THOMAS DECLARES KLAN MAIN ISSUE

Ferguson Follower Pronounces Mayfield Devoid of Honor and Prohibitionist for Revenue Only

Setting up the Invisible Empire as the main issue in the present senatorial campaign and decrying the Klan as both un-American and un-Christian, picturing Earle B. Mayfield as devoid of honor, a prohibitionist for revenue only and the greatest intellectual acrobat Texas has ever produced, Bascom Thomas of Dallas, Tuesday night delivered one of the most caustic speeches heard in the courthouse of San Angelo since Joe Bailey spoke here in his campaign two years ago.

Mr. Thomas was introduced by W. C. Blanks, who said he was not afraid of Ferguson's wet tendencies as the states and not the Senate had the power to change a Constitutional amendment, but that he did have grave fears as to what might come from such a sinister institution as the Invisible Empire which dolled out so-called justice in a corn field by the light of the moon and drove its victims of the right of an impartial hearing and the right of an appeal. Mr. Blanks said he was going to vote for Mr. Ferguson and against Mr. Mayfield for this reason alone.

Mr. Thomas said he voted for Cullen F. Thomas in the first primary, but that now when it came to the choice of Earl B. Mayfield or Jim Ferguson he would choose the lesser of the two evils—if Ferguson was an evil—and vote for Farmer Jim. Mr. Thomas said he was the son of a Methodist minister, a life long member of the Methodist Church and that one of his sons was now a minister, that he had been a life-long member of the Methodist Church and that one of his sons was now a Rhodes Schooler at Oxford England, preparing himself for the ministry. He said he had been a life long prohibitionist—a prohibitionist back in the days when it tried a man to fight in the open saloons—and that further than this he had never tasted, beer, wine or whiskey in the 51 years of his life.

He said Earle B. Mayfield was known to have patronized bootleggers, to be a user of intoxicating liquors, and called him a "wet pro." He said Ferguson had always been against prohibition, but when the law was passed he observed it and no one had ever accused him of violating the eighteenth amendment. Mr. Thomas then told of his expulsion from the state senate. He told how he had charged senators and legislators with violating the anti-lobby law and charged that bribery, corruption and graft were rampant in Austin. The senate took the matter up and a bill was introduced to expell him.

While the matter was pending, he said, a raid was made on the Driskell Hotel in Austin and in the crowd caught in a poker game was Earl B. Mayfield. The next morning, he said, Jake Walters, a lobbyist for the liquor interest, appeared in court and entered a plea of guilty for himself and Mr. Mayfield and paid his own and Mayfield's fine.

Mr. Thomas charged that Mayfield requested him not to speak of the court incident in his speech the next day in the senate which he was to make in his own defense on the expulsion resolution. He said Mayfield made the request in the name of his wife and his family and the good name it had enjoyed. Being moved by this request he said he did not cite the court charges against Mayfield as support for his own charges of corruption among state senators and that when the vote on the expulsion resolution was called, Mayfield whom he had shielded, voted to oust him from the senate. Mr. Thomas was not out for long however, as he carried 92 of the 96 boxes in his district by the largest vote ever given a senator in that district.

Mr. Thomas said this action was characteristic of Mr. Mayfield's sense of honor.

Referring to the speech Monday night here by the Rev. C. S. Cameron of Abilene, he said, "I understand that there was a little two by four Methodist preacher over here saying he knew Earle B. Mayfield for twenty years and that he could do no wrong. I want to tell you that I give Earle Mayfield credit for having more sense than to take a brass band along with him when he goes to a whisky or poker party and that he doesn't confide these episodes to Methodist ministers." He then told that Frank E. Smith, mayor of Mexia, Texas, would make an affidavit to the fact that three men in his town shipped Mayfield at his own request three quarts of whisky." Mayfield ought to be sent to the penitentiary, instead of to the senate," Mr. Thomas concluded.

DECLARES KLAN MAIN ISSUE

"These are not charges from the mouth of James E. Ferguson," Mr. Thomas continued, "but charges from Bascom Thomas and I'll give $500 to any local charity, if this little red headed Methodist preacher will put up $50 for the same cause if I can't get affidavits to prove them in forty eight hours. These are not charges that can be dismissed by the wave of a hand.

Mayfield was listed by the breweries year book as being 'satisfactory.' The klan picked him up because he was the only man they had that could ride both the wet and the dry issue. Sterling Strong a life long prohibitionist, and an advocate of the klan was cast aside by this organization because he was dry. Bob Henry was eliminated by their leaders, because he was too wet. Mayfield was selected as the high cock-alorum because he went to church and was called 'brother' and could go out with the boys and take as many drinks as the next one.

