DIED IN OKLAHOMA

Fred Pruitt died at McAlister, Oklahoma, Saturday night, October 14, 1933. The body was returned to Bronte for interment. Burial was Tuesday afternoon, following religious services at the home of his brother, Dick Pruitt.

Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruitt. His father passed away a few years ago.

Deceased was born at Groveton, but came with his parents to Bronte several years ago. He was born October 3, 1891, making him to be forty-two years and eleven days old when death claimed him.

Deceased was a World War veteran. He volunteered to go into service and was with Battery D, 126 Field Artillery. He was the first Bronte boy to return home from France. At the time he was stricken with his fatal illness he was in the U. S. Forestry Service, in a company made up exclusively of World War veterans. His Company sent a most beautiful wreath of flowers.

In 1914 he was united in marriage to Miss Josie Le Thompson. To this union six children were born, five of whom survive with their mother and their aged grandmother, four brothers and two sisters to mourn his going.

Deceased professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church at Duncan, Oklahoma seven years ago—his membership remained there.

Religious services were conducted by Rev. Lewis Stucky assisted by the writer. Many old-time friends of deceased and the family gathered to pay the last tribute to his memory.

Following the religious services the body was taken charge of by the local post American Legion and was given a military burial. The flag-draped casket was followed to the silent place by his comrades. When the interment was finished a detachment of ex-service men, under the command of C. C. Holder, marched to the graveside and fired the three volleys in the soldier's salute. T. M. Wylie sounded taps, the benediction was spoken and those who had gathered turned quietly from the soldier's graveside and left the body to sleep undisturbed until time shall be no more.

The sorrowing wife, children, aged mother, brothers and sisters have the sympathy of all their friends in this hour of sorrow. May they have divine comfort.

BRONTE SCHOOL RESUMES AFTER MONTH VACATION

Silence that had reigned supreme in the corridors of the Bronte school building for a month was broken Monday by the laughter and shouts of the happy-faced school children, as they gathered again to resume their school work after a month of vacation.

School recessed some weeks ago so that the children whose fathers are cotton farmers could aid in the gathering of the cotton.

Work was resumed Monday morning with a good attendance and much enthusiasm. There was no difficulty anywhere in taking up the classes and their work where they were when the recess was taken. Superintendent Hankins informs The Enterprise that everything is running smoothly as if there had been no recess.

Deputy sheriff Paul Good was over today from Robert Lee.

Rev. Lewis Stucky becomes a subscriber to "the old home town" paper, for which he has our thanks. May he live a hundred years to enjoy the weekly visits of the paper. We have known Rev. Stucky many years but not intimately. He comes from Bell county where we spent several years, and it is delightful as he has told us of many of our old-time friends there. Rev. Stucky says that as he gets acquainted with the people here, he likes Bronte and the Bronte country more and more.

He is consistent, can do nothing

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to all our friends and the good people generally of Bronte and also of Rush Springs, Oklahoma, for your many kindnesses to us and your beautiful sympathy in the death of our loved one, Fred Pruitt. We shall cherish the kindly words spoken by Rev. D. M. West and Rev. Lewis Stucky. We also wish to express our appreciation for the floral offering and for every kindness shown us by each and all. May God abundantly bless you each and all.

His wife, children and other relatives.

THE WOMAN'S PROGRESSIVE CLUB

The Woman's Progressive Club met on October 12 with Mrs. Cova Collier. This not being business day the lesson was led by the hostess. Each member of the club answered roll call by giving something that was typically Grecian.

A Day in Athens—Davis, given by Mrs. T. M. Wylie, concluded the program and the hostess served a delicious plate to club members and four guests.

The Club will meet with Mrs. Ed Cumbie on November 2 and the program will be on Italy.

T. M. Wylie Sr. was a business visitor to San Angelo Monday.

TURKEY SCHOOL DATE IS CHANGED

Last week The Enterprise carried an announcement of the turkey school to be held in Bronte, November 11.

The date for the school has been moved up to November 3. The date was changed due to the fact that Prof. E. N. Holgreen, of College Station, who is to conduct the school, could not come on November 11.

Remember: The date is November 3.

ATTENTION! EX-SERVICE MEN!

The meeting of the George Scott Post American Legion will be Monday night, October 23, at the regular meeting place. It is earnestly desired that all ex-service men, and especially our members be present. Don't fail to attend—you are needed.

Read the program of the two days of fun elsewhere in this issue of The Enterprise.

It's subscription time. Thanks.

BLACKWELL COMMERCIAL CLUB TRADES DAY—TO BE HELD MONDAY

Things are "humming" at Blackwell!

The source of the merry-making is the big Trades Day stunt the business men and other interested citizens are to "pull off" Monday, October 23. The big event is under the auspices of the Blackwell Commercial Club.

The Commercial Club was only recently organized—but it is functioning successfully as if it had been a long time in existence. Recently they had a "Get Together" party and it was pronounced by all as a "sweeping success."

