SAN ANGELO COLLEGE LEADER—Rita Beth McCutchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. McCutchen, has served as head cheerleader at San Angelo College during this fall. She recently had another honor awarded her when she was elected football sweetheart of the San Angelo College Rams. Active in her college work, Rita Beth is a sophomore student this year. AD-LIB-BEN

"An election is essentially a people's contest; it is a struggle for maintaining in the world that form and substance of government whose leading object is to elevate the condition of men; to lift artificial weights from all shoulders; to clear the paths for laudable pursuit for all; to afford all an unfettered start and a fair chance in the race of life."

We think the above quotation is something to think about in view of the fact that our highest governmental officials will be selected next Tuesday for another four years. It's good, even though it was said by a Republican. It was said by Abraham Lincoln.

You may have read the information given below but we wanted to print it anyway. It shows just how important one vote can be—maybe yours.

Thomas Jefferson was elected President by one vote in the electoral college.

So was John Quincy Adams. Rutherford B. Hayes was elected President by one vote. His election was contested and it was referred to an electoral commission. Again he won by a single vote.

The man who cast the deciding vote for President Hayes was a Congressman from Indiana, a lawyer who was elected to Congress by a margin of one vote. And that one vote was cast by a client of his who, though desperately ill, insisted on being taken to the polls to vote.

Just one vote gave statehood to California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas

Work on Park Getting Along

Much progress has been made the past couple of weeks on construction of facilities for the new county park at Bronte. Tile walls are up on all the buildings connected with the project, and concrete for the swimming pool has been poured.

The ravine winding through the park leading from the old city lake to the creek has been rocked and concreted and has a couple of feet of water standing in it.

Three buildings are under construction. They include bath houses and rest rooms on the south side of the pool, filter plant, which is located east of the pool, and the caretakers house, which is being built near the entrance to the park. All the buildings are being constructed of tile and concrete.

Much work remains to be done but a large crew is on the job now.

Bronte to Play Santa Anna

The Bronte Longhorns will travel to Santa Anna tomorrow (Saturday) night to take on the Mountaineers of Santa Anna in a non-conference tilt. The Class A team should prove to be a shade rough for the outclassed Longhorns of District 6-B. A large crowd is expected to follow the local boys to Santa Anna. Game time will be at 7:30.

Last week saw all but two of the teams in action. In the only district game, the Trent Gorillas

The success of the carnival was due only to the cooperation of the wonderful people of Bronte. Thanks to all."

Boy Scout Drive Has Netted $464

The annual Boy Scout fund drive in Bronte had netted $464.25 up to Wednesday afternoon, according to Cecil Kemp, who is in charge of taking up the money from workers.

Kemp said he has deposited $416.25 and has $48 on hand. He urged all workers to get their cards and money in by Saturday, as district Scout officials want a complete report on the drive at that time. Only a few cards are out, he said, but they should be turned in at once.

.6 Inch Rain Falls Monday Night

Rain, measuring up to .6 inch fell in this vicinity Monday night following one of the worst sand storms of this year. Dust, blowing in gusts up to 45 miles per hour, choked the area all day Monday and blew until almost midnight.

A cool front moved in shortly before midnight, triggering the shower which fell. It was accompanied by strong wind and electrical storm.

Three New Deacons To Be Ordained at First Baptist Church

First Baptist Church is ordaining three men to the office of deacon Sunday at 3 p.m. Bill Clark, Clark Glenn and T. F. Sims, Jr. are the candidates.

Program personalities include Rev. G. M. Cole of Snyder First Baptist Church, Rev. Bennie Smith of Robert Lee and Rev. G. K. Corley of Blackwell. Every ordained pastor and deacon of the Runnels County Baptist Association will take part in the service.

Voters of this area will go to the polls Tuesday and cast their ballots in a general election. Main interest in this area is directed toward the offices of president and vice president of the United States. State offices are already conceded by most everyone to the Democratic nominees.

The Democratic candidates for the two top offices are Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. Republican candidates are incumbents Dwight D. Eisenhower, native Texan and now of Kansas, and Richard M. Nixon of California. The Constitution party also has candidates for president and vice president.

