Several New Locations and Producers in Ft. Chadbourne

Most of the oil news of this vicinity this week centered around the area northeast of Bronte.

Two rigs were drilling in the Bronte field, southwest of town. One on D. K. Glenn, operated by Humble, was at 3,000 feet Wednesday. The other, a Humble well on J. L. Brunson lease set casing Tuesday at around 4,300 feet preparatory to a try for completion.

A new location in the in the Fort Chadbourne field is Stanolind No. 4 Irene Morrow, which will 1,500 feet from the northwest and 2,265 feet from the northeast lines of J. D. Yarbrough survey 27.

Humble has staked location for Nos. 41, 42, 43, and 44 Sallie Odom. They are all slated to go to 6,000 feet or production.

In the Fort Chadbourne field, Humble No. 33-B Sallie Odom has been completed for a 24-hour flow of 470.24 barrels of 46.6 gravity oil.

Humble No. 44-B Odom flowed 452.24 barrels of 45.2 gravity oil in 24 hours and No. 44-B Odom was completed for a daily flow of 484.17 barrels of 46.6 gravity oil.

North of Bronte and six miles west and slightly south of Blackwell Union Oil Co. has staked a wildcat to be drilled to 6,000 feet.

The project will be No. 1-B T. W. Whiteside estate. It will be located 2,310 feet from the south and 330

Double Trouble, But They're Both Getting Along Fine Now

It's all in how you look at it, but Mrs. E. L. Caulder thinks Friday, the 13th, is a lucky day. Her husband, who farms near Bronte, was operated on for appendicitis that day and he's making a rapid recovery—that's why she says it was a lucky day.

But that's just half the story. The Caulder's son, Earl, was already in the hospital at Robert Lee where he had undergone an appendectomy Thursday, July 12, when the elder Caulder became ill.

They both had the surgery done within 20 hours of each other and Mrs. Caulder reported that they went home Wednesday and are doing fine.

Kickapoo Revival To Close Sunday

Rev. W. A. Reeves reported this week that the revival meeting of the Kickapoo Baptist church will close with the final service being held on Sunday, July 22. Rev. Reeves said the services had been well attended with about fifty present each morning and at least twice that number present for the evening worship.

Services are being held at 8:15 each evening and at 10 a. m. each morning. Services are under the direction of Rev. J. P. Jones of Lamesa. C. W. Coleman of San Antonio is in charge of the music.

Rev. Reeves invited those who had not been attending regularly to join them for the few remaining services.

Deep Rock Oil Co. No. 1 Earl Plack was preparing this week to plug and abandon at 5,500 feet.

It recovered, 120 feet of slightly gas cut mud and 630 feet of salt water on a one hour drillstem test from 5,425 to 5,550 feet. It was barely across the county line in Runnels county, northeast of here.

Aurora No. 1 Daisy McCutchen, field test west of here was drilling early this week below 2,000 feet.

WHITT WARNS YOUTH ABOUT TAMPERING WITH SWITCHES

Mayor H. O. Whitt said this week that "kids have been fooling with the switches which control our water pumps."

The mayor explained that one day this week some youths of Bronte turned off the switch which operates the pump bringing water from the city lake to the settling basin. Consequently, the residents of Bronte were without water before the mischief was discovered.

Whitt warned that tampering with the switches is dangerous for those involved and is likely to cause some of the pumps on up the line to "burn out."

He emphasized that any repetition of this action would bring prosecution of the offenders.

The Bells attended to business and Mr. Little visited his five brothers and his sister, all of whom live there. His brothers and sister are all former early settlers of Coke county. While away, the group reported meeting and visiting with Dr. Chambers, one of the pioneer physicians of Bronte and Coke county. He hung out his first shingle at Tennyson in 1910. They said that he was in good health and doing well and that he sent greetings to his many Coke county friends.

Oak Creek Bridge Contract Let to Graham Firm

Low bidder on the Oak Creek Bridge project was Harry Newton, Inc., of Graham, Texas, with a bid of $88,467. The bid was accepted by the State Highway Department in Austin Tuesday, as it also accepted bids on several other jobs.

