FUNERAL RITES FOR MRS. R. M. CUMBIE

Funeral services for Mrs. R. M. Cumbie, 95, were held last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the Bronte Baptist Church with Rev. Fred Blake of Robert Lee, Rev. W. T. Hammer of Abilene, and Rev. J. L. Wallace of Franklin (Mrs. Cumbie's son-in-law) in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Cumbie, who had been in ill health for several weeks, passed away last Friday night, Nov. 14, around 8 o'clock at her home here in Bronte. The former Miss Mollie Jane Kellam, Mrs. Cumbie was born in Smith County on Feb. 29, 1852, and came to Bronte on June 1, 1890, thus having lived in Bronte for 57 years. The late Rev. Cumbie, her husband, was a pioneer Baptist pastor, and preceded her in death on June 1, 1936, at the age of 87.

The couple had 10 children, six of whom survived her, including W. J. Cumbie of Robert Lee, R. E. and I. M. Cumbie, and Mrs. H. R. Wilkins, all of Bronte, Mrs. J. L. Wallace of Franklin, and Mrs. Cova Collier of Abilene. She was also survived by two brothers, Rev. J. J. Kellam of Dallas and G. A. Kellam of Waco, 12 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

"Before the war, the Abilene Reporter-News used to give a banquet each year in which they offered a prize to the oldest woman present," R. E. Cumbie said yesterday, "and she won the prize twice," he noted. Despite her years, Mrs. Cumbie was quite active until just before her death, and took a real interest in events of the day.

Included in the choir's songs at the services was "The Uncloued Day," a number Mrs. Cumbie had requested several years ago to be played at her funeral, and a duet, composed of Ruthelie West Shelburne and John Petry of Hardin Simmons University in Abilene. The latter two had sung and played for her at other times when she had visited her daughter, Mrs. Cova Collier of Abilene, a matron in one of Hardin-Simmons dormitories. Their song was "Sunrise," also once requested by Mrs. Cumbie.

Flowergirls were Mrs. Cumbie's grand daughters, and her grandsons were her pallbearers, including Junior Cumbie, Edward Cumbie, Horace Scott, J. B. Mackey, Gerald Allen, and J. C. Snead.

Honorary pallbearers included: R. E. Hickman, Bob Harwell W. C. Walton, "Uncle Jim" Williams, F. L. Clark, Frank Keeney, D. M. McQueen, Robert Kuerim, S. A. Kiker, O. H. Willoughby, L. T. Youngblood, Clint Wilkins, Douglas Snead, Floyd Bridges, E. C. Rawlings, G. A. Best, "Uncle John" Butner, O. W. Chapman, and Don Allison of San Angelo.

Among out-of-town relatives here for the services were J. J. Kellam and his son, Dr. Seth Kellam of Dallas, Miss Gene Kellam of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hines of Wilcox, Arizona, and Mrs. J. A. Revelle and children of Sterling City. Rev. W. A. Knight, an old friend of 45 years ago, was also a member of the congregation.

Clift Funeral Home of Bronte was in charge of final arrangements, and burial was in the Bronte Cemetery, beside the grave of her late husband.

WHD COUNCIL MEETS

By Gladys Waldrop

Coke County's WHD Council met recently in Bronte, at which time they made plans for the Christmas party to be held next month in Robert Lee.

The group also made plans to sponsor the Stamps All-Star Quartet at Robert Lee on Tuesday, Dec. 2, and to hold a banquet for the Council members and the commissioners' court, which will be announced later.

Thirteen members, two officers, and five visitors were present for the meeting, and the next session, for the Christmas party, will be told later.

Lions Endorse Plans for Lighted Athletic Field and Hear UCRA Discussed

Members of the Bronte Lions Club, meeting in the Bronte Cafe at 12:05 each Wednesday, endorsed plans proposed by the Board of Directors to secure a lighted athletic field for Bronte, and also heard L. T. Youngblood, UCRA chairman, discuss the proposed construction of a dam on the Colorado River at their regular session last Wednesday, Nov. 19.

"Plans will be carried out in connection with a committee from the local Legion post as well as school officials," Lions president, Vernon Lammers noted, "and the idea is to get the job done."

Jeff Dean, C. E. Bruton, R. T. Caperton, and Norman Kiker were named as committee members to assist with the project, first major plan advanced by the newly-organized group of Bronte men.

Rev. Alvin R. Mauldin offered the invocation, and group singing was led by Ed Nunnally.

