AD-LIB-BEN

We have some more excerpts this week from letters from Bennie Carol, our daughter who is serving this summer as our South American correspondent. She is spending the summer with Patti Morris and her family who are attached to the American Embassy in Caracas, Venezuela.

We hope our readers enjoy these parts from her letters.

She wrote:

Monday morning I started teaching. I'm teaching two classes of sophomore literature and composition. The classes are two hours each and classes last for eight weeks. One class is slower than the other, with kids who have failed and have language problems. I have one boy who doesn't speak English very well—just Chinese! His name is Albert Chan. The rest have names ending in O — Pedro, Eduardo etc. They speak English but have trouble reading complicated things.

My second class is made up of kids just picking up credits and the goof-offs who are smart but just don't care. We ride to school each morning with an authentic Texas Aggie—it's a small world.

The coffee here is fantastic. The coffee machine is a contraption that, in the states, a man would need a license to operate. It has about 10 levers and the man puts about half a cup of coffee grounds in a spout and then cranks it up. The machine starts moving and the man pulls levers, and turns knobs and steam starts coming out of the side of the machine and a trickle of coffee comes out. He keeps doing this for about 10 minutes and finally there is about a third of a cup of the STRONGEST coffee you ever saw. I always order cafe con lech. So then he whips cream without sugar and fills the cup with cream. Then there is granulated sugar, about the size of a pinhead, to put in. Muy delicioso. I'm not kidding or

Funeral Held Tuesday in Ballinger For Mrs. Conda H. Wylie, Coke Pioneer

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning for Mrs. Conda H. Wylie, prominent pioneer ranchwoman. Last rites were held in the First United Methodist Church of Ballinger, with burial following in Evergreen Cemetery of Ballinger.

Conducting the services was Dr. Wayne Reynolds, superintendent of the Wesleyan Home at Georgetown and a former pastor of the Ballinger church. He was assisted by the pastor, the Rev. Pleas Todd. Allen Davis Funeral Home of Ballinger was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Wylie, who was 86, died at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at her home at Old Fort Chadbourne. She had been ill for several months.

She was born Sept. 17, 1884, at the ranch northeast of here where she lived all her life. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Garland G. Odom, early settlers in this area.

Her father and grandfather, Col. T. L. Odom established the ranch which is now known as the Wylie Ranch. Colonel Odom was a member of the Texas legislature and introduced into law the "Fence Bill" which permitted ranchers to fence their property. The family was among the first ranches in West Texas to erect fences.

Mrs. Wylie was married to Conda H. Wylie Dec. 14, 1904. Mr. Wylie, also a member of a pioneer ranching family of this area, died Jan. 6, 1969. The couple moved to the ranch after they married and it was their home all their lives.

The Wylies are known over this area for their contributions to institutions of the state. They and her sister, the late Mrs. John Curry, donated a large part of the money to build the Methodist church in Ballinger, and they gave a large contribution to the Methodist church in Bronte when it was enlarged and remodeled several years ago.

They were also large contributors to the West Texas Boys Ranch and to the West Texas

An apparent low bid of $185,640 was received Tuesday when directors of the Bronte Housing Authority met to open bids on an addition to the authority's low rent housing project. The bid was submitted by BFW Construction Co. of Temple.

The price covers a turnkey job on 12 new living units. Six of them would be single bedroom homes, designed especially for elderly persons, two would be regular single bedroom units and four would be two bedroom units.

The bid also covers cost of the land. Proposed site for the addition is the west half of the block on which the city hall, post office, car wash and Scott Butane are located. Only building on the site is one occupied as an office by W. H. Maxwell and the Best Service Station. The BFW company has an option to purchase the land.

A. E. Bell, executive director of the authority, said the bid will have to be approved by the state office at Fort Worth before a contract can be awarded. He said it probably would be at least three months before construction can start.

At the same meeting Norman R. Kiker was employed to serve as clerk of the works, when construction begins.

In a meeting of the housing authority last week, James M. Raughton was appointed to the board of directors. He succeeds Ben Oglesby whose term expired. Gilbert Basquez was reappointed for another term.

Students Register Here Next Week

Bronte School students will be pre-registered next week, according to Principal James M. Raughton.

All students who will be in high school this fall will register Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 5 and 6, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. This applies to everyone, regardless of whether he has been a student in the school before.

Raughton said that new students in the elementary school will be pre-registered Friday, Aug. 7, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Any elementary school student who has not been enrolled in Bronte School before should report to Raughton's office. This does not apply to those who will be enrolling in the first grade. Classes will begin Aug. 17.

