AD-LIB-BEN

The March of Dimes drive has come to a close and once again residents around here responded generously. We have lived in several small towns in the past ten years, and nowhere have we seen people as generous as around here.

If you don't believe it, just take a look around; look at some of the March of Dimes reports from other places. We'll wager you'll have to look a long time before you find contributions as high per capita as they are right here.

It's mighty nice to live among people who are willing to help worthy causes. It gives you a sort of feeling of extra security—makes you think "They'd probably even help me if I need it sometime."

WANTED: A standby pressman and linotype operator. We may be needing both in a few days. The oldest little daughter has the mumps. She's doing fine thank you, but none of the rest of us has had 'em (or "it" if you prefer.)

A wreckless driver talking about his narrow escapes reminds us of a fish who goes home bragging about what a big bait he stole.

The "little woman" down at our house has been kidded many times about saving coupons of all sorts and never cashing them in. They all go into an old sugar bowl in the top of a cabinet.

She got the last laugh last week when the high price of coffee reminded her of the sugar bowl and she pulled out enough coupons for six free pounds.

Boy Scout Drive Opens Next Week

A kick-off breakfast will begin the Boy Scout fund drive next Tuesday morning at 8 a. m. in the fellowship hall of the Methodist church. Workers for the drive will make their plans at that time. J. L. Brunson is to be chairman of the group, assisted by James Byers and Joe Carter. The Diversity and Sorosis clubs will also be asked to help. Boy Scout Week begins February 6 and continues through February 13.

BOY SCOUT POLICE

Local Boy Scouts will serve as policemen in town Saturday, Feb. 6, and on Saturday, Feb. 13. They will levy fines of $1.00 for all violations on those dates. Approximately 15 scouts will be on the job. Money taken in will be added to the fund drive.

Bobby Hester and D. W. Sims are new scout tenderfoots.

School Committees Make Reports

Bronte School Programming chairmen and their secretaries met Tuesday evening at the local school for the purpose of hearing various committee reports. Members of the school board were invited to attend this meeting.

Many interesting findings were presented by the various chairmen.

Chairman H. A. Springer's report showed an overload of pupils in five of the class rooms at this time. Chairman D. K. Glenn, reporting on the potential scholastics of the future, reported a potential increase in enrollment for the next four years which runs as high as a 52 student increase possible next year.

Chairman J. E. Fuller's committee report showed a need for additional curriculum developments in many fields and urged additional class room space be provided to adequately provide for these needed subjects.

PHYSICAL CONDITION

J. A. Stephenson, chairman of the committee for physical building and equipment, gave a detailed report on the physical condition of the present building and the lack of adequate space for all classes. His committee found many apparent unsafe conditions existing in the old section of the present school building.

Facts and figures covering the financial condition of the district was given by the Finance Committee with C. E. Bruton as the chairman. The committee outlined the sources of revenue and the nature of expenditures. This committee has made extensive surveys into various features of the financial setup of the school and will report more at a later date.

PROJECTED NEEDS

Information obtained by the committees has been supplied to the projected needs committee, headed by L. T. Youngblood. The group will make a tour early in March to other schools in this area. A school bus will be provided for the trip and members of the various committees, school board members and school teacher representatives will visit other school seeking ideas and information. Dimes Drive Nets $1361 on East Side

The March of Dimes drive has gone over in a big way in the east side of Coke County. Ernest Ivey, drive chairman, reported Wednesday that a total of $1,361.50 has been given to aid in the fight against polio.

The drive was concluded last weekend with a program at the school and with the annual March of Dimes dance at Tad Richards barn, northeast of town.

Ivey expressed his appreciation to all the folks around here who helped in the drive by giving of time or money. He said "I am deeply grateful for the cooperation given in the March of Dimes drive. Everybody was most generous."

Dr. John R. Harris, chairman of the Coke County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, added his thanks also. He said, "The generosity of the people in this area has once again put us over the top in the Dimes Drive. All of us who have worked on this project are very grateful for everything you did."

Ivey said that the $1,361.50 came from the following sources.

Clubs and business gifts, $379.75; Bronte School, $71.92; coin collectors, $97.92; Mothers March $199.42; labor division, $28.65; program at school, $90.00; dance at Tad Richards, $235.00; jambo-ree at Tennyson, $108.18, March of Dimes cards, $90.30; special gifts, $49.60.

