Habeas Corpus.

R. W. Scott charged with the murder of Hayley, in Surry county, recently, is on trial here before Judge Smith. Court opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Lawyers representing defendant are McCarthy, of the firm of Jenkins & McCarthy, and Scott, a nephew of defendant, from Brownwood. District Attorney Randals, assisted by Warren Beall, of Beall & Beall, Sweetwater, are conducting the examination for the state.

There are about a dozen witnesses to be examined, and at noon yesterday Bert Burford, the main eye witness to the killing, was on the stand. The court room was about half full, and the trial is creating some interest.

An incident of the trial was the arrest of Walter Scott, a son of the defendant, who was searched by the officer Delling as he entered the court room and relieved of an ugly 44-40 sixshooter, and also of about $36 in cash. The trial will probably consume part of today before it is terminated—Colorado Clipper.

HOT IN MISSOURI.

"The weater has been so hot in this country" wails a Missouri exchange, "that liverymen have had to stand their horses in water an hour a day to keep their shoes from coming off, and wagons are going around with their tongues out. The cattish kick up such a dust in the bed of the Gaseonade river that the river has to be sprinkled before you can go fishing. A spark from an engine set the big rail road pond on fire and burned up a wagon load of bull frogs. The ground is so hard and dry that the crawfish holes in the low places are being pulled up and shipped off for gas pipes."

Weather.

Anyone can become a weather profit by observation and all who contend with our dear life should notice the weather. The year has 13 new moons and they run on their "back" and "point" six to seven moons either way. The present status of moons on their points, from June 5th. Now the change to back will appear in Dec or July 1902. Daylight morning moons show the most rain, if moon is on point or back. Had we not had the few morning moons this summer there would have been no rain anywhere scarcely and with moon on its back and evening moons there is less rain, but moon on its back with two or three morning moons then a look for rain and bad weather any time this year. Now October and November next, look for bad weather, wet and cold, several daylight morning moons are then from 7 to 11 o'clock A. M. Next February and spring moons will be on back, then look for rain and a good crop season. If evening moons next summer are on point look for an other dry summer. The Zodiac signs tell of the weather and influence it.

HONOR THE HERO.

Senator Bailey, on Behalf of Boy-hood and Other Friends,

PRESENTS HARE WITH A SWORD.

The Recipient of the Beautiful Gift Was
So Overcome With Emotion that He Could Hardly Speak.

Sherman, Tex., Aug. 29.—The most distinguished of the living soldiers of Texas, and one of the leading fighting men of the nation, Wednesday received a magnificent demonstration of the esteem and love of his home people.

It was done with a military disregard for weather conditions, beneath a scorching sun and surrounded by thousands who almost staggered under its heat. Yet the thousands remained until it was all done and the last word of Senator Bailey had been uttered and the token handed to Gen. Hare and his remarks and those of others were finished.

The hour set for the presentation was 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in the parade grounds adjoining the Old Settlers' park.

The crowd swept out over the grass and surrounded the speakers' stand shortly before the time. Members of the Volunteer Guard moved them back to give room for the military maneuvers.

Promptly at 2 o'clock there was the blare of a bugle, followed by the boom of a cannon. It was the beginning of the salute for a brigadier general, the volunteer rank of Gen. Hare.

Col. Lyon and the cavalry escort of Gen. Hare galloped by the stand with sabres slapping the sides of the horses and a thunder of hoofs. After them came the carriage containing Gen. Hare and Senator Bailey. The vehicle was drawn by a splendid pair of blacks, which were beautifully ignorant of military customs.

The negro driver made a desperate effort to rein them up at the stand, but just at that instant the guns boomed again, and the blacks did not halt for an instant. They ran on at breakneck speed. Maj. Flatau dispatched a squad of his artillerymen after the flying team, and they were soon captured and brought back. Gen. Hare and Senator Bailey disembarked and Gen. Hare observed that he did not think it was a good plan to go to war in a carriage.

The volunteers were holding the line of people back against the fence until the gun-shy horses became quiet, which they did after the salute.

Then Senator Bailey beckoned them to come forward, and they surrounded the speakers' stand in a compact mass.

Gen. Hare was dressed in a fatigue uniform of white flannel, but nevertheless he looked a trifle warm from his exciting ride, while Senator Bailey appeared cool and comfortable, whether he was or not.

