VOLUME 89

ROBERT LEE, COKE COUNTY, TEXAS FRIDAY, APR. 26 1929

NUMBER 42

IN MEMORY OF MY FATHER, W. J. GREER

By Mrs. L. L. Scott, Adamsville, Texas.

While hearts are wounded and bleeding, while faces are suffused with tears, which will flow in spite of all the words of friendly consolation, we hear these sublime words:

"Look unto me and be ye saved; for I am God: I will keep thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

So friends will be found again. My father's eyes shall yet behold the King in His beauty, and beautiful and redeemed ones shall tread once more the soil of this now groaning earth; transfigured, glorified, and like the angels, shall die no more—for they shall be before the throne of God, and shall serve him day and night in His temple; and the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shall feed them and shall lead them to fountains of living waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. I am the resurrection and the life; together with my dead body shall they rise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in the dust; for the dew shall be as the dew of herb, and the earth shall cast out her dead.

"Blessed are they that die in the Lord."

The glories of this hallowed morn shall chase away the sorrows of the night; therefore—

Sleep on, beloved, and take thy rest;
Sleep soundly on—the dead in Christ are blest:
We loved thee well! but God loves the best.
Calm is thy slumber as an infant's sleep;
But thou shalt wake no more to toil and weep;
Thine is perfect rest, secure and deep.
Until the shadows from earth be cast,
Until He gathers in His sheaves at last,
Until the darkness of the night be past,
Until made beautiful by love divine,
Thou in the image of thy Lord shall shine;
And He shall bring that golden crown of thine.
Only goodnight, dear father, not farewell:
A little while and his saints shall dwell
In hallowed union indivisible.
Until we meet before His throne,
Clothed in spotless robes He gives His own,
Until we know even as we are known—
Goodnight! Goodnight!

Petition for Bus Line

F. E. McKenzie, who holds large ranch properties between here and Colorado City and lives in the city was in Robert Lee Wednesday. Accompanied by S. M. Conner, he was circulating a petition asking for the establishment of a bus line between Colorado and San Angelo via Robert Lee.

Quite a number of signatures had been affixed to the petition when the gentlemen came to the Observer office, and, believing it to be a laudable undertaking, we added ours. Personally, we would like to see such a line in operation.

Charlie Taylor and family and Miss Wanda Burroughs of the Divide, who was visiting in their home, spent Thursday night and Friday fishing on the Concho near Water Valley.

L. D. Biggs of San Angelo who is visiting in the home of his brother-in-law, P. D. Outlaw, on Ed Roberts' place west of town, paid us a pleasant call Saturday afternoon.

Attend Funeral of Sister

Mrs. H. C. Allen of this place, Clayton Caraway of Hayrick, and Mrs. T. J. Percival of Christoval, were called away last Friday to attend the funeral of a sister, Mrs. Ada Albright, who died in her home at Post last Thursday and was buried at Crosbyton. Prior to her marriage to Mr. Albright deceased lived at Hayrick. About a year ago she took the flu from which she never fully recovered.

At the Methodist Church

There will be no preaching at Edith Sunday afternoon on account of a joint quarterly conference between Robert Lee and Bronte Methodist churches to be held at Bronte at 3 p. m.

Dr. W. H. Coleman presiding elder of the rownwood district will preach at Robert Lee at the 11 o'clock hour and will preside at the conference. M. A. Turner, Pastor.

We now have a deputy sheriff at Robert Lee in the person of Latham Conner who was deputized last Saturday.

"Dock" McCraw Dead

William Joseph (generally known as "Dock") McCraw, was born January 10, 1910, and died in a San Angelo sanitarium April 19, 1929.

Born, lived and died is the brief biography of every departed being; but it is not every time that a death comes so near to the hearts of all his acquaintance. Being the main dependence of his widowed mother and having the care of the younger children, his departure casts a cloud of sorrow over the bereaved ones that is hard to endure. But this sorrow is fully shared by a sympathizing public as was manifest by the whole community turning out to assist and console in every way possible.