Baptist Revival

A revival meeting started Sunday at First Baptist Church. The special services will continue through Sunday night.

The Rev. James H. Vermillion, pastor of Crescent Heights Baptist Church in Abilene, is doing the preaching and Walter Johnson, music director of Park Heights in San Angelo, is leading the singing.

Services are being held at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.; however, Sunday services will be held at the regular times, 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The pastor, the Rev. Harry K. Morris, said everyone has a cordial invitation to attend the remaining services.

Subscription Special Ends This Weekend

Friday and Saturday will be the last days of The Enterprise's annual subscription special. Anyone who hasn't subscribed should do so this week, as the regular prices will go back into effect Monday morning.

The regular price of $3.50 in Coke and adjoining counties has been reduced to $3.00. The price for the paper anywhere else is regularly $4.50 and has been reduced to $4.00.

These prices are good for new, renewal or extension subscriptions.

Orders will be taken by mail or at the Enterprise office. Persons in outlying communities may subscribe through their local Enterprise representatives. They are Mrs. Rocky Thompson at Blackwell, Mrs. Herbert Holland at Brookshire, and Susan Arnett or Mrs. Tom Green at Tennyson.

WENDELL LEE EMPLOYED

Wendell Lee has been employed by Dr. Taylor Evans of Lubbock to operate the farm he recently purchased from Waymar Percifull. A new house for Lee and his family is being erected at the farm.

SERVICES FRIDAY FOR MRS. ALTON ROBERTS

Funeral services for Mrs. Alton (Loretha) Roberts, 59, of Robert Lee will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in the Robert Lee Baptist Church.

Mrs. Roberts died late Wednesday at her home, apparently of a heart attack.

She was born Feb. 20, 1911, in Collin County and came to Coke County in 1928.

More details will be carried in next week's Enterprise.

School Contracts for 17 Air Conditioners

Bronte School's board of trustees took definite steps to air condition the school when they met in special session July 23. The problem of heat was considered acute this year, since the new school term will start almost two weeks earlier than has been the case. A bid of $6,647.61 from Nobles Air Conditioning of San Angelo for 17 evaporative air conditioners was accepted by the board. The price includes the units as well as all installation costs necessary to getting them in operation.

Eleven of the coolers will be placed in the rooms of the elementary school, three will go in the band hall, two in the home-making department and one in the vocational agriculture classroom.

Supt. C. B. Barbee said the installation of the 17 units will provide air conditioning for the entire school plant except the gymnasiums, dressing rooms and rest rooms. The new high school building already has refrigerated air.

Also accepted by the board was a bid of $1895 from Acme Sheet Metal of Ballinger for a combination refrigerated air conditioning and gas heating unit to be placed in the Elementary Learning Center (formerly known as the Elementary School Library). He said so many films and other audio-visual materials are stored in the area that the board felt it would be unwise to expose them to moisture given off by an evaporative cooler.

The board also employed James Badgett to drive the Tennyson school bus route, and agreed to participate in the Region XV Media Center services for the 1970-71 school year. The center provides materials such as films and other teaching aids. Cost of the service is $1 per each 1969-70 ADA to the school.

The board met in regular session July 13 and * Discussed the water seepage in the school auditorium. They are waiting for delivery on some sand which will be placed to facilitate drainage.

* Made a further study of the valuations of school district properties in Runnels County compared to valuations on the county tax rolls.

* Set the bond for the school tax assessor-collector to provide maximum coverage for any one day's collections up to $30,000.

* Reviewed the kindergarten ADA expected this fall and found 27 kindergarten age children have been enumerated.

* Approved the school's 1970-71 homemaking program.

* Heard a report from a representative of the faculty liaison committee.

* Reviewed the school's supplemental aid program.

* Adopted a student insurance program in which the school will pay the entire cost and will provide coverage for all school activities.

* Approved a bus service schedule.

* Approved the original 1969 tax roll which showed a valuation of $11,282,289.

* Approved a supplemental tax roll for 1969 which added $3,970 valuation to the original roll.

* Approved the delinquent tax roll which showed delinquent taxes in the amount of $7,410.15.

* Revised some student policies.

* Decided to sell season football tickets this year. Only three home games are on the schedule, but another one is being sought. Cost of the tickets will be $1.50 per game, regardless of the number of games.

Austin—As fast as the state's major finance agencies moved out of the capitol into the new Finance Building, contractors' bids were opened for remodeling of the old quarters to the tune of more than $1 million.

