Community-Wide TB Testing Program Scheduled for Friday

A community-wide tuberculosis testing program will get underway at 8:30 a.m. Friday at Bronte School. Every person in the Bronte area is urged to take the test.

The new Heath test will be used and is described as more accurate than tests which have been used heretofore. It is also said to be

Relay Team Takes Fifth in State

Bronte's 440 relay team took fifth place honors in the state track meet at Austin last weekend. The team ran into stiff competition on the state level but there was little difference between their time of 44.9 and the first place winner's 44.5. Bartlett won the race.

Boys making up the team were Royce Lee, Roy Stout, Ronnie Lee and Glenn Sims. Barry Curlee and Edwin McDaniel made the trip as team alternates.

Charles Coppock wound up in 11th place in the state in slide rule competition. He was Bronte's only entry in a literary event.

Jim Morrow had hard luck in high jump competition and failed to qualify for the finals.

Have you been down to the park lately? It's pretty as always again this year and is being used right regularly for picnics. The swimming pool is being given a good cleaning and paint job in preparation for opening May 24.

The park, pool and equipment are probably the best investment ever made here by taxpayers, as they are used almost constantly by both young people and adults of this area.

The easiest way to make a mountain out of a molehill is just to add a little dirt.—Copied

A cartoon showing a small boy talking with his father, says: "How can I ever learn the value of a dollar when all I get for an allowance is 25 cents?"

The entire community felt poignant sorrow this week because of the untimely death of Edna Morrow. Her service to many parts of community life will be missed, because she not only served ably and efficiently with her many talents, but she served willingly.

We believe that, next to her family, she will be missed most by the children of the community because she was a master at entertaining them. Kids of Bronte have always looked forward to functions in which she was the director or had a part, because she always had "the best games to play and the best refreshments" for them.

Looking back over the years we have known her reminds us of something that was said almost 2000 years ago: "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

absolutely painless. Results of the test will be read in four to seven days and participants will be notified of the results.

School officials reported that 138 students participated in the immunization program held Monday. The program was for the purpose of giving diphtheria-tetanus-whooping cough boosters and smallpox vaccinations to children who needed them.

The immunization and testing programs are being sponsored by the PTA, and Dr. John R. Harris is donating his assistance and equipment in carrying out the undertaking. No charge is made for the shots or tests, but persons are requested to contribute 25c to help defray cost of the medicine used.

Mrs. O. L. Shurley, president-elect of the PTA, said Wednesday that the Monday program is finished and that only those persons with authorizations from the PTA may obtain free shots at the clinic. Children who received the first of the three diphtheria-tetanus and whooping cough shots were given written slips authorizing the clinic to give the follow-up shots.

Funeral Rites for Mrs. Morrow Held Here Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Jacob Bruce Morrow, 43, were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday afternoon in the First Methodist Church in Bronte. She died at 3:15 a.m. Tuesday in Bronte Hospital after a short illness.

The last rites were conducted by the Rev. A. S. Neely, pastor of the church, assisted by Foy L. Moore, Church of Christ minister. High school girls composed the choir. Burial was in Fort Chadbourne Cemetery under direction of Clift Funeral Home.

Mrs. Morrow was the former Edna Wilburn. She was born Nov. 5, 1919, the daughter of J. F. Wilburn and the late Annie Clayton Wilburn. She was married Dec. 27, 1943, in San Angelo to Jacob Bruce Morrow.

Mrs. Morrow was an active member of the Methodist church, and was a member and past worthy matron of the Bronte chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. She was a member of Sorosis Study Club and was a past president of that organization. She was also active in all school activities in which her children participated and had served in several offices in the local Parent-Teachers association.

She was always a volunteer worker in the Fort Chadbourne community in the various drives to raise money for health organizations and other charities.

Survivors include her husband; five children, Edna Marie, Jim, Laura, Lisa, and Mary Jane; her father, J. F. Wilburn of San Angelo; two sisters, Mrs. Carrol Hulse of Glen Rose and Mrs. Glendon Westbrook of San Angelo.

Pallbearers were Conda Richards, A. E. Bell, Jr., Bill McKown, Ralph Richards, Jesse Parker, Clyde Lee, Royce Lee and Noah Pruitt Jr.

Methodist Children's Choir to Sing Sunday

The children's choir of First Methodist Church will make up the choir Sunday morning in a special Mother's Day service. In addition to taking part in congregational singing, the youngsters will sing a special number, "Your Mother and Mine," from Walt Disney's production of Peter Pan.

The children's choir is directed by Mrs. George Thomas and Mrs. O. L. Shurley is manager of the group. Mrs. A. H. Rawlins will serve as pianist and Mrs. J. E. Quinn will play the organ.

