Mothers March Set for Wednesday, Jan. 31

Plans are being formulated for the "Mothers March," in connection with the March of Dimes drive, to be next Wednesday night, January 31, from 7 until 8 p.m. The march will be conducted by the Diversity Club with Mrs. D. K. Glenn in charge.

In the final night of the polo drive, each family in town who can contribute anything to the annual March of Dimes, is to turn on a light outside their home during that hour. Mrs. Charlie Boecking, drive chairman, said that two workers will work on each street in town and that everybody will be called upon during the hour. For those who do not have porch lights, Mrs. Boecking said a flashlight turned on at the front door or a white handkerchief tied to the screen (where it can be seen from the street) will do just as well.

Theme for the Wednesday night drive is "Turn on Your Porchlight-Fight Polio Tonight."

Friday and Saturday Coffee Days

Also in connection with the Dimes Drive, the four cafes in Bronte will turn their coffee sales proceeds into the fund. Coffee will be 10 cents a cup or whatever the buyer wishes to give, Friday and Saturday. The cafes taking part are the Bronte Cafe, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nardell, Jones Cafe, operated by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jones, City Cafe, operated by Mrs. Mayne Littlefield, and the Cactus Cafe, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nutter.

Miniature iron lungs and pin-on banks have been placed in the business houses in town and citizens are urged to put their extra change into the containers. A canvas is being made of the business houses down town this week also.

A total of $196.20 had been deposited to the 1951 fund campaign Wednesday, according to Vetal Flores, treasurer. A special offering at the Methodist Church netted $8.37.

Webb to Attend SCS Convention In Oklahoma City

More than 2,000 farmers and teachers will converge on Oklahoma City Feb. 20 for a three-day conference devoted to the one interest common to all of them—conservation of the nation's soil and water resources.

The occasion is the annual convention of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, expected to attract the elected leaders of soil conservation districts in all parts of the nation and from its territories.

Oklahoma City's central location, increasing interest in soil conservation, and the key spot occupied by agriculture in the nation's defense picture are factors which make Waters S. Davis, Jr., association president, confident that attendance at this year's meeting will top 1949's Atlanta convention figure of 1,500 by at least 500 persons.

Davis, South Texas cattle rancher, and other association officers have arranged a varied and comprehensive program which includes speeches by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan on the convention's opening day, and Dr. H. H. Bennett, chief of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, on Feb. 22.

The program also includes meetings devoted to regional soil and water problems, panel discussions led by nationally recognized conservationists, presentation of achievement awards, election of new officers and directors, and a full round of entertainment for delegates and their wives.

Slated at a time when the American citizen is openly concerned about the prospect of world conflict and what it could mean, the convention promises to be a brass tacks, "do-something" affair.

The work of soil conservation districts in developing a more dependable wartime agriculture, the speeding up of the job of protecting and improving the nation's productive land, and water conservation and river basin development—these are among the problems to be discussed by the convention delegates.

Commented President Davis, "I am counting on every delegate to roll up his sleeves and help us plan working policies. With the present international situation, these policies will help gain recognition of soil conservation districts and their program as one of the most important elements of our long range national planning."

Visitors interested in agricultural flood control may see an outstanding example of this work on the Washita River watershed in Oklahoma. Many thousands of acres of Washita River bottomland that were unprofitable are now turning in a profit as the result of the protection they are getting. And in the other aspects of soil and water conservation, Oklahoma offers the visitors a splendid chance to see the effectiveness of many other coordinated practices, which keep soil in place and provide for continuing soil improvement.

Soil conservation district leaders in Kentucky and North Dakota already have announced that their states will be represented by chartered bus delegations. And, Nebraska, which topped other delegations at last year's meeting, is expected to bid again for the honor.

As the reservations continue to flow in, Oklahoma City hotel and tourist court operators are taking another count of guest facilities and wondering just how large the February invasion will actually be.

The local leaders of the nation's program to use soil and water scientifically will have headquarters at the Skirvin Hotel and hold convention sessions at the Municipal auditorium. C. N. Webb, chairman of the Coke County Soil Conservation District, the school drive brought in $109.75; special collections at the Texas Theater totaled $55.41 and individual donations had totaled $22.67 at that time.

