Hitler Foresees His End; Gives Self Six Months To Two Years More!

ADOLF HITLER, sitting high up in the political driver's seat in Europe today, feared as no man has been feared since Napoleon, shakes the very foundation of his strength with these words: "My time is now short."

On One of These Peaks Overlooking the Town of Berchtesgaden in Bavaria, Hitler Has Built His "Eagle's Nest" where He Goes to Plan Germany's Future and Ponder His Own Fate.

This startling disclosure is made in the April issue of Cosmopolitan magazine in an article by Karl H. von Wiegand, noted correspondent, called "Hitler Foresees His End!" The Fuhrer, von Wiegand says, gives himself six months more, perhaps a year, at the most two years. And then . . . ? Hitler is already living in a retreat — "Adlerhorst" ("Eagle's Nest") — high in the Bavarian mountains, which many believe is his self-designed mausoleum.

Whether this presentiment of impending disaster comes from a fear of death through illness or accident, or whether he foresees being overthrown by his enemies or even his own people, Hitler does not say. All he will commit himself to is this: "Meine Zeit ist nun kurz" — "The end of my mission in the world is nearing."

This is of terrifying proportions Hitler, von Wiegand reports, is being consumed by a fever of haste and impatience, fearful that he may not have the necessary time to achieve the goals he set for himself long ago: (1) To be the liberator of Germany. (2) To be the increaser, uniter and consolidator of the Third Reich. (3) To be the destroyer of Bolshevism. The first two goals Hitler believes he has achieved. As to the third, von Wiegand has always understood it to mean the creation of the independent state of Ukrania and the overthrow of the Bolshevik regime in Moscow.

Adolf Hitler

It is interesting to note that today Hitler no longer flies, the same man who traveled almost everywhere in Germany in his own special plane. He has also given orders that Field Marshal Goring and other important members of cabinet must not fly. "An accident shall not come to the aid of enemies of Germany," he explains.

The strength, the weakness of Hitler, this paradoxical interplay of emotions, how can they be explained! Von Wiegand believes Der Fuhrer stands under some mysterious command: "that long and intense concentration on the idea and thought of the attainment of power, now achieved, has exposed him to a 'might complex' with all its mental, emotional and psychic dangers."

Hitler related to von Wiegand many years ago how the divine mandate came to him. He was lying in a hospital shortly after the war, blinded from a gas attack on the front. "And as I lay there," he narrated simply, "it came over me that I would liberate the German people and make Germany great."

That was in 1918. Today, more than twenty years later, he is still striving to make Germany great. But if he feels his time is short and must act quickly, what does this portend for the future and the peace of the world? It is a question which must not go begging. Only Hitler or the democracies can answer it.

Bryan-Simpson

The marriage of Miss Doris Simpson and Frank Dean Bryan was solemnized in the Baptist church at 9 o'clock Saturday night, the Rev. Fred DeLashaw officiating. Mrs. Annie McCabe and Miss Sybil Simpson aunt and sister of the bride were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

Immediately after the wedding the young couple went home to the apartment they had furnished in the McCabe home.

Cowley-Escue

Jack Cowley, of Valley View, and Miss Winnie Escue were married Saturday afternoon at the Baptist church, Rev. DeLashaw officiating. This was the first wedding ceremony in the new church.

New Western Star Comes to the Screen

Bill Elliott, a new shootin' star, will be seen Friday and Saturday at the Alamo "In Early Arizona." This dare-devil hero of "Wild Bill Hickok" rides to new glory in a gun-roaring romance of the lawless frontier.

Elliott is seen as a gun-fighting nemesis of the frontier's bad men, blazing a trail of justice with his straight-shooting guns! Dorothy Gulliver is seen as the leading lady.

Also an Andy Clyde comedy and 5th episode of the Flying-G Men.

Sunday and Monday we have "Brother Rat" starring Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane. This picture is proclaimed as the best comedy ever made. It took Broadway by storm and ran two years there with three road-show companies touring the country.

J. F. Richardson

Following an illness of several months, J. F. (Uncle John) Richardson died at his home here Tuesday afternoon.

Born in Franklin county, Ark., Sept. 3, 1853, Mr. Richardson came with his family to Walker county, Texas, when he was 5 years of age.

Preceding the 34 years he has had residence in Coke county, he made his home in Leon, Williamson, Llano, Scurry, and Brown counties and it was in Leon that he and his first wife, formerly Miss Victoria Mitchell, were married.

Though he has earned his living at farming he has preached to Primitive Baptist congregations since 1877. A man whose entire school instruction was limited to six weeks attendance, he made so thorough of self instruction that he was often taken for a teacher of many years experience.

Uncle John was proud that he had been privileged to administer the ordinance of baptism to all but one of his children who grew to maturity and had performed the marriage of all but two.

Survivors include his third wife, Aunt Martha, seven children, O. D., San Angelo; Jake, Robert Lee; Raymond, Lubbock; Mrs. D. N. Hull, Rotan; Mrs. Clifford Sherwood, San Angelo; Mrs. Ben Humphreys, Goldthwaite; Mrs. M. M. Powers, Portales, N. M.; also 34 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and 8 great-great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the residence Wednesday afternoon and burial was made in the Paint Creek cemetery.

A fire almost destroyed the home of J. M. Price Tuesday. Two beds and bedding was burned before the fire was checked.

The P. T. A. will meet next Thursday afternoon, March 16 at the school auditorium for the regular monthly meeting.

Fire broke out Saturday night about 1:30 in the office of the Planters Gin. The blaze was confined to the roof and was soon put out by the fire department before much damage was done.

Clyde Gartman, who has been connected with the City Drug Store for the past two years, has resigned his position and moved back to Sanco to take charge of his father's store.

