County to Sponsor Anti-Rabies Vaccination Again This Year

A follow up to last year's county wide rabies prevention immunization program will be held in Coke County on Monday and Tuesday, May 30-31. Public cooperation in

Pvt. Abell Martinez, who left recently from Fort Dix, N. J., for Gablinge, Germany, where he is stationed with the U. S. Army Infantry. He has been in the army the past seven months. Mrs. Martinez plans to join him in Germany as soon as arrangements can be made.

AD-LIB-BEN

Everyone who has a pet dog or cat should take a few minutes next Tuesday to have it vaccinated against rabies. Since last year's extensive anti-rabies campaign, very little has been heard about the presence of rabies in this area. However, some undoubtedly exists among the wildlife of the county. The best way we can keep it in check is to cooperate fully with the county in having all our pets vaccinated. It won't take but a few minutes and the only cost is the $1.50 charged by the vet who gives the shot.

Modern man is one who drives a mortgaged car over a bond-financed highway on credit-card gas.

the drive will greatly add to the effectiveness of the drive.

Coke County will provide vaccine for the program. Dr. Percy Turner, D. V. M., Water Valley, will be present to immunize pets brought to four locations where the work will be done. Animal owners will pay the vaccinating fee of $1.50 per animal.

City commissions and County officials say the program will be carried out similar to last year's program. For a period of 30 days following the vaccination, all pets should be restricted. During this period, the vaccine will immunize the animals and stray animals can be removed.

Vaccinating will be done at four locations in the County. On Monday, May 30, vaccinating will be done at the show barn in Robert Lee from 8:30 a. m. until 12 noon. That afternoon, Dr. Turner will be in Silver at the ball park from 1:30 until 3:30 p. m.

Tax Office Race Draws Interest To 2nd Primary

From Robert Lee Observer

Interest is growing in the Second Primary Election June 4 when voters will select a nominee for County Tax Assessor-Collector and one state office, Judge Court of Criminal Appeals.

O. B. Jacobs, present deputy sheriff, failed by a few votes of receiving the required more than 50% of the votes in the first primary May 7, making a runoff necessary.

His opponent is Mrs. Juanita Trimble, who was second in a field of four candidates.

Both are making active campaigns.

Lloyd Davidson is opposed for re-election as Appeals Court Judge by W. T. McDonald.

A total of 36 absentee ballots had been cast or applied for up until Tuesday noon in the County Clerk's office. There were 21 in the Robert Lee voting box, Bronte 2, Silver 7, Sanco 2 and Edith 4.

Next Tuesday, May 31, is the final day for voting absentee.

Cattle Testing Program Okayed For Coke County

By STERLING LINDSEY
County Agent

The members of the steering committee fostering a movement to establish Coke County as a Type II brucellosis (Bang's Disease) control area received word last week that on May 10, the Texas Animal Health Commission had approved Coke County's request for a control area.

A hearing has been scheduled for July 11, 1960, at 9:30 a. m. in room 1020, of the State Office Building. If no changes are made, the measure will be in effect on August 17, 1960. Cattle testing in the county will follow at some date after August 17.

The Texas Animal Health Commission has several crews over the state testing for brucellosis. When sufficient counties or work has been planned in this area, a crew with a mobile testing unit will move into the area. The date is as yet undetermined but it will likely be the fall or winter.

When the crew arrive, the mobile laboratory will be set up at a central point and the testing crew will work by areas in various parts of the county. Shortly before testing starts, a briefing crew will come in to prepare the way for the testing. A schedule for testing will be worked up at that time.

Blacwell Users To Get New Type Phone Numbers

Telephone customers in Blackwell have been assigned a new type of telephone service, known as the All Numeral Numbering (ANN) plan, with each telephone number composed of seven digits. R. R. McCullough, District Manager of the General Telephone Company, explained that the new system eventually will replace the more familiar two letter-five number system (2L5N) system inaugurated when the telephone industry first launched its long range program to permit operators and/or customers to dial direct from one city to another.

He stated that the 2L5N system is being replaced as rapidly as possible in order that all number combinations appearing on the telephone dial can be utilized.

The old 2L5N system required a prefix such as CHerry or TWighlight; however, because no words in the English language begin with the letter combination WX or WY or JK or JL, then no telephone numbers beginning with 99 or 55 could be assigned; thereby limiting number assignments.

As the number of customers being assigned 2L5N telephone numbers increased, the necessity for using all possible number combinations on the dial increased. In other words, "in some areas we are running out of possible letter prefixes," the district manager said. "As a result of this realization, a study was undertaken in Wichita Falls, to determine whether assigning seven digit telephone numbers proved satisfactory to customers and operators. Conclusion of the extensive study that the ANN plan was not only satisfactory, but even eliminated some previous dialing errors resulting from confusion between the numeral 1 and the letter I and numeral zero and the letter O."

STORM SEWER BEING BUILT

Apparently much work remains to be done on the storm sewer which is being built at the intersection of Main Street and Highway 277. The work has been underway for some time and is part of the project of rebuilding the highway from Bronte south to the Tom Green county line.

Need for the storm sewer is obvious every time a rain falls here. Water stacks up on the north side of main street, making crossing the street difficult.

NOW LOOK WHAT CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run . . . went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard) certified that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

UNCLE HUIE from HOG CREEK says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers in town Saturday was agreed unanimous that this country has got to git rid of the Fifth Amendment. Them Senators ain't done much fer five year but investigate and filibuster and about all they've caught was the Fifth Amendment. One feller allowed as how more folks has used the Fifth Amendment in the Senate Building in the last five years than has used them fancy Senate spittoons since George Washington.

