Clean-Up Week

The clean-up which is set to start next week has already begun in many parts of the city, and sponsoring organizations are hopeful that a thorough job will be done by June 1, date set for hauling off all trash which has been accumulated.

A number of organizations, including the City of Robert Lee, the BCD, the county, El Valle Garden Club and others, are sponsoring the campaign.

Residents of the city are being asked to clean up their premises and any adjacent vacant lots. Everyone is requested to place trash in sacks, boxes or other containers, which will be easy to load. It was pointed out, however, that containers which the owner wishes to keep should not be used, as they will not be returned.

June 1 is the date set for the big hauling job of disposing of all trash which has been stacked up. Free hauling service will be provided to clear all the accumulated debris from the city.

How To Store Winter Clothes

As warm weather arrives, store your winter clothes carefully so they will be in good condition next fall. Store only clean garments. Spots and stains will be harder to remove if they stay on the garment all summer - and moth damage is more likely on soiled clothes, too.

Wash and dry thoroughly all washable garments - don't use starch. Send other soiled garments to the dry cleaner, and call his attention to spots and stains and to any care instruction given on the garments' hang tags.

All the garments should be free of moths. Dry cleaning or washing will kill moths in all stages of growth. Brushing and sunning garments also rids them of moths, as well as moth eggs and larvae (the larvae do the damage to clothes).

For added portection against moths, you may want to spray the clean garments with DDT, methoxychlor, chlordane, Stroband or Perthane before storage - fol- with tissue paper and place them, lowing directions and observing uncrowded, in boxes. If space is available store hangable garment bags on rust-proof hangers. Put sweater and other knitted garments in garment bags or boxes.

Tightly wrapped paper packages, air-tight boxes or chests or garment bags are the best storage places. Cedar chests are old favorites for winter clothing storage, but all garments must be mothfree before they are put into a cedar chest. Cedar oil vapor does kill small moth larvae but not older, larger ones and as a cedar chest gets older, there is less cedar oil vapor.

Other winter garments need the proper storage, too. Furs usually should be cleaned professionionally and stored in fur storage vaults where the temperature is low. Summer heat in home closets tend the dry the skins.

Felt and varn hats should be brushed thoroughly and the head bands should be cleaned with spot remover. Be sure to follow the manufacturer's directions on the remover's label and use it in a well ventilated room.

Stuff the crowns of the hats ventatives to the boxes.

Soil Stewardship Week Being Observed This Week Throughout State Of Texas

Soil Stewardship Week is be- | lenge. ing observed over Texas this week and the Coke County Soil of Texas, do hereby designate the Conservation District is doing its week of May 19-26, 1968, as part to remind citizens of the fact that the soil is the state's most valuable resource and should be used carefully.

The district has ordered inserts 14th day of March, 1968. to go in bulletins of churches over the county, and ministers of all churches have been asked to use them. The ministers also have been encouraged to use the soil stewardship theme in their sermons during the week.

W. E. Jacoby, Coke County conservationist, said this week that directors of the county group want to make all citizens more aware of their responsibility in exercising proper stewardship practices in their use "of all the soil we have."

Governor John Connally has proclaimed May 19-26 as Soil Stewardship Week in Texas. His proclamation follows:

EDITORIAL

Congratulations to the Class of 1968! Shortly you will receive your diplomas - a piece of paper which will represent the successful completion of 12 years of hard work. Hard work is what has brought you to this high point of your lives. There have been many happy hours of association with your fellows, along with some trying hours and perhaps some heartbreak during all this time, but for most of you, the past 12 years have been satisfying and fulfilling.

Quoting from a recent article, this diploma "is a milestone in your life, a base upon which to build. The diploma will extend the privilege to doing good, creative work and offer the rewards of being able to enjoy the fruits of that work."

The author then proceeds to tell what a diploma is NOT: "It is not a ticket to guaranteed success, and it will not protect you from your mistakes and bad judgement."

The world you are entering, we all know, has room for lots of improvement, and offers you unlimited opportunity to put to good use your knowledge, your high spirit of idealism, and your boundless energy

Changes are needed badly.

Please do not forget, however, that the world we live in during this latter 20th century is the product of many centuries of man's study and resourcefulness. Please remember there is lots of good in it, as well as some things we are not proud of.

Whatever your next step, you have a job to do - one that will take much physical, mental and moral effort - if you are to reach your goal. Words of Jules Raynard say, "I only know one truth, work alone creates happiness."

It's true that a few people achieve success in material things with little hard work; but most of this rare group have found that their success is a hollow thing and seldom gives them the satisfaction they want from life. The best success is one worked for and achieved by your own efforts.

Your records in school have proved your ability to attain success by using your capable heads and hands; mix up some elbow grease and use them. Don't fall into the stream of an increasing minority of Americans who want something for nothing.

Cubs Take Honors In Pinewood Derby

Four Coke County Cub Scouts did all right for themselves at the Pinewood Derby Championship meet held last Saturday at Camp Sol Mayer near Menard. The Derby was sponsored by the Tri-Rivers Scout District.

Mark Lee of Bronte won first place: Harvey Wojtek and Jim Craig, both of Robert Lee, took second and third places, respectively; and Mike Dyess of Bronte won fourth place honors.

Accompanying the Cubs to Camp Sol Mayer were James Lee of Bronte and Jim Herford of Robert Lee.

Also held Saturday was a leadership training course.

Others from Robert Lee who attended were Mrs. John L. Heck and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Sirus.

Mr. and Mrs. Waddy Fowler of Albuquerque, N. M., visited a few days last week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fowler, and other relatives.

