WHAT GOES ON..

By Jane Nunnally

W. J. Gideon reported the other day that Mrs. Gideon was really cold while up in Chicago. She had written that during one spell she hadn't been out of the house in two weeks and had been unable to get the front door open for three days. She's with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Favor, while in the Windy City.

And last week, W. J. and his son, George, of San Angelo, visited Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gillham of Odessa. Mrs. Gillham is the Gideon's daughter, and it was her son, William, that was so seriously burned last summer when struck by lightning.

J. Howard Meadows, now with the Burroughs Company in Angelo, was an office visitor during the week. He and the editor are former college classmates.

Mrs. C. E. Arrott was a Robert Lee visitor last Saturday.

J. D. Newby of San Angelo dropped by for a chat last week. He's the owner of the Newby Office Supply Co. of San Angelo, and another of the Bronte Enterprise advertisers. Glad to see you, J. D., drop in again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Olsen of Odessa were weekend visitors in Bronte. He is now employed in Odessa as a carpenter and is quite busy, while Mrs. Olsen, the former Miss Ruth Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stevens and niece of Miss Lelia Langford, said the dust there was sure thick.

The Kemp Kleaners will move the first of the month to their new location just across the street from their present location. The Rawlings are renting them a building, which is now in the process of being repaired and modernized.

W. J. Eads, county commissioner, is reported to be improving right along, and is now in an Angelo hospital.

James Weaver Scott was painfully but not seriously injured last week when the tractor he was riding turned over on him, bruising his right leg and ankle. X-rays revealed lacerations but no broken bones. He had been working with Joe Ed and Walter Scott on their place about four miles north of town when the accident occurred, and was pulling a terracing machine with the tractor when the load caused it to overturn.

Bro. McCrary's parents have been ill this week, also Mrs. G. W. Crume.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Andrews are the parents of a new baby girl, Tricia Merlene, who was born on February 3 in an Angelo hospital. The young lady weighed seven pounds and one ounce. Mrs. Andrews is a sister of Mrs. Noah Pruitt.

Mrs. Charlie Keeney was an Angelo visitor last Saturday, when she visited her grand daughter.

C. R. Smith was in Angelo, Tuesday, and his mother, Mrs. C. C. Smith, spent the weekend there with her son, Curtis, and his family.

Leona McQueen was a recent Abilene visitor, when she was the guest of Eugene Gentry on the H - S U campus.

Jim McCrary, now stationed at San Antonio, was recently promoted to the rank of Corporal. The son of Rev. and Mrs. George McCrary, he hopes to be home for his birthday anniversary on March 4.

The J. B. Mackeys took in Dallas not long ago, and Mary Beth Cumbie has returned home from her visit on a nearby ranch.

Mrs. Frank Sayner was in Angelo last Tuesday.

Cob Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nutter, underwent an appendectomy last Wednesday in an Angelo clinic.

Mrs. Belva McCutchen and Mrs. Durwood Pennington of San Angelo visited Mrs. Ruth Coleman this week.

Dr. John Harris of Moorland, Oklahoma, has been here this week looking over the chances of setting up a practice here. Welcome, doc.

Miss Iris Brooks, daughter of the Ben Brooks, is now working in the Bronte Pharmacy. She was a 1946 graduate from Bronte Hi, and had been working in Eldorado prior to her return.

Mrs. Bob Coleman has returned from Fortales, New Mexico, where she was a guest of her mother, Mrs. Kennedy, who has been ill. The Colemans observed their 14th wedding anniversary on February 11, and Van Ruth Caperton made them a cake for the occasion. Van Ruth, by the way, declares she is here to stay, and will not return to San Antonio or anywhere else!

McGUIRES TO REBUILD

The McGuire brothers, whose welding shop was totally destroyed by fire last week, are planning to rebuild, they announced yesterday.

They were very grateful to the people of Bronte, who, immediately following the fire, raised the sum of $261.50 which was turned over to the boys. Some 80 people contributed to the pot, and any others who may have been missed have been asked to see Otis Smith or C. E. Bruton to make their donation.

