No. 29

WHAT GOES ON

By Jane Nunnally

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Griffith of Atlanta, Georgia, brother of Mrs. O. H. Willoughby, were weekend guests in the Willoughby home. They have also visited in Alice, Fort Worth, and Eastland, and formerly lived in Bronte.

The C. N. Bakers of Fort Stockton were Sunday guests of the Willoughbys, and while here witnessed the ball game between Bronte and Ozona. The Billy Bakers of San Angelo were also over for the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Payne of Holtville, Calif. are Bronte visitors, where they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sims, Sr. The folks arrived Monday, and will be here for about ten days. They expect to attend the Cracker reunion at Pecan Valley this weekend, as they're cousins of Mr. Payne, and Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Sims are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sims, Jr., visited her grandmother, Mrs. D. K. Glenn of Odessa last weekend.

R. T. Caperton was painfully but not seriously burned by scalding water last Wednesday afternoon when the radiator cap on a car undergoing repair in the Caperton Motor Company blew off, drenching him with the hot liquid. R. T. happened to be going by the car when the accident occurred, and was immediately rushed to the Karen-Gay Hospital, where Dr. John R. Harris announced he had suffered first-degree burns on the right side of his body, and second-degree burns on his right shoulder and neck. R. T. was also reported to have won the honor (although an unfortunate one) of being the first lying-in patient in the new hospital, whose new opening is to be announced soon.

Baptist WMS Meeting

Mrs. J. H. McClain, state field worker of the Baptist WMSU of Texas was in Bronte last Wednesday to lead an instructional school on how to have a better WMS. The meeting was held in the Baptist Church at 3 o'clock, when the following were present: Meses. T. J. McCoughn, and George Holliday of Ballinger, Floyd Modgling, C. R. Blake, Frank Keeney, G. L. Bridges, R. E. Cumbie, Aubrey Denman, and Charles Keeney.

Evona Le Barre, recent graduate of the Jolley Beauty School of San Angelo who has just passed her state examination, is now associated with Allene Mitchell in Allene's Beauty Shop, located at the rear of the Central Drug Store. Both Allene and Evona are happy to welcome old and new friends and customers to their place of business. (See their ad elsewhere in the paper).

Marion Mitchell was returned home last Monday from a San Angelo hospital, where he had undergone an operation. He's reported doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. George of George's Ready-to-Wear in Ballinger are expected to leave Sunday for Fort Worth to attend Market Week, which lasts from July 20 through the 26th. Some 650 lines will be represented there, from which selections will be made for fall wearing apparel, and the coast and eastern markets will also be represented, so the Georges are expecting to bring home the bacon.

Juanell Blake and Doris Nell Adair are taking weekly lessons in San Angelo on how to twirl the baton. It's all for the purpose, you see, of getting in practice for the fall football season. Juanell says it's fun, and the only problem is in holding the baton and not dropping it.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hurt were his cousins and their families, who visited Texas for the first time, and enjoyed it so much they're ready to come back again. Included among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Beaty and little daughter of Muncie, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Kowen, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ferrell and little daughter of Byrdstorm, Tenn., and Mrs. J. E. Lee of Snyder, who is Mr. Hurt's sister.

Dr. John R. Harris now has his offices set up in the Karen-Gay Hospital, and maybe reached there when his services are needed. Doc reports hospital construction is going right along, but that further developments are awaiting arrival of floor materials.

Mrs. Vera Modrall is visiting Mrs. J. A. Waldrop, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Waldrop and son visited some last week with her sister in Austin.

LOG ROLLERS MEET

It was initiation time last week in Robert Lee when the Log Rollers Convention of the Woodmen of the World met Friday night.

A cold plate supper was served by the American Legion Auxiliary, and 31 out-of-town guests were registered, coming from Bronte, Tennyson, Ballinger, Veribest, San Angelo, and Abilene.

Eleven new members were initiated from Tennyson, thus beginning the organization of a lodge there, and two men from Bronte also underwent their first degree, including C. D. Luckett and J. I. Murtishaw.

Sov. George W. Hine of Abilene, state manager, was present, also C. L. Sinclair, district manager, and James H. Bond, district representative, both of the latter coming over from San Angelo.

