Activities Of The Bronte Senior Class Of 1939

The members of the 1939 senior class of the Bronte schools are a busy and active group of young folks. They are "doing things" as the following outline of their work discloses:

The History of the Senior Class of 1939

In the fall of 1928 the doors of the present room 16 swung open to Abram, Goldie, Sybil, Hortense, and Cloreta. They registered with Mrs. Hardy and started their educational career. The boy, was small, blonde-headed and very shy; Goldie was extremely fat with light straight hair and brown eyes; Sybil, who was Goldie's problem child, was about the size that a six year old child should be; Cloreta was the little firey-tempered girl who rushed to the swing at recess and noon to get her swing or "else"; now Hortense was very, very small in size but not in brain, she was as brilliant as any child should be; she always took up for herself—not with her fists but with her tongue. All five of the pupils tripped along into the second grade.

In the present room 14 Miss Vera was patiently waiting for the children. On the front seat sat a small, blue-eyed, blonde-headed girl. She shyly told Miss Vera that her name was Merle Ash. Cloreta was popular in the second grade. Sybil and Goldie stuck together all the time as they lived neighbors and motored to and from school in a model-T. Hortense and Abram had not grown in size, but how their knowledge had grown. Miss Vera had a successful plan to teach these boys and girls to read. Each day they stood beside their desk and put all they had into the one paragraph, because—just think—if they missed one small word the one behind would come ahead. Miss Vera also put some artistic things into the heads of the six. The children sat on the floor, cut paper up and put it into buckets of water. This set until it had decayed. Then this paper was pasted on jars and later painted by the children. Some of these famous relics are found in the homes of the children. The six were rewarded with promotion to the third grade.

Two small boys, a blonde and a brunette dressed in short trousers, were standing at the door as Sybil, Hortense, Goldie, Abe, and Merle silently marched into the present room 16. Miss Elizabeth Leonard was waiting to teach them. Could you guess who the two strangers were? Yes, Edward and Louis. Cloreta had moved during the summer and she was missed in the school. Spelling was the outstanding subject in the third grade. When a person made one hundred on the daily words a gold star was placed beside his name. Merle, Sybil, and Goldie were always very uneasy until the spelling was over. The popular sport of the group was making tractors out of spools and rubber bands. The year passed on with quarrels over swings, giant strides, and seesaws. They soon met the requirements of the third grade and passed into the fourth.

This group was ready to enter the fourth grade when fall came. There a stranger met them. She had black curly hair and said her name was Clementina Parker. Another stranger was Agnes Cryer. The two soon joined with the group. The

Bronte Wins Over Lake View Sunday In Pitchers Duel

In their first official league game of the season Bronte won over Lake View by a score of 2-1. The game was played Sunday afternoon on the Lake View field. The Lake View team is the San Angelo entrant in the Concho Basin league. The league is composed of teams from Bronte, Wall, Veri Best, Carlsbad and San Angelo.

The game was a pitchers duel between M. Corley, ace hurler of Bronte, and J. Probst, pitcher for Lakeview. Corley going the entire route of the game, opened up in the first inning with a brand of pitching that had the Lake View boys swinging and hitting—"empty space." He never let up on the pace he set and got 21 strikeouts during the game. Probst handled the mound duties for Lakeview mighty smooth, striking out 16 Bronte men and only walking one, in hitting Buford of Bronte with a pitched ball.

knowledge of the children had grown so that it took five teachers to keep up with their minds. The teachers were Mr. Gully, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Bennett, Miss Wilson, and Miss English. Before the year had ended Cloreta had joined the class again.

This intelligent group passed on into the fifth grade, where they were joined by a group of students who had skipped the fourth grade—Ivey, Annie Jeanne, Dorothy, and two happy brothers, Noah and Francis. Dorothy and Annie Jeanne were welcomed by the girls and the three boys were glad to have their number increased. The teachers of the group were Mrs. Hull, Miss Wilson, Mr. Gully, and Miss English.

The sixth year in school was still in the basement. The group and teachers remained the same all year. Merle and Edward were leading scholars of the grade. Hortense, Ivey, and Annie Jeanne were the smallest of the group. The leading sport of the year was making crows feet with twine strings. Cloreta moved again at the end of the year.

Without a seventh grade graduation the group passed into high school. Mrs. Hull came up to high school with the group. She stayed until Miss Heaton came to carry on. Miss Heaton was elected the class sponsor. A contest was put on between the high school grades to see who could be the friendliest. The eighth grade was awarded a banquet. They carried flowers and fruit to the sick and fruit to their sponsor, Miss Heaton, Mr.

Highway 158 Is Discussed At Club Meeting

Due to conditions the editor could not control, we were not at the semi-monthly club luncheon Wednesday. But we are advised that in keeping with the pre-arranged plan, there was free and full discussion of the question of completing highway 158 from Abilene through Bronte, Robert Lee, Sterling City, Garden City and on to Midland.