The body was laid to rest in the Robert Lee cemetery near his father's grave. A host of friends attended the services. His young associates acting as pallbearers were: John and Roy Teeters, Herman Patterson, Floyd Patterson, J. L. Cochran, Grover Creech, Emory Davis, Bill Capps.

May the Lord bless all the bereaved ones.

The mother is now in Stamford at the bedside of another son who underwent an operation for appendicitis the same day "Dock" did.

Thanks Her Friends

The money made up for Mrs. Willis McCraw last week by E. B. Creech and Johnnie Williams amounted to $150.50. We are sure that these making donations could not have given their money to a better cause at this time. Mrs. McCraw says that she cannot express the full measure of her appreciation.

NOTICE!

If you subscribed for The Observer last year for only one year, this is your last issue unless you send in your renewal. If you live out of the county, send $1.50; if you live in the county, send $1.00. If you don't want it any longer, keep quiet; and if we don't remove your name from the list, we will apologize to you.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Conner returned from Colorado City last Thursday where they visited Mrs. Gail Brown who was in a sanitarium there. They report that she was doing nicely and have learned since that she was brought home Sunday.

Baptist Revival Closes

The revival at the Baptist church closed Sunday evening after running two weeks. Eighteen members were received into the church, twelve of whom came for baptism which was administered by the pastor, Rev. R. D. DeWeese, Sunday afternoon.

Choir director, L. J. Sewell, left for his home at Fort Worth Monday morning.

Members of the choir and others who assisted, at times, enjoyed an afternoon picnic under the shades in the McCutchen pasture Friday. Games were played until 6:30 o'clock when a picnic lunch was enjoyed.

School Supervisor's Report

School Supervisor, W. E. Gettis, of the State Department of Education, visited the Bronte school the past week. His official report will be of interest to all patrons and friends of the school. It follows:

"In order that the schools may be properly certified it is essential that minimum requirements be met. To that end the supervisor who recently visited your school makes the following recommendations:

"1. That the walls and ceilings of class rooms be calcimined. In several rooms stove smoke has discolored the walls and ceilings until they now have a drab and gloomy appearance.

"2. That all high school library books be placed in one room and sufficient cases or shelving be provided to properly care for them.

"3. That before the opening of the 1929-'30 term recently edited maps for ancient history and American history be provided. The maps now in use are badly worn and are out of date.

"4. That the home economics department be more completely equipped and furnished so that full benefit may be secured from these courses. These courses are helping the school meet the requirements of a community of this type and are worthy of the expenditure made for them.

"5. That material submitted for accrediting receive the careful attention of the examiners.

"6. That commendation be expressed for the many items indicating school progress: (a) Introduction of home economics and industrial shop work; (b) A school paper or sheet is encouraged; (c) Splendid magazines and other teaching aids are furnished each teacher; (d) Course of study approaches the ideal for the needs of the community which it serves; (e) a high type of work is being done by serious-minded students and well trained teachers; (f) Janitorial care of building and campus unexcelled; (g) Liberal additions have been made to the library; (h) Arm chairs have been provided for class rooms."

The supervisor appreciates the courtesies which Superintendent Hardy extended him while he was visiting the Bronte school.

Lions Club Banquet

The Bronte Lions Club banquet which was held at the picture show building Tuesday evening was an elegant affair from every point of view. A pink and white color scheme was observed in the decoration and the four-course menu that was served. Bowls of lovely pink and white roses adorned the two long banquet tables at which were seated the Lions and their guests to the number of eighty-four. When covers were laid, visiting Lions from San Angelo and Winters were present and took part in the program. The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church served the dinner.

