Trustees Reach Agreement With Bonding Company to Clear Up New Grade School

Bronte School's board of trustees have reached a verbal agreement with all parties concerned in the construction of the new elementary school building. In a meeting Monday night with a representative of the Houston Fire and Casualty Insurance Co., which is representing Sanders Construction Co., a figure was reached as to the actual damage to the Bronte School as a result of delay in completing the job. The damage figure was set at approximately $1,840, which will be subtracted from the contract price.

Houston Fire and Casualty Insurance Co. is the bonding company for Sanders Construction Co., which had the contract to build the new school here.

Since the building was completed, Bronte School officials have been holding the final payment to Sanders until the school was relieved of all obligations to clear up debts incurred during construction. In the meeting Monday night the bonding company agreed to make a bond relieving the school of all liens and bills currently owed by Sanders Construction Co. or labor, materials, etc., used in the construction of the building.

According to Supt. Garland Black, no action has been taken before to clear up the matter because 90 legal days must be allowed for creditors to file claims with the school district or bonding company. The 90 days must be allowed from the date of acceptance of the new building, which was Feb. 10, 1956.

The school matter was started on July 10, 1954, when voters of the Bronte Independent School District voted 282 to 31 for a $250,000 bond issue to construct a new elementary school building here. The contract was awarded to Sanders Construction Co., and everybody was hopeful that the new building would be ready for use by the time the 1955-56 term opened last September. However, delays of various kinds made it advisable for the trustees not to accept the building until late in February.

AD-LIB-BEN

With the close of school approaching, it might be fitting for us to embark on a long tirade of platitudes to the seniors. Such is not the case, however, as we don't feel qualified to advise them to any extent. We would like to urge them to continue their learning. Perhaps the easiest immediate way to do this is to attend some college or university. If college is impossible, it can be done in many ways, and for as long as you keep your mind young and open as it is now.

It's quite a shock to a lot of guys when they learn they really don't have any talent to be an electrician.

Congratulations to the Bronte School Board of Trustees on finally getting the new grade school building cleared up. These men, who receive absolutely nothing but a lot of gripes and perhaps a kind word of thanks occasionally, have spent many hours of study and hard work ironing out the many difficulties which have accompanied the construction. Being on a school board during an improvement program must be trying, even when everything goes smoothly. But these fellows have run into much more than the usual problems. We know they must be relieved that it's about over, and we're happy for them. They have contributed a great deal to all of us.

G. D. Luckett Buys Interest in Station

G. D. Luckett this week bought the interest of Allen Bryan in the Texaco Service Station here. He and his son, Bill Luckett, will operate the station. Bill and Bryan have been running it.

The elder Mr. Luckett has been employed for the past 13 years at Bronte Ice Co. He said there will be no change in policy or service at the Texaco Station.

Bryan has accepted a drilling job on a rig which is operating at Silver. He and his family will continue to live here.

Mrs. Ernestine Powell has accepted a position at Bronte Ice Co.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hughes two days of this week were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baugh, of Stanton.

Coke County Dogs To Be Vaccinated

By County Agent Jack Waide

Dr. Williams, veterinarian from Colorado City, vaccinated 25 dogs at Silver this week. It represented just about all the dogs there that could be caught and it should be enough to give them some protection against rabies. There has been almost no response to the offer to get a veterinarian in Robert Lee and Bronte for a vaccination program. However, we have asked that one be available in Robert Lee Friday, May 18, from 9 to 12 a.m. He will be at the County Agent's Office.

He will be in Bronte on the same day, from 1 to 4 p.m. The place in Bronte has not been selected.

The program will be worthwhile in view of the fact that six known cases of rabies have been reported in Tom Green County, three in Irion County and four in Schleicher.

A new vaccine is being used this year which has given up to three years immunity in field tests. Government regulations require that only one year be claimed until further testing, but it has been much more effective than standard vaccine.

The price was $2.50 at Silver with 50c per head going to the Lions Club. Apparently the price is going to be standard over the state but veterinarians are willing to help local organizations where a program of mass vaccination is carried out.

23 Seniors to Receive Their Diplomas Next Tuesday Night

First of the graduation exercises is to begin Sunday morning in the Bronte school auditorium.

Baccalaureate services are scheduled to start Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Services this year will be unique in that members of the graduating class will be in charge of the entire program.

Miss Faith Rogers will play the Grand March and Leslie Dean

Caperton will give the Invocation. Congregational singing will be led by Don Glenn. Johnny Smith will deliver the address on "The Power of Choice." In closing, Billy Alexander will give the benediction.