GABE INITIATED

Ballinger's one and only Gabe Smith, famous rabbit twister and genial proprietor of the American Cafe, was one of the few that "got the works" at the Robert Lee Log Rollers convention held last Friday.

Witnesses said they really "poured it on Gabe," who came back for more. It was reported that Gabe's granddaughters, who want to marry real bona fide Coke County rabbit twisters, were not there for the occasion.

Gabe also declares that the rabbit given to him last year by Bronte High students, finally "kicked the bucket," and he's in the market for another.

Personals . . .

Moah Fowler of Blackwell suffered a heart attack last week, but Dr. John Harris reports him to be much improved at this time.

Mrs. Ira Glover and her two daughters of Abilene are now here visiting the Jess Coppedge family. They plan to be here for an extended stay.

Homalie Clark sends in a card from Corpus Christi declaring that she's having a fine time there, but that it's just a little hot right now. She has been a guest of her sister, Ida Ruth, who is employed by Western Union there.

Mrs. Elihu Caudle of San Angelo was a Bronte visitor last Saturday, along with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caudle. Joe is a Sergeant in the Air Corps, and is now stationed in San Antonio. The Caudles used to live in Bronte, and Mrs. Caudle said it was the first time in three years that she had been back to Bronte, but she did promise to come more often.

Billy Dan Labenske, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Labenske, spent the 4th of July in Manila, Philippine Islands, according to Mrs. Labenske, who was a Bronte shopper last Saturday. He is expected to land at Longbeach, California, on the 26th of this month, and should be home shortly afterwards. He has been in Australia for several weeks.

Among other chores, Doc Leonard has been helping his better half with a cranky washing machine, and reports he has it fixed where he believes it will run, at least part of the time.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

By C. R. Blake

"Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseseth." Luke, 12:15.

Jesus uses the story of the rich fool to illustrate the fact our earthly possessions are not sufficient either in this life or the life to come. The mistakes of the "barn building fool" are common today.

He had material surety without spiritual security.

He thought in terms of time and not in terms of eternity.

He won the short-distance race but lost the long-distance.

He thought happiness came from without and not from within.

His wealth was self-centered and not God-centered.

He preferred one world to two, and lost both.

Let God have His way with you!

Betty Jane Higginbotham Marries George O'Kelley Hughes, Jr.

MRS. GEORGE O. HUGHES, JR.

Miss Betty Jane Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham, became the bride of George O'Kelley Hughes, Jr., in a single ring ceremony read by Rev. B. H. Bohmfalk of the Bethel Methodist Church of San Angelo last Saturday night, July 12, at 8:00 o'clock in the home of her parents near Bronte.

The bride wore a street-length white crepe dress styled with a drape skirt and yoke of Venice point lace, white elbow-length gloves trimmed with the same lace, and a white hair braid hat with veil. She also wore a string of pearls given to her by the groom, which were a gift from his father to his mother.

She was given in marriage by her father, and carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

The altar, in front of the fireplace, was banked with ferns and baskets of white gladioli and a white candelabra with white tapers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the bride's home, where the table held a maderia tablecloth, with a centerpiece of white carnations and a candelabra with white tapers.

Mrs. Frank Sayner, the bride's sister, presided at the white open Bible cake, while another sister, Miss Gwyn Higginbotham, presided at the crystal punch bowl which was surrounded by flowers.

For traveling, Mrs. Hughes wore an aqua gabardine tailored suit with brown and white accessories. Following a week's trip to Colorado Springs the couple will be at home in Denton where Mr. Hughes is assistant city engineer.

Mrs. Hughes is a graduate of the Bronte High School and is now a senior in TSCW at Denton.

Mr. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hughes of Sanger, is a graduate of Sanger High School and A. & M. College, where he majored in electrical engineering.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hughes of Sanger, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Cox of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lawler of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fitzhugh and children of San Antonio.

Prior to the wedding date, Miss Higginbotham was honored with a gift tea on Tuesday, July 8, in the home of Mrs. A. N. Rawlings.

A color scheme of pink and white was featured in decorations of the party rooms and the lace-laid table was centered with a large crystal bowl of asters flanked by pink tapers.

Receiving guests were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham, while Mrs. George Thomas registered the guests.

Mrs. D. K. Glenn, Miss Mary Beth Cumbie and Miss Katherine Rawlings presided at the tea table during tea hours, while Mrs. C. B. Holcombe provided the music.