The Democratic party has a full slate of candidates for state, district and local offices. The Republicans have candidates for governor and attorney general.

W. Lee (Pappy) O'Daniel, defeated candidate in the Democratic primary, has waged a rather vigorous campaign for governor, asking voters to cast their ballots for him as an independent write-in candidate.

Eight constitutional amendments will be voted on Tuesday, also. A review of their purpose and brief arguments for and against them may be found on another page of this paper. The only one which has been strongly campaigned for is amendment four, which deals with teacher retirement. It has been actively backed by local and state teacher groups.

A big vote is in prospect for Coke County, due the balloting for president. Up through Wednesday 28 absentee ballot applications had been received by J. L. (Chilly) Tinkler, county clerk.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Funeral Held for Raymond Caulder, Accident Victim

what's what by whatley

It certainly was nice to be back in Bronte last weekend and see so many of our friends again. We thoroughly enjoyed the Halloween carnival. The new lunchroom and new auditorium certainly dressed up the Spanish room and the coronation and improved their effectiveness a hundred per cent. If things go as planned I'll be back in Bronte again by the time the paper comes out, to help down at the shop over the first of the month. If I missed seeing anyone then, maybe I'll see them this trip. Will go on with the letter from

S. F. which we started last week.

Luxembourg was among the first to recover, economically, politically and physically from the worst effects of the World War.

The first impression you get of the land is of the cleanliness of everything. Everything looks as though somebody has just washed it from top to bottom. The next impression, strangely enough, is that of space.

The capital is truly cosmopolitan. The newspapers are printed in two languages and sometimes in Luxembourg's own language, which is a unique one older than French, the country's diplomatic language, or German, which it resembles superficially.

The people themselves are truly democratic. Class prejudice is practically non-existent. We found everyone to be so very friendly and many people spoke English. It was interesting to me to learn that there are more people of Luxembourg origin in the States than in the country itself, and in the city of Chicago than in Luxembourg's capital. The prices on everything was very expensive. An evening dinner cost us $8 for the two of us, and breakfast was $2.50. The money used there are francs, and the exchange rate was 49 francs for one dollar; and it seemed funny to give a 20 franc bill to a bellhop for a tip. It looked like giving him $20.

One of the things that contributed to our nice stay in Luxembourg was a lady we visited. In 1949 when Billy was there he met a lovely lady about 48 years old, and the wife of the "lumber king" of the country. We called her the night we arrived, and she invited us to her home at 10 the next morning. Well, I have been in some lovely homes, but this was a palace. Never have I seen a private home so luxurious. It had 3 floors and 17 rooms. On the 1st floor were 3 living rooms and 2 dining rooms. The formal dining room was really something to see. I have never seen a table so long except in banquet halls, and the chair backs were as tall as I was. The whole house had beautiful chandeliers, hundreds of oil paintings, lovely rugs, sumptuous overstuffed furniture; and finally I gained entrance by way of the winding staircase to the second floor. Madame Clement took me to see her bedroom and sitting room, and while there insisted I try on 3 of her many furs. I warned her she might not get me out of them.

We arrived sharply at 10 and expected coffee and cake, but she broke out canapes and champagne. I, especially, was astounded to see such a thing at 10 in the morning! Finally, at about 1 she invited us to lunch which cost $12. It was really lovely. Then she went shopping with us. Naturally we only made the best shops, and everyone "bowed and scraped" when we entered. I felt like a peasant girl, but she was so very charming. I mentioned that I must buy the boys something, so she took us to a store and the cheapest we could get out of there with 2 toys was over $5. I nearly died; however, the toys are still intact. I also bought a lovely umbrella, as I had been wanting one for some time. Besides some cheese and other food, that was all we purchased.

We planned to take her and her sister out that night (her husband was on a hunting trip) but her sister did not come in from out of town in time; and for propriety's sake she felt she could not go without her. However, she asked us to her house the next day, but we declined.