Rain Accompanies Sunday's Windstorm

A hard driven 1½ to two inches of rain fell in this area Sunday afternoon. The moisture was accompanied by winds estimated up to 70 miles per hour. Minor damage was done here in Bronte and in the rural areas around here, but most folks felt the benefit from the moisture far outweighed the damage.

The storm blew in from the north about 3:30 p.m. and the wind pushed a thick layer of dust ahead of it. The rain, however, quickly settled the dirt, and fell in sheets for about thirty minutes.

A large number of shallow rooted trees were blown down by the wind, and one large mesquite tree was split in half. At least one TV antenna was completely down and others were bent by the hard wind.

A small amount of hail fell in Bronte, and heavier amounts of hail were reported in the vicinity of Austin Sandusky's place northwest of town.

A large number of Bronte citizens took refuge in storm cellars, when the bad cloud showed up on the north horizon.

It was reported that Oak Creek Lake caught only a small amount of water, possibly a foot. Mountain Creek Lake at Robert Lee, also badly in need of being filled up, caught very little water.

The rain was lighter east of town with only 4 inch reported in the Marie area.

Band Concert Set For Friday Night

Bronte's junior and high school bands will give a concert at 8 p.m. Friday. The program will be in the school auditorium, and the public is invited. No admission charge will be made. Bobby Bingham, school band director, will be in charge of the program.

Included in the program are the following numbers: The Liberty Bell, Russian Choral and Overture, Never on Sunday, The Glass Slipper, Baby Elephant Walk, Toy Symphony, When the Saints Go Marching in and King Size.

The school bands have made a great deal of progress this year, and school officials are issuing a special invitation to everyone in the community to be present Friday night to hear them demonstrate their skills.

Student Council Officers Named

In a runoff election last Thursday for all offices on the Bronte School Student Council, officers for the 1963-64 school term were named.

The following students will serve in the offices named:

President, Jimmy Wells; vice president, Jim Morrow; co-secretaries, Jan Wilkins and Jeanna Denman; treasurer, Peggy Corley; parliamentarian, Ronald Hooper; reporter, Jerry Holcombe.

The two candidates for secretary, Jan Wilkins and Jeanna Denman, tied in the runoff election, so school officials decided that both girls will serve in the office.

Youngblood to Meeting In Washington June 4-7

L. T. Youngblood, Bronte banker and president of the Upper Colorado River Authority, has been named by Gov. John Connally to attend a meeting June 4-7 in Washington, D. C.

The Governor named the heads of the eight river authorities in Texas to represent the state at a Rivers and Harbors Congress. Purpose of the meeting is to study problems dealing with water supply and navigation which confront this country.

Mr. Youngblood said the group will probably meet in Dallas, from where they will fly non-stop to the nation's capital.

REVIVAL TO START AT PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

A revival meeting will start Monday, May 13, at the Pentecostal Church in Bronte. The church is located at the corner of Main Street and East Railroad. During the preaching will be George W. Ivey of Abilene. The meetings will continue for two weeks and everyone is invited to attend, he said.

HEART FUND MEMORIALS

Elmer Hurley, who was in charge of the Heart Fund drive in this area during February, said this week that persons who wish to give donations to the Heart Fund as memorials should see him. Hurley said he has necessary blanks to fill out and will be glad to receive memorial gifts.

Juniors to Sell Play Tickets

An advance ticket sale for the annual Junior play will be staged Saturday. The students will make a house to house canvass in town. The sale was originally planned for last Saturday, but was postponed because several class members were in Austin for the state meet. Tickets will sell for 75 and 50 cents.

The play, "Off the Track" will be presented Friday evening, May 17 in the school auditorium. The three act comedy is being directed by John Hartsell. The juniors plan to have some special entertainment between acts, and a concession stand will offer refreshments to the audience. Proceeds from the program will go to the Junior class treasury.

UNCLE HUIE from HOG CREEK says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 I been in a state of shock all week over a item quoting a official from the U. S. Department of Education. It seems the experts has started teaching a new system of arithmetic to the school younguns. They ain't got it going in all the schools yet, the piece says, but by 1965 they hope to have the old system done away with complete and the new one installed all over the country.
 I read the piece 6 times, Mister Editor, and on the last time around I knowed me or them was crazy and, natural, it had to be me. They got the Constitution and the Administration on their side and, like the feller said, you can't beat city hall.
 In the first place, the experts is doing away with the "Tutem System," which is the two times two is four system. They say this ain't true if you use "Base Seven." I reckon Base Seven is a first cousin to Third Base or Cloud Nine or somepun. Anyhow, Base Seven and Tutem is in conflict. It says so right on the front page.

