AD-LIB-BEN

A dozen or more persons have been in The Enterprise office this week to talk about the flood and what can be done to prevent a recurrence of devastating damage which accompanied it. Several theories have been advanced, and should bear more than a moment's consideration.

Apparently, since this thing has happened twice in four years, the residents of Bronte think something should ought to be done about it.

Various ideas as to how to carry off the water faster have been hashed over in this office this week. Some people think the west creek should be widened and cleaned out; some think the old highway bridge over by the Woullard house is holding up the water and should be blasted out, so the water can go on down the creek at a more rapid pace; still others think the bridge on Highway 158 should be lengthened so that water can pass under it more rapidly.

Any one, or all, of these things might be a good idea to help get rid of water.

The thing in our mind is this: Who in West Texas wants to get rid of water? What we need to do instead of HURRYING the water on down the creeks into the Colorado River is to SLOW IT DOWN where it falls.

If we could slow down the water which comes rampaging down the two Kickapoos, we would accomplish not only our acute need for flood control, but we could save the water and we could save the thousands of tons of topsoil which go with any large water runoff. In other words, we could kill three birds with one stone.

The theory of helping the water get away faster solves nothing but possibly the immediate need of keeping our property from being flooded.

LOTS OF WATER — The East Kickapoo Creek was well out of its banks where this shot was taken Sunday morning toward the east from the bridge in the north part of Bronte. Tops of the trees didn't go under, but they had to stretch to keep from it.

Bronte to Meet Loraine Tonight

Another rough tilt is in store for the Bronte Longhorns tonight as they journey to Loraine to tangle with the Bulldogs of that city. The contest will be the second district challenge for both clubs and it should prove to be a rugged one. Kickoff time will be at 7:30.

The 0-5 record held by Loraine does not look very impressive but the Bulldogs have a much better team than what the records indicate. Three of their losses have come at the hands of smart Class A teams and the other two have been to rough Class B teams. Competing against Class A competition, the Bulldogs went down to Coahoma, Stanton, and Roby. Other losses include defeats to Trent and May. In their only district tilt, the Bulldogs were beaten by Trent 13-7.

The Longhorns have been taking workouts slow this week due to the heavy rains that fell during the past week, but they should shape

The second devastating flood in four years swept through Bronte early last Sunday, causing hundreds of thousands of dollars of damage here in town and to the surrounding rural area.

Rains estimated to amount to eight inches fell in this area, sending the Kickapoo Creek on a rampage which caused most of the damage in this area. The water emptying from the Kickapoos into the Colorado River, combined with other creeks and a tremendous run off from the Robert Lee area, caused great damage down the river and drove hundreds of persons from their home in Ballinger.

Most local persons say the flood is not as bad as the one in 1953, but a few Bronte residents say the water got higher than it did four years ago. Water did not get as high in the business district as in 1953, when practically every firm in town suffered water damage.

The Enterprise has not been able to tabulate anything near the damage done to local property but a partial list follows:

Damage to county roads was estimated at $75,000 by Commissioner Howard Brock. Both the bridges on the East Kickapoo in the city limits were washed out, as well as

H. O. Whitt, local Santa Fe agent, said one stretch of railroad one-half mile in length in the immediate vicinity, and another of one mile near Ft. Chadbourne were completely washed out. Numerous holes are having to be filled up along an entire ten miles of track. Whitt declined to estimate the damage but did say, "We really took a beating."

Several thousand dollars damage was done by the rushing water to streets in Bronte. No official estimate of the damage has been made.

Highways, which were blocked by the high waters for awhile, were all opened after the water ran off. Damage to the roads and shoulders will be costly. Highway crews put out flares near washed out stretches before dark Sunday.

Topsoil valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars was washed off into the creeks, eventually finding its way to the bottom of the creeks, the Colorado River, Lake Buchanan and other lakes downstream, and the Gulf of Mexico. However, the abundance of moisture will somewhat offset this loss to farmers and ranchmen.

Butane Service was the only firm to report damage, other than the time and expense involved in cleaning up the mess. Robert H. Sims, owner, estimated he had a $400 loss to merchandise which got wet. Other places where water entered business houses were Home Motor Co., Cumble Food Mkt. and Best Service Station. Gulf Service Station had some water get in their wash and grease room, while a small amount of water sloshed into Bronte Ice Co. and the city hall.

It would be impossible to estimate damages to residences, but it will run into thousands of dollars in ruined floors, rugs, and furniture. J. I. Murtishaw had 8½ inches of water in his house. His mother, Mrs. Grace Murtishaw, and Leslie Woullard, whose houses are near the west Kickapoo, also were flooded. Others who reported water in their houses included Gene Walker, Royce Dean

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum—of oil and natural gas—began before the first records of history.

But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only.

They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States.