Co-hostesses for the afternoon included Meses. Clint Duncan, Vernon Glenn, and Misses Katherine Rawlings and Jean Duncan.

BRENNAMAN SHOW NEXT THURSDAY

The Fort Chadbourne WHD Club is sponsoring a "Breakfast in Hollywood" show next Thursday, July 24, in the Bronte High School gym at 8:00 o'clock in the evening, and everyone is invited to come.

Tickets will be 60 cents, and may be purchased from Mrs. Lee Parks, Bronte.

The sponsors promise a fine entertainment, and Tom Brenneman will send an orchid to be awarded to the person selected as the best neighbor (good, good neighbor).

Only Coke County folks are eligible for this award, and letters to the club telling who you think is a good, good neighbor should be sent to Mrs. Parks.

Winner of the best letter or best recommendations will be determined before the show, and the orchid will be given as well as other flowers to the oldest guest present.

There'll be lots of other prizes, and all women, naturally, are urged to wear their "wackiest hat," and if they have none, then build one and wear it. The most original hat, of course, wins a prize.

So remember next Thursday night when the Fort Chadbourne group will really put on a "Breakfast in Hollywood" that will make even Tom Brenneman jealous.

BROOKSHIRE BROWSINGS . . .

By Homalie Clark

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Foster left Sunday for Big Spring where they and the D. R. Gartman's will leave for Denver, Colo., and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Red Holland, Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Hedges, Willard Lee, Dean Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herring, Martha Boatright and Homalie Clark were among those present for the rodeo at Christoval the 4th.

E. O. Essary of Herman, N. M. along with Mr. and Mrs. John Shipman of Winters, came down to visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Essary last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Red Holland and your writer visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hester and Mrs. J. C. Boatright and Martha attended the funeral of a relative of theirs at Brownwood last Saturday.

Mrs. Alfred Rose injured her foot last week but her condition is greatly improved now.

We are glad to see Luther Nixon back at home after being in a Ballinger hospital.

Homer Clark was painfully injured Sunday afternoon when he was thrown from a horse. He underwent treatment at a Winters hospital for head and back injuries.

Martha Boatright has been the guest of Ida Lou Modgling at Bronte for the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Clark, Homalie and Jimaleen returned Friday after visiting a week in Corpus Christi where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lowery and Ida Ruth Clark. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Y. G. Stephenson at San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Freeman of Maverick visited awhile Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark.

T. C. Glegghorn has returned from Happy where he was helping harvest the crops. Glad you're back, T. G.!

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holden and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Essary Sunday.

The Brookshire Baptist Church is having a revival and everyone is invited to come and take part. Rev. F. Cole of Abilene is in charge of the services.

Lola Mae Holloway and Claudia Bell Perkins of San Angelo are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Essary.

Mrs. Clint Hedges is visiting her son, J. R. Hedges in Arizona.

Alfred Rose is in East Texas visiting with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Brown visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Brown at Tennyson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Clark were the guests of the Archie Parrs at Ballinger Monday.

Congratulations and best wishes to N. W. Kiker of Portales, N. M., father of Mrs. J. A. Percifull, who observes his birthday anniversary next Sunday, and to Betty Jo Glenn, now of Austin, who has hers today.

TENNYSON TOPICS . . .

By William Jessie Green

Mrs. Robert Brown and son, Russell, left Wednesday for Barnhart where she will visit her husband who is working on an oil rig.

Emma Ruth Miller spent the day with Ola Sue and Russell Brown.

Mrs. W. T. Green went to Blackwell Thursday to see Mrs. Maureen Stuart on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stewart and son, Lee Allen, all went fishing with Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Anderson of San Angelo at San Saba last Friday.

E. L. Harrell and H. L. Stewart went to Barnhart to get Avant Harrell's car, and brought it back to work on it. (They didn't have any parts left over).

Mrs. E. L. Harrell was a guest of Mrs. Bud Cummings last Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Stuckey and children, Carolyn, and 3-week-old David Eugene are going home to Jayton.

The Intermediate Class has been having a contest, with J. B. Arrott and L. E. Conger leaders of the two sides. L. E.'s side won, so the losers had to give a party, which was at J. B.'s Thursday night when they had watermelon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Green and children, Grace and the writer, and Lou Ella Stewart all went to the river. All fished but the girls. Then they went swimming and you should see the blistered backs. We caught about 20 fish, and the biggest one the writer caught weighed a pound, and I had to have someone help me get it out of the water.

