Teams Tops In District Play

RANGE IMPROVEMENT—This picture shows excellent results from well planned and applied conservation practices on the land. The brush was controlled by root plowing. The land was roller chopped and seeded with a mixture of side oats grama, greensprangletop, blue panic, K. R. bluestem and sand lovegrass. The pasture was rested following seeding so the grass plants could become well established and produce a seedcrop. Results of growing grass on this pasture have been excellent. This is a part of T. K. Whiteside's complete conservation program and was applied with funds through the Great Plains Conservation Program. Whiteside and W. E. Jacoby examine grass in the pasture.

Whiteside Top Conservationist

At their last regular meeting, the board of Directors of Coke County Soil and Water Conservation District selected T. K. Whiteside as the Outstanding Conservationist in the district for 1972. The selection was made from several highly qualified cooperators who have made excellent progress in planning and applying complete conservation plans on the land they operate.

Whiteside has applied conservation practices such as brush control, range seeding, cross fencing, deferred grazing, and proper grazing use. These practices were planned to meet the needs of the land for better resource management. From the results that Whiteside has achieved, there can be no doubt that this has been achieved. Kleingrass, sideoats grama, green sprangletop, blue panic and K. R. bluestem have been used in grass seeding mixtures and have made excellent growth and production. Rest during the growing season following seeding has been an important reason for getting the good results.

According to Whiteside, these practices have been beneficial to wildlife such as deer, quail and turkey because the high producing grasses provide more food and cover than the original vegetation.

The junior high girls basketball team took the championship trophy last weekend when they competed in the Robert Lee tournament. The boys team was not so fortunate and lost a contest for third place.

In their second game the locals took a 30-20 victory from Roscoe. Leah Barbee was high scorer with 13; Shelley Cumble had 12; Karen Arrott 5.

In the championship finals with the Robert Lee girls, the locals won 35-31. Cumble was high pointer with 19; Barbee had 8; Arrott 5; Kim Glascock 3.

Both boys and girls high school teams took wins last Friday night when they traveled to Greenwood. The boys took an easy 96-33 victory and the girls won a squeaker that wound up with a 60-59 score. Two more wins came out of Tuesday night's games when Blackwell came here. The boys won 67-54 and the girls took a big 81-32 win.

In the Greenwood game Bub Waldrop dropped in 23 points; Tony Mackey had 16; Wayne Alexander 10; Nelson Coulter 10; Gary Skelton 9; Kit Carlton 6; Alan Barbee 6; Jim Dan Raughton 6; Marvin Ensor 5; David Chapman 5.

Jean Ann Raughton, who has seen limited action since suffering a shoulder separation in the Forsan game two weeks ago, played the final two minutes and did an outstanding job at guard.

Skelton was the big gun in the Bronte-Blackwell contest with 28; Raughton shot 16; Barbee 11; Alexander 6; Waldrop 4; Carlton 2.

In the girls game with Blackwell, it was Golson with 33; Hubbard with 19; Coalson 12; Lee 9; Arrott 4; Marla Thompson 4.

The girls lead the district with their 9-1 district record with only two games to play. Their season record is 22-10.

Austin — This city lost part of its "personality" last week. Most Austin citizens acted sophisticated about the fact that President Lyndon Baines Johnson was seen frequently at public events...

He had made frequent appearances recently — the Cotton Bowl, Civil Rights forum, Governor Briscoe's inauguration, and an economic seminar at San Marcos.

Yes, Austin and Texas will miss LBJ.

He did not try to dominate the show when he appeared publicly. did not make "news" by voicing opinions on everything, but his influence was felt in many important ways.

During last year's political campaigns in Texas, he was on the phone raising money, offering advice — supporting those who had been loyal to him during his political career.

The Texas Democratic party will miss LBJ.

Although it will not be listed in his biography, Lyndon Baines Johnson was a journalist.

He wrote a book. He helped write and produce several television news specials. Most of all, he "made" news during his entire lifetime.

His daughter, Mrs. Luci Nugent, likes to point out that her father was "surrounded by journalists."

"My father had to live with journalists all of his life," she said recently. "My mother was a journalism graduate of the University of Texas. My sister wrote for major magazines, and I've enjoyed doing some writing."

Men who influenced him on many major decisions were journalists... Bill Moyers, George Christian, Tom Johnson and many more. He confided in many Texas newspaper editors, Art Kowert, Bob Jackson, Bill Hobby and others.

Texas journalists will miss LBJ.

He refused to let his illness slow him down.

His last public appearance was a tree planting ceremony near his home with Lady Bird. He had spent an active Christmas holiday with his wife, daughters, their husbands and children.

