More Than $200 Raised So Far In Coke's First Cancer Crusade

Bronte and Robert Lee workers got busy this week in the first Cancer Crusade ever active in this county. April is designated as Crusade month and the drive for funds is put on by the American Cancer Society.

AD-LIB-BEN

'Tisn't very many days until Oak Creek Lake will be officially opened to fishermen. A fine lake such as Oak Creek Lake is certainly something to be proud of and it's almost in our back door. Many cities would give most anything to have such a good recreational spot for fishing, boating and picnicing such as this, and even though the lake officially belongs to Sweetwater, its nearer to Bronte and Blackwell than any other towns.

We're sorry and ask forgiveness from R. W. Rees. Last week his name was omitted from the list of officers recently elected by the Bronte Lions Club. Rees was named new secretary, one of the hardest jobs in the Lions club.

A couple of local men had an interesting and pleasing experience the other day. Taylor Emerson and W. W. Millikin were visiting with Millikin's uncle in Uvalde. The uncle lives next door to John Nance (Cactus Jack) Garner, former vice president of the United States. Anyway, the two men had a nice visit with the former veep. So far as we know John Garner is the only man who has ever served as presiding officer of both houses of Congress, and of course the vice presidency is the highest office ever attained by a Texan—unless you count Mr. Eisenhower.

And, speaking of politics, if there's any who are thinking of tossing their hat in the ring for any office subject to the July Democratic primary—better do so soon. Deadline for filing is the first Monday in May—May 3, that is.

Advice to the girls: Never play ball with a man unless he is willing to furnish the diamond.

Slight Decrease In Auto Licenses

Motor vehicle registrations have dropped slightly in Coke County, according to a report compiled this week by Miss Annette Simpson, clerk in the office of Paul Good, tax assessor-collector.

On April 3 a total of 1,861 licenses had been issued compared with 1,919 at the same period a year ago.

The 1954 registrations are divided as follows:

Passenger cars	1192
Commercial	205
Farm	364
Truck-tractors	21
Trailers	66
Dealers	8
House trailers	4
Motorcycles	1
Total	1861

Gets 2 Years For Robbing Cafe

Roy S. Shelley, 18 year old Stamford youth, was indicted Saturday by a Coke County District Court grand jury on a charge of burglary. Judge Joe L. Mays recalled the grand jury panel to investigate the case.

Shelly is alleged to have broken into the Ideal Cafe at Bronte on the night of April 11 and stolen coins from the juke box and cigarette vending machine. He and a 15-year-old accomplice were questioned by Constable T. F. Sims, Sr. in the vicinity of the Gulf Station. Sims took their car number and when the cafe robbery was discovered he advised Sheriff Paul Good and the pair were arrested in Stamford and brought to jail here.

Following his indictment Saturday, Shelly waived a waiting period and was given a 2-year penitentiary sentence by Judge Mays. He had been in previous trouble. The other youth was turned over to the juvenile authorities in San Angelo.

SENIOR TRIP MAY 12

Bronte's 1954 seniors will leave Wednesday, May 12, for the annual senior trip. They are to go to Galveston and Houston and will return on the weekend. Their play, "Oh Promise Me," was well received last Thursday night and the class made $115. Mrs. Royce Fancher, sponsor, will accompany the 17 seniors.

CUB SCOUT MEETING

Cub Scouts will have a meeting in the Aggie Building Tuesday night, April 27. All parents of Cub Scouts are urged to be present, as parents will present Bobcat awards to 23 boys that evening.

Bronte workers, under direction of Mrs. J. B. Mackey, E. F. Glenn and Rev. M. R. Rogers, had collected $117 early in this week.

An open house held last Saturday in Robert Lee brought in $118 in donations.

Coke County's quota is $400, and an effort is being made to secure as many memberships as possible in this worthy society. Funds from the drive go for public enlightenment about the No. 2 killer in America and for research in the causes and possible cures for this dreaded disease.

Everyone is urged to make a contribution, however small, that may be left with any of the officials named above or at The Enterprise office.

VOLLEYBALL TEAMS PLAY IN REGIONAL TOMORROW

Bronte boys' and girls' volleyball teams will go to Brownwood tomorrow, Saturday, to compete for regional honors. Both won district championships at Water Valley recently. The Brownwood tourney will begin at 8:30 and places will be drawn after the teams arrive there.

Letter awards for the Cowgirls arrived a few days ago. Senior girls who received awards were Jo Walton, La Jean Word, Rita McCutchen and Ginger Clark. Junior girls were Mary Gray and Jo Ann Rusk. Sophomores included Rickie Hester, Jane Powell, Wanda Snead, Linda Lasswell, Pat Tounget and Wanda Tomlinson.

The girls honored Joy Lynn Wilkins with a jacket in appreciation for her help during the athletic seasons.

