BRONTE, TEXAS, MARCH 7, 1947

No. 10

Sun Stakes Fifth Test In Jameson Field

Coke County oil developments continued to move at a rapid pace during the week as Sun Oil Co. staked out its fifth scheduled test operation. This will be the No. 2 Allen Jameson, located 3,320 feet from the south, 1,980 from the west line of section 253-1A-H&TC one half mile north of No. 1 Allen Jameson, the pool opener. Drilling will probably be to 7,000 feet and is scheduled to start soon.

No. 1 Fred Jameson was drilling yesterday at 6,957 feet in lime, and had not yet reached the Ellenberger. It is located at C NE NW 315-1A-H&TC, a quarter mile south of the discovery.

No. 1 Homer Jameson, scheduled 6,500 well, was down to 1,465 yesterday, in lime and shale. It is in the C SW SW 353-1A-H&TC, a quarter mile west of No. 1 Allen Jameson.

No. 1 Allen Jameson, pool opener, is now producing from 6,225-45 feet. No. 2 Fred Jameson, slated for a 6,500-foot test, is located at C NW SE 315-1A H&TC, or 2,944 feet south-southeast of No. 1 Fred Jameson.

By way of summary, No. 1 Allen Jameson is producing, No. 2 Allen Jameson is scheduled, No. 1 Fred Jameson is nearing the Ellenberger, No. 2 Fred Jameson is scheduled, and No. 1 Homer Jameson is down to 1,465.

No. 1 Fred Jameson underwent a drillstem test early in the week, during which 6,180 feet of salt water was recovered from 6,634-58 feet, through a 3/4-inch bottomhole choke and a 1/2-inch top choke. Gas came to the surface in 45 minutes, according to Johnny Brewer of the Standard-Times. No oil showed. Bottomhole flowing pressure was 1,500 pounds, shutin pressure was 2,900 pounds. This well has indicated 207 feet of Strawn lime pay, and it will be recalled that the famous Goosecreek field had only 120 feet of pay.

In short, with leasing activity at a feverish pitch, and with two more major companies rumored ready to start drilling immediately adjacent to Bronte, there'll be a slick time in the old town.

WITH THE LAWMAKERS

Believing it of interest to our readers to know what is going on in the Texas Legislature, we have included the following bits of information, all coming from official legislative sources.

Legislators receive a salary of $10 per day for the first 120 days, while the chief clerk, sergeant-at-arms, reading and journal clerks, all receive a salary of $9 per day.

In the House, there are 43 standing committees, ranging in size from 5 to 21 members, and the total number of committee places is 719.

The session opened on January 14, and from that date till the end of January there were 10 roll calls, as business began each legislative day.

R. E. Blount of Big Spring, 91st District, was present on seven roll calls, absent three times; W. H. Rappy of Winters, 92nd District, was present for each of the 10 roll calls; Harley Sadler of Sweetwater, 117th District, was present nine times, absent once; and C. L. South of Coleman, 125th District, was present nine times, absent one time.

Among issues voted on during January, Blount, Rappy, Sadler and South all signed HCR No. 11, providing for adjournment on May 13, 1947, but this measure did not pass. Voting was on January 22.

On January 29, Rappy and Sadler voted for H. B. No. 19, an act authorizing the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas to establish quarantines against other States . . . to prevent an outbreak of Hoof and Mouth disease. Blount and South were absent for that particular vote.

On January 30, only South voted for HCR No. 16, relative to commending the young Democratic Clubs assembling in Dallas, and Blount, Rappy, and Sadler were marked as absent on the balloting. During the same day, all four men voted for revisions of HB No. 19, previously considered on the 29th.

Elder Bill Stanley will speak Sunday on "Made Free by the Truth" at 11 o'clock, and on "Marks of Love to God" at 7 P. M. Both services at the Church of Christ in Bronte.

CEMETERY WORKING ON 11TH

Frank Keeney, chairman of the Bronte Cemetery Association, has announced that there will be a cemetery working on next Tuesday, March 11 and all members are requested to be on hand to help out.

"Bring your hoes and shovels, too," Frank said, "and we'll find jobs for everybody."

The only way the Bronte Cemetery is maintained is by the help of volunteer workers, and in order to keep the grounds looking clean, the aid of all interested people is earnestly requested.

AROUND ABOUT TOWN . . .

Sheriff Paul Good declared this week that his office had sold 45 passenger car tags, 5 commercial tags, and 12 farm licenses. Deadline is April 1st.

Miss Mary Pearl Bearden, Coke County HDA was in San Antonio last weekend, along with Miss Hazel McCoy of Tom Green and Miss Anne Joiner of Concho counties. The trio represented this area of West Texas at a dress review staged by the Simplicity Pattern Co. of New York, whose representative was Miss Jane Gibbs. Styles shown were for the 4-H Club girls.

On the 25th, Mary Pearl was in Big Spring for the egg grading contest, where agents from all over the district were present.

Steve Badley, who has been in an Angelo hospital for some five weeks, returned to Bronte last Monday afternoon, and was around town greeting friends. Glad to see you back, Steve.

Tom Carlisle and L. W. Sweet of Blackwell attended the annual Rural-Urban party held in Sweetwater last Monday night. Sponsored by the Rotary Club, this annual affair includes farmers and merchants from all over West Texas, and is quite a gala affair. Joe Evans of El Paso was the visiting speaker.

