Fisher Writes Negroes Have Their Share Federal Jobs; Leaders Say They Will Storm House, Senate

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

While the sponsors of rigid civil rights legislation are basing much of their appeal on unemployment among negroes, that argument is not valid in government employment. According to the 1960 Census, negroes represented about 11 per cent of our population. In June, 1962, negroes held 13 per cent of all federal jobs—9.1 per cent of all "white collar" jobs and 15.1 per cent of all postal jobs. Here in Washington, negroes held 22.8 per cent of all government jobs.

The 1963 Fiscal Year, which ended last week, resulted in another

Contract Let On 2 Miles Highway Work South of RL

A contract for 2.11 miles of construction on FM 2742 in Coke County has been awarded to a San Marcos firm, it was announced in Austin last week by the State Highway Commission.

M. E. Ruby submitted the low bid of $49,327.00 on the project. Grading, structures, base and surfacing from FM 2059 0.6 mile south of Colorado River west 2.113 miles is expected to take 60 working days, according to J. A. Snell, District Highway Engineer at San Angelo.

H. L. Bailey, Resident Engineer at Sterling City, will be in active charge of the project while it is under construction.

Coleman Pastor Preacher At Sanco Camp This Summer

Rev. Paul Smith, pastor of the Concho Baptist Church at Coleman, is to be speaker for the Sanco Camp this year, according to announcement made by Rev. Ernest R. DeWitt, Director.

The camp is to open Monday, July 29, and run through Saturday, August 3. Guest teacher is to be Rev. Marion Gronendyk of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Boys councillor is Rev. Frank Beauchamp, Shamrock, Texas, and Mrs. Beauchamp is camp nurse. Girls councillor is Mrs. Keeler, Shamrock.

The first activity of the camp will be supper on Monday night and the opening service will be the evening service on Monday night. Ages are 10 and up, or younger, if accompanied by parents. Young people will need signed statements from parents giving camper permission to swim and ride horses.

Fee for the total camp is $8.00. Campers are to bring sheets and pillow cases, wash cloths and towel, Bible, paper, and pencil. This camp is interdenominational, and each service in the evening will be country-wide in scope.

Adults are especially invited to the evening service and to visit as much as possible during the days. Services will be at the Sanco tabernacle.

The harder anyone is working at improving what he has the less time he has for complaining about what others have.

deficit year to the tune of $8 billion. Indications are that during the current Fiscal Year the deficit will be even higher. Despite this fact, pressures are mounting on Capitol Hill for Congress to increase spending for expanded welfare and other similar purposes.

The civil rights contest is supposed to trigger a massive negro march on Washington in August. The latest reports here are that up to 300,000 demonstrators will participate. Some of the leaders have indicated they plan to strong-arm their way into the Very Floors of the House and Senate while they are in Washington. Spearheaded by Martin Luther King and A. Philip Randolph, these agitators are calling this one an "emancipation march." They are also encouraged by Congressman Adam Clayton Powell who has boasted that the colored people now have the white people in this country "on the run!"

The big battles in Congress during this session are yet to be fought. An intensified drive for socialized medicine, a half billion dollar mass transportation aid plan for the big cities, federal aid to education, a domestic Peace Corps, an expanded WPA program, and a multitude of others, are on tap, yet to be debated and be disposed of.

The big battle, however, will probably be over civil rights proposals, almost sure to provoke a filibuster in the Senate.

The Administration has now moved from tax legislation to civil rights as the number one nation's problem. In any event, it looks as if the Congress will be in session until long after frost this fall.

Dick Skipworth has a hobby-sport of calling up fox and wildcats where they have been giving ranchmen trouble. The fox come up ready for a scrap, and will even circle the pick-up looking for the whatever-it-is that's making the call or cry.

Chism Brown is on his way back to Colorado for another vacation trip this year.

Didn't say how much fishing he's going to do, either, but he's having the Observer sent to him, so he can sit down and read up.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Copeland went to Spearman over the weekend, taking home the Jerome Sheppards' children who had been here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Childress and Mrs. Delmir Sheppard.

They found Jerome, who has been hospitalized with a back injury, much improved and able to be home. He is in traction only at night now.

