Everything Okay At Nursing Home

Bronte Nursing Home got a clean bill of health Tuesday when an inspection of the facility was made by the Medical Service Division of the State Department of Public Welfare.

Blackwell Funeral For Louis Sweet

Louis Wesley Sweet, 70, of Blackwell died at 5 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 3, in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, after a short illness.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in First United Methodist Church in Blackwell, with the pastor, the Rev. Stan Cosby, officiating. He was assisted by a former pastor, the Rev. Bill Perkins of Jayton. Burial was in Blackwell Cemetery under direction of McCoy Funeral Home of Sweetwater.

Mr. Sweet was a farmer, rancher and brickmason. He was a member of Blackwell Methodist Church and was Worshipful Master of the Hylton Masonic Lodge and Worthy Patron of the Hylton Eastern Star Chapter. He was a member of the Waco Scottish Rite, Suez Shrine, the Sweetwater Shrine Club and the Scottish Rite Association.

He was a member of Blackwell School board for 10 years and was a member of the board of Simmons Memorial Hospital in Sweetwater.

Survivors include his wife; four brothers, Johnny Sweet of the home, Allen Sweet of Lake Whitney, George Sweet of Lubbock and Edwin Sweet of Miami Beach, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Cecil Smith of Blackwell and Mrs. Gus Schwedler of Dallas.

Pallbearers were R. Q. Spence, H. G. Thompson, Ernest Ware, Melvin Tubbs, Roy Sanderson and Therell Burwick.

Area Receives Weekend Rain

Rain fell off and on during the weekend in the Bronte area, bringing cooler weather for a time. Since Monday the weather has been hot and humid with cloudy skies.

Most rain gauges in the city measured 1.3 inches for the weekend total.

Other measurements reported to the Enterprise, which included the Labor Day shower were: J. B. Mackey, northeast of town, 2.5 inches; Wylie Ranch, northeast, 4.5 inches; Ed Cumbie, north, 2.8 inches; Garland Black, northwest, 3.5 inches; Joe McCutchen, west, 4.1; Albert and Joe Rawlings, southwest, .7 inch; Maverick area, 4 inches.

To the south, Tennyson reported only a sprinkle. Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Tennyson rain gauger, said the area had a total of 9.2 inches for the month of August.

The weather continued hot and humid at press time Thursday.

L. O. Clark, administrator of the home, said inspectors could not offer one suggestion for improving the service of the home. No deficiencies were noted in any phase of the operation.

Clark said that contrary to some rumors which have been circulating, Bronte Nursing Home is not going to close. He said the home does need more residents, but indicated the board of directors has no plans to close it. Clark said Bronte citizens need to advertise the home any time they have an opportunity. He said he knew there were elderly and ill persons who need the care offered, if they only knew how to go about obtaining it. Anyone who would like more information about admittance may go by or write to the home.

Clark said he felt credit for the good report from the inspection team should go to the home's physician, Dr. John R. Harris, the nurses and other staff members.

District Governor Meets with Lions

Bronte Evening Lions Club had a ladies night at their regular Tuesday meeting and also entertained District Governor and Mrs. Ewart Phillips, Brownwood. A total of 18 members and 15 wives were present. Other special guests were Deputy District Governor and Mrs. George Garrett of Winters and Zone Chairman Charles L. Shepard of Ballinger.

After dinner was served, Phillips spoke to the Lions and guests about the Lions Club's new Eye Bank program. He is an instructor at Howard Payne College.

Royce Dyess won the $5.00 at the club drawing.

The Evening Lions meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Hurlin Lee is president and Fred Hughes is secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. J. W. Martin spent Saturday and Sunday in Fort Worth with her son, Gary Martin, and his family.

Reserve Seat Sale Starts Next Week

Reserve seats for the 1972 Bronte Longhorn football games will go on sale early next week. The season passes are being offered at a special bargain rate this year, even below the price of regular admission to the five home games, provided the purchase is made before the first home game on Sept. 21.