The next day we left and went to the American Military Cemetery where General Patton, and 5,076 American men are buried. What a lovely thing this was and so beautifully kept. Each cross was of Italian marble—a cross for the Christians and the Star of David for the Jews. The grass was lovely and between the 3 large plots were beds of red roses. We asked for names and addresses of any men from our area, and we thought we would like to write the next of kin of what a lovely place it was, but they are not allowed to give the information; because they have had too many complaints from Washington. It was hard to understand, but finally I realized that some people might not be very tactful and not be very comforting to a mother or wife. However, if you had the name of someone you knew, they would take you to his grave. Billy made the statement that he thought every diplomat should have to visit such a place once a month. It really made you think what a terrible waste of lives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Casey of Bronte are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dian, to Grady Louis Coulter, son of Mrs. John Wright of Bronte. The couple will be married Dec. 6 in the home of the bride-elect's parents, north of Bronte.

En route to Luxembourg we came through Trier, Germany, which is the oldest city in Germany. No one really knows just how old Trier is, but the historical date given for the official founding of the city was 15 B. C. The Romans left many impressive monuments, and we saw one which is said to be the pride of Trier. The Porta Nigra is the name of this massive structure, and it was a gate to the city. It is so tremendous, and is such a wonder that it remains standing after so many, many years. One word, there are traces of human occupation of the Trier valley go back to about the year 2500 B. C.!

As for a recipe this week, Libby O. served a new kind of angel pie at her club meeting last week and promised they would run it this week. The recipe goes:

ANGEL PIE

2 envps. gelatin (plain) dissolved in $\frac{3}{4}$ cup cold water.

Cook to a boil: 4 egg yolks, beaten, 1 cup sugar, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups sweet milk, 1 cup lemon juice (fresh, not frozen or canned juice). Add this to gelatin mixture.

Beat 4 egg whites very stiff. Add 1 cup sugar slowly. Add to the hot custard and fold in well. Pour over a 39c angel food cake which has been crumbled in very small pieces and put in pans or pyrex dishes. Just before serving put a thin layer of whipped cream on top and sprinkle with cocoanut. Cut in squares.

The recipe does not call for pineapple but she added a small can of grated pineapple, which had been drained, to the custard mixture after it had come to a boil.

Fumbles Cost Victory in Game With Trent Team

By BILLY ALEXANDER

Chances for staying in the contest for the district champs title were dismissed as the Bronte Longhorns fumbled away their chances against the Trent Gorillas last Friday night and went down to defeat, 25-20. Bronte has now lost 2 conference tilts while Trent and Hermligh are both still undefeated in district play.

Chances for victory looked promising late in the fourth period until two fumbles paved the way to victory for the Trent lads. The first of the two miscues led to a touchdown by the Gorillas and the last fumble closed the door to a Longhorn scoring opportunity.

First blood was drawn by the Trent Gorillas early in the initial period. After forcing the Longhorns to punt, Trent marched 26 yards to paydirt. The punt was good for 30 yards, but a 28 yard run back placed the ball on the 26. The final play came from three yards out with Jimmy Hobbs doing the carrying. Charles Bright converted to put the Gorillas out front 7-0.

Bronte's first tally came midway in the first period after Joe Rameriz recovered a Trent fumble on the Longhorn 24. Gene Walker started the drive with a 30 yard scamper to the Trent 46. Bill Wrinkle then broke through behind timely blocking of the Longhorn line and raced 46 yards to score standing up. Jimmy Lee ran the extra point to knot the score at 7-7.

Midway in the second quarter, the Longhorns drove to their second touchdown after holding the Trent eleven on the 41. Wrinkle and Albert Grace combined three carries to move the pigskin to the Trent 26. Lee carried twelve more to move the ball inside the five yard line. From there Lee crossed the doublestripe to give the Longhorns a 13-7 lead. The try for EP was missed by Lee.

Late in the second stanza, Trent marched to another score after driving 69 yards. James Cassidy carried for 28 and then Hobbs hit Jerrold Duncan with a pass good for 37 yards. Playing from the 22, Hobbs again passed and it was good for a touchdown. The conversion was no good, and at half time the score stood at 13-11.