Quite a crowd of folks gathered around last week to work over Jess Ead's place, since he's now in the hospital. Fourteen tractors showed up, and for these Bon Spoons and C. E. Bruton donated all the gas and oil they needed to help a fellow out. Nice work, men.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pairish and Janson Boyce have dropped around to express their thanks and appreciation to all of their good friends in Coke, Tom Green, and Rannels counties for their contributions in the recent loss of their home. They were also grateful for the shower given in Mrs. J. L. Keeney's home by Mrs. Milton House, Mrs. Cullen Luttrell, Mrs. J. L. Keeney, Jr., and Mrs. J. D. Luttrell, Jr.

Bill Hanks of the Santa Rita Wool Co. of San Angelo was a Bronte visitor last Tuesday, in company with John Passow. Both men conferred most of the morning with a number of Bronte business men, then took off for Robert Lee to explore into the oil situation a bit more.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fitzhugh and children of San Antonio took in the Angelo fat stock show, and also visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham.

CECIL KEMP

Kemp Kleaners Move To New Location

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kemp, owners of the Kemp Kleaners of Bronte, announce the removal of their tailor shop to the other side of the Main Street, where they are now occupying greatly enlarged and newly finished quarters. The move was effective last Monday, and now puts them next to the City Barber Shop.

Cecil, who was born and raised in Ballinger, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kemp of that city, and before coming to Bronte in December, 1945, he was employed in Dallas by the Zenith Cleaners.

Mrs. Kemp, the former Miss Frances Lewis of Robert Lee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lewis. The couple, who observed their tenth wedding anniversary on February 4, have one daughter, Carolyn, who was seven years old last October 13th.

"The equipment we now have on hand," Cecil said yesterday, "will compare favorably with that of any town around here of 25,000 people or more." He has spared no expense in providing the newest and most modern equipment that can be purchased, and the trade territory may have adequate cleaning and pressing service at all times.

"We're also putting in a storage vault to take care of woolens only," Cecil added, "and we hope to have that ready in the near future."

Here Sunday to see the Kemps were a number of relatives, including Mrs. Kemp's parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lewis and Captain H. S. Lewis. He has been in an El Paso hospital, and is to report to San Francisco on March 18th.

Cecil's parents were also here, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kemp, and his sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McDonald, Anne Katherine, and Evelyn Louise, all of Ballinger.

All were very pleased with the new business set up, for Cecil, looking ahead to a newer and growing Bronte, doesn't intend to be caught napping when things begin to develop.

Miss Helen Luckett was honored with a birthday supper at her home last Friday evening. Besides the family she had as her guests Misses Geneva and Bobbie Tomlinson and J. I. Murtishaw. The cake was a work of art and the entire meal was a masterpiece of cookery.

CITY ELECTION CALLED

Under a legal controversy settled by the Court of Civil Appeals at San Antonio on March 16, 1946, city officials must get their election machinery in tune with the State Election laws.

In the case of Austin et al vs. City of Alice et al, found in 193 S.W. (2d) 290, the following interpretations were handed down by the Court:

1. Candidates' names must be given to the city secretary at least 30 days before election day, whether independents or as a result of primary election.

3. Independent candidates' names are filed through nomination petitions signed by legally qualified voters equal in number of 5 per cent of the number of votes cast in the last general city election.

3. Ballots must be printed more than 20 days before election day. (Which this year is set for Tuesday, April 1).

4. Absentee voting law applies to the city election.

5. The City secretary has a mandatory duty to have ballots printed not later than 20 days before election day so that absentee voting may commence 20 days before election.

6. When absentee voting begins the election is in progress.

7. The City secretary must post the names of candidates not later than 30 days before election day.

8. All general law cities or towns elect their officers on the first Tuesday in April.

9. In general law cities and towns the Mayor orders the election and gives notice of such order and appoints election officers. Notice must be given 30 days before the election. Articles 978 and 2951 of Vernon's Statutes give more complete details.

SPRINGER FILES FOR MAYOR

Mayor Noah L. Pruitt has resigned as the Mayor of Bronte, effective as soon as his successor can be sworn into office, and Cecil Kemp and W. W. Millikin have filed for places on the City Council to fill the vacancies left by George Thomas and W. H. Maxwell, Jr., whose terms expire at the first of next month, it was revealed Monday by O. W. Chapman, city secretary. H. A. Springer has filed for Pruitt's place.

Bronte's annual election will be held in the Bronte City Hall on Tuesday, April 1, and the new mayor will serve for one year, to fill Pruitt's unexpired term, while the councilmen will serve for a two-year period.

While the official ballot will list the names of Springer, Kemp, and Millikin, there was some talk of a write-in campaign for other men whose candidacy may be pushed by friends.

It is known that Bronte may be voting for a bond issue in the near future to restore the water system as well as other public improvements, and for that reason, a good deal of importance is being attached to this election.

Bobby Gentry reports there is an epidemic of mumps in Odessa, but expressed a desire NOT to bring them to Bronte, especially via Bobby.

WHITE AUTO STORE MOVED

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bruton, owners of the White Auto Store, have now moved to their new location up on Main Street, and are to be found situated between Keeney's Variety Store and Smith Hardware Store.

They leased the building from B. F. Bridges, and have spent the past week fixing the place up and moving in.

"We're going to put in some new stock, too," Bruton said yesterday, "including tires, tubes, radios, batteries, bicycles, tricycles, Ford tractor parts, and everything you'll want for your car, such as carburetors, generators, cut outs, starters, and so on."

