School Finances Coming Year Look More Promising

At its special called meeting last Thursday night directors of the Robert Lee Independent school district adopted its budget for the year beginning Sept. 1, with estimated receipts of $42,087 and expenditures of $40,682. The meeting had been called as a public hearing on the proposed budget, but no taxpayers were present and the budget was adopted without any discussion.

Estimated receipts include the state apportionment of $53 on each of 321 scholastics, making $17,013; teachers salary aid, $8,139; transportation aid, $2,200, and county apportionment, $160. Revenue from local taxes is expected to be $11,660 for maintenance and $2,915 for the bond and interest fund.

Expenditures were estimated as follows: Administration, $4,620, including salary of superintendent, cost of tax assessing and collecting, supplies and office expenses. Instructional services, $25,356; operation of school plant, $2,625; maintenance and repairs, $400; auxiliary agencies, $3,300, which includes bus drivers wages and bus operating expenses; insurance premium, $561; capital outlay (payment on buses) $1,100; and bonds and interest, $2,720. All surplus funds will be applied on bank debt.

Taxpayers recently voted to raise the school levy from $1.00 to $1.50 which has permitted the district to get its finances back on a current basis.

Turney Casey acted as chairman in the absence of President Roy P. Ross, and Supt. M. G. Hannaford served as secretary of the meeting. Other board members present included Chester Harwile, Genie Baker and Leslie Wink.

A motion carried to invite a representative of the state department to make an early inspection of the Robert Lee school plant and make such recommendations for improvement as he deems necessary. There will be no charge for his services.

The matter of this year's property rendition turned in by Assessor S. R. Young was accepted after the assessment on sheep, goats and cattle was raised to conform with the county's rendition. Assessed value of property in the district was $971,739, a gain of $40,000 over last year. Real estate was valued at $695,745, unrendered property at $5,505, property with owners unknown, $3,680, and personal property, $266,809.

The board voted to pay Mr. Young 2 per cent on the assessed value as his salary for assessing. The amount figured $194.35, and he will receive a similar fee for collecting the taxes.

The board voted to borrow money at 7 1/2 per cent from a local source to pay for the new school buses. The president and secretary were authorized to sign a note at the Robert Lee State Bank for the amount that the district ran behind the past two years.

E. B. Buford and family of Big Lake were guests of Robert Lee relatives over the Labor Day holiday. Mrs. Buford was the former Zeila Ruth Adkins, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Adkins.

Mrs. J. S. Gardner enjoyed a visit over the Labor Day holiday from her son, Winston, and family of Kilgore.

Hot Weather Edition

The Observer is reduced to a minimum number of pages this week because of the spell of intensely hot weather which has prevailed the past week. Temperatures have ranged from 100 to 105 degrees and there is no immediate relief in sight from the heat and drought.

Ruby Martin Marries Curtis Roy Burson

The marriage of Mr. Curtis Roy Burson and Miss Ruby Martin, well known Robert Lee couple, took place Sunday at high noon at Coleman, with the Rev. Opal McCaleb, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom officiating.

The bride wore a two-piece silk suit of pastel pink, with black accessories. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Burson of Odessa.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Martin. She graduated from Robert Lee high school in 1946 and until recently was engaged in the cafe business here with her parents and sister.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Lula Burson, who now resides at Coleman. He finished high school in 1937 and served three years in the army in the European theatre. For the past year he has been employed at Blythe, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Burson left the middle of the week for Blythe where they will make their home.

Help! Help! No Water At Gymnasium Showers

High school football players are working out twice daily this week. In spite of the torrid weather the boys are putting in some earnest practice efforts, and not a single man has skipped any of the drills.

A sorry situation has come to light, however, which is the fact that no water is available for showers at the school gym and the boys are making regular trips to the river following their practice sessions. Surely the school and city authorities can remedy this situation.

Coach Jiggs Hudson has 33 candidates out for football and another good team is in prospect. First game is at Sonora on Sept. 12th.

Miss Grace Whiteside Victim of Long Illness

Mrs. Delmir Sheppard mourns the death of her sister, Miss Grace Whiteside of San Angelo, who died Sunday afternoon at Hendrick Memorial hospital in Abilene. She had been ill for several months.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the First Church of the Nazarene with interment following in a San Angelo cemetery.

A member of the Nazarene church of San Angelo, Miss Whiteside became a Christian at the age of 12, was a successful child evangelist, and was a missionary of the Bible Lovers League.

She was born in western Coke county Jan. 30, 1902, and attended Coke county schools. The family moved to San Angelo a number of years ago.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Tempe Whiteside, two sisters, Miss Bessie Whiteside and Mrs. Sheppard, and a brother, T. K. Whiteside of Nolan county. Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Earl Roberts of Robert Lee are cousins of the deceased.

A guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Anderson at Silver is her niece, Mrs. Jules V. King, of Lampasas.

Action Promised For Building New Road To Sterling

A promise that he would endeavor to get the State Highway Commission to do something about improving the Robert Lee-Sterling City highway, was made Tuesday by Highway Commissioner Fred Wemple at Midland when he was visited by a delegation of Coke and Sterling county officials and road enthusiasts.

Mr. Wemple advised the group that it was very possible the commission would act immediately on improving the road from the Sterling county line to Edith, with pavement for the gap on into Robert Lee to come later. The entire project, including a new bridge over the Colorado River, would be too expensive to put over in one year.