Monday night, May 21, is the date set for the Bronte Elementary School exercises. They will also be held in the school auditorium at 8 p.m.

The grade school commencement address will be delivered by the Rev. Douglas Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church, on "Life Is What You Make It."

Linda Henry will give the valedictory address, winning the title with a 94.5 average. The salutatory address will be given by Danel Dixon, who had an average of 93.41. Mrs. Grady Baker will be soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Phillips, who will also furnish music for the program.

Awards will be presented by Supt. Garland Black and Grady Baker, grade school principal, will present the diplomas.

High school commencement exercises will be Tuesday night, May 22, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. The Rev. W. C. Craig will give the invocation. Linda Lasswell will deliver the valedictory address. She was named valedictorian of the class when it was determined that her grade average was 95.6. Corine Feil will deliver the salutatory. She had a grade average of 95.06. Speaker for the evening will be Otho Polk, who is chairman of health and recreation at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

Awards of scholarships and honors will be presented by Supt. Garland Black. Osmo Black, president of the school board, will present the diplomas. Presentation of the class will be by Joe B. Simpson, high school principal. Benediction will be brought by the Rev. R. W. Blackmon, pastor of the Kickapoo Baptist Church. Mrs. R. W. Middleton will be pianist for the Grand March and the recessional.

COURT HOUSE TO GET FINAL INSPECTION

Thursday of this week has been set as a date for county officials to make a final check of the new court house. The contractor and architect are expected to be on hand to look over every detail of the building.

Only a few minor finishing touches remain and it is likely the building will be accepted, with certain small reservations.

If the work is approved new equipment will be installed next week and officials will be moved out of the old building as soon as possible.

Contract for the new court house was let Feb. 2, 1955, on a low bid of $270,818 submitted by Suggs Construction Co. of Big Spring. Work started two weeks later and the project was expected to have been completed within a year. However, delays in delivery of material, first steel and later marble trim, have slowed down the progress.

MURALS IN PLACE

A set of eight murals painted by Mrs. B. D. Dunn of Tennyson were placed in the corridors last week. They depict familiar landmarks in the county and early day scenes.

Mrs. Dunn brought her bill to

Blackwell Graduation Program Set for Next Thursday Night

Senior activities in the Blackwell School have been set for Sunday and Thursday of next week. Baccalaureate services will be at 8 p.m. Sunday, and commencement exercises will be Thursday at 8 p.m. Both exercises will be in the high school auditorium.

The Blackwell Senior Class this year has 14 members. They are Juanita Chew, Pat Roland, Gale Lewallen, Wanda Nell Cook, Estha Lee, Georgianna Stevens, Billie Nell McRorey, Cecil Self,

HOME FROM JAPAN

S/Sgt. James D. Sanker returned to Bronte last week on a 30-day leave from Negoya, Japan, where he has been stationed with the U. S. Army the past six months. Mrs. Sanker and little daughter, who have been staying in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Alexander, will accompany him back to Japan. Other visitors in the Alexander home over the weekend were their daughter, Mrs. Dick Webster, and family of Ozona, Doris and J. L. Alexander of San Angelo.

James Byrd, Lowell Corley, Jimmy Dan Hipp, Thelbert Henson, Boyce Eldson, and Donald Moore.

Rev. Guy Caskey will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

Ira Galloway, former Coleman County judge, will deliver the commencement address. The salutatory will be given by Patsy Roland, and the valedictory will be given by Wanda Nell Cook.

Eighth grade certificates will be presented to grade school graduates at the commencement exercises by Supt. George Stoepler. Lewis Sweet, president of the school board, will present diplomas to the seniors.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

A vacation Bible school will begin at the Kickapoo Baptist Church May 28. The Rev. R. W. Blackmon, pastor of the church, said classes will be at 10 a.m. each day through June 1. Minimum age for children to attend is four years.

Registration will take place Saturday, May 26, at 10 a.m., following a parade through downtown Bronte.

what's what by whatley

Graduation is certainly in the air. I think that I am ready for a rest, as well as the school kids. But when you have to have read-in', writin' and rithmetic every night, it soon gets old. I much prefer to watch television. It seems that at this time of the year, baseball, picnics and swimming parties are more important to the younger set, than most anything, especially school.