Rev. Martin of the Baptist Church ate dinner with Kirk Reed and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and son, Russell, came home Sunday and ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Green and family.

Mrs. W. T. Green and the writer and Ola Sue and Russell Brown and Mrs. T. A. Brown all went to visit Mr. and Mrs. Otto Finck and children, Betty, Audie Ann, and Jerry. Otto's father was also there.

Sunday guests in the J. M. Stewart home included Mr. and Mrs. Wilkerson with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Acey Howell and Doyl, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brashers and kids, Vivian and Kenneth, Allen Connor, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carwile and daughter.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell, Grace Irene Green, Lou Ella Stewart, and the writer all went to San Angelo Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and son, Russell, went back to Barnhart.

Jewel Dean Latham and L. E. Conger are still working at San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Corley and children, Benny and Peggy Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Janca all were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marks and daughter, Billie, and her son, Mark Sayner, last Sunday.

Collins Sayner and George James, Jr., the Jim Marks, Billie and her son, and Jahn Clark were all in San Angelo this week.

Merlene Newman has been visiting with her cousin, Della Mae Gibson. She's from California and has also been visiting her kinfolks in Bronte.

Mrs. R. B. Caldwell has gotten back from visiting her children, Mr. and Mrs. Washam and children, Billy Mack and Mary Tom of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith and kids, Paul Gene and the girl, and then she went to New Mexico to visit her son.

Mrs. Mary Clark of Bronte came to visit her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark.

The Calvin Dooleys are visiting the Ben Brooks.

Lou Ella Stewart has been visiting with Grace Green while her family is on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Harrell spent Sunday with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Avant Harrell and Buryl at Barnhart.

Mrs. Davis and Ina Joe have been visiting some of their relatives at McCamey. Now they're visiting at a town near Stephenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Corley and family, Sarah Buford and Junior are now visiting there too.

The Tunny Glens were about town Saturday, enjoying the sights and doing a bit of window shopping.

THE FALL OF ROME

The pomp and power of Rome is gone,
 While other nations carry on.
 Rome was wasteful, would not save,
 To idle pleasure her time she gave.
 Though she was rich she lived too high,
 Decay set in, and she passed by.
 And so with man who lives too fast,
 He, too, will fall; he cannot last.
 THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK on the fate of Rome
 Sees a lesson we should all take home.

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG

From friends in Coleman came this letter this past week: "We gratefully acknowledge receipt of a copy of the Enterprise, fresh off the press, and have enjoyed reading it very much."

There is only one thing about it that we don't like (if a little criticism is in line) and that is the front-page publicity being given to these domestic, wife-propelled, flying saucers. First thing you know, this is going to become a fad and about 90 per cent of us husbands are going to have to leave home till it blows over. Think it over. Newspaper editors are not exempt by any means.

Best regards from all the gang and may you and the Enterprise live long and prosper. Your friends, Mayes Drug Store, C. A. Gordon.

A YEAR AGO . . .

There was a political rally in front of the Enterprise offices, where 800 folks heard their candidates cussed and discussed . . . Rev. F. L. Jones was here for the Kickapoo Baptist revival . . . The Bronte Community Service Club requested dial telephones . . . Water from the Buffalo Reservoir dam was offered to other municipalities when and if needed . . . Katherine Rawlings was awarded a trip by the Danforth Foundation and the Ralston Purina Co. of St. Louis . . . Nathan's of San Angelo announced the opening of their new store in Odessa . . . H. Lester Parker was expected in for a Church of Christ revival . . . P. B. McWhorter, youngest brother of Rev. J. D. McWhorter, had died at his home in Mississippi . . . the city declared it was going to collect delinquent taxes . . . "Conflict" and "House on 92nd Street" were showing at the theatre . . . And grocery specials ads had soup powders for 24 cents, peaches for 29 cents, ten pounds of spuds for 39 cents, baking powder for 21 cents, coffee for 35 cents, hamburger for 29 cents, sausage for 39 cents, and steak for 45 cents a pound . . . But all this was a year ago.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all of you for the kind deeds shown us during our bereavement—for the words of sympathy, for the beautiful flowers, for the food and to the Pruitt family for the song rendered.