Mr. Wemple was well aware of the need of improving the stretch from Robert Lee to Sterling City, which is the only unimproved gap in Highway No. 158 from Abilene to Midland through Garden City. Oil activity in the western part of Coke county and a new strike in Sterling county are also important factors in the immediate need of a good highway.

The delegation was assured by Mr. Wemple that he would take the matter up with the district engineer at once and then lay the plan before the commission at its meeting in Austin next week. He said he had reason to believe he will get support from the other two highway commissioners.

Heading the Coke county delegation were County Judge Bob L. Davis and Commissioners Varnadore, Harmon and Brooks. Also Sheriff Paul Good and son, Eddie Paul, S. E. Adams and A. J. Kirkpatrick. Bronte was represented by School Supt. Jeff Dean, Jess Percifull and Matthew Caperton. On hand from Sterling county were Commissioners R. T. Foster and H. G. Garlington.

Divorce Granted In Brief Court Session

Judge John Sutton of San Angelo presided over a brief district court session here Monday morning when a divorce decree was granted to Bethemia E. Daniel from J. S. Daniel.

Plaintiff's petition alleged that soon after their marriage on Feb. 11, 1946, the defendant began a course of cruel, harsh and brutal treatment. She was allowed to resume her former name of Bethemia Elizabeth Davis. A property settlement was arranged out of court. The plaintiff's case was handled by Frank S. Dickey.

The defendant, known here as "Doc" Daniel, left Sunday for Oklahoma with the announcement that he was leaving Robert Lee "for good."

A group which enjoyed a fishing party on the Colorado river over the weekend included Turney Casey and family, Roy Casey and wife, Fagan Parker and family, Mrs. L. M. Service, H. C. Schooley and family and Mike Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brock and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burgess returned Monday from a week's vacation trip to Sulphur, Okla., where they attended a reunion of Burgess relatives.

Mrs. John Vowell and son, Rufus, of Stafford, Okla., are visiting relatives in this locality.

Legion-Auxiliary Meeting

A joint meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary was held here Tuesday night, with an attendance of thirty members. A feature of the program was the reading of annual reports of Auxiliary officers. The unit was organized last winter and made a fine record and has 48 members. Dues of $1.75 for the new year are now payable. Next Tuesday night is work night at the Legion home and members are requested to come prepared to help with painting and paper hanging.

School Opens Monday After Week's Delay

After being postponed a week because of transportation difficulties, Robert Lee's public school will open next Monday, Sept. 8. Supt. M. G. Hannaford announces that all students will enroll during the forenoon, but there will be no classes until Tuesday morning. A faculty meeting has been called for 4 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 6.

School had to be postponed from opening last Monday when it was learned that one of the new school buses could not be delivered on time. Cumbie Ivey, who sold the district a new Ford chassis and custom made bus body, has received definite word that the vehicle will be delivered by Oct. 1.

Delay was caused by a fire a few months ago which destroyed a large part of the Carpenter Body company's factory at Mitchell, Ind. In order to make good on his contract Mr. Ivey has purchased the old International bus which had been sold to B. M. Mundell. It will be put in shape and used until the new bus is delivered.

Simpson Purchases More Angus Breeding Cattle

Marvin Simpson, well known Robert Lee rancher and stockman, recently bought nine cows and two bulls at the Stoneybroke sale at Ada, Okla., for a total of $4,910. Ada is in the heart of "Hereford Heaven" and Stoneybroke Angus have been given the nickname of "Black Angels."

Also while in Oklahoma Mr. Simpson visited the nationally famous Fullerton Sunbeam Farms at Miami, and bought a 9-month-old Sunbeam calf for $2,000.

Earlier in the summer the Robert Lee man bought a dozen head of excellent registered Angus and he is rapidly laying the foundation for an outstanding herd by securing some of the finest breeding animals in the country.

Mrs. Simpson, Marvin, Jr., William and Carolyn and Joe Rawlings of Bronte accompanied Mr. Simpson on the Oklahoma trip. The party also visited Mr. and Mrs. Mark Simpson at Eureka Springs, Ark.

Silver Baptist Church

Sunday School at the Silver Baptist church last Sunday had an attendance of 31. Sunday School will be held again next Sunday at 10 a. m. with preaching at 11. Bro. Dunlap of San Angelo will be the preacher.

Mrs. Robert E. Lee of Big Spring returned to her home Monday after a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Frank McCabe. The latter's many friends will be glad to know that she has been holding up well under a serious illness.

Mrs. Roy Taylor and her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Kennemer, and children spent the weekend with the Jack Martins at Big Spring and the Lee Ligon family at Odessa.

Reef Runs High In Latest Test At Jameson Field

With a total depth of 6,090 feet Sun Oil company's No. 2 Homer Jameson was coming out of the hole Thursday noon with its first drillstem test from 6,080-90 feet. A lime reef was reached at 5,800 feet, the highest of any previous tests in the Jameson field near Silver. It is a southwest outpost and is a quarter mile south and one-fourth mile west of Fred Jameson No. 3, the field's top producer.

Sun's No. 2 Willie I. Tubb, which is expected to become the eighth producer in the Jameson area, was going back in the hole Thursday for another test after packer failed to hold in a previous attempt. Total depth is 6,350 feet and the test is to be made from 6,210 to 6,350 feet. Open hole extends through pay, with 5 1/2 inch pipe having been set to 6,146 feet. No. 2 Tubb is a west offset to No. 1 Homer Jameson and is a half mile west of the Allen Jameson No. 1 discovery well.