I'll have to let you in on a cute letter I received last week from Rev. J. E. Fuller, our former pastor here. He had read about my hat episode and writing to assure me that I will do more silly things in my life as the years creep upon me. He says, even in his 70 odd years that not one time has he ever worn his pants nor his hat backward.

I am still getting some interesting information about Germany from the daughter who recently went over for a three-year period. Something that I think you will enjoy—she says:

"I must tell you about our weekend. We just started driving and had a wonderful trip. We saw millions of vineyards, and I never saw so many blooming apple trees in my life. It was simply gorgeous—everywhere you looked were fields and fields of white blossoms. First we went to Bad Homberg which is a resort place with baths and such, and they have a very famous place called the Casino where there is gambling. It is older than Monte Carlo and was established by the same men. Incidentally, this is where roulette originated. Germany does not have mass legalized gambling, in fact, it is legal in only certain establishments—not even whole towns:

"We just kept driving toward the sun in order to hit the Rhine River—we had no map. Finally we did, after seeing some really beautiful sights. We saw men working in the fields—you see very few tractors—and they were using the biggest cows I've almost even seen to pull their tools. We thought they were oxen at first.

"I wish you could see this scenery as it's the prettiest I've ever seen. Everything is so neat and clean and beautifully green right now. One thing that makes it look so neat is that they have no fences except around their houses, so you never see any broken down fences that are inevitable in the States. Also, you never see any piles of trash or falling down shacks."

If you are a popular housewife these days, you must know how to make several different kinds of dips. I have had this super one given me and what a snap to make. It is called:

Deviled Dip

One 5-oz. glass pimento cheese spread.

One 2 1/4 oz. can deviled ham.

1/2 cup salad dressing.

2 tablespoons parsley (optional)

1 tablespoon minced onion.

4 drops of tabasco sauce.

Dash of Accent (also optional).

Blend with mixer and serve with Fritos or potato chips.

MRS. WILLIAM FLETCHER

Mrs. Fletcher Elected Junior Club President

The Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church was the scene for a candlelight installation service for members of the Junior Study Club Tuesday night, May 15. The newly installed officers are: president, Mrs. William Fletcher; vice president, Mrs. Bobby Vaughn; secretary, Mrs. Nile Bryant; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Rucker; reporter, Mrs. Bill Luckett; and scrap book chairman, Mrs. Ralph Dunklin.

Outgoing officers were in charge of installing new ones to their respective offices. Organ music was furnished for the service and tea hour by Mrs. R. W. Middleton.

Color scheme for the evening was silver and green. The tea table was laid with a cut work cloth from Japan over green. White daisies and green carnations flecked with silver made the centerpiece.

Serving punch was Mrs. Allen Bryan.

Guests for the evening were Mmes. Newt Bryant of Knox City, Bill Clark, Grady Baker, Claude Word, Roy Robinson, Douglas Brown, W. C. Craig, Charles Oliphant, Royce Fancher, Clyde and Royce Lee, LeDrew, Wayne and J. B. Arrott and Bob Wilson.

Members present were: Mmes. F. R. and E. G. Collins, Bobby Vaughn, Brady Mills, Bill Luckett, Bryan, Oscar Dorsey, Nile Bryant, Harry Rucker, Ralph Dunklin and William Fletcher.

Mrs. Roberts Honored With Party at Lake

A group of Mrs. R. T. Roberts' children met at the "Friendly Keys" cabin on Oak Creek Lake for a picnic Saturday. The high wind limited the activities to games of 42, but a little fishing was possible Saturday afternoon.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Collin Jones and Dorothy and Mrs. Harry Keller of Stephenville, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones and Teresa of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts and Terri of Austin, Don Roberts of Lubbock, Mrs. W. N. Roberts, Mrs. R. T. Roberts, David, Richard and Margaret Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roberts of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Springer of Bronte. Part of the group also spent Saturday night and Sunday at the lake.

Mrs. R. E. Cumbie Is Club Hostess

"Lakes" was the theme of the Progressive Club at its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. E. Cumbie.

For roll call, each member named a lake that they have visited. Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham talked to the group on "Interesting Lakes in the United States" and Mrs. L. E. Smith told the group about "Man-Made Lakes in the U. S."

Sherbet and angel cake were served to two guests, Mrs. C. C. Glenn and Mrs. H. O. Whitt, and the following members: Mmes. Edna Butler, Joe Carter, W. C. Duncan, Claude Gentry, W. J. Gideon, Mattie Glenn, Higginbotham, Charles Keeney, J. D. Leonard, Smith, O. H. Willoughby, L. T. Youngblood and the hostess.

