Farmers Gin Plant Is Destroyed By Fire at Norton

About 11:30 o'clock Tuesday night the main gin plant of the Farmers Gin Company of Norton was destroyed by fire.

The flames burst out almost instantly and spread to every part of the main building that housed the plant. Almost instantly the plant became a smoldering pile of ashes. It is thought perhaps that the fire originated by a match having been accidentally dropped in the cotton.

White Turner is president of the Farmers Gin Co., J. D. Good is secretary-treasurer and Gordon Ashby is plant manager.

Ballinger was notified of the fire and the Ballinger fire department rushed to the conflagration but could do no good.

The seed house, which was full of seed, and the cotton house in which were twenty bales of cotton and the office escaped the ravages of the fire.

The loss was approximately $25,000, while there was only about one-third of the value in insurance.

The officers of the company said that they would not undertake to rebuild in time to do any more ginning this season.

The loss of the gin is not only heavy on the owners of the gin but it is also a great loss to Norton and the people of the entire section, as the other gin there, owned and operated by Cecil Glen cannot take care of the ginning needs of the farmers of that area.

Boy Scout Work Is Revived By The Local Scouts

After an inactive summer, the Bronte Boy Scout troop held its fall "kick-off" Wednesday night at the school gym under the direction of A. Holmes, Jr., new Scoutmaster from Abilene.

Twenty-five Scouts and Cubs turned out for the first meeting of the new scout year.

L. T. Youngblood, guest speaker of the program, talked on "Citizenship and What Scouting Means to Bronte." Mr. Youngblood pointed out that no Scout or ex-Scout of the Bronte troop has ever been arrested for breaking the law.

Representing the School board Floyd Bridges told of the high standard and reputation of the Boy Scouts in Bronte. Elmer Modgling, assistant Scoutmaster, explained a plan for tabulating the daily good turns of the Scouts. Bud Maxwell, Scout committeeman, spoke briefly, representing the Scout committee.

The scouts played "keep-away" and "grab-the-bacon" in the gym and "Capture-the-flag" on the schoolground.

Regular meeting time will be at 7 o'clock on Wednesdays, Mr. Holmes announces.

THEIR LITTLE SON DIES

Gerald Maclin, the little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Powell, died in a San Angelo hospital, Saturday afternoon, September 18.

Funeral services were held in Bronte, at the Bronte Baptist church, Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock. Rev. Roy Stuckey conducted the religious services.

The young parents and others of the family circle will have the deepest sympathy of their friends in their bereavement.

BRONTE YOUNG PEOPLE OFF TO COLLEGE

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham returned Monday night from Denton where they had been, to accompany their daughters, Misses Modelie and Mozene, who entered C. I. A. Mr. and Mrs. Higginbotham are pleased with conditions they found at C. I. A.

Besides the Misses Higginbotham and those the Enterprise reported last week as having gone away to college the following Bronte young people have gone away to school:

Miss Louise Chumley has entered Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Miss Wilma Sides has entered Texas State Teachers College at Denton.

R. I. Caperton and Frank Sayner have entered A. & M. College.

The Enterprise wishes all our young people who have gone away to school the very best and happiest year possible.

Fairland Baptist Association Meets With Local Church

The Fairland Baptist Association convenes in its annual session, with the Kickapoo Baptist church, three miles north of Bronte, on highway 70, Thursday evening, September 30. The meeting will continue over, embracing the first Sunday in October.

The body has been meeting in August for its annual gatherings. But last year it was decided that by waiting until the fall time when the weather would be cooler and the farmers farther along with the gathering of their crops, the attendance would not only be larger but the churches would have their finances in better condition.

The pastor of the local church Elder Charles Carroll of Richland Springs, with the leaders of the local church, hopes for a good local attendance and looks forward to an unusually interesting and inspirational session. The people locally are invited to attend the sessions of the body.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of ourselves personally and for all the members of the Farmers Gin Company at Norton, in this way we want to express our sincere thanks to the good people of Norton and all others who in anywise tried to render service Tuesday night in subduing the flames that destroyed our main gin plant.