"We sure appreciate what the folks did," the McGuires said, "especially Otis and Everett, who started the ball to rolling, and we hope to repay you by giving even better service when we get rebuilt."

No insurance was carried on the building or its contents, and the total loss was estimated at $4,000.

Courthouse News...

County Commissioners Court met last Monday, February 10, with Judge Bob Davis, County Clerk Willis Smith, and Commissioners Ben Brooks, T. R. Harmon, and H. C. Varnadore present. W. J. Eads, recently stricken with a heart attack, has been moved to a San Angelo hospital, and of course, was unable to attend the session.

During the day's business, the Court named the First National Bank of Bronte to serve again as the official county depository, appointed Dr. J. K. Griffith as County health officer, to be assisted by Dr. J. D. Leonard, and attended to routine bills and other business.

Judge Davis reported that on his recent trip to San Antonio, he had secured the promise of Dr. R. E. Callender of the A. & M. Extension Service to come to Coke County soon and spend several days while he studied the game and wild life situation. It is hoped that means can be found to stock Coke County with deer, turkey, and other forms of wild life.

WITH THE LAWMAKERS

Among the many bills dropped in the legislative hopper at Austin seeking to cure the evils inherent in strikes is one relating to strikes by utility employees introduced by the Honorable Claud Gilmer of Rock-springs, Speaker of the House of Representatives during the last regular session.

Mr. Gilmer's bill applies only to water, gas and electric utilities and proceeds on the theory that the maintenance of water, gas and electric services are absolutely essential to the life, health and safety of the people, and that it is the duty of the state to prevent any person or group of persons from wilfully destroying or damaging the facilities used in rendering the service.

His bill further provides that although any employe or group of employes have the right to strike or quit work at will, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, whether employes or not, to interfere with the ingress or egress of any employes to or from any property of any utility by picketing, or to harass or intimidate any employes who are willing to work in order that the services may be maintained.

GAY PERCIFULL NOW FIVE

Little Miss Gay Annette Percifull observed her fifth birthday anniversary last Friday, February 7, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Percifull had a party for her in their home.

Those helping Gay have a lot of fun included Carolyn Kemp, Joe Bailey Luttrell, Jerry Lane Luttrell, Linda Gayle Henry, Linda Lee, Jacqueline Marilyn Caperton, Eloise Hester, Dave Nunnally, Virginia Ruth, Bobby Wrinkle, and Frankie Sayner.

John Passow of San Angelo was a Bronte visitor last Wednesday.

ANOTHER OIL WELL FOR COKE

Last Friday night, February 7, Sun Oil Co. did it again when the Fred Jameson No. 1, 30 miles northwest of Bronte, hit pay dirt at 6,136 feet; 90 feet higher than Allen Jameson No. 1, a quarter mile north, which came in last December. A test flow Monday resulted in a rate of 500 barrel average per day through a quarter-inch top choke from a depth of 6,190 feet.

The well, with an elevation of 2,065 feet, entered the crinoidal of the Strawn section of the Pennsylvanian at 6,136, showing first signs of gas at 6,141.

On Monday, February 10, a 51-minute drillstem test was made through a quarter-inch opening at top and bottom, when gas appeared in six minutes. Oil flowed in 47 minutes, and when the drillpipe was broken down, 1,440 feet of pipeline oil was recovered.

Surface pressure during the four-minute flow was 150 pounds, and bottomhole pressure was 950 pounds, changing to 2,700 pounds following a 15-minute shutin.

During Wednesday, February 12, the well was cleaning out cavings, with an additional 30 feet of Strawn lime pay indicated in coring from 6,190 to 6,220 feet.

Johnny Brewer of the Standard-Times reported that 18 inches of fossiliferous with good porosity, stain and fluorescence was recovered from a core at 6,190-200 feet, and that a core from 6,200-100 feet rendered four feet of the same kind of lime.

WESTERN RESERVE TO SPONSOR CALENDAR

Beginning with this issue, the Enterprise is happy to announce that the Western Reserve Life Insurance Co. with branch offices in San Angelo under the management of H. Grady Stovall, is planning to run a series of ads containing news about "when's the meetin'?" Clubs are invited to turn in with their regular reports the date of their next meeting, and these will be compiled each week for the following week.