Mrs. Cecil Kinney left Thursday for a weekend visit in Comanche, Okla., to see her father, Dr. C. J. Simmons. She will meet there with her sister from California, who will return to Bronte with her the first of next week.

Mrs. Sims Hostess To Art-Craft Club

Mrs. T. F. Sims, Sr., was hostess to the Art-Craft Club at her home on May 9. The meeting opened with the club prayer in unison and Mrs. Sims gave the opening exercise "Three Rules of Happiness."

The roll call was answered with a good recipe.

Mrs. Leonard Keeney presided during the business session. Mrs. Mae McQueen was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Charlie Keeney, chairman of the yearbook committee, gave a report on the yearbooks and several programs were suggested for next year. It was decided that the meeting time would be changed from 2:30 until 3:30.

Mrs. Ben Reeves gave the program on "Weaving." Mrs. Sam Gray had charge of the recreation program, conducting a bingo game. Pot plant prizes went to Mmes. Reeves, Taylor Emerson, Rob Herron and McQueen.

A set of hand woven mats was

Farmers Find Gardening Is A Cash Crop

By JACK WAIDE
County Agent

Dust storms don't generally make one think of gardening, but planting time is just about here. There are a few people who make a nice profit from their gardens. Aubrey Denman and Oscar Kresta are typical examples of this type of gardening. Both have a water supply that is strong enough to justify their efforts. A good many others practically feed themselves throughout the year on vegetables raised during the spring and summer.

Bob White, who lives at Blackwell, and M. A. Cox of Robert Lee are just two who raise very fine gardens each year. Both families freeze the surplus vegetables and eat from their gardens 12 months out of the year. I counted 17 different vegetables in the White garden one day last year.

It was undeniable proof that gardens could be raised even in a drought. I doubt that there is a more productive piece of land in the county than the White garden. We have a very complete bulletin on gardening which might be helpful to some of you.

The terrific drop in egg prices has put many of our poultry raisers on a break even basis again. I wonder how many of you have ever figured the cost of your eggs on a weight basis? A dozen large eggs must weigh 24 ounces. Since the smallest egg must weigh two ounces, you seldom find a dozen of less than 26 oz. at 45 cents a dozen you probably are paying only 28 cents per pound for eggs. Consider the waste involved in most other food and you can readily see what a good buy they are.

COUNTY HD COUNCIL

The Coke County Home Demonstration Council met in its regular meeting in the Agent's office on May 8. Four clubs were represented with nine members present, one child and the agent, Mrs. Fae Roe.

Mrs. E. C. McArthur called the roll and read the minutes which were approved. Committee reports were given by EEE and 4-H. Club presidents gave a report on club activities. The County-wide bake sale set for May 12 was postponed until a later date. Mrs. Roe gave her monthly report. The meeting adjourned early. — Mrs. G. Waldrop, council reporter.

SCHOOL NOTES

In the school board meeting Monday night Roy Baker was hired as bus driver on the Tennyson route. He will replace Albert Davis, who has resigned.

Much needed band uniforms were approved to be delivered in the fall out of next year's budget. Fifteen suits were bought to match 22 others which are in fair shape. The new suits cost $59 each. By buying this number, the school will receive a 4 per cent discount.

Osmo Black was re-elected president of the board; T. F. Sims, Jr. will be vice president; and Edward Cumbie was named secretary.

School will be in regular session Monday and Tuesday for all grade and high school students, with the exception of the seniors and eighth grade graduating class. They will be practicing for their exercises and will be dismissed from Tuesday classes.

Regular annual assembly will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday in the school auditorium. At that time awards and honors will be presented to the students. At the close of this assembly, all students will go to their respective rooms and receive their report cards. Immediate following the giving out

CANDIDATES TO PAY COSTS OF ELECTIONS

Estimated cost of $1,600 for holding the July 28 primary election in Coke County has been assessed against candidates by the County Democratic Executive Committee. The committee, presided over by Chairman R. B. Allen of Silver, held its session in Robert Lee Monday afternoon.

The sum to be raised will also cover expenses of a runoff in August.

Since county officials are now elected for 4-year terms and only half of them are running this year, the assessment is greater than in the past.

The committee decided that candidates who are unopposed shall pay 7% of one year's salary to the election expense fund. Sheriff Paul Good was hardest hit with $394.80, being 7% of his yearly salary of $5,640.