The bridge will be located two miles south of Blackwell on Highway 70. The work is necessary because the present bridge structure will be inundated by the Oak Creek reservoir now being constructed by the City of Sweetwater.

The bridge will be 432 feet long and of continuous I-beam construction.

OPS CLINIC TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

The Fort Worth OPS has announced a price clinic for Bronte to be held at the City Hall, Wednesday, July 25, beginning at 1 p. m. The clinic is for all businessmen who may have OPS problems, the Fort Worth office indicated.

With the announcement of the price clinic for local businessmen, Ellis H. Boyd, district OPS director, released some figures on price trends within the past few months.

Boyd indicated that the overall price picture shows a downward development since the institution of price controls.

"Spot market prices dropped 12.1 per cent between February 16 and June 27, 1951," he said. "In contrast, before price controls took effect, spot prices had climbed 47.2 per cent from the pre-Korean level of June 23, 1950 to January, 1951, when the general Price Regulation was issued."

Consumer price rises slowed to a snail's pace during the first four months of a price control, the OPS official said. A rise of only 4 per cent was recorded in consumers prices from mid-April to mid-May of this year, he stated.

Wholesale prices have shown similar trends, the OPS director declared.

A similar Price Clinic for Robert Lee businessmen will be held at the Court House for one-half day beginning at 9 a. m. Wednesday morning.

Two Fined In Justice Court

Two men were fined, one twice, and one case transferred to County Court recently in Justice court here, according to A. E. Bell, Justice of the Peace.

Archie E. Bryant of Abilene was fined $5.00 and costs, or a total of $14, on a charge of reckless driving.

H. E. Green of Christoval, charged with attempted rape and drunken driving, was remanded to jail without bail and his case was automatically transferred to county court for disposal. Final disposition of the case in County court resulted in the dismissal of the rape charge and the man was fined $50 and costs on the drunken driving charge.

Billy Joe George of Abilene was fined $1.00 and costs of court, a total of $10, for driving without an operator's license.

In the Bryant case, he was fined $5 and costs, a total of $14, for failure to appear when summoned. It was alleged that he ran through the driveway at the Home Motor Co. and across the highway through the drive at Best's service station in a manner dangerous to life and property. He ignored a ticket to appear in the county to answer the charge of reckless driving and it became necessary to issue a warrant which was sent to Abilene and served there.

WHY CLUB MEETS IN ARROTT HOME

Members of the Bronte Jr. WHD club met Wednesday, July 18, in the home of Mrs. C. E. Arrott. The business session was led by the president, Mrs. Collins Sawyer. Council report was given by Mrs. Arrott and plans for the encampment were made. The encampment will be held at the Lions Club hut on Lake Nasworthy on August 7 and 8.

The floating prize was won by Mrs. Otis Smith and the home demonstration agent, Miss Minnie Mae Sharp, gave the program. She showed slides on landscaping and wind breaks.

Present were Misses Connell McCauley, Otis Smith, W. Hipp, Joe Rawlings, Claude Gentry, A. N. Rawlings, Collins Sawyer, D. K. Glenn, O. R. McQueen and two visitors, Miss Miss Sharp and Mrs. Ledrew Arrott, and the hostess.

The group will meet Sept. 5 with Mrs. James Allen.

NO DRIVER'S TESTS IN JULY

Judge Jeff Dean said this week that the Driver's License examiner from San Angelo would not be in Robert Lee this month. Driver's tests are usually given on the third Saturday of each month.

Dean said those who wanted to take driver's tests will be able to do so on Saturday, August 18, at the court house.

Jeanelle Glenn of Snyder has been visiting the C. C. Glenns.

Town to Be Sprayed Soon; Need More Money

Mayor H. O. Whitt announced Thursday that Bronte will be thoroughly sprayed with a DDT solution early next week. J. E. Mitchell, who has been collecting donations for the spraying, had collected some $300 for the work Thursday. About $400 is needed to spray the town twice this summer.

However, the Mayor said that the solution has already been ordered for the first spraying and that it should arrive by the weekend. A fogging machine from Miles has been contracted to do the work. Weather permitting, the town will be fogged as soon as the solution arrives. The city will be fogged at night, as it was last summer.

