of the occasion. Hence, beaming, smiling faces were on every hand and good will and highest enthusiasm prevailed.

It was the largest attendance the writer has seen at a school opening for these years he has been attending such occasions in Bronte.

In happiest mood, Superintendent Hankins assumed charge of the opening exercises as the great crowd assembled in the auditorium.

L. T. Youngblood, president of the board of education, was introduced. Mr. Youngblood set the spirit of enthusiasm to going in the hearts of the faculty, patrons and pupils as he discussed with reference to educational school matters and the Bronte school in particular.

It was the privilege of the writer to speak briefly, following up the same line of thought presented by Mr. Youngblood.

O. D. Spoons as a member of the board of education spoke, dealing with the difficulties that confront the school in its internal affairs and the importance of the co-operation of both patrons and pupils. Mr. Spoons' address was timely and well received.

At this juncture Superintendent Hankins in his usual happy way presented the members of the faculty to the audience, and each teacher responded in happy vein.

The teachers presented were: Miss Nell Lowry, Mrs. Geo. Thomas, Mrs. D. Hull, Mrs. Lucy Warner, Miss Nora English, Miss Patterson, Miss Hooper, Prof. Gulley, Prof. Fitzhugh, Mrs. E. A. Hankins, Prof. Roy Brey and Mrs. C. C. Holder.

Then in a spirit of deepest earnestness Prof. Hankins concluded the program with a depiction of his vision for the school for the incoming year.

Thus another school year is launched in the Bronte school and the extent of the achievements depends on the faculty, the pupils and the patrons.

May it indeed be a year of worthwhile achievements!

The three new members of the faculty are: Prof. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Warner and Miss Hooper. To these as well as to the old members of the faculty and to Superintendent Hankins, The Enterprise joins with all our people in heartiest welcome!

CHADBOURNE BAPTISTS BEGIN MEETING SUNDAY

The Baptist congregation at Fort Chadbourne requests The Enterprise to announce that the annual meeting of the Baptists of that community will begin Sunday morning August 20, at the 11 o'clock hour.

Rev. James Armstrong from Drasco will begin the meeting and carry on till Rev. Winston Blaine of Abilene arrives which will be about the middle of the week.

Both preachers are said to be excellent pulpiteers and hence a helpful meeting is looked forward to by the congregation.

There will be two services daily—morning and evening. The meeting will continue over at least through the next Sunday.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

CHURCH OF CHRIST WILL BEGIN MEETING SOON

Wednesday night of next week, August 23, Elder Cox of Mineral Wells will begin the regular annual meeting of the Bronte Church of Christ.

Elder Cox will preach twice daily. The hours have not yet been definitely decided upon by the congregation. But, it is thought by the local leaders of the church that the worship will be at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the night service will be at the accustomed hour for evening worship.

Elder Cox comes reputed as a most excellent Christian gentleman and a pulpit speaker of unusual ability and a profound and widely acquainted scholar of the Scriptures. Local leaders ask The Enterprise to state that everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

A drouth is in prospect.

PIONEER CITIZEN DIES SUDDENLY

S. A. Robertson of Fort Chadbourne died suddenly Saturday morning, August 12. Mr. Robertson had gone to the well on the Charley Copeland place, to get a wagon load of water for use at his home. His twelve-year old stepdaughter, Leora Reed, was with him. It was about 7:30 in the morning. He had just finished filling the water barrels and went around to pick up the lines. As he stooped he slumped over and was dead. The little girl gave the alarm. Neighbors rushed to the place and medical aid was called but no avail.

The body was taken to the home of relatives at Edith where it lay until Sunday morning, at which time funeral services were held at the Edith tabernacle at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. D. K. Smith, a Baptist minister of that place. Burial was in the Paint Creek cemetery.

Deceased was born in the Indian Territory, August 22, 1872, making him to be sixty-one years his next birthday.

Deceased came to Texas in 1881. In 1901 he came to West Texas and has resided here since that time.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church of which he was a consistent member.

A wife and nine children and other relatives survive to mourn his passing. May they have divine comfort.

D. R. Teague and family from Hope, New Mexico spent Thursday night of last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lockhart. Mr. Teague is a brother of Mrs. Lockhart. They had been to Brady, visiting relatives and came this way on their return home for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart.

