Robert Lewis Jay To Head Drive for Red Cross Funds

County Red Cross Chairman H. A. Springer, Bronte, announced Tuesday that the annual Red Cross Drive for Funds in Coke County will begin March 1. At the same time, he announced that Robert Lewis Jay, Robert Lee School Band Director, will be county fund chairman.

Springer said that Coke County's quota for this year has been set at $1020.

Mrs. Robert Lewis Jay will be auditor for the Robert Lee area. Norman R. Kiker, Bronte druggist, will be assistant county fund chairman and in charge of the campaign for the east side. He will also serve as auditor for the area around Bronte.

Guy Wheeler, Silver school principal, has been named to head the drive at Silver. Conda Richards and Jacob Bruce Morrow will canvass the Fort Chadbourne area for the Red Cross.

Springer said that workers for Tennyson, Edith and other parts of the county will be lined up and announced in next week's paper.

In making his announcement of the annual drive, Springer urged that Coke Countians be generous in their contributions. He said that the work of the Red Cross is just as important as ever and that much money is needed in carrying out its program of relieving suffering caused by disasters of all kinds.

MISS THERESA MASON
... home ec teacher

Theresa Mason Is Homemaking Teacher Here

Miss Theresa Mason began her new duties at mid-term as home economics instructor in Robert Lee high school. The position was accepted immediately upon her graduation from Abilene Christian College.

She succeeds Mrs. Betty Hodge of Silver, who had been home making teacher here the past two years.

Miss Mason was raised on a farm near Brownfield and graduated from high school there in 1954. Her father carries on irrigated farming operations.

Home making courses at Robert Lee high school have an enrollment of 24.

Miss Mason makes her home in Robert Lee with Mrs. Willis Smith.

COUNTY HD COUNCIL

The Home Demonstration Council met Feb. 10 in the office of Miss Carole Hooper, county agent. Seven members and Miss Hooper were present.

T. H. D. A. chairman, Mrs. Glenn Waldrop, reported on the district planning meeting she attended at Fredericksburg Feb. 9.

"Forward together with God" has been chosen as the theme of the state meeting to be held Sept. 6, 7, 8, at Galveston. — Mrs. R. L. Page, reporter.

A little 4-months-old dog owned by the J. W. Service Jr. family died last week of rabies. Mr. and Mrs. Service and their four children immediately began taking anti-rabies shots and six other persons who had been exposed are also being treated.

The puppy was a family pet and played with the children after it became sick. Tuesday of last week Mr. Service took the dog to Dr. Jack Taylor, a San Angelo veterinarian. It died a couple of days later and the head was sent to the State Health Dept laboratory in Austin. The test resulted in a positive finding of rabies.

Others who had handled the dog and are taking shots are Hershall Hall and son, Randy, and twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lendy Devoll. Dr. Taylor and his assistant are also being treated with vaccine.

The anti-rabies vaccine is furnished free by the State Health Department and is being administered by Dr. J. D. McDaniel. The shots are taken daily for a period of 14 days.

The four children in the Service home include Cathy, 9, John, 7, Jay Lyn, 4, and Konny, 2 years old.

Last fall a fox believed to have been rabid was discovered inside the yard at the Service home. The animal was dispatched with a shotgun blast, and a female dog was killed after she had been bitten by the fox.

It is not known how the young dog contracted the disease. However rabies has been spreading during recent months and it is known that many foxes are contaminated.

Mike Krall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Krall, was bitten by a raccoon a while back after dogs chased it into the river. He took anti-rabies shots. Jerome Hanna, son of Mrs. Ava Lou Hanna, also was treated after a cat jumped out of a weed patch and bit him.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Earl, Roxie and Dollie Davidson went to Brownwood the last of the week to attend funeral services of their cousin, Lt. Col. J. D. Wheeler, who was killed in an airplane accident at Maxwell AFB, Alabama. Also attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Davidson and son, Lynn Jr. They are living in Brownwood where Lynn is a student at Howard Payne College.

Carson, Colo., and expects to be sent to White Sands, New Mex. His wife, the former Nell Burson, is staying with Robert Lee relatives while he is in the service.