If you have any news phone 69 or tell us. It will be appreciated.

Of Interest to Farmers

Price adjustment, or "parity" payment rates, announced recently by the AAA, make it possible for Texas cotton, wheat and rice producers who stay within their 1939 acreage allotments to get more than $30,000,000.

The rates are: Cotton, 1.6c a pound; wheat 11c a bushel; and rice, 12c a hundredweight, or 19c a barrel.

Price adjustment payments, which are in addition to "conservation" payments at rates previously announced, are made on the 1939 normal yield of each producer's acreage allotment, for cotton, wheat or rice.

A producer forfeits his right to such a payment if he produces on any fraction of an acre more than his acreage allotment, George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation committee, cautioned.

Counting both price adjustments, the total payments to be made to cotton, wheat and rice producing participants in the 1939 program are: Cotton, 3.6c a pound; wheat 28c a bushel; and rice, 22c a hundredweight, or 35c a barrel.

"With prospects of large world production in each of the three crops, and an uncertain market for 1939 in every case it is reasonable to suppose that most Texas farmers will take advantage of these guaranteed income supplements by producing within acreage allotments this year," Slaughter surmised. "The payments will enable many farmers to abandon the one-crop system and get on a more secure, diversified basis, using acreage diverted from cash crops to grow soil-conserving crops and feed and vegetables to supply domestic needs".

New Idea for Mid-Meal Snack

Simple Treat, Kept in Car, Saves Wear and Tear on Grown-ups

"MOM, I want a drink".... "How about a soda, Mom?".... "Mom, I'm hungry!" If you've a couple of youngsters under nine, those words won't be strangers to your ears: especially if you like to entertain them with motoring on summer afternoons.

The best way we know to meet the emergency of hungry little stomachs between meals is to stock up a private snack-shelf in the dashboard compartment of your car. Here's a practical suggestion for a treat that will take up the very minimum of space: a big box of toasted whole wheat flakes like wheaties. They're wholesome, satisfy a whim for something to nibble on, yet don't spoil dinner appetites. Better yet, they satisfy that deep-down instinct we all have to reach into a box and pull out something good to eat.

You might keep a small shaker of sugar for someone with a sweet tooth to sprinkle on the flakes and a package of mints to top off the afternoon snack. The children will be delighted and you won't have to keep a weary eye peeled for popcorn stands and ice-cream wagons!

County Agent Turns In Good Reports

Mr. H. E. Smith, County Agri. Agent, Robert Lee, Texas.

Dear Mr. Smith:

Your reports arrived today and you may be certain that we were glad to receive them. I want to congratulate you upon the reports as they are certainly among the best we have received.

The report itself immediately indicates to me that you have put forth some effort to stimulate interest not only in the contest but in conservation work as a whole. One thing stood out in your report especially and that was the large number of soil and water saving measures used. This variety shows that you employed a well rounded program of which you may be justly proud.

I of course cannot tell or determine which of the counties will win awards but I am confident that yours should be up close to the top. You may be sure that our organization appreciates the interest you have created in this work in your county. If we can be of any service in the future please call on us.

If possible we want you to attend our annual convention which will be held this year on May 15, 16 and 17. I would appreciate from you any suggestions as to how the contest might even serve a better purpose. Kindest regards, I think your committee should that we think you done a splendid job.

It Pays to Advertise

A traveler seeking advertisements for a local paper, called at the village grocer. Upon presenting his card, he was surprised when the gray-haired proprietor said, "Nothing doing. Been established 30 years, and never advertised."

Turning to leave, the traveler said, "Excuse me, sir, but what is that building on the hill?"

"The village church," said the grocer.

"Been there long?" asked the traveler.

"About 300 years."

"Well," replied the traveler, "they still ring the bell."

Legislative Views

of R. H. Reaves,
Representative 92nd District

After nearly one-half of the Regular Session of the 46th Legislature is history, the following are some of the happenings and thoughts of this Freshman in the House:

First, let me say that we have some very capable and likeable ladies and gentlemen in this body, and I am happy for the tie of friendship that is mine to enjoy with them.

When it comes to those fellows across the Hall (the Senators) well, I was taught to say nothing under certain circumstances, for they get some appointments from the Governor now and then. I am sure they are alright most of the time.

When we first started this Session it seemed that a great number of Members wanted to see how many bills they could introduce, a majority of them special interest measure under various kinds of labels, that they are keeping this freshman the busiest I ever was in my life, to keep up with them and do my duty toward my District and State.

Now with almost 800 House bills and 300 Senate bills, it is easily seen that our committees are completely swamped with such measures as legalizing of horse racing, creating a State Bar, Truck Load Limits, Medical Bills and various functions that have caused the citizens of Texas to come to our Capitol by the thousands. The major Revenue bills are still with them.

We issued script for the amount of Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars to supplement the fund to assist the old people until September. We have appropriated Two Hundred Thousand Dollars for the emergency needed to start the new Insane Hospital at Big Spring, all of which are badly needed.

Now this is what shocks this Freshman. We started on an economy move by abolishing one of our State Departments (The State Tax Commissioner) at an estimated saving of $28,000 00. It seems the people back home thought we had started at last in the right direction, but what did we do a few days later when

We elevated two Junior Colleges to Senior rank, which I opposed with an estimated cost from Three Hundred Thousand to Four Hundred Thousand Dollars per year, to the already burdened tax payers.

Among my very few campaign promises was that I would do all I could toward carrying out the wishes of the people of Texas by assisting in raising revenue for the Social Security Plan--with emphasis on helping the old people.

So, here we are loaded down with committee work, very often until late hours at night, with nothing in sight that will accomplish that promise.

One thing I have learned is a higher respect for the hard working, conscientious and conservative Legislators whether I ever reach that class or not.