I heard a feller say onct that patriotism was when a flea believed the dog he was living on was the best dog in the world. And that's the way all of us ought to feel about our country. It makes me mighty mad to see them fleas in the witness chair living on the dog, taking the Fifth Amendment, and preaching at the same time that the field mice over in the next pasture has the best system.

Another feller allowed as how they might be one good angle to the situation. He says as long as them Senators is busy investigating and filibustering they ain't got time to be spending tax money. New he is the kind of feller that finds a little good in everything. I recollect onct that him and his family moved seven times in one year and he was bragging that his old lady was mighty well pleased with her new supply of curtains. By the time they moved the seventh time she had a pair to fit any siz window. And onct lightning hit the barn and burnt it down. He come to town that night mighty happy over what a fine rain the storm had brung. I reckon, Mister Editor, we need a few more of them kind of fellers in the world to keep it from coming plum unraveled.

Well, I see by the papers where this scientist at Yale University says the earth, in its rotation, is running about 34 seconds behind time. There's always the possibility that this feller's watch is a little fast, but fast or not, I got news fer him. I ain't hurrying no more this year than I did last year, whether we're rotating behind or in front.

Speaking of rotating, I took my old lady across the state last week to see her sister. I note they're building a heap of them wide by-passes around some towns. Everything is gitting bigger and wider these days. I can recollect when we had them narrow highways where two cars could barely pass without colliding. Now they're gitting the wide kind where six or eight can all collide at onct.

Yours truly,
Uncle Huie

Notice of Rabies Vaccinations

In accordance with recommendations of the State Department of Health and the County Health Officer, a program of Anti-Rabies Vaccinations has been set for Coke County.

An Important Statement

None of us have forgotten the Rabies outbreak in Coke County a year ago, when a number of valuable animals were victims of Rabies and dozens of persons, some times entire families, had to subject themselves to the tortuous anti-rabies shots.

A State of Emergency was declared. The public's cooperation with public officials was wonderful, and the spread of Rabies was checked. Dogs and cats were treated and the strays were picked up. Varmints were poisoned on the farms and ranches.

We are pretty well free of Rabies, but the State Health Department has recommended a follow-up program of vaccinations again this year.

We are urging all pet owners to have their animals vaccinated against Rabies during the current control campaign. Only through vaccination and stray dog and cat control can this dreaded disease of both humans and animals be kept in check.

Vaccination of all Dogs & Cats

Pecan Nut Casebearer Due in County; Tree Owners Warned to Be Watching

By STERLING LINDSEY

The pecan nut casebearer will soon be invading pecans in the area. Persons desiring to avoid losses to the casebearer should be preparing to apply control measures, possible as early as this weekend.

In the approximately 50 trees checked on Monday and Tuesday of last week, only one egg was found, but several hollowed out twigs were found, indicating that the eggs will be laid shortly or in some instances have already been deposited on the nutlets. The moth matures for two or three days, then lays the egg which requires four to six days to hatch.

The optimum time or the time when maximum kill is obtained from spraying, is when a majority of the eggs start to hatch. It is believed that time will be this week, but the only sure way to know is to check the nut clusters for eggs and minute grubs.

The egg normally is deposited on the blossom end of the nut, but has often been found between the blossom and the shucks or even on the side of the nut. It is pearly white, the size of a sharp pen point and becomes reddish brown as it reaches maturity or the hatching stage.

Upon hatching, the very small worm normally moves down the fruiting limb and feeds on the first below the cluster for one or two days, then moves back to the cluster and tunnels into the small nut.

Again for optimum kill, sprays should be applied during the period from hatching to the time the larvae move into the nuts. Sprays applied too early will be broken down before hatchin, while sprays applied after the insect is in the nut will not reach him.

The most effective insecticides to use are malathion, DDT, toxaphene, and a mixture of nicotine sulfate and summer oil.

The directions for mixing these should be on the container. If they are not, call the County Extension office for additional information.

Most of the trees in the area are suffering from rosette or dieback. This can be controlled or avoided by adding zinc sulfate to the spray mixture. If a tree is rosetted already, one to four sprayings may be necessary to correct the shortage of zinc.

In spraying pecan trees be sure to use ample spray pressure and to apply the insecticide to the nut clusters. Pressure is necessary to part the leaves in order that the spray may reach the cluster. The spray must be applied to the cluster or to the stem immediately below it as that area is all that the larvae ever tread on unless the food plays out in the cluster they are marauding.

In summary, check for eggs on the small nuts and spray when you find the first eggs hatching. Apply the spray under heavy pressure—300-400 pounds on large trees—directly to the nut cluster. And and zinc sulfate to your spray mix to offset or avoid rosette or dieback.

An Important Message TO COKE COUNTY PEOPLE

You will go to the polls Saturday, June 4, to elect your Tax Assessor-Collector. Time does not permit me to speak to each one of you personally, which I regret.

I attended Odessa Business College last year to better qualify myself before announcing for this position.

Since this is a new office in Coke County, some people are of the opinion that it is a job only for men, and this has been widely circulated. I have investigated thoroughly and find these facts listed below:

Twenty-five women hold this office at the present time in Texas and it is still connected with the sheriff's office in a number of counties. Mrs. Pearl Barker, tax assessor-collector of Pecos, furnished me with the following information showing where women are now holding the office of County Tax Assessor-Collector. Mrs. Barker was president of the Tax Assessor-Collectors Ass'n of Texas in 1959.