Getting down to the klan he gave it the worst flaying San Angelo has ever heard. He denied it was Christian. He said that every term of its ritual was from a pagan source, and that the meaning of every word used by it could be traced back to a derivative or an associate of the devil or hell.

"Wizard," he said "is a conjurer; a worker of the black art. Cyclops was a blacksmith who pounded out thunderbolts in Hell. Titan, dragon—every title they bear—all come from association in Greek or pagan mythology with evil.

When I realize that this order which goes about preaching its support of the tenets of the Christian religion, would deny to our Lord Jesus Christ admission because he came from the Jewish race—and that these klansmen kneel and pray to this savior of all in their churches and Sunday schools, and then curse and boycott and abuse the men of the same race from which he sprang, I cannot help but cry out against their hypocritical narrow minds.

"Then they talk about the Catholics. They have even gone so far as to say that while the Catholics number but a low per cent of our population they hold 70 per cent of the public offices of this land. This is a falsehood. There are fewer Catholics in public offices today than any other denomination. Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, all hold many times as many offices as Catholics. One man asked me if it was not so that the Catholics had to kiss the big toe of the Pope of Rome. I told him I did not know about that, but when it came to kissing big toes that I would rather kiss the toe of the great and holy man who presides over the Catholic church, than I would the big toe of the klans imperial buzzard at Atlanta.

The klan has much to say about one hundred per cent Americanism. It says it is for America for Americans. Who is not? But when I speak of America for Americans I take in all American—I do not confine it to certain sects and creeds and races. When I say America, I mean America.

In the great world war there were 75,000 American boys who paid the supreme sacrifice and whose charred bodies are mouldering today in Panders Fields that the world might be safe for democracy. Of this number, nearly 20,000 of these brave young men who died for you and for me, died in the Catholic church. I defy this tar bucket brigade—these knights of an invisible empire, to say that these were not one hundred per cent Americans."

Mr. Thomas said that there was no doubt that Mr. Ferguson did borrow $150,000 from the breweries and that he did leave the democratic party and go to the American party, and that he had been impeached from office. But he said that more than fifty per cent of the men who voted against him in the Texas legislature were out on the stump for him today and that he believed if these men who helped to oust him would turn to him today, that the other people would too.

Debate Klan in Arlington

Yesterday afternoon Richard Potts of Dallas made the first speech here in favor of James E. Ferguson for Senator.

This place has been supposed to be dominated by the Ku Klux Klan, but Mr. Potts demonstrated that Ferguson is very strong at Arlington.

He was interrupted many times by klansmen or their sympathizers, but he amused his audience by his witty replies to questions. In speaking of the Jews one klan sympathizer remarked, "Yes but they crucified Jesus Christ." Mr. Potts replied, "And according to these political preachers these klansmen would be in hell this evening if they had not crucified him." This brought forth loud applause.

When Mr. Potts closed his remarks, after speaking an hour, a klan speaker jumped to the platform and asked the people to wait and listen to him. Mr. Potts told him he could not speak unless he had an opportunity to reply, and the audience sustained him.

The klan speaker spoke about ten or fifteen minutes, and as Mr. Potts arose to reply, a laughing man came on the stand and asked the privilege of speaking a few words. He said: "The klan speaker told you that he did not belong to the klan, and that he knew nothing about them, but in his speech he told you what the klan stands for. He is a d— liar, and a man that will lie about one thing will lie about another; I just wanted to show you what kind of a fellow he is."

This caused a commotion and several men rushed as if to resent the remarks, but the farmers and laboring men in the audience promptly came to the rescue and the interruption came to an end and Mr. Potts was not interrupted again, but concluded the first anti klan speech ever made in this town, which had a splendid effect.

Mrs. Mahala Baras, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles." adv.

Hunger, the Best Sauce

Sauce is used to create an appetite or relish for the food. The right way is to look to your digestion. When you have good digestion you are certain to relish your food. Chamberlain's Tablets improve the digestion, create a healthy appetite and cause a gentle movement of the bowels. adv.

Earle and Billy

Earle and Billy, the story goes, are a funny pair of bucks. Earle always fools the Pros, and Billy fools the Klocks. "Earle" said Billy, "What d'you think?"

"I've got an awful pain, I believe I'll take a little drink. While you go rob a train." And so they went out together. With naught their peace to mar, Billy took a little feather, and Earle he took some tar. —Ex.