The ceremonies were begun by the venerable Judge Woods, president of the Old Settlers' association, who introduced Senator Bailey. The senator paid a high compliment to Gen. Hare.

The first words of praise for the soldier the speaker uttered were met with a wave of applause, and Gen. Hare looked as if he was almost frightened to find how close he was to the hearts of the great crowd.

When Mr. Bailey had finished and handed him his sword, Gen. Hare advanced to the speakers' stand and leaned on the hilt of the beautiful weapon.

It seemed that the demonstration had made his heart too full for words. He looked over the crowd that surged up to his feet and his eye moistened and his voice faltered when he began.

His tone was low and the vast crowd hardly breathed in listening for his words. There were aged men standing in the withering sunlight, men bent with years, who had known the gray-haired soldier before he entered upon his military life and when he was yet a schoolboy. Men were there who had been boys with him and were now also gray-haired.

In simple and direct language Gen. Hare told how he loved his home and thanked them for the gift and for the spirit in which it was tendered.

When he had finished he was almost carried off his feet by the crowd that tried to shake hands with him. For half an hour he was held a prisoner, while hundreds crowded around.

MRS. NATION CALLS

On Police Commissioner at New York and They Anxiously Converse.

New York, Aug. 29.—Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived in this city. She had an interview with Police Commissioner Murphy, during which he told her that she would be arrested if she violated the law in this city. Mrs. Nation also called at John L. Sullivan's saloon to see the ex-pugilist in reference to a statement he was alleged to have made to the effect that he "would throw her in the sewer."

Sullivan made an appointment to meet her next Monday.

When Mrs. Nation opened her interview with Mr. Murphy she said she had called on him on account of his stewardship, and asked if he did not think New York was an awfully wicked place. The commissioner replied in the negative, and Mrs. Nation repeated the question as an assertion, whereupon Mr. Murphy requested her to stop, saying he would not discuss the matter with her. She continued, however, to ply the commissioner with questions concerning drinking places, all of which he refused to answer. Mrs. Nation said she had come here to do the city some good.

"You don't know what you are talking about," said Commissioner Murphy. "Go back to Kansas and stay there. If you want to do something, why don't you do it for your husband?"

"I have no husband now," said Mrs. Nation. "I suppose you know all about that matter?"

"Oh, yes," said Commissioner Murphy. "I congratulate Mr. Nation. He ought to be a happy man, now."

SEVEN SCALDED,

The Boiler of a Steamboat Explodes and Fatalities Follow.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 29.—While the steamboat City of Trenton was on her way from this city to Trenton, N. J., Wednesday afternoon her port boiler exploded, killing seven persons and injuring over a score of others. Four passengers are missing, but as many sustained slight injuries, it is thought the missing may be found among those who did not find it necessary to go to the hospital.

After the explosion the boat took fire and ran aground. She lies a wrecked and blackened hulk in the marshes opposite Torresdale, sixteen miles above the city. Her hold is filled with water, and it is feared more of her passengers and crew may be found in the bottom of the boat when the water is pumped out.

At Torresdale the steampipe connected with the port boiler burst with a loud report. Then another explosion rent the boiler in twain. Scalding steam and water were poured into the cabin and sections of the woodwork of the boat were torn away. Those of the passengers who were not scarred by the scalding steam and boiling water were struck by the flying portions of the splintered cabin. Legs and arms were broken and faces and arms were parboiled. The screams of the injured could be heard on shore, and the cries of those who leaped and were blown into the river were heart-rending.

So great was the force of the explosion that a piano in the upper drawing room of the boat was hurled many feet away from the boat into the river. This proved a fortunate circumstance for many of the injured. Thrown into the water, scalded and otherwise injured so that they were rendered helpless, they clung to the piano until rescued.

Texas House of Representatives Officially Recognizes the Shirt Waist.

The one thing that is sure to stir up the American Public is any radical departure from custom—anything that is not in style and lacks Dame Fashion's approval, no matter how sensible and full of service the new idea is—vide the shirt waist man, for instance. In time, however, the merits of any worthy innovation impress themselves, and the distrusted theory becomes FACT—as in the case of the shirt waist, adopted at Austin, August 6, by official vote, as the proper thing.