Soil Conservation District News

Foster S. Price completed three ranch ponds last week on his lower ranch west of Edith. The construction of these ponds is a part of Price's complete coordinated soil and water conservation plan that he is applying on his ranches as district cooperator with the Coke Soil Conservation District. These ponds will provide adequate livestock water for better distribution of grazing of livestock. Personnel of the Soil Conservation Service assisted Price with staking, designing, laying out, and checking of these ponds.

The Board of Supervisors of the Coke Soil Conservation District are planning to make a field tour to Brownwood and Brady April 13 to observe the flood prevention work that has been applied on Deep Creek, C. N. Webb, chairman, has announced. This work is being done by the Brady-San Saba Soil Conservation District, the Lower Colorado River Authority, and the Soil Conservation Service working with the local landowners of the Brady San Saba Soil Conservation District.

Guar would be a good crop to use to replace some of the acres diverted from cotton in 1954, is the statement made by A. V. Sheppard, Work Unit Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service assisting district co-operators plan and apply soil and water conservation practices. Guar is a summer growing legume that will grow on about the same moisture as cotton or grain sorghum. The guar can be seeded any time from April 15 to July 15 depending on moisture. Experimental data shows that cotton and grain sorghum will produce up to 1/3 more per acre on land following guar as on land following cotton and grain sorghum respectively.

All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Beaty were here for an Easter visit. They included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bennett and girls of Denver City, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Beaty of Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Beaty and children of Wickett, and Mrs. Zella Bowman and son, Burley, of Odessa.

QUIET HOURS ARE FEW IN BUSY LIFE OF JONELLE BLACK, COKE COUNTY HD AGENT

MISS JONELLE BLACK

SUNDAY DINNER

An Easter dinner was given Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Beaver. Present were Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Nicholas of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Buck Ivey, Mrs. Gertrude Gray and children and Ronnie Baker, all of Robert Lee; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips and boys, Mrs. Clyde Coleman and children, Mrs. Mary Phillips, Wanda Tomlinson, Carolyn Kemp, Linda Laswell, Charlie Phillips and Tommie Ruth and Benny and Sissy Jones.

Dr. and Mrs. John Harris, Rex and Ann spent the Easter weekend in Ada, Oklahoma with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harris. They were accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lulu Lewis, who spent the weekend with her sister in Duncan, Oklahoma.

(Reprinted from "Meet the HD Agents" column of the San Angelo Standard-Times.)

When the sun goes down in Coke County, lights go up in a little house by the side of a quiet main street.

Then Miss Jonelle Black, county home demonstration agent, settles herself down to a silent hour of handwork. Some of her favorite classical melodies may fill the evening air. And often the fragrance of her oven-fresh home baked rolls float out over the still neighborhood.

But the daylight hours for the agent are rushed with the contrasting chatter and hustle of women's meetings. There Miss Black will be busy with her chosen work of giving method demonstrations. Around here will be gathered some 60 club women or almost 100 4-H Club girls.

Miss Black has been in Extension Service work since her graduation in 1952 from Abilene Christian College. And although talk of drought, dust and home-makers problems face her as regularly as the morning sun, she discovers a satisfaction of accomplishment in seeing the good things of life she has taught put into practice in home after home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Byers and daughter visited in Coleman on Sunday with his father, W. R. Byers, who is seriously ill. While there they visited his sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClure and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker of Andrews recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rasco.

Refreshments of chicken salad, ritz crackers, lime sherbet and cookies were served. An Easter theme was carried out.

Mrs. Fewell Sims, Hawley Allen of Robert Lee and Mrs. Carter were guests and the following members were present:

Mmes. Arnold F. Ball, Charles Boecking, Clifford Clark, Vetal Flores, Robert Forman, J. T. Henry, Cecil Kemp, R. C. Lasswell, J. B. Mackey, O. R. McQueen, H. A. Springer, George Thomas, A. S. Whatley and the hostess.

The group met in the home of Mrs. Edward Cumbie with Mrs. Royce Lee as co-hostess. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Flores, Mrs. R. E. Cumbie and Mrs. J. B. Mackey.

Progressive Business And Civic-Minded People of San Angelo And Vicinity

The Bronte Enterprise

April 23, 1954

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Bronte Enterprise as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the cooperation of those citizens in San Angelo who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

H. H. "John" Booher

In paying tribute to some of the more progressive business and professional men of San Angelo we would be remiss in our duty should we fail to include H. H. "John" Booher of The Stovall - Booher Radiator Sales & Service, whose business ability is no greater than the "know-how" and expert skill which has contributed to his well-earned success in automotive radiator sales and service business.

He has also contributed generously to the welfare of his city and the community for many miles around. And his civic spirit is evidenced by the many services which he has performed and continues to perform in the interest of the people as a whole.

Mr. Booher is a man of wide acquaintance, whose many friends admire and respect in him those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feeling. And his upright business methods are a credit to his inherent sense of fair play.

We congratulate H. H. Booher on his splendid record of service and trust he shall continue to assist us for many years to come.

O. K. Harkey

Having a well earned reputation for honesty dependable judgment and complete knowledge, with thirty one years experience in the real estate and livestock business, O. K. Harkey, with offices located in The Cactus Hotel, merits a brief tribute in this San Angelo review.