Already on hand is a Stewart-Warner radio, Leonard freezers and refrigerators are due in quickly, and in short, the Brutons cordially invite their friends and customers to come in this weekend and look around.

WHAT GOES ON..

Corporal Jim McCrary, son of Rev. and Mrs. George B. McCrary was here last week for a few days, coming in Saturday and going back to his post in San Antonio on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. A. Springer spent the weekend in Bronte, due to two holidays in the San Angelo school system. She returned to her duties on Sunday.

Mrs. E. L. Nunnally, mother of the editor, was a weekend guest of her son in Bronte.

Brooks Browning found some Hershey bars the other day in Keeney's, and allowed as how the kids could have some, since they hadn't been able to find any since Christmas. Brooks hasn't had any more "lean" pigs for sale in recent days either. Folks will remember that last year he ran a want-ad to sell "seven weaned pigs," and in our ignorance, we had him trying to sell "seven lean pigs." "They might have been lean," Brooks laughed, "but there was no point in putting that part in the ad."

Juanetta Coalson is on the sick list this week.

Geneva Tomlinson left last Sunday morning for Austin, where she will enter business college. According to Bobbie, they missed the bus here, so had to go into Angelo at 5:30 to make proper connections.

The Methodist Church revival will be held from March 26 through April 6 this year, declared Rev. George B. McCrary yesterday. Everyone, of course, is extended a cordial invitation to come.

Mrs. L. Johnson has returned from Winters, where she visited friends and relatives as well as received a bit of dental attention.

Mrs. J. B. McCutchen was around for a chat the other day, and was wishing the weather would get warmer.

J. W. Latham came up from Tennyson, and stopped by to say that his son, Hervey, was still in Korea, but should get home within six months or so at least.

Mrs. Hollis Stevens ambled by, all bundled up against that sweeping north wind.

Skinny Adams asserted the other day that he had a lot of trouble with his banking because nobody could read his writing. "So anytime they find a signature they can't read, they either put it in or take it out of my pot," says Skinny. Maybe that's why we can't balance our account, either, Skinny.

S. T. Gregory expressed himself as very pleased with the Enterprise last week, and said that since he was taking it, he'd let his neighbor's copy alone.

Last week's story about Mac Rippetoe's hospital brought Mac a flood of response from all over the state, for people read about it and wanted to know more, so Mac really had a lot of letters and visitors come in. Not only was the story featured in the Bronte Enterprise, but it was also used in the Dallas Morning News, the San Angelo Standard-Times, Abilene Reporter-News, San Antonio-Express, Houston Post, and Fort Worth Star Telegram. And the Drug Topics magazine, a nationally circulated journal, has also written for the story and the pictures. Mac said he ran out of copies three times on his newsstand, and had to call over for more, and for such a response, we're grateful and so is Mac. Read the Enterprise if you want to find out what goes on in Coke County!

OFTEN COPIED BUT NEVER EXCELLED!

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

By C. R. Blake

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork." (Psalms, 19:1.)

The voice of God calls to us even from the silent stars as they pass in grand review.

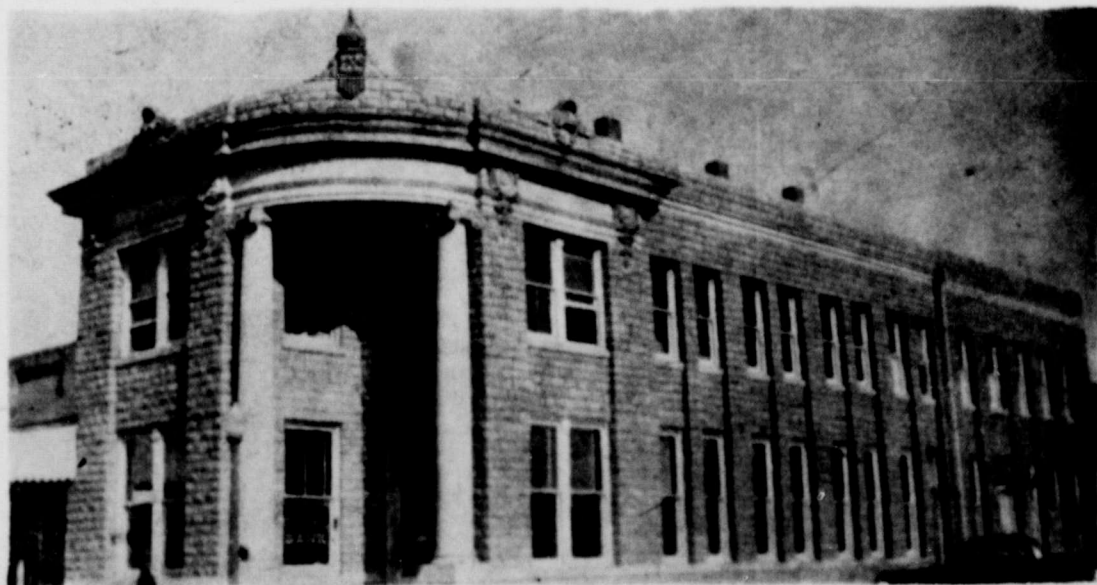

The heavens declare the glory of God because of their infinite space. It is limitless—there is no end. Like their Maker, they are boundless.

The heavens declare the glory of God's fruitfulness. Why so many stars? "That in blessing, I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven." (Gen. 22:17.)