"THE DENVER ROAD" was the first to break away from the electroslugging method of display advertising, giving the people something to read, with frequent changes, and it worked well. This year in the interest of our "constant readers" we have put in a little time courting the Muse, also the Amuse, and—Has it worked? Well, the shirt waist man realized that he had been flagged and backed into a blind siding when he heard the talk. The "TALK" was what we were after—we thought the people a trifle slow in coming to a full understanding of what we were offering them for their money.

Within the last three years "THE DENVER ROAD" has made several quite radical departures in the matter of regular, daily equipment and service, viz: Pullman with comfortable large dressing-rooms for ladies, Cafe Cars, meals a la carte. Day Coaches—of the most modern variety—a handsome, box-vestibuled train, run thru without change. These trains, as well as our individual advertising—both strictly "Poetry of Motion"—have attracted considerable attention, and we are doing a good business, which is a compliment to the intelligence of the people who are our guests.

To See Sultan.

The khedive of Egypt, having gone on a visit to the sultan, has telegraphed his "advisers" in Cairo that he proposes to spend the entire summer on the banks of the Bosphorus—an arrangement which is not pleasing to his guardians, the British, who had intended that he should make a tour of Europe. It will not do for the khedive and his suzerain, the sultan, to get "too thick." The khedive's mother, widow of the Khedive Tewfik, is building a great palace on the shores of the Bosphorus, but it is not as yet ready for occupancy.

A Pitiable Sight.

What is more pitiable than to see a puny, delicate little child absolutely dying from neglect. There are many little ones, whose cheeks would grow rosy, whose eyes would grow bright, whose flesh would be plump and pretty if only the worms that are gnawing at their vitals were removed, which is easily effected with Mothers Worm Syrup, so nice to take that children ask for it. The RUSTLER loves to note the progress of Robert Lee's good builders. We see Tom Cross how he is thriving. Tom is a good artisan and his shop gets plenty work. As a citizen he is alright and we think he will get there all O. K.

Another man Robert Lee loves to honor and he is C. C. Merchant our worthy County Attorney, who is destined to make an important factor in the town's make-up. As a lawyer he is good and close student while other young men are a sleep he is burning midnight oil and reveling in intricacies and beauties of Blackstone. May he climb to the high string as he is deserving.

Success is e'er the bright crown of worth and worn only by the careful few, who are its monarchs of noble birth, to whom the business world pays its due. Its scepter is poor wealth and fame and this trio of might weilds mankind, in obtaining a potential name, with a pure unselfish heart and mind. The trader or professional men who fail to win this priceless crown as a leader of life's labor vov. ee'n must with the common herd go down, aye the mechanic and farmer too, have a claim upon this royal prize and if they are of the careful few, they can wear its precious regal guise. None are too poor as to be debarred from winning the laurels of success, though in contest one may be scarred, the victory with glory will bless.

The Fort Chadbourne Druggist, Closes his Books after September 25th 1901, positively no credit after that date.

In this age of newspapers and enlightenment, it seems that every person who reads should know that a newspaper does not endorse every sentiment that appears in its columns. The progressive paper, the paper which is free from the domination of cliques and rings, not only publishes all the news, but holds its columns open at all times and to all persons for the discussion of questions of public or general interest. And the paper which would exclude from its columns open discussion of public questions is not a safe paper to follow and not the best to promote the welfare of the community.—

CRASH WAS AWFUL

As Thirty-Six Were Killed and Thirteen Wounded.

TWENTY BODIES ARE CREMATED

And Among the Numcer Was that of the Superintendent, P. T. Downs. Who Had Railroaded in Texas.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 2.—All reports show that the wreck on the Great Northern forty miles east of Kalispell, Mont., was the worst in the road's history and one of the most terrible in the annals of American railroading. Thirty-six lives were lost and thirteen persons injured.

There is a heavy grade near the scene of the wreck. Two engines had taken a train of twenty-eight freight cars up this grade and had drawn off to take water. While doing this all of the twenty-eight cars started down the grade. The runaway train dashed down the grade at frightful speed and crashed into the rear of a passenger train near the siding at Nyack. Superintendent Downs' private car was attached to the passenger and next to it was a day coach filled with railroad laborers from Duluth. As the runaway train sped by the switch it struck a caboose and day coach on the siding, wrecking them. Fire immediately started from the oil lamps in the caboose. The point where the wild train crashed into the passenger was several hundred feet away, and it was two and a half hours before the flames reached the main wreck. Meanwhile frantic efforts were made to take out the dead and injured. The wreck was piled high and wedged into almost hopeless confusion, and in spite of superhuman efforts the flames burst through the wrecked cars before the work was completed.