He attended the funeral of the 14 young people who had been killed in the bus-truck accident and the funeral of President Harry S. Truman less than a month ago.

His family will miss LBJ.

President Johnson's political career will continue to be an inspiration to young people interested in government and politics.

He came from a family of public servants, but hundreds of college students in this state look at his career and contemplate the "path to the presidency."

He was first a young school teacher, then youth administrator, aide to a Congressman, Congressman, Senator, Vice President then President of the most powerful nation in the world.

Yes, Lyndon Baines Johnson made history interesting for Texas.

Texas will miss LBJ.

ABORTION LAW STRUCK DOWN — The U. S. Supreme Court voted 7-2 to strike down the state abortion statute. Holding that medical abortion in the first six months of pregnancy should be a private matter between a woman and her physician, the high court ended a controversy begun in 1970 when "Jane Roe," a pregnant, unmarried woman from Dallas took the abortion to the federal courts.

Ironically Miss Roe, as she was named to protect her identity, won her case, but had the baby.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe asked Texas Atty Gen. John Hill for an evaluation of the ruling and for alternatives open to Texas in light of the high court decision. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, however, said that "the best solution is one in which the state is neutral on the subject... I believe the medical profession of Texas will respond to the decision and will treat abortion as a medical matter in a responsible way."

TOO MANY SCHOOLS?—Texas may be expanding education facilities to the extent that the quality of education may be diluted, while the taxpayer keeps digging deeper in his pocketbook to pay the bills.

Opinion was expressed here by Wales Madden, an Amarillo attorney, who is a member of the Coordination Board, Texas College and University System. Madden told CB members "educators know that increased funding is dependent upon growing enrollments. With institutions planning independently and on ad hoc basis for enrolling the same students, and with there being fewer students to spread among the colleges, we may endanger the critical mass of students, faculty, facilities, equipment and libraries established at such high cost and hard effort in our existing institutions."

Madden placed part of the blame on local pressure on state legislators, who feel duty bound to try to create by statute a junior or senior college or technical training facility in their communities. Madden urged CB members to moderate the present expansion trend "until we determine fully what the needs are and where we are going."

Short Snorts

About 20,000 Texans are enrolled in 700 Defensive Driving Courses being offered this month in all sections of the state, the Texas Safety Association reports. Graduates are entitled to a 10 per cent reduction on automobile liability, collision and medical payments insurance.

Legislation has been introduced in the 63rd Legislature to make President Lyndon Johnson's birthday, Aug. 27, a state holiday.

WISE PEOPLE USE

After high school, will your kid go to work, or to college?

High school is the end of Free Education. If your child decides to go on to college it'll take money. Lots of money. Money that you should probably be saving right now. And there's no better way to start a college savings fund than by joining the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. That way an amount you specify will be set aside from each paycheck and used to buy U. S. Savings Bonds. Before you know it you'll have a nice little college fund on hand. Now there's a bonus interest rate on all U. S. Savings Bonds—for E. Bonds, 5 1/2% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra 3 1/2%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970... with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds. Join the Payroll Savings Plan. And, if your child keeps studying and you keep saving, you'll both be ready for college.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deducted until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a good way to save.

Take stock in America. Now Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.

POWER IN THE CHURCH

Another of a series of questions and answers regarding the important question of the Baptism with the Holy Spirit. May these questions stimulate your desire to study your Bible.

IS THE BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT ESSENTIAL FOR SALVATION?

No, baptism with the Holy Spirit is NOT essential for salvation. Salvation is a separate, prior experience. Millions of Christians who love and serve Jesus Christ as Savior have not received the baptism with the Holy Spirit. Peter's statement in Acts 2:38 seems to indicate that baptism with the Holy Spirit should immediately follow water baptism. Again, let me stress that while the baptism with the Holy Spirit is an important Christian doctrine, and a vastly needed Christian experience for bringing New Testament power back into the church, it is not essential for salvation.

I urge you to ask your pastor for further information regarding this, or write

Today's Health News

Published by the American Medical Association

"Sudden infant death syndrome" (SIDS) is the name given to an elusive killer that claims between 10,000 and 20,000 babies a year in this country alone. Few people have heard of the condition because very little is known about why these infants die. They seem quite well on being put to bed, and are found dead without any signs of struggle or of having suffered any pain.

Even coroners and physicians, ignorant of current knowledge on SIDS, have at times gone along with the idea that the parents were guilty. More than one mother has been indicted for manslaughter when her child was in reality a victim of this insidious and puzzling disease.