Sun No. 4 Fred Jameson was drilling ahead Thursday at 3,882 feet in shale and sand. Location is a south offset to Homer Jameson No. 1.

No. 1 Homer Jameson is being worked over in an effort to improve production. Pipe was perforated this week from 6,135-38 feet with 24 shots and a packer was set at 6,130 feet. A flowing test was started at 7:30 a. m. Thursday.

Sun No. 1 John B. Walker was rigging up this week and may be spudded in by Saturday. Contract is the Crude Oil Drilling and Exploration company of Dallas. It is a wildcat test on the south side of the Colorado River near the south line of Section 526. Location is about five miles from the center of the Jameson pool.

Oil Field Notes

W. J. Turner arrived last week to assume his new duties as area engineer for the Jameson field. He has been with Sun for a number of years and was transferred here from South Texas.

Ferrill Ray, Jr., known to his many friends as "Butch," has been in the Coke county field this summer driving a pickup truck for Ray-Harris drilling contractors. Butch is getting some practical oil field experience during his summer vacation. He leaves Sept. 10 to resume studies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he will be a junior.

He is the only son of G. F. Ray, of Dallas, president of the Ray Oil company and of the Ray-Harris Drilling company. Mr. Ray and his brother, Harlan, own a controlling interest of Southwest Air-motive company at Love field.

Leonard Tibbets, who handles tools for Baker-Taylor Drilling company, was hospitalized a few days the last of the week following an auto mishap near Eunice, N. Mex. Late reports indicate his injuries are not permanent.

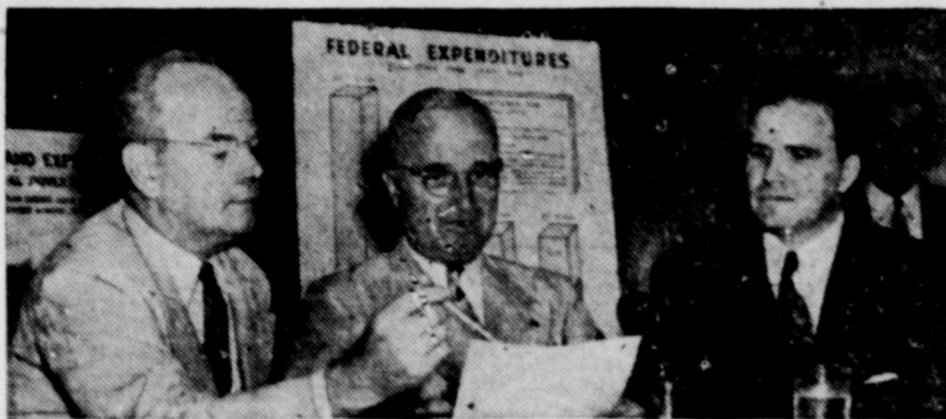

J. C. Jackson has brought his drilling crew back from Eunice, N. Mex., and has taken over a tour on the Baker-Taylor rig in the Jameson field.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hallmark returned the last of the week to their home at Riviera, Texas, after spending the summer in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carroll Russell, and family. Mr. Russell took them home.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

See Aid to American Nations; Huge Budget Surplus Predicted; Terms of British Loan Relaxed

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

John Snyder, secretary of the treasury (left), explains statistics to President Truman as James Webb, director of the budget bureau, looks on at the yearly budget seminar. Mr. Truman predicted record government surplus of 4.7 billion dollars for current fiscal year.

THE AMERICAS: Aid Promised

"We must reject an encroachment upon the fundamental rights of the state. I am confident that we all agree that the state exists for man, not man for the state—and that we abhor any limitation upon the freedom of expression of men throughout the world."

Thus, in his first address before the inter-American conference at Petropolis, Brazil, U. S. Secretary of State George Marshall issued a reaffirmation of democratic principles in the western hemisphere and then bulwarked his expression of idealism with specific assurances of U. S. economic aid to Latin America.

He told the delegates that the U. S. government "will continue to take up economic questions with its sister republics and seek a sound basis for practical cooperation."

Marshall at Rio

"... the state exists for man..." That was interpreted as meaning that the U. S. is willing to help solve Latin America's economic problems through a series of bi-lateral pacts. There was also a hint that the big northern neighbor is counting on sending down its capital.

Although the ostensible purpose of the conference was to arrange a joint hemispheric defense treaty, little was said about that at the outset. Also somewhere in the background was the U. S. plan for standardization of arms in the Americas. Many of the smaller and poorer nations are in opposition to the arms standardization proposal, however, because they feel that there is a greater need for economic rehabilitation than for armaments.

SURPLUS:

Budget Review

President Truman's budget business made big news again when the chief executive (1) forecast a record treasury surplus next June of nearly five-billion dollars, and (2) hurt Republican feelings by telling the nation that congress trimmed the 1947 budget estimates by only 1.5 billion dollars.

His mid-year budget review estimated tax receipts this year at $41,667,000,000, which is 2.1 billion dollars more than any previous forecast.

Mr. Truman made his announcement coincidentally with a bureau of labor report which indicated that the U. S., far from being in for a business depression, can look forward to a period of prosperity continuing "indefinitely."

The present jolly outlook for the state of the budget is based upon an expectation of continued high prices, taxes, incomes and employment, all of which precludes a depression.