The runaway tore down the hill at lightning speed, rounded the most severe curves at a high speed of upward of seventy miles an hour where regular trains barely crawled along. With a roar it burst around the curve, and what is most remarkable jumped a split switch, which would have turned it to the sidetrack and crashed into the passenger train. There was neither time nor opportunity for escape. Mr. Downs' car and that of the laborers were smashed into kindling wood, the occupants of the private car meeting instant death. The debris and shingles and lumber of the freight burned like tinder. The train crew was forced back from its rescue work by the flames. One man worked his way as far as the private car, where he saw the dead bodies of Mr. Downs and his son, and dragged out the body of the cook. Downs' body was also taken out. In the laborers' car many of the forty-six occupants were so pinned in that they could not be reached, and burned before the eyes of the spectators.

The fire was so fierce that the rear sleeper could not be saved, though it had left the track. Its occupants were hurried into forward cars, which were hauled ahead, out of the reach of the fire. The flames extended to the brush alongside the track and burned the telegraph poles. A wire broke, and this, followed by a storm, greatly retarded telegraphic news of the wreck.

Says Strike is Lost.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 2.—Charges that the national officers of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Tin Workers have misrepresented the attitude of the United States Steel Corporation toward organized labor, in order to get the members of the association to strike, were made by former Vice President J. D. Hickey at the meeting of Bay View lodge. In a cool, unimpassioned manner, Mr. Hickey gave the members of the lodge the result of his trip to Pittsburgh, where he went for the purpose of investigating the situation in regard to the steel strike, and the situation, as summed up by Mr. Hickey, was that the strike appears to be lost.

Deluge at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 2.—With the breaking of dawn Sunday morning the citizens of Cleveland awoke to look upon a scene of unparalleled devastation and destruction caused by a raging deluge. While the entire city was more or less affected, the great volume of raging water vented its anger over miles of the eastern portion of the city and caused an amount of damage approximated at $1,000,000. The appalling overflow was caused by a terrific rain and cloudburst.

PE-RU-NA AVERTS DANGER

In That Critical Time When a Girl Becomes a Woman.

MISS BESSIE KELLOGG.

Miss Bessie Kellogg, President of the Young Woman's Club, of Valley City, North Dakota, writes the following from First street, South, Valley City, North Dakota:

"Ever since I matured I suffered with severe monthly pains. The doctor did not seem to understand what the trouble was and the medicine he prescribed from time to time did not help me. He finally suggested that I have an operation. One of my friends who had been cured of a similar affliction through the use of Peruna, advised me to give it a trial first, and so I used it for three weeks faithfully. My pains diminished very soon and within two months I had none at all.

"This is six months ago, and during that time I have not had an ache nor pain. I give highest praise to Peruna. Every woman ought to use it, and I feel sure that it will bring perfect health."—BESSIE KELLOGG.

The experience of Miss Bessie Kellogg, of North Dakota, ought to be read by every girl in the land. It is a critical period in a woman's life when she ceases to be a girl and becomes a woman. Very few pass through this period without some trouble. The doctor is called and he generally advises an operation. Perhaps he will subject the patient to a long series of experiments with nervines and tonics. The reason he does not often make a cure is because he does not recognize the trouble.

In a large majority of the cases catarrh of the female organs is the cause, Peruna relieves these cases promptly because it cures the catarrh. Peruna is not a palliative or a sedative or a nerve or a stimulant. It is a specific for catarrh and cures catarrh wherever it may lurk in the system.

This girl was lucky enough to find Peruna at last. As she says, the doctors did not seem to understand what the trouble was and the medicine he prescribed from time to time did not help her. Peruna hit the mark at once and she is now recommending this wonderful remedy to all the other girls in the United States.

Thousands of the girls who look at her beautiful face and read her sincere testimonial, will be led to try Peruna in their times of trouble and critical periods. Peruna will not fail them. Every one of them will be glad and it is to be hoped that their enthusiasm will lead them to do as this girl did—proclaim the fact to the world so that others may read it and do likewise.

