

NEW TANKER—Dimmitt volunteer firemen recently finished refurbishing this 5,000 gallon tanker, purchased from the Spearman Fire Dept. Inspecting the truck are Fire Chief Randy Griffith, fireman Ricky Hargrove, Asst.

Fire Chief Tommy Cleavinger, county commissioner Vincent Guggemos, county judge Polly Simpson, and commissioners Jimmie Howell, Ed Bennett and Edd Wilson.

Commissioners to help circulate TRLA petition

Without giving their formal approval, the Castro County Commissioners Court gave their tacit okay Monday to a petition calling for stricter controls on the Texas Rural Legal Aid.

County Judge Polly Simpson said she was approached by Deaf Smith County Commissioners Austin Rose and Bruce Coleman with the petition. A similar petition is being circulated throughout Deaf Smith County. Deaf Smith County, like Castro County, has lost several cases brought against the counties by parties represented by TRLA.

The petition, addressed to Donald Bogard, president of Legal Services Corp., and Wendell Wyly, staff attorney — office of compliance and review at LSC in Washington, demands a full investigation of the legality and ethics of all TRLA activities and all lawsuits brought by TRLA since it came into existence, and asks for an accounting of all funds expended by the Hereford TRLA office since its inception.

The petition further states, "We demand that TRLA be forced to end its current discrimination and serve equally all our poor of all races, sex, and occupations. The mass of our poor in need of legal services are not migrant farm laborers. They need jobs and individual legal help more than social reform."

"We demand that TRLA be required to expend monies, time and effort equally on the

Dimmitt schools may need more classrooms

Despite the possibility that new classroom space may be needed by next school year, members of the Dimmitt school board authorized expenditure of up to $70,000 for new computer equipment to be distributed throughout the system for classroom use.

With three classrooms not in use in Richardson Elementary, the board felt that a minimum of one additional classroom would be needed to meet strict interpretation of regulations passed by the legislature.

Rules say that in kindergarten through second grade for the 1985-86 school year, each classroom teacher may not have more than 22 pupils, except during the fifth six-weeks. Board members viewed statistics showing the average opening enrollment for this year (K - 19.6 to 1, 1st - 21.1, and 2nd - 21) to be within the guidelines. However, enrollment taken at peak attendance periods during the past three years show ratios of 24.6 to 1 for first grade and 24.7 for second grade.

Supt. Robert Ryan said that at least one additional teacher in each of those grades would bring the peak ratios to 21.5 for first grade and 21.6 for second, although this would leave them very close to the limit of 22.

Energy meeting set Saturday

Tiring of being "force-fed" increases in the price of natural gas, farmers from throughout the irrigation belt of Texas will gather in Dimmitt's Expo Building Saturday night at 7:30 to formally organize the Texas Agricultural Energy Users Association.

The TAEUA has already been chartered, and has hired a lobbyist — former Texas speaker of the house Bill Clayton of Springlake — to do its business in Austin.

"All we need now," says Carl King, president of the Texas Corn Growers Association and one of the organizers of the TAEUA, "is the support of farmers and all types of agribusiness we need to get the job done."

Clayton will present his plan for pushing through a bill which would bring natural gas prices and quality under the control of the state, probably under the guidance of the Public Utility Commission.

King said TCGA and the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association have furnished the money to get the project off the ground, but a large turnout is needed at the Saturday meeting to show the full support needed for the organization.

TSBGA president Bill Cleavinger said he and other farm leaders have tried before to get regulations approved in Austin, but have always been frustrated by the more efficient efforts of the gas lobby.

"This time we have got it done," Cleavinger said. "We're running out of time. In the last 10 years, we've been force-fed an 800% increase in gas prices, and irrigated agriculture is being strangled."

Cleavinger calls intrastate gas sellers "an unregulated monopoly with unilateral pricing authority. As farmers, our choice, when they increase gas prices, is to pay up or get out. We've got to have some relief, and we've got to get it before another farming season starts."

"You know something is wrong with the system when the big industrial users can afford to bring in trainloads of coal from Wyoming cheaper than they can buy the natural gas being produced a few miles from their plants especially when so many gas wells are shut down because the utilities say they can't sell it," King said. "At the same time, more than a third of the irrigation wells in the Panhandle area have been shut off because we can't afford to buy it."

King and Cleavinger said they have had initial contact with several large agribusinesses who use large amounts of fuel and they expect funding and cooperation from several.

Smokeout is TODAY

By JOHN BROOKS

Take it from a smoker, folks, I know. It's TOUGH to quit. I've quit too many times to think otherwise.

It's time to quit again. Today is the eighth annual Great American Smokeout, sponsored by the American Cancer Society. A Gallup organization survey conducted last year indicated that 36 percent of the 52 million American smokers tried to quit for the day. Eight percent made it the full 24 hours, and about 4% were still not smoking one to 11 days later.

I quit smoking for six weeks. Before that, I thought the "delirious tremors" were something out of a movie we saw in high school. I discovered first hand that nicotine is a drug, and that my body was addicted to the drug. Unfortunately, I couldn't overcome my addiction.

Amanda Blake, better known as Miss Kitty in "Gunsmoke," is the honorary state chairman of the smokeout. Why someone from Gilbert, Arizona is the Texas chairman is beyond me, but the fact that she was able to overcome oral cancer, and able to quit her two-pack-a-day habit, is enough to make me quit again.

Miss Kitty overcoming her cancer is not the only reason for making her the honorary chairman. The ACS announced a short time ago that lung cancer has exceeded breast cancer as the leading cause of cancer deaths among Texas women.

I could say smoking is a dirty, nasty, filthy habit, but I wasn't hired to preach — that's something they do on the radio. All I'm going to do is ask you to join me and quit — now.

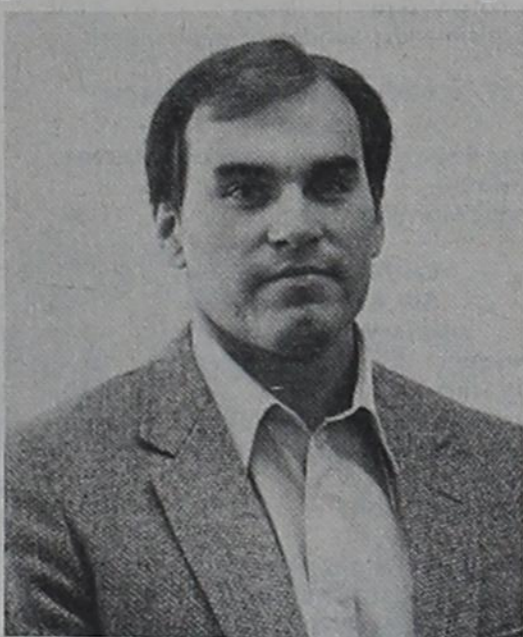

Joe Wilkerson: Helping combat area's drug/alcohol problem

"It's not always the fault of parents — it's the fault of our society today."

Those are the words of Joe Wilkerson, associate minister of the Fourth and Bedford Street Church of Christ, in referring to the drug problem — not America's drug problem, but with Dimmitt's drug problem.

Wilkerson is a former Marine, and worked as an undercover agent with the military police in California, New Mexico and Colorado. He's basically working with young people at the Dimmitt church, but has joined with city and county officials to combat the drug/alcohol problem in Dimmitt and the area.

Wilkerson spoke to the Dim-

mitt Rotary club on Friday, and told the Rotarians that 93% of the nation's seniors have been involved with mind-altering drugs, including alcohol, since the seventh grade.

Wilkerson said Dimmitt's teenagers are afflicted with the same pressures — and problems — as teens are in any other American town. But the problem is not isolated to just teenagers, according to Wilkerson.

"Booze is accepted in all of the under-35 society today," Wilkerson said. "The peer pressure that young people face is also prevalent among the elder age group."

"A lot of folks in America today, especially young people, are more attuned to alcohol than are attuned to what will make them successful in life," Wilkerson said. "We have changed the 'mind-set' to make young people believe that it's okay to get drunk on weekends, it's okay to get drunk every night, that it's okay to go out and get drunk, and then show up for school and take a test."

"America's young people started to get involved with drugs, including alcohol, in the 1960's," Wilkerson told the Rotarians. "We became more deeply involved in the 70's, and

Praise Service set for Sunday

Castro County's annual community praise service will be held Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt.

Rev. Vernon O'Kelly, pastor of Dimmitt's FUMC, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon. A choir composed of ministers and staff persons and their spouses will sing for the service.

Special music will also be provided by the Bell Choir of the FUMC of Dimmitt, and by Rev. and Mrs. Tom Mullins of the Assembly of God of Dimmitt.

Following the service, there will be a sandwich supper in the church's fellowship hall with the Castro County pastors' wives serving as hostesses. Each family attending is asked to bring the following, according to the initial of their last name: A-I, two dozen cookies; J-S, one dozen sandwiches; T-Z, chips and dip.

The offering at the service will go to the Ministerial Alliance's fund for aiding local and transient indigents.

On the Go

with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

On Sept. 29, 26 people from across the United States gathered in Los Angeles, with their tour manager, Thomas Schomburg, for a month-long trip to the far East.

Louise Rogers of Littlefield and Jo Gregory of Dimmitt were among the group.

They flew non-stop to Tokyo, Japan, a city of twelve million people and skyscrapers and freeways! They visited many famous temples and shrines. The people on the street were very neat and polite. They take pride in their jobs, whatever they are. The hotel they stayed in had 13 restaurants.

Then it was Peking, China, a very different country and culture. They visited the Forbidden City and The Temple of Heaven, opened to the public in 1912. It was constructed in the 15th century. The Ming Tomb, about 30 miles north of Peking, with its carved figures lining each side of the road, was a point of interest. The Great Wall of China, three thousand miles long, built by conscripted labor of all kinds, is a feat that has never been repeated. It is a sight that staggers the imagination. They received a certificate for walking on the Great Wall. They received royal treatment in China and were given many gifts when they left. Peking is a city of bicycles and people!

A short flight brought them to Shanghai, China. One of the world's largest cities in population, it is China's largest port and industrial center. They sailed down the Huangpu River past tugs and cargo ships, and also visited many temples, pagodas and parks.