President L. F. Youngblood was at his best as toastmaster for the occasion and the following program was given:

Blet on Nature's Face

French Guiana is famous or infamous for Devil's Island, the famous penal settlement. Three or four times a year a steamer leaves the prison of L'Ile de Re on the coast of Brittany loaded with the most dangerous prisoners gathered from the French prisons. They are taken to the so-called Isles of safety, off the coast of French Guiana, to toll under the tropical sun until they die or their terms are ended.

Teak It Literally

A man who visits London annually says that he had occasion to go to a four-story building in the English metropolis. He entered the lift and 20 minutes later reached the third floor. In a facetious fashion he said to the elevator man, "Why don't you anchor this lift and move the building?" The elevator man looked at the stranger in a perplexed manner and then said, "But how can that be done, sir?"

HJR. No 6

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court.—

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Sections 2 and 3 of Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 5, Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; in other matters, until otherwise provided by Law, the jurisdiction of the Court shall be exercised under such regulations and orders as the Court by a majority vote may prescribe. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this State and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court, or such lawyer and judge together at least seven years. Said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State at a general election; shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The Judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their term of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. When this amendment takes effect, the Governor shall immediately appoint six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office so that the terms of two of such appointed Associate Justices shall expire with the term of office of each of the present members of the Supreme Court, and, upon the qualification of such new Justices, the Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas shall terminate."

"Article 5, Section 3. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law, the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a Statute of the State is held void, and shall extend to such other questions as may be within the Court's Appellate Jurisdiction under the Statutes of the State in force when this amendment takes effect. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, as may be prescribed by Law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by Law, the said Court and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari, and such other writs, as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified, except as against the Governor of the State.

The Supreme Court shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court. The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide."

Sec. 2. Said proposed Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on Tuesday, July 16, 1929, at which election each voter opposing a said proposed amendment shall scratch off of the ballot with a pen or pencil, the following words printed on said ballot: "For the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court," and each voter favoring said proposed amendment shall scratch off the ballot in the same manner the following words printed on said ballot: "Against the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court." If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

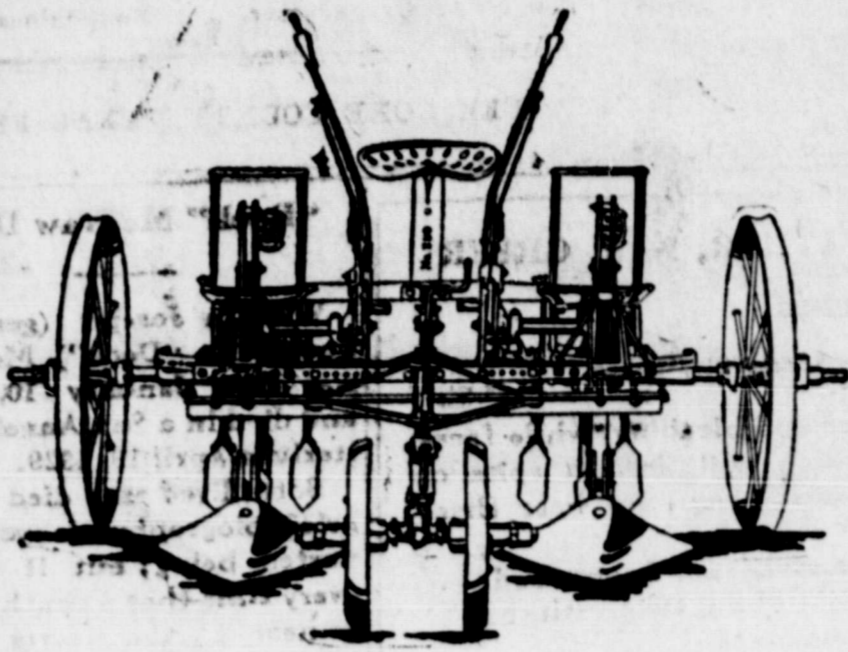

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published and said election held as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Sec. 4. The sum of ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election.