Mrs. John Beaty and Mrs. Delois Bowden of Gladewater visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beaty and Lane. Mmes. Beaty and Bowden are the mother and sister of Mr.

The annual Roundup for West Texas Boys Ranch opened May according to officials at the 1968 Roundup chairman, Roddy Peeples, reminds farmers and ranchers throughout West Texas that their contributions continue to furnish a substantial portion of the ranch5s budget.

From a small beginning 21 years ago, the ranch has grown to the point that it is now providing a home for 86 boys from West Texas. These youngsters. . from 8 to 15 years old... are the victims of tragic family circumstances, broken homes, neglect, and poverty. "West Texas Boys Ranch is their only hope," said Peeples.

Already 49 Wagon Bosses have agreed to help in contacting ranchers for their support. These men are citizens well-known in their local communities, and serve as leaders in those communities in soliciting support from their neighbors in the form of livestock.

Many people are being contacted direct by mail this year, said Peeples, but the names of many more are just not available. "Anyone who wants to help, give the hard-luck boy at West Texas Boys Ranch a break in life... to help him become a productive citizen of our society...is asked to contact the Wagon Boss nearest him, or the ranch office in WE SPECIAL ORDER on any San Angelo, or his nearest auction type merchandise, $50 and up market if he is about to market with a 10% DISCOUNT. White livestock," Peeples said. Auction operators in West Texas have helped the ranch for years by selling livestock donated by ranchers and forwarding the proceeds of the sale to the ranch.

> A visit to WTBR, located west of San Angelo, near Tankersley, is convincing proof of the worthiness of this appeal, said Peeples. The public has an open invitation to visit at any time.

> Among the Wagon Bosses who have offered their help are Clarence Arrott, Bronte, and Raymond McCutchen, Robert Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Blaylock, Barbara and Bobby Blaylock were hosts to a group of college students Friday for a barbecue supper. Games were played following the meal. Attending from Robert Lee were Larry Brock, Buddy Vosburg, Lynn White, Melinda Percifull and twelve students of Angelo State College.

True enough part of this debt has been, and is presently, for the defense of our Country. A part of it is for the building of institutions, for the advantage of future generations, for the preservation of our natural resources, and for scientific developments coming out of Government research, which makes life easier.

THE FACT MEANS, HOW EVER, THAT A PART of this debt has bought nothing which we can pass on to those who will soon have the responsibility of building a stronger society. At this very moment the internal security of our Nation is being threatened by the greatest wave of lawlessness and criminal activity in the 192 years of our existence as an independent Nation. Our very form of Government that is a free enterprise structure is threatened by the insistence of conformity in th individual which fosters sterility of thought and behaviour; a loss of a sense of personal responsibility, which has F. more years to live, so I decided I would go all around the world and see my friends from high school just once more.

Before I left, I went up to the school where I found Lonnie Bloodworth who was and probably still is, walking down the aisle for graduation. On the way to the airport, I stopped by the local laboratories and talked to Jackie Counts who was perfecting LSD.

At the airport I saw presidential candidate, Ross Adkins, holding an audience with his captivating smile. By the way, his slogan was "Never settle for less for Pres., we want Ross for Boss". On the plane, all of a sudden, the door to the pilot's cabin burst open and the pilot came running out. He was being chased by the stewardess, Dianne Baker. As we were still in the air I happened to look out the window, and saw Patty down at the creek washing out Big Rick's and Little Rick's diapers. Also on the way, I happened to notice, as we passed over Kansas, Mary Beth Dodson's wheatfields and many grain elevators. The plane finally landed in New York and there I saw Jimmy Millican, who had recently given up being the leader of Robert Lee's Bell's Angels to be head artist for Hugh Hefner, a prominent man in the magazine world.

I changed planes and went to London where I happened to see two more of my friends, Jeannie Hatch and Ronnie Devoll, who are posing as professional tennis champions. At the moment they were spying on Donnie, who being such a problem child, is now causing everyone problems.

From there I went to Paris where through special travel agency, I stayed in a large French castle. Upon arriving I discovered it was a harem owned by Jeffrev McCabe. After a restful night I flew to Italy where I saw Danny Smith. He is the official wine taster in Venice. My next stop was in Moscow where I had the honor to hear the Russian Symphony Orchestra. The star attraction was Lloyd Cones who played a bass horn solo, and directed the orchestra at the same time. Also I attended the Russian Ballet where I saw Linda Mc-Daniel as the lead dancer in Swan Lake. My next stop was to be Viet Nam but General Ed White declared Viet Nam off limits. He seems to feel that we might win the war a little easier without a bunch of American tourists over

So I decided to go on to Hawaii. For entertainment I attended a night club with a Far East setting. When the floor show began I was surprised to see Kathy Percifull, Kathy Service and Frances Molinar as belly dancers.

The next day I flew back to the mainland United States. The first thing I saw was a big golf course

BURKBURNETT SERVICES HELD FOR MR. WHEELER

Funeral services were held for Archie G. Wheeler, 52, Friday at Burkburnett. Mr. Wheeler, an aircraft mechanic at Sheppard AFB, died last Tuesday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

He was born June 23, 1915, in Brown County. He was married to the former Lura Lowrance of Robert Lee.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Gayle, of the home; three brothers and four sisters.

Firemen Ask Help Of RL Citizens

Robert Lee firemen are asking for some help from the public in order to do their job better - a job which they do free of charge as a public service.

The main thing the firemen need help on is in locating fires when an alarm is turned in. Positive identification of the site of a blaze is of extreme importance, the firemen say.