Without assumption or seeking public acclaim he has filled his place in the community as one of its solid citizens, performing his duties of citizenship quietly, yet efficiently. As a leading and progressive business man Mr. Harkey, who welcomes all kinds of business, large or small, holds a high position in the esteem of the public generally.

It is not only as a practical executive whose sound judgment and farsighted planning have brought such fine things to himself, but it is because of his inspiring optimism and loyal friendship that O. K. Harkey is held in such high regards by the people of this district.

We gladly praise the record of this progressive San Angelo business man.

Lem Arnold

In all business and professional pursuits there are men who have met with success because they have honestly deserved it, and a man in his field is Lem Arnold of The San Angelo Plumbing & Heating Co., who well deserves the reputation he has earned for being one of San Angelo's more progressive business men. His thorough knowledge of everything pertaining to the plumbing and heating business is exemplified by the manner in which he fulfills each and every demand made upon him in line with his business.

Furthermore with such experience as Mr. Arnold has gained in the successful management and operation of his business has been turned to the advantage of his fellow citizens by applying the same principles to the promotion of those civic projects to which he has been called upon to lend his able assistance. Thus his success in business has further enhanced his value to the city.

We appreciate the opportunity of including Lem Arnold in this group of progressive and civic-minded people who are actively taking part in the evolution of the business and civic life of San Angelo.

Lester Vick

In compiling this review of progressive San Angelo business people, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Such a man is Lester Vick of Vick's Tox-Eol Exterminating Company, who is well known and has many friends and customers throughout this entire district.

Mr. Vick's main interests have not been solely confined to his own business and private affairs, but have also included his contributions, one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which comes within the scope of his activities.

Lester Vick is a man of wide experience whose exploits in the business and civic life of San Angelo and vicinity merits more than a passing attention and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to a man who well deserves more credit than is accorded him here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Evans

Good motels and tourist courts are indispensable to the progress and development of a growing city such as San Angelo. And The Wylie Motel, combining the best features of both, with refrigerated air and telephones in every unit, has accommodated a great many tourists and business men in a manner that assures them of the continued patronage and good will of the motoring public.

The management of The Wylie Motel has maintained an ideal of service which is thoroughly exemplified by the manner in which every need of the traveling motorist has been anticipated and prepared for. Nothing is taken for granted; nothing is forgotten, and hospitality and service is always their first and last consideration.

Much of the credit for the splendid reputation of this modern drive-in motel is due to the executive ability of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Evans, whose untiring efforts, foresightedness and careful attention to detail, have maintained a standard of hospitality and service which would be difficult to surpass. It is a pleasure to say these few words of praise about The Wylie Motel and its friendly operators, Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

It is because of the unflinching optimism and faith which he so consistently displays toward the future of San Angelo and vicinity that we are prompted to call the attention of our readers to the fine service which E. T. Woodfin of The E. T. Woodfin Trucking Company, performs in the successful conduct of his business.

Mr. Woodfin is an aggressive and resourceful personality whose progressive policies have earned for him a widespread reputation as a business man of more than average ability; and his apparent willingness to devote some of that ability to the promotion of civic activities further enhances his value to the city.

The safety and efficiency of the operations of The E. T. Woodfin Trucking Co. reflecting as it does the executive ability of this man, has earned for the company a well deserved popularity among the people they serve. We are glad to give E. T. Woodfin the credit he so well deserves for his achievements and to wish for him a continued successful career as one of San Angelo's more progressive business men.

W. C. Waggoner

W. C. Waggoner of The Waggoner Cabinet Shop, is one of those progressive business men who has always done his bit to maintain the prestige of the city of San Angelo as the leading metropolis of this section of the state. He has always worked for the development of the city and his many services are worthy of sincere appreciation.

His well earned success as a business man is easily understood, knowing as the people do, his widespread reputation for the honesty which characterizes all of his business dealings. And it is a combination of technical knowledge, professional skill and business ability which has elevated Mr. Waggoner to the position of leadership in his line.

He is completely aware of his civic responsibilities and is wide awake to the many opportunities for service, and is always ready and willing to lend his support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole.

We compliment W. C. Waggoner on his accomplishments, and wish for him continued success.

M. L., Dale, & Hollis Leddy, & Jim Franklin

When a man gains recognition for the progressive and straight forward manner in which he has managed his business affairs and also for his generous contributions to civic projects, he is to be complimented for his achievements.

A man belonging to this category is M. L. Leddy of The M. L. Leddy Saddle & Boot Shop, a business man of San Angelo, who is regarded with respect and admiration by a great many residents of the city and the surrounding country.

We also think it appropriate in this review to give credit to some of the younger generation who are carrying on so ably in the footsteps of their fathers. And two who certainly deserve such credit are Dale and Hollis H. Leddy, and Jim C. Franklin, Mr. Leddy's Son-in-Law, who are associated in the operation and management of the saddle and boot shop established by Mr. Leddy.