SMORGASBORD SUPPER

It's Scandinavian, but most folks know that a Smorgasbord is a buffet supper where you go down the food line and help yourself. Anyway, the home making girls and their teacher, Miss Theresa Mason, are throwing one of those things next Thursday night, March 5, at the Robert Lee school cafeteria. There will be a choice of turkey and dressing, baked ham, chicken spaghetti, vegetables, salads and desserts. It's the most important Future Homemaking project of the year and funds will be used to send members to the annual summer camp. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 75c for children 12 years and under.

C., together the local pastor says Rev. Streetman is one of the finest Christians he knows. He urges you to come out to the Revival services, and to make Rev. Streetman one of your personal friends.

Mr. Bob Hearn is a music major at Sul Ross College. He is majoring in Band with a minor in conducting. He will be new to most of the people of Robert Lee, but is recommended as a fine Christian, with a likable personality by his pastor.

Mercury alone in its field gives you a body designed specifically for just one car. Other manufacturers give you—even on cars in Mercury's price class—the same basic body used on their lowest priced makes. That's why Mercury alone is so easy to get in and out of. Arthur Sitas, Veterans Service Officer, Makes Interesting Report for Year 1958

Arthur Sitas, veterans service officer for Coke, Tom Green and Irion counties, has filed an interesting report of his activities for the year of 1958.

During the period Mr. Sitas was instrumental in securing added cash benefits in the amount of $39,725.47 for residents of Coke County.

These new benefits secured through the service officer aided materially to the economy of Coke County during the past 12 months.

None of the benefits provided by the Congress of the United States of America are automatic, Mr. Sitas says. Claims must be filed, evidence developed and the rights of the applicant established.

It is the duty of Mr. Sitas and his office to prosecute the claims of veterans and dependents and to represent their interests.

During the past year Mr. Sitas had 4,515 office contacts and 2,527 telephone calls. Benefits received for Tom Green county residents were $285,378 and $4,891 for Irion County. With Coke County's $39,725 it makes a total of $329,994 which Mr. Sitas has secured for veterans of the area.

The training place for Democracy is in our public schools. Take a look at the technique used by our teachers during the week of March 2 through 6, designated by the Governor as Public Schools Week. Plan to visit a school, meet the teachers, the football coach and the principal. The doors are always open and you are certain to receive a hearty welcome.

Today's public schools teach more than the three R's, but the job of the school remains virtually the same. It is a basic institution in this great and free country. It teaches your children about the benefits of our way of life. It teaches them to enjoy and appreciate freedom. Visit a public school during Public Schools Week, March 2 through 6, and see Democracy in Action.

Future Farmers Have Big Entries In Houston Show

The Robert Lee FFA Chapter has entered one Hereford heifer, one Hereford steer, thirty-two lambs and twenty-three barrows in the junior division of the '59 Houston Fat Stock Show, Feb. 25-March 8.

The show, which is called "Texas' Greatest Livestock Show", is offering approximately $216,500 in cash premiums and special awards to exhibitors and contestants.

Housing accommodations in the air-conditioned cattle barns will be improved this year due to a change of the site of the horse show. Quarter and Cutting horses will be stabled and shown at Pin Oak Stables, allowing more space for swine, sheep, poultry, rabbits and the eleven breeds of cattle that have been entered.

You can see Democracy in Action when you visit a public school. Make it a point to return to school the week of March 2-6 designated by the Governor as Public Schools Week.

Out of our public schools come the future leaders of our country. Pay tribute to the schools during the week of March 2 through 6. That's Public Schools Week, and a fine time for all Texas citizens to go back to school for a day.

EARLY MARRIAGES DISCUSSED AT BAPTIST SWEETHEART BANQUET

On February 12, there were in attendance at the Robert Lee Baptist Church Sweetheart Banquet. Pastor Bennie Smith and Mrs. Bennie Smith were dressed in Indian costumes, in keeping with the theme: "Indian Love Call." Many Indian trinkets (peace-pipes, witch-doctors, and made to order decorations) were used by the decorating committee to make a very beautiful background setting.