The heavens declare the glory of God because of their beauty. Man cannot reproduce their grandeur—he can but marvel at it.

Yes, the heavens preach: the theme, Glory to God in the Highest!

Brooks Browning received a nice letter from Weldon Schooler this week, thanking him for his bidding at the Coke County Livestock Show. Brooks purchased Weldon's registered ewe lamb, 115 pounds, for 40 cents a pound, which he'll keep for breeding purposes, and also purchased one from Le Drew Arrott, a hundred pounder, for 35 cents a pound. Brooks also did some good bidding on the grand champion, and ran the price up to 48 cents before it finally went to 50 cents.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BRONTE

BANK DEPOSITS STEADY

L. T. Youngblood, president, declared yesterday that the First National Bank in Bronte now has approximately one and a half million dollars in deposits, and that this amount had been more or less constant over the past few months.

With oil activity increasing, however, this figure may be increased. Youngblood, known as one of the ablest bankers in Texas, may well be pleased with the outstanding record of this bank as shown under his administration.

A WORD TO THE WISE

The Hico News Review recently carried the following, which we pass along for a bit of a chuckle. Moral: You'd Better Subscribe to the Bronte Enterprise!

"A man who was too stingy to subscribe for his home town paper sent his little boy to borrow a copy from a neighbor. In his hurry, the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in 10 minutes, looked like a warty summer squash.

"His father ran to his assistance and, failing to notice the barbed wire fence, ran into that, ruining a $5 pair of trousers.

"The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn.

"Hearing the racket, his wife upset a four-gallon churn of cream into a basket of little chickens drowning the entire batch. In her haste she dropped a $35.00 set of false teeth.

"The baby having been left alone, crawled through the cream into the parlor, ruining a new $25 carpet.

"During the excitement the dog broke up 11 setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts on the clothes line.

Moral: Don't ever borrow your neighbor's paper. It's too risky.

BRONTE TRACTOR CO. NOW OPEN

L. T. Youngblood and Charlie Boecking are pleased to announce the opening of the Bronte Tractor Company, which will handle Allis Chalmers tractors and parts.

While tractors are now a scarce item, due to the strikes, they do have a very complete line of parts, including a number of the scarcer items.

Their new building, located on the highway just east of the post office, has been ready for sometime, but the two men have delayed announcing their formal opening in hopes that more tractors would soon be available. They decided, however, to open up anyhow, because they do have the parts.

Charlie, who married the former Miss Virginia Youngblood, is Mr. Youngblood's son-in-law, and the two are partners in the new business concern. They're inviting their friends to come down today and any time to inspect their equipment and parts, and they'll have a lot more to offer when conditions improve.

SCHOOL STAGES FIRE DRILL

Supt. Jeff Dean announced that the entire school system held a practice fire drill last Tuesday, and that everybody was out of the building and the proper distance away inside of one and a half minutes.

Due to the recent scourge of fires in and near Bronte, it was felt that students needed the added practice just in case a fire should occur.

"Some of them wanted to grumble about going down the fire escape," Jeff said, "but I reminded them that in case of fire they'd be mighty glad they had a fire escape to use, so it all went off nicely."

Other fire drills are being planned from time to time in order that all students and faculty members may know their proper duties in case there should ever be a fire at school.

HEDGE BY SAVING

With the problems of life all have to tussle
 And those who succeed must get up and hustle.
 To fight in this world and meet competition,
 Brains have the odds; they're the best ammunition.
 But keen minded men go broke everyday
 By playing the market the very wrong way;
 And others as brainy and equally strong
 Have lost all they had by doing things wrong.
 THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK has found it pays
 To hedge by saving in various ways.

Telephone toll lines, like the family bathroom, often are involved in traffic jams. It's simply a matter of too many people wanting the use of limited facilities at the same time. Today we're handling a record number of long-distance calls on equipment to which we still have been able to make only limited additions. So if you have to wait before your call can be completed, we hope you will understand and be patient.

KITE FLYING THROUGH THE CENTURIES

As far as is known, kites were invented by the Chinese about 400 B.C. In China, the ninth day of the ninth month still is "Kite's Day," when men and boys fly colorful kites of many shapes and designs—birds, beasts, dragons and fish.

Through the years, kites also have been used for meteorological and military purposes. Carrying small cameras to great heights, kites have been flown over forts to obtain "bird's eye" view photos of enemy installations. In 1894, Captain B. F. Baden-Powell of the Scots Guards constructed a series of kites fastened together, with which he lifted a man 100 feet! And in 1905, the Prussian aeronautical observatory flew a kite which attained a height of four miles!

It is not known when or where kite flying was first introduced in America, but the sport has become widespread. The kite-flying season is here again. Youngsters who want to enjoy the sport in safety, should carefully adopt the four good rules urged by Reddy Kilowatt.

Our Washington News Letter

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

Portal-to-Portal
During recent months there has been a lot of publicity about portal-to-portal litigation. In fact, the CIO has made a huge racket out of these lawsuits. The House last week passed a bill which it is believed will stop most of that monkey business and blast the dreams of many shyster lawyers and of some who are not shysters.

Here is the history behind these suits: Back in 1938 Congress passed a law known as the "Fair Labor Standards Act." It requires the payment to all employees under the act of a certain minimum wage, together with overtime compensation of not less than one and one-half times the regular rate. It then provides employers shall be liable to the employees for any unpaid minimum wages and unpaid overtime, plus an additional equal amount as liquidated damages, plus attorneys fees to be taxed as costs against the employer.