County Clerk Chilly Tinkler, who is running to fill a vacancy and will get a 2-year term this time, thus had his assessment cut in half to 3½%. He will contribute $189, based on a salary of $5,400.

County Attorney Frank Dickey, Jr., is also in the 7% category and must contribute $210 on his salary of $3,000.

Candidates who have opponents were assessed 4% of one year's salary. That means $120 for each of the four candidates for commissioner, as their yearly salary is $3,000.

Ollie Roe of Robert Lee and Fewell Sims of Bronte, unopposed candidates for constable, were assessed $36 each. They get $900 a year and their assessment was lowered to 4%.

Candidates for district offices will also help pay the cost of holding the primary elections, but their assessments aren't so heavy since they must pay in other counties, too.

Each candidate has been notified of the amount of his assessment and is also advised that payment must be made on or before Saturday, May 19, in order to get his name printed on the ballot.

Justices of the Peace hold over this year, along with the county judge, treasurer and commissioners in Precincts 2 and 4.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Sunday services at the Bronte Church of Christ will begin one hour earlier than usual, in order for members to attend the baccalaureate services. Bible study begins at 9 o'clock and morning worship will start at 9:50 o'clock.

BROILED DINNERS

Has your broiler been standing idle? If so, is it because you aren't sure how to use it, or because it's too hard to clean. That broiler can be one of your best kitchen helpers. You will like it for cooking whole meals as well as just for meats. You will find it's a time saver and what's more, only one pan to wash! These are some of the questions asked by Mrs. Fay Roe as she demonstrates Broiling to the HD Clubs.

In these demonstrations she broils a complete meal including

The Bronte Enterprise

May 18, 1956

steak, green beans, corn, tomatoes and canned peach halves. The vegetables are put in the broiler pan and are seasoned by the drippings from the meat.

Remember these pointers in Broiling:

1. Broil at a moderate temperature.
2. Time required to broil steaks depends upon thickness of cut and exposed area, degree of doneness and broiling temperature.
3. Choose cuts of beef and lamb recommended for broiling. Poultry can be broiled as well as cured ham, bacon and sausage.

4. Broil meat two to five inches from source of heat depending on thickness and degree of doneness.
5. Season when placed on platter or season each side as you turn meat.
6. To clean broiler let it soak in soap suds while you eat.

KICKAPOO BAPTIST CHURCH

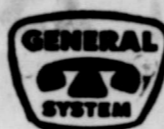

There will be no morning church service at the Kickapoo Baptist Church Sunday. Services will be dismissed for the baccalaureate services at the school. Sermon subject for Sunday night will be "Heaven." Sunday school will be held as usual Sunday morning.

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which owners learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."

for frames and glass. Mrs. Dunn's claim was paid in full.

Commissioners voted to purchase a block of $30,000 of the last maturing series of the recently voted $130,000 county park bonds.
Funds for the purchase will be taken from the Permanent Improvement Fund, and the county will save $900 annually by this move.

Spending the weekend in Breckenridge were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson and children. They visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T.
Reed and met other members of her family there.

Out of town visitors in the Ben-Oglesby home Friday night and Saturday were Mr. and Mrs.
Wayne Kittley, Sharon, Wynn and Jeanna of Kerens, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dufrain and Sonny of Eden.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McCutchen were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fields of San Angelo and the Buddy Kirkland family of Bronte.

History of the 1956 Senior Class

One bright and early morning on Sept. 4, 1944, the Bronte School underwent a drastic change. Beginning the trek through school were 49 of mother's little darlings.

They were as follows: Bill Alexander, Jimmy Coppedge, Jimmy Allison, Grady Coulter, Leslie Caperton, Bobby Cole, Benjamin Reyes, Eugene Gentry, Don Glenn, Leon Horton, Monte Lee, James Luttrell, Edward Murphy, Tommy McCarty, Simon Ortez, Kenneth Reed, Johnny Smith, Carnell Thomas, Bobby Webb, Billy Chas. Wrinkle, Wilburn Wrinkle, Gilbert Hernandez, Phillip Samoniego, Beverly Browning, Lois Brock, Bonnie Jo Ensor, Pearl Horn, Irene Haselden, Rozann Hendrix, Dorothy Jones, Mary Jane Powell, Mary Linda Lasswell, Patsy Pittman, Ortensia Puentez, Nancy Powers, Betty Rose, Rickie Dell Hester, Wanda Bell Snead, Elizabeth Smith, Wanda Tomlinson, Carol Lynn Thomason, Wanda Sue Walker, Vera Ann Baldwin, Peggy Ann Rosser, Mary Minjares, Laura Fay Wright and Daniel Gutierrez.