Mrs. Christopher Fliemann, Amsterdam, N. Y., writes:

"I have been sick with catarrh of the stomach and pelvic organs for about five years, and had many a doctor, but none could help me. Some said I would never get over it. One day when I read you almanac I saw those who had been cured by Peruna; then I thought I would try it. I did, and found relief with the first bottle I took, and after two more bottles I was as well and strong as I was before."—Mrs. Christopher Fliemann.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

DISPUTE ABOUT SLICE OF MELON

Leads to a Difficulty Between a Couple of Americans on One Side and Spanish Number of Mexicans on Other.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 31.—The full details of the hot and quadruple killing that occurred on the El Paso and Southwestern railroad survey of Anacleto Pass have been received here. J. S. Antonelle, the contractor in charge of the grading outfit, has arrived from the scene.

A short telegraphic account of the affair was published at the time, but no particulars could be learned until now. Mr. Antonelle describes the affair as one of the most desperate fights that has occurred in that section of the country for a long time.

The fight occurred about a half mile from the grading camp, thirty miles south of Lordsburg, N. M., Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Only four men, two Mexicans and two Americans, were engaged in the fight, and all are dead. For several minutes they stood face to face and fired with revolvers as fast as they could. The Hoffman brothers and one of the Mexicans were killed on the spot and the fourth man was wounded seven times. He crawled some distance and fell dead. The body was not located until Tuesday, when it was found in a horrible condition.

Mr. Antonelle explains that the Hoffman brothers owned a small ranch near his camp and were in the habit of bringing vegetables and watermelons to his camp to sell to the Mexicans. Sunday they drove to a little saloon not far from the camp and were selling melons. They had cut some of them and were selling by the piece, when a Mexican from the camp took a piece without paying for it. The oldest Hoffman saw him and struck him over the head with a revolver and beat him badly. The Mexican came back to camp and told a friend and the two, armed with two revolvers each, went back after Hoffman. When they got near the wagon Hoffman fired and the Mexicans began shooting. The younger Hoffman took a hand, and it was a hand-to-hand fight until it was all over.

DEMANDS IMPEACHMENT.

Labor Organ Declares Shaffer Caused an Agreement to be Violated.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 31.—An editorial in the current issue of The Labor World, the organ of the International Tin Workers' Protective association, and mouthpiece of the Pittsburg district of the Mine Workers' Union and the Pattern Makers' association, is a long and bitter attack on President Shaffer and demands his impeachment for calling the present strike. The demand for the impeachment is made because it is charged President Shaffer compelled the steel workers to violate contracts; because he expelled the Chicago men and revoked their charter without constitutional hearing, and because the whole strike is unconstitutional and has brought ruin and wreck to men who have made the Amalgamated association.

The editorial gives twenty-four reasons why President Shaffer should be impeached.

The editorial is entitled "Sacrifice Shaffer. Save the Amalgamated."

The World editorial, which is a long one, follows in part:

"Is the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers to be sent to slaughter in a lost fight and sacrificed on the altar of the mad and selfish ambition of this creature, Shaffer? This is no time for sentiment. It is a time for facts and plain speaking. The fight against the steel trust is lost, but no order comes from Amalgamated headquarters, where Shaffer cowers, to spare the brave men at the front."

Gen. Ludlow Dies.

New York, Aug. 31.—Gen. William Ludlow died at Convent, N. J., of consumption. His illness was first noticed on his arrival in the Philippines in May last. He was at once sent home in the hope that the American climate would restore him, and went at once to Convent.

CONFERENCE.

Senate and House Members Named for Aggression Apportionment.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 31.—Beatty, in the state Friday, secured consideration of the bill reapportioning the state into senatorial districts. After some amending it passed under suspension of the rule.

On one part of the senate, Harris of Bexar, Hanger, Davidson of DeWitt, Turner and Turney were appointed on the free conference committee on congressional districts.

Yet had adopted the house concurrent resolution authorizing the superintendent of public buildings and grounds to lease for five years the old courthouse square in this city.

Stafford called up the house joint resolution providing for the formation of a commission to represent the state in the reorganization of the First National bank of Austin and the returning of the state's money.