Gate admission to games this year will be $1.50 per game, for a total of $7.50. However, season ticket purchasers who buy their tickets before Sept. 21 may pay only $7.00.

There will be no reserved seats held back this year. The seats will be sold on a first come, first served basis. Purchases may be made in the office of Supt. C. B. Barbee.

The season tickets are good for games on Sept. 21, Sept. 29, Oct. 6, Oct. 27 and Nov. 3.

The 1972 Bronte Longhorns will begin their season Friday with a pretty good journey up to Newcastle which is about half way between Abilene and Wichita Falls.

Coaches Gerald Sandusky and Bob Shields have 17 boys on their roster now, but one of them, Jim Dan Raughton, will not be suited out, due to an injured finger.

Coach Sandusky said Thursday that he felt the two teams were pretty evenly matched. Newcastle won their region last year, but lost most of their players to graduation. They have four of last year's starters back this year.

'69 STUDY CLUB TO MEET

The '69 Study Club will have their first meeting of the new club year Monday, Sept. 11, at 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Martin Lee. A salad supper has been planned and new yearbooks will be distributed. All members are urged to attend.

Blackwell Opens Season Tonight

The Blackwell Hornets will begin their 1972 football season Friday night with a home game against McCaulley. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

Coach Ed Poehls is a little short on material this year, but he hopes to field a good team and give the Hornets' opponents some real competition, as well as to provide some exciting entertainment for fans.

We goofed on the Blackwell football ad the first week saying the game with McCaulley would be played "there." The game will be played at Blackwell. We are sorry for this mistake and will try to keep those unwanted "T's" from creeping in from now on.

Coaches and school officials urged all Hornet fans to be on hand at 8 o'clock Friday night.

Again this year, there will be a page ad in The Enterprise before each game, boosting the Hornets on to victory. School officials and coaches expressed their appreciation to sponsors of the ad for their backing. Pictures of individual team members as well as cheer leaders and twirlers will be run in the ads during the course of the season.

Next game on the schedule will be on Sept. 15, when the Hornets will host the team from Highland. District play will begin Oct. 7 at Water Valley. Junior high schedule will begin next Thursday, Sept. 14, when Water Valley comes here for a game beginning at 6 p.m.

GARLAND BLACK HOME

Garland Black was released Wednesday from a San Angelo clinic where he was a patient for five days with a lung infection.

Prior to this hospital stay he was a patient at Bexar County Lung Clinic in San Antonio for five weeks during the summer. He is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Maude Grimes recently returned from a two weeks' trip to California where she visited her sister, Mrs. T. A. Mitchell.

Fair Plans Taking Shape

The tempo is increasing in getting ready for the first annual Coke County Fair which is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Sept. 22 and 23. The fair will be held in the old gymnasium at Robert Lee School, and the public is invited to attend from 1 to 6 p.m. on Sept. 22 and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sept. 23.

Both adult and youth divisions are being set up for most categories of the show. Persons who enter adult divisions must be 19 years old or older.

A special feature of the fair will be a pet show and youth parade. All children up to 12 years of age are eligible to enter. The parade will assemble at the rear of the courthouse at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 23, and will proceed from there to the front of Robert Lee School.

A big assortment of entries has been provided for in the various department of the fair. Included are canned goods, cakes, bread, candies, paintings, crafts and handwork, flower arrangements, cotton, grain and seed, vegetables, fruits and nuts, historical items, clothing, and many others. A complete list of divisions and departments is available at the Extension Service office in the courthouse. The material also includes rules and regulations of the fair.

All entries may be made with no charge, except to those who wish to sell or take orders.

Those in charge are also encouraging businessmen and others to set up booths advertising their wares.

Everyone is urged to make plans now to have entries in the fair and to attend it. Extension Agents Mrs. Fay C. Roe and Sterling Lindsey are working on the project.