After nine long months of struggle Miss Nell finally taught them enough to advance to the second grade where Mrs. Gassiot tried her hand at the task of teaching these 37 little angels. There were 16 members who did not survive the first year.

Mrs. Gassiot loved these little angels so much that she accompanied us on to the third grade, where we had 42 members.

That year five pupils dropped out and we picked up eight new members: Noel Dean Scott, Ronald Denton, Wendell Jameson, Kenneth Palmer, David Light, Elizabeth Smith, Barbara House and Barbara Miller.

We invaded the class room of Mrs. George Anderson for the fourth grade, where our number dropped from 42 to 32. Two new additions were Flora Brown and Bub Gentry.

After our long study in the fourth grade, we plunged on to the fifth with 34 brains, where we encountered Mrs. J. L. Carroll. We picked up eight new members: Jo Frances Box, Freddy Brown, Earl Caulder, Wandeen Roder, Bonnie Ensor, Sonja Nichols, Janice Howell and Elizabeth Harrell.

Due to our extreme brightness we were chosen to launch Mr. Vershel Smith on his teaching career during our sixth year of school. There were 34 members of the class that year.

Since there were so many things necessary for Mr. Smith to learn and we were such able bodied students, we gave him a second year of instruction in the seventh grade. We started that year with 34 students and inherited Billy Morris, Neely McCarty, Billy Reeves, Paul Clark, Joe Baxter and Billie Ray.

Leaving Mr. Smith a well seasoned teacher, we entered the class of the honorable Mr. H. A. Jolley, a man whom we shall never forget because he seemed to express himself so well with a board. There were 31 renegades in the eighth grade that year. New additions were Reams Cox and Sue Robertson.

After eight long years of struggle we finally succeeded in entering high school. It was the day all of us looked forward to. We were ready to give grade school teachers a rest and ready to give high school teachers a hard time. Mrs. Carroll was again our sponsor but we did not give her all our attention. We made it to high school with 33 members by gaining nine: Archie Thomas, Jimmy Eubanks, Jo Nell Mayhugh, Bernice Vinson, Faith Rogers, Joyce Faries, Janice Graham, Betty Sue Woods, John Gabriel.

We made another year and brought our sponsor, Mrs. Carroll, with us. We gave Mr. Daniel such a hard time that he went to visit his Uncle Sam and Mr. Flores took over the task of teaching us English. The class had 28 members and we added Miss Jo Rowland to our class.

When we entered the junior class we acquired two sponsors, Miss Germany and Mrs. Henry. We were given two sponsors because our class was so wild that no one person was physically capable of keeping us in order.

We did not lose a member of our class, but we did gain one character, Milford Phillips.

The year looked bright as 23 of us entered the senior class. We entered the last year of school with a wonderful sponsor, Mr. Flores. Of the original 49, there are only 13 members who survived the long trip through school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

The 1955-56 Graduating Class of Bronte High School, being of sound mind and body, has prepared this document as its last will and testament, and does hereby appoint Barbara Miller as executor of same. We request that she carefully execute these instructions and make certain that each bequest is granted to the proper recipient, without regard for his personal safety and without self-reward. Our most prized possessions have been stored in the treasure chest of our minds, and we do hereby relinquish the keys to our treasures.

1. Bill Alexander wills his curly locks to Gene Walker along with his ability to go steady.
2. Ola Sue Brown wills her talent to sing "The Great Tornado" while playing the mandolin to Susie "Slugger" Kemp.
3. Flora Mae Brown wills her ability to secure a weekday boy friend plus a weekend boy friend to Betty Taylor with hopes that she can keep it a secret.
4. Leslie Dean Caperton wills his ability to win and influence teachers by the Brownie method to Jimmy Lee. Here's hoping that this method will prove to be more successful, and next year Leslie Dean, you will become a member of the Bronte School Board.
5. Corine Feil wills her loud and boisterous mannerisms along with her flashing diamond to Jimmy Brunson so that he can use them in order to scare the teachers into giving him good grades as Corine does.
6. Pinky Gentry wills his loving, agreeable disposition and his Boy Scout records, honors, and numerous medals to Richard Rees.
7. Don Glenn wills his con hunting equipment and his one and only, Jeanette, to Joe Don Wilkins who we are sure will be well pleased by this thoughtful gift.
8. Rickie Dell Hester wills her height and her red hair with the ability to love 'em and leave 'em to Jo Ann Gentry.
9. Linda Lasswell wills her Bexel Blood Building Vitamin Pills and her future married life to Big'un Hughes.
10. Martin Lee wills his attraction for the ladies, his hypnotic powers, and all of his deep, dark, lonely parking places to Clifford Hageman. Also, along with these prized possessions, he would like to leave a box of Toni Home Permanent.
11. James David Luttrell, our beloved Tex, wills his boots and saddle to James Andrews along with his hearty Texas giggle.