SIDS occurs all over the world. Its victims range in age from no more than a few days to as old as nine months, though most are from four to six months old. The victims sometimes are relatively undernourished, but this is by no means the rule. Also, SIDS tends to strike poorer families more often than rich families, though again this is only a trend.

The latest evidence suggests it may be related to a low-grade respiratory infection. It occurs more often during colder weather, and occasionally the infant had a snuffle or signs of a minor cold in the days preceding his death. It is definitely not caused by milk allergy or some of the other real or imaginary conditions such deaths have been attributed to in the past.

In addition to the tragedy of losing these youngsters, SIDS can be far more devastating for parents than losing a child from a better known disease. Because the child had been so healthy, they can't get it out of their minds that they are somehow to blame. If they heard the child cry in the night, but didn't go to him, they are torn by remorse.

Other relatives and friends may hesitate to accept a diagnosis they have never heard of, and so create a network of suspicion around the bereaved parents by implying that their carelessness, rather than sickness, was at fault.

Pantry Pests

The realization that something is alive in food products stored in the pantry is a very annoying experience for the housewife but sooner or later small insects which may be termed pantry pests are found in almost every home. These insects infest stored products such as dried fruit, nutmeats, dry pet foods, cornmeal, chocolate, paprika and other spices, and any food made of cereal grain such as bread, macaroni or breakfast cereals. Pantry pests may be recognized as "worms," the immature form, or as beetles or moths, the adult forms.

Pantry pests usually come into the home with a package of food that became infested along the way from the producer to the manufacturer to the housewife. If the infested package is left in the cupboard for a long period, the insects escape and infest other foods. And so, the entire cupboard becomes infested. Many of these pests are capable of boring into uninfested food packages on because of their small size are able to enter uninfested packages through extremely small cracks in the containers.

The first step in controlling pantry pests is to locate the source of infestation. This is usually a long neglected container of dried foodstuffs. It is a good practice to inspect infrequently used materials periodically to make sure they are not infested.

Rapid turnover of dried foods is one of the surest ways of preventing trouble from insect infestations. If all insects are confined to one package, simply destroying this package eliminates the problem. If you suspect insects have invaded other packages of food, placing these packages in a freezer at 0 degrees F. for four days will kill them. Another method of removing the source of infestation is by sterilization in the oven in a shallow container at 150 to 160 degrees F. for one-half hour. Store uninfested or heat sterilized dry foods in containers that have tight fitting lids, such as coffee cans or fruit jars. Original packages of paper, cardboard, cellophane, etc., are generally inadequate for excluding insects.

When insects are discovered throughout the entire cupboard, more drastic action is necessary. First, remove all food containers. Then all spilled foods, such as bread crumbs, sugar granules, etc. should be cleaned up thoroughly, paying particular attention to the cupboard corners, cracks and crevices where eggs or larvae may be hiding or developing. Use a stiff brush and plenty of hot, soapy water. Apply 0.5 per cent diazinon, 2-3 per cent malathion or 0.5 per cent baygon household spray to walls and underside of cupboard shelves. Pay particular attention to cracks and crevices when spraying. Restock the cupboard with uninfested or dry sterilized food products stored in tight containers. Inspect all newly purchased packages for breaks or the presence of pantry pests before buying and storing, and inspect the packages periodically after storage.

A "Guide for Controlling Household Insects"—L-311 is available at your County Extension Office.

By H. B. Dean

He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad." Matthew 12:30

This is pretty plain. Whose side are you on? No gambler alive would take the chance that you are taking with your eternal soul. "This is thy day." "My spirit will not always strive with man."

Seven sensible reasons why you should join the Payroll Savings Plan.

1. You'll save money.
2. It's easy, all you do is sign up once and money is automatically set aside from each paycheck.
3. The money is used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. There isn't a safer way to save.
4. Bonds now pay the highest interest rate ever. There's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds—for E Bonds, 5½% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra ½% payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970 ... with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds.
5. The government replaces it if a Bond is lost, destroyed, or stolen.
6. You never see the money. It's deducted and saved before you can get your ever-spending hands on it.
7. Our seventh reason is really hundreds of reasons. Bad reasons, like you may lose your job someday or a medical emergency might come up. Good reasons, like that trip you always wanted to take, retirement, a home, a college education, a boat, a car or whatever else you may see in your future.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a good way to save.

Take stock in America.
Now Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.

Judge Thetford said the Commissioners' Court is considering employing an engineering firm to make a preliminary survey of the feasibility and possible cost of the project. Tentative date set for an initial meeting with engineers is Feb. 12. The judge said he would greatly appreciate having the mayors of both towns as well as city councilmen attend the meeting.