 Furthermore, they allow as how it ain't important in this new arithmetic to know what a circle is, the main is to know "what happens when the circle loses its roundness."
 And in this new system of arithmetic fer the school kids of 1965, they won't be no such thing as a line. It will be knowed as a "set of points standing shoulder to shoulder."
 And they put the stopper in the jug by announcing the days is about over fer adding, subtracting, and dividing. Under the new system these items will be called "intersection, union, and complementation."
 I recollect complainin a few years ago when some schools slowed down on teaching reading, writing and arithmetic, and started giving courses in hair-do, folk dancing, and flute-playing. I just didn't know, Mister Editor, when we was well off.
 But I reckon, like this piece says, the next generation has got to have a "Univac mind" to keep pace with space. In another 20 year, when a feller wants to call up his wife at the factory where she's working, he'll have to dial 663-2549 and tell 'em its Social Security 243-48 9565, Internal Revenue Service 44-6005846 calling SS 244-07-3037, IRS 43-610-5745, please. And a feller can't handle that situation with the kind of arithmetic we got now.
 I started to report these matters to the fellers at the store Saturday, but I got to figgering it wasn't no use in having everybody go crazy at the same time, at least not till 1965.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Huie

Beef—the most widely eaten variety of meat in this country — is abundant now. And reports indicate that beef supplies will steadily increase during the next few months.

When buying beef, look for marbling. Little flecks of fat distributed through the lean indicate juiciness and tenderness. The more marbling, the higher the quality. Lean portions should be firm and fine textured. Color should be bright red to a slightly darker shade.

Location of cuts in beef gives some clue to the amount of lean, kind of bone and tenderness of cut. Some muscles are more tender than others. The blade and arm chuck roast, rib roast and steaks from the forequarter, constitute a higher proportion of the less than tender meat. Forequarter cuts from high-grade beef will be more tender than the same cuts from a lower quality animal.

Raisins are a virtual necessity on your pantry shelf because they are an oft-used ingredient in many recipes and they are good eaten right out of the package.

Raisins make an ideal afternoon snack and are excellent in salad and sandwich fillings. They are added to muffin batters, cookies, desserts and sauces, and are good in a sweet and sour sauce for meat or fish. The different types can be used interchangeably, but the seedless variety is preferred for salads and fruit cups.

To avoid the drying-out of raisins, wash them and spread them out on a flat pan. Cover the pan and heat slowly in a moderate oven until raisins are smooth and plump. Another good method of plumping them is to let them stand in fruit juice for about an hour.

The recipe I have for you this week is a very easy one to prepare. It will be a quick, nutritious summer time dessert. It can be made without heating up the kitchen.

Cherry Ice Box Pie

1 can eagle brand milk
 1 can sour pitted cherries
 ½ to 1 cup pecans
 Juice from 2 lemons
 Mix the above, add to ½ pint whipping cream, whipped. Put in graham cracker crust. Makes 2 small pies or 1 large one.

you read your mail?" are typical comments from those who witness our mailbox unloading.

Last Friday, we decided to open it all and see just what was in it. Of course we get advertising material just the same as everybody else, lots of other newspapers, and things dealing with the printing and publishing industry, but here's a list of stuff sent out by people who had no other idea in mind than to get some free publicity:

1. From the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce is a story about their Fourth Annual Tumbleweed Festival.

2. The American Medical Association's weekly press release was on foot health this week.

3. The Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association sent out a news release and mat of a picture encouraging our readers to travel in Texas.

4. The weekly newsletter of the Texas State Health Department this week warned of the dangers of using power lawn mowers.

5. A number of short features on safety were received from the Texas Safety Council.

6. The Salvation Army's weekly publication from Texas Divisional headquarters told of the week's activities of that organization.

7. An organization called Women for Constitutional Government sent out a release announcing a talk by Mrs. Lidio Mora, who fled the European Communists to Cuba, only to have to flee from there to escape Castro's Communist regime.

8. About a pound of material from the American Dairy Association. Included were some free publicity releases.

9. The West Side Lions Club of San Angelo wishes us to announce that its outgoing president, John W. Schwab, is a candidate for the office of director of the Texas Lions League for Crippled Children.

10. KPAR TV in Sweetwater would be glad for us to print their programs for the coming week, as per the copy they sent us.

11. From Life Line in Washington, D. C., an organization pretty far out to the right, we got copies of eight radio programs which are designed for local sponsorship. Prices for larger quantities of these printed programs are also listed.