From the Republican point of view, however, the President's budget review was a snide attempt to play politics. Sen. Styles Bridges (Rep., N. H.), chairman of the senate appropriations committee, said the new estimate of greater tax receipts proves that the nation was "robbed of a tax reduction by purely political vetoes."

It was a sure sign that the Republicans would renew their tax reduction fight when congress reconvened in January. Equally certain appeared to be the probability that the President would meet such a measure with another veto.

RELAXED: Loan Terms

Groggy and hanging on the ropes, dollar-starved Great Britain was given a reprieve from economic doom when the U. S. agreed to suspend the controversial "free convertibility" clause of its 3.75 billion dollar loan to England.

That particular clause, a major drain on the English dollar supply, required that Britain surrender dollars on demand to any country which held English pounds. In other words, foreign countries having a supply of pounds could turn them in to Great Britain and get dollars in exchange.

As the action was taken, Britain announced that it would withdraw between 150 and 200 million dollars more of the 850 million dollars remaining of the original loan. Cancellation of the "free convertibility" clause, British leaders hope, will enable them to stretch their swiftly dwindling credit.

Actually, few persons outside of the monetary technicians handling the matter, understood the details of the transaction. It was, in the words of Robert A. Lovett, acting secretary of state, "a terribly complicated matter."

CRYSTAL BALL:

Next President

General Douglas MacArthur will be the next president of the United States.

That, at least, is the occult prediction of a 75-year-old Japanese fortune teller, Kakudo Tomioka, who eulogized: "MacArthur has a glorious future in store for him."

Tomioka, who is said to have a record of several accurate predictions, placed the general on a plane with Mohandas Ghandi in the field of social welfare.

"There presently are two living men who have succeeded in realizing a peaceful revolution," he said. "They are MacArthur and Ghandi. But, then, Ghandi's mission is over. And MacArthur has his most glorious task to accomplish for the world in the future."

It was not immediately known whether MacArthur would use Tomioka's recommendation as a plank in his platform if he runs in 1948.

Headliners

IN DALLAS . . . Mrs. Warren J. Woodard, 24, housewife, got up in arms about legs.

She organized the "Little Below the Knee club" for women who oppose the long skirt now in style. The girls organized a parade and ankle through Dallas streets to give emphasis to their protest.

IN LAS VEGAS . . . Senator McCarthy (Rep., Wis.) put the bite on congress for its "do nothing" attitude toward veterans.

Congress, said he, "did foully by our disabled veterans, their widows and dependents."

IN BALMORAL SCOTLAND . . . Princess Margaret Rose of England, just turned 17, received as a birthday present her first military title—colonel-in-chief of the Highland light infantry.

IN SEATTLE, Secretary of Commerce Averill Harriman, former ambassador to Russia, had a harsh word for his former stamping grounds. Soviet leaders, he said, are counting on a U. S. depression to give them "an opportunity to push forward and expand the areas of their domination."

Can We Absorb 400,000 Refugees?

CONGRESS failed to enact the Stratton bill admitting 400,000 displaced persons from Europe. This is bestirring considerable bitterness among people who can make themselves bitter about such matters, believing the United States should be a refuge for anyone who needs a political haven. These people had spread their own impression that a critical emergency on the issue requires immediate action.

There are perhaps 1,000,000 Europeans who do not wish to return to their homes for political or social reasons (they fear to go under the wing of Communism). About 21 per cent are children; 13 per cent are over 44 years old; 20 per cent are Jews; 65 per cent are Catholic; 15 per cent Protestants; a majority was in agriculture before the war.

Congress realized the problem could not be solved simply by opening American immigration gates to let the mass flow in, although some evidence indicated many had relatives here who might support them.

Perhaps a faster part-answer to the problem will be found at the forthcoming meeting of foreign ministers of the Americas. Certainly Latin America is a young and growing area in which immigration and colonization is needed more than in the United States. Better opportunities for the DPs may exist there. For us to absorb some may be found economically feasible for both them and us. An All-America agreement would certainly be better than a United States decision alone.

Dangers of the Open Road

The papers inform me of approval of the super-duper national highway system to embrace the whole United States. It will connect 42 state capitals and link the larger cities of the land by express highways, viaducts and tunnels.

Link 42 state capitals by superhighway my eye! Unlink a few of 'em, say I.

There are too many good highways already and too many people going places on them. Instead of broader highways with fewer stoplights we need narrower ones with more stop-lights if the population is not to be kept in a state of sustained flight from home and fireside. Americans were a sturdier, more likeable, steadier and genuinely happier people when they were home part of the time.

What does Russia want? Can it be a cut in the world series? Two for "Oklahoma"? An end to husband and wife radio programs?

Why the apparent hatred of America and all things American? Have some of Stalin's friends been using our subways?

Junkets to Alaska

IT'S AMAZING HOW MANY congressmen suddenly find they have urgent business in Alaska this summer—with travel paid for by the sweltering taxpayer back home. Even Cong. Evan Howell, Illinois Republican, now appointed to the U. S. court of claims and who won't pass on airfield sites any more, now finds he is needed in Alaska to inspect new airfield routes.

Here are the different congressional groups that have found urgent business in Alaska, though this summer they are careful to pay personally the expenses of their wives and families:
Junket No. 1—Senate public lands committee.
Junket No. 2—Senate small business committee.
Junket No. 3—House interstate commerce committee.
Junket No. 4—House public lands committee.