The solution to be used is absolutely harmless to human beings and everyone is urged to leave their homes open at night until the spraying is done so that the insect-killing fog can penetrate it.

The fogging machine will send a fog covering 300 feet and a 97 per cent kill of all insects can be secured.

City officials said that much interest has been shown by the citizenry in the move to fog the town and that contributions have been generous. Flies, mosquitoes and other insects have been particularly bad this summer and it is thought that the spraying will help eliminate them as well as prevent disease.

Local citizens who haven't donated to the fund are asked to do so in order that arrangements may be made for a second spraying in a few weeks. Contributions may be made to Mr. Mitchell, Mayor Whitt or to any of the city officials.

1/2 Million 4-H'ers Helping Reduce Farm Accidents

A recent survey of 2,000 farm accidents shows that 248 involve machinery. In other types, more farm people are injured by falls—476—than in any other kind of accident.

FARM FOLKS, as a general rule, give little thought to safety until a member of their family or a neighbor's is hurt or killed, or fire destroys their home or barn. Then they start doing something about safety.

This year it is particularly important that every farm family should do something about practicing safety, because even though there is a shortage of labor on farms, and new equipment is hard to get, food production must be boosted. That means the present manpower and machinery on farms must be guarded against accidents.

An average of 47 farm people are accidentally killed every day.

Helping to reduce rural casualties are a half million boys and girls taking part in the National 4-H Farm and Home Safety Program. More than $10,000 in awards for the best records of accident prevention and education are being provided by General Motors for the seventh consecutive year.

The program is directed by the Cooperative Extension Service.

MONEY AVAILABLE FOR FARM HOMES

The Farmers Home Administration still has some money available to build needed farm dwellings, barns, poultry houses, and other needed buildings. Also, money is available to purchase family size farm and to improve the water supply on a farm. The housing money can also be used to repair buildings on a farm.

Five new homes have been built, or are under construction, in this section at this time.

Any farm owner that meets the eligibility requirement could place application for a housing loan or water facility loan. Any tenant farmer that owns his livestock and equipment would be eligible to place application to purchase a farm.

Paul C. Shillingburg, County Supervisor, states that he would be glad to discuss this program in detail with anyone interested in the program. He is in the office at Robert Lee each Thursday from 10 to 2 o'clock. The office is located in the courthouse annex.

Each application is reviewed by the county committee, composed of D. K. Glenn, Bronte, T. Wilson Bryan, Robert Lee; and Lowell G. Roane, Robert Lee.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Bronte Boy Scouts will meet at the school house Friday evening at 7 o'clock. All scouts are expected to be there. There has not been much interest shown in scouting this summer, according to a spokesman, but some of the scouts have almost completed their tenderfoot work in spite of the lack of interest and cooperation. The program will consist chiefly of advancement work.

Church of Christ Bible School to Begin Monday

A Vacation Bible School at the Church of Christ will begin Monday, July 23, at 9 a. m. The students and teachers will assemble in the auditorium of the church building to be assigned to various groups and teachers. There will be two classes daily with an intermission assembly in the auditorium from 9:50 to 10:10 for the purpose of relaxation and group activity.

Classes will start promptly at 9 a. m. and will be dismissed at 11 a. m.

The school will be under the supervision of Leon Sharp, minister of the church, who is under the oversight of the elders of the church, J. R. Johnson and A. E. Coalson. Teachers who have been selected are Mrs. Haywood Springer, Mrs. Homer Phillips, Mrs. D. P. Pinkard, Foy Moore and Leon Sharp. "These persons are Bible students and are qualified to instruct others in the learning of the Bible," Sharp said. Others will be called upon to assist these teachers in whatever capacity they are needed.

The adults are especially invited to attend the class that is planned for them. The school will close with the class periods on Saturday, July 28.

Bronte Loses 8-6 On Costly Errors

The Bronte Fastball team lost their second game in a week Tuesday night when they allowed Offen to edge by them 8 to 6. Sloppy fielding on the part of Bronte was the main factor in Offen's win. The pitching by Bob Wilson and the hitting paced by lefthander Delbert Coalson was adequate. Bronte committed a grand total of 10 obvious errors when all figured in the decision. Offen had one error.