12. The Colt 45s of Houston would like a story about their games coming up in the next few weeks.

13. The Texas Medical Association sent us an article on "Cannibalism, Witchcraft Hamper Disease Control in Congo." Very interesting, but about 15 inches too long for us.

14. Calvert Distillers are announcing the "first new American whiskey in over a century." It's "soft," the article said. No samples were enclosed.

15. The U. S. Treasury Department's list of West Texas counties and the amount of Savings Bonds purchased was received.

16. World Book Encyclopedia sent us 16 pages of typewritten copy in four articles on the youth problem in this country. They are interesting, but would take up most of this week's Enterprise.

17. Then, we received two franked newsletters each from Senators Yarborough and Tower and one from Cong. Jim Wright of Ft. Worth.

We're not complaining about receiving all of this stuff. Some of it is very interesting, and a very small amount of it we use in The Enterprise. If we used it all, you'd have a hard time getting in your local about visiting Aunt Susie last Sunday.

Most of these people would get more out of the money they spend if they saved it up a few weeks and ran a small ad.

In Case of Tornado Safety Rules Given By PS Department

Now that it is tornado season, here are some safety rules furnished by the Texas Department of Public Safety, in case one comes our way.

To know what to do when a tornado is approaching may mean the difference between life and death!

I. If you are near a tornado cellar:

When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel. THERE IS NO UNIVERSAL PROTECTION AGAINST TORNADES EXCEPT UNDERGROUND EXCAVATIONS.

II. If you are in open country:

1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

III. If in a city or town:

1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!

2. In homes: The corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

IV. If in schools:

1. In city areas: If school building is strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs!

2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

V. If in factories and industrial plants:

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for moving workers to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

VI. Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively, only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

VII. Keep turned to your radio or television station for latest advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Adair and Mrs. J. M. Rutherford were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cunningham and Mrs. Cunningham's sister, all of Levelland. A niece of Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Bert Nordike, and her husband visited Sunday.

County Agents News Column

By STERLING LINDSEY

The number of screwworm cases in Texas during the week of April 21-27 dropped, according to the latest report received. This is encouraging, but the recent showers and rains over the state probably will have some bearing on the situation in the near future.

Several samples have been submitted for identification from Coke County. To date, the authorities have declared our samples submitted to be non-screwworm.

I received some information recently that gives the particulars of the "Hotspotting" program now in use to combat screwworm outbreaks above the sterile fly buffer zone. First, the area veterinarian is alerted to the situation. He, then, makes arrangements for a concentrated spray program in the area and, also, the area is saturated with sterile flies.

The officials stated that the hot-spotting will continue as long as their present staff and output of flies can control the screwworms. If cases go undetected and hot-spotting will not do the job, the program can no longer be continued, they stated.

The sheep selection, wool preparation and sheep dog use demonstration meeting held at the show barn Friday was well attended and well received. Approximately 55 operators and others saw and heard point discussed and illustrated on these important subjects.

James A. Gray discussed how a sheep selection program can be employed, then demonstrated how sheep selection is conducted. With the help of commissioner and committee member Floyd Harmon, three of the animals were sheared. The points discussed were substantiated by the clips selected.

"Bull" Crawford discussed various factors that influence the market qualities of wool and the importance of certain factors in selling a clip of wool.

Herman Cassidy then discussed selecting, training and using a sheep dog. The group moved to the football field where Mr. Cassidy gave a performance with his dog "Zip."

The Wheat Referendum voting date is May 21. The polling place is the County A.S.C.S. office. If you have any questions on the proposed program, give the A.S.C.S. office or me a ring. We hope every voter has at his disposal the information needed for a proper evaluation of the issue facing them.

We have an ample supply of screwworm vials if you need some.

Dr. Gordon Bennett Methodist Speaker

Dr. Gordon R. Bennett of McMurry College, Abilene, was the dinner speaker for the Methodist Victory dinner held last Wednesday night in the school cafeteria. Dr. Bennett emphasize the benefits of the small church and community and urged those present to use all of their talents and means for the support of the total program of the church. He also challenged the local congregation to confront the problems present in the world today.

A male quartet, also from McMurry, provided entertainment. The dinner and program were held as a money raising project to meet conference obligations of the church.

GUEST AT BANQUET

Miss Deanie Allen of Bronte, a junior student at Abilene Christian College, was the guest of Wayne King of Blackwell, at the Sub-T 16 40th annual banquet, April 27. Men of the organization transformed the inside of a warehouse into a "Southern Plantation" for the banquet. The dinner menu featured southern fried chicken. Transistor radios were given to the girls as favors.