After stopping a long Gorilla drive, the Longhorns took possession of the ball on their own 30-yard line and marched to their final score. With Walker and Wrinkle doing the heavy work behind great blocking, the Longhorns went 70 yards in ten plays. Walker carried three times to pick up 29 yards while Wrinkle packed the pigskin three times for 25. Running from seven yards out, Walker ran his season's total scoring to 50 points. Lee ran the point after to put Bronte ahead, 20-13.

The waning minutes of the third quarter saw Trent crossing the double stripe again. Taking the Longhorn kickoff on their own 34, Trent used only four plays to score. The big play was a 48 yard pass from Hobbs to Bright that carried down to the six yard marker. From there, Hobbs ended the drive with a six-yard plunge. The extra point try was blocked and the Longhorns led 20-19.

Three plays after the kickoff, Jimmy Lee fumbled on the Longhorn 39 to set the stage for the final and decisive touchdown for the Trent Gorillas. With Hobbs using Bright for the target, Lee tossed a 23 yard pass to put the Gorillas in scoring position. The final play came on a ten yard scamper by Duncan. Again the extra point try was missed and the Gorilla were out front to stay. Fighting against time, the Longhorns staged a last minute drive to get within three yards of the goal line. Wrinkle and Walker carried twice each to take the ball down inside the 20. From there, Lee carried five consecutive times and on the fifth carry fumbled on the three yard line. The Gorillas then put the Longhorns deep into their own territory with a booming 65 yard punt. Three plays later, time ran out and all hopes for staying in the hot race for the number one spot went down the drain.

Tex Says He's No Expert But He Believes Ike Is

The other night a bunch of us were sitting around in the drug store after the football game, drinking coffee and talking. You know how it is after a game in a small town, especially after the home team loses. Nearly every man in the crowd had a theory as to why we didn't win the game. Most of them, of course, blamed the coach. I couldn't help remembering that before we consolidated the county schools we didn't even have enough boys to make up a football team. And these same football experts who were saying what Rockne or Bud Wilkinson would have done, up until a few years ago they didn't know a football from a watermelon.

But that's the way it is in a small town (and in big ones, too, I understand). I guess there's no real harm done, although sometimes it's pretty rough on the coach.

I guess we have a right, in this free country, to be self-appointed experts in any line we want to pick out. It seems to me that most people choose either football or politics.

Take this presidential election coming up next Tuesday: During the last few weeks I have heard so many different political experts that I nearly get confused sometimes. I have to stop and think that the fellow who is talking probably doesn't know any more about it than I do, and that helps me keep straightened out.

In fact, I guess I have had my mind made up all along. To make no bones about it, I like Ike. He's a man you can always look up to and respect—the kind of man you'd be proud to point out to any person, from any country on the face of the globe, and say: "That's our President!"

About Adlai, now, I'm not so sure. Of course, if he was elected, he would be my President, too, and I would hope he'd do a lot better than most people around here seem to think he would. This is something I don't think we need to worry about, because from all I can hear and read, Ike is going to win it again.

It seems to me that if Adlai ever had a chance around here, he threw it away when he came out with that H-bomb business. Now, the folks in our town don't know much about H-bombs, except that they don't want any personal dealings with them. Our scientific knowledge of H-bombs is about on a par with our football knowledge, I reckon. But we do know one thing: We don't want some misguided, inexperienced fellow fooling around with our national defense. When it comes to trusting what Bulganin says or what Eisenhower says, I'll take Ike. So will the rest of the country, if I don't miss my guess.

Just before we broke up the other night Doc Brown came into the drug store, and somebody asked him: "Hey, Doc, how's Ike doin'?" (Doc's a big Eisenhower man.) Doc said: "Well, it's a busy campaign for the medical profession. Last week Ike went and got his heart examined; and I understand that this week Adlai is going to get his head examined."

Yours truly,

Tex

8 Amendments To Be Voted On Next Tuesday

AUSTIN, TEX.—Eight decisions on state policy soon will be squarely up to the voters. In addition to party candidates, eight proposed amendments to the state constitution will appear on the general election ballot.

Through a procedural slip-up, a ninth will be considered at a special election on Nov. 13.

Each amendment will be printed on the ballot twice—once preceded by FOR and once by AGAINST. Voters must mark out the statement they oppose and leave the other clear.

