Youth Rodeo Scheduled Tonight At 8 P.M.; Entry Deadline at Noon

A parade, which has been planned as the opening event for the Youth Rodeo here Friday night, will begin downtown in Bronte at 7 o'clock. The Grand Entry will start at 8 p. m. and all the youngsters from this section of the country are invited to participate in the events of the rodeo. It will be held at the Bronte ball field. J. T. Henry and C. E. Arrott said that today, Friday, noon will be the deadline for entries so anyone interested in entering the events should contact one of them by 12 o'clock.

Included in the events for the rodeo will be a jack-pot roping, the only event which will be open for professionals. The entrance fee for this will be $5.00 and 50 per cent of the money will go to the first place winner, 30 per cent to the second place winner, and 20 per cent for third.

Among the events for the non-professionals will be calf roping and a mail hack race for boys and a goat milking contest which calls for a team of a boy and girl. In this contest, the girls have to milk the goats. In the hack race contest, the rider leaves the goal post, picks up a package at the first post, resaddles at the second post, drops the package at the third post and returns to the goal. A clover leaf race will be featured for the girls and plans have been made for a clover leaf race between girls' teams from Bronte and Robert Lee.

Prizes will be given in trophies and merchandise and Bronte merchants may donate prizes if they wish to do so.

Admission for the event will be 25 cents for school children and 75 cents for adults. All children under 10 will be admitted free of charge. Proceeds will go to pay off the indebtedness of the Bronte Athletic field.

Members of the rodeo committee are urging participation in the events by the youngsters of the area and are urging everyone to be present.

Tickets are on sale at the Bronte Cafe and White Auto Store, or the admission price may be paid at the gate of the grounds.

Board Okeys Oak Creek Project for Sweetwater

The City of Sweetwater was granted a permit Wednesday by the State Board of Water Engineers to build a dam on Oak Creek, northeast of Bronte. The permit was granted amid much protest from ranchers of the area, who say that the dam will take away their supply of stock water. They say that they will appeal the case as far as the Supreme Court if necessary, in order to get the decision of the board reversed.

Sweetwater has been working on the project for many months, as they need additional water to care for an expansion program planned by the Gulf Refining Co. there. It is expected that this lake will provide them with an additional six million gallons per day.

Bronte and Robert Lee are both interested in the project, because Sweetwater has agreed to sell water to the Coke County towns when the dam is completed and the lake is formed. The Upper Colorado River Authority has pledged to help Bronte and Robert Lee secure an adequate supply, and in the case of Bronte this likely means assistance in the construction of a pipeline from the lake site to the city limits. Robert Lee officials have not completely decided whether to run a pipeline to their city or to develop closer water resources.

The Oak Creek project is to be an enormous one, costing more than $2,500,000 and impounding around 30,000 acre feet of water.

C. H. Wylie, manager of the Odom Ranch, was one of the main opponents to the project. He said that water wells drilled away from the creek's edge have been insufficient in many dry years, and that the underflow water of the creek has been the only water available for stock.

Sweetwater plans to sign a contract with the Gulf Refining Co. within ten days to furnish the mwmth three million gallons of water daily. No word was available as to when construction is expected to begin.

In addition to the ranchers who attended the hearing, UCRA Chairman L. T. Youngblood of Bronte and Secretary G. C. Allen of Robert Lee were there.

Bronte Ties For League Leadership

By Bobby Franklin

The Bronte Longhorns finished their regular Concho Basin league season by trouncing their good neighbors, Robert Lee, 13 to 4. The game tied them with Miles for first place in the league. Bronte, Miles, Robert Lee and Veribest, the top four, begin a Shaughnessy playoff for the league championship next week.

In beating Robert Lee, Bon Spoons hurled eleven-hit ball to win his 6th victory of the year as to 1 defeat. R. W. Bowman was the big show in the infield. He uncorked two unassisted double plays. Bill Bob Herron made a spectacular grab of Ike Lowenstein's long drive to left-center in the fourth inning.