Other events that may occur will also be included, provided the news reaches the Enterprise office in time. Readers will probably wish to clip the ad so that the weekly calendar will be convenient and ready for them to use.

The Western Reserve Life Insurance Co. is happy to make this service available, and hopes that its patrons will feel free to call on them when they can be of service.

It was further reported that soft lime was cored from 6,210-20 feet with no recovery.

The well is located in the C NE NW 315-1A-H&TC, a quarter mile south of Sun No. 1 Allen Jameson, which was completed on last December 13 with a natural flow of 168 barrels of oil of 45.2 gravity.

Yesterday, February 13, a second drillstream test resulted in gas coming to the surface seven minutes after the tool was opened, and this through quarter-inch top and bottom chokes. The recovery of 315 feet of clean oil and 315 feet of heavy oil-cut mud, according to Johnny Brewer of the Standard-Times.

Surface flowing pressure was 125 pounds, and bottomhole pressure 650, and there was no water. Gravity was 45.3 degrees.

The new well is coring ahead and is expected to explore the Ellenberger, which will be reached at about 7,000 feet, it is reported.

Yesterday, also, the Sun Oil Co. staked out still another new location, marking the beginning of a third well. This one, No. 1 H. H. Jameson, will be a quarter mile west of the opening well, and is scheduled for 6,500 feet. Sun has already started building a road to the new location, 660 feet from the south line and midway between the east and west lines of the H. H. Jameson lease in the west part of section 253, block 1-A, H&TC Co. survey.

Council Discusses Water Problem

The Bronte City Council met in regular session on Feb. 5, according to Mayor Noah L. Pruitt. First to come up was the appearance of Allen L. Sanders who is resident engineer connected with Beavers and Lodal of San Antonio. He advanced a complete plan for rebuilding the city water system, at a cost estimated at $25,000, the amount to be raised by revenue bonds which must be voted on by the people, if they want to vote such issue.

Petitions are to be circulated during the next few days, it was learned, so that such a bond election may be called. It was disclosed that the revenue from the project would be sufficient to pay the cost, and that taxes would not be raised one cent if the bonds were voted. Sanders would receive 5 per cent of the total amount if the bonds are voted, Pruitt noted.

The Council also voted to buy a new water pump, 10 horsepower or more, as needed, and this pump is to be specially built. Water mains are also to be extended and split to provide for better coverage.

The fire marshal recently recommended that the fire siren be used only in cases of emergency, in order to avoid confusion, and the Council approved this point.

Mayor Pruitt pointed out, however, that the Council was about to back-track and restore use of the siren twice daily as a signal for closing time, since Herman Rogge had said its non-use would result in rust and corrosion making the siren totally unfit for any use. No action has yet been taken on this matter, as far as is known, but Pruitt did indicate it was under further consideration.

WINTERS FIREMEN HERE

Six members of the Winters Volunteer Fire Department were Bronte visitors last Friday night, when they came over voluntarily to help a few Bronte men try to organize a volunteer company of their own.

The Winters sextet was headed by Eugene Baker, president of the Winters department, and included Jesse Wetzel, assistant; K. R. Crowe and Max Lewis, captains; Billy McCaughan, assistant secretary; and B. G. Owens, honorary member, and they arrived at 6:30 P. M., leaving near midnight.

The visitors were a distinct help to the four Bronte men who came to the meeting, and gave instruction on the various duties of the individual firemen, a group organization, and rules and procedures.

Following the "paper" work, the Bront truck was taken to the Home Motor Company, where the visitors showed the Bronte volunteers how to stack hose, hook up, and use the various gadgets, valves, and cutoffs. Then the truck was taken into the street and put to use pumping water so the trainees could put their theory into practice.

Among safety rules discussed at the gathering, it was noted that State laws require periodic fire drills in the school system, that a heavy fine may be charged to anyone driving over a firehose during a fire, periodic inspections of property may be required, and violations of the fire code may bring danger not only to the violators but others as well.