It is men like Mr. Leddy and his two sons, in addition to Jim Franklin, who have a distinct value to their city and we take pleasure in paying them this brief, but sincere tribute.

John D. Fore

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to some of those progressive and civic-minded people who have contributed their share of time and energy to the building up of San Angelo and the surrounding territory to the position of prominence which it now enjoys.

One of these men whom we wish to present to our readers is John D. Fore of The Fore TV, located at 1706 West Beauregard, whose success can be equally attributed to his business acumen and his knowledge of electronics, with special emphasis on radio and television. He has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward in both business and technical fields and is a qualified expert in the service and installation of all types of television sets and antennas.

Mr. Fore's record of achievement is one of which he may well be proud. His value to his city and this district is an established fact and we are happy to give him the credit which is his just due.

Sam Decheareo

To be a consistent and persistent booster of the home community very often takes courage and plenty of optimism. It is because of his unflinching faith in the future of San Angelo and the surrounding country and his untiring efforts to promote its development, that Sam Decheareo is selected now for this brief tribute.

Mr. Decheareo has proved very ably that he is a restaurant operator of unusual ability, for it is largely to his ideals of service, coupled with a determination to serve only the best of food that Sam's Chicken House holds its high position in the public's favor.

He is a man of keen business judgment whose ideas have been the inspiration of many who know him. His personality and energy in directing the operations of the business are important factors in his outstanding success.

We are glad to pay this well deserved tribute to Sam Decheareo and to point out to our readers that his is the guiding influence responsible for the splendid service and delicious food to be had at Sam's Chicken House in San Angelo.

Ralph E. Jordan

Performing an outstanding service for the people of San Angelo and the surrounding territory The West Texas Ice Company Inc., has achieved an enviable reputation for its progressive policies of business administration. Most of the credit for the success and popularity of this firm is largely due to executive ability and pleasing personality of Ralph E. Jordan.

Mr. Jordan is a man of ideas and he is as practical as he is aggressive in putting those ideas to the beneficial use in furthering the service he renders to the people. His sound business judgment and unwavering honesty are characteristics which place him in the front rank of the business leaders of San Angelo. Yet he is unassuming and modest in his personal contact with the people; always ready and willing to listen to their ideas and desires.

We are glad to pay tribute to citizens of this type for it is such men as Ralph Jordan who have caused San Angelo to become recognized as the metropolitan trading center for this section of Texas.

Glenn H. Simpson

Glenn H. Simpson of Simpson Used Cars, is one of those progressive used car dealers of San Angelo who has consistently forged ahead in his business. He has also put his shoulder to the wheels of civic progress whenever concerted help was needed in furthering enterprises promoted for the general welfare of the community.

Mr. Simpson was never a man given to wishful thinking. Because his methods are those of direct action and whether the problem at hand is one concerning his own business or that of a civic nature, he attacks it with optimism and vigorous enthusiasm. Add to this his acknowledged business ability and his keen sense of values and it is easily understood why he is almost invariably successful in business or other matters.

We feel that it is our duty to call the attention of our readers to these worthwhile characteristics of Glenn Simpson and to pay him a well-deserved tribute for his straightforward business methods and for the unselfish interests he has shown in public welfare.

E. D. Black

In making this review of progressive San Angelo business men, it is fitting that we should include some of those men who, by their aggressiveness, have definitely established themselves in the business and civic life of the city.

Such a man is E. D. Black, the manager in San Angelo of The Singer Sewing Machine Company, who also deserves an additional word of praise for being more than just successful. He is a consistent and enthusiastic booster of the home community, and in his way has done much to advertise the city.

Mr. Black has pursued the progressive policy of stepping up his business ahead of the times thus setting a pace for which he has earned the reputation of being a go-getter who does not sit back and wait for the business to come to him.

We are glad to pay tribute to E. D. Black and to point out to our readers that his sincere desire to be of service coupled with his aggressive methods are largely responsible for the standing of The Singer Sewing Machine Co., in the San Angelo area.

J. N. Gregory

San Angelo owes much to those progressive citizens who have taken an active part in the growth and progress of the city and who have helped to make it the business center for this part of the state, and who also have contributed, in some manner, to the exploration and development of the petroleum resources of the surrounding area. In mentioning some of these men it is only fair to include J. N. Gregory, well known and reliable geologist of this district. He deserves a great deal of credit for his success in both business and civic activities.

Mr. Gregory is wholly deserving of our sincere praise and these few words of commendation are but a just recognition for the many activities he has conducted on behalf of the general welfare of the community. The honest and successful conduct of his business affairs is but a reflection of his character. We trust that J. N. Gregory will continue to serve San Angelo and vicinity for many years.

H. G. Wendland and J. R. Salmon

In every community there are a number of business and professional men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Two well known business men of San Angelo who belong in this category are H. G. Wendland and J. R. Salmon of The Wendland Manufacturing Company.

Their leadership in their line of business is recognized throughout this entire district. Their furtherance of civic activities and support of those organizations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress is well known to their immediate associates.