The big event scheduled for Monday is looked forward to by not only the business men of the town but by all others as a day of significance. It will not only be an enjoyable day for all who attend but will also be an enjoyable day for Blackwell citizens to have the folks as their guests that day.

A real worth while program has been arranged and the merchants are making very special prices on merchandise for the day. Hence a day that will be profitable as well as enjoyable is in store for those who go there to buy merchandise Monday.

All Blackwell joins in the invitation to everybody to spend the day in Blackwell, Monday, October 23, 1933.

Prof. J. S. Armstrong, superintendent of the Divide school in Nolan county was in Bronte Thursday. Prof. Armstrong came to have some repair work done on one of their school buses and to get the hot water heater of the school repaired. Prof. Armstrong reported the work of his school as moving along most satisfactorily.

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office at Bronte, Texas, March 1, 1918, under Act of Congress, August 12, 1871.

The bright October days have come,
And hallow'een draweth nigh,
Then comes Thanksgiving,
And "good ol' 'punkin' pie."
Selah!

—Office Boy.

The "high lights" of "affable Jim:" Born at Grassy Point, graduated at Stony Point, seems to think much about poker point and dwells long at sports point—ye gods and patriots! What great ideals of America's seemingly great men! The youth of today can quote the poet and get inspiration by the handfuls: "The lives of great men remind us,

That we too can make our lives sublime,
Ant departing leave behind us,
Our footprints in the sands of time"
But, of course, we will have to leave them at the poker table and the race course.

"I have lived to make race track gambling legal in Texas," is the boast of a man now in old age. His achievements have been wonderful (?) haven't they? He certainly has much (?) to cheer him and to make his last days peaceful. There ought to be a law to take the surplus wealth of a man who will not use his money for the common good, and apply to the providing of homes for the poor. And such will become law in the future. No man should be allowed because he has money to use it to the detriment of the oncoming generations of youth.

After all, no Democrat is more inconsistent than the one who voted for Roosevelt and Garner and at the same time berates Jim Ferguson. And if those senators that were after Ferguson during the recent session of the legislature voted for Ferguson, they are a party to any wrongdoing of which he might be guilty. There is no denying it Jim Ferguson was elected by the majority of the Democrats of Texas, or there is no such thing as a democratic party in this State. So, the man who voted for Ferguson can consistently do nothing but sit by and see him do just whatever he pleases—he is democracy's representative—Texas democrats put him where he is. If there was doubt as to the attitude of the national democratic leaders towards Ferguson that doubt is now banished since "affable Jim" and "Farmer Jim" and "Cactus Jack" put their virtuous feet under the same democratic table together, at the banquet tendered these three great (?) patriots and Democrats in Fort Worth and Dallas this week.

And it's "Farmer Jim," "Affable Jim" and "Cactus Jack"—and the Lord pity the jack pot!

It is a national disgrace—the part that Jack Garner and Jim Farley took in attending Arlington Downs and thus giving the sanction of the great country they represent to legalized gambling. Gambling like liquor drinking is great enough curse when it is done illegally. Bootlegging liquor is bad everywhere—there is only one other thing about it that is worse, and that is for it to be sold legally—the same is true about gambling. Every citizen of this land who has any interest whatever in the morals of the youth of today will hang his head in shame that the two men of this great country, who are supposed to be the greatest save the president himself, would with brazen effrontery, cast an obstacle mountain high across the pathway of every mother who sincerely and devoutly desires and prays that she may rear her boys to be sober and honest men—and the mother who thus does not desire above everything else should have the privileges of motherhood taken away from her, for she is the most infamous defaulter of them all.

"Affable Jim" and "Farmer Jim" and "Cactus Jack" sat down together at the banquet table. The picture lacked two or three others being complete. "Uncle Bill" Kellis should have been seated at the right of "Farmer Jim" and Amon G. Carter between "Jim and Jim" and every protestant church official and minister who voted for Roosevelt should have been seated at the right of the poker-playing, race-track-visiting, big, devout, pope-toe-kissing Jim Farley—now, listen at some little, weazen-voiced fellow shout "religious big" at us! He is a sport and thinks usually only in sporting terms and was sporting commissioner in New York City. And greater still he is a traitor to a friend, second only to Judas Iscariot. Al Smith picked Farley up and made him what he is. As an appreciation or Smith's fidelity to him in the Chicago convention last year Farley forsook Smith and got under Roosevelt's banner soon as he saw a chance to give himself political prestige—and that's Jim Farley.

It's subscription time. Thanks.