The visitors were extremely cordial, offering to return again if they could be of help, and inviting the Bronte quartet to come to Winters anytime to watch their own drill practice.

Bronte men who ventured forth were J. L. Keeney, Jr., Cecil Kemp, R. W. Rees, and your reporter.

Keeney Purchases Sims Food Store

J. L. Keeney, Jr., has announced the purchase of Sims Food Store, effective last Monday, February 10, and has taken complete charge of his new business enterprise.

He and Mrs. Keeney, the former Miss Fay Franklin of Colorado City, will have charge of the store, and are offering their friends and customers a clean and modern little grocery store, fully stocked with fancy and staple groceries.

Before entering the service, Keeney worked for both Browning's Store and Cumbie's Red and White, as well as grocers in Midland and Colorado City after his discharge, so brings a good deal of experience to his new job.

"I'd been going to Hardin-Simmons while Fay was working in Abilene,"

Lynn said, "but we wanted to get back home and settle down, so here we are."

He has already installed new light fixtures as well as a new counter, and plans to modernize the store even more in the future.

Tuffy Sims, former owner, said his plans were as yet indefinite, but that he would make a decision later. He thought it best to sell, he declared, due to ill health. However, he will be on hand for awhile to help the Keeney's get started.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeney, who were married last September 8, are planning to continue the same policies as before, and he declared they'd get a butcher if the customers indicated their desire to buy meat from them.

"I'm sure glad to be back," he added, "and intend to be of service to our friends and customers."

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the citizens of the Bronte community and the members of the Methodist Church for the wonderful entertainment and feast given in honor of my birthday.

The specialties, "chicken in de pan," cakes, pies, bread and coffee were fine. A birthday is only a place on the trail of life where the traveler stops to look back. I have now reached the 75th mile post. The trail behind me will never be grass grown or forgotten.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

By Rev. C. R. Blake

"Woe to them that are at ease in Zion. . . ." Amos, 6:1. The usual application of this text is to those who are not serving God in the way they should. If this habit goes unnoticed and uncondemned, the following are readily recognized:

The guilty person reaches a degree of self-satisfaction. A person is in a dangerous place to be content with himself.

He lowers himself to the standard of self-indulgence. No longer can he sing, "Simply To Thy Cross I Cling."

The attitude of indifference is stamped upon such a one. Who cares what comes? Let come what may, I'll get by somehow!

Then, carelessness and negligence follow in quick succession. Be not careless about the Lord's work, and neglect not the house of God. Be in your place of worship regularly and take an active part: It will help you to overcome the tempter.

SEE THIS MAN?

He looks nice, his clothes are cleaned and pressed, and he is happy. He is happy because he has a good appearance.

You too, can be happy, and you can have a nice appearance.

All it takes is to come visit us, and leave us your clothes to be cleaned and pressed. After all, don't you want to be and look happy too, with not a worry on your mind?

On rural routes everywhere in America, on sunny by-ways of the south, live the 5,500,000 ranch and farm families who produce America's supply of food. It's a big supply, too, the greatest in the world. From your farms and ranches in 1946 came livestock, dairy and poultry products and crops to the value of about twenty-three billion dollars, according to latest available government estimates. Meat animals and dairy and poultry products accounted for about 60 percent of the total farm cash income, current estimates reveal. Agriculture, the nation's most essential industry, is "big business" in every sense of the phrase.

Of all your cash income last year, $981,660,783* came from Swift & Company in payments for livestock and other agricultural raw materials. We purchased your livestock and other products and converted them into millions of pounds of quality meats, valuable by-products, other foods and products. Part of the money you received from Swift came from our meat packing plants, dairy and poultry plants and buying stations. Another portion of the money paid out by us was for soybeans, cottonseed, peanuts and other raw materials.

Swift provides a wide, ready, year 'round market for your livestock and other products—and out of every dollar we receive in a year from sales, we return, on the average, 75¢ to you. Last year, 1.3¢ out of each dollar of sales was profit. Part of this amount was paid out as dividends to the 63,365 shareholders as a return on their investment. Part was retained in the business for future needs.