But the act does not define what is meant by "work" or "work week." The question of whether preliminary or incidental activities shall be included as work was left to be settled by the employer and employee, either by express agreement when the man went to work or by implied agreement, based on the custom or practice at the particular place of business. In other words, the law was silent on that.

Then, last year came the Mt. Clemens Pottery case where the Supreme Court had before it the question of whether time spent in walking in the employer's premises to the work station and time spent in certain preliminary and incidental activities must be paid for by the employer, regardless of the understanding or agreements of the parties or the custom always followed as to when actual work began and ended each day.

To the surprise of everyone, the Supreme Court held the employer owed the employee for all such incidental and preliminary activities, "regardless of contrary custom or contract."

That meant every employer covered by the Act owed all employees for all such incidentals, plus a like amount for a penalty, and plus the attorney's fees for bringing suits.
There being no limitation for bringing suits under the Fair Labor Standards Act, the claimant's right of recovery would extend back to the beginning of his employment, limited only by any applicable State Statute of Limitations.

The Federal courts were immediately flooded by these suits, filed mostly by CIO unions. A few small factories had their current bank accounts garnished and had to close their doors because they were unable to meet payrolls.

The AFL condemned these suits as being contrary to good-faith agreements and wholly unjustified.

Between July 1, 1946 and January 31, 1947, 1,913 such cases were filed in Federal courts, claiming nearly $6 billion. The fact that the time period involved includes the war years when wages were high, with much overtime, greatly increased the potential liability. Thousands of firms faced bankruptcy if the suits were upheld.

And Uncle Sam had a big interest in this litigation. The amounts paid by the Government to employers having cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts, together with litigation expenses, are all chargeable against the Government. There would be a tremendous loss in tax refunds and also refunds from renegotiation proceedings. The total loss to the Government might reach $2 billion.

The House bill passed last week would prohibit such suits where pay for the activities and time in question was not contemplated when the contract of employment was made. A one-year statute of limitation was set for filing future suits under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

If the Senate follows suit and passes this bill, it is believed this portal-to-portal lawsuit racket — one of the biggest of this decade — will be nipped in the bud.

SINGING TOMORROW
J. Lawrence Deavers, president of the Four-County All-Nite Singing Convention says that tomorrow night this group will meet at Divide, Nolan County, south of Sweetwater at 7:30 P. M., and will sing until about 2 A. M.

A large crowd is expected, but of course one can go home anytime he chooses, although lunch will be served and there will be plenty of coffee.

Ten or 15 of the best quartets are expected, and all Coke County singers are cordially invited to come, Deavers said.

Farm, Ranch and Livestock News

Farm Cash Income

For Texas farmers 1946 was a year of prosperity from the standpoint of farm cash income which totaled $1,246,883,000 for an increase of 9 per cent over 1945 according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. In dollars and cents this set a new record and smashed all previous yearly intakes.

December income reached $92,346,000 to dip 32 per cent from November but was 13 per cent above income in December 1945.

The Bureau's seasonally adjusted index for December rose to 260.8 compared with November's index of 252.7. This means that December farm cash income was 160.8 per cent above the pre-war level when the 1935-39 monthly average index stood at 100.

All crop reporting districts shared in the increases for the year except in Eastern Texas (District 5) where a yearly decline of 5 per cent was recorded. Greatest increase was on the Trans-Pecos area (District 6) where a 39 per cent gain was recorded. The Northern Prairies (District 4) showed a 16 per cent increase and all other gains hovered around the 10 per cent mark.

December farm cash income was down from November's total in every district except the Lower Rio Grande Valley (District 10-A) where the fruit and vegetable season pushed the income 12 per cent higher. Decreases in all other districts ranged from 6 per cent to 55 per cent.

Compared with December 1945, farm cash income increased on an average of 13 per cent with gains in every district except the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where a late-starting fruit and vegetable season brought income down 34 per cent for the year.

Manufacture of Dairy Products
Manufacturers of dairy products in Texas suffered an 11 per cent drop in production coming on top of the 27 per cent dip in November manufacture.

Production totaled some 49,857,000 pounds (milk equivalent consumed) to gain 9 per cent over December 1945.

Ice cream production, including sherbets and ices, was up 18 per cent for the year, setting an all-time record for December ice cream manufacture.

ord for December ice cream manufacture.

Creamery butter consumed 45 per cent of the milk used in dairy manufacturing plants but sustained a slump of 16 per cent from November and 10 per cent from December 1945.

American cheese represented the only single item increase with a gain of 14 per cent over November and 43 per cent over December 1945.

Cottonseed Production
December's cottonseed crushing in Texas felt a 26 per cent drop from November but remained above the total for a normal, 1935-39 prewar month. Crushings for the month reached 91,367 tons.

Cottonseed received in Texas mills dropped abruptly to total 51,052 tons for a decline of 56 per cent from November and a 19 per cent slump from December 1945. Stocks at the end of the month followed the pattern, dipped 19 per cent below stocks at the end of November and 18 per cent below December 1945.

GARDEN FOR HEALTH AND ECONOMY

Horticulturalists of the Extension Service say that a goal of 800,000 gardens has been set for Texas, and that today is the day Texas gardeners should start their preparations if they haven't already done so.

