Bronte Rodeo for This Week End, Like "Ol' Times"

Bronte is taking at least one step back towards normal times—and that is, it is going to have a "rip snortin'," "old fashioned" rodeo. This news will send thrills through the veins of all the old time West Texans. For, generally, the old time West Texan knows but one sport loves but one sport and attends but one sport—and that is the old time West Texas rodeo, which is always an occasion of spills and thrills.

I. M. Cumbe, one of Bronte's most progressive business men is the chief promoter of the forthcoming rodeo. "Irv," as everybody calls him, believes in Bronte and the Bronte country and believes that the business men of the town should always stand together for anything and everything that will tie the people on to "the old home town." At much expense "Irv" has built, right here, almost in the heart of the town, one of the best rodeo arenas in the West. And his chief aim is to bring people to Bronte. "West Texans

Baptists Hold Revival Meeting at Tennyson

The Baptists of Tennyson are engaged in their summer annual revival this week. The meeting began Friday night and will continue through next Sunday night.

The pastor, Rev. J. H. Martin of Trickham is being aided in the meeting by Rev. C. R. Blake, pastor of the First Baptist church in Bronte, and is doing the preaching.

Reports are that the attendance has been good and interest in the meeting is growing with every service.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Fleming and little baby daughter returned to their home at San Antonio Thursday morning, after a visit with Mrs. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Whitt—and "Grampa" and "Gramma" Whitt are much lonely because they don't have granddaughter to "fuss at 'em."

IT'S GREAT TO GET BACK FROM NATURE

POISON IVY, mosquitoes, ants, sunburn, rain—

Roughing it on a camping trip is great stuff. For a week or so. Then you begin to long for the comforts of home.

A good light to read by... a hot shower... your electric razor... an electric range... and, of course, your radio.

It's surprising the number of every-day conveniences made possible by electricity. You take them for granted—until you have to get along without 'em.

The big reason why you forget 'em is because electric service is so good and cheap. Electricity is still available at low pre-war prices. There have been no shortages.

And you can be sure there will be plenty of power for the post-war electric era—thanks to the practical experience and sound business management of America's light and power companies.

West Texas Utilities Company

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Coulter have as their guests Mr. Coulter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Coulter of Chase, Louisiana, and also Mrs. A. N. Coulter and baby daughter, little Miss Nellie, of Hemet, California, daughter-in-law and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coulter. Readers of The Enterprise will recall that the young Mrs. Coulter and baby daughter are the wife and daughter of the late T. Sgt. A. N. Coulter who was "killed in action" in Germany, April 26. Hence these days of family reunion for the Coulters are days filled with shadow and sorrow as well as delight. Mrs. Coulter and baby may decide to remain in Bronte and make their home, in which event, The Enterprise bids welcome to them and assures Mrs. Coulter that she will find a fine and hospitable people here, among whom to dwell.

E. A. Norred of San Antonio and his brother, E. J. Norred of California are here visiting relatives. Mr. Norred states that his son, Earl, who is in the South Pacific, was wounded April 13. Besides being wounded Earl has had the Yellow Jaundice and then relapsed with the disease. Earl has been overseas two years, with the 33rd Infantry Division. Mr. Norred also states that his son-in-law, E. M. Hall, who, with his family, moved to San Antonio recently to make their home, who was accidentally injured just after he went to work as a carpenter in that city, is not doing well. Attending physicians have informed Mr. Hall that he will have to remain in bed seven more weeks yet. At the expiration of that date they hope to be able to perform an operation on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore of Fort Chadbourne have the thanks of the editorial family for a fine supply of delicious peaches. We regret to know that their little daughter, little Miss Jackie, is suffering from rheumatic fever. We express the hope that the little one may soon be fully recovered.

CLEAN UP! CLEAN UP!

To the people of Bronte—one and all:
 This is to remind you that the back alleys and some of the streets of Bronte, especially in the business district are becoming unsightly and unsanitary. The weeds have grown to great height and the refuse of bones and cans and other rubbish have piled up.
 This is to request you, each and all, to clean your premises—both the alleys and the fronts, where needed. Cut the weeds and burn them; haul away the bones and cans and other rubbish that have accumulated.
 This is also to advise you that any who fails to do as requested and refuses to heed the above will have to be waited on personally and requested to heed the above. We do not want to work a hardship on any one. But, it is to your interest, and to the interest of the health of our town that this be done. So, we expect this to be done, as there has been complaint made, especially the business district.
 Thanking one and all for giving this their immediate personal attention,
 Signed
 The City Council. 27-2t

But that is the very time you should feed it—if the hens want to moult it will help them through the moulting season and help them in Fall Egg Production. So, don't stop feeding EGG MASH during the summer, as it is best to keep right on feeding.

Our C. L. GREEN EGG MASH is an Extra Quality Mash—none better and Our Special Egg Mash is one of the best, if not the best Mash sold in this section.

Be sure to call for C. L. Green Special Egg Mash and feed right on during the summer months.

DON ESTES, Manager and Auctioneer

Manages Producers Livestock Auction Co. at San Angelo

The Producers Livestock Auction Company of San Angelo has a new manager—he is Don Estes.

From the day the Producers Livestock Auction Company opened for business some years ago, it has always enjoyed a good patronage. It has ample facilities, and of the best arrangement possible, and is well located right on the Ballinger highway, and therefore is convenient to every rancher and farmer north and east of San Angelo. And the fair, square way the business has always been handled, has given the Producers the confidence of its patrons.

But, a new day has come for this popular and growing livestock selling agency Don Estes is now in charge of the business—both as manager and auctioneer. And Don Estes knows his "mike"—he is not only one of the best auctioneers in this part of West Texas—but, he is also a West Texan and knows the livestock selling game—especially the running of a livestock selling agency. He knows most of the West Texas stockmen, both the buyers and the sellers of the country. He is a jolly "hail fellow, well met," and counts his friends by his acquaintance, is always pleasant and jovial in his business relations and makes folks like him.

An announcement of the Producers Livestock Auction Company is elsewhere in this issue of The Enterprise, under the management and auctioneership of Mr. Estes. Read it—Mr. Estes invites everybody, both buyers and sellers, between San Angelo and Sweetwater to come to see him.

like sports, especially rodeo events," said Mr. Cumbie. "They are going somewhere to these events—then, why not Bronte have rodeo facilities and have rodeos, and thus hold the people to our town?"
The Enterprise asserts here again that if all the business men of the town would show the same spirit of progressiveness in bringing people to Bronte as Mr. Mr. Cumbie, we would still build a good town right here in spite of any unfavorable conditions. There is but one really hurtful influence to overcome, always in building a growing and progressive town and that is the lack of the business men of the town to be town builders. So, The Enterprise commends Mr. Cumbie for his progressive spirit and hopes that the other business men of the town will always unite and cooperate in everything that will make the people think kindly of the town and that will make them want to come here not only to do their trading but for their rest and recreation—try it, folks, and you'll find that you will have a growing town.
There is an announcement in this issue of The Enterprise with reference to the Bronte rodeo, today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, July 13-14. Read the announcement and take a day off and attend.