Roster

This year's Longhorn squad follows:

Seniors: Gary Skelton, E; Danny Carper, TB; Mark Duncan, WB; Brad Reed, T; Randy Gibbs, E.

Juniors: Bobby Reyes, WB; Kim Barrett, FB.

Sophomores: Alan Barbee, QB; Kit Carlton, C; David Chapman, G; Jim Dan Raughton, WB; Louis Martinez, G.

Freshmen: Kerwin Denton, T; Mark Lee, T; Nelson Coulter, QB; Chris Ward, E; Kyle Lee, G.

School officials urged this week that a big crowd of fans follow the Horns to this season opener. They suggested the backing of fans could mean the difference as to whether or not Bronte has a good football team this year.

The booster pages for the team are starting in this week's Enterprise. During the course of the season pictures of all the players will be run. The management of The Enterprise, coaches and school officials expressed appreciation of this backing of the 1972 Longhorns.

Austin — Gov. Preston Smith is convincing high state officials and legislators he is serious about calling a special legislative session on insurance reform after mid-September.

Smith himself revived speculation at a news conference last week when he said odds favor such a session sometime before the general election November 7.

The Governor told newsmen legislative leaders had indicated they will cooperate with him. He included Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes among the latter.

"I believe he is giving real serious consideration to calling a session," said Barnes. "He really wants to have one."

Smith made clear there is nothing definite yet about his plans, and he would still want to make sure a session would be productive before he summons lawmakers.

Establishment of a competitive insurance rate system for all lines of insurance would be his top objective, Smith said.

He added he "probably" would seek Insurance Board reorganization but added:

"If we established competitive rates, I don't know how much further you would need the Board."

Smith earlier said an opinion by Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin that the governor cannot order funds transferred from one agency to another to meet emergencies may also bring on a special session.

Smith said recent opinions would place "drastic limitations" on the governor's powers and "threaten virtually every authority of the chief executive."

VET BONDS SOLD — The last $30.7 million in state veterans land board bonds were sold in Austin last week.

If the program is to continue without interruption, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said, a new bond authorization will have to be submitted to voters by the legislature. Four authorizations have been approved in the form of constitutional amendments during the land program's 23 year history.

Low bid of 3.6902 per cent interest was submitted by the First National Bank of Dallas and Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago and Associates.

Armstrong said he has support of House Speaker-elect Price Daniel Jr. and other lawmakers in submitting a new constitutional amendment to keep the program alive after the $30.7 million is spent. He recalled the program has been self supporting, has required no taxes and has benefited 48,000 veterans. The Commissioner indicated an additional $50 million to $100 million in bonds will be sought.

AG OPINIONS — Attorney General Martin, in a new opinion, struck again at the governor's powers over state fiscal matters. He invalidated more than 40 appropriations riders requiring approval by the chief executive (or other officials) on expenditures of funds.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

* Deduction of the value of a life estate is not authorized in computing inheritance taxes when the life tenant dies within five years after receiving it.

* Piercing of ears for ear rings does not constitute practice of medicine and requires no medical license.

* The Board of Nursing Home Administrators must deposit the initial license fee, which may not exceed $100 for the biennium, and the renewal license fee into the State Treasury beginning June 15.

RULES BATTLE — The Democratic party battle over rules goes on and on, and will resume in earnest at the Sept. 19, state convention in Houston.

A new committee to study proposed changes in the rules will meet prior to the convention to study recommendations.

DEMO CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED — Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and Agriculture Commissioner John C. White emerged as co-chairmen of the Texas campaign for George McGovern and Sargent Shriver.

Both acknowledged the Democratic national nominees are starting from "away behind," but they predicted the outlook will improve within the next few weeks.

McGovern and Shriver and President Nixon will devote more time to wooing Texas voters than any other national candidates ever did before, said White.

White defended gubernatorial nominee Dolph Briscoe for not assuming a national campaign post. He said Briscoe has active opposition and is "doing what is right and proper" in concentrating on his own race.