"Heap Big Chief" (Bennie Smith) was Master of Ceremonies. The program opened with "Thanks to the Great Father"—led by Dennis Blair, followed by a "Totem Pole Welcome"—by Ann Carwile.

A "Ceremonial Feast" was served by the Baptist Squaws. It consisted of Thunderbird Ham, Tomahawk Potatoes, Heap Much Green Beans, Golden Sun Fruit Salad, Ground Wheat Bread, Weeping Water Tea, and Big Muddy—Chocolate Pie.

The Heap Big Valentine Pow-wow continued with the group singing the Tribal Chant, "Red Wing." Miss Brenda Cowley and Miss Vickie Wojtek sang "By the Waters of Minnetonka," they were joined by Miss Barbara Gray and Miss Jerry Dale Sparks in a Squaws Ensemble—"Indian Love Call," with Miss Ann Smith accompanist at the piano.

Tribal Folklores—(Indian Version of the Twenty-Third Psalm) was given by Miss Jo Ann Hood.

The Indian Medicine Man was Rev. Jack Stricklan from the Belmore Baptist Church in San Angelo. His medicine was dug out of the great love Chapter Thirteen of First Corinthians. It was very appropriate and in keeping with the season and the theme. It is a time when we think of love, courtship, and marriage. It was pointed out that real love is Christian love. It is motivated and inspired by God, and not physical attraction. Real Love has its joys, but it also "endureth all things." There is a difference in this and "puppy love that leads to a dog's life." The Medicine man pleaded with the youth to seek God's leadership in choosing a life's mate, with prayer as the means of contact with God.

The Heap Big Valentine Pow-wow came to a close with Joe Roe leading "Wigwam Fires" (Benediction) an Indian Prayer.

The Banquet was sponsored by the Baptist Church and not the school as some thought. The success was due to a group of hard working ladies of the Church. They were in the background, unseen, and unrecognized, but the results of their labor brought expressions of praise from the youth attending. Many were heard to say, "This Fourth Annual Sweetheart Banquet is the BEST YET!"

THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFULLY PROPORTIONED CARS

You'll love the full six-passenger comfort in the cars

BUILT FOR PEOPLE! . . .

Just one standard was used by Ford in designing its 1959 car—people! First, Ford made the door openings wider, so it's easier to get in and out. Next they made sure that six big people—not just four or five—could stretch out on seats that are padded their full width. Result? More room for everybody's legs, elbows, hips and hats . . . more solid comfort than ever before.

BUILT FOR SAVINGS! . . .

Savings start the moment you buy a Ford. A price tag comparison with major competitive cars will prove it! And you go right on saving. Ford's standard engines that thrive on regular gas save you a dollar each tankful. Ford's Full-Flow Oil Filter means oil changes only each 4000 miles. Ford's aluminized mufflers last twice as long. And new Diamond Lustre Finish never needs waxing!

"During the banquet, we just ate and were entertained," stated Jerry.

Congratulations to the band for presenting another fine concert.

Melvin Duncan received another football jacket last week to replace the one stolen some time ago. Melvin is taking much better care of this one—he's letting Sandra Baker keep up with it.

Eureka Springs, Arkansas, was the first selection of the seniors for their trip. Lake Texoma, Denison, was second choice as selected February 19. These two locations will be presented to the board of education for approval.

Eunice Blair, senior, was recently informed her poem, "Growing Up," is to be published in the Annual Anthology of High School Poetry. The high school library will receive a copy of this book. (This poem was published in the Observer several weeks ago.)

The FHA smorgasbord will be held in the school cafeteria March 5 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. The menu will feature turkey and dressing, ham rolls and chicken and spaghetti. Price for admission will be $1.00 for adults and 75c for children in the sixth grade and under.

Sixth Grade News

We, of the sixth grade, recently took part in a very interesting project in Mrs. Dean's English class.

Mr. Monty Wallace of the Soil Conservation office, came to our class and showed a film concerning soil conservation, and some actual photographs taken in and near Coke County showing good practices in use. As a result of his informative talk, we studied notes containing the information he had given, made an outline, then we wrote a report.