The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress... Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

Sherrod, Rawlings Are New Trustees

Bronte School Board has two new trustees following a meeting of the group last Thursday, Oct. 10. Joe Rawlings was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Marvin Corley and Allen Sherrod was appointed to fill the unexpired term of J. W. Teague, who has moved from Bronte.

Corley recently resigned to accept the position as bus driver on the Tennyson route. He has been driving the bus since school started as a substitute.

Rawlings is a well-known rancher of this area and Sherrod, an employee of Atlantic Pipeline Co., has been a resident of Bronte for several years.

In other business the board approved the purchase of five typewriters and a trumpet. The merchandise will be purchased from the Texas Surplus Property Agency at Lubbock and can be purchased at a nominal cost, being 6 per cent of the government value set on the goods.

NO LEAKS THIS TIME

Bronte School officials were pleased to report this week that the new school auditorium did not get any water as a result of last Sunday's flood.

Water, from heavy rains last May, seeped into the auditorium and 1½ inches of water covered the floor at the front and under the stage. Representatives of the architectural firm in Fort Worth were called to study the situation, and recommend necessary repairs, which were made this summer.

Ground-Breaking Set for Sunday By Methodists

Ground breaking ceremonies which were postponed last Sunday due to flood conditions, will take place Sunday at First Methodist Church. Sunday will also climax a week-long revival which has been in progress this week. Rev. Paul Terry of Edcouch is doing the preaching.

The ground-breaking ceremonies, which will kick-off a building program, will take place immediately after the morning worship service.

Flood conditions last Sunday also forced postponement of the dedication services for the local church. The dedication will also be held at a later date when either the district superintendent or the bishop can be present. The date will be announced.

Rev. Terry will preach at both services Sunday, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Special guests Sunday will be Ronnie and Richard Sims of Robert Lee. Ronnie will play the piano for Richard who will sing, "I Was The Tree."

Special music has marked each evening service with the choir, under direction of James Thompson, from First Methodist Church in San Angelo scheduled to appear Thursday evening.

Services for the remainder of the week, except Sunday, will be at 7 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Lin Loeffler, pastor of the church, is conducting the singing and issued a cordial invitation to everyone to attend the remaining services.

Black Nominated For League Post

Garland Black, superintendent of the local schools, has been nominated by other school officials of West Texas as a candidate for a vacancy existing on the State Interscholastic League Executive Committee. Each school in this section will be entitled to one vote.

Black said that the candidates are not asked whether or not they wish to serve and if elected, must serve unless ill or out of the teaching profession.

Object of the committee is to foster Interscholastic competition among Texas Public Schools, as an aid in the preparation for good citizenship. Interscholastic League sponsors all contests including football, basketball, literary contests, music, tennis, volleyball, track, baseball and golf. The League is considered the most successful of any similar organization in the United States.

Boy Scout Drive Lagging; Only $156 Collected

Boy Scout Fund Drive Auditor Cecil Kemp said Wednesday that $156 had been turned in to him for the current fund drive being made here.

The drive began last week with a kickoff breakfast at the First Baptist Church.

H. A. Springer, who is in charge of the drive, said he believed it was lagging a little bit, and urged workers to make their contacts as soon as possible.

"We need to get our money collected and get this campaign over with," he said. "I want to urge you to see the persons for whom you have cards just as soon as you can."

The money collected here is used to promote Scouting, and, among other things, is used to support the camps which are operated by the Concho Valley Council. Bronte has several boys who go to Camp Sol Mayer each year.

All money collected should be turned over to Kemp.

We feel very badly when we see our own or our neighbor's house or business damaged by flood waters. We even think that it's bad that our roads and other public improvements are damaged, but that's not quite so bad, since tax money will be used to repair and replace them.

We need to bring ourselves around to the realization, however, that both of the above losses are minor compared to the loss of our soil which accompanies excessive rains such as we had last weekend. By our failure to stop this waste of our most precious resource, we are dooming our children and their children to poverty which they have not caused and which they can do nothing about. We, right here in the Bronte community, are doing our share to decrease the cultivable acreage of our country, and thereby, helping the U. S. to turn into a place which we wouldn't recognize — one where plentiful food supply is unknown and where hunger and malnutrition are everyday companions.

After reading the above paragraph over, we feel like we had just stepped down off a soap box, but that's exactly the way we see the situation. And, we believe, if you will give it a good look, you will agree with us.

So what is the answer to this terrific problem?

We believe the construction of dams and other soil and water saving devices at the point of the water's origin is the only answer. They would provide controlled runoff for excessive water and do away with problems like we had Sunday morning.

We realize it will take the cooperation of every landowner and other citizen concerned to bring a project of this kind to successful completion. But the cost would be so small compared to the excessive price we are now paying.

Let's back up and try once more to get the dams built on the Kickapoo!