Offensively R. W. Bowman led the way with a home run, a double and a single; Jack Corley, a double and a single and Bon Spoons, Bill Herron and Merle Proctor each cracked out 2 singles. Delbert Coalson mangled one of Clarence Tinklers underhand deliveries that was by far the longest hit ball of the afternoon, an easy homerun, but it hit a car in deep center, and was ruled a two-base hit. Bronte got 14 hits in all off the efforts of Clarence Tinkler and 5 errors by his teammates.

ONE NEW POLIO CASE REPORTED THIS WEEK

Only one new case of polio was reported in the Bronte vicinity the past week. The 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lum Lasswell of Fort Chadbourne is in a San Angelo hospital with the disease.

A report Wednesday morning said that her case is light. Bronte has two patients in the Warm Springs Foundation Hospital at Gonzales. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirchner and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Box. They are both recovering satisfactorily, according to latest information.

Medical authorities say that the polio season is not yet over, and they warn all persons to take every precaution possible to prevent its spread.

"ONE GOT AWAY" WITH REEL AND ALL

The "one that got away" from some local fishermen on a recent fishing trip must have been a "big one" for he took rod, reel and all down the river with him.

C. E. Bruton and G. W. Crume spent three days last week on the Llano River below London fishing. They reported that they had a nice time but that Crume got such a big one on the line that he pulled the rod and reel both into the river and they never did find it.

THE COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

This year we have Toxaphene insecticide that is recommended for control of flea hoppers, army worms, boll weevils, boll worms, cotton aphids and the green stink bug. This insecticide may be dusted or sprayed. If the farmer wishes to dust we recommend a toxaphene and dusting sulphur mixture. It can be bought already mixed in correct proportions, about 10 pounds per acre will do the job. For spraying outfits farmers may use a solution of toxaphene mixed in water, the amount of water depending on the spray outfit. Anyway, about 1 1/2 pounds toxaphene per acre is recommended.

See your County Agent for further information on cotton insect control.

Farmers who wish to get fish this fall must get their names in to the County Agent's office by August 1 in order to get delivery this fall. August 1 is the deadline.

Hospital Bond Issue Carries by 324 Vote Majority in Saturday Election

The Coke County hospital bond election carried Saturday by a majority of 324 votes. Total votes cast amounted to 1,132, with 728 for the issue and 404 against it.

The election was held to determine whether or not $75,000 worth of bonds will be issued to build a county hospital at Robert Lee.

Plans had been made to issue time warrants to finance the venture when a petition was presented calling for the election Saturday. An election held last year carried favorably for the issuance of the time warrants in the amount of $50,000.

The proposed hospital will cost the county $60,000 to build and an addi-

THE GOOD FELLOW

The man who spends his money quite free,
As long as it lasts, a good fellow will be;
But when he comes to the end of his row
His money is gone, he has nothing to show.
His friends no longer stay with him now,
Since his money is gone, they quit him somehow.
So the sensible thing is never to play
The good-fellow game; it does not pay.

Texas Capitol Was In Louisiana for Over Half Century

You have probably heard about various Texas brags, but this is about a Louisiana brag, and it's more or less at the expense of Texans.

Dr. J. D. Leonard of Bronte brought a clipping from a Louisiana newspaper by The Enterprise office the other day which contained a story which was very interesting. We pass it on to you.

Los Adais was the seat for fifty years of the Spanish administration of the "Province of Texas" and the Louisiana town's claim to this will challenge many Texans' contention that San Antonio was the first and only Spanish capital.

The site of the first Texas capitol, in the pine hills of West Central Louisiana, was abandoned in 1773. Its memory is preserved today by four mesquite trees along side the Robeline-Natchitoches highway, known by the Spaniards as El Camino Real (route traveled by them to reach Mexico City).

Among the historical documents which point to the truth of the claim is a map with the original Spanish location, a copy of which hangs in the Robeline high school. In the lower left hand corner of the map is the legend of the map reading: "Plan of the Garrison of Our Lady of the Post of Los Adais, capital of the Province of Texas, situated on 32 degrees and 15 minutes north latitude and on 28 degrees and 32 of longitude with respect to the meridian of Tenerife." (not Greenwich)

Plans are being made by a Louisiana historical society to restore the buildings as they were during the Spanish reign of more than 50 years.

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
A measure designed to go a long way toward meeting the need for more adequate rural telephone service passed the House last week.