The resolution was passed to a third reading, and finally passed under a suspension of the rules—ayes 25, noes 1—Miller.

On motion of Yett the senate concurred in the house amendments to the Austin charter bill.

The Daughters of the Republic petitioned for an appropriation to execute in marble a bust of Sam Houston to be placed in the Hall of Statuary in Washington.

Miller secured the adoption of the house concurrent resolution petitioning congress to extend one year the time within which Indian deprecation claims may be filed and to authorize the payment of claims regardless of whether there existed a state of amity or hostility.

Harris of Bexar called up and had the house amendments concurred in to his resolution petitioning the government to prevent the destruction of the forests in New Mexico along the Sacramento mountains because of the destruction of the permanent water supply of northeast, west and southwest Texas.

For more than two hours the senate awaited the enrollment and signing of the joint resolution creating a commission of state officials to represent the state in the settlement with the First National bank of Austin. It was signed.

When the house met Friday Speaker Prince announced the following as the conferees on the part of the house on the congressional apportionment bill. He said they had been selected with a view to advocating the house bill in the conference: Ellis, Bryan, Schluter, McFall and Garner.

Consideration of the Mexican land grant bill was resumed. Perkins offered an amendment confining the territory affected by the bill to the country lying west of the Nueces river and south of Webb county. The authors of the bill accepted the amendment.

Henderson of Lamar entered his solemn protest against the passage of the bill. He referred to some land laws passed by previous legislatures, which he denounced as infamous, and which had resulted, he said, in the robbing of the school fund of about 2,800,000 acres of land.

Beatty said he would oppose the passage of the bill. He did not believe its object was for the purpose of benefiting the state.

Bill passed—ayes, 69, noes 22.

Mourning Emblems.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 31.—Emblems of mourning were seen Friday in many parts of the city in connection with the death of Mr. George A. Quinlan, which occurred Thursday night just before 12 o'clock at the Houston infirmary.

The Houston and Texas Central railway, of which for several years he had been vice president and general manager and employes by the deepest symbols of mourning upon the buildings and cars. The large flags in the yards of the company and above the general office building were at half-mast. The windows and doors of the building, the shops and the locomotives of the company were properly draped.

Horrible Husband.

Caldwell, Tex., Aug. 31.—At Brewer Hill a negro woman, Mollie Woodson, wife of Will Woodson, was shot and instantly killed in their field near the house, while picking cotton. There were several negroes in the field picking cotton at the time. Her slayer used a .45-caliber Colt's pistol. Only one shot was fired and it broke her neck. She fell on her face, but the rage of her slayer was yet unabated and he stooped down and beat her head with his pistol, fracturing the skull and horribly mangling the head.

What It Is.

What concerns you chiefly is what a medicine does, but intelligent men and women of to day feel that they should know what sort of drugs they are taking. This you are plainly told on every package of Yucatan Chill Tonic. It is neither a bitter nor a sweet tonic. It is an honest medicine and mad as hell. No shaking of the bottle required. You get more curative properties in a dose of Yucatan than in six doses of the so-called tasteless tonics. All tasteless tonics are unreliable as the dose is uncertain and consequently more or less dangerous, and sweet Tonics or Medicines do not agree with the stomach.

What It Does.

Yucatan Chill Tonic not only cures all Malarial Diseases—Chills, Fever, Ague—but also prevents them if taken before the season for these diseases begins. One bottle has cured in many cases when six to eight bottles of "tasteless" tonics have been used without effect. No other tonic or medicine ever made will so quickly and completely drive out all of the effects of malaria after an attack as will Yucatan Chill Tonic. As a general tonic for every member of the family at all seasons of the year it has no equal.

Sold by dealers generally. Price 50 cents a bottle.

Reasons With Mosquitoes.

A woman of New Britain, Conn., says: "mosquitoes have brains and reasoning powers, that it is 'outrageous' to kill the 'little harmless insects,' and that all that is necessary is to reason with them. She says: 'If a mosquito is troubling you, speak to him kindly and say, 'Look here, my friend, you leave me alone and I'll leave you alone.' Then believe that he won't bite you! Even if he does, his sting won't hurt. I have done this for years and now enjoy having the 'pretty little things' around me, and they are not bothering me any more."