12. Milford Phillips wills his position on the football team as manager to Joe Rameriz, hoping that he will receive the honorable title, "All District Manager."

13. Patsy Pittman wills her talent for writing love letters along with her secret ability to secure a different "steady" date each night to Grady Coulter.

14. Faith Rogers wills to Joy Wilkins her ability to make "38" on her English mid-semester exam. She would also like to leave her innocent blush to Mr. Flores, who provoked it so often.

15. Sweet Pea Rowland wills her studious, intelligent, cultural, industrious attitude toward school and her perfect attendance record to Bobby Hester with hopes that he continues to keep her standards high and her title of "meat-head."

16. Noel Dean Scott wills his Spider Legs along with the title of "Daddy-O" to Chili Wrinkle.

17. Johnny Smith wills his jump shot and his female harem to Buck Eubanks.

18. Joe Baxter wills his outstanding athletic record to Troyce Allen along with his success in capturing a lassie.

19. Bill Tounget wills his ability to probe deeper into his scientific belief that people originated from fish, along with his answer to every other known question, to Morgan Russell.

20. Patricia Tounget wills her hustle, her basketball suit, and her ability to bring the ball in to Patsy Brock.

21. Bobby Webb wills his ability to break hearts along with his battle weapons such as many class rings and changeable football jackets to Bobby Brock. He would also like to leave all of his Norton fans.

22. Barbara Miller wills, though with much heartache and sorrow, her true love that has lasted throughout her long high school days to the lucky Sösie Kemp.

23. Scooter Snead wills her blonde-haired admirers to Jo Ann Gentry with the hope that she won't treat them so coldly.

24. Jane Powell wills her letters from SAC, her short hair, and her tiny feet to Patsy Brock.

25. To our loyal and patient teachers, the Senior Class wills our perfect attendance records, good grades, attentive attitudes, promptly completed homework, and studious minds.

26. To our beloved sponsor, Mr. Vetal Flores, we want to leave all of our many orderly class meetings by which he may remember us in the years to come.

27. The Senior Class wills to the Juniors all of our much used lockers in hope that they will continue to keep them as neat and clean as we have done.

28. To our dear Freshmen, the future Seniors of 1959, we hope, we will our textbooks which will be carefully kept on ice until they attain this high honor.

29. Our homeroom we leave to all the future generations who have to use this crummy, but wonderful building.

30. To our Sophomore Class we leave our ability to earn and hold fast to money for which they will have many occasions to use.

The last treasure we have stored away is a million thanks to our parents and our community of friends who made our education possible. We graduates have known only a few people who did not have an opportunity to attend high school, but we have come to realize how empty our lives would be without this training and experience. We promise to continue learning and to carry on the educational program of any school district in which we may live. We can repay you only through like service. Tonight we extend you our thanks and a promise to live up to your example.

Prophecy Shows Interesting Future

While riding the rails I chanced to pass through the metropolis of Bronte. As it held many fond memories of my high school days, I tiptoed out of the cattle car and bade goodbye to my traveling companions.

At first I could hardly recognize the place. Slowly I wandered down the wide street. Nothing seemed familiar to me until I saw the rustic old building which housed Pruitt's Store. As usual several old men were sitting on the stone benches. But there seemed to be one individualist in the crowd. Sitting alone, leaning on his carved cane, was a conspicuous old man who looked rather like someone I had once known. As I drew near I heard the man muttering something. Memories rushed back as the mutterings became distinct. "When Aprille with his soures root, And the drouth of March had pierced to the roote." It was my old English teacher, Vetal Flores, whom I had not seen for at least 25 years. I sat down by the old gentleman. He turned to me with a glimmer of recognition. "Why, if it isn't my favorite renegade, Don Glenn. After inquiring of his health, I began to try to construct the lives of my classmates. I shall now try to give you a short review of their positions in life.