The bill authorizes the Rural Electrification Administration to make loans for the expansion and improvement of rural telephone service under the same terms and conditions which REA has employed for many years in making loans for rural electrification. It is not a bill for government ownership or operation of telephone facilities. On the contrary, it provides that funds shall be made available on identical terms to private corporations, public agencies, and cooperatives, gives persons now operating telephone facilities a clear preference over all other types of applicants, and preserves to the utmost the authority of State regulatory bodies over rates, service, and service areas.

The committee hearings disclosed that only 42 per cent of American farms now have telephones. In Texas the percentage is only 17.6, as of 1945, according to the U. S. Census of Agriculture.

Under this proposal, sponsored by Rep. Bob Poage of Waco, the money for loans would be handled exactly as REA loans are now made. The money is borrowed by the government at a low rate of interest and then loaned to the rural telephone applicants. The program will, therefore, not cost the taxpayers anything, and will be administered by the present REA set-up.

Among recent callers at our office have been Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cantrell, of Eden, Capt. and Mrs. J. M.

NEWS FROM THE COKE COUNTY SCS

Wheat following sweetclover doubled the production of wheat following wheat, is the statement made by W. C. Shamblin, secretary of the Board of Supervisors, who farms and ranches four miles southwest of Blackwell. I plowed all of my land the same and seeded the wheat at the same time, and doubled my production in 1947, as where the land had been seeded to wheat for several years, Shamblin went on. I am convinced that sweet clover will add organic matter and build up the soil fertility of our land. I can seed half of my cropland to sweet clover and one half to wheat and will harvest as much wheat as I have been producing, Shamblin said.

The Board of Supervisors met last Tuesday, July 12 and approved applications for thirty land owners in a group north of Bronte and around Fort Chadbourne. The land owners requested assistance in the development of their plans and then applying the plans on the ground.

C. N. Webb, Vice Chairman of the Board of Supervisors is plowing his oat land with a chisel sweep type sub-surface tiller to open up the soil and still leave the oat straw on the surface of the soil to increase water intake during rainfall, control soil temperature, and reduce the rate of evaporation. The straw will also add organic matter to the soil.

The week of July 24 through 30th, 1949 has been proclaimed as National Safety Week by the President of the United States. The Board of Supervisors of the Coke County Soil Conservation District urge that all farm people check their houses and equipment to correct any hazard that might cause an accident. Farm accidents cost farm people more than $36,000,000 in 1948 for medical and hospital care alone, R. B. Allen, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors points out.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Haymes of Ralls visited last week in the home of Mrs. Haymes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham.

Mrs. Harold Good of Ashland, Kansas has been in Bronte visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kiker, and other relatives. She left for home last Saturday.

SOURCES MUST BE ELIMINATED BEFORE SPRAYS EFFECTIVE

During the last several summers, considerable enthusiasm was shown by various local organizations such as Chambers of Commerce, many civic organizations, and others in the arranging of a fly eradication program. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that for taking interest in this work, the responsible parties are to be commended.

However, without year-round community sanitation the ultimate result, which is so important, has not always been too successful; in some areas this has given rise to rumors that flies are DDT resistant.

The Texas State Department of Health heartily endorses a fly spraying program, provided it includes a general clean-up program carried out during the entire year," Dr. Cox said. "For example, why spray a garbage heap that not only invites but actually breeds flies when it should have been removed. Why spray the city dump when it really should be covered. I fear the unplanned spraying program is similar to the application of perfume or toilet water to overcome B. O. or the application of powder to cover dirt."

In a well-planned fly control program, Dr. Cox declared, all places where flies gather, such as dumps, rubbish piles, garbage piles, decaying vegetation should be cleaned up by hauling away and burying. Proper garbage and rubbish containers with fly-tight covers should be demanded from all. All buildings should be screened. Then, secure a sprayer outfit, preferably with one or more hoses each manned by a skilled operator to spray the areas where flies and other insects will light. It does little good to spray the center of the street, the ball diamond, or the sidewalks. Spray the surfaces where insects light or breed.

A residual spray remains active until the DDT washes off or is covered with grease, dirt or soot. This usually last four to six weeks. After that, a second spray is recommended provided the item of clean-up is still being carried out.