He added that a few more gifts are still coming in and that they are still welcome. Anyone, who wishes to give to the March of Dimes may do so by seeing him.

Airman First Class Bobby D. Franklin, who was scheduled to arrive in Seattle yesterday (Thursday) from Japan. Word was received here by his mother, Mrs. Pete Nutter, that he would be aboard the USS O'Hara when it docked in the western port. Franklin went overseas in September, 1951

Coke Hires Lawyer For Tax Suits

The Commissioners Court in their meeting last week signed a contract with Clyde Boose, Sweetwater attorney, to collect taxes in the county. Word was received this week that the state comptroller's office has approved the contract. It is expected that action will begin in the near future to clear up the delinquent state and county taxes.

No official action has been taken, but officials of the Bronte School district and the City of Bronte seem to feel that they will also contract the attorney to take similar action at the same time the county files suits to clear up the taxes.

The City Council will meet tonight to discuss the matter and Bronte school trustees are scheduled to meet Monday night.

According to Mayor H. O. Whitt, the city and school will have to file suits concurrently with the county, or they will lose the tax money due them. Once the suit is brought and taxes cleared up by the county, he said, it automatically clears up all taxes, providing the other taxing agencies do not bring suit at the same time.

Bronte Pharmacy Burglarized

Law enforcement officers were still seeking Thursday the person or persons who burglarized the Bronte Pharmacy early Tuesday morning. The burglars entered through a window over a door in the rear of the store. The window was 9 3/4 inches wide.

Although the back part of the store was thoroughly messed up, it is believed that only $2.65 was taken. A number of drawers were left open and merchandise moved from the shelves. The front cash register had not been opened. It was believed that there was too much light in the front of the building.

The burglars left the store by the back door which had been prized open, breaking the lock.

Paul Good, Coke County Sheriff, Frank Keese and Fowell Sims are local officers working on the case. Frank Rohasch of the Texas Ranger office in San Angelo and Detective Dub Punn, of San Angelo, helped make the investigation. Fingerprints were made early Tuesday and footprints were found outside the rear of the store, leading investigating officers to believe the burglary occurred early Tuesday morning after a light shower had fallen.

Grand Jury Indicts Two For Assault

The Grand Jury, meeting in Robert Lee last week, brought in two indictments. Marvin Eugene Whitaker, 19 of Ohio and Robert Leroy Eberhardt, 19, of San Angelo are charged with assault with intent to rob. The two are accused of attacking H. C. Murtishaw at his station here last October. The two are also under indictment in Tom Green County on charges of theft.

The grand jury, summoned by Judge Joe L. Mays of 51st District Court, also passed a worthless checking charge against Mrs. D. D. Gamble.

Joe R Ash Rates High on Livestock Judging Team

Joe Russell Ash of Bronte was one of five team members who represented Texas Technological College recently in the Intercollegiate Stock Judging Contests at Denver, Colorado. Some 75 men from 15 southwestern colleges competed in the two days of judging on January 15 and 16.

The Tech teamed placed fourth in over-all judging and was second in both breeding animals and beef cattle.

Ash ranked high individually by scoring 854 on his placings. His score was well over a fifth of his teams' total and high enough for 16th individual ranking and 7th among the 75 entrants on beef cattle judging.

Stanley Anderson, assistant professor of Animal Husbandry at Tech coached the team and accompanied them on the five day trip to Denver. He said that the Denver contest was the only one of its kind in that it devoted one full day to the judging of carlot classes. The contest also included several classes of sheep, hogs, and horses, as well as beef cattle.

Ash is a 1950 graduate of Bronte High School and is now a junior at Tech where he is majoring in Animal Husbandry. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Ash of Bronte.

Early Filing Urged By Tax Director

Early filing of your 1953 income tax return will be a big help to Uncle Sam and will put behind you a detail that becomes a bigger headache the longer you put it off. That's the word from Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue.

Mr. Campbell, who would be very happy to see a steady flow of letters bearing checks and money orders — no cash, please — reminded taxpayers today that payments should be made to the order of the District Director of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas.

