UCRA Strides Ahead

The Upper Colorado River Authority last Monday received its allocation of state-remitted taxes, amounting to $140,328.41, which was an accumulation of 1944-45 grants of Coke and Tom Green County general fund levies, thus forging another step towards the completion of the long-awaited Buffalo Reservoir dam to be located some six miles above Bronte.

Coke Countians L. T. Youngblood please attend Church. and Gerald Allen were on hand to receive the funds, and in a San Angelo meeting held Wednesday night, the UCRA directors elected Youngblood as acting general manager, named the First National Bank in Bronte and the Robert Lee State Bank itory security.

THE GOOD FELLOW

The man who spends his money quite free,

So long as it lasts, a good fellow will be;

But when he comes to the end of his row

His money is gone, he has nothing to show.

His friends no longer stay with him now;

Since his money is gone, they quit him somehow.