Work soon will be underway on all floors of the capitol, including the basement.

Senators will get private offices of at least 550 square feet each. Bulk of the new Senate space will come from quarters long occupied by the State Comptroller.

House members will have smaller offices—but at least a private office—in the old first floor State Treasury quarters and the basement.

Senators plan new committee rooms, including one specially wired for sound and tv lights.

Capitol station post office will make an early move into the new Finance Building, clearing the east entrance of the statehouse for restoral to its original splendor.

ENROLLMENT LIMIT ASKED—Soaring public college enrollments prompted a request from the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System that each school give "immediate consideration" to the problem.

If voluntary curtailment does not result, Board officials indicated they will ask the Legislature for power to order mandatory ceilings. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin recently held that the agency does not now have such authority. University of Texas system regents, meanwhile, approved a UT enrollment control plan and a lottery system for use when units reach capacity.

Coordinating Board at its last meeting also placed the student loan program under federal loan insurance to guarantee repayments, advised expulsion of students who are involved in campus disruptions, and directed studies of free credit exchange among all public institutions and possible elimination of unnecessary college courses.

INTEGRATION PRESSED — Federal negotiators conferring with representatives of Texas school districts found 48 not in compliance with desegregation provisions of the 1964 civil rights act.

Sessions are seen as a last-ditch effort to get voluntary integration without a massive lawsuit by the U. S. Justice Department demanding immediate compliance.

Negotiators included three teams representing the civil rights division of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, plus Justice Department Washington headquarters and Dallas regional office.

Texas Education Agency has contacted all 48 districts following receipt of a letter from the Justice Department asking TEA's help in ending school segregation.

School districts were limited to a maximum of three on their negotiating teams — preferably the board president, superintendent and school attorney or board vice president or another board member.

Federal teams limited each district to one-hour hearings. Any agreement, if not worked out in that time, will be communicated to HEW as soon as possible after local board discussions.

Each district was requested to bring copies of its own desegregation plans to the Austin meetings.

Independent or consolidated school districts named by the Justice Department as not in compliance were:

- Amarillo, Atlanta, Austin, Bellville, Calvert, Carthage, Churchill (annexed to Jacksonville), Concord Rural High, Crockett, Cypress-Fairbanks, Ector County, Elysian Fields, Ferris, Friendship (annexed to Caldwell), Galena Park, Garland, Herne, Hempstead, Henderscon, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Karnack, Katy, Kilgore, Klein, La Vega, Lubbock, Lufkin, Madisonville, Marshall, Midland, Mount Haven (annexed to Jacksonville), Nacogdoches, Palestine, Port Arthur, Refugio, Richardson, Sabine Pass, San Angelo, San Augustine, Shelbyville, Silsbee, South Park, Sulphur Springs, Temple, Waskom and Wichita Falls.

COURTS SPEAK — Third Court of Civil Appeals voided incorporation of West Lake Hills (an Austin suburb), holding that a city cannot incorporate solely to escape annexation and taxes of a neighboring city.

Supreme Court held that the State Board of Medical Examiners could not revoke the license of a Galveston pathologist for failing to keep records of medication administered to himself and his family.

Reversing an Abilene domestic relations court ruling, the High Court directed that custody of four children be taken from the mother and given to the father.

Court of Criminal Appeals said the co-defendant in a case cannot be called as a witness against another unless he previously agreed to testify.

WAR ON TAXES — Texas Manufacturers Association has declared war on additional state taxes and set up a special department to keep an eye on state spending.

Alarmed by reports that the 1971 tax bill may go as high as $700 million TMA President Ed C. Burris said its organization is going to do everything in its power to prevent any kind of increase.

TMA, said Burris, also will be on guard against long range spending programs, with increases automatically built into state law.

Carl H. Braubach, a budget analyst under former Gov. John Connally, and one time Legislative Budget Board staffer John A. Haddad will head a research project on keeping government spending within revenues. Offices will be located in Austin near the capitol.

TEXAS SHEEP SENT TO MEXICO — Texas sheep are going south of the border -- to help Mexico upgrade its livestock breeding.

Aided by the State Department of Agriculture, Dr. M. V. Alberto Encinas, director general of the Livestock Division of Mexico's Department of Agriculture, recently began selecting more than 1,000 head in the West Texas area for the experiment.

Now your U.S. Savings Bonds pay the highest interest in history: a full 5 per cent when held to maturity of 5 years and 10 months. (4% the first year; 5.20% thereafter to maturity.) Previously, these Bonds earned you only 4 1/4% if you held them for seven years.