Their next stop was Singapore, the Lion City, a clean city of many skyscrapers and many under construction. A visit was made to Mt. Faber for a panoramic view of the islands of Indonesia. A ride in a tri-shaw in heavy traffic will never be forgotten. They visited the National Museum and the Botanical Gardens.

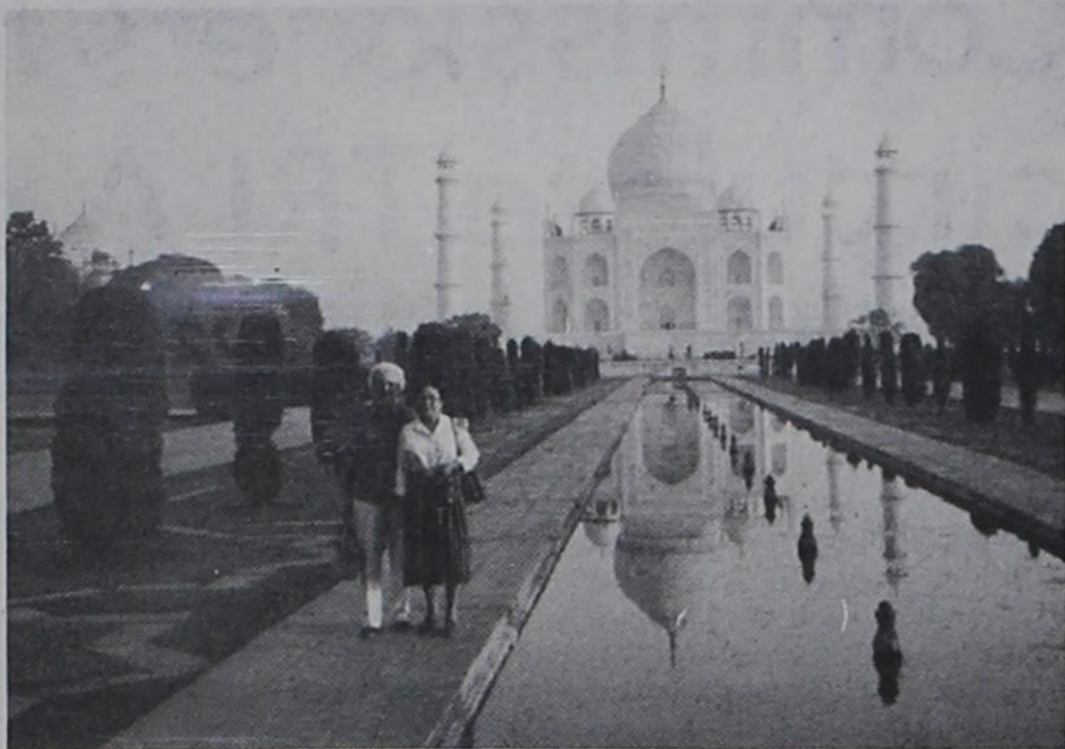

They loved the exotic Island of Bali with its terraced rice fields, its green palm trees, its friendly and happy people.

Bangkok, in the Gulf of Siam, is the capital of Thailand. It was more than they expected. Temple bells tinkled as they stepped into the world of "Anna and the King of Siam." The Grand Palace and the Chapel of Emerald Buddha with its inlay of mother-of-pearl, mosaics and gold were like dreams and fairy tales. After the Palaces for Kings, they boarded boats for an excursion through the Klongs, the canal for rural Thailand.

Far-away Nepal, a country that opened its doors to the outside world only in 1951, was their next stop. Kathmandu is the largest city and its capital. They saw the huge Buddhist Stupa at Boudhanath and many a strange goddess, as they are forging out of their religious past, trying to find a place in today's modern times. Nepal has one thing to boast about — the beautiful Himalayas! On a bright sunny day, they took a mountain flight to see the eastern range capped by a full view of Mt. Everest, the highest peak in the world — a sight to behold.

India was next, with a flight to Varanasi, India's most holy city. Hindus come by the thousands to bathe in the sacred waters of the Ganges River. It was there they saw cremation fires that burn 24 hours a day. The farming is very primitive, done mostly by hand or oxen. Rice is their main crop.

The highlight of their trip

THE TAJ MAHAL OF INDIA

was to see one of the world's greatest works of art ever executed by man in the memory of love — the Taj Mahal of Agra, India. It is made of white marble and inlaid with precious jewels. The Taj Mahal is one thing that exceeds its expectations.

Delhi, the Capital of India, with its Parliament buildings, Presidential Palace, India Gate and Connaught Place and its many shops, makes it a most interesting city. They saw the tomb of Mahatma Gandhi, India's great leader.

Hong Kong, with its many skyscrapers and exciting shopping arcades with luxury goods of the East, was a last three-day stop over on their way home. A tram ride to the top of Victoria Peak gave a breathtaking view of Hong Kong below. A cruise through the harbour to Aberdeen, as the colored lights made rainbows on the dark water, was their last trip.

It was a month well spent in a very different part of our world — a trip of a life time!

The Joe Higgs family recently made a fast trip to the East Texas area.

Joe, Joyce, Cara and Brian drove to Tyler and visited Joyce's mother, Mrs. Roxie Bell, who is recuperating from a hospital stay. They also saw several other relatives. Joyce remained for a week's visit and will fly home Nov. 17. Her brother is to have heart surgery this week.

Joe performed a wedding on Nov. 10 in Henderson for some close friends, Rusty Dorman and Tammy La Grone.

On Sunday, the Higgses visited with their relatives in Grand Prairie, (Joe's sister and family) Gus and Mary Radzinski.

Youth Adoption Sunday was observed at First Baptist Church, where the adoptive parents picked up the youths and took them to Sunday School and church, then had lunch together, visited in the afternoon if possible, then went back for the night services with a fellowship following. Those participating and their adopted youth were the Cody Myers, Jan Nelson and Kelley Howell; the Jerry Blackwells, Jacalyn Thompson and Kerri Collins; the Carrie Jacksons, Lori Glidewell and Kim Blackwell; the Jack Howells, Chad Smithson, Jill Nelson and Kim Howell; the Gene Iveys, Kay Glegghorn and Kristi Sims; the Elmer Youts, David Edwards and Barry Hill; the V. C. Hopsons, Jo Hyman and Beth Sams; the Edgar Dennises, Staci Jackson and Brad Holcomb; the W. J. Hills, David Mohon and Kerrie Lewis; the Jack Thompsons, Denise Smith and Ronna Lewis; the Steve Olsons, Stephanie Ryan and Jill Smith; the Jimmy Davises, Woody Glass and Scott Hill; the Garner Balls, Mandy Higgs and Deborah Mohon; the Jack Edwards, Coby Moke and Jim Nelson; the John Lantzes, Scott Bagwell and Tim Sims; and Ron Caton, Kevin Bruton.

The pretty wedding of Donna Schilling and Bryan Reinart was held at St. Anthony's Catholic church in Hereford Saturday afternoon.

Some from Dimmitt who attended the wedding were: Bill and Jacque Sava, Greg and Debra, Joyce Rickert and D.D., Bob and Celia Simpson and family, Oneeta Cole, the two exchange students, the Lawrence Greens, Joylyn (Broderon) and Mike Campbell, Maxine Ballard, Deanne Clark, Gene and Mary Nell King and John, the Richard Schachers, Wanda Murdock and Mary Edna Hendrix.

I met Clarice (Schwertner) Andrews and her husband and baby girl from Slaton. She knew some of my relatives, Cindy and Susan Hendrix. I also visited with her uncle, Bruno Schwertner, who was a customer when I was in the Implement Business. Bruno lives in Clarendon now. I also met Brenda Gunnel's father, Mr. Klemman from Tulia.

Donald and Agnes Schilling and family have been special to me since they were also customers when I was in the store. Thanks Schillings for the invitation and a special night!

Bill Sava's mother, Barbara Sava, from Texarkana, is here visiting her son and family. I visited with her at the wedding. I met her several years ago while I was county librarian and she told me she still reads the Castro County News.

Mauzee Youts entertained Ruth Hays on her birthday with a luncheon at K-Bob's on Wednesday. Others enjoying the day were: Geneva Dennis, Thelma Bryson, Hazel Bagwell, Billye Wesson, and Connie Ivey.

Mollie Scott honored her mother-in-law, Lois Scott, with a delicious birthday dinner. She invited some of the relatives: Robert and Dickie Dobbins, Anna Lee Dobbins, Edgar and Loleta Vinson, all from Hereford, also Ben, Anessa, and Ben, Jr. and of course Joe was there. Krystal Scott is in college in Abilene at Abilene Christian College. Besides the meal they opened gifts, and cards, and played games and enjoyed a fun day.

I went to Amarillo on Sunday and visited Mary Lynn and family. We enjoyed the kids, Adria, Matt, and little David. We visited my cousin, Johnnie Nix, who has just moved to Amarillo from Lubbock. We attended the evening worship service where they were having a special musical, "Music From Thankful Hearts." The Heritage Singers sang several songs and the combined Sanctuary and Chapel Choirs sang several selections including some of my favorites, "This is the Time I Must Sing," "If My People," and "Heaven Must Be a Wonderful Place." These choirs had been to Dallas to sing for the Baptist Convention. Mary Lynn and Lauren were in the choir and, of course, Janice Davis is the pianist.

Edwin "Goose" Ramey and his daughter Decimae Beene of Friona hosted a double birthday dinner Sunday at the Ramey home in honor of two of

Take a Second Look

On your first look, you may think that this little girl is riding a rocking horse, but look again. It is not a rocking horse but a little donkey.

About animals now, and children. Donkeys were one of the first animals to be tamed by man, and are gentle animals when they are not practicing the quality of being stubborn.

The quality of gentleness somehow reminds us of our Saviour, the Wonderful One.

Parents, teach your children about Jesus, who admonished us to let the little children come unto Him. Our Lord would remind us that the little ones are precious to the Father. We invite you to take the children to church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The large birthday cake was beautifully decorated and had 13 candles on one side and 8 candles on the other. Others present for the celebration were Emily Ramey and Ann Marie Ramey of Amarillo, Jay and Sue Beene of Friona, Beral Hance and Herman and Rose Acker.