To the Ballinger Fire Department for their quick run and the help they rendered, we also express our appreciation to Glenn, owner of the other gin in Norton for all his kindly neighborliness since our fire.

White Turner, President.
J. D. Good, Secretary.
Gordon Ashby, Manager.

HOME ECONOMICS GIRLS BUY DRESSES TO MAKE

The third year Home Economics girls spent Monday afternoon in San Angelo with their sponsor, Miss Margaret L. Christie, purchasing afternoon dresses to make in class.

HER KINSMAN DIES

Mrs. Dollie Wylie received a message Tuesday announcing the death of her sister's husband, Horace Keith, that day, at Stephenville. Interment was in that city, Wednesday.

P. T. A Honors School Faculty With Reception

Friday evening at the school auditorium a most happy occasion was enjoyed by a goodly number of people, which included members of the Bronte schools faculty, officers and members of the Bronte P. T. A., and patrons of the Bronte schools.

The occasion was in honor of the members of the school faculty, given by the P. T. A. A formerly arranged program was rendered to the delight of those present.

The honorees included members of the faculty, and also Mrs. R. E. Cumbie, president of the local P. T. A. The honorees stood in line at the entrance of the auditorium, with Mrs. Cumbie first and Superintendent, N. Johnson next, then the other members of the faculty. As the guests entered they extended "the hand of welcome and good wishes" to the honorees. Then the guests were directed by Mrs. Clint Wilkins to the punch bowl where several ladies served. A refreshment plate consisting of sandwiches, punch and cake was served the guests, each passing from the serving table to a place at the tables which had been arranged in groups, here and there in the auditorium, where the guests engaged in merry conversation as they relished their refreshment plate.

Mrs. Nathan Johnson was master of ceremonies in which capacity she served graciously and kept the program progressing throughout which was as follows:

Words of Welcome, from Churches to Faculty, L. T. Youngblood.

From School Board, H. O. Whitt.

From the Community, Rev. D. M. West.

Piano Number, LaMarr Chapman.

Tapping Number, Ollie Lou Glenn, Mary Beth Cumbie.

Vocal Number, Mrs. Walter Bowden.

Reading, Mrs. George Thomas.

Sing Song, Led by Mrs. Alfred Taylor.

Shows and country fairs will "hold the boards" for the next several weeks.

TEACHER AND EDITOR OLD TIME FRIENDS

The Enterprise editor was most happily surprised Sunday afternoon when advised by a friend that one of the teachers in the Bronte schools, who had just arrived, was an old time friend of ours and that he was making inquiry concerning us. Upon further inquiry we learned that his name was N. E. Smith and that his home was Salado.

Early Sunday evening, Prof. Smith called to see us. And it was a genuine pleasure to grasp the hand of this friend of the yesteryears. It was in 1914 that Prof. Smith and the writer first met. For several years we were intimately associated. Prof. Smith had just graduated from the old Thomas Arnold College at Salado, which for many years was one of the most outstanding schools not only in Texas but of the southwest, for real, genuine scholarship, and when one finished the course of this almost exclusive school he was indeed pinpointed mentally for any position where scholarship was a consideration. And likewise in this great, historic old school the fundamentals of real life and character were also developed. Hence, it is no wonder that some of the great and most outstanding men and women of Texas and in many other places over the country are graduates of this college.

Therefore, until late in the night, Prof. Smith and the writer enjoyed mutually renewing our acquaintance and "living over again in memory" the days of the past. Prof. Smith at that time was yet a boy still in his "teens," but was ambitious, and was a young man not only of the most exemplary habits, but delighted in the activities of the church. While he and the writer were members of different religious denominations, yet because of his kindly interest in the work of the church, in Salado, where we had assumed leadership, of one of the churches and his kindly aid in church music, there sprang up between us a mutual friendship. We also knew and appreciated the friendship of his parents, concerning whom Prof. Smith informs us, are yet strong and well and enjoying life, which was a matter of deep delight to us. In our conversation Sunday evening we recalled names and faces which had not come back to us in mem-

TWO YOUNG WOMEN HELD FOR GIVING ON LOCAL BANK

Tuesday night when the bus from Sweetwater arrived, the officers took two young women into custody, upon advice from officers at Sweetwater.