Whereas the senators made no effort to conceal their Alaskan trips, Wolverton's interstate commerce junket tried to get off without public notice.

If these legislators really got to know Alaska, their visits might be beneficial, since that neglected territory deserves serious consideration for statehood. So far, however, few congressmen have been willing to pay much attention to Alaskan problems, except during the summer.

WALTER SHEAD

What About Federal Spending?

FEDERAL spending in general and President Truman's 1947 budget in particular combined to make a wonderfully bouncy political football which both parties have kicked about sportively all year. (A political football is a thin tissue of truths and half-truths inflated out of all proportion with air of a strictly torrid temperature.) As a result, the average American working man continues to go about thoughtfully rubbing two nickels together and wondering if his government is really as extravagant as a night club blonde or whether it is making a genuine effort to cut financial corners.

What is the truth? Probably it is impossible to get an accurate bearing on all the true facts. The Republican congress raised a victory chant over its cutting of Mr. Truman's budget estimates. And, if we can believe what we read, many agency appropriations were slashed considerably, including the army, navy, interior department and agriculture department.

But the President, with a weather eye out for his big day in November, 1948, has come up with another idea. He has accused congress of working the hidden ball trick, intimating that the illustrious members have shifted various budget items around to produce the illusion that they have effected a great savings. In other words, did we put any money in the bank, or did we blow it all at the races?

BRONTE NEWS

By D. M. WEST

Perhaps the largest crowd ever to attend such an occasion in Coke county was the free barbecue sponsored by George Scott post at Bronte Wednesday evening. The attendance was estimated variously from 750 to 1000 people. There are only two posts in the county, at Bronte and Robert Lee.

Hon. Glenn Lewis, himself a World War II veteran, was the guest speaker, which was patriotic and keeping with the spirit of the occasion. The rain early in the afternoon cooled the air and it was delightfully cool and refreshing in Legion park where the picnic was held.

Perhaps, the most interested persons present, were two who drove all the way from Lubbock to be in attendance, who were Mrs. J. W. Scott, mother of the hero in whose honor George Scott Post was named, and the hero's sister, Mrs. R. J. Watson.

Bronte ginned its first bale of cotton for 1947 on August 27.

The bale was grown on the Frank Keeney farm, four miles north of Bronte, and the grower of the bale is J. H. Vinson. The bale in the seed weighed 2045 pounds and turned out 525 pounds of lint cotton. The Farmers Gin Co. bought the bale at 33 cents per pound.

Business men of the town contributed a cash prize of $21.50. J. D. Luttrell, manager of the Farmers Gin estimates that Coke county production will be the best in a number of years. Mr. Luttrell estimates more acreage and a larger production. Bronte in former years had three prosperous gins which were needed to take care of the crop. The town now has one gin and does not operate more than half time during the ginning season.

Mr. Vinson has ginned two more bales of cotton since he ginned the first bale giving him the first three bales for 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ceapman were shoppers in San Angelo one day recently.

Mrs. Mary Lee Jones was given medical attention in the local hospital a few days ago for an infected hand, reported to have been caused from a mosquito bite.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Caperton returned from Austin Monday where Mr. Caperton spent his vacation with three or four comrades in service when he was in India. By agreement the group met at Austin for a reunion.

"Uncle John" Butner is feeling spry as a sixteen year old these days. He returned recently from a two or three months visit which carried him to the plains, Wichita Falls and Royce City. The last place was Mr. Butner's home before he came West in 1900. He moved there in 1880. While there on this visit he attended an old settlers reunion and won the prize of a box of 10 cent cigars as the oldest man present. He came to Ballinger in 1900. The writer rode in to Ballinger with the family as they came, to make their home in the West. "Uncle John" is the oldest man in Bronte and perhaps in Coke county, being in his 94th year.

Mrs. George R. Scott, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. R. S. Watson, of Lubbock, was in Bronte Wednesday night to attend the legion barbecue, sponsored by the local post. The post is named the George Scott post, in memory of George Scott, the son of Mrs. Scott. He was the only Coke county boy in World War I, who did not come back, thus making Mrs. Scott the only Coke county gold star mother. She resides at Lubbock where her husband, George R. Scott, died only last year. Mr. Scott owned the Bronte Enterprise several years at the time their son volunteered for service. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Watson enjoyed their visit back to Bronte. At the time they resided here, Mrs. Watson was a little girl in pigtails. Their many old time friends enjoyed seeing them again.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Sandusky from Oklahoma are visiting relatives and friends in and around Bronte.

New Product Keeps Potato Sproutless

Problem of Storage Now Aided by New Methods

The sprouting, shriveling and soginess of potatoes when kept at room temperatures now can be prevented with use of barsprout. The treated potatoes remain firm, practically farm-fresh, and not only cook but also taste better. The product is equally effective on certain other root crops such as beets, carrots, turnips and rutabagas.

The active ingredient is methyl ester of naphthaleneacetic acid. When applied to the potatoes as a dust, it vaporizes and literally "gets into their eyes," keeping them from sprouting. Feeding tests have shown that the chemical imparts no harmful effect. Tests have been conducted for the past five years at leading agricultural experiment stations.

By this treatment the potatoes may be kept at ordinary room temperatures without sprouting and without formation of reducing sugar. Ordinarily potatoes are held below 45 degrees and shrink 5 per cent in weight, developing reducing sugars which affect color and taste.