SCARLET FEVER WARNING

Austin, Texas, October 19.—The State Department of Health has just issued a warning in regard to scarlet fever, as the number of cases usually increases during the fall months. Last year over twenty-six hundred cases were reported in Texas. The majority of deaths occur from October through February. Scarlet fever is a very contagious and serious disease. Grown people may catch scarlet fever, but children under 15 years are the most likely to have it, if exposed. It is especially dangerous for children under 5 years, and for babies. Do not let your children take any chances with scarlet fever. Call the doctor as soon as the symptoms appear. If your child is going to have scarlet fever, the first signs you may notice are that he seems tired, restless and out of sorts. Usually, there is a sore throat, chill, vomiting, or convulsion. The child has fever. His skin is dry and hot. His tongue is furred, and, under this white covering, it is red and swollen. In ordinary cases, these early signs are followed in a day or two by a rash. Little flat red points, close together, appear first on the neck and chest. Soon the rash is over most of the body and brilliant in color. The doctor is required by law to report the case to the local health officer. Do your part by following carefully the quarantine instructions which the health officer will give you. Children who have had scarlet fever, or who have been exposed, must not return to school until permission is given by the health officer and physician. A severe or fatal case of scarlet fever may develop from contact with some one who has only a light attack.

Prof. T. P. Carter and Messrs. C. A. Woolsey and Earle Cook of Olga community were in Bronte Thursday afternoon. The Enterprise acknowledges a pleasant call from Prof. Carter. He and family had just returned from a trip to the Amarillo country. He reports good crops in that section.

This chart is based on figures from the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics and national electric rate figures. The rate curve of the West Texas Utilities Company follows a more sharply descending slope to a point 32% below the normal level, which is 10% lower than the national average rate reduction shown above.

Your Average Electric Rate Is 85% Below Other Living Costs!

Complete electric service is the most reasonable item of expense in your family budget. It is the only item that has consistently been improved in quality and lowered in cost. Today it is 85% below other items of family expense . . . and still going down!

During the past ten years your average electric rate has been reduced more than 53%—while in spite of two years of rapidly lowering prices other items entering into the family budget still remain 32.5% ABOVE THE NORMAL LEVEL!

Just think of it! The 1932 dollar spent for general living expenses bought only 26% more than the 1922 dollar (according to the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics), while it bought from the West Texas Utilities Company 115% more residential electric service than the 1922 dollar!

This is a remarkable record! In spite of constantly increasing costs of government, the West Texas Utilities Company has effected economies which have given you the benefit of rate reductions amounting to more than 53%! And now, with commodity prices again following a sharply ascending curve, today's electric rates are even farther below general commodity prices than shown in the above chart.

Your dollar spent for electric service buys you more in real value—and more in comparison with that same dollar spent for other service or commodities—than any money you spend.

The Child Reader

by
MARJORIE BARROWS
Editor, Child Life Magazine.

Marjorie Barrows

One afternoon many years ago a wharf rat on San Francisco Bay wandered into the Oakland Public Library. There, opening a bound volume of a children's magazine, he stumbled upon a story. It was a story about a boy like himself—a runaway, a gang leader of wharf rats, who had certain semi-piratical adventures, but who, after a hard lesson, learned of better ways of living his life.

Making of Jack London.

The dramatic, exciting story awoke in the young reader the uneasy consciousness of his own wrong actions. He walked out of that library resolving to lead just as adventurous a life but one that carried with it a clear conscience. So he joined the Fish Patrol, cruised about the bay, fought poachers, and before long began to write stories about his adventures.

That boy was Jack London. The experience of this famous writer occurs, in a rather less dramatic fashion, in the life of every boy or girl.

Careful investigators have discovered that next to persons, nothing has more influence on children than what they read. If a hero they admire acts under certain circumstances as they themselves would like to act, they'll remember it.

They Imitate the Hero.

And when the time comes, they'll unconsciously be influenced by that hero's action and try to do likewise. The heroine's kindness, ambition, steadfastness, loyalty, the hero's resourcefulness, quick-wittedness, painstaking qualities, courage, magnanimity, modesty—all these examples "sink in" and are emulated both now and later. One story with hidden character-building values is worth a dozen sermons from parents or teachers.

Let us try to see that this sort of a story, full of plenty of adventure for the boy, full of interesting plots and characters for the girl, is convenient for them to pick up.

Jack London isn't the only one to be tremendously influenced by the printed word.

The bank remodeled the buildings completely, putting in an oil-burning heating plant, incinerators and other modern changes, with the result the buildings are now entirely rented, and there is $14,000 a year coming in instead of several thousand going out. At that rate the improvements will pay for themselves in three years.

This same bank has done 15 other renovation jobs similar to this, and all have proved profitable. The bank has its own architects and is employing seven painters who are kept busy continuously.

Chip up pieces of candied fruit—you must have at least one-half cupful and you can use twice that amount if you like. If no candied fruit is around, use broken nut meats, or small bits of candy or raisins or dates stoned and finely cut.

Make 2 cupfuls of lemon or orange gelatine. Pour the gelatine into a mould and, when it is cool and begins to "set" add the diced candy. When serving time comes, turn the mould upside down over the serving dish. Wrap it tightly with a cloth wrung out of very hot water and the jelly will fall onto the dish.

Size of the Stars

How large are the stars? To the average individual their size is hard to comprehend, but Dr. Edwin B. Frost, famous blind astronomer in Child Life Magazine, solves the problem.