A statewide steering committee is expected to be named soon.

"LOST" CLAIMANTS SOUGHT — One hundred and 37 "lost" claimants who have $49,500 coming to them from an anti-trust suit settlement are being sought by the attorney general's office.

If they can be located, they will get money recovered by the attorney general from five major drug manufacturers in a suit involving overcharges for the antibiotic drug tetracycline. Those who filed claims but have not received copies of the final judgment in the price fixing suit should call the attorney general's office in Austin.

STATE PAY RAISE GRANTED — A 6.8 per cent pay raise for about 67,000 state employees effective Sept. 1 has approval of the Federal Pay Board.

The pay boost was authorized under a special "catch up" provision of regulations permitting increases for employee groups where the average raises over the last three years was less than seven per cent. Pay Board approval is necessary where raises are higher than the five per cent limit established as a guideline to check inflation.

ACT TO BRING STATE $60 MILLION — Texas would get about $60 million in new federal money under the Rural Development Act of 1972.

The legislation authorizes more than $980 million nationwide for physical and economic development of rural America. The program seeks to bring people and business to underpopulated areas and thus ease the congestion in urban centers.

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman 17th District

Washington — Something called "Social Services," administered by the various states and subsidized by $3 to $1 in federal funds, is another program out of control, proving wasteful and ineffective according to reports.

The provision allowing wasteful and in most instances unproductive, expenditures, is a part of the Health, Education and Welfare appropriation bill of 1967. This section of a 237 page bill provides that the federal government will match three to one money spent by the states for such things as helping people adjust when they go off welfare and on instruction as to how to stay off welfare. In fact, funds can be used to inform people how to get on welfare.

The entire section is vague and subject to many interpretations, depending on state employees to make decisions. The federal money is "open ended," which means the federal government must pay $3 for every $1 spent by the states virtually without limit.

Between 1967 and 1969 the cost in federal funds amounted to $354 million. It is estimated that this year's cost will run to a total of $4.8 billion. This increase, according to officials administering the federal end of the program, comes about by the states having learned how to get more of these funds.

California is receiving about 40 per cent of the total. Massachusetts comes along with huge handouts which support a goodly part of their entire budget.

Mississippi, which drew less than $2 million last year, is asking for $463 million, about two-thirds of its entire state budget. Alaska, with a population of 300,000, less than 1/4 of our 17th Congressional District, has $20 million. The state of Maryland, here near the federal trough, has management consultants to justify an increase of 1,825 per cent to the sum of $418 million. By contrast, Minnesota, with a population approximately that of Maryland, is requesting $95.5 million. Our own state of Texas had originally asked for $42.3 million for 1973. That figure has now been upped to $178,621,000, an increase of 3,210 per cent.

Worst of all about this program, or better to say, this direct handout, is that no real audit, as to how and for what the money is spent is required. Reimbursement is claimed for spending not only by state and local governments, but by private agencies. In other words, the money is handed over and no questions asked. And we wonder how spending has gotten out of control.

There is growing indication that federal funds are being used to replace existing state expenditures, rather than augment the supply of social services to needy people as the legislation intended. The chairman of the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress has said that some of the services included in the program may be badly needed by the poor but the uncontrolled subsidy is not the way to insure they are provided.

The committee has scheduled hearings to inquire into these operations. State officials will be asked to explain how increases in requested federal funds benefit former, current, or "potential" welfare recipients. Federal officials will be called on to explain how federal funds are disbursed so freely without more accounting.

One of the first questions some of us want to ask is about a case reported from Boston. How does the ole boy who is working to afford a much needed new refrigerator feel when he sees the person next door get one for nothing? From reports it came from "social services."

Beef Factory Increases... Egg Production Shows Gain... Cattle Sold at Auction Declines... Egg-type Chicks Decline... Screw-worm Agreement...

THE BEEF FACTORY of Texas—the nation's largest—has increased almost 275,000 head during the first half of the year.