The new interest began June 1, 1969. So all of the Bonds you own, no matter when you bought them, have been collecting higher interest since that time.

Those Bonds are still replaced if lost, stolen or burned.

You can still buy them through Payroll Savings or the Bond-a-Month

BROTHER OF LOCAL MAN DIES AT SEABROOK HOME

Funeral services were held Thursday in League City for Nathan D. Martin, 43. He was a brother of J. W. Martin of Bronte. Mr. Martin died at his home in Seabrook Tuesday morning, apparently from a heart attack. Burial was in a Pasadena Cemetery.

He was born at Maverick Dec. 6, 1927, to the late Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Martin and attended Maverick school. He operated Space TV at Seabrook and did contract electronic work at NASA. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Sherry; two sons, Nathan Jr. of Seabrook and John Martin of Baytown; four sisters, Mrs. Edith Fowler of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Douglas (Ruth) Forbus of Baytown, Mrs. P. N. (Annie Doris) Touchstone of Houston and Mrs. R. G. (Dena) Rhodes of Bartlesville, Okla.; two brothers, F. E. Martin of Portland, Ore., and J. W. Martin of Bronte.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ragsdale and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ragsdale and children attended the Ragsdale family reunion. It was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Ragsdale at Buffalo Gap.

Longhorns had only eight games lined up, but school officials were busily looking for at least one more game.

Coach Sandusky and new assistant Coach Bob Shields will attend a coaching school Monday through Thursday of next week at Houston.

Sandusky reminded boys who expect to come out for football that now would be a good time to begin their running exercises in order to be ready for some tough workouts. The coach said he is expecting 25 or 26 boys to come out.

exaggerating. That is really how they do it.

We went out to lunch yesterday. I had paella. It's rice and shrimp and clams on the half shell, and chicken and sausage with a delicious sauce. Patty had a seafood platter that had octopus on it and I ate some. It was all right (?).

Another surprise was the American restaurants they have like we have Mexican food restaurants. They serve perros calientes, literally translated, HOT DOGS.

July 6—This has been an exciting weekend. Friday, July 3, was the first day the new U. S. ambassador was here. I don't know how much news you got about it in the states, but Venezuela has been without a U. S. ambassador for eight months. Mr. McClintock is very very nice and everyone likes him. The July 4th there was a flag raising ceremony at the embassy. The Venezuelan army marched and their band played. Then all my Marine friends came out in their dress uniforms and did a lot of fancy stuff and raised the flag. There are ten of them and they really looked nice. Then Mr. McClintock spoke and I shook hands with him. Unfortunately, I wasn't the only one.

Saturday afternoon the Thunderbirds, the Air Force flying group, performed. They were fantastic and I really enjoyed it. Then yesterday, July 5th, was Venezuelan Independence Day. The Venezuelans had an air show — it didn't compare with our Thunderbirds but it was good.

Everybody is all excited about Ambassador McClintock. That is really big news here. I met him at the ceremony Saturday. The Americans abroad are much more patriotic than they are at home (Venezuelans and U. S.).

It was a very huge crowd at the flag raising ceremony. I got a flutter when I saw the flag going up, first time in a long time. It was hard to believe, seeing the flag and the Venezuelan band playing the U. S. National Anthem that they hate it. Nevertheless, they do. The younger ones, like my students, feel strongly about the U. S. and it. They know they have to have our market and are under our thumb, in that respect, and haven't forgotten U. S. activities from T. Roosevelt to Wilson and don't like it. The older ones hate us for that too. One of the biggest victories I've won in my class was when one boy told me that the people didn't like gringos but that my classes like me.

I'm still teaching and I THINK the kids are learning. It's difficult; my kids aren't but three or four years younger than I am, and they are all boys and are BIGGER than I am.

Last night we went out to eat and I had an AMERICAN pizza. The Italian pizzas have about four inches of dough and the American pizzas are like we have at home. They also have a Kentucky Fried Chicken place here called Polla Kentucky Chicken. (That means Chicken Kentucky Chicken for all you illiterates. Isn't that funny?)

I sent you all a newspaper. It's the Daily Journal, the only English speaking (Editor's note: ???) paper here. We get the Miami Herald three times a week, the Daily Journal and Look magazine. See, I'm really not too far from civilization.

I promised you a report, so I'll write one about the traffic in Caracas. The streets here are good. There is a fantastic (super highway) autopista system, as modern as I've seen in the states. There also are fantastic tunnels. Between here and the beach, there are three tunnels going under the mountains. They are four-lane structures with curves and even slight upgrades and downgrades and they are LONG.