KNOW YOUR BREED

Percheron

The Percheron horse originated in La Perche, a province near Normandy, France, and was imported into this country in 1839. Readily gaining in popularity in America, it is still the most widely used draft breed in the country.

The Percheron is an unusually active horse, but never-the-less is an easy keeper. He is clean-legged, black or dapple-grey and of marked tractability and intelligence.

PUTTING WAINWRIGHT ON CANVAS . . . Retiring after 41 years in the service of his country, Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, the man who stayed on Bataan and Corregidor, sits for his portrait by Joseph Cummings Chase at the National Arts club in New York. The portrait is destined to hang in the Smithsonian institute.

HIGH PRICES, PRODUCE ROTS . . . Food is being dumped in hungry Britain. Tons of vegetables and fruits are being carted from London's Covent Garden markets to the country for dumping and plowing under because of a glutted market. Wholesalers charge retailers with refusing to buy large quantities in order to maintain "scarcity" prices. Retailers say wholesalers prefer to waste food rather than sell at low prices.

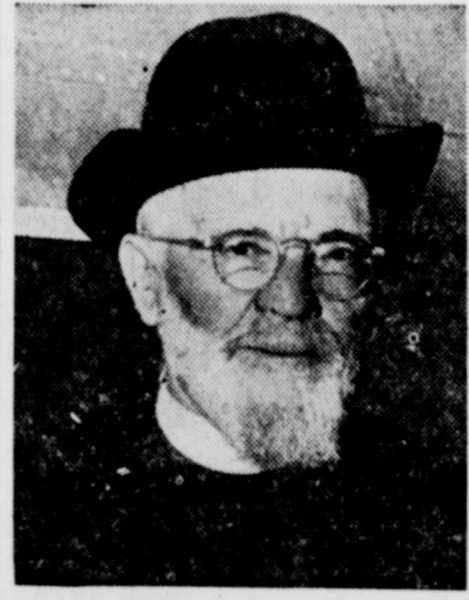

GOOD HOT WEATHER SPORT . . . Probably it wasn't exactly fair, but while millions of persons all over the United States were steaming and fuming in the heat wave, these two cuties, Elba Hooper and Marion Charlton by name, were playing Chinese checkers in the deliciously cool waters of a pool at Banff, Alberta, Canada. This does not prove that Chinese checkers cools you off when it's hot. The swimming pool, and maybe even Canada, are the most necessary ingredients for coolness.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF . . . Robert M. Rownd, 102, of Ripley, N. Y., was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the GAR's 81st national encampment at Cleveland. He was chaplain-in-chief.

GENIUS AT WORK . . . At age of four, Raymond Schiff played chess; while in high school he wrote an essay on the future of atomic energy; today he is working with scientists on nuclear experiments in Pittsburgh. He ranks as one of nation's youngest nuclear physicists.

LEPER MISSIONARY . . . Now back in his native France for a vacation, Pere Henri Philippe D'Orgeval Dubouchet, 75-year-old Catholic priest, has spent 21 years of his life working among lepers on the island of Molokai. He will return to his leper parish next year.

Ain't It So?

Big shots are only small shots who keep on shooting. Most people when asked to take a rear seat, take affront. There are two sides to every question—your side and the wrong side. Because of the great scarcity of things these days, this period will go down in history as the short age. The honeymoon is over when the breakfast nook won't hold but one of them at a time. The man who has no secrets from his wife either has no secrets or no wife.

Bees Don't See Red— Even When They Sting

Bees can see most colors, but are color blind to red. For that reason flowers dependent upon bees for pollination are seldom red. Poppies are an exception to this rule, however, due to their peculiar construction—for poppies not only reflect the red rays which humans see, but in addition a large percentage of the ultra-violet rays beyond our vision. It is these ultra-violet rays which attract the bees, and not the red.

UNDER FLOODLIGHTS . . . For 74 years, Seven Falls and South Cheyenne Canyon have been among the major scenic attractions in the Pikes Peak region of Colorado. Visitors now can view the famous falls at night, under electric lights. The waterfall, shown above, is lighted by 28 large floodlights with alternating white and color effects.

IN THESE UNITED STATES

Floodlights Now Cast Beam On Scenic Falls and Canyon

WNU Features.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.—Embracing "the grandest mile of scenery in Colorado," majestic Seven Falls and picturesque South Cheyenne Canyon have intrigued visitors to the Pikes Peak region for the past 74 years. Their beauties, however, have been shrouded when nightfall descended but now, through completion of an electrical engineering feat, this major scenic attraction of the Rockies can be viewed under electric lights.

The project, which makes this Colorado beauty spot the only completely lighted canyon and waterfall in the world, required the use of 80 huge floodlights and more than 1,000 small spotlights. More than two miles of heavy copper rubber insulated cable was installed underground.

The waterfall, which has seven separate falls in its 266 foot descent, is lighted by 28 large floodlights with alternating white and color effects. The crystal clear trout pool at the foot of the falls is lighted by eight underwater lights, revealing the rainbow trout gliding about in its depths.

The magnificent weather beaten pink granite walls of the canyon, which rise to a height of more than 2,000 feet, present countless shadow effects as the lights play upon them. Various rock formations, such as the "Setting Turkey," "Devil's Slide" and "Wrestling Bears," are spotlighted by 500 to 1,500 watt lights.