It was alleged that the two young women had given checks in Sweetwater that day on the First National Bank in Bronte. Their course of procedure was to go into a place of business, make a small purchase and give a check for ten dollars and get the difference in cash. They thus gave checks securing in all more than a hundred dollars in cash. Some one upon whom the two young women perpetrated the fraud became suspicious and made an investigation and learned that no person bearing the name of the person on the check had an account in the local bank.

Sweetwater officers upon being apprised of the fraud began a search and phoned local officers, giving a description of the two women. Officers met the stage, took the two young women in charge and phoned the Sweetwater officers who came and returned the two to Sweetwater, where at last account they were being held.

There is no more historic and beautiful little village in the southwest than Salado. The Salado (pronounced "Salahye") river runs through the heart of the village. The old San Antonio trail, in pioneer days, went through the village and "shady villa" the old stage stand hotel yet stands. One of the greatest springs in Texas bursts up out of the ground, down near the river. A great clump of gigantic pecan trees afford the shade of the park, where people from all over the world have camped—indeed, we have often longed to go back to this picturesque village, with its inhabitants of a community of the finest people in the world, and stay for weeks and mix and mingle with them again.

Without Prof. Smith knowing anything about this that we are saying, we agree here now to underwrite for him, and we are glad he has come this way and hope that his stay in Bronte may be one of success and delight and when he shall go, nothing but happiest memories shall be his along life's way.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Calloway from Odessa were week end visitors with relatives and friends at Fort Chadbourne and Bronte. They were also attending to business, looking after their farm at Fort Chadbourne. Mr. and Mrs. Calloway both were looking unusually well. Their friends were glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Calloway again. They stated that Odessa and the Odessa country are booming, due to the oil development.

Great Combined Circus Coming This Way

AL. G. Barnes and Sells Floto Combined Circus, with Hundreds of New Features, declared to be the finest in History.

Offering the largest array of worlds famous arenic stars, ever presented in history, the great AL. G. BARNES AND SELLS FLOTO COMBINED CIRCUS is scheduled to exhibit in San Angelo, Monday October 4th.
The uniting of these two giants of the tented world has created an amusement colossus, offering hundreds upon hundreds of worlds famous circus headliners, as well as scores of Europe's most sensational new acts.
The world's best circus will arrive on three double length trains, carrying over 1,000 people, five herds of elephants, 400 horses, not to mention the vast army of tents necessary to house this small army, and the superb new menagerie that includes over 800 furred and feathered creatures.
New European troupes are the amazing Chistani troupe, without question the only bareback riders in the world accomplishing a twisting somersault from galloping horse to galloping horse; daring and exotic Amerika, who features breath-taking feats on a lofty swinging trapeze, where without touching the supporting wires, she pirouettes and dances; The Flying Art-ony's, daredevils who leap across great spaces high in the tent and use no safety net; The Three Poli's—a new aeroplane thriller, and the last word in sensation-alism, and Louise Schroeder, the only girl in the world to stand on her head on a widely swing-ing trapeze.

The largest group of ferocious wild animals ever assembled in the history of the world are on display in the menagerie. There mean brutes, who defy all efforts to tame them, are twice daily herded into a triple steel bar amphitheater, where they are made to perform. The intrepid trainer is Bert Nelson, the greatest wild animal subjugator ever known since time began. His daringness is a sight never forgotten.
In addition to the hundreds upon hundreds of world famous arenic stars who make up the AL. G. BARNES AND SELLS FLOTO COMBINED CIRCUS program there is a most elaborate opening spectacle titled OLD MEXICO. Using over five hundred performers and three hundred horses and animals in its presentation, it strikes a new note in beauty, never before witnessed.

Pharis Mackey and Norman Kiker, two of Bronte's popular young society gentlemen, "packed their grips," early in the week and departed for parts unknown, except that they were going to "explore Carlsbad Caverns," before returning. Some of their friends are wondering if there will be any caverns left by the time these young gentlemen get through with their "explorations."