Silver Ponies Win

On Friday the 5th of July the Silver Pony league played Roscoe at Silver. These boys are 13 and 14 years of age. A ball game in this age group consists of a 6 inning game.

Gary Sam Williams pitched a no hit, no run game for Silver facing only 19 men to bat. He struck out 11 and walked only 3. One of the walked men stole 2nd base and was picked off by Gary Sam on a throw to Donnie Joe Higginbotham. The second man walked tried to steal second but the catcher Bob Lomas threw to 2nd baseman Gene Kincaid for the out. This game would require a pitcher to face 18 men so only one man was left on base. This was a tremendous feat for any boy and the people of Silver will remember the ball game for ever.

Only one ball was hit hard off the pitcher and Larry Paul caught it in deep center field.

Gary Sam had a good night at the bat with a home run, one single and a steal of home plate. Donnie Joe Higginbotham had a double and single. Larry Paul drove in two runs with a double.

The Roscoe ball teams coming from a Class A town have been hard on the smaller manned teams of Silver. So the final score, 9 to 0, was a sweet victory for the home team.

John Q. Conley is manager.

A good many people first and last had a hand in the outstandingly successful Little League and Pony League Season here.

It was sponsored by the local camp of Woodmen of the World, who outfitted the boys, and given an assist by others, including county commissioners.

We needn't get excited too much about Russia and China eating each other up. They are just having a little argument over how they are going to carve us.

On These Things

18. Yea, a man may say, Thou hats faith, and I have works; shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

For Headache Sufferers . . .

Thousands of people are suffering from headaches. Some of them for many years have fought this annoying and painful hurting. Headache sufferers are continually treating the effect rather than trying to determine the cause of the trouble.

The human body can be healthy only if there is an uninterrupted nerve flow to all the tissue cells and organs. However, spinal subluxations (misalignments) may cause pressure on nerves, thereby interfering with the normal flow to the various parts of the body. This nerve interference is the cause of such symptoms as headaches.

If you are one of the vast multitude who suffers from headaches you will save time and money and misery by using the services offered by your Doctor of Chiropractic. Remember, once the cause of your headache is corrected, normal health, other things being equal, will be yours.

PHEBE CASEY BRIDE OF P. E. HEFFERNAN IN JUNE WEDDING, HOME IN FORT WORTH

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. (Rocky) Heffernan are presently at home in Fort Worth following their marriage, June 30, in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Chesney, 7300 Culver, Fort Worth.

The bride is the former Phebe Pearl Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turney Casey, Robert Lee. The groom is the son of Mrs. John Heffernan and the late Mr. Heffernan, of Denison, Iowa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street length dress of white brocade-faille, with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her hat was a matching pill box style, with short veil.

She carried a white Bible, gift of her grandparents, topped with a corsage of white gardenias, with long, white streamers.

Mrs. Chesney was matron of honor for her sister, while Mr. Melvin Freeman served as best man. Mrs. J. M. Sheffield performed the double ring ceremony.

A reception followed, also in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chesney.

The bride graduated from Robert Lee High school in 1962 as valedictorian of her class. She received other high school honors as Miss RLHS, Miss Citizenship, and commercial award. She attended San Angelo College one semester and has just completed a course in Air Lines Career Training at Brantley-Draughn College in Fort Worth.

The groom graduated from Denison High School, Denison, Iowa, in 1956, soon after entering the Navy. Upon completion of his service, he has been employed by Hutcheson Meat Company.

Guests for the wedding were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Turney Casey, Robert Lee; Mrs. C. S. Schooley, bride's paternal grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Chesney, H. C. Schooley, bride's uncle, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Freeman, Fort Worth.

The couple left for a brief honeymoon to Iowa and Nebraska.

The Extension Service entomologist, John Thomas, of College Station will be in the County next Tuesday morning to help with cotton insect control work.

We planned two field meetings to make best use of his time. One stop will be made on Frank Percifull's place in the Valley View community; the other check will be made in James Allen's cotton on the Rosser place north of Bronte.

We plan to be at Percifull's about 8:30 a.m. We should start in Allen's about 10 a.m. You are welcome to meet with us and ask questions as well as observe and hear any comments Mr. Thomas may have to offer.