First I learned of my old buddy, Martin Lee. It seems as if Martin has been making the headlines, lately. Having traded Houston to Mexico in exchange for Villa Acuna, Martin had been placed in Alcatraz. With only 75 years left on his sentence Martin made a dramatic escape. Police are still searching for him and arrangements are being made with the Mexican government to search the interior where it is suspected he is hiding.

Mr. Flores had pointed out the former Patsy Pittman to me. She is now a prominent matron in Bronte society. She is married and has a houseful of children. In fact, she is the only person ever to have a child in every room of school at the same time. The PTA is making her president as a special bonus for this achievement.

I noticed that the business at Pruitt's had fallen off considerably and soon learned the reason why. Ola Sue Brown is operating a giant supermarket on the tremendous new freeway built between Bronte and Tennyson. Speaking of Tennyson, Billy Tounget is a Forest Ranger in Tennyson Canyon which has now been developed into a state park and is equaled by none. This brings to my mind Scooter Snead. Scooter is now raising Chihuahua dogs. She is a world famous breeder of these little animals. Scooter ships her dogs all over the world and shows them at all the local dog shows where she has taken many honors.

Corine Fiel is taking many honors these days. Corine is at the height of her career as a fan dancer and is the main attraction at "Pinky's Purple Palace." Have I told you about Pinky Gentry? He holds services in the prosperous town of Orient each Sunday. Why is it prosperous? Because he runs his saloon "Pinky's Purple Palace" on the week days.

Faith Rogers is another who has been making the headlines lately. It seems that she has just defeated Tiny Door to become the world champion Lady Wrestler. The next person I learned of was Johnny Smith. He is now a famous TV personality, known as the "Faith Healer." He got his start in this profession when he healed Oran

Roberts of laryngitis.

Bobby Webb, "the friendly undertaker" is enjoying a profitable business. He specializes in picking up the remains of hot rodders. When I asked about Leslie Caperton, I learned that he had browned his way through Simmons in two years and is now selling Fords in Bronte. It has been rumored that his family has disowned him. He has named his Ford agency the "Gar O Car." By the way I was lucky enough to see Leslie. He was entering the tailor shop with three Bronte jackets over his arm. I thought at first they might belong to one of his children but then I saw 1953 on the sleeve of one and recognized his first football jacket. He is still taking excellent care of them and people say that he married Wanda to keep her from wearing out his favorite jacket.

In the society news I learned of the former Flora Brown. Flora is planning her fourth marriage. It seems that she has always had a hard time making up her mind.

I am sorry to say that there is quite a tragedy involved with Linda Lasswell. It seems that, after spending years making arrangements for her wedding, she was stood up at the altar. She and her guests waited for three hours at the church for the bridegroom. She suffered quite a shock and has never quite recovered. Linda is retired in a dugout in the Kickapoo Mountains living her lonely life as a hermit.

James Luttrell has just won the Indianapolis Speed Bowl for the 20th time. He discovered his racing talent in his 1953 Ford when he was in BHS running a taxi service.

Sweet Pea, Miss Claudette, as she is fondly called by her classmates, has just reached her life's ambition. Next semester she will graduate from Vassar and will take a position with the English Dept. at BHS. Mr. Flores, after showing her the ropes will retire to his dude ranch at Bandera.

Across the street from me there was a large beauty salon which I learned was run by Dean Scott. Peroxided hair is a specialty, although he has only one customer who really appreciates his ability for this. Next to his shop I noticed a large business school. It has a sign reading "The Private Business School," owned and operated by Jane Powell, assisted by Sybil Henry.

Rickie Hester finally finished paying for her Mercury and now is paying on a husband. She has been engaged several times but couldn't find one to suit her, so she just gave up and ordered one.

Miss Miller is now the beloved dean of a famous school, The Baraday Finishing School, where she puts the touches of sophistication on the little tomboys. Here they learn to walk correctly, talk correctly, and are made followers of etiquette.

Milliford Phillips, co-owner of Phillips-Rose construction company, has just announced that he will expand his 100 million dollar business.

Now I will tell you about our last classmate, Joe Baxter. He is now head coach for the Los Angeles Rams and, although they never won a game during the last three seasons, he is hoping for a better season next year.

Well, it seems that most of my classmates have made good. I am happy to see that they are doing so well. As for me, well, my coach is waiting on a side rail at the depot. I sure hope those Herefords are more sociable than the Brahmins I rode down here with.