"The vast bulk of Dallas District taxpayers will find no difficulty in making out their own returns, especially if they use Form 1040A," Mr. Campbell said. "But for those who have a problem or two, our office stands ready to give assistance or advice. If you can present the facts of your problem over the phone, call us at 4-9146. If you need personal aid, visit our office at US Post Office, 3rd and 4th on Pine St., Abilene."

"To obtain help and avoid the rush and pressure of last minute crowds, call or come in now, while our personnel are better able to assist you."

"It's true that the filing deadline is March 15, but little or nothing is gained by waiting until the last minute to pay up. Taking care of your payments now will help your government to carry on its important defense and construction programs and many other activities, and will let you plan your budget for the rest of the year with assurance."

The district director stressed that careful reading of the instructions, accompanying the forms recently mailed out will enable most taxpayers to prepare their own returns, often in less than an hour.

Judge Sandusky and Camille Martin Are Married Saturday

Miss Camille Martin and 2nd Lt. Judge Edward Sandusky exchanged nuptial vows Saturday afternoon in the chapel of the College Church of Christ in Abilene. The double ring vows were read by Reuben Stanley, minister of a San Angelo Church of Christ. The ceremony was at 4 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Allen of Karnes City, former long time residents of Bronte. Sandusky is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Sandusky of Bronte.

The chapel was decorated with bouquets of white gladioli. Nuptial music was furnished by the ACC quartet with Ken Kennamer, soloist, who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blue French Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a high neckline and tapering sleeves which extended to points over the hands. A deep-V waistline topped the bouffant skirt which was bordered with a taffeta and tulle ruffle. Her lace headdress was patterned with pearls. She carried a Bible topped with white camellias tied with ribbons and wore an heirloom ring which belonged to her great-grandmother, and a pearl pin, a gift from her grandmother. Mrs. George Ely of Glen Cove. The ring now belongs to Mrs. H. A. Martin of Brownwood, her grandmother.

For something new she wore pearl ear rings, a gift from the bridegroom and wore a blue garter borrowed from Miss Kayla Felts.

Miss Joan Meyer of Karnes City was maid of honor and Mrs. Sue Carter of Odessa was matron on honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Kitty Sue Gaddy of Grand Falls and Jean Seals of Coleman. The attendants wore blue taffeta ankle length gowns, fashioned with a V waist line and cape. Their bouquets were of blue iris. The bridesmaids wore blue tulle mitts and the maid and matron of honor wore lace taffeta hats with short tulle veils.

The local essay contest is sponsored by the district in conjunction with the Fort Worth Press Ninth Annual Essay Contest.

Marvin Simpson, district cooperator with the Coke Soil Conservation District, has seeded 80 acres of oats and sweet clover. The oats and clover will be watered with a sprinkler system that Simpson has recently purchased. In addition to the oats and clover Simpson is planning to seed 40 acres to Blue Panic Grass later this spring. The Blue Panic Grass will also be irrigated.

Clark Glenn has completed the construction of his irrigation ditches. Glenn's ditches have drop structures to control soil erosion and reduce ditch loss. The ditches are a part of a level border irrigation system being installed by Glenn. YOUR
SENATOR
REPORTS

By Lyndon B. Johnson

Two Groups: Agriculture and small business are of vital importance to Texas. Any development which affects them adversely injures our entire state.

In any downward trend of our economy, the first real victims are farmers and small businessmen. That is why we must keep a close watch for economic danger signals.

The present is being called a period of "transition," of "readjustment." In dealing with resulting problems, I want to make sure the transition is not from economic gloom—that we do not readjust ourselves into a recession.

Farm Income: Cash income of Texas farmers was 17 per cent less in the 11 months of 1953 than in the same period of 1952, reports the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. That was a decline of close to a quarter of a billion dollars.

We had a drought, of course, but falling farm prices were mainly responsible for the drop in income. Overall prices for all farm products went down 14 percent during the year.

When farmers receive less total income—and when prices paid for their products keep going down—those are danger signals in any language.

Safeguards: Fortunately, we have machinery for combatting a recession if the threat of one should become imminent.

Many economic safeguards have been set up by the government during the last 20 years. We have the know-how—gained from experience—to fight the threat of depressed economic conditions, and to fight it successfully. We must be ready to use this know-how if the necessity arises.