Mr. Wendland and Mr. Salmon are men who are equally well liked and respected by their intimate friends, and their associates. They are loyal to the community, thankful for their success in business, and have shown their appreciation by their contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate J. R. Salmon and H. G. Wendland for being good citizens, progressive business men and boosters of their home community.

Lewis Tatum

Logically a man who has earned the reputation of being one of San Angelo's more progressive sporting goods dealers would in doing so have earned the friendship and good will of a great many people throughout this entire district. An a man who justly deserves that distinction is—modest, efficient, friendly Lewis Tatum of The Tatum Sporting Goods, who numbers many of our readers as some of his best customers.

Mr. Tatum is the type of man who would be an asset to any community, not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to his city lies in the fact that he is untiringly zealous and remarkably successful in the promotion of civic progress.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of men like this to their community. We congratulate the city of San Angelo for numbering among its more progressive citizens such a man as Lewis Tatum and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

Mrs. Victor Sefcik

Mrs. Victor Sefcik of The Needle Art Shop, now located at 410 Pulliam, has won the universal respect and good will of the people of San Angelo and the surrounding country for the progressive manner in which she has kept The needle art shop in the forefront of the business and civic life of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness she has displayed in accepting her share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

She is not the kind of person who makes herself conspicuous by the manner in which she conducts herself, either in business or other matters. Yet her quiet reserve and air of confidence marks her as a woman of sound judgment whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment Mrs. Sefcik for the successful management of The Needle Art Shop, also for her constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which she has found time to interest herself. She is a person whom many are proud to call friend.

John C. Head, Jr.

We take pleasure in this San Angelo review to call the attention of our people to one of the more progressive oil field men of this district. That personality is John C. Head Jr., of The Head Drilling Co., who is rendering a valuable service to the oil producers of the state.

The production of petroleum in this section has been one of the greatest single factors in the growth and progress of San Angelo and this district, and Mr. Head is a man who has taken an important part in many phases of oil field activities.

He is a resident of San Angelo and has a large circle of personal friends throughout this entire district. He is also a man who has considered his civic responsibilities in a serious manner and is always ready and willing to help in the promotion of any project which promises to benefit his city and this district.

We congratulate John C. Head Jr., for the part he is playing in the development of the petroleum resources in this part of the state and wish him many more years of successful operations.

Tom Anderson

It is a privilege in this San Angelo review of progressive men and firms that have been such a great aid to the growth and development of this section of the state, to place such a man as Tom Anderson of The San Angelo Typewriter & Supply Co., on an equal plane with all others in this rank. In the past, few men have exceeded him in contributing of their time and energy to the onward progress of San Angelo.

Mr. Anderson is generally recognized as one of the more progressive typewriter and office machine sales and service dealers in this district, and he still retains that distinction in the admiration and respect of his wide circle of friends. Also his interest in, and the very valuable assistance he has rendered to the many projects of a civic nature, reflects the principles which has always so successfully applied to his business affairs.

We congratulate Tom Anderson on his record, and sincerely hope that his career will be as useful and completely successful in the years ahead as it has been in the past.

A. W. Walls

San Angelo has attained a prominent position in the business and civic life of this section of the state because of the foresight of those men who had the ability to envision the possibilities of the community and the trade area it serves. And a wide awake progressive man who justly should be included in this category is A. W. Walls of The Concho Oil Co., distributors of Cosden Petroleum Products, in this area.

Such men have, many times over, proven their worth to the community, both as business men and as active workers in the civic betterment and progress of the city. Mr. Walls has earned the good will and respect of his fellow citizens for contributing his bit to the general welfare of the city and the people as a whole.

It is our duty to include A. W. Walls in that group of progressive and civic minded people who have done so much for San Angelo and to express the wish that he will continue for many years to forge ahead with the success which he has enjoyed in the past.

Fred Woods, Sr., and Jr.

When a city like San Angelo has gained recognition for being the trading center for many square miles of the surrounding country, it is because of the foresight of those men of earlier days who had the vision to realize the possibilities of their city and who also had the ability and courage to work for the fulfillment of that vision, and Fred Woods Sr., is a man who belongs in that category.

San Angelo owes much to those men of earlier days, but each succeeding generation must produce its share of business and civic leaders to assure the continued growth and prosperity of the city.

It is also the purpose of this review to call the attention of our readers to some of these present day leaders, and in this instance we particularly wish to point out and pay tribute to Fred Woods, Jr., who is associated with his father in the operation and management of Woods Sea Food and the recently opened Dolphin Grill.

Mr. Woods and his son are not alone in their efforts to increase the prestige of the city, but they are fine examples of the type of people whose combined efforts are responsible for San Angelo's past and future prosperity.

Earl C. Troop

Earl C. Troop, who just a short time ago, established the Troop Supply Company in San Angelo, quite readily demonstrated his executive ability by his quickness to appreciate the obligations and responsibilities of his new endeavor and to conduct his affairs accordingly.