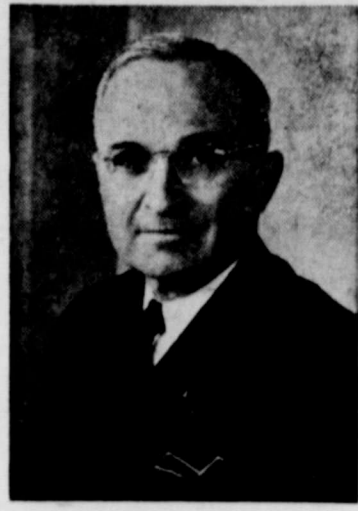

It's an old story how the Victory Garden helped supply food during the war years, the horticulturalists say, and home gardening is just as important this year, with food prices soaring, as it was then. Probably the greatest value of a garden this year will be the dollars it will take off the grocery bill. One-half acre of vegetables, cared for in the right way, can produce $100 worth of food for the family.

Over the state, county agricultural agents and home demonstration agents are joining in the drive to promote gardens this year. Gardeners can go to these county Extension agents for help on garden sites, preparation, fertilization, planting advice, adapted varieties, insect and disease control and any other gardening problems.

The Extension horticulturalists say the essentials of a good garden are these: a well-drained location, thoroughly pulverized soil, adapted vegetable varieties planted at the right time, with proper row and hill spacing.

Barney Riggs and Steve Badley were in and out around town Wednesday, having a good time chewing the fat.

The President said: "We are proud of your 4-H Clubs which are spread across our great Nation. As a character-building influence they are unsurpassed."

FLOWER PLANTING LIST

Gardeners have a wide variety of flowers to choose from that can be started now in frame gardens or hot beds.

Miss Mary Pearl Bearden, County Home Demonstration Agent, lists the following flowers that can be planted this month:

Alyssum, aretosis, babybreath, blue salva, calendula, candytuft, Chinese forget-me-not, coreopsis, cornflower, daisy, everlasting, forget-me-not, four-o'clock, gayfeather, hollyhock, larkspur, lobelia, marshmallow, mignonette, petunia, phlox, pinks, rosemallow, scabiosa, snapdragon, stock, sweetpea, sweetwilliam, and verbena.

The HDA warns gardeners that it is easy to start more flowers in the hot beds and frames than they really want. She advises careful planning to avoid an over supply.

WANTA BE KILLED?

If not, the Texas Safety Association suggests more safety on the highways and T. F. Sims, Sr., city marshal, is glad to repeat these sentiments.

In 1946, 2,000 persons were killed on Texas highways, 60,000 were injured, and the economic cost was $100,000,000.

Sims pointed out that local violations consisted of speeding and reckless driving, ignoring of street markers and traffic signs, parking in the middle of the street in spite of prohibiting signs, turning of corners on two wheels, and general disregard of traffic rules and regulations.

In voicing a plea for cooperation, Sims noted that obedience to traffic rules was only a protection for everyone, and asked for better cooperation in that light.

Mrs. Lee Parks of the Fort Chadbourne WHD Club reports that Mary Linda Lasswell was the winner of their beautiful quilt, and that the Club realized $28.30 from the sale of chances. She was quite appreciative of the support and cooperation given club members, and is thanking all of those who had a part.

HOMES FOR VETS

A drive to make sure that veterans get the first chance to rent or buy dwellings built with veteran's priorities is being launched beginning March 5, 1947, by the Office of Price Administration in San Angelo, Texas, having jurisdiction over the Veteran's Emergency Housing Program in this county, it is reported by V. H. Wright, Area Rent Director.

"This drive is part of the government's effort to help veterans who need housing to find homes," Mr. Wright said. "This initial drive is part of a continuing program to see that dwellings being built for veterans in this area have placards posted, so that veterans can readily locate available housing."

"The placards," he added, "must go up within five days after construction starts and must remain on the site during the entire period when the housing is required to be held for veterans."

Margie Allison is now working in the telephone office, having replaced Geneva Tomlinson, who is now in Austin.

Rev. C. B. Blake reported that the Baptists would have a movie, "Romance of a Century," to be shown in the tabernacle on Sunday, March 16, and that he'd give forth with more details next week. Watch for the news!

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford F. Sharp and J. I. Murtishaw had a joint wedding anniversary - birthday celebration on Thursday night with a social hour. Cake and coffee were served to the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sharp, and Helen Luckett.

CHIROPRACTORS SEEK LICENSE BILL

Austin, Texas, March 7. - Recognizing that the chiropractic profession has a legal place in Texas, the public health committees of both houses of the Texas Legislature have approved and recommended the passage of a chiropractic licensing bill.

Supported by the Texas State Chiropractors Association and the Texas Chiropractic Research Society as part of these organizations' program to give Texas complete health freedom, the identical bills, known as Senate Bill 79 and House Bill 40, will now be studied by the two legislative chambers.

Under present laws, the chiropractic practitioners have no legal status in Texas. If the licensing bill is passed by the Legislature, the public will be given the same protection in the field of chiropractic as now offered by the licensing of physicians, surgeons, osteopaths and other professions.

The measure, as passed by the two legislative committees, calls for the licensing of chiropractors (the same as for other professions), and sets up an examining board that will assure the public of competent service from a qualified chiropractor. Under the bill, the chiropractors of Texas would be prohibited from the use of drugs and surgery, limiting them to the human spine.

CAN WE IGNORE SUCH AMAZING RESULTS?