Approved February 19, 1929.
(A Correct Copy).
JANE Y. McCALLUM,
Secretary of State.

annual luncheon of the Associated Press in New York the other day. President Hoover revealed some startling facts in regard to the crime situation in this country—facts that should arouse serious thought in the mind of every patriotic citizen of America. Excerpts from his address, with slight comment of our own, follow:

"Members and Friends of the Associated Press:

"I have accepted this occasion for a frank statement of what I consider the dominant issue before the American people. Its solution is more vital to the preservation of our institutions than any other question before us: that is the enforcement and obedience to the laws of the United States, both federal and state."

And Again He Says

"A surprising number of our people, otherwise of responsibility in the community, have drifted into the extraordinary notion that laws are made for those who choose to obey them. And in addition, our law enforcement machinery is suffering from infirmities arising out of its technicalities, its circumlocutions, its involved procedures, and too often, I regret, from inefficient and delinquent officials."

Reaping Harvest of defects

"We are reaping the harvest of these defects. More than 9,000 human beings are lawlessly killed every year in the United States. Little more than half as many arrests follow. Less than one-sixth of these slayers are convicted, and but a scandalously small percentage are adequately punished. Twenty times as many people in proportion to population are lawlessly killed in the United States as in Great Britain. In many of our great cities murder can apparently be committed with impunity. At least fifty times as many robberies in proportion to population are committed in the United States as in Great Britain, and three times as many burglaries."

"Even in such premeditated crimes as embezzlement and forgery our record stands no comparison with stable nations. No part of the country, rural or urban, is immune. Life and property are relatively more unsafe than in any other civilized country in the world."

Until it is proven that the President lied, we are compelled to believe his statements to the letter. And his declaring that 6,000 human beings are killed every year in the United States and but little more than half that number of arrests are made, and less than one out of every six is convicted, is enough to knock you cold."

He Goes On

"After all, the processes of criminal law enforcement are simply methods of instilling respect and fear into the minds of those who have not the intelligence and moral instinct to obey the law as a matter of conscience. The real problem is to awaken this consciousness, this moral sense, and if necessary to segregate these degenerate minds where they can do no future harm."

Two Problems Before Us with Marilyn at

W. K. Simpson & Co.

DEAR FOLKS:

This week you find a new shipment of hats at W. K. Simpson & Co's. Two very pretty ones are wide-brimmed leghorns trimmed in orchid and blue—also a number of nice ones for children.

They have two new numbers in "Good Morning" frocks here, both of striped dimity one trimmed with he-stitching and colored organdy, collar and pockets, the other with wool embroidery on yoke and pockets.

Bye,

Marilyn

"We have two immediate problems before us in government. To investigate our existing agencies of enforcement and to reorganize our system of enforcement in such manner as to eliminate its weaknesses. It is the purpose of the federal administration systematically to strengthen its law enforcement agencies week by week, month by month, and year by year, not by dramatic displays and violent attacks in order to make headlines, not by violating the law itself through misuse of the law in its enforcement, but by steady pressure, steady weeding out of all incapable and negligent officials no matter what their status; by encouragement, promotion, and recognition for those who do their duty; and by the most rigid scrutiny of the records and attitudes of all persons suggested for appointment to official posts in our entire law enforcement machinery. That is administration for which my colleagues and I are fully responsible as the human material which can be assembled for the task will succeed. Therefore, I wish to determine and, as far as possible, remove the sources of inherent defects in our present system that defeat the most devoted officials.

(To be concluded next week)

An Enjoyable Occasion

A weenie party sponsored by the Y. M. C. Class of the Robert Lee Baptist Sunday school, was enjoyed by a goodly group at Slick Rock Tuesday evening. Everybody had all the weenies and ice tea that he or she could consume. Mrs. Lloyd McCallion won the I. O. U. spelling contest. All those who were not present missed a good time.

Church of Christ Meeting

Elder Alva Johnson, of Turkey, Texas, will hold a meeting at the Church of Christ beginning the first Sunday in May. Everyone is invited to hear.