May God bless each of you is our earnest prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Taylor and J. D.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bramlett and children,

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Kemp and family,

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Williams and family,

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bramlett and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to our dear friends and neighbors and especially Rev. Blake for the thoughtfulness and many kind deeds, as well as the beautiful floral offerings at the loss of my brother and our father. May the Lord bless each of you.

Mr. Edd Holman and family,
Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Eubanks, Jr.,
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davison,
Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Adkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Elda Smith and son, Daryl D., of Carlsbad, N. M., came last week to spend a couple of days with the Arnold Balls.

SANCO SOCIETY..

By Billie Joe Gartman

Ulmer S. Bird has been called by the government for duty at the Medical ROTC summer camp, MFSS, at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, to be chaplain of an outfit of ASTP boys who took medical training in the schools under the Army program, and are now doing their turn in the Army. He will hold services in one of the chapels and have an office in the area. Under present orders, he will return home on August 8.

Rev. William Thomas spoke at the Sanco tabernacle Sunday afternoon, and told of the conditions of Belgium during the war. He is pastor of the French Methodist Church in Antwerp, Belgium, and he and his wife are visiting with Mrs. Ulmer Bird and the L. S. Birds for a few days. He plans to go to San Antonio to visit with Ulmer this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDonald, who have been visiting the John Allens have moved to San Angelo, where he has been employed.

Last Wednesday night, H. J. and L. J. Gartman of Sanco and Silver, respectively, attended a Magnolia dealers' meeting at San Angelo. The man selling the most Magnolia products received an electric radio, and H. J. Gartman received an all-electric mixer for selling next to the most. He has sold Magnolia products for the past 25 years.

Visiting Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Fikes and baby, all of Robert Lee; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gray and baby, Mrs. Ira Yarbrough and Donald of Abilene, Mrs. Jack Lassiter, Bill Douglas and Janette of Sanco.

Sorry to report that I. A. Bird and Patricia Fowler are on the sick list. H. J. Gartman has rented out his new building at Silver to a man from Lamesa who intends to open up a cafe in the next few days.

Several gathered last week at the Tabernacle to haul sand, wire the building, and move seats and the piano. The ladies brought lunch for the workers, and the camp meeting started yesterday, and will run through the 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell carried Jack Lassiter to Mineral Wells last Friday.

Mrs. Lucille Thomason, Dwain, Pat, and Bobbie of San Angelo and Mrs. Robert Ramage and baby of Colorado City visited the T. A. Gartmans last Wednesday.

Visiting the Sam Fowlers the past few days were his mother and Gloria Ann Fowler of East Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Green Preslar of Bronte visited the H. J. Gartmans Sunday and then motored on to Silver to look over the Jameson field. While there they dropped in on the L. J. Gartmans for a chat.

Mrs. Harvey Reid and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Arbuckle.

ROBERT LEE REVELATIONS . . .

County Judge Bob Davis married his first Coke County couple last week, when R. E. Rives and Miss Corene Turner were united on July 12. R. E. is now a printer 3/c who has been stationed in Guam for some 14 months, and has just been transferred to California. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rives of Robert Lee, and Mrs. Rives is from Odessa. Mac Rippetoe was a courthouse visitor last Monday.

County Commissioners' Court met in regular session last Monday, but transacted only routine business and were through by early afternoon. There was little said about the Blackwell road question, it was reported, although the opinion was expressed that Nolan County officials had never officially mentioned the proposition, that is, to Coke Countians.

Judge Bob Davis' new son has been receiving a lot of gifts, the judge noted. His sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zoet of San Antonio spent last week in Robert Lee after returning from a 10 days' visit in Michigan with his people, then left for their home in the Alamo City.

We got messed up last week on the scholastics question, and are happy to get it down right this time: seems that in order to get state aid or qualify for it, a school needs 20 students and one teacher. If there are two teachers, 36 students are needed. If there are more than 20 students and less than 36, then the school, with one teacher, can have only six grades, and with two teachers, can have eight grades.

The hose for the new fire truck has been installed, and delivery should be made this week, it was revealed.

Bruce Clift and Fred Blake seemed to be warm enough as they ankled down the walk, looking everything but cool.