Invitations had been sent to these above cities and towns, requesting that representative citizens meet with Bronte on the above date and take under advisement as to what could be done about the completing of this much needed highway.

Representatives came from Abilene, Robert Lee, Sterling City and Midland. Following the luncheon there was a discussion of the question in hand. But no action was taken and it will be at some future time before any definite action is taken.

Brey, and Miss La Seuer prepared the group for the eighth grade. At the close of school Edward and Merle were awarded the American Legion citizenship medals.

The eighth grade was silently waiting for the crowd to fill it. No new students came in except Cloreta who was again waiting. Mrs. Warner taught their first History; Mr. Brinell algebra; Miss Christie and Mr. Fitzhugh home economics and agriculture and Miss Heaton English. The girls joined their first pep squad and the boys played their first football. Ivey did not know he would be some day football captain and Hortense did not know she would some day be yell leader. Mr. Brinell was elected class sponsor. The class reported a happy year although they were freshmen.

Again the group was promoted into the ninth grade, where they welcomed Sammie. Mr. Brinell had proved to be a good sponsor so he was re-elected. Sweet memories of the ninth grade are printed on each individual's mind. The group were no longer children but gradually growing into young men and women. The sophomore year was gone before the group had realized it had started.

The tenth grade was ready to receive Hortense, Goldie, Sybil, Clementina, Agnes, Abe, Merle, Louis, Edward, Annie Jeanne, Ivey, Noah, Francis, Dorothy, and Sammie in 1937. Mr. Henry and Miss Ratliff were elected as class sponsors. Rozella, Earnest, Alfred, Maurice, and Glenn were new members. Rozelle thought the class was "stuck-up" and wished she could move, but finally she learned to love the group. A junior play was given entitled "Tomboy". The money received from the play was used for giving the seniors a banquet which was a success. Edward was chosen president.

The eleventh grade was finally reached. Earl, Frank, Clairene, Jack, Gladys, Hugh and Ronda were patiently waiting when the group hailed in. Miss Vanderford was selected as class sponsor early in the fall of 1938. Alfred was elected class president and Jack as class secretary, but changes were made at second semester because they withdrew from school. Ivey was elected president and Edward secretary.

Mrs. Warner, Miss Vanderford, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Henry, Mrs. Henry, Mr. Brinell and Mr. Mullins taught the 1939 Seniors.

Bronte Cooks In Galveston, On Pleasure Bent

Things must be lively in Galveston this week—and there's a reason: some of the future cooks and housekeepers of Bronte are down in "the city by the sea," showing the balance of the world "how it is done," when it comes to excellent cooking and elegant housekeeping.

Tuesday afternoon in charge of their tutor, Mrs. Mary Marie Wilson, home ec. teacher of the Bronte schools, Misses Helen Beaty, Lavera Williams, Jane Cumbie and Francis Marquez departed for the above city, where, this week, they are attending the state home economics convention.

Mrs. Wilson is proud of "her girls," and she really expects them to make a good showing in all the contests at the convention. They will return either Saturday night or Sunday. Only one thing we regret about it and that is, we fear the mermaids through pure jealousy will go away and hide their faces and will never be seen in the "Island city" again.

The class was entertained many times and the entertainments were other unforgettable memories for the Seniors.

The class colors were blue for loyalty and white for purity.

The flowers were white flags and blue larkspur.

The motto was, "The Higher We Climb, the Broader the View."

Under the guidance of the teachers and of Mr. Covey, Superintendent, the following twenty-seven boys and girls graduated from Bronte High School, May 21, 1939:

Abe, Goldie, Sybil, Hortense, Cloreta, Merle, Louis, Edward, Agnes, Clementina, Ivey, Annie Jeanne, Noah, Dorothy, Francis, Earl Frank, Jack, Clairene, Alfred, Gladys, Maurice, Earnest, Glenn, Sammie, Rozella, Hugh and Ronda. It must be remembered that Abe, Goldie, Hortense, and Sybil have "stuck together" through eleven years of "upward climbing"; together through hot and cold, easy lessons and hard lessons, hard-boiled teachers and pleasant teachers.

BALL GAME SUNDAY

Bronte ball team has everything set and ready to "put the skids under" the Rowena team Sunday afternoon.

The game will be on the local field at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It bids fair to be a real scrap for supremacy and Bronte boys are getting ready for the fray.

TEACHER'S NAME OMITTED

In giving the names of the teachers of the Bronte schools who had been elected by the board of trustees to succeed themselves for the 1939-1940 session the name of Mrs. J. T. Henry was inadvertently omitted. We regret the omission but such is life in a country newspaper office.

Mrs. B. G. Stephenson of San Antonio is here for a two or three weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bannowsky. Her many friends are always glad to see Mrs. Stephenson.

Please pay your subscription if due. Thanks.

Bronte FFA Boys To Have Picnic This Evening

The Bronte, chapter of the Future Farmers of America is having the annual Father and Son Barbecue on Friday evening, May 5 at the crossing going to Mr. Tom Price's place. The group is to leave the school house about 6:30 and go to the river.