Mrs. Dean picked the top five reports, then three other adults judged these five.

First place went to Terry Thetford, and second to Kay Havins. Honorable mention is given to Mary Wojtek, Linda McBroom and Tony Dean.

Terry's report is given here.

Conservation of One of Our

Most Essential Resources, Soil

It takes a long time to make soil, but only a short time to lose it. Soil is made in many ways. One way is "weathering." That is the process of wearing away of rocks by air, rain, sun, and wind. Another way is the decaying of plants and animals. Soil is a mixture of many things: lime, sand, clay, leaf mold and many other things.

Soil is an essential resource which we must have to live, and, due to growing population, we must conserve our soil.

Where severe soil erosion exists, we lose much of our needed soil. Some causes of soil erosion are plowing straight rows where the water runs down-hill carrying soil with it, leaving soil bare of plants, forests and grass fires, wind blowing fine top soil away, and cutting away of forests.

There are many ways of preventing soil erosion. Some common ones in our area are the practice of contour plowing, or running the rows on a level plane with the lay of the land; strip cropping, which is alternating several rows of a tall crop with several rows of a low crop; planting a cover crop like oats; the building of net wire diversions, or constructing net wire fences to hold debris that washes across the land, thus slowing down the flow of water and permitting grass and weeds to get started; pit seeding, or planting grass seeds in pits where they may take root by having added moisture; terracing, which is the construction of long dirt dykes on a contour with the land in order to hold the water on a particular area; and irrigation by supplying water from a source other than rainfall.

The Observer, Robert Lee, Texas

Feb. 26, 1938

We must not only keep our soil from eroding, but we must keep our soil rich. One way to do this is to leave stubble behind to plow under as fertilizer. Another way is crop rotation. That is planting one crop one year and another the next, so as to avoid depleting soil with one crop.

The soil has many microscopic organisms in it. These organisms help in many ways. For one thing they make plant food available to plant. They also feed nitrogen to the soil, and work soil by burrowing in it. Forest and grass fires not only destroy trees, but they kill these organisms, leaving soil dead. Sun beating down on bare ground can heat it to 100 degrees, thus killing organisms. Water may make the difference between crop success or failure, but poor use of soil may even defeat plenty of water.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITAL

AUSTIN, TEX. — After nearly ten weeks in session, the Legislature has not yet given any clear indication of how it will solve its basic problem — how much to spend and where to get it.

State agencies still insist they need every cent they asked for — and need it bad. But those who would be "fall guys" of money-saving measures proposed thus far show not genial willingness to give up.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert called the governor's plan to save $18,000,000 by a change in bookkeeping just "legalizing a change statement." Budget Board Director Vernon McGee termed it "unworkable."

Daniel also contends that his plan for the state to take over abandoned bank accounts, abandoned property, etc., might help a lot of people, since the state could first advertise for rightful owners. But bankers and spokesmen for other affected industries called it "confiscation," said it would undermine public trust in their institutions.

Corporations continue to blast at a franchise tax raise they say would increase their burdens as much as 500 per cent. A two-thirds vote of each House would be necessary to put this into effect to help with the deficit this year. Many say chances are dim.

A Lubbock legislator, Rep. H. J. Blanchard, made a survey on tax and spending attitudes. About 60 per cent of those replying opposed a sales tax. Roughly the same percentage favored more spending for teacher pay, higher education, old age assistance, state hospitals and prisons.

GOTTA HAVE IT — Strong pitches for more spending are being made by spokesmen for three major state services.

"I don't see how higher education can be financed without some broad-based tax," said J. R. Sorrell, chairman of the University of Texas Board of Regents. "You will have the backing of this administration and this board in selling it to the people of Texas."

"We are absolutely broke, we don't have a dollar," said Prison System Director O. B. Ellis. "Riots that will cost more than the appropriation requested may result, if conditions aren't improved."

"You can chop off dollars, but you can't chop off children," declared a representative of the Texas Youth Council. Director James A. Turman said money spent on parole supervision and rehabilitation of youngsters in trouble would save on future prison costs.