Longhorns Fall To Tough Hermleigh Eleven By 7-6 Score

By BILL ALEXANDER

In a desperate attempt to stay atop in the big battle for the top spot in district play, the Bronte Longhorns staged a brilliant battle last Friday night against the Hermleigh Cardinals, but the Cardinals downed the Longhorns 7-6. The victory for Hermleigh gave them a 1-0 record in district standings, while the loss dropped the Longhorns to the bottom with an 0-1 record.

Fumbles plagued both teams throughout the contest, but neither team could capitalize on the miscues in their efforts to score in this ever-important game. The Longhorns were able to recover five Cardinal fumbles while Hermleigh pounced on two miscues, intercepted three passes and blocked a Longhorn punt. Overall, the breaks were evenly distributed but they all went to no avail as the final results showed that the breaks played a small role in the scoring punches.

Late in the first period, Kenneth McCutchen smothered a Hermleigh miscue on the Cardinal 25 and put the Longhorns in position to score. Dean Black carried three times for 16 yards to put Bronte on the 9 yard line with first and goal to go. Three tries later the Longhorns were operating from the three, but the fourth down try was stopped at the line of scrimmage by a hard charging Cardinal line that refused to give ground to the Longhorns.

Taking over on the three as the first quarter ended, the Cardinals managed only one carry from the line of scrimmage before Tommy Latham caught sight of a free ball and pounced on it at the Cardinal 10 yard line. In four tries, the Longhorns gave up possession on the Hermleigh six yard marker.

On the first play from scrimmage, Carlee Burlison brought the crowd to their feet as he broke through the line and raced 94 yards to put the Cardinals out front 6-0. Orville Paty hit Virgil Davis with a pass for the all important extra point and the boys from up north led 7-0 at intermission time.

Bronte received the kickoff opening the second half, and started a drive that carried to the Cardinal 30 before running up against stiff competition from a strong Hermleigh defense. Latham put the Longhorns well on their way with a 17 yard jaunt to the 47 in Longhorn territory. Moore carried for four and then latched on to an aerial shot from Latham good for 11 more yards. Latham put two tries together for seven yards and he again hit Moore with a pass that chalked up four more yards. At this point, the Longhorns met a stout forward wall and were unable to advance any further. One play later, the Longhorns again had possession of the pigskin on the Cardinal 25. Four attempts advanced the Bronte lads but eight yards and the Hermleigh eleven took over on their own 17.

After forcing Hermleigh to punt the Longhorns drove deep into Cardinal territory only to be stopped at the 25 again. The Cardinals were forced to punt and the Longhorns took over on their own 45. Moore carried to the Hermleigh 43 on a 12 yard scamper. Aubrey Denman then sliced off tackle and hit the sidelines to go 43 yards for a touchdown. Latham tried to run the point after, but the Cardinal defensive wall proved too much and he was stopped short on the attempt. Minutes later, the final whistle sounded and the Longhorns were on the short end of a 7-6 score.

Live Better — Electrically

and nothing is as COOL, FAST and SAFE
as Electric Cooking —

As this modern kitchen clearly shows, today's trend is to electricity. And perhaps the best example of this is the electric range. Smart looking, convenient. Insulated on all 6 sides (as are all electric ovens) you get even, steady heat for baking and roasting. No guesswork with electric surface units either. The heat you set is yours automatically every time. And the heat goes directly into the bottom of the pan, not up the sides and into your kitchen. But the thing you'll appreciate most is the way your electric range stays modern — year after year.

Press Box Chatter

By OFFSIDES ALEXANDER

Bronte looked better last Friday night even though they were defeated by Hermleigh 7-6. The Longhorns looked sharper on offense in this game than in any of their previous tilts. By no means are the Longhorns out of contention for the top spot in District 6-B play. The way things are shaping up, the district may be a toss-up as to who may take district honors.

Only one district contest was on tab last week as the Hermleigh Cardinals invaded Bronte and down the locals 7-6 to put them in a two way tie with Trent for the number one spot in the conference. In intersectional games, Trent defeated Roscoe 13-7 while Loraine lost their fifth consecutive game at the hands of Class A Stanton 20-7. Across the county, the rampaging Steers were victorious over Menard 19-0. This week's schedule will find Trent with an open date while Bronte travels to Loraine and Robert Lee goes to Hermleigh.

up in fair condition if no injuries hit them before Friday. The Longhorns will go into the contest a touchdown favorite, but with weather conditions making the field wet and muddy, just about anything cold happen between these two ball clubs. The Bronte team will carry a 3-2 seasons record with them, having lost to Jim Ned and Hermleigh and taken wins from Bangs, Eden and Stamford B. For all fans interested in going and backing the Longhorns, a very good game will be in store for them plus some interesting half time performances.