The brucellosis and TB retesting programs have made good progress the past two weeks. Numerous operators have tested or made plans to retest in the near future. In fact, we have already met our requirements for the TB program. To date, we have about half the herds required to recertify for brucellosis—provided, of course, that we meet the recertification standards.

If you would like to have your cattle retested, let us know and we will make the necessary arrangements. If possible, Mr. Grueben, the tester, will come on the day you prefer.

Ask your neighbor if he would like to retest, also. We would like to be rid of the disease as well as be recertified.

The past few days have been free of screwworms, but the two weeks prior saw our county's number triple. Six new cases were reported, most of which were across the north end of the county as has been the case previously.

New cases were found by Henry Tyler, west of Hayrick Mountain; Nolan Pentecost, on his home place west of Sanco; Joe Davis, southwest of Blackwell; C. C. Millican, at the north end of Graham Valley; Mrs. Amanda Runnion, just north of Robert Lee, and Wayne McCabe, on the county line north of Silver.

To date, Texas has had 439 cases. We have had 14 of them. The state has had 5.3% as many cases as last year.

From all indications, authorities are seeding the north end of our county heavily at the present time. A number of operators report finding the fly boxes and, too, no new cases have been reported the last five days.

The foundation authorities continue to remind us to make regular inspections for worms, send in samples on any cases found and to spray all livestock to control insects.

Employing these measures will insure the success of the program; on the other hand, cases left unattended could set the program back. Now that the fly plant has been enlarged, and with your help, they hope to avoid a fall build-up like we had last year.

A SUGGESTION:

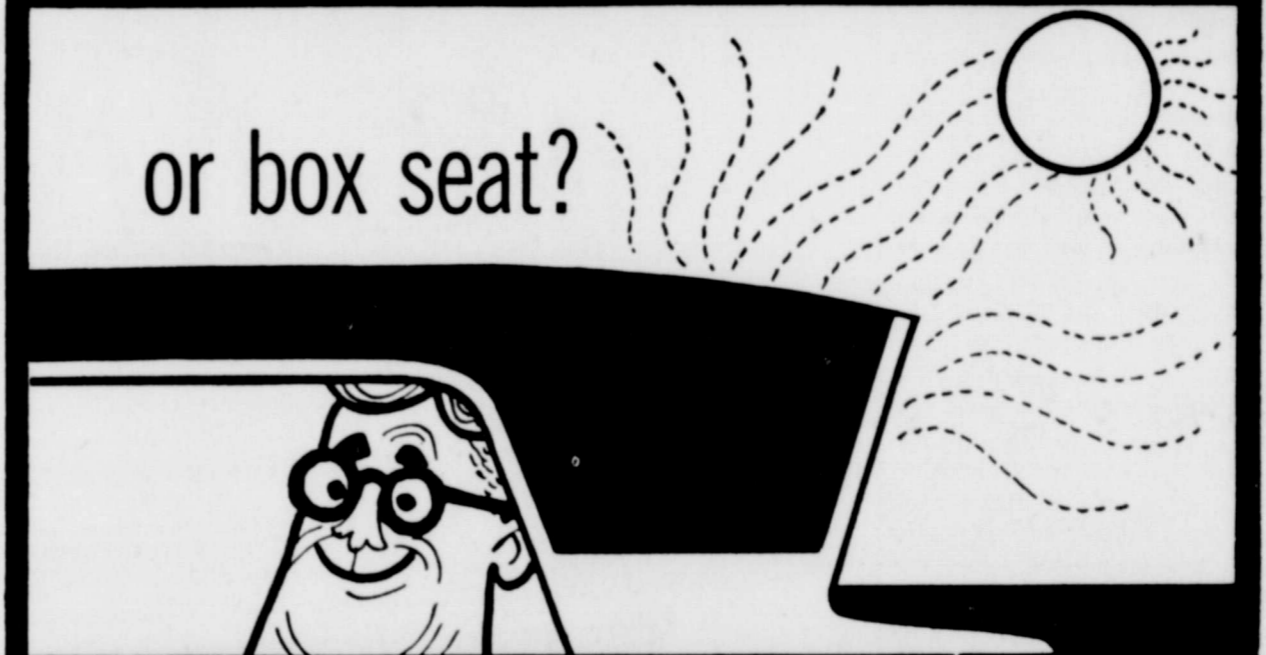

Get a copy of any prescription any doctor elsewhere writes for you. Then when you bring it to us we can fill it for you. This may save you miles and money.