Returns for Savings. It is not the investment of a few rich people that has built Swift & Company, but the pooled savings of 63,365 people. Among them you'll find farmers, ranchers, lawyers, doctors, mechanics, business people—folks from every walk of life . . . including 29,941 women. The savings these shareholders have invested in Swift & Company provide the plants and facilities—the tools with which we handle your products. The return for their thriftiness comes to them as dividends paid out of the company's profit. In 1946 that dividend amounted to $1.90 a share.

Soda Bill Sez: . . . what's wrong with people is not their ignorance, but the number of things they know that aren't so.

For People . . . By People

We at Swift & Company think of our business as being owned by 63,365 people, the shareholders and their families, and operated by 66,000 employees. We provide essential services for agricultural producers and many other large groups of people. Employment is created for other thousands who work for railroads, trucking firms, livestock commission houses, stockyards companies, and the suppliers who furnish us salt, sugar, boxes, barrels, machinery and a thousand-and-one other things. A part of the business of thousands upon thousands of retailers everywhere in the nation is in purveying Swift's quality meats and other products to millions of American families.

In return for all the effort that made these services possible, the folks who work for Swift earned $154,013,099 in wages and salaries in 1946. This sum is 88% of the total remaining after all bills except taxes were paid, and is ten times more than the company's total net profit.

FEED VALUES ARE SOIL VALUES

by Wm. A. Albrecht
University of Missouri

Recently a farmer friend of mine told me, "I've moved to another farm where I get bigger yields in all my feed crops. But even though I shovel much more corn and patch a lot more hay, I can't get my calves to market as early. I'm just not growing as much meat per acre."

This man doesn't realize that feed bulk is no indication of feed value. Livestock will not gain more on larger rations unless the feed value of any crop is derived from the basic plant food elements found in the soil. The crop must first build up the woody structure that makes up its bulk. Then, if soil conditions are right, the plant will store up a supply of the raw materials of protein, vitamins, and mineral compounds. Thus, whether a crop offers anything more than bulk and fattening power depends on the condition of the soil on which it grew. Livestock may be fed great quantities of feedstuffs produced on poor soils and still fail to gain weight. It is soil that has been guarded against erosion, fertilized properly, and carefully managed, that grows nutritious crops. Such soil will produce crops that give better feeding results and make more meat per acre.

Nutrition is our business—and yours

"WHERE DID THAT $1,308,364,155 GO?"

During 1946 Swift & Company received $1,308,364,155 from the sale of its products and by-products. By the end of the year the Company had earned a net profit of $16,394,739, which is slightly less than 1.34¢ on each dollar of sales.

What happened to the rest of that money?

Well, the largest part was paid to farmers and ranchers who sold us livestock and other agricultural products. They got $981,660,783* or 75¢ out of the average sales dollar we received for products sold, including all by-products such as hides, wool, soybean meal, etc.

The next largest portion of our sales dollar went to all Swift employees. Their share of the dollar was 12.6¢.

Fuel, barrels, boxes, paper, salt, sugar and other supplies took 4.8¢ out of the average dollar.

Transportation took 2¢ (Meat travels, on the average, over 1,000 miles from producer to consumer.)

Taxes took another 1¢. All other expenses, including depreciation, interest and miscellaneous business costs, amounted to 3.3¢.

All these costs taken out of the sales dollar left 1.34¢. This was Swift & Company's net profit in 1946—a profit of only 1/4¢ on each pound of the millions of pounds of products and by-products handled.

HERE'S BLACKWELL . . .

By Mrs. Charles Ragsdale

The WHD Club

Our Club met last Wednesday in the canning center for an all-day meeting. During the morning the group canned hominy, had a covered dish luncheon at noon, and the regular meeting in the afternoon with Mrs. Charles Ragsdale, president, presiding.

Mrs. C. B. Smith and Mrs. R. H. Reaves were named to represent the Club at the Sweetwater training school, and this they did.