CLINIC REPORT —

ARTHRITIS: Case G.5491. Woman, age 62, came in September 1940. Her case had been diagnosed as ARTHRITIS in a local medical clinic. Her trouble had started in 1939 after she hurt her back in a fall from a step ladder.

She complained of swollen, painful joints; back ache; pain in neck; inability to get around: "I drove my car in from Eldorado when I first started down to that Clinic but now I can hardly walk. I had this Arthritis in my arms some but, now, after having the shots they gave me there 12 and one more in the hip, I am much worse. My arms are practically useless now and it has spread to my knees. I can hardly walk. First went to Dr. ——— and he X-Rayed me and said I had hurt my back. Then I went to another Doctor at the same Clinic and he X-Rayed my neck and said my back was alright, the trouble was in my neck. He gave me 10 shots in my joints, then he started giving me another course of shots today because the others had not done me any good. I have tried mineral baths. My right shoulder hurts a lot now, too." She also complained of being hard of hearing, very nervous, constipated, some kidney trouble, and being tired all the time.

In the Grupe Chiropractic Clinic, Spinal Neurocograph Analysis revealed nerve impulse interference between the brain and the body. X-Rays located the spinal subluxation causing the interference. Setment of the spinal bone back into proper position released the nerve impulse, allowing her body to eliminate accumulated wastes, and rebuild itself gradually, relieving the pain in neck and back joints, lessening the swelling in joints. The day after the nerve interference was removed she reported that she had improved a great deal and had been able to sleep that night. Five days later, she remarked again that she was a great deal better. Two days later she told how grateful she was that she was doing so much better and that it was such a relief to be able to sleep. A month later she said, "I feel fine today." A few months later she was able to drive her car to Carlsbad, New Mexico, and she reported when she came back: "I walked all through Carlsbad Cavern and enjoyed it all. I feel good. Had no trouble at all."

Results like this cannot be ignored, especially when the patient is in her sixties! If your condition has resisted your efforts to correct it, Phone 3666, San Angelo, for your appointment at the

THE STORY BACK OF UCRA

(Editor's Note—The following story was written by your editor in collaboration with Max Bentley, Manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Abilene, and editor of West Texas today, its official magazine. The story appeared in the January issue of West Texas Today, and we are reprinting it as a matter of interest to our readers.)

Last month, December 16th, the State Board of Water Engineers, at Austin announced grant of permit to the Upper Colorado River Authority for carrying out of the largest project pending in West Texas for flood control and irrigation—one that had its start 35 years ago. Armed with the State Board's Authority and with assured Federal aid, the UCRA will set to work damming the Colorado River between Robert Lee and Bronte, in Coke County, and the three miles long dam will impound nearly 700,000 acre feet of water; enough to irrigate 58,000 acres of land located in Coke, Runtels, Tom Green and Concho Counties.

The story of the great and now historic project, of the man who conceived it and some of those who have worked with him is told in the following article. — Max Bentley.

"It began 35 years ago," Bob Knierim of Bronte recalled the other day, "and now it looks like my dream of a big dam across the Colorado River near Bronte is coming true."

The 72-year-old pioneer — for he has lived at Bronte for 41 of his years — spoke the full truth when he said "my dream." For as far back as 1912 he was carrying a rod when the first survey, by a man named Simpson, was made along the river bottoms near Bronte, and Knierim started dreaming then of the some-day construction of a big dam and lake giving abundance of water to the dry acres of Coke County.

From then on, as related by Knierim, others began to share his ambition. In 1914 Charles M. Stanley, with financing of the strong Pierson English interests, undertook a three-year survey of the upper Colorado; its drainage, terrain and the possibilities of big scale irrigation. Towns along and near the river got interested. Stanley put $25,000 of Pierson money into financing these explorations. Ballinger came in with $20,000 and Miles, Bronte and Robert Lee put in $5,000 each. When it was decided that the best location for a dam would be above Robert Lee, neighboring Bronte came back with an additional $5,000.

A lot of talk but not too much action followed, for four years. C. M. Stanley dropped out of the picture when his associate, Pierson, met an untimely death while crossing the Atlantic. Then, in 1918, a meeting was held at Bronte under leadership of Bob Knierim, J. W. Evans, now head of the FSA in Texas, and his brother, Claud; J. D. Riley, banker of Bronte; Noel Penn of Ballinger, and others. Then and there was organized the Colorado Valley Irrigation Association. First officers chosen were C. S. Guin, now of Abilene, president; Knierim, vice-president; and S. Williams, secretary-treasurer.

The project moved off slowly against mounting obstacles. First there was litigation over the question of whose lands should be irrigated. This stretched out eight years, during which time Bob Knierim paid, out of his own pocket, the yearly filing fee of $300. Altogether from the beginning he has himself spent $10,000 in keeping the cause alive. While this was going on C. C. Holder, now of Christoval, surveyed the outlines of the proposed district as a representative of the U. S. Geological Survey. Next, the project received what then seemed its death blow, when the Supreme Court of Texas upheld a lower court ruling refusing to confirm and approve the plans of the organization.

The pioneer projectors however continued plugging away. Donald O'Niele, a municipal engineer, came out and made a survey at his own expense. He made formal application on his plans for a $2,000,000 deal and interested a big outside concern, the Ulen Company of New York, which agreed to finance the project. But just then the national economic picture suddenly changed. The 1929 bust came, the great depression followed, and the appeal of Bob Knierim and associates was upset once more.

