NUMBER 46.

TRIBUTE TO WAR HEROES

Dedicated to our soldiers in World War I and World War II.

I'd like to pay tribute today,
To the Heroes of World War I.
They were heroic boys—
Each, an anxious mother's son.

Some fought, bled and died,
On those fields so far away!
Others gone from our minds,
Forgotten men of a forgotten day.

There are heroes being made today—
Each is some mother's son—
Will we soon forget the risks they take;
The hard fought battles won?

Forget not Heroes then and now—
Honor them, everyone.
They fought the same battles on the same fields—
Each America's brave, loyal son.

Three cheers to Heroes of the World War II!
They know what the boys go through;
They can be near in their pain and fear,
For, they have been there—have you?

Our honor to you of the khaki and blue,
Of World War I and II!
God bless YOU all, both great and small—
Our thanks, we give to you.

Mrs. Chism S. Brown.

Robert Lee, Texas.

Six Home Clubs Organized by Miss Croslin

To aid in spreading useful and practical information on subjects relating to agriculture and home economics and to encourage and practice the application of same is the aim of the 6 Women's Home Demonstration Clubs recently organized in Coke County.

Since the arrival of Fay D. Croslin, County Home Demonstration Agent on October 9, she has assisted in organizing W.H.D. Clubs in the following communities: Ft. Chadbourne, Bronte, Union, Friendship, Hayrick and Lometa. There was one club, Silver, already organized when the agent arrived.

Meetings have been scheduled for each community in the county to be reached by Miss Croslin before a planning committee meeting on November 18. Two representatives from the unorganized groups are also to be invited. The program for the entire county will be planned at that time.

Miss Croslin announces these meetings for the week of November 13-18:

Monday 13—3 P. M., Sanco at Sanco school.

Wednesday 15—3 P. M., Olga (place to be set.)

Thursday 16, P. M., Divide and Walnut (place to be set.)

Friday 17—3 P. M., Valley View (place to be set.)

Saturday 18—1:30 4—H Committee meeting Court House

COKE COUNTY EXCEEDS ITS QUOTA, WAR CHEST FUND

County Chairman, Judge McNeil Wylie, of the War Chest Fund Drive, and the committees that worked with him are feeling elated over the success of the County War Chest fund drive that is now coming to a close.

Saturday night the amount of contributions to the fund showed $1,900 now in hand. There will, of course, be other contributions before the drive closes, which will swell the above amount.

"Please, say to the members of the several committees over the county, for me as chairman, that I deeply appreciate the splendid work done. Every member of every committee showed a willingness to cooperate and each one did a fine work. And for the several committees and me," said Judge Wylie, "please say to the people that we are deeply appreciative for the fine cooperation given throughout the county. Our county has more than met its quota which is a fine showing. But we have done no more than we should, when we consider what our boys overseas are undergoing. Again as the county judge of the good people of Coke county, let me say, that we continue to cooperate in every war program until this terrible world conflict is over and our boys and girls are back safe at home."

Merchandise with Quality

If one needs the merchandise, can hardly be too high in price—especially is this true of Groceries and Meats.

Quality Merchandise at Right Prices

Is the determining factor in all purchases. When one buys Quality Merchandise he needs, at the right price, then, he can be rated as "a careful buyer."