Although he has been operating and managing The Troop Supply Company for a comparatively short time, he has already made many new friends and customers for his company.

Mr. Troop is an active, energetic man whose sincere and friendly personality and desire to be of service is rapidly earning a place for him in this district. He has already taken an interest in community activities, and in due course of time will assume his full share of civic responsibilities.

Earl Troop deserves a word of praise for having so quickly established himself in his new venture, and we are glad to give him this brief mention.

J. Paul Simpson

Successful business and professional men, as a rule, show their appreciation for their success by their often repeated demonstrations of civic pride. This is a fortunate fact. Otherwise a city would be lacking in that progressive element which advocates and develops various projects of a civic nature that are indicative of a progressive community.

J. Paul Simpson, one of the area's most reliable and completely responsible general contractors, is a man who has never failed to lend a hand when it comes his turn to help on some worthy project promoted for the general betterment of San Angelo and the adjacent territory.

The Bronte Enterprise

April 23, 1954

Mr. Simpson takes a genuine pleasure in this method of showing his appreciation for his success, and in so doing, recognizes his civic responsibility.

It is such men as Paul Simpson who become acknowledged leaders in both business and community activities, and we compliment him on having attained that position in his city.

Bill Huddleston

It is fitting in this review of progressive San Angelo business men that we acquaint our readers with the man to be credited with having maintained The Walker Auto Parts, in the enviable position it holds in the business and civic life of this area. That personality is Bill Huddleston, whose genius for organization and for converting new ideas into actual deeds has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which the company now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Huddleston has found time, in addition to his business interests, to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which Bill Huddleston and the Walker Auto Parts have rendered to the people of this entire area.

J. W. Staley

J. W. Staley has proved his progressiveness by constantly adding to and increasing the service which Staley's Service Station has extended to the people. The large volume of business handled by his Phillips 66 station proves that "Service," to him, is "not just a word," but something to be rendered to the motoring public to the fullest extent of his ability.

In addition to his close attention to his business affairs, Mr. Staley was never a man to dodge his civic responsibilities, and help in those matters has always been cheerfully given.

His new ultra-modern station, handling Phillips 66 Products also, will open the latter part of May, and will be located on East Harris and North Main. He is a credit to the community and is thoroughly established in the forefront of the business life of the city.

J. W. Staley has many friends in and around the city and it is a pleasure to bring him before our readers in this review of progressive San Angelo business men.

Tom W. Eason

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement the man we have in mind is one of San Angelo's more dependable monument dealers, Tom W. Eason of The San Angelo Marble & Granite Works, who has a wide circle of friends and business associates scattered throughout this entire district, many of whom reside in our own community.

His contagious optimism and freely expressed belief in the assured prosperity of the people of San Angelo and its metropolitan trading area are characteristics which are to be appreciated in a progressive business man. He has always taken an interest in community affairs and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is men like Mr. Eason who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs and their willingness to contribute to the public good, who are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief tribute.

Curtis Carter

The city of San Angelo has assumed its place of importance in this section of the state because of the efforts of farseeing business and professional men who have helped in developing its industry or in some manner, extended the trade advantages of the locality. One of the men who has taken an important part in many progressive movements is Curtis Carter of The Curtis Carter Real Estate.

Mr. Carter has devoted his share of time and energy to the growth and development of San Angelo and this district and it is fitting at this time that we attempt to express in a small way, our appreciation for his unselfish contributions to the general welfare of the community.

He is a man of wide acquaintance whose many friends admire and respect in him those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feeling. His upright business methods are but an outward reflection of his inherent appreciation for fair practices. We congratulate Curtis Carter on his splendid record of service and wish him continued success.

G. T. Trusler

To those progressive business men who have also taken a part in civic affairs we owe a debt of gratitude that we often find difficult to repay. However, we can so do in part by publicly acknowledging their many services and we take this opportunity to pay a brief tribute to G. T. Trusler of The Cactus Oil Company. In doing so we express the sentiment and feelings, not only of the community, but also those people who have been actively associated with him in business or civic affairs.

Mr. Trusler's time is almost wholly occupied by his own affairs. Yet there has never been an occasion when he has been called up by the people of San Angelo and vicinity to assist some civic project, that he has not responded and helped to the fullest extent of his ability to further that project. Thus he has frequently sacrificed his personal interests to promote some worthy cause.

Because of this, G. T. Trusler has proven himself to be a good and loyal citizen of whom his city and this district have every reason to feel justly proud.

Curry Ducote

Every progressive and successful business man in San Angelo contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And a man who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Curry Ducote of The De Coty Coffee Company, who is well known and has many friends and business associates throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that The De Coty Coffee Company, is playing in the business and civic life of San Angelo and vicinity mirrors the progressiveness and

Senator Johnson To Announce for Second Term

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson has written his friends at home that they may expect his formal announcement for reelection to his second term "within a few days."

Johnson's future intentions were first made known many months ago when he traveled thousands of miles and made scores of speeches reporting on his first terms' work as senator from Texas.