"FREEDOM" BILL DELAYED — Senate Committee has put in its "back pocket" a bill to set penalties for those who refuse to make public records public.

Measure is one of several "freedom of information" bills sponsored by a group of newsmen's organizations.

It was sent to subcommittee for working with no time set for the subcommittee to report. In some cases, such action means the bill is buried for the session.

NEW AGENCY URGED — A bill has been proposed to take tax collecting out of the Comptroller's Department and set up a new agency headed by a state collector of revenue.

All members of last session's

Senate General Investigating Committee joined in sponsorship. They said they felt tax collecting could be handled more efficiently by an appointive officer of longer tenure.

Committee investigated the Comptroller's Department extensively last session. At one time members commented on the awkward position of an official who had to collect taxes and solicit votes — from the same people.

However, the present Comptroller hasn't had any opposition in years.

SAFETY CONSCIOUS — Traffic safety legislation is developing into a major issue this session.

Rep. Tom James of Dallas has introduced the uniform traffic violation bill, which he says will make for more effective enforcement against violators. He also proposes setting up county courts or record to review corporation court cases and also city traffic appeals court.

Garrison told a recent meeting that "if the present trend continues

The Observer, Robert Lee, Texas

Feb. 26, 1959

every second child born in Texas today will be killed or injured in traffic accidents."

Speaker Waggoner Carr said he felt "the climate of opinion was more favorable than ever before" for safety legislation.

SHORT SNORTS — Texas is pouring millions in state tax money into "inadequate, unnecessarily small school districts," said Texas Research League Director Alvin A. Burger in a recent speech. Texas started 1959 by paying out more for unemployment compensation that it did in '58, the "recession year." Texas Unemployment Commission reported payments for January of this year were $5,613,664, compared to $4,918,511 a year ago.

The opportunities afforded our school children for a sound, basic education in Texas public schools are unexcelled. Take a look for yourself and see Democracy in Action the week of March 2-6.

SMALL TALK

By A. J. K.

The rabies situation is indeed becoming more alarming in this locality. We believe it is high time that county and city authorities take some definite action to combat the terrible disease.

Many feel that compulsory vaccination of all dogs should be put into effect. Government trappers say the only way to deal with foxes, skunks and other varmints is to put out poison.

The existing condition in Coke County is serious and warrants our public officials taking drastic action.

Never did find any trace of that news copy which was lost last week.

The band concert last Friday night was a very pleasing affair and much credit is due the new director, Robert Lewis Jay, and his group of young musicians. The band will give another concert later in the spring and it should be well attended.

Notes From The Oil Field

Humble Plugs Tyler Wildcat

Humble Oil & Refining Co. has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Jimmie Mae Tyler, wildcat, in the southeast corner of Section 357, eleven miles north of Robert Lee. Hole was bottomed at 6,799 feet. Several drillstem tests were made but no oil shows were reported.

Humble's company-owned rotary rig No. 48 is being moved to Denver City after being used here more than a year.

The company has staked two more locations on I. A. Bird, one on the Harris Ranch and one on A. F. McKinley.

Sun Oil Co. completed its gas line to the Menielle lease Saturday and the natural gas is being processed at Jameson natural gasoline plant at Silver. The 8-inch line extends a distance of eight miles. Sun has 13 producing wells on Menielle.

Sun A-1 Cynthia Malone Estate set a surface string of 317 feet of 8 5/8 inch pipe and was drilling Monday at 1,965 feet. Roy Guffel has the drilling contract.

McCulloch Oil Exploration Co. wildcat on J. S. Walker, a mile east of Silver, is now a tight hole.

Ross R. Cone is the new Coke County chairman for the Oil Information Committee, and Bob Edwards was named to be in charge of the committee's work in the schools and with civic organizations. Mr. Cone is superintendent of Sun's Jameson gasoline plant at Silver and Mr. Edwards is the plant's chief clerk.

J. B. Higginbotham, Sun production superintendent at Silver, has headed the OIC in Coke County for some time, and M. E. Petross of Robert Lee was the school committeeman.