Ed and Betty Freeman drove to Denver Nov. 5 to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Sally and Mariano Ortiz, and to see their new grandson, Andrew. They returned to Dimmitt last Thursday.

Sixty attended the Farris Reunion at Quartz Mountain Lodge at Lonewolf, Okla. again this year, Oct. 20 and 21. Many called regretting to miss due to illnesses, some were on cruises, death had taken one member from three different families since last year. The Florida, Oregon and Colorado families were absent due to bad weather. Others from California, Washington, Oklahoma and Texas enjoyed the brief time together. Since all meals were catered, the kin had more time to visit. The youngest attending was one month old and the oldest was 91 years young. Going from Dimmitt were Elmer and Jewel Scott and Retta Cluck.

Lewella Maxwell visited over the weekend with her granddaughter Beth Maxwell Frome and husband Kraig in Lawton, Okla. The Fromes moved from Laramie, Wyo. about two months ago. Lewella also visited some cousins that she hadn't seen in 40 years, Ott and Tennie Zumwalt. They are researching the Zumwalt's, Maxwell's and Daniel Boone families. Nathan Boone's granddaughter was the late Troy Maxwell's granddaughter. She was the granddaughter of Daniel Boone and married the late Sam Maxwell. Her maiden name was Zumwalt. Troy Maxwell was the fifth generation from Daniel Boone.

Nathan Boone's granddaughter, Netta Zumwalt Maxwell and Sam Maxwell were the parents of Sterling P. Maxwell, father of the late Troy Maxwell.

ACIE BOYD NAMED AS FIREMAN OF THE YEAR
... receives trophy from Dimmitt mayor Wayne Collins

Boyd named 'Fireman of Year'

Acie Boyd was named "Fireman of the Year" last Thursday at the annual Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. banquet at the Dimmitt Fire Station.

Boyd received the award from Dimmitt mayor Wayne Collins.

Boyd is currently First Captain of the department, and has been a fireman for six years. Boyd is completing work for his Intermediate State Fireman's Certificate, and has attended schools in Canyon, Lubbock, and Texas A&M. He has also taken special courses at the Ground Cover School, Amarillo Arson School, Santa Fe Railroad Hazardous Materials School, and has taken civil defense preparedness and radiology courses.

Boyd is also a former Assistant Chief.

Receiving the ladies auxiliary award, presented by County Judge Polly Simpson, was Laura Small.

Don Laurent was given special recognition for his work with the department's refurbished tanker truck. Laurent was responsible for a majority of the painting of the truck, which was obtained from the Spearman Volunteer Fire Dept. in a trade for the old Dimmitt tanker. Laurent, and other firemen, put in over 1,000 man-hours in refurbishing the truck.

Missionary to visit

Conrad Steyn from South Africa will be speaking in a special series with the Fourth and Bedford Church of Christ Sunday through Tuesday.

Steyn, a missionary supported by the church, is in the United States visiting various supporters. He will speak at the 10:30 a.m. worship Sunday and at 7:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday evenings. In addition, he will be a featured speaker at an Area-Wide Youth Devotional, also at Fourth and Bedford, Sunday afternoon.

The members invite all to be their guests Sunday, not only for the morning classes and worship, but for a meal to follow in the Fellowship Hall. Also, everyone is invited to the special services Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Three honored at Energas

Three Dimmitt energas employees were honored Tuesday with service awards.

Bob Caddell, who is moving from Dimmitt to Canyon as Energas manager, received a 30-year service award.

Mary Lou Weatherford received a 20-year service award. Receiving a five-year service award was Corina Montalvo.

The three were honored Tuesday night along with 76 other Energas employees at a service award dinner at the Amarillo Country Club.

Tony and Mary Gerber spent several days in Oklahoma last week. They attended the funeral mass for 92-year-old Aunt Lena Yoke in Okarche, visited with the Ed Gerber family in Yukon and with the Norbert Gerber family in Woodward.

Congratulations to Anna Ehly who celebrated her 87th birthday with family and friends. She has been in the Dimmitt Hospital for several days but is doing fine.

Christine Braddock is a patient in the Tulia Hospital.

Rose Warren was brought home Saturday from High Plains Hospital in Amarillo. Her granddaughter Elaine (Kern) Shambo of Waterflow, N.M., spent several days in the hospital with her and will return home tomorrow.

Keith Birkenfeld is in Denver, Colo. this week, attending the North American Finals Rodeo. He is representing the Texas Rodeo Cowboys Association as one of their finalists in the steer wrestling division. The Denver rodeo features contestants from 25 regional associations in the United States, Canada and Australia.

Many relatives and friends from Nazareth and Dimmitt attended the wedding of Donna Schilling of Dimmitt and Bryan Reinart of Hereford, Saturday at the St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Hereford.

Kenny and Cince Schulte, Don and Karen Gerber and Mark Gerber drove to Hardington, Neb. for the wedding celebration of a Schulte relative.

Jameson named city's 'Employee of Month'

Dimmitt city fire marshal Steve Jameson has been named as the city's "Employee of the Month."

Jameson received a certificate recently from the City Board of Aldermen.

good job for us, but in the last few weeks, he has really come through," said mayor Wayne Collins.

"A short time ago, we had some fly-by-nighters come through town, selling smoke alarm systems," Collins said. "They were selling merchandise for about $1400 that you could buy at a hardware store for $150. Steve had run into this same outfit while in Pasadena, and, with the help of the Dimmitt Police Dept., we were able to get these folks out of town with a minimum of damage to the community."

Senior Citizens

Castro County Senior Citizens Center is located at Third and Jones and is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Daily activities include quilting, crafts, and table games. A nutritious meal is served daily from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Bridge will be played today (Thursday), Friday and Wednesday (Nov. 14) at 10 a.m. Duplicate bridge is played on Monday evening.

There will be a blood pressure clinic and diabetic screening today from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

The Castro County 4-H Food Show will be at the Center on Saturday, at 10 a.m.

There will be a Bible study Monday at noon.

The Beltone Hearing Aid representative will be at the Center on Tuesday from 10 a.m. to noon.

A Thanksgiving covered-dish supper is planned at the Center for Tuesday at 6 p.m. It will also be the November Birthday Party, and will include an evening of table games.

Membership is open to everyone who is 50 years of age or older, without discrimination as to sex, color, race, ethnic background, national origin, religion, denominational preference, political party, economic status, or handicap.

Discovery Center has Halley series

Halley's Comet, the most famous celestial wanderer of all time, is hurtling toward its Feb. 9, 1986 rendezvous with the sun. To herald this event, the Don Harrington Discovery Center in Amarillo is hosting a sneak preview of "Comet Halley: Once in a Lifetime" and "The Night the World Trembled."

The series is being run through Dec. 7. Shows are at 7:30 p.m. each Friday during the limited engagement. Cost is $2 for adults and $1.50 for children ages 6-12 and senior citizens.

"The Night the World

Trembled" relives the terror and panic experienced during Halley's 1910 visit.

"Comet Halley: Once in a Lifetime" is an American Chemical Society production and is so named because the comet returns to the inner solar system on an average of every 76 years, thus linking human generations across a lifespan.

On the 1986 passage, Halley will be studied by astromomers aboard the Space Shuttle and thousands of professional and amateur astronomers will peer at it through Earth-bound telescopes.

Flagg mishap injures woman

Kathy Lust, 35, of Bethel reportedly received rib fractures, cuts, abrasions and possible other injuries when her 1982 Chevrolet Suburban was involved in a "double broadside" accident with a truck-trailer rig south of Flagg Tuesday afternoon.

The accident occurred at 4:18 p.m. at the intersection of Farm Roads 1055 and 145.

Dept. of Public Safety Trooper Ron Morgan reported that Mrs. Lust was northbound on FM 1055 when a 1980 Mack truck-trailer rig, driven by Randall Ooten of Tom Bean, crossed the intersection in front of her. Oosten was driving west on FM 145 and failed to yield the right of way, Morgan said.

Mrs. Lust's vehicle actually collided twice with the truck-trailer rig, Morgan reported. The Suburban first struck the tandem wheels behind the left side of the truck cab, and the movement and direction of the wheels caused her vehicle to whip and collide side-to-side against the trailer.

The Suburban was "totalled" and the truck and trailer received heavy damage, Morgan said.

Mrs. Lust was taken to Plains Memorial Hospital by ambulance. Ooten reportedly was not injured.

GOLDEN BULLDOG AWARD RECIPIENT
... Kent Hance accepts award from Lynette Lenard.

Bulldog of Treasury award goes to Hance

US Representative Kent Hance (D-Tex.) has been awarded the Golden Bulldog Award by the Watchdogs of the Treasury, Inc., for his voting efforts to keep federal spending down and thus avoid waste and burdensome deficits.

This is the second time Congressman Hance has won this award.

The Bulldog of the Treasury Award is given to those members of congress who vote for fiscal responsibility in government based on a compilation of selected votes on economic and fiscal issues published in the Economy Voting Record. These votes reflect a dedication to fiscal responsibility, economy in government, and a sound monetary policy.

now we're more deeply involved than ever in the 1980's."

Wilkerson said that while the blame does not lie solely upon parents, parents often do not want to accept the blame when it lies squarely in their laps.

"I have, in my law enforcement career, videotaped drug transactions. I have taped people taking drugs, and I have taped people being arrested. In most cases, when their parents come to get their children out of jail, they immediately point the blame at someone else," Wilkerson said. "Parents don't want to blame themselves or their children. A lot of times, though, parents just don't know how to deal with the problems they're being faced with, and that's where I am trying to help."

Wilkerson said he, and Castro County Sheriff's deputy Ron Jenkins have been appointed to serve in probation-officer-like roles by 64th District Court Judge Jack Miller of Dimmitt to assist young people who have cases before him dealing with drug/alcohol abuse.

"We will have a support group for young people with problems," Wilkerson explained. "We'll be able to refer these youths to doctors, Al-ateen, or anyone else that would be able to provide personal help to young people with a problem. We want to instill productivity towards being a responsible human being."