School Winners

In the Bronte schools, the first, seventh and ninth grades were winners in the contests to bring in the most contributions. Pictures of the winning classes will be made and it is planned to publish them in next week's paper.

Coke counties contributed about $2200 to the March of Dimes last year. Half of this money remains with the county chapter to be spent on care of polo cases. The other half goes to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for research work and to care for chapters who do not have sufficient funds to care for polo patients. In the case of Coke the county has exhausted its own funds for the past two years and have had to call on the National Foundation for a great deal more money than was turned in.

Local leaders of the drive believe that no citizen here can afford not to give to a cause which has meant so much to the community. The campaign will continue through the rest of the month and will be climaxed Wednesday night with the Mothers March. Every individual is urged to give generously and to have some part in the raising of this fund.

Baptist Revival Starts Sunday

A revival meeting will begin Sunday, January 28, at the Bronte Baptist church, according to Rev. V. D. Price, pastor. Rev. Taylor Henley, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church in San Angelo, will do the preaching. Services will continue through the following Sunday, February 4.

John Max Cox, music director for the Immanuel Baptist church, will direct the song services during the revival. Services will be held each morning at 10 a.m. and each evening at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Price extended a cordial welcome to all to attend all services.

Lions Hear UCRA Head Tell About Water Situation

Eleven members of the Bronte Lions Club heard L. T. Youngblood, chairman of the Upper Colorado River Authority, tell of the organization's determination to help Bronte get a plentiful water supply when they met at noon Wednesday.

Youngblood said that the cost of pipe has made the project's cost increase sharply above the figure originally planned, but that engineers are going ahead with plans to build a pipeline from the Oak Creek reservoir site to the city limits of Bronte.

Present for the Wednesday meeting were Youngblood, I. F. Wynn, Norman B. Kiker, H. A. Springer, Ben Oglesby, J. B. Mackey, Bruce Clift, Edward Cimbrie, Vernon Price, H. L. Manley, and R. T. Caperton.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cromer on the birth of a 7 pound and 2 ounce son, born January 15 in a San Angelo hospital. Mrs. Cromer is the former Billye Marks. She previously lived at Tennyson and attended Bronte high school. Mr. and Mrs. Cromer now live on Rt. 1, Lubbock.

Charles Edward and Dan Blue visited last weekend in Rankin.

plans to attend the convention in Oklahoma City on Feb. 20. "I believe this will be one of my greatest opportunities to obtain some information that will benefit me in doing my job as chairman of the board of supervisors. The convention program promises to give the members of the boards of supervisors much information that we can use in rendering better assistance to land owners in the future than we have in the past through the district movement," Webb said.

ONLY 500 PAY POLL TAXES

Only 500 poll taxes had been paid in the county through Wednesday, according to Paul Good, county sheriff and tax-assessor-collector. Wednesday, January 31, is the deadline for payment of poll taxes and Good urged citizens to get their poll taxes paid within the next few days. 1500 poll taxes were paid last year, Good said.

Good also reminded tax payers that penalties will be added to other taxes not paid before January 31. All county taxes must be paid before that time or penalties will be assessed.

January 31 also marks the deadline for the payment of school taxes and city taxes without the payment of a penalty.

Humble was completing No. 1 D. K. Glenn this week and from all prospects will make a good well of it. Reports were that it had flowed by heads and swabbing. A core from 4,344 to 4,364 yielded 1 1/2 feet of porous lime with good show of oil, eight feet of tight lime with slight oil show, and eight feet of porous oil saturated lime.

No. 1 Glenn is 4,490 feet from the northeast and 1,290 feet from the northwest lines of N. Eastland survey 330. It extends the south part of the Bronte Field a half-mile east.

WHD Council Has Meeting

The WHD council met in the county agent's office last Saturday, January 13, with seven clubs and the Jr. and Sr. 4-H sponsors represented. The council voted to have each club make a contribution to the March of Dimes. They also voted to have a concession stand at the Coke county fat stock show in February.