In speaking of the UCRA, Youngblood noted that the cost of the project, as first outlined before the war, amounted to some $11,000,000, three million of which was available, and the rest was to have been borne by those using the irrigation facilities, at a rate of $4.50 per year per acre. Users, in this instance, could use all the water they wanted.

"Since the war, however," Youngblood added, "the estimated cost now runs to $35,160,000, or 3 1/2 times as much as formerly."

The speaker noted that such cost was now way out of proportion to the benefits that would derive from the project and could not be justified.

He noted that use of the old Army site for a dam, located above Robert Lee, would save a good deal of money, but that the canals would be more expensive to construct. However, Youngblood indicated, most of the irrigation would then take place in Coke County, and not elsewhere.

"If the Colorado City group will take part of the water and use it," the speaker said, "it will help a lot in advancing this project, which is already the number one project of the Texas Bureau of Reclamation."

Youngblood expressed the conviction that some dam would be built sometime, somewhere, certainly, but that plans still had to be worked out.

"If Robert Lee were moved to the hillside," he remarked, "it would cost at least $1,000,000 to make the transfer, twice what it would have cost before."

But he also pointed out that the benefits to the county from irrigation alone would result in at least 100,000 people a year coming to the county.

Members present for the meeting were Sam Spruell, L. T. Youngblood, Vernon Lammers, H. O. Whitt, C. E. Bruton, R. W. Rees, Ed Nunnally, Otis Smith, Ed Fletcher, J. B. Mackey, Alvin Mauldin, Charlie Boecking, Jeff Dean, Emmett Caperton, Herman Rogge, Steve Badley, and W. W. Millikin.

Cecil Kemp was introduced as a new member, and C. E. Arrott was a guest.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

The Master said, "Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me." John 14:1.

Men at large believe in God, but have rejected His Son.

Men believe in God for security; that security can be doubled by believing also in Christ.

Men believe in God to satisfy their religious longings, that satisfaction can be increased by faith and belief in His Son.

Men believe in God for divine protection; this protection can be multiplied by belief in His Son.

God is the author and giver of Life, but through Jesus, His Son, eternal life is secured.

THANKSGIVING

By Mrs. J. W. Tammem

Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends, John 15:13. He being dead yet speaketh, Heb. 11:4.

WE ARE PROUD TO BE AMERICANS

I wonder too if we might join
In this Thanksgiving day,
Who fought and died on foreign fields,
So many miles away.
And offer thanks in realms above
To those who carried on,
That fought and won the victory,
When we had passed and gone.

What's that you say, the price too great,
This price of Victory?
Tho we have died now others live
In Peace and Liberty.

I wonder too if when Christ hung
On Calvary's rugged tree,
He thought redemption's price too great,
He paid for you and me?

Ah! no my friend he freely gave
His life in death for thee,
Till from a world of sin and woe,
You are at last set free.

And so we gladly gave our lives
In humble sacrifice
That others too might know the way,
The American way of life.

Throughout this mighty land today
Loved ones' heads are bowed,
Tho now a tear bedims the eye;
Within their hearts are proud.

So as they offer thanks to Him,
Who rules and reigns on high,
We too will join in Thanks above,
In mansions in the sky.

In dedication to those whose loved ones fell in battle.

Mrs. J. W. Brantley recently entertained a number of relatives in her home.

THINK FOR YOURSELF

By J. B. Sumerall

Not many of us want someone else telling us what to do, still, we have to think for ourselves. We just let the other person do the thinking for us rather than trust our own judgment.

A problem or lesson is not always the obstacle it seems if a little initiative and effort is put forth to accomplish it. Many times in a class meeting you've wanted to vote for a person or resolution, but you decided to wait and go along with the majority or certain friends. This is to avoid looking silly should you vote alone.

While the majority rules, it is not always right, and your judgment is as good as another person's.

Careless and monotonous conformity does not develop your initiative or originality. By doing your own thinking you learn more of your possibilities and talents. You will be ready to accept at least one of the many opportunities offered you when you've finished school. And by thinking for yourself you are less likely to become susceptible to wrong ways of thought.

So take every advantage to think for yourself so you'll be prepared for whatever eventualities will come.

SOPH PARTY

Home room mothers entertained the Sophs with a skating party Wednesday night, and present were: Dorothy Walton, Roma Richards, Jack Vaughn, Bob Herron, Bedie Franklin, Dave Gassiot, Ben Snead, Peggy Ann Culp, Marlene Arrott, Gob Franklin, Le Drew Arrott, Bobbie Tomlinson, Bobby Vaughn, Pauline Box, Bobby Clark, Kenneth Hester, Billy Luckett, Howard Smith, Bobby Edmiaston, Billy Jack Kirchman, Charles Timmons, Randall McCutchen, Ben Bell, Billie Jean Millikin, Ted Simpson, D. L. Terry, Jo Dell Walton, La Verne Badley, Edna Box, R. J. Millikin, Jerry Gassiot, Joe Blake Whalen, Glenn Blake, and Dolan Mackey.