"We also want to serve as resource persons for parents. We want to help kids and parents understand and realize the problems they are facing together and individually, and we want to help parents to learn to communicate, accept, and understand the problems of their children...the problems suffered not by everyone else's children, but by their own children as well. A lot of parents right here in Dimmitt are truly generous, attuned to reality, and ready to help. We just want to open everyone's eyes to realize and understand the problems everyone in our society faces today, to recognize problems, and help them not to cope, but to combat."

Commissioners...

needs of all poor in the counties that they report to serve," the petition says, "and end the concentration of 10 staff members in one small town and none in a vast, unserved area."

The petition continues, "We demand an end to the political activism, racism, fear, violence, and economic destruction being promoted in our midst with our own tax dollars."

The petition alleges TRLA maintains "special accounts where legal fees from special cases awarded by federal judges may be kept separate to pursue otherwise illegal activities."

"Whether Hispanic, Black or Anglo, we who try to be law-abiding and responsible citizens have civil rights, too," the petition states. "Our vegetable production and its jobs are ending, new industry is driven away with demonstrations and headline-seeking. Existing industry is under attack, while federal lawsuits and harassment drain our governmental entities and raise our taxes. Our economy is being destroyed while our needy poor remain unserved by the TRLA, who are paid to serve them, but prefer instead headlines, social engineering, and federal court-awarded monies. We demand and implore that you force into legal compliance and constructive service those whom you fund."

While the commissioners did not endorse the petition as a group, they individually agreed to help circulate the petition in the county.

In other business, County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis told the commissioners the last few easements are being obtained for the extension of Farm Road 303 from Dodd to FM 145 in southwestern Castro County. All easements must be obtained by Dec. 15.

The commissioners also viewed the newly-painted and refurbished tanker truck recently readied for service by the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. The commissioners had provided funding for the purchase of the tanker as part of a trade with the Spearman Fire Dept.

Putnam to lead FUMC revival

Wesley Putnam of Plainview, singer, composer and evangelist, will appear in revival Nov. 25-27 at the First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt.

Services will be at 10:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 25. On Nov. 26-27, Putnam will speak at 7 a.m. and at 7 p.m. both days.

In addition to his music ministry, Putnam is an ordained United Methodist clergyman, having been appointed to the Northwest Texas Conference after receiving his Master of Divinity degree from Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Ky.

Putnam has composed over sixty songs and has recorded four albums. His compositions touch on virtually every aspect of Christian living.

Saturday wedding ceremony unites Schilling and Reinart

Donna Marie Schilling of Dimmitt and Bryan Douglas Reinart of Hereford were wed Saturday afternoon in a formal, double-ring ceremony in St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Hereford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Schilling of Rt. 5, Dimmitt, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leander J. Reinart Sr. of Rt. 3, Hereford.

Officiating at the ceremony was Father Tim Schwertner of Levelland. Eucharistic ministers were Edward Schilling and Mark Koenig, both of Hereford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white taffeta, styled with a fitted bodice. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with Venice lace, while the French pouf sleeves were accented with Chantilly lace overlaying the ruffle, which extended from the gathers at the elbow. The full, pick-up skirt of taffeta featured a scalloped edge, which continued into a full chapel sweep, also scalloped. Big angel bows of taffeta accented the sleeves and were placed at each scallop of the skirt and train. Layers of Chantilly lace formed the petticoats of the skirt and train.

A large bow matching her gown held together her wreath of country flowers and rosebuds accented with pearls. It anchored her veil of bridal illusion, cut with a scalloped edge and bordered with embroidery. The bride wore her great-grandmother's gold engagement band, borrowed from her Grandmother Kleman of Nazareth. She also wore a blue antique garter borrowed from Mrs. Bob Simpson. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses, azalea blossoms and Bells of Ireland, interspersed with baby blue and peach rosebuds, and tied with peach, baby blue and white lace streamers.

Serving as maid of honor was Joyce Schilling of Dimmitt, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Nancy Acker of Nazareth, Joyce Acker of Amarillo, cousin of the bride Mrs. Bert Navar of San Antonio, sister of the groom Elaine Reinart of Canyon, and Caroline Downing of Easter.

Rex Reinart of Amarillo, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman included cousin of the groom Charlie Stengel of Hereford, Tom Schlabs of Hereford, Kevin Urbanczyk of Hereford, brother of the bride Doug Schilling of Dimmitt, and cousin of the bride Jay Gunnels of Tulia.

Serving as ringbearer was Charlie Broderson of Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Broderson. Stephanie Reinart of Hereford, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

Ushers were Tony Reinart of Hereford, brother of the groom, Gerald Marnell of

MRS. BRYAN DOUGLAS REINART
... nee Donna Marie Schilling.

Hereford, cousin of the groom, and Lee Schilling of Dimmitt and Roy Schilling of Clarendon, both brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Sonny Evers of Hereford played the organ. Soloists included Bill Sava and Mrs. Francis Acker, both of Dimmitt. Selections were "The Gift of Love," "The Wedding Song (There is Love)," "His and Hers," and "God, A Woman and A Man."

Claud Schilling of Lubbock, brother of the bride, was lector. The groom's brother and sisters, Mrs. Robert Newsom of Hereford, Leander Reinart Jr. of Hereford, Mrs. Dennis Anthony of Friona, and Mrs. Brian Rahlfs of Amarillo, carried the gifts up.

At the registry was Barbara Schlabs of Hereford and Annette Diller of Amarillo. Altar boys were Kyle Schilling of Dimmitt, Greg Urbanczyk of Hereford and Trent Schilling of Farwell.

The bride's feminine attendants wore gowns of ocean blue taffeta featuring off-the-shoulder puff sleeves with angel bows atop a sweetheart neckline. The gowns also had pick-up skirts like the bride's. The ruffled underskirt was baby blue, accented with baby blue bows cascading over each scallop on the skirt. Each one carried a white lace fan decorated with swags of rosebuds in peach, baby blue and ocean blue, trimmed with baby blue streamers.

The flower girl wore a baby blue dress under an ocean blue pinafore accented with lace and baby blue bows. She carried a white lace basket with a nosegay of baby roses in blue and peach, tied with baby blue bows and streamers.

Church decorations included potted large and small spider mums wrapped with baby blue paper and white bows.

At the reception in the church auditorium, the bridal cake was Italian cream with rolled fondant. The central cake had four tiers with a fountain underneath. Bridges connected the central cake to two smaller cakes with three tiers each. Decorated with woven baby blue ribbons and bows, the cake was topped with a Precious Moments bride and groom figurine. The groom's cake was chocolate and featured decorations of a tractor and plow, a snow skier and a trapshooter.

The centerpiece was a brass candelabra holding peach, baby blue and ocean blue candles. Adding to the decorations was the bride's bouquet. Serving the cake were Eileen Schwertner of Amarillo, Mrs. Michael Campbell of Canyon and Leona Kleman of Nazareth. Judith Schilling of Canyon served the punch, assisted by Mrs. Oleta Diller and Mrs. William Earl Kahlick.

Following the reception, a dinner was catered by K-Bob's, and a dance was held, featuring disc jockey Shotgun Kelly of KD JW of Amarillo.

After a wedding trip to California, the couple will be residing at Rt. 3, Hereford.

The bride is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and also of Braniff Airlines School. She is employed as a clerk with the US Postal Service in Dimmitt.

A graduate of Hereford High School, the groom farms east of Hereford.

DYH Bazaar booths full

Thirty-two booths will have a variety of displays Dec. 1 at the annual Dimmitt Young Homemakers arts and crafts bazaar in the Expo building.

"We're completely full," said chairperson Sherri Kenworthy. "In fact, we had to squeeze in two extras."

Kenworthy said the booths will include paintings, jewelry, woodcraft, baskets, wreaths, candy and various holiday items.

The bazaar will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Dec. 1.

Teen pageant needs entries

Applications are now being accepted from girls ages 13-19 for the Miss Texas US Teen Pageant.

Contact Carole Clements, National Director, Miss US Teen, P. O. Box 1229, Auburn, AL 36830, or phone (205) 745-6875.

Entries need to be made immediately.

The Texas winner will receive $250 in cash, a one-year college scholarship, an all-expense-paid trip to the national pageant including airfare, jewelry, color portrait, crown, banner and trophy, and a host of gifts and products.

In addition to the state title, awards will be given in leadership, friendship and photogenic categories. The state pageant will be held in Dallas, with judging based on poise, personality, school and community involvement.

Nazareth show and meal to be Sunday

Nazareth's Holiday Arts and Crafts bazaar, and Christian Mother's Society Thanksgiving dinner will be held this Sunday.

The bazaar will be open from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Nazareth school cafeteria, and is sponsored by the Nazareth Art Club.

The bazaar will feature paintings, china paintings, crochet, quilts, dolls, woodwork, stuffed toys, candles, stuffed toys and baby articles.

The thanksgiving dinner will be served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Nazareth Community Hall. The traditional dinner will include turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, fruit salad, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie with whipped topping, rolls, butter, tea and coffee.

Cost for adults is $4.50, with children under 12 served for $2.50. Take-out plates will be available for $5.

There will be a Thanksgiving Dance Nov. 24 at the Nazareth Community Hall.

Admission price will be $3.50 per person. Music will be provided by the Rough Riders.

PIGGY-BANK BRIGADE—On behalf of their schoolmates at Lucky U Christian School, Garland Coleman and Jen Fuller deposit a jar full of bills and coins totaling $116.21 for the Joshua Franklin Medical Fund at the First State Bank of Dimmitt Friday. Receiving the deposit is teller Louise Nelson, while teller Shirley Hollums looks on approvingly. Other representatives of the school's classes, in background, are (from left) Steve Steffey, Cory Lust, Jamie Wilkerson (holding the school's "Sharing With Josh" goal sign), Eric Keaton, Tawnee Matthews and Hayley Truelock. The students donated the money from their own piggy banks and allowances in a school project on sharing. Joshua Franklin, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Franklin, is undergoing tests and treatment for a blood disorder.