A number of guests have been invited and are urged to attend. This is the second barbecue that has been held by the local chapter, and we are hoping that it will be even better than the one last year.

A short program of boxing matches, horseshoe pitching, and washer pitching will precede the feed and a number of short talks will be held immediately after the completion of the meal.

The editor gratefully acknowledges an invitation to attend—but due to circumstances we cannot be present. We know however that Prof. Henry and "his boys" will "pull a good un"—for that is the record of this group of boys.

The youngest-looking "guy" of all the visitors present Wednesday from the several cities and towns attending the club luncheon with a view to working out plans for completing highway 158, was "Uncle Bill" Kellis, editor of the Sterling City News-Record. Although "Uncle Bill" has passed his 84th mile post on the highway of life, he is "spry as a sixteen year old," and as full of "vim, vigor and enthusiasm" as he was the first time we met him in 1899. It was a genuine pleasure to grasp the hand of this dear, good, long-time friend again and to see him looking so hale and hearty. Come again, "Uncle Bill," and stay all night and we will talk about everybody and everything from Lee O'Daniel to the auro borealis.

For two weeks the Gilreath family has been a busy family, attending to all the details incident to moving into their new location. But they about have everything adjusted and are ready to serve the people.

The owners of the business have decided to call their new location and their business, "Gilreath's Place." They have been in business in Bronte for a number of years and have built up a good business by strict attention to their business, always selling good bread and pastries, as well as fine service in their drink department.

Gilreath's Place will hold "open house" Saturday, May 6. They invite everyone in Bronte-land to visit them on that day. Read their opening announcement elsewhere and visit them Saturday. They will be glad to see you.

Much success to the Gilreath's.

Lessons on Thrift

THE WORLD IS PROGRESSING

A sign of old age is looking behind,
Of reviving old methods of every kind,
Of believing the world will go on the rocks
Unless children mind and wear different frocks;
But the fact really is the world's moving on
As it always has done since earliest dawn;
And the way to keep you ng is to keep in the race,
And to move with its progress, not backward face.
The FIRST NATIONAL BANK is strong in the belief
The world is progressing, will not come to grief.

Bronte is beginning to grow in the matter of new buildings and other improvements. This week dirt was broken for the combination home and laundry of Mr. and Mrs. John Parish. This will be a stone structure, with concrete floor. The front of the building will be the home apartments of the family. This part consists of three finished rooms and bath. The rear will be a business home for their laundry, which will be known as the "Home Help Yourself Laundry." When finished Mr. and Mrs. Parish will have their home and place of business under the same roof which is very desirable. The building of the Home Help Yourself Laundry is on the north side of Main street, on the lot where Fred Kinney had his oil business. We have a lot of people who are mighty well behaved but they have never prospered for they have never saved. They could live a whole lot

The members of the Commissioners' Court, the County Judge, the County Agricultural Agent and L. T. Youngblood President of the First National Bank of Bronte, will attend these meetings to explain this set up in this county.

Equine Encephalomyelitis Or Sleeping Sickness In Horses

In 1938 the most severe outbreak of sleeping sickness occurred in this county. This disease made its first appearance in 1935, there having been some 7 or 8 cases reported. In 1936 there were only two cases reported. In 1937 there were 10 or 12 cases reported, and in 1938 there were approximately 38 cases reported. This disease is evidently increasing in this area and is becoming a menace to horses and mules. Because there has been so little known about this disease, it has been very difficult to control and is very expensive.

In order to inform horse and mule owners in regard to this disease and to advise them to vaccinate their animals at this time, we are offering you below:

An address by Dr. H. W. Schoening before the 19th Annual Meeting, Horse and Mule Association of America, Chicago, Ill.

At the meeting of this association last year, Dr. John R. Mohler, Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, discussed the problem of equine encephalomyelitis, also known as sleeping sickness, blind staggers, etc., with particular reference to late control methods. It has not been possible for Doctor Mohler to attend your meeting today and I am privileged to address you on the subject of recent developments in the equine encephalomyelitis problem. It seems desirable at this time to pay particular attention to the newer developments in research and the control of the disease that have appeared within the past year, as well as giving attention to a review of the spread of the disease during the past year and the outlook for the future.

As a result of a questionnaire sent to livestock sanitary officials of the various States, information in the past 3 years has become available on the incidence of the disease and its extent in this country. In 1935 there were reported about 30,000 cases; in 1936, about 7,000; while in 1937 the disease flared up and the greatest outbreak occurred that the country has ever experienced, more than 170,000 cases being reported involving 30 States with a mortality of about 25 per cent. This year (1938) the disease has spread to 9 new States, i. e., Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island in the East, and Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Illinois, and Washington in the West. Although 39 states reported the infection, the total number of cases reported to date is about 100,000, or 58 per cent of that reported last year, with a mortality of about 21 per cent.