An out of town number or label is not enough. It is to your interest to get a copy of the prescription itself.

Wasps are a common problem this time of year. They build their nests in and around homes—beneath eaves, on porches, behind shutters, in trees and shrubbery. And sooner or later someone gets stung.

Entomologists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture say it's difficult to discourage these insects once they've decided to set up housekeeping. But it can be done with the persistent application of the proper insecticide. Just follow the directions on the label.

Chlordane, dieldrin, and DDT are effective for this purpose. So are most aerosol bombs recommended for ant and roach control. Go after the wasps at night when they are less active and most of them are in their nests. Apply the insecticide directly to the nests.

Or it may be possible to dislodge hornets' and yellowjackets' nests and dispose of them in a sack. But before you go poking around, plug the opening of the nest with absorbent cotton that has been soaked in chloroform or carbon tetrachloride. The fumes will stun the insects and you can work with less danger of being stung.

Remove the nest quickly. Burn or bury it. Or put it into a can containing a few tablespoons of chloroform or carbon tetrachloride and seal the can tightly.

You probably won't be able to get all of the wasps the first time. Any that escape will immediately begin to rebuild their nest near

Early Day Neighbors Meet In Visit at Hale Center

J. R. (Bob) Patterson, on a recent visit to see his brother, Charles, at Heart in Castro County in the Panhandle, stopped at Hale Center to talk over old times with Mrs. Eunice Byrd, the former Eunice Coffee, who was born at Hayrick, 72 years ago about the time the town was moving to Robert Lee.

Bob's father, M. B. Patterson, and family first lived north of Sanco on what is now the Devoll place, remembers drawing water from a well his father dug on Gobler Creek. They used a windlass and five gallon can and had the thirstiest cows he ever saw drink water.

Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. Proverbs 23:22.

Observations

(A Personal Word By The Editor)

One sure sign of a man getting old or something is when he starts giving advice to the young when they haven't asked for it.

But we know there are some boys around here who would like to get themselves ready to live in a country town or out on a ranch place. Here are a few words to them, for whatever it may be worth.

Learn to do everything there is to do with machinery, from the least little gadget around the place to the electric pump—to the tractor or the family car. By the time you are able to hire it done, then you'll know how to hire it done.

Settle down. Locate. Get a toe hold. Make it a foothold, add to it.

Learn concrete, fence building, common ordinary carpentering. Take any job you can get that will teach you these skills. If you don't already have a ranch in the family, you will have to work at whatever there is to do.

But we know men who have been doing about as well just staying in one spot and seeing after a small place and working for an average wage at whatever work there is around as the men who are working at bigger wages and going long distances to do it, and never permanent anywhere.

Well, boys, you might ask, if you know so much, why ain't you rich, and, come to think of it, I've wondered that a time or two myself.

Corvair 700 Club Coupe

The hardest part about parking a Corvair is finding a nickel

That may be a slight overstatement, but such jauntiness comes easily when you're a Corvair owner.

And you can usually back it up—as easily as you can back up a Corvair. You'll find yourself doing that occasionally, if only to adjust the brakes—they're self-adjusting. That's all there is to it, and that's a good example of how delightfully easy Corvair is to own, drive and maintain.

But since we began by talking about driving, let's stick with that awhile. A large factor in the fun of driving a Corvair is the location of its engine in the rear. Why the rear? It gives Corvair extra traction on any road surface. It provides a nearly flat floor for more useable interior space. Best of all, it produces steering so light, so responsive, you wonder why no other American-made car thought of it.

Corvair's engine is also air cooled, we might add, which means there's no anti-freeze or water for you to add. Ever.

All that pleasure from something so practical almost makes you think Corvair is unique among American cars. Which isn't surprising, because it is!