Since Congress is not expected to adjourn before Aug. 1, Johnson likely will be too busy as minority leader in the Senate to put on much of a personal campaign back home prior to the Democratic Primary July 24.

But if any kind of serious opposition develops, the senator's friends said he would probably step up the tempo of his radio reports and perhaps make some appearances in Texas.

Thus far Johnson has only one opponent. He is state Rep. Dudley Dougherty, 30, wealthy oil and cattle man of Beeville. Gov. Allan Shivers has eliminated himself as a possible opponent for Johnson by announcing he will be a candidate for reelection.

Finish Study of Dressmaking

An Advanced Dressmaking Workshop was completed March 30 by clothing leaders of the Home Demonstration Clubs of Coke County. Four afternoon meetings were held during this workshop.

The use of interfacing was a problem for the club members in the workshop. In dressmaking an interfacing is used to give body and a professional look to a garment. The extra fabric helps the garment to hold shape, prevents loosely woven material from stretching or sagging, and gives crispness to places like collar and cuffs.

The kind of interfacing fabric and where you use it depends on the fabric and design of the garment you are making. For instance in the nylons and washable man-made fibers, an interfacing should be used that is washable, quick drying and does not require ironing should the garment not require ironing.

When interfacing are used, be sure to check the fabric for shrinkage. If the fabric has not been pre-shrunk, shrink before cutting and press carefully. If the pattern does not include a separate piece for interfacing, use the pattern piece and cut on the same grain as the faced piece of the garment. Follow the guide sheet of the pattern for general instructions on the use of interfacing.

Leaders attending the workshop were Mrs. C. E. Arrott, Mrs. J. W. Labenske, Miss Gladys Waldrop, Mrs. Douglas Gartman, Mrs. Jack Allard, Mrs. Tom Rives, and Mrs. Cortez Harmon.

Mrs. Lillie England and daughter, Miss Willene England of Sikeston, Mo., spent the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Carlile. Mrs. Carlile and Mrs. England are sisters. They will leave for Sikeston Saturday morning where they are both teachers in the public schools. Other visitors in the Carlile home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Buford of Monahans, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henderson of Notres and Mrs. Vernon Lammers of Taft, near Corpus Christi.

This is the 1954 Chevrolet Bel Air 2-Door Sedan. With 3 series, Chevrolet offers a model to meet every individual and family need.

These facts about the New Chevrolet can help you make an important decision

Don't you agree that buying a new car calls for careful consideration? Regardless of make, it involves a substantial amount of money and a lot of future satisfaction. This information can give you a better idea of comparative value and help you decide which make to buy.

A good customer of ours was telling us the other day how he sizes up a new car. Because he's bought a number of them over the years, we were interested in what he had to say. We think you will be, too.

Actually, what he does is to ask about seven basic questions. The answers give a pretty complete picture of the car and its comparative value. Here's what he wants to know.

How well do I like its looks?

That's one question, of course, that only you can answer. You're the one who buys the car and you, above anybody else, should be proud of its appearance.

All we can tell you is that we hear a lot of nice things about Chevrolet's new styling. People seem to like the new front-end and rear-end designs, and the way the bumpers curve even farther around the fenders. They like the new styling touches all around the car and the wide choice of bright new colors and two-tone combinations. A good many tell us that Chevrolet has a decided edge over the other cars in its field for smooth and graceful lines.

Who makes the body?

This question takes in much more territory than the appearance of the car. It involves the quality of the interior as well as the strength and safety of the body construction. That's why we think it worth your consideration that Chevrolet has the only Body by Fisher in the low-price field.

You can see the difference outside and inside. We'd especially like you to look over the new interiors. Just sit in the car, if you will. Feel the quality of the fabrics and notice the more generous use of vinyl trim.

In all these ways, you'll find evidence of superior quality and workmanship. And after all, isn't that what you would expect in Body by Fisher? As you know, Fisher is the largest and most famous manufacturer of automobile bodies in the world. Doesn't it stand to reason that Fisher can build extra quality into the Chevrolet body? It's there and you can see it.

What's under the hood?

You hear a great deal of talk these days about engine power. The truth is that the number of horsepower isn't nearly as important as what the horsepower does for you.

In this year's Chevrolet, you get increased power in two finer engines. There's the "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide automatic transmission and optional on all models at extra cost. In gearshift models, you get the more powerful "Blue-Flame 115" engine.

But, actually, the increase in horsepower is only a sort of by-product of design changes made for other reasons. Chevrolet engineers were after greater engine efficiency, not just greater power. So, you get improved acceleration, with greater and safer passing ability. You get quieter, smoother operation. You climb the steep hills with new ease.

How hungry is it for gasoline?

A car's reputation for, and record of, economy of operation is certainly an important consideration to most people. We'd be glad to have you compare Chevrolet in this respect with any car at any price.

And, in the case of this new Chevrolet, you do not have to sacrifice economy for finer performance and more horsepower. That's because the Chevrolet engines are high-compression engines. Their compression ratio of 7.5 to 1 is the highest in any of the leading low-priced cars.