But not for good. The nation weathered the depression, confidence and money returned. In 1935 came the creation of the Upper Colorado River Authority. Among its organizers, along with the group mentioned above, were H. O. Jones, of Winters; Penrose B. Metcalfe of San Angelo, then a member of the Texas Senate; Fred Roe of Robert Lee, and others. Since then the UCRA has firmly steered the project toward the fruition that, at long last, seems near.

Bringing the picture up to date, it was Saturday, December 16 — that the State Board of Water Engineers, sitting at Austin, gave to the UCRA the official permit to impound and divert the waters of the upper Colorado River in West Texas now biggest project for flood control and irrigation, wholly in line with plans submitted by the petitioning group headed by L. T. Youngblood of Bronte, president of UCRA; H. C. Wendland of San Angelo, vice-president; and C. G. Allen of Robert Lee, secretary-treasurer. Appearing with and supporting the Authority's officers were ex-Senator Penrose Metcalfe, L. W. Smith of the U. S. Reclamation Bureau and others. The permit allows two years time for beginning of construction and five years for completion. Under it, 20,000 acre feet of the lake's storage will be allocated for flood control, 60,000 feet for dead storage, 45,000 feet for fish and wildlife propagation, and the balance for irrigation.

With the permit in hand and with federal aid on a big scale deemed a certainty, what does this mean to Coke and neighboring counties? It means a dam across the upper Colorado three miles long and 138 feet high that will impound nearly 700,000 acre feet of water reaching out to irrigate 58,000 acres of moisture thirsty lands located in Coke, Runtels, Tom Green and Concho. It means the employment of several thousand men to do the job. It will make of Bronte a much bigger town and perhaps mean the booming of a new Robert Lee — for the lake when filled will almost cover the present townsite whose people will either have to move to a new location or come to some other town, such as their close neighbor Bronte. It will mean extensive improvements, urban and highway. It will bring into being a new green spot on the West Texas map: a fertile irrigated valley in which tremendous food and feed crops can be raised the year round; land upon which the farmer will treble or quadruple present profits; all in all a project bringing new life and hope to an area that has long needed something like this.

The Congress of the United States has firmly approved this upper Colorado River project and the upcoming 80th session will, it is confidently anticipated, appropriate generously to its construction. For among its sound assets is that it will be a self-liquidating enterprise, one that has its own money to offer to the job. Officials of the Reclamation Bureau are for it and so are the eminent engineers who have studied the plan. All concerned know it is an unselfish project fathomed and promoted by no special interests... only a bunch of folks who believe in the future of West Texas and are resolved to do their part in promoting it.

SPOONTS BUYS COSDEN STATION

Bon Spoonst, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Spoonst of San Angelo and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bruton of Bronte, has now moved to Bronte, where he purchased retail-wholesale gas and oil business from Bruton, and is now setting up shop for himself.

Bon will now handle Cosden products exclusively, and Cosden Company is planning to remodel and repaint the station as soon as possible.

Mrs. Spoonst is the former Miss Cloreta Bruton, and the couple were married on May 23, 1942. They have a son, Johnny Everett, 2, who recently observed his birthday anniversary.

"I'm happy to be in Bronte," Bon said yesterday, "for it's a fine town, growing and expanding, and I want to be a part of it."

Mrs. Less Mitchel and daughter, Maurine, of Salt Gap were visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Gyse of Brady, the Willis Smiths of Robert Lee, who came on Sunday.

Sometimes, it's quite a problem to vary menus for your family, isn't it? I have one favorite recipe that's inexpensive but delicious, which I rely on for different family dinners and for company, too. So many of my friends have asked for it that I thought perhaps you might like to try it, too! And incidentally, if you've wondered how to use those odd leftover slices of bread, this is a grand way. Just be sure to wrap your bread carefully in waxed paper, and it will stay fresh until you're ready to use it. Here's my recipe for:

SWEDISH MEAT BALLS WITH SPAGHETTI

4 slices enriched bread	2 teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce
1/2 cup water	2 strips bacon
1 pound ground beef	2 tablespoons enriched flour
1 egg, beaten	2 cups milk
2 tablespoons grated onion	1 teaspoon meat extract
1 teaspoon salt	1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper	3 quarts boiling water
1/4 teaspoon celery salt	6 ounces spaghetti

Toss bread and soak in water 3 minutes. Add beef, egg, onion, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, celery salt, and Worcestershire Sauce. Shape into balls, allowing 2 tablespoons for each. Brown bacon in skillet. Remove bacon and brown meat balls in bacon drippings. Remove meat balls and add flour, stirring well. Gradually add milk and meat extract, stirring constantly until thickened. Add meat balls and bacon which has been broken into bits. Cover and cook for fifteen minutes. While meat balls are cooking, cook spaghetti. Add 1 tablespoon salt to actively boiling water. Gradually add spaghetti and boil until tender (about 12 minutes unless otherwise specified on package directions.) Drain and rinse. Arrange spaghetti and meat balls on hot platter. Yield: 4 servings.

Try this recipe the next time you wonder what to serve for dinner. It's healthful and nourishing—and I'm sure your family will pronounce it delicious!

Patsy Pittman, daughter of the O. L. Pittmans, is celebrating her ninth birthday with a party at her home Saturday from 2:30 to 4:30.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wynn entertained A. E. Coalson, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, and Mrs. Bessie Leah Caudle of San Angelo for lunch last Sunday.