Majestic pine trees on the banks of the splashing mountain stream are bathed in various colored flood lights, while others are sprinkled with colored lights. Standing as a sentinel at the entrance of the canyon are the familiar "Pillars of Hercules." It is at this point that the huge $10,000 anti-aircraft carbon arc light has been installed. The big light has eight million candlepower and shoots an effective beam five miles in the air. The Lonesome Pine, Eagles Cliff and other features of interest are caught in its bright path. It also will be used to sweep the sky to indicate that Seven Falls is now under lights.

As a final touch, a 90 watt sound amplifier system has been installed to play soft music.

Al G. Hill, Dallas, Tex., oil man, who purchased the 1,400 acre scenic attraction June 1, 1946, immediately began a program of improvements which have taken more than a year to complete and have cost approximately $100,000. In addition to the lighting project, a stairway of 250 steps has been erected to a spectators' platform on the south wall of the canyon from which point all Seven Falls can be seen at one time. Part of a mountain slope was removed by bulldozers to provide parking space for cars, and a graceful arch has been erected over the roadway at the mouth of the canyon.

The canyon, approximately one mile in length is a "box" or dead end type. Before the coming of the white man, the Indians stampeded herds of buffalo from the plains into the canyon where they then were killed as food was needed. The canyon also served as a strategic retreat from which the Indians fought off their enemies.

Earning and Spending

LESSON TEXT FOR SEPTEMBER 7—Proverbs 11:24-27; 16:8; Ecclesiastes 5:10, 11; James 5:1-6.

MEMORY SELECTION—Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.—Proverbs 16:8.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

By WILLIAM CULBERTSON, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

AS BELIEVERS in Christ we are responsible not only for the way we earn our living, but for the way we spend what we earn.

Possessions are a trust from God, and we shall have to render an account of our stewardship.

Just because we have given a certain percentage of our income to Christian causes is no reason to think we shall meet with divine approbation with regard to our stewardship. If we give a tithe, well and good, but what about the other nine-tenths? Is God pleased with our stewardship there?

I. The Vanity of Wealth (Eccles. 5:10, 11).

IN ANY study of wealth, it seems necessary to begin with an understanding of its limitations. We live in a world in which men frequently lay great importance on possessions, and indeed, there are many things which wealth can purchase. On the other hand, there are some things that money cannot buy. And further, we should recognize that our possessions are not eternal, that they may suddenly fade away.

The passage here reminds us of the fact that wealth for wealth's sake is bound to be a disappointment. The man who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver, any more than the man who loves pleasure shall be satisfied with pleasure. Augustine was right when he said that man could be satisfied with no less than God.

Notice how accurately the picture is drawn. If we have increased wealth, we have increased responsibility (v. 11).

II. The Proper Accumulation of Wealth (Prov. 16:8).

IT IS just as true as when Solomon wrote it, that "Better is a little, with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice." This statement needs no argument, needs no proof. If we would have the honor of men, self-respect, and the blessing of God, there is no alternative.

III. The Improper Accumulation of Wealth (James 5:1-6).

THE apostle James speaks of a condition that will obtain in the last days (v. 3). There are many evidences that the condition he describes has had altogether too many fulfillments in recent history. James excoriates the rich who have defrauded their employees in order that they might fare sumptuously and live riotously. These unscrupulous rich have taken advantage because they were not resisted (v. 6). Such wealth is corrupted.

Notice once again that the result of their sin will rise to break them. It is a serious thing to trifle with sin, to eat the bread of iniquity. God has no patience with injustice in social relationships. Sooner or later judgment will come.

IV. The Proper Use of Wealth (Prov. 11:24-27).

LIBERALITY should characterize the child of God. It is true that the Bible condemns the attitude of imprudence, yet it also condemns the attitude of the miser. To withhold more than is meet, also tends to want.

To have it within our power to help, and fail to do so, is to bring upon ourselves censure and condemnation. Therefore, we should seek to perform the good (v. 27).

This passage concludes with the statement that one who searches after evil shall find that evil will come to him. The man who sets his heart to do wrong will not have to wait long to find the occasion to do that which is in his heart.

Many are the injunctions in the New Testament regarding the proper use of wealth. For example, the Christian has a duty toward his own family (I Tim. 5:8). He is enjoined to be sympathetic and generous in his giving to help others (II Cor. 8:15). Certainly he is to dispense his goods with the glory of God in view (cf. Col. 3:17).

Robert Lee Lost To Ellis Parts, 6-7

Robert Lee lost another one of those tough ball games Sunday, being nosed out by Ellis Parts on the Lake View diamond 7 to 6. The oilers led all the way and were coasting along with a 6-2 advantage until the last of the eighth, when the San Angelo club put over 5 runs which gave them the ball game.

The Oilers pounded the offerings of Blackman for 12 safeties during his reign of seven innings, but they were helpless during the last two frames with Gregg, a young lefthander, on the mound. Hitting honors went to Clarence Tinkler with a double and two singles. Conley had a two-bagger and a single, as did Chilly Tinkler, and Judge Campbell registered a pair of safeties.

Clarence Tinkler held his opponents to four hits and two runs for seven innings, but he lost some of his stuff in the eighth. An error, two walks and four hits, one of them a three-bagger, accounted for the five tallies.

Ellis Parts is a promising team of youngsters and their victory was well earned. Robert Lee had some close base decisions called against them that were an important factor in the scoring.