This means simply that the engine compresses, or squeezes, the fuel mixture to a greater degree in order to wring more work out of it. That's how Chevrolet is able to give you an important gain in performance along with money-saving gasoline mileage — and on regular gas, of course.

Is it up to date in features?

We can't think of a new feature or development you might want that you can't have on the new Chevrolet.

Now you can have Chevrolet's zippy and thrifty Powerglide automatic transmission on any model. You can have Power Steering on all models and at a new, lower price. You can have Automatic Window and Seat Controls on any Bel Air or "Two-Ten" model, and you can have Power Brakes on any model equipped with Powerglide. All are, of course, optional features at extra cost.

How popular a car is it?

When you come right down to it, there's no better way to judge the satisfaction a car gives its owners than by its popularity. How many people buy it and keep on buying it?

Well, as you may know, Chevrolet is by far the most popular car in this country. That's true today and it's been true for a good many years now. But it couldn't be true—or wouldn't be true—unless Chevrolet gave its owners an extra measure of satisfaction and value.

How much does it cost?

There's a short, sweet answer to that one: Chevrolet is priced below all other lines of cars. This lower cost is made possible by the greater production facilities and purchasing power of the world's largest manufacturer of automobiles. That is why Chevrolet can offer you all the advantages we've told you about here—and many more, too.

We'd be more than glad to have you see all these things for yourself and to try out this new Chevrolet on the road. We'll be happy to see you at any time.

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

March 29, 1954

Dear Mr. Oglesby:

I know you have many items to run in your paper, but I am a little incensed at Blondy Cross' statement in Sunday's paper about something I didn't say at all, but which he said and gave me credit.

If you have room I'd like for you to print the letter which I sent to Blondy. If you don't, it is just unfortunate that he made the remark which was not mine at all.

Sincerely yours,
B. C. Goodwin

Dear Blondy,

Let's keep the record straight! Who said what? In Sunday's paper you quoted me as saying that Robert Lee furnished the brains and Bronte furnished the brawn in the recent Interscholastic Meeting. Blondy, brush the cobwebs from your memory. You and I have heard that old saying for years when speaking of the literary events of a school compared to the athletic events.

I am sure it was all a matter of kidding but one Mr. Blondy Cross made that statement and gave B. C. Goodwin the credit for it.

Blondy, I appreciate your interest in our school's athletic events. Robert Lee has not had winning material for the last year or two. We haven't an alibi to offer. We try to win in every thing we enter.

The schools in our district are not entering the literary events. Our school didn't have competition in some entries. Our literary events don't have a "Blondy Cross" to popularize their winnings in literary events. Your Standard Times will give more publicity to a rape or murder case in Coke County than it would to the District Meeting of our schools in literary events.

I am asking that you make the correction mentioned above because J. L. Carroll is a high type gentleman and has a fine group of students in any event in which he enters. Elbert Yoes has been a high type Coach and conducted a splendid Field and Track Meet. There is no place in our school system for brawn only.

Sincerely yours,
B. C. Goodwin
(Editor's note: All is forgiven.)

Hello there, folks! You've made your choice at election time. So be the best of sports and stick by your men and do the very best by not criticizing anyone. (No person is without fault.) I know that they will do their best. We need a bigger and better Bronte and we can make it.

(Name withheld by request.)

Dear Sir:

In regards to the subscription of Sarah Jenkins, P. O. Box 834 Riverbank, Calif., she passed away February 14, 1954.

Would you please send the paper for as long as her subscription runs to her brother, Arthur Taylor, Mule Creek, New Mex.

Thank you,
Sarah Jenkin's daughter

BUSINESS REVIEW —

ability of such men as he. Furthermore, Mr. Ducote has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city, and the surrounding country, and, on many occasions, has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

San Angelo and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Curry Ducote in a position of responsibility and service and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying this brief tribute to one of the city's more progressive business men.

Wilbur L. Anderson

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of San Angelo, Wilbur L. Anderson of The Western Communications Service Co., performs a real service for the people of his city and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been achieved, in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service his company renders to the public. A policy which has and continues to build up good will for The Western Communications Service Co., throughout this entire district.

Mr. Anderson is deserving of praise and this small tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate Wilbur Anderson on his splendid record and trust he shall continue to serve the people of San Angelo and vicinity.

Alpha Fread

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public-spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. San Angelo has its share of these civic-minded people, and one who is deserving of recognition is friendly, likeable Alpha Fread of The Angelo Abstract Company.

Her business ability coupled with a sense of obligation to the public and a sincere desire to be of service have been major factors in maintaining The San Angelo Abstract Co., in a prominent position in the business life of the city. She has not only in her business activities, but also in her attention to civic duty, assumed in active part in community affairs.

Alpha Fread has always been ready and willing to contribute her time and energy to the promotion of any project promising to benefit the community as a whole. She has often sacrificed personal interests to be of assistance to the city, and her efforts are deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate Alpha Fread on her past successes, and predict that the future will bring her still greater success.