But, back to the city streets. They are good but they are confusing and always under construction. They are confusing because they are laid out so funny, because some are one way and because sometimes you drive on the left side of the road and sometimes on the right. Strange, no? They are always under construction because there is a tremendous drainage system that keeps Caracas from floating away that ALWAYS needs working on. The detours are really a scream. A detour may take you where you want to go, or it might take you someplace completely different, or it might take you right back where you started. Now you have a picture of the streets in Caracas.

Let me tell you about the drivers. The traffic signs are put there for the edification of the driver, not really as a law. A driver comes up to a red light and then goes on his merry way. There is no such thing as a lane in Caracas traffic. A lane is formed anywhere a car can squeeze in. Intersections are a game of chicken to see if the other car will stop. All in all, it's pretty hectic and very amazing. There are so many accidents that almost all the cars have dents. But it's fun; the Latins believe in honking too. (Do they EVER!).

PERSONALS

Tuesday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seay were his sister, Mrs. Cora Carlile of DeLeon, and a nephew, E. E. Carlile and wife, Dublin. They were joined by Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Zell Moore and Mrs. Clay Fancher. They also visited Mrs. Alma Seay, Mrs. Vernon Lammers and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carlile.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkins and family of Lubbock visited Saturday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wilkins, and Miss Joy Lynn Wilkins.

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman
17th District

Washington—Only a very few times in the years of writing this column has the first person "I" ever been used. This is one exception. It is necessary to explain a trip Ruth and I plan to take the week of Aug. 3.

American Airlines is inaugurating a new flight to New Zealand and Australia and we are invited, along with my colleague from Ft. Worth, Jim Wright. The ambassadors of New Zealand and Australia are to be guests on the trip. Mayors of several cities and other officials will be along.

The flight will leave from New York City on Aug. 1, stop in San Francisco and then to Hawaii. From Hawaii the next stop scheduled is Pago Pago and from there to Auckland, New Zealand.

After two days in New Zealand the flight to Sydney, Australia, will be the end of the line.

On the return to Hawaii, another stop will be made in American Samoa. After a layover of a day or so in Hawaii, the trip will end back in New York.

It is entirely possible that important matters in the Congress may prevent our making the trip but as of now we plan to go. On crucial votes an attempt will be made to have what is known as a "live pair." This simply means that a member who is going to vote opposite of the way I vote, would announce his vote, withdraw his vote and vote "present." This cancels each against the other. A "general pair" is a record only and does not count in a tally of the total of "for" or "against."

Neither Ruth nor I are enthusiastic travelers. We have been invited a number of times to make foreign "junkets" of one kind or another but have been too busy to take advantage of the invitation. Just recently friends invited us on a fishing trip to Norway where salmon fishing in lakes below Bergen is supposed to be the best in the world. No strings attached, but we felt we could not be away at the time and besides, it was a pretty fast pace. So is the schedule to New Zealand and Australia but there are opportunities on this trip as well a pleasure.

Our country has a great deal in common with these English speaking nations. We have some competition in trade matters, mainly in meats. Imports of beef from both these countries are a issue of importance to our cattle raisers. Voluntary agreements are now in effect but imports are a question involved in the Reciprocal Trade Bill now pending in the Ways and Means Committee of which I am a member. It would be highly preferable to have agreement on the amount of beef and lamb imports without legislation but it may not be possible and protect our own producers. Something might be accomplished by some direct contact with the people who produce, rather than through the formal negotiations of diplomacy.

New Zealand and Australia have been on our side since World War I. They fought with the Allies in World War II and have contributed more than any other nation to our side in Vietnam.

There are many American investments in these two countries. As a matter of fact, we have a considerable American interest in ranching in both countries which complicates the meat import proposition. Of course, this is true in hundreds of cases in manufacturing and producers in many foreign countries and makes foreign trade exceedingly complicated.

We are essentially a "free-trade" country but there must be reciprocity and equal treatment in tariffs and quotas. Our balance of payments has got to be improved. We continue to run deficits in trade exchange which has reached a point of serious concern. We cannot continue forever in this unfavorable position.

If the planned trip materializes, an effort will be made to send back comments for next week's column.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (HJR30)
General Election Nov. 3, 1970

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Subsections (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), and (13), Section 1-a, Article V, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

"(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature.

"B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

"(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

"(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary."

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

"(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of, the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1970, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment relating to the removal, retirement, or censure of Justices, Judges, and Justices of Peace under prescribed circumstances."