INSTALLATION AND INITIATION

Red candles and white chrysanthemums decorated the Homemaking Dept. on Wednesday, when new officers and members were recognized. Badges of authority were given by the old officers to the new, who are:

Loretha Wrinkle, president; Pauline Beaver, vice-president; Nola Lowrance, secretary; Dorothy Walton, treasurer; Jean Smith, reporter; Doris Adair, historian; who replaced, respectively, Bobbie Tomlinson, Jean Smith, Norma Gentry, Patsy Luckett, Della Gibson, and Martha Boatright. Punch and cookies were served to the girls and their mothers.

DID YOU KNOW?

... that Della Gibson uses tack, Dot Stevenson is agile, Prestine Davis has poise, Mr. Dean isn't austere, Ida-Lou is seldom or never cynical, Jean Smith is an extrovert, Billy Luckett is complaisant, Homalie is versatile, Bette Sue has initiative, Joe Blake is of a gregarious nature, J. B. Sumerall is creative, Howard Smith and Bobby Edmiaston are bean brummels? Did you? Now please don't accuse us of being Mrs. Malaprops who had the audacity to advantageously ridicule "yon scholars!"

GRADE SCHOOL

Seventh graders are getting the props under them for that super history test coming up.

Camille Martin was absent from school Thursday.

Although Annie Ruth Lee came to school Monday, she had to leave due to illness.

Seventh graders had a siege of reports on men and places, so several even got ambitious and wrote plays.

Hold your hats! That old squeeze is on again to make the 70 deadline on grades. They're gonna have to be stretched two ways.

Doyle brought Mrs. Holcombe a nice big pear Tuesday, since it's getting close to exam time.

With the new shipment of bubble gum, 7th graders could hardly wait to get to study hall to try it out. It's "atomic" says Billy Paul.

Carl Terry had a birthday party, with 10 there to help celebrate.

Harold Joe Denton has come back to school to stay, we hope.

Orbie Lee Phillips has been absent two days.

Peggy Ann always has plenty of gum in study hall.

Teachers say the 6th graders are doing real nice work.

Jerry Gassiot had some hard luck, sticking a thorn in his knee.

Ellen Sherrod was tardy for the first time Tuesday.

Willard Smith has been absent due to illness.

Bub Gentry reports a lost tooth, with request for finder to return same.

Jimmy Coppedge attended Carl Terry's birthday party Monday.

SWISH

Ben Snead has been talking to Lou Ella and Doris a lot in 6th period study hall.

Betty Sue and Billy Gene are still around together, including the show Monday night.

Cupid is still doing his work with Rusty and Bobbie.

The postoffice is still the meeting place every morning for our love birds, Marie and Brady, and Roscoe and Vera.

Home Eco. 3, girls are making house plans — better watch out boys, they are expensive.

Dot Walton is lonesome since Fritch has gone "dear" hunting.

Wanda and Doug are enjoying school since they got to be together.

Norman and Jean were at the Ram game trying to keep warm, and Judge was also there, while Glenn, Jack Neal, and Peggy were in Ballinger, Friday night.

Rusty, Bobbie, Bobby Vaughn, and Molly went to see Harley Sadler's show.

Billie Jean and Dolan aren't together so much.

What did Suzy and Shirley do in Angelo Saturday night.

LAUGHS

Laugh and others laugh with you, laugh and you laugh alone. The first at a joke of teacher's, the last at a joke of your own.

Billy Bob says we should buy a bottle of big ink for bookkeeping class.

Said Ida Lou to Dot — Join me in a cup of tea! Answered Dorothy Ruth — Do you think we'll fit?

Judge and Gerald were going down a steep hill in a car at 75, when Judge said he didn't think the car had any brakes. Gerald said it was all right, however, for there was a stop sign at the foot of the hill.

J. O. spent the night with Billy and said he passed a sleepless night. Seems that Billy slept with his feet out from under the cover, but said he wasn't gonna put those cold things in bed with him.

It seems as though the preacher had finished a sermon about liquor, and declared that "all liquor should be poured in the river." When asking for a song selection later, Bill Brown blurted out number 36, "Shall We Gather at the River?"