The local boys collected eight hits off Offen hurler, Curtis Halfman. Half of those hits belonged to clutch hitter Coalson who had a home run and three singles. Jack Vaughn had a triple and singles were hit by Lyndon Waldrop, J. W. Caudle, Duane Tucker, and Bobby Lasswell. Offen had seven hits.

Defensive standout for Bronte was Lyndon Waldrop who played shortstop.

Bronte lost last Friday night to Veribest 13 to 4. Bob Biederman limited Bronte to three clean singles. They were a bunt single by Vance Winn, a home run by Marlon McCutchen and a single by Bob Wilson.

CONDITION IMPROVED

Word was received Tuesday that the condition of Marion Mitchell, who was seriously injured recently in Snyder, was somewhat improved. Mrs. Mitchell called her mother, Mrs. S. O. Jackson Tuesday night and said that he was feeling better and that he would be put into a cast next Sunday. He will be in the hospital for some time yet, Mrs. Mitchell said. He received a broken back when he was run over by a large truck.

Jeannie Bernard of Dallas, niece of Mrs. J. M. Rippetoe, is visiting here and helping out at the Bronte Pharmacy until someone is found for the regular job there.

Jarvis Littlefield, son of Mrs. Mayme Littlefield, is still in a serious condition as a result of burns received last week. He was burned with caustic soda.

CHANGES IN DRAFT LAWS EXPLAINED

The draft law, which expired July 9, has been extended in amended form to July 1, 1955, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director, recently reminded Texas people.

General Wakefield noted the following important changes in the Selective Service Act:

1. Men inducted will serve for 24 months as compared to 21 under the old law. Males must register at the age of 18, as formerly.
2. Men are liable for induction at age 18½ instead of 19. No man below 19 can be inducted so long as a board has eligible older men.
3. Physical and mental standards for service have been lowered, with the result that some men, now classified 4-F will be found suitable for 1-A.
4. The present strength of the armed forces, approximately 3½ million, can be raised to 5 million men.
5. Except for cases of extreme hardship, a man may not be deferred for dependency on the basis of a wife alone.
6. Men now or hereafter deferred on educational, occupational, farming or dependency grounds will remain liable for service until age 35. Men not deferred are liable only to 26th birthday.
7. Conscientious objectors to military service shall be ordered by local boards, subject to regulations prescribed by the President, to perform civilian work in the national interest for 24 months.

11. No inducted man may be assigned overseas until he has had four months training.

BASEBALL PLAYERS WORK OUT

Several prospective baseball players of the area worked out Monday afternoon at the baseball field with the intention of organizing a team. The Bronte boys are ready to have a game when the opportunity arrives. The baseball games will have to be played in the afternoon since the lighting is not adequate for night games.

The Offen team declined an offer to meet Bronte here Sunday. Their manager said they had rather not play because "it is just too hot."

Parents' Problems

By DONALD M. MAYNARD

The Eating Problem

Our eighteen-month-old son doesn't have a very good appetite and all he eats at some meals is his milk. I have tried many ways to get him to eat, but my husband believes the only way is to force him to eat and spank him when he spits out the food that is forced down him. I tried to discourage my husband but it did no good, so finally I let him handle it his way. He scolded the baby, shook and spanked him until the baby wept so upset that he vomited several times. How can I help my husband see how harmful his attitude is toward the child?

First of all, let me commend you on your understanding of your problem. Forcing children to eat not only tends to create a violent dislike for the food forced upon them but, also, to create an emotional state that takes away their appetite and makes it difficult to digest the food that is eaten.

If your husband but knew it, he is using the method almost universally condemned by experts in child pamphlets on eating issued by the Children's Bureau, The United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. It might be worth your while to order these and have them around the house, hoping your husband will pick one up and read it.

The Pocket Book of Baby and Child Care, by Spock, that can be secured from almost any newsstand, contains good suggestions concerning how to get children to eat. Dr. Florence Dunbar, in her book, Your Child's Mind and Body, has an excellent chapter on eating that should be helpful to your husband.