The council decided to publish the birthday calendar for 1952 instead of 1951, and to have a bake sale in the near future.

Elsewhere in the Bronte Field Hickok & Reynolds No. 1 R. E. Hickman was drilling at 3,825 feet.

Humble No. 3-C J. L. Brunson was drilling Thursday at noon at 3,490 feet.

The rig which drilled the No. 1 Glenn was being moved Thursday for another location in the field.

Fire Destroys 200 Acres Range In Box Pasture

A Grass fire, probably started on the highway, burned for several hours last Friday on the Earl Box pasture northwest of town. Before the fire was brought under control, some 200 acres of rangeland and about 400 yards of fence and wire were destroyed.

The fire was first noticed about 11 a.m. Members of the Bronte Volunteer Fire Department and other men of the community helped fight the blaze. Box was in San Angelo at the time the fire was discovered.

It is believed that the fire started from a match or cigarette thrown out by some careless motorist along the highway.

(An Editorial)

When the first large polio epidemic in the United States occurred in 1913, armed guards barricaded state lines. They were visible evidence of widespread fear, born of equally widespread ignorance of what to do when this disease strikes.

People still fear polio today. But the disease no longer is a great medical mystery. During the last 13 years the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, armed with a dollar and dime mandate from the people, has amassed an avalanche of knowledge, forecasting control of polio in the not too distant future.

Until the means of preventing this disease is found, however, the nation still must care for polio patients. This is done with the help of the National Foundation's 2800 local chapters that provide financial assistance to patients whose families cannot afford to pay full costs of care. The nation must continue to press its extensive research program in leading laboratories and universities where March of Dimes funds are supporting the search for a preventive, cure and better treatment for polio.

Today, through the efforts of the National Foundation, our community is aware of recommended precautions for the polio season. Through the Coke County Chapter, precautions based on scientific findings have been made known to the entire community. Medical and hospital facilities are available to meet any emergency which occurs here.

In addition, our local chapter of the National Foundation knows that in an emergency it has the backing of the national organization and its nation-wide resources.

Whether or not polio strikes with epidemic force this summer, it is comforting to realize that our dimes and dollars have created a bulwark of strength against this crippling disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nutter, Bob Franklin and Billie Jean Milliken were in San Antonio Sunday where they visited Bobby Franklin. Bobby was temporarily stationed at Lackland Air Force base there but was to leave Thursday for Scott Field, Illinois for further training.

Glenn Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fields and daughter and Mrs. Nora Jones of Lampasas visited the O. C. Iveys Monday. Glenn Jones is Mrs. Iveys' brother.

Teenager Gets Appetite Back; Thanks Hadacol

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Nicotin and Iron Which Her System Lacked.

According to Sara Loraine Beck, Box 253, Coker, Alabama, when a person is only 15 years old and feels terrible, can't eat or sleep the way they should, it's mighty bad. That is the way Loraine says she used to feel but that was, of course, before she started taking HADACOL. Loraine found that taking HADACOL helped her system overcome deficiencies in Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Nicotin and iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Loraine Beck's own statement: "I was run-down, sick and skinny, and weighed only 90 pounds before I used HADACOL. I would not eat because I had no appetite. Now I weigh 123 pounds and have an appetite. I feel a lot better. I have been taking HADACOL 11 months and am still taking it. I am 15 years old. HADACOL has done me lots of good."

MRS. McDONALD HOSTS WSCS

The WSCS of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Fred McDonald, sr. this week with seventeen members and three visitors present.

Mrs. A. S. Whitley was in charge of the program and discussed the last two chapters of the book "Women of the Scriptures." Miss Lottie Ivey of Lamesa also talked to the group on the schools with which she has been connected—the Holden school in Laredo and the Vashti school in Georgia.

Miss Ivey, Mrs. Charles Copeland and Mrs. D. K. Glenn were guests for the meeting. Mrs. O. W. Chapman was elected reporter. A salad course with fruit cake and spiced tea was served.

Hubby: When anything goes wrong at our house, I just get busy and fix it.

Wife: Well, ever since you fixed the clock, the cuckoo backs out and asks what time it is.