Kick the habit with goals, rewards

Smoking can be as addictive as alcohol or heroin and a habit that is just as difficult to break. However, setting goals financial rewards and trying again can help to kick the habit, a Baylor College of Medicine psychologist said.

A study of the relapse rate for alcoholics, heroin addicts and cigarette smokers showed that without treatment, smokers are just as likely to revert to the old habit, said William Myerson, Ph.D., a Baylor psychologist who directs smoking cessation programs at the Methodist Hospital's Institute for Preventive Medicine.

Many people experience withdrawal symptoms when they give up cigarettes. While nicotine is out of a person's system in roughly 72 hours, Myerson said, people often complain of headaches, muscle aches, heightened emotions, constipation, itchy skin, sleeplessness or irritability for up to 10 days.

Smokers light up not so much for the pleasure of smoking but to avoid feeling uncomfortable, Myerson said.

"Even six months later, as they start feeling uncomfortable they think the thing to do is to have a cigarette, although a cigarette at that point won't make any difference and the discomfort may be caused by any number of things, such as stressful situations," he said.

Myerson recommends that those who would like to quit but have found it difficult to go "cold turkey" should set a goal on how much they want to cut down and chart their progress.

"Buy all of your cigarettes in the morning and throw away two the first day, three the second day and so on," he said. "At the end of each day, throw away any remaining cigarettes."

When people reach the point where they are throwing away more cigarettes than they are smoking, they become offended at such a waste of money and tend to stop altogether, Myerson said.

Another way to curtail smoking is to make a financial commitment.

"Say to a friend or family member, Here's $50, give it back to me when I haven't smoked for 24 hours," Myerson said.

Above all, he said, avoid temptation.

"About 80% of all relapses occur in the presence of somebody else who's smoking," Myerson said.

Those who slip up should shake it off as one mistake and start over, he said, remembering that regardless of how hard it is to stop smoking, it should still be done.

Many people seem to be following that advice. Smoking declined 25% for males and 15% for females in the past 20 years, coinciding with a drop in heart disease related deaths, according to statistics from the American Heart Association.

Concert association elects new officers

The Castro County Community Concerts Association board of directors elected new officers for the 1985-86 concert season.

Rev. Edward Freeman was elected president, with Dwight Joiner as vice president, Alma Conrad as secretary, Walter Maynard as corresponding secretary and treasurer, Oleta Walser as membership secretary, Rev. Joe Higgs as patron secretary, and Nolan Froehner as publicity secretary.

Froehner is the outgoing president of the association.

Other members of the board of directors include Irene Carpenter, Beral Hance, Mary Edna Hendrix, Pauline Bell, Mayme Birdwell, Marshall Cook, Jimmy Davis, Norma Dawson, Zeldia Ellison, Christine George, Woodrow Killingsworth, Dr. B. D. Murphy, Cody Myers, Robert Ryan and Dr. James Sims.

The board of directors sponsor the annual membership and patron drives and book the concerts scheduled for Dimmitt. Two more appearances remain on the calendar for this season. Jan. 24 the Trio Sonato will appear, and March 3 will be a piano concert by Earl Rose.

Nov. 29, the board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Rhoads Memorial Library to consider bookings for the 1985-86 season. A new representative of Columbia Artists of New York City, Mrs. Horlene Cast of Amarillo, will be here to present possible selections. Membership holders in the association are reminded that they may attend concerts of other area associations on a space available basis.

Exhibit is continuing

An exhibit depicting German immigration to Texas will be on display through Nov. 30 at the Amarillo Public Library at 4th and Buchanan in Amarillo.

Created by the Goethe-Institut of Houston and funded by the Texas Committee for the Humanities, the exhibit is sponsored locally by the Friends of the Library.

Dr. Bobby D. Weaver of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum was consultant on the exhibit, and has written extensively on German Folk Islands in the Panhandle of Texas.

Easter 4-H raises funds

The Easter 4-H Club met Oct. 30 at the Easter Community Center. Royce Schulte presided.

The club recently raised $313 by cooking hamburgers for the area farmers at Easter Grain. Some of the funds will be used to create a new community service. Kalinda Dutton, Dena Richards, Scott Acker, and Candy Matthews were appointed to survey the needs of the community.

The club decorated the community building for the Easter Lion's Carnival. Hamburgers were prepared by junior members Katrina Acker, Amy Odom, and Carrie Matthews.

Members of the club are: Kevin and Kasey Wheelless; Denise, Kara, Royce, and Nadine Schulte; Candy and Carrie Matthews; Arron and Kyla Struve; Dena Richards; Caroline Downing; Scott and Julie Atchley; Kalinda Dutton; Brian Simpson; and Scott, Heath, and Katrina Acker.

The next meeting of the Easter 4-H Club will be Nov. 27 at 6 p.m. at the Easter Community Center. Anyone interested in 4-H is invited to attend.

Ministerial Alliance

All church staff persons and their spouses are to report to the First United Methodist Church on Sunday at 5:30 p.m. to practice for the Community Praise Service.

Edward D. Freeman will lead a study of Acts, chapter 10, for the Castro County Ministerial Alliance on Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, 16th and Western Circle Drive.

Idalou bounces Bobcats out of playoffs, 17-0

By JOHN BROOKS
When Top-o-Texas Football Magazine came out this summer everyone was asking the same question.

Where's Dimmitt?
Publisher Sam Mayo had left the Bobcats out of his pre-season district rankings. Mayo said it was totally inadvertent, but Dimmitt would have been picked last. The fact that Dimmitt was playing Idalou for second place and a shot at the playoffs was a surprise.

For 14 seniors, it was a dream. Only once in their lifetimes had Dimmitt ever been in the playoffs.

Idalou shattered those dreams, 17-0, Friday night at Bobcat Stadium. But the Bobcats didn't give up without a struggle. In fact, it looked like the Bobcats were going to jam the pigskin down the teeth of the Wildcats, in an eat-up-the-clock, ground-oriented game.

Dimmitt kept the ball for the first 10:01 of the game, on an 18-play, 66-yard drive that netted no points. A bad snap on a would-be 30-yard Bobby Nino field goal foiled the effort, and gave Idalou the ball at its own 17.

Idalou took the ball on an 11-play drive that featured another Clint Eastwood-defensive stand by the Bobcats. Idalou tried twice to make the Bobcat's day, driving to the Dimmitt two, but Joe Alvarez scooped up an Isaac Jackson fumble to spoil Idalou's effort.

Dimmitt couldn't move the ball, but Todd Durham punted the Bobcats out of trouble with an 84-yard bounce-and-roll punt that carried to the Wildcat 10.

The Wildcats went on an 80-yard march that provided the winning points, :20 before halftime.

Jackson, who ended the game with 150 yards, was the Bobcat back-breaker, picking up four first downs and 40 yards. Quarterback Jim Pruitt, going into the teeth of a 20-miles-per-hour wind, didn't mind the breeze, but he had two touchdown passes dropped, and overthrew a wide open Stacy Phillips in the end zone. Pruitt would later find Phillips for both Idalou touchdowns.

A 27-yard Pruitt field goal, kicked from squarely between the hash marks, veered sharply to the right at first, going

BIG GAINER—Dimmitt quarterback Woody Glass reels off a nifty 30-yard run from the Dimmitt 30 to the Idalou 40 in the fourth quarter of Friday night's season final here.

Trying to head him off is Idalou's Charlie Lozoya (65), flanked by Dimmitt tailback Mike Love. The visiting Wildcats combined speed and power to take a 17-0 win.

against the wind, but inched just inside the right-side upright to give Idalou its 3-0 lead.

The Bobcats struggled in the second half. After getting four first downs on its first possession, Dimmitt picked up just four more the rest of the game, and threatened to score just twice. Meanwhile, Idalou enjoyed generally excellent field position. The first touchdown drive, in the third quarter, went just 52 yards, but the Wildcats had to pull off a surprise to score. Jackson did most of the work for the Wildcats, as Idalou drove to the Dimmitt one. On third down, though, Eddie Jordan, playing end on the goal line defense, stopped Jackson at the Bobcat three. On fourth down, disdaining a field goal try, Pruitt found Phillips completely uncovered in the right half of the end zone. Pruitt's PAT put Idalou up, 10-0, with 1:18 left in the third quarter.

Idalou's last score came after what looked to be a spurt by the Bobcats. Facing fourth-and-two at its own 38, Mike Love picked up a first down at the 41, but linebacker Steve Wilbanks intercepted a Glass pass at the Bobcat 43. Two plays later, Pruitt went back to Phillips for the six points.

The Wildcats tried to be gracious guests in the last four minutes, as the Bobcats drove quickly from their own 25 to the Idalou 13. Glass picked up 28 yards on the option, then passed to Mike Love to the Idalou 21. Facing third-and-16 at the Wildcat 27, Glass carried to the 13, but Love was stopped on fourth down with 4:09 left.

Idalou fumbled back to Dimmitt two plays later, with Mike Trevino recovering. Glass threw three incompletions, and a fourth down dump pass to Nathan Nelson lost four yards, and ended any chance for the Bobcats.

Swifts-'Lopes rematch set for zone playoffs

Nazareth and Whiteface will be familiar foes Saturday night as they square off in a zone playoff at 7:30 p.m. at Sudan.

The Swifts edged the Antelopes, 14-12, back on Oct. 5, surviving a last-minute Whiteface rally. Nazareth has rolled to its first-ever undefeated regular season, while Whiteface stands 8-2 after losing to Sundown, the 2-A south zone champion.

"We don't expect much different from them, and they can't expect much different from us," said Nazareth coach Rex Minshew. "I expect they'll throw something new at us, but we could have something new for them. We have films from two different games of theirs, and we haven't seen anything different yet."

The most serious threat to the Swifts will be in tailback Bobby Chambers. Chambers scored twice in the last four minutes of the first contest, from 21 and 10 yards. The antelopes could muster but 53 rushing yards against the Swifts, most of it in the last four minutes of the game.

The Swifts were able to pick up 192 rushing yards on Whiteface, with Frank Huseman and Ricky Backus scoring the two touchdowns. Tailback Chris Gerber, who has picked up almost 700 yards rushing in the last three games, gained 102 yards on 22 carries against the Antelopes. Backus, who went out of last Friday's game with a slight knee injury, should be at full strength Saturday.