Mrs. Floyd Craig, talking on textile terms and materials, brought out that rayon is the greatest competitor now in the field. It is a cellulose product made from wood pulp or cotton linters, and wood is its greatest source. Its three processes are viscose, acetate, and bemberg.

Nylon is made from coal, air, and water, is very elastic, and is resistant to moths and mildew.

To buy intelligently, one must be familiar with various trade names and terms. A crown-tested article has not more than two per cent shrinkage, a permanent finish, and color that is fast to air and light. Teca is a trade name for spun acetate rayon, and nafa on a fabric means it has been treated for fastness to light and washing.

Mrs. R. H. Reaves discussed various kinds of fabrics, and traced the silk, cottons, and wools from pioneer days to the present.

Present were Mes. Charles Ragsdale, B. P. Ragsdale, D. H. Alsop, Austin Jordan, T. A. Carlisle, R. T. Whitehead, C. R. Smith, Esther Bryant, and guests were Mes. Charlie Copeland, B. R. McCarley, and Arthur Hendry.

James Arthur Hendry of Santa Fe, New Mexico is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hendry.

Mrs. Roy Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ranev, and Mrs. R. V. Copeland were Winter visitors, Monday.

Oscar Parker made a business trip to Lubbock, Tuesday.

Joe Weddle, M. C. Hendry, and Joe Holly came in from El Paso, where they have been working.

Mrs. Johnnie Roe and children of Clyde are guests here.

Vernon Childers and Charles Mc-Peters left Tuesday for California, where they will work in a bomber plant.

Billie Brice, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Jude Brice, has signed up for the Army.

Miss Lou Cook became the bride of William Cook last Sunday afternoon, February 9, in the Bronte Methodist parsonage with Rev. George B. McCrary reading the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cook of Blackwell, and the couple will make their home in Bastrop.

Mrs. L. Sweet and son, Johnnie, are visiting in Dallas.

Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Murray have moved to Friendship, near Lamesa, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist Church. We regret to lose these good people but wish them well in their new pastorate.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lowery of Ballinger, Mrs. W. H. Bell of Robert Lee, and Mrs. Will Posey of Dove Creek, Colorado visited in the Charles Ragsdale home Tuesday. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Posey will spend a few days visiting their brother, R. L. Hall.

Oscar Henderson, son of Mrs. Daisy Henderson, has joined the Army.

DR. LEONARD HONORED

Dr. J. D. Leonard was honored last Friday night at the Methodist Church, when Founder's Night was observed. A large crowd attended the services, given in his honor due to his long term of office as a member of the Board of Stewards as well as its secretary. The occasion was a complete surprise to Doc, who had no idea what was up.

A number of musical specials were given, as well as his favorite hymns, and the program was preceded by a general church supper.

Among the guests introduced at the meeting were Mrs. Dollie Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wylie and granddaughter, Tommy Ruth Brown, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil Wylie and daughter, Mrs. Parker Tubb, and Mrs. Ben Campbell, all of Robert Lee, Mrs. T. R. Butler of Duncan, Oklahoma, sister of W. J. Gideon, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Baker of Fort Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Muston of Abilene, Otto Finks of Tennyson, Mrs. R. L. Hayley, and Dr. and Mrs. Leonard, the honored guests.

THIRD GRADE NEWS

The Rhythm Band, composed of the Primary pupils, entertained with two selections at the P-TA meeting.

The pupils are planning a Valentine party Friday.

My, how she's grown!

This is the snow-suit that fitted Sally so well only two years ago. It was a little snug last winter, but still wearable. Now it's outgrown. Sally needs a new outfit—fast!

A lot of businesses are in the same spot as Sally. Their facilities are outgrown too. During the tight war years, they nursed old equipment along, patiently waiting for new materials and machines. And all the time they, too, kept on growing. But a lot of things they've been needing still aren't available.

That's why so many businesses—our own included—are like Sally, straining at the seams, waiting for the new materials we need.

This is a friendly apology to those folks who've asked to be added to the service lines. Though we haven't gotten around to you, we haven't forgotten you. We appreciate your patience, and want you to know that—as soon as the needed materials become available—we'll be happy to bring cheap, dependable electric service on to you, too.