The number of beef cows, which determines the numbers of beef calves to be produced, total 5,725,000 in Texas as of July 1. This compares with 5,452,000 as of Jan. 1.

The number of all cows in Texas has also shown an increase. Total cow numbers in the state as of July 1 totaled 6,080,000 head; this compared with 5,807,000 head as of Jan. 1.

The Blacklands have the highest number of beef cows and all cows. As of July 1, there were 920,400 cows (854,000 of that being beef cows) in the Blacklands. The east Texas and south central Texas regions were next in total numbers of cows and beef cows.

The east and northeast Texas area had 775,000 beef cows and a total of 864,100 cows as of July 1. The south central area had 766,000 beef cows and a total of 810,500 cows as of July 1.

EGG PRODUCTION in Texas during July was up three per cent from a year ago, but steady with last month. Total egg production during July totaled 222,000,000. Nationwide, egg production was down one per cent from last year.

Total numbers of Texas layers as of July 1 were 11.7 million. Texas eggs laid daily per 100 hens averaged 61.2 during July; a year ago the average was 57.6. Nationwide, the average was 62.7.

The July hatch of egg type chickens in the state was down 34 per cent from a year ago and 23 per cent below a month earlier. Broiler chicks showed an increase of three per cent. The total turkey poult hatch for July was up 18 per cent from a year ago, but 33 per cent below a month ago.

A NINE per cent decline in numbers of cattle and calves marketed through Texas auction markets inspected by the Texas Animal Health Commission is reported by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Cattle and calves marketed totaled 619,000 head, or nine per cent below a year ago. Sheep sales totaled 132,000, down 17 per cent from a year ago and 39 per cent under a month ago. Sales of goats at 27,000 were down 31 per cent from a year ago.

Hog sales totaled 45,000 head; this is 29 per cent below a year ago.

THE FINAL step toward eradication of the screwworm in Texas has been taken. An agreement between Mexico and the United States was signed recently which will result in a cooperative effort to eradicate the screwworm in Mexico.

It will involve building a sterile screwworm fly factory off the Isthmus of Tehuantepec in Mexico. Production from this plant and from the fly factory at Mission will be used to wipe out the pest in Mexico.

Livestock producers in Texas are urged to continue to check their livestock regularly, treat wounds on livestock for screwworm control, and continue to submit suspected samples to the fly laboratory at Mission.

Eradication officials say plans are being made now to combat the screwworm next year.

RL Hearing Set On Hair Length

A hearing is scheduled to be held at 2 p.m. Friday concerning the expulsion of a student from Robert Lee High School because of the length of his hair.

Judge Joe L. Mays of 51st District Court issued an order last week commanding D. J. Walker, president of the school board; Jerry Gibbs, high school principal; and Jimmy Bickley, school superintendent, to appear at the hearing.

Sidney Wallace Burns, 18, a high school senior, is the student who was expelled from school. His father, Paul Burns, made application for a writ of mandamus against the three school men. The school men are to show why the writ of mandamus should not be granted allowing young Burns to return to school.

The application says dismissal was made without notice and without hearing and did not comply with the rules and regulations sent previously to parents as contained in the Student Handbook of Robert Lee High School.

How to make saving as easy as spending.

Getting rid of the good old American Green is about the easiest thing in the world. Everywhere you turn there's somebody ready and willing to help you. So you keep making it, and you keep spending it.

But, saving money is another matter. That's why you should know about the Payroll Savings Plan. It makes saving about as easy as it's ever going to get. When you sign up for the Plan where you work, the amount you specify is set aside from each paycheck. That money is used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

The beautiful thing about the Payroll Savings Plan is that your money is saved for you before you, or anybody else, can get his hands on it.

And, now there's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds—for E. Bonds, 5½% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra ½%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970 . . . with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds. Join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Make saving as easy as spending.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And, of course, remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

Take stock in America.
New Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.