"He didn't miss a workout," Minshew said. "He picked up Monday right where we left off."

GOING WIDE—Idalou quarterback Jim Pruitt (12) breaks loose around left end for a five-yard gain to give the visiting Wildcats a first down at the Dimmitt 6-yard line in the third quarter of Friday night's District 2-AAA finale here. Heading him off are Dimmitt's Mark Smothermon (32) and Woody Glass (12).

Pruitt threw a scoring pass four plays later to give Idalou at 10-0 lead. The talented Wildcats went on to post a 17-0 victory and earn a playoff berth, while the Bobcats finished their season as the district's third-place team with a 6-4 overall record.

STRIKE UP THE BAND—Leading the Dimmitt Bobcat marching band in the 1984-85 school year are Drum Major Kyla Boozer, twirlers Kelli Small and Stacie Jackson, and Drum Major Angie Salinas.

Association changes Gold Star Award rules

At the Nov. 5 meeting of the 4-H Adult Leader Association, Charles Summers was elected as president of the group.

Other officers named included Ronnie Gfeller as vice president, Carolyn Moke as secretary and Wanda Nelson as reporter.

Group members agreed on changing the requirements for those eligible to receive the County Gold Star awards. Recipients must be senior 4-H members and must turn in a record book. Personal interviews will also be held with all blue ribbon winners.

To be eligible for county award pins, 4-H'ers must turn in a record book. Also, to receive a year pin, a project form must be turned in to the extension office by Aug. 15.

A committee was appointed to establish dates for various 4-H activities and training sessions. The committee will meet Nov. 29 at 7 p.m. at K-Bob's to discuss the calendar of events.

All 4-H parents and leaders are encouraged to attend the next general meeting of the association, which will be announced later.

Wildcats dump JV

Idalou's JV ran roughshod over the Dimmitt JV, 40-0 at Idalou Thursday night.

The Wildcat JV was up, 27-0 at halftime, and scored a touchdown in each of the last two quarters.

Dimmitt's JV closes the season at 1-8-1.

Shorthorns have perfect season

Hart's Shorthorns finished their season undefeated with a 42-0 win over Olton Thursday.

Larry Brown scored three first period touchdowns, while Brown and Jr. Washington each added two-point conversions to give the Shorthorns a 22-0 lead they carried into halftime.

Washington hit Ruben Moran with a 50-yard scoring pass in the third quarter, while Daniel Ramirez and David Rodriguez added touchdown runs.

More about

School board...

How strictly the rule will be enforced by the State Board of Education is still unknown. If 10% variation in enrollment throughout the year is allowed, possibly no additional rooms would be needed. But if enforcement is strict, as many as four additional rooms could be needed.

On top of that, the new Pre-Kindergarten program for 4-year-olds is scheduled to start next school year. With a projected enrollment of 80, two classrooms would be needed, with each teacher having 20 pupils for the morning session and another 20 pupils for the afternoon session.

The district is required to provide the Pre-K program, but students are not required to attend, so enrollment is uncertain. There could be more or many less than projected.

Cost of construction of equipped classrooms is estimated at $40 to $45 per square foot. Plenty of space is allowed in the building layout for adding on classrooms.

Ryan and business manager Gene King plan to spend up to $70,000 for about 42 computers to be placed in classrooms throughout the system, along with systems to be placed in the library of each building, including a printer and a card reader. Also included will be a PCXT IBM computer and scanner for the administration building. All other systems will be Apple equipment.

Units will be used from kindergarten on up in the teaching of many subject areas, as well as aiding in computer literacy instruction. Another feature of the system will be its use in grading and record keeping, along with documentation of mastery of essential elements.

Teachers are free to incorporate the machines this year as soon as they are available, but pupil instruction on them will be required by next school year. Teachers will be required to complete a short training course (about an hour or so) before using the computers in their classrooms.

Board members Glenn Odom and Monty Boozer voted against the purchase. Those in favor were Deanne Clark, Stanley Nelson, Don Gregory and Charles Wales. Ryan noted that funds are available for the purchase.

The independent audit done by Cornell & Co. and presented by Jack Anderson, CPA, shows the school district to be in a favorable financial position.

Excess of revenue over expenditures was shown to be $232,567 as of Aug. 31. Anderson also noted that $39,000 of expected Federal monies have not been received yet. Total assets are up over $100,000.

The report was approved. Board members decided to accept higher bids on two vehicles for the schools in order to have local service available.

Stan Byrnes Motor Co. of Dimmitt bid $14,224.50 on a Dodge 15-passenger van bid at $13,600 by Village Cadillac Dodge of Amarillo. Byrnes bid $7,820.45 for a Dodge pickup, while the Village Cadillac bid was $7,260. Another reason board members decided to go with Byrnes is because he supplies the school with driver education vehicles.

In other business, the board: — Approved the textbook committee, which includes Pat Keith, Debbie Matthews, Les Miller, Kay Kellar, Tina Burrell, Jerry Durham, John Van-Natta, Sue Atchley, Linda Bonds, Paul Fry, Corky Lockmiller, Elmer Berryhill, Emmett Broderson, Alex Glass, Robert Ryan and Paul Walden. Books to be adopted this year include math and science for grades 1-8, biology, computer programming, and business data processing.

— Voted to revise the death leave policy for students, expanding it so that students would be excused to attend funerals of an aunt, uncle or cousin in addition to other relatives already allowed.

— Approved the tax addition/deletion report.

— Reviewed a comparison of attendance rates in the schools, which showed that absences are decreasing.

NAZARETH CHEERLEADERS for this school year are (top to bottom) Charlotte Heck, sophomore, Delia Bermea, sophomore, and Michelle Schulte, freshman.

Farm economy in worst shape since depression

Texas' farm economy has gone downhill steadily in the past few years, and farmers have found themselves in the worst economic squeeze since the Great Depression.

That assessment comes from Dr. Carl Anderson, an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

'Cowboy Country Club' schedules opening events

An all-new multi-purpose indoor arena and club will open this weekend near Hereford with the top four calf and steer ropers, and the nation's top barrel racers competing for $50,000 in prize money.

Cowboy Country Club is located eight miles west of Hereford on FM 1057 (Park Avenue), and will open Friday with a dance that evening. On Saturday a match calf roping between champions Chris Lyb-bert and Roy Cooper begins at noon with a $4,000 jackpot. That night, country music star George Strait will perform.

Sunday at 10:30 a.m., the nation's top barrel racers will compete for a cash purse, and, at 1:30 p.m., the top two steer roping teams in America will compete for a $30,000 purse. Dee Pickett and Mike Beers, ranked first, will face number-two ranked Jake Barnes and Leo Camarillo.

The arena covers 36,000 square feet, and a dance floor and extra seating can be added for nighttime events.

Pie supper set tonight

The annual "Meet the Bobbies and Bobcats" pie supper, sponsored by the Dimmitt Booster Club, is set for tonight at 7:30 at the Expo Building.

Pie will be served for 25 cents per slice, with all proceeds going to the boosters. All families attending are urged to bring a pie to help with the fund raising effort.

Coaches will introduce the varsity and junior varsity teams.

National cotton meeting slated

The 47th annual meeting of the National Cotton Council is slated for Jan. 27-29 in San Antonio.

Theme of this year's convention, which will set policies and programs for the coming year, is "Mission '85," according to Council President John S. Barr III, of Oak Ridge, La.

The board of directors will meet Jan. 25.

lending practices, the economist explains. "Some farmers will either be forced out of agriculture," says Anderson, "or they will have to come under the Farmers Home Administration's emergency loan procedures."

Despite depressed income, Texas agriculture is still financially sound, believes Anderson. Debt, as a percent of assets, is averaging less than 20%, and agricultural loan losses have increased only slightly since 1980.

This year's farm income may improve slightly from the depressed levels of the last two years. The improvement is a mixture of stronger prices early in the year and livestock liquidations by ranchers due to drought conditions, explains the economist. "The greater cash flow is from ranchers being forced to sell livestock," Anderson says. "The liquidation of breeding herds has increased the cash flow this year but will decrease it in the coming years."

Extreme drought conditions have persisted over much of Texas this year, lowering forage and crop production and increasing production costs. Prices paid by farmers for inputs have increased almost a third in the last five years while average prices received for crops and livestock have fallen slightly.

But Anderson says the present "crunch" on agriculture results mainly from action outside its confines. National economist policies, trade subsidies of other countries, tariffs, trade restrictions and other forces have influenced interest rates, inflation and other economic conditions at home and abroad.

Mechanization and chemicals for pest control encouraged farmers to expand and take on lower profit margins in the 1970s. "When interest rates skyrocketed, export markets began to disappear and stockpiles of surplus grain, cotton and dairy products appeared in the early 1980s," notes Anderson.

These low returns to investments are beginning to show now, especially in the less populated areas where agriculture is the dominant use of land and land values have declined.

Outstanding agricultural debt now exceeds $13 billion in Texas, a rise in farm debt of nearly 50% since 1979. And though ample loanable funds are available to agriculture, the problem is that many agricultural borrowers are unable to generate a cash flow that can support commercial lending practices, the economist explains.

"Some farmers will either be forced out of agriculture," says Anderson, "or they will have to come under the Farmers Home Administration's emergency loan procedures."

Obituaries

Betty Cartwright

Last rites were held last Thursday afternoon for Betty Cartwright, 68, a Castro County resident since 1940.

Mrs. Cartwright died Nov. 6 in a Lubbock hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt with Rev. Joe Higgs officiating. Burial was in West Park Cemetery in Hereford.

Born Oct. 26, 1916, in Hereford, she grew up in Deaf Smith County. She moved to Castro County with her husband, Jack, and their children in 1940.

As coordinator of the Community Action Program here, she helped organize the Senior Citizens of Castro County, Inc., in 1975. She was a member of the Senior Citizens, the First Baptist Church, the Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and the Rebekah Lodge.