Budget Pointers

There's a tendency to go along with the crowd when it comes to spending money, especially on food, instead of seeing what can be done to stretch the food dollar. Getting the most out of the food dollar does not, fortunately, mean that we have to tighten our belts; it just means a bit of maneuvering.

In the midst of soaring food costs, there's plenty of help for the woman who wants it, and today's recipes are designed to give you plenty of food for thought. Give your family a change of menu, and give the budget a chance to stay within its limits at the same time.

There are several general rules to follow: Buy wisely; don't overbuy and let food go to waste; serve and cook whatever you have properly, and don't toss away good leftovers.

For main dishes you can call on good quality proteins for front line duty; they're cheaper than the expensive cuts of meat and do just as much for you.

Macaroni-Cheese Souffle.

(Serves 6)

- 1 cup cooked macaroni
- 1 cup sweet cream or condensed milk
- ½ cup butter or substitute
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- ½ green pepper, minced
- 1 medium green onion, minced
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- ½ cup grated cheddar cheese
- Salt and pepper
- 4 eggs, separated

Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain; scald milk and add other ingredients. Stir in beaten yolks, then fold in stiffly beaten whites. Turn into a greased casserole and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven for one hour. Serve with mushroom or pimiento cream sauce.

Eggs Foo Young.

(Serves 6)

- 6 eggs, beaten
- 1 No. 2 can bean sprouts
- 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
- ½ cup shredded onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ pound mushrooms, sliced, if desired

Add salt and pepper to eggs and beat well. Add remaining ingredients. Taste and add more seasoning if desired. For each cake, measure out ½ cup of the mixture and use 1 tablespoon of fat for frying. Pour mixture into skillet, leveling vegetables evenly over the surface of the cake. Brown on both sides, turning once. About five minutes are required to cook each cake. Serve with soy sauce.

Rice Nests With Egg.

(Serves 6)

- ¼ cup butter or substitute
- 1½ cups cooked rice
- 6 slices bacon
- 6 eggs
- Salt and pepper

Butter a baking dish and place rice in it, forming nests out of it with a spoon. Broil the bacon and place one strip around each nest, holding it in place with a toothpick. Break an egg in each nest and sprinkle with salt and pepper and dot with butter. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven until the white of the egg is cooked but the yolk tender. This will take five to six minutes.

Among the kind - to - the - budget items is corned beef hash that comes canned and ready-to-serve. It's easily dressed up in pinwheels of baking powder biscuit dough, and certain to be a favorite with the men of the house.

*Corned Beef Hash Rolls.

(Serves 4)

- 1 cup sifted flour
 - 2 teaspoons baking powder
 - ½ teaspoon salt
 - ¼ cup shortening
 - 1 to 1½ cup milk
 - 1 1-pound can corned beef hash
- Mix dry ingredients together and sift. Work in shortening. Add liquid gradually, mixing to a soft dough. Roll to a thickness of about one-fourth inch. Spread corned beef hash on dough; roll and cut in four parts. Place on a greased cookie sheet (lifting with a pancake turner). Bake in a moderately hot (400-degree) oven for 30 minutes.

For an easy vegetable, take a can of green beans and make this:

*Sweet Sour Green Beans.

(Serves 4 to 5)

- 2 strips bacon
 - 1 small onion
 - 1 No. 2 can green beans
 - 2 teaspoons sugar
 - Salt and pepper
 - ¼ cup vinegar
- Cut the bacon in half inch pieces. Brown lightly with diced onion. Add liquid drained from green beans. Cook down to about ½ cup. Add remaining ingredients and beans. Heat and serve.

If you want to keep the budget trimmed, don't splurge on desserts.

*Date-Nut Custard Pudding.

(Serves 6)

- 1 egg
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1 tablespoon sugar
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - Dash of cinnamon
 - ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
 - 1 8-ounce can date-nut bread
- Beat egg slightly, add milk, sugar and salt. Cook in a double boiler until mixture coats the spoon. Remove from hot water and stir in lemon rind and cinnamon. Cut date-nut bread into pieces and combine with custard. Chill.

Here's a cookie that will take care of leftover egg whites and bread crumbs. Serve it with fruit for a nice, light dessert:

Pecan Brownies.

(Makes 3 dozen)

- 2 egg whites
- 1 cup brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon maple flavoring
- 1 cup pecans, chopped
- 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs

Beat egg whites until stiff, add sugar and flavoring. Stir well, then fold in nuts and crumbs. Shape into small balls, place on a greased baking pan and bake in a slow (325-degree) oven for about 20 minutes.

Putting It Nicely

The new preacher had arranged to preach on Jonah and the whale. He was very nervous.

"And for three days and three nights," he began, "Jonah was in the—"

He blushed, stammered, stopped, then started again: "For three days and three nights Jonah was in the—"

Once more, he was covered with confusion, and once more he stopped and mopped his face, from which the perspiration was pouring.

Then he gathered his courage in both hands, and with a mighty effort he finished triumphantly: "And for three days and three nights Jonah was in the society of the whale."

New Typewriter Eliminates Chance of Spelling Errors

A recently patented electric typewriter eliminates the possibility of misspelling words, says Collier's. Visible through a slot is a series of small wheels, each of which contains all characters and revolves, spelling out one line of words at a time as the corresponding characters on the keyboard are struck.

After the operator checks her spelling, she presses a button which causes the line to be typed automatically on the paper while she writes the next one.

Errors may be corrected individually or by clearing all wheels and retyping the whole line.