BRUTON OFFERS BARGAINS

C. E. Bruton is on "a rampage" this week—he is offering some real bargains.

Mr. Bruton is local dealer for the Firestone tires. Mr. Bruton and the Firestone people are out with almost a page ad with reference to Firestone tires and tubes. Everybody knows the good qualities of the Firestone. But Mr. Bruton and the Firestone people are pushing their business just at this time, which is good for them and for the country at large—that is what the NEA wants. If every bus-

SENIOR CLASS ORGANIZED

The Senior Class of 1933, with an enrollment of 23, met August 16 to organize the class. The following officers were elected: President, R. I. Collier. Vice-President, Pharris Mackey. Secretary, Gladys Mae Ash. Treasurer, Jim Eubanks. Sponsor, Prof. E. A. Hankins. Class Mother, Mrs. R. R. Ash. Every member of the class intends to strive hard toward their diplomas at the end of the school year.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Services at the Methodist church, Sunday, August 20th: Sunday school 10 A. M. Preaching services 11 A. M. Epworth League 7:30 P. M. Evening worship 8:15 P. M.

These services are all important and were instituted to meet a vital need in the lives of the people. These needs are spiritual, and being spiritual, they are most vital.

The young people's division is doing good work and there has been a marked increase both in attendance and in interest. We want our young people's organization to be the best possible. It can be. We are counting on our young people.

Let everyone be in his place at each of these services and put forth his utmost to make them mean what God intends that they should mean to this town.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the Methodist church. "The church with a Welcome for All."

Wallace N. Dunson,
Pastor.

Business in Bronte would follow the example of Mr. Bruton and the Firestone people business would "come alive."

Mr. Bruton is also making remarkably low prices on ducking for tomorrow only—and also on one of the fine lines of coffee he carries.

Read both Mr. Bruton's ads and visit him tomorrow.

ATTENTION!

Don't neglect your eyes. If they burn, headaches, or objects blur when reading or doing close work, have them properly examined and glasses fitted if needed.

If your child's eyes hurt, or they are backward in their school work, have their eyes examined at once.

I will be in BRONTE, TEXAS, SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, at the City Drug Store, to examine eyes and fit glasses.

SCHOOL NEWS

We have had the best opening week of school in all of my school experience. We have had the best work, school spirit, and least friction I have ever seen. I am very optimistic as to the outlook for a most successful school term.

Our enrollment has already passed the 400 mark with new ones coming in every day. We have around 105 in High School, with 23 in the senior class, and prospects for two more. A finer class never adorned the study hall of Bronte school. Everyone work and boost for the Bronte school, and see it go over the top this year.

To appreciate the work we are doing requires a visit to the school. So come and see for yourself.

I am happy to announce that Miss Lillian Kiker has been added to the faculty. Her work is high first and low second, with an enrollment of about 30.

E. A. Hankins,
Superintendent.

MRS. ELIZA VAN ZANDT DIES

After a lingering illness of several years Mrs. Eliza Van Zandt died at the family home, seven miles north of Bronte, on the Sweetwater highway, Monday night, August 14, 1932.

Burial was in the old Fort Chadbourne cemetery, late Tuesday afternoon, following religious services at the graveside, conducted by a minister of the Church of Christ, whose name The Enterprise failed to get. Deceased had long been a consistent and faithful member of the Church of Christ.

Deceased was born in Missouri in 1867. She and Dave Van Zandt were united in marriage, and they came to Texas in 1900, locating in the Fort Chadbourne community where the family has since resided. Her husband preceded her in death a few years ago.

Deceased is survived by seven children: Mrs. Mark Balentine, Girvin; Mrs. Cap Blair, Winters; Mrs. Oscar Clift, Corpus Christi; Homer Van Zandt, Plainview; Mrs. A. J. McDaniel, Jodie and T. J. Van Zandt, Fort Chadbourne.

605 DIE OF APPENDICITIS

Austin, Texas, August 17.—During the past year 605 persons died of appendicitis in Texas, according to the Director of Vital Statistics for the State Department of Health. Many of these deaths were caused by the persons' ignorance of the disease.

There are two forms of appendicitis, acute and chronic. The form that appears suddenly, with great pain and sickness, is a acute. Chronic appendicitis may extend over a long period of time and consists of slight attacks at intervals, but, at some time, there will usually occur an attack worse than any before and the disease may then become serious.

The acute attack appears suddenly. The first symptom is pain, some times over the entire abdomen, sometimes in a particular portion in the right side of the abdomen. Sometimes this pain extends around to the back or down into the right limb. The pain is cramp-ickle and is often