Food should not be forced upon your child, or even given to him with the attitude, "Now you'll find out how wrong you've been." Let him either pick them up of his own accord, or suggest that since you do have this problem of eating, it might be helpful if both of you would try to find out what some of the experts advise.

In addition to having books and pamphlets on eating around, it might be helpful for you and your husband to have a conference with your physician about the problem. Your doctor should be able to suggest to your husband more desirable ways of dealing with the situation.

Old Folks and New Rules

I live in a three-generation home. How can my husband and I keep grandma and grandpa from spoiling our young son? It is hard to observe schedules because they want to play with him. They say our "rules" are poppycock.

The three-generation home that does not face the problem you have presented is indeed a rarity.

For all parents so situated, let me suggest first of all that you try to be an understanding and patient with the grandparents as possible. It is quite to be expected that they should feel that their way of bringing up children cannot be surpassed. After all, haven't they raised their own, and aren't you a shining example of the success of their method? So really you should feel complimented when they look somewhat askance at what seems to them to be your newfangled and thoroughly absurd ideas about raising youngsters.

It would not be altogether out of place, furthermore, for you to look a bit more closely at the rules you have established to see whether or not any of them really are "poppycock." It is well to remember that sometimes young parents, in their zeal to do what is right, place too much emphasis upon routines and schedules and not enough upon the need of children for attention and affection.

Wouldn't it be fine, too, if, as you rethink your rules, you would get suggestions from the grandparents? Of course, you will not be able to accept all of them, but the simple fact that they have been consulted will ease the tension somewhat. If you can accept one or two of their suggestions, assuring them how grateful you are for them, they may even decide that you have inherited at least a wee bit of their intelligence!

If you have a question about your child—from infancy through the teens—send it to Donald M. Maynard, 810 Broadway, Nashville 2, Tennessee, to be answered through a future column.

You will want to get the judgment of your physician and of others who have given much thought to child guidance. As you make out your new set of rules, don't forget that your boy probably needs to have the grandparents play with him at least occasionally. Provide times in your schedule, therefore, when they can do so. There will be other times, of course, when the boy must not be disturbed.

With your new schedule carefully thought out, you now are ready to take a firm stand with respect to it. Let the grandparents know the reasons for it. Face frankly with them the fact that they may not agree with all of the rules, but that you expect them to co-operate with you. Be tactful and understanding but firm. They may grumble a bit, but probably will co-operate as best they can.

It is important that you and the grandparents should not quarrel about these rules in front of your boy. To do so will bring to him a sense of confusion, frustration, and insecurity.

May I add that it would seem very desirable to encourage the grandparents to read such magazines as The Christian Home and Parents' Magazine. Some of us wonder, too, if it would not be well for the church to offer occasionally a course on child study, designed primarily for grandparents!

THINK A MOMENT

By LEON SHARP

When in doubt, tell the truth.
If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything.
The best way to cheer yourself is to try to cheer somebody else up.
Wrinkles should merely show where the smiles have been.
God pours out love upon all with a lavish hand—but He reserves vengeance for his very own.
—Mark Twain

Defense is your job, too!

HERE is a group of strong, healthy young American soldiers enjoying an after-chow gab session while they polish up for tomorrow's inspection. They are a part of the best-fed, best-equipped, best-cared-for Army in the world—the United States Army. And they are just like the boys from your home town, from your own block, who are training now to do a job of defending your country—and you.

Defense is your job, too.

And one of the best ways for you to do that job is to buy U. S. Defense Bonds. For your Defense Bonds help maintain America's economic strength just as these boys help maintain her military strength. Go to the Pay Office where you work and sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan, or join the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Do it now!

The U. S. Defense Bonds
you buy give you personal financial independence

Remember that when you're buying Defense Bonds you're building a personal reserve of cash savings. Money that will some day buy you a home or educate your children, or support you when you retire. Remember, too, that if you don't save regularly, you generally don't save at all. So go to your company's pay office—now—and sign up to buy Defense Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own automatically goes on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not $25—but as much as $33.33—if you just hold it the extra ten years! A $37.50 bond pays $66.66. And so on. For your security, and your country's, too, buy U. S. Defense Bonds now!