Willis Smith reported he had only a small oat crop, and predicted that rain would sure help things.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Konze of Eden have been guests of Mrs. Otto Wojtek of Robert Lee. The two ladies are sisters, and the former used to teach at Robert Lee.

Mrs. Irvin Wilson has been visiting in Bronte this week. She formerly lived in Philadelphia, and has been in the Philippines and Hawaii.

HERE'S BLACKWELL . . .

By Mrs. Charles Ragsdale
Mrs. Walter Sanders has been with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Coleman at the Shannon Hospital this week. She underwent surgery last Friday.
Mrs. B. N. Wells has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wells and new daughter in San Angelo.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDaniels and son of Chillicothe are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Van Landt.
The Roy Sandersons visited Rev. and Mrs. Bob Harris at Avoca.
Clarence Smith, a Sul Ross student, in Alpine, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Smith. John Lee and daughter of Hollingsdale, Miss., visited Mrs. W. W. Youngblood this week. He's a former depot agent in Blackwell.
Jack Youree, H-SU student in Abilene, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Youree.
Mr. and Mrs. Berry Raney have returned from a trip to Pampa. Their daughter, Helen, is working there.
The Baptist meeting is progressing nicely. Everyone is enjoying the good sermons, and a good crowd is present.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosser and children spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bryant.
Miss Martha Rynolds of Donna is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rynolds.

REV. LESTER COLLINS

MRS. KEENEY HOSTESS TO JR. WHD

Mrs. Jimmy Keeney was hostess when ten members of the Bronte Junior WHD Club met last Wednesday afternoon in the Bronte City Hall.
The program was on how to prepare frozen foods, as green beans, corn, watermelon and cantaloupes, and peaches.
Mrs. Taylor Emerson won the "lucky prize," and Mrs. George Thomas will be hostess for the next meeting on August 6.
Those present were: Mmes. George Thomas, Clifford Clark, Taylor Emerson, Jimmy Keeney, Mary Stevens, O. R. McQueen, Fay Rawlings, Alfred Taylor, Walter Whalen, and Miss Ella Clyde Black.

MAVERICK REVIVAL BEGINS

Revival services at the Maverick Baptist Church will begin tonight at 8:30, and are expected to last through July 27, according to Rev. Wilson Carville, pastor.
Rev. Lester Collins of Dallas will bring the messages, and Rev. Fred D. Blake of Robert Lee is to be the song leader.
Services will be held at the Brush Arbor, and the pastor, Rev. Carville, as well as the members, are extending everyone a cordial invitation to attend the services, at 11 o'clock each morning, and at 8:30 each evening.

Claude Ditmore has about decided to wear his shoes when he takes a bath. He was cleaning out a concrete watering trough the other day, bare-footed, only to step on a cattfish in the water, and thereby got himself finned. After recovering from that, he was getting ready to take a shower, only to step on the remains of a piece of glass, and got his foot cut again. The doc said he narrowly averted lockjaw, but is now up and about. But Claude, having had so much trouble with bare feet, is now stronger-than-ever a believer in good shoes, and doesn't intend to be caught without them.

HAYRICK WHD NEWS

By Mrs. Glenn Waldrop
The Hayrick WHD Club met on July 10 in the home of Miss Gladys Waldrop, when members answered roll call with their selected subject.
The yearbook was filled out for the rest of the year, and "family night" for next month was discussed and planned.
Each member etched a design on a glass.
Refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. W. J. Mitchell, A. R. Coalson, J. W. Labenske, B. W. Waldrop, W. G. Cresap, Marie Waldrop, and the hostess; also the following visitors: Mmes. J. A. Waldrop, Vera Modrell, Cecil Coalson, Lyndon, David Barton, and Dickie Waldrop.
On June 19th the Club met with Mrs. L. C. Robbins, during which she gave a book review on "Near By,"

by Elizabeth Yates. Refreshments were served to three members and one visitor.
The next meeting was held yesterday, with Mrs. Glenn Waldrop as hostess.
Mrs. Lucille Baldwin and grandson, Johnny, visited her brother, H. M. Stevens, over the weekend.
Among those on the sick list this week are M. A. Butner, Gilbert Fuentes, and Jimmy Mackey, and all are reported to be improving.
Charlie Keeney and Doc Leonard drive by, looking warm as baked potatoes.