She is survived by two daughters, Jackie Phillips of Lubbock and Dera Kay Lowe of Idalou; a son, Jerry, of Dimmitt; three brothers, Bill Miller of Hereford and Bob and Gill Miller, both of Amarillo; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her oldest son, Edwin, who died Dec. 23, 1974.

Pallbearers were Kenny Doss, Eddie Sutton, Shorty Barlow, Gary Langford, Danny Newton and Bill Sanders.

The family has requested memorials to the Senior Citizens of Castro County, Inc.

Winfred H. Fuller

Winfred H. Fuller, 70, died Saturday.

Services were Monday at the Parsons-Foskey Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Vernon O'Kelly, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt officiating. Burial followed in Castro Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Fuller was a native of Delia, and had lived in Dimmitt since 1917. He was a retired farmer.

Survivors include three daughters, Sharon Cowell of El Paso, Janis Cowley of Earth, and Hally Fuller-Thomas of Oklahoma City; two sons, Craig and Bruce of Dimmitt; his mother, Mrs. B. A. Fuller of Dimmitt; a sister, Christine Hickman of Lubbock; and seven grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Robert McLean, Joe Carver, Donald Wright, Johnny Webb, Robert Wilhite and Richard Jackson.

Honorary pallbearers were Jim Elder, Allan Webb, Grady Carver, Roy Stafford, Sandy Parsons, Frank Elder, C. A. Hance and J. R. Brown.

Sudie Hunter

Sudie Hunter, 87, died Friday.

Services were Sunday at Parsons-Foskey Funeral Chapel in Dimmitt with the Rev. Vernon O'Kelly, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt officiating. Burial followed in Castro Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Hunter was born in Arkansas, and moved to Dimmitt 15 years ago from Hereford. She married Kenneth Roy Hunter in 1916. He died in 1972.

Survivors include two daughters, Sue Bowling of Manhattan Beach, Calif., and Evelyn Hunter of Dallas; three brothers; three grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

Pallbearers were Don Ethington, Ralph Lambright, Bob Simpson, Richard Hunter, Bill Simpson, and Joe Bob Sanders.

Minnie Ola McClure

Minnie Ola McClure, 89, died Saturday in Dimmitt.

Services were Monday in Rose Chapel of Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home of Hereford. Burial was in Restlawn Memorial park.

Mrs. McClure was born in Illinois Bend, where she married Claude McClure in 1915.

Survivors include two daughters, Sonny Davenport of Hereford and Jettie Breith of Granite Shoals; a brother, R. L. Masten of Lubbock; three grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Inez Ramirez

Inez Ramirez, 73, of Dimmitt, died Thursday in Amarillo.

Funeral mass was said Saturday at Immaculate Conception

Catholic Church with Rev. Norman Boyd, pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Castro Memorial Garden under the direction of Parsons-Foskey Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ramirez was born in Wharton. She and her husband, Margarito, moved here in 1964 from Rotan.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Jesse Garcia of Ventura, Calif., Felipe Garcia of Oxnard, Calif., and Dennis Garcia of Santa Paula, Calif.; a daughter, Guadalupe Campos of Calif.; three stepsons, Joe of Plainview, Sam of Dimmitt, and Cosme of Tivoli; a step-daughter, Eloisa Rodriguez of Omaha, Neb.; a sister, Toni Ribio of Houston; 32 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Sam Ramirez, Jr., Joe Ramirez, Jr., Mike Ramirez, Danny Jimenez, Albert Fernandez, and Raphael Navarro.

Kisha Sears

Graveside services for Kisha Sears, infant daughter of Gwen Sears of Dimmitt, were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at West Lawn Memorial Park, with Rev. Thomas Mullins, pastor of the First Assembly of God of Dimmitt, officiating.

The baby was stillborn Monday at Deaf Smith General Hospital in Hereford.

Parsons-Foskey Funeral Home of Dimmitt was in charge of arrangements.

The baby is survived by her mother; a sister and a brother of the home; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sears of Dimmitt.

GSPA calls for paid feed grain diversion

Grain Sorghum Producers Association has requested that a paid diversion provision be added to the 1985 feed grain program. GSPA Executive Director Elbert Harp said such a program is needed to prevent a surplus buildup like that which depressed grain prices before the Payment-In-Kind program in 1983.

In a telegram to John Block,

US Secretary of Agriculture, Harp said, "Grain Sorghum Producers Association requests that you add a paid diversion provision to the 1985 Feed Grain Program. It should be optional, with farmers able to put up to 10% of their base acres into paid diversion. Surplus stocks of corn and sorghum are growing this year by 7 to 8% of projected annual disappearance. This increase must be curtailed."

Harp said another year like 1984 could create the same surplus situation as that of 1982 which necessitated the costly PIK program.

"It just makes a lot more sense to take action to prevent a problem than to let it happen and then try to correct it," Harp said. "That is what we are asking Secretary Block to do."

SINCE the Toxic Substances Control Act was passed seven years ago, the Environmental Protection Agency has regulated only four existing chemicals, reports the National Wildlife Federation. Presently, 60,000 chemicals are in commercial use and 1,000 new chemicals are proposed for manufacture every year. This finding was part of a recent US General Accounting Office report that concludes the federal government is doing a poor job of enforcing laws designed to protect the public from toxic chemicals.

Combest to be here Friday

Newly-elected 19th district representative Larry Combest will speak to the Dimmitt Rotary Club Friday at noon at K-Bobs.

Combest will remain at the restaurant for a short time after the meeting to meet county residents.

Deaf Smith to curb use of 2,4-D

Deaf Smith County commissioners Monday voted unanimously to impose use restrictions on all hormonal herbicides, and opted to ban the use of 2,4-D butylester formulation in that county April 15-Oct. 1.

Meanwhile, a regional public hearing is set for 2 p.m. today at the Lubbock Civic Center by the Texas Dept. of Agriculture on proposed safety rules.

The action of the Deaf Smith county commissioners was the result of testimony heard in October after more than 30,000 acres of cotton was damaged in Deaf Smith, Oldham and Parmer counties following mid-summer application of 2-4D in wheat fields.

The 2-4D reportedly drifted into neighboring young cotton fields, stunting and/or killing the plants. 2-4D is a popular weed killer that makes wheat harvest easier.

Twenty-eight producers and four corporations, who claimed their crops were affected by the spraying, filed a class action lawsuit last week, naming about 24 chemical corporations as defendants. More defendants may be listed when the TDA releases the result of its investigation in the matter.

Deaf Smith county officials called the commissioners' action a workable compromise.

Under the restricted status, individual applicators would have to obtain a permit from the TDA valid as of Jan. 1, spray equipment must be inspected, and buffer zones for susceptible crops would be established. Custom, season-long applicators would be issued blanket, season-long permits so they wouldn't have to contact TDA every time they spray.

Violation of the regulations would be a misdemeanor subject to a fine up to $2,000.

Similar restrictions will probably be in effect in eastern

New Mexico during the summer months, and similar rules could be imposed statewide, subject to the result of the hearings held by TDA over the state.

Many farm groups, including the Castro County and state Farm Bureau, have come out in opposition to the proposed standards, but Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower said many of the complaining groups earlier refused to work with the department on the rules. Hightower said several groups, including Texas Grain Sorghum Producers, Texas Wheat Growers, and Texas Farmers Union have worked with the TDA on the regulations.

TRI-STATE SOLAR ASSOCIATION officers inspect a solar collector on the Oldham County Soil Conservation Service office in Vega as part of an association tour Saturday of solar facilities in Oldham County. Officers are (from left) David Brown of Adrian, treasurer; Kay Davis of Vega, Oldham County Extension Agent; Bryce Dowell of Dimmitt, secretary; and Jimmie Walker of Vega, Oldham County Extension Agent.

Farm-City Week starts Friday

Farm-City Week, Nov. 16-22, focuses on the teamwork of farm and city people as partners in growing, processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber.

"In Texas, movement of food and fiber from the farm or ranch to the supermarket and family table provides jobs and income for about a fourth of the working force," points out Dr. Carl Anderson, marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"One out of every 35 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and about 30% of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products," says Anderson.

Many businesses, financial institutions and individuals are involved in providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers and in processing and marketing agricultural commodities. Nationally, one out of every five jobs in private enterprises is tied to agriculture.

With its $9 billion in cash receipts from agricultural commodities in 1983, Texas ranks in third place behind California and Iowa. Texas, however, is traditionally number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach.

Total farm assets in Texas are estimated at $92 billion. With 185,000 farms in Texas, assets average about a half million dollars per farm. Many commercial size, full-time operators have in excess of a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch businesses.

"Producing an abundance of high quality food and fiber is inherent to American agriculture. Americans spend far less of their take-home pay on food than people in other countries of the world," Anderson points out. "Today that averages about 16 cents of every dollar of disposable income, with 4 cents of that spent on food eaten outside the home."

"Together, farm and city people make the best food and fiber team in the world," he believes. "This gives a country the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes."

The US farm population is about 2.4% of the nation's total. Each farm worker now supplies enough food and fiber for 78 people, 20 of whom live abroad. Only 10 years ago, each farm worker produced for 47 people.

Kleman leads A&M judging

Rodney Kleman, a Nazareth High School graduate, helped lead Texas A&M University's livestock judging team to a second place finish in the 84th annual American Royal Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Contest in Kansas City recently.

Twenty student teams representing major colleges and universities competed in judging. The contest is designed to test the ability to judge livestock and to help students learn to give logical reasons for their placings.

The Texas A&M team placed first in hogs and fourth in sheep, garnering 4,555 points of a possible 5,000.

Kleman finished fourth in hog judging.

Crane hunters need permits

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials remind prospective sandhill crane hunters they need to obtain a permit from the department to hunt cranes in any of the state's three hunting zones.

The permits must be obtained by mail or in person from the department's headquarters at 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, 78744. When requesting permits, list the name, address and county of residence of each hunter.

Data collected from the permit issuance will be used to assess hunter participation in the various zones.

Complete information on season dates and zone boundaries may be found in the department's late Season Migratory Game Bird Hunting Regulations leaflet, available at department offices and hunting license outlets across the state.