Said Le Drew to Charles, "Who was the lady I saw you with last night?" and Charlie said, "that wasn't a lady, that was my girl friend."

NEWS

We've had a lot of fun playing volley ball on these rainy days.

What's this we hear? Are the Seniors against formal parties?

Two new eighth graders entering school this week were Edward Rogers who wants to come out for football next year, and Robbie Pittman of Sweetwater, whose chief hobby is collecting movie star pictures.

P-TA meeting was postponed this week due to the rain. Members of the Rhythm Band will perform at the next meeting, and each faculty member will give her grade goals for the year.

FISH PET PEEVES

Wanda Brown—most everything gets on my nerves.

Time Proctor—her little sister, Shirley McDonald—nights at home alone.

Royce Lee Latham—being quite in Mrs. Coleman's study hall.

Bobby Clark—not being able to chew gum in Mr. Flores' class

Doyle Adair—nothing bothers him, Hazel James—Wanda Brown's "popping off."

Joe Blake Whalen—not enough holidays.

Donald King—Joe Blake Whalen, Gerald Sandusky—Donald King's stilliness

Don Daniel—Royce Lee Latham's and Bobby Joe Clark's noisy neighborliness.

Dean Beaver—hard assignments in junior business.

BRONTE WINS OVER CHRISTOVAL 20 - 6

In a clean and hard-fought game last Friday afternoon, the Bronte Longhorns beat the Christoval Cougars by a count of 20 - 6.

Bronte scored soon after the opening kick-off, then Christoval came back to make it 7 - 6.

There was no further scoring till the last quarter, when the Longhorns pushed over two more counters.

Rusty Arrott dashed 55 yards for one touchdown that was called back due to an offside penalty, and play was largely in midfield except for the scoring thrusts.

An extremely high, chilling wind rendered both passing games of little use, and made punting distances amount to but short gains.

Next Thursday, of course, is the big day when Robert Lee comes over for the conference game. Earlier in the season Bronte defeated the Steers, and are hoping to repeat the performance.

JIMMY FORMAN NOW 4

Mrs. Robert Forman entertained last week with a birthday party for her son, Jimmy, who is now all of four years of age.

Assisting Mrs. Forman with the children, who enjoyed an afternoon of games and fun, were Mmes. Marlin Mackey, Mack Powell, and C. E. Bruton.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the honoree, and to Eddie Glenn, Johnnie Spoons, Belva and Nona Gayle Rippetoe, Patsy Ellen and Bobby Brock, Jansen Pairish, Eloise and Roy Max Hester, Kay Powell, Jimmy Edd Mackey, and Elaine Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Goren of San Angelo are proud parents of a new son, Gerald Marks Goren, born Nov. 14 and weighing six pounds and 12 ounces. The Gorens have a daughter, Janet, who is 2, and he and Manny Goldberg are the owners of San Angelo's Gem Jewelers.

FACTS ABOUT ALCOHOL

Ethyl alcohol is a depressant, an-aesthetic drug. It is not a stimulant. It does not lift, accelerate, or increase the force or efficiency of any human performance. It does not stimulate the circulation of the blood or improve respiration. It slows down reflexes; impairs nerve functions; and produces sleep, stupor, coma, or death in proportion to the amount imbibed.

Because more blood flows to the brain than any other organ, alcohol in the bloodstream does particular harm to the brain and spinal cord. Depressing the higher cerebral centers, it releases the lower mental processes. Therefore, its first effect is to cloud the judgment and dull the finer feelings, taking the brakes off restraint, loosening the tongue, and giving free rein to animal passions.

Alcohol slows reaction time. Alcohol in small amounts delays these reactions from 5% to 10%. This fact is particularly important in the operation of machines such as the auto.

Even in small amounts this drug causes inferiority of performance. Tests have been applied to various skills, memorization, association of ideas, distinction between choices; and in every case alcohol in the body lessened the efficiency of the user with respect to these skills and aptitudes.

Alcoholic drinks possess practically no proteins and vitamins and therefore cannot be regarded as food. It can produce energy, but only a physically wasteful form of energy.

Alcohol is a contributing cause of many illnesses. It increases surgical risks. It lowers resistance to infection. It causes complications following injuries. It is responsible for a considerable rise in the death rate. —Methodist Adult Student.

we're planting a rich crop for you

Our crop is telephone service. It's a big and important crop for every modern farmer. Through our rural expansion program, we're planting this crop far and wide—installing new telephones, adding more lines. When our planting is finished, we know that every farmer will reap a harvest of greater usefulness from his telephone.