Gist of the amendments and arguments pro and con:

1. Authorizes the legislature to compensate persons fined or imprisoned for crimes they did not commit. PRO: Would make amends for hardships unjustly imposed on the innocent. CON: Might open the door to numerous fraudulent claims.

2. Allows county commissioners courts to vary allocations of tax money without special elections. PRO: Greater flexibility would make for greater efficiency in county financial management. CON: Commissioners courts would have too much authority.

3. Adds other colleges to the building program financed by the University of Texas Permanent Fund and authorizes investment of the fund in corporate stocks and bonds as well as government bonds. PRO: Would provide an increase in college building money without new taxes. CON: Risk in wider investments is not worth the possible return.

4. Increases the benefits of the teacher retirement system. PRO: Would attract more persons to the dwindling profession. CON: Would increase taxpayer obligations by $4,500,000, take a larger nick out of teachers' salaries.

5. Authorizes another $100,000,000 bond issue for veterans land buying. PRO: Program has been put in order, and additional money is needed to enable more veterans to participate. CON: Program does not merit public confidence; only about one per cent of Texas veterans have benefited.

6. Provides a different oath of office form for elective and appointive officials. PRO: Would clarify present inconsistencies. CON: Clutters constitution with minor details.

7. Requires competent medical or psychiatric testimony before commitment of a person to a mental institution and allows waiver of jury trial, except in criminal cases. PRO: A mentally ill person should not be "convicted" as a criminal. CON: Jury trial is a safeguard against "railroading" of persons into mental institutions.

8. Permits judge to deny bail to persons convicted of two previous felonies. PRO: Would curb habitual criminals. CON: Right of bail is one of our fundamental civil rights.

9. Authorizes the Legislature to give aid with federal assistance to citizens permanently and totally disabled by a mental or physical handicap. PRO: State has a moral obligation to these needy persons. CON: Tie-in with federal program would lead to more federal encroachment.

Superintendents Outline 7-Point School Program

Supt. Garland Black was in San Angelo Oct. 22 for a meeting of school superintendents at the San Angelo High School. Dr. Humphries of the Texas Education Agency, met with the group.

Seven points were noted on the program, "How You Can Help Achieve Better Education in Texas," and are as follows:

1. Get elected to school boards.
2. Insist that school superintendents and principals employed by the school board be persons whose education has not been limited to "education" alone.
3. Work for higher salaries for efficient teachers.
4. Work for special recognition of those teachers who have been successful in instilling into their students a desire for intellectual achievement, thereby developing a better citizen for future years.
5. Insist that a good mathematics and science program is offered by the school.
6. Insist that the primary duty of the school is to assist young people to become intelligent adults and prepare them to take their place more efficiently in society.
7. High school courses need to meet not only the requirements for college but also satisfy those students who do not plan on attending college.

What we want to impress on our readers is that they should, by all means, go to the polls and vote next Tuesday.

In addition to governmental officials, Texans will vote on eight constitutional amendments. The poor old Texas constitution has been amended till it looks like a patchwork quilt, but you will vote to or not to patch it eight more

HERE'S HOW

1. At the top of the Democratic Party column, strike out the names of Adlai E. Stevenson and Estes Kefauver.
2. Leave the rest of the Democratic Party column as it is.
3. At the top of the Republican Party column, leave the names of Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon.
4. Strike out the rest of the Republican Party column.
5. Strike out all other columns on the ballot.

EISENHOWER IS A BETTER DEMOCRAT THAN STEVENSON!

TEXAS DEMOCRATS FOR EISENHOWER

W. R. "BOB" SMITH, CHAIRMAN

You are a free Texan... You can vote any way you like. Regardless of what you may have heard, it is perfectly legal to split your ticket if you want to, just as it is legal to vote the Democratic ticket straight, or the Republican ticket straight. The purpose of the ballot is to determine what the people want. And if you want to vote for Eisenhower and Nixon—then cast the rest of your ballot for the Democratic nominees—that is your privilege. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise! BY LAW YOUR VOTE MUST BE COUNTED.