The Zone A (roughly the Trans-Pecos, Permian Basin and Western Panhandle) season is Nov. 10 through Feb. 10; Zone B (Eastern Panhandle) is Dec. 1 through Feb. 10; and Zone C (portions of the Edwards Plateau, South and South-Central Texas) is Jan. 12 through Feb. 10. The daily limit is three and the possession limit is six in all zones.

Ron George, sandhill crane program leader, said hunters also are advised to brush up on bird identification before going hunting.

"Zone boundaries are drawn so as to assure hunting activity will not occur where endangered whooping cranes are likely to be," George said. "However, there's always an outside chance that a whooper could stray into a hunting zone, especially some of the foster parent-raised birds which winter at a Bosque del Apache National Wildlife Refuge in New Mexico."

Adult sandhills are easily distinguished from adult whooping cranes, being dusky gray in color. Adult whoopers are white, with black wingtips. "Hunters might have some difficulty in distinguishing juvenile birds of the two species, since young sandhills are gray-brown, and young whoopers are a rusty brown color," said George.

He added that this problem might be more pronounced during early morning hours when visibility is poor.

EDC $ SIGNS

By JERRY MARVIN HANNERS

The Castro County Economic Development Commission began its work September 1st. Emphasis has been placed on three areas of economic development, including: RETENTION of existing business and industry, EXPANSION of existing business and industry and RECRUITMENT of new industry.

The Commission believes that every effort must be made to retain our existing business and industries and that they should be encouraged to expand.

Statistics indicate that more than 90% of all new jobs come from within the community. These jobs are created when existing business or industry expands or when an existing individual within the community creates a new business.

What can the Economic Development Commission do to help accomplish this goal of retention and expansion?

First, we are maintaining a file on available buildings and land sites. If a business is seeking a new location we are glad to assist by providing information on prices and availability of real estate.

Second, we are willing to assist a local business in exploring all avenues of financing. Information is available regarding SBA loans, Industrial Revenue Bonds, Agriculture Revenue Bonds and other lending programs.

Finally, we are prepared to offer full assistance and support to help the local business firm achieve its goals. This may include providing information, solving legal or technical problems, handling public relations, or finding answers to governmental or tax questions. We may also suggest and research new markets or product possibilities and offer other assistance where it is appropriate. All of the EDC services were offered in strict confidence, usually at no cost.

We invite any business firm to discuss plans or problems with us. We will offer any assistance that we can. Our office is located in the Chamber of Commerce Building, at 115 West Bedford Street in Dimmitt or you may telephone 647-2524.

Police Calls

Four burglaries, a theft and three accidents were covered by law enforcement personnel in the past week.

Sheriff's deputies recovered over $5,000-worth of property taken Wednesday from a residence north of Dodd. (See related story, this page.)

Delia Rios of Dimmitt reported Friday that the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Davila of 307 NE 5th in Dimmitt, was broken into and items valued at $1,700 were taken.

Police related that entry was gained through a boarded-up bedroom window. The burglars removed the 1/2-inch plywood and crawled in. Taken were a matching loveseat, sofa and chair, valued at $1,000; a vinyl recliner, estimated at $200; and a dinette set with brown table and brown vinyl chairs on rollers, valued at $500. The home was ransacked and the burglars apparently also attempted to take the refrigerator, but were unable to do so.

Alice Barrios of 627 NW 5th in Dimmitt reported Nov. 6 that someone had broken into her home and stolen a video game valued at $225 and two game cartridges valued at $80, along with a Sanyo brand AM/FM cassette player worth $90. The burglars gained entry by breaking the door facing of the door connecting the house with the garage.

A 14-year-old juvenile was charged Monday with the burglary of the home of Ismael Flores of 602 SW 3rd in Dimmitt. Approximately $100 in cash was taken, along with several articles of clothing.

Investigation of the scene revealed a method of operation common to juveniles, and the youth was apprehended 20 minutes later attempting to make a major purchase at a local convenience store.

"The quick actions of the police officer and the cooperation of the merchant are credited for the swift solving of this crime," Police Chief Don Franklin said. He added that the youth will be referred to juvenile authorities.

Last Thursday Bryan Hufhines, 24, of Dimmitt, told police that a tool box and tools had been taken from his pickup parked at the Thriftway parking lot the day before. He noted that the theft must have taken place some time between 4 and 8 p.m. The tool box measured about 2x1x1 and had two chrome handles. It contained a socket set, a set of open-end wrenches, 12 screwdrivers, a set of allen wrenches, a 12-inch crescent wrench, a hammer, a putty knife and assorted bolts and brackets. The total value was estimated at $300.

Three accidents in the past week all involved men named Clyde Damron.

On Nov. 7, a 1978 Chevette driven by William Patrick Looney, 20, of Canyon struck a 1982 Chevy pickup driven by Clyde T. Damron, 78, of Dimmitt, as Damron was attempting to turn left at the traffic signal at Broadway and Bedford. Looney was given a citation for driving without liability insurance. Both vehicles were damaged, but no injuries were reported.

Last Thursday, Clyde T. was driving in his pickup east in the 300 block of West Bedford and turned left onto Northwest Third. He turned too wide and struck a 1979 Chevy Blazer owned by Kelly Birdwell of Dimmitt, parked in the vicinity in a private parking lot. Birdwell was not in the vehicle at the time. Damage was light. Damron was not injured, either. No citation was issued, but Damron was noted as being at fault.

Monday, Clyde H. Damron, 58, of Dimmitt was cited for driving without a license and without proof of liability insurance when the 1966 Ford grain truck he was driving sideswiped a 1972 Pontiac Gran Prix driven by Anna C. Vasquez, 22, of Hereford. No injuries were reported. Damage to the truck was light, while the car sustained moderate damage to the left back quarter. Both vehicles had been traveling east in the 700 block of East Bedford, when Damron tried to turn right from the inside lane, striking Vasquez in the outside lane.

Four men and one woman were jailed in connection with DWI charges, and one man was held for public intoxication. A 37-year-old man from Raymondville was arrested at the Star Dance Hall Sunday night for unlawful carrying of a weapon.

LOOT RECOVERED—Larry Hausmann and Castro County sheriff's deputy Jerry Bailey examine merchandise recovered last Thursday, after Hausmann's barn was burglarized near Dodd. Thanks to Bailey's efforts, and Hausmann's proper identification of the items, the burglary was cleared in less than 48 hours. Three Lamb County men were arrested in the case.

1984 rebates still ahead

Castro County's sales tax rebates are still running ahead of numbers for the same period of a year ago, according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Dimmitt will receive a rebate check for $15,447.84, down from last year's $19,779.63. For the year, Dimmitt has received $125,704.76, ahead by 2.29% over 1983's $122,885.93.

Hart is still ahead by nearly 15% over 1983, and will receive a check this month for $2,637.07. The 1983 November check was for $2,373.92.

Nazareth's check this month is for $1,765.41, down slightly from a year ago. Nazareth has received $15,545.56, up from last year's $15,063.83.

Sales tax checks are going to be higher, beginning with next month's check, according to Bullock, as the December check will reflect the recent increase in the sales tax to 5 1/8%.

Presbyterian happenings

Keith Miller, Christian author, will be speaking at the First Presbyterian Church of Hereford, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings at 7:30, Saturday morning at 9:30, and Sunday morning at 11:00.

There is a Sunday Church School class for everyone every Sunday at 10 a.m. The Adult Bible Class will meet at the manse. All other classes will meet at the Church.

"Divine Wrath" will be the subject of Pastor Edward D. Freeman's sermon at the morning church worship service Sunday at 11. It is Universal Bible Sunday, and Bonnard Duke of the Gideons will make a presentation. Presbyterians will join with other Christians in the Community Praise Service at the First United Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Trio arrested in Dodd burglary

Thanks to engraved identification of almost every article, Castro County Sheriff's deputy Jerry Bailey was able to clear up the burglary of almost $5,000 worth of merchandise taken in a Wednesday night break-in north of Dodd.

Three Earth residents were taken into custody in connections with the burglary, and all the merchandise was recovered by Thursday.

Michael Patrick Delacerda, Raymond Nieto, and Eusebio Duran told authorities they went to a barn owned by Larry Hausmann, one mile north of Dodd, to steal some gas from Hausmann's large storage tank. The trio said in their statements that while they were filling Nieto's car, they spotted the barn and decided to break in. A lock on the barn was broken with a hammer, and the car was loaded with merchandise from Hausmann's barn.

The car was driven to an abandoned farmhouse in Northern Lamb County, near the Springlake-Earth school. The trio reportedly drove back to Earth, where Delacerda, according to his statement, drove his El Camino back to the Hausmann barn. Delacerda told authorities he loaded more merchandise into his vehicle, then drove back towards Earth.

Delacerda's car was found a short time later by a Lamb Co. sheriff's deputy, stuck in mud on the road. The deputy, while trying to assist Delacerda, spotted the merchandise and asked Delacerda where he had obtained it.

Delacerda admitted having stolen the goods, according to Bailey, and told the officer where he had obtained the goods.

Lamb Co. officials radioed the Castro County sheriff's office, and Bailey went to Hausmann's barn.

"Delacerda told us he had committed the burglary alone, but, after showing us the goods in the farm house, admitted that two others had helped him," Bailey said.

According to their statements, Nieto and Duran had unloaded some of the stolen merchandise in Delacerda's residence in Earth, then took approximately $3,000 worth of goods to a Lubbock pawn shop. Those items were recovered Thursday.

Also recovered in the house were several radios taken from the David Smith farm near Sunnyside on Nov. 5. The trio admitted to that burglary in their statements. Nieto and Duran also admitted involvement in the burglary of an Earth residence recently.

"I can't stress how important it was for Mr. Hausmann to have engraved all of the merchandise," Bailey said. "Some of the items had his driver's license number on them, while others had his Army service number or his initials. It is difficult for us to trace service numbers, or Social Security numbers, but if items have a driver's license number on them, we can trace them just like that."

Hausmann was extremely pleased with the fast recovery.

"Deputy Bailey had recovered at least half of my merchandise within 12 hours of the break-in," Hausmann said. "The Castro County Sheriff's office is to be commended for their quick action."
